'provided by the said recited Act, that all Sums of Money received for Licence Duties and Rates, and 'for Forfeitures and Penalties, for each such District, should be paid over to and received by such Trea- 'surer, and applied to the Purposes of such District, under the Provisions of the said Act, and that such 'Treasurer should pay such Sums of Money as should be required for the Purposes of the District from 'Time to Time, upon a Draft signed by the Chairman at any General Meeting of the Board of Con- 'servators, and by Two other Conservators: And whereas by reason of the large Extent of some of the 'Districts formed under the Provisions of the said Act it is expedient, for the better Administration 'thereof, to make further Provisions:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Conservators of Fisheries assembled at any General Meeting for any District under the Provisions of the said Act, if they shall think fit so to do, to make an Order under their Hands and Seals authorizing the Conservators of any Electoral Division or Divisions to hold Meetings within the Division or Divisions for which they may have been elected, and to appoint a Bank to be Treasurer, and to appoint a Clerk, Inspector, and Water Bailiffs to act for such Division or Divisions, with reasonable Salaries: Provided always, that the fixing and duly publishing Notice of the Times and Places for the Meetings of Conservators in such Electoral Divisions, and the Appointment of a Bank to act as Treasurer, and the Appointments of Clerks, Inspectors, and Water Bailiffs, as herein provided, pursuant to such Order, shall be subject to the same Provisions and Regulations as are provided and required by the said recited Act to be observed and done by Boards of Conservators assembled at General District Meetings, with respect to the Premises; and that after any such Order shall have been made the holding of such Meetings and such Appointments shall be good and valid in Law, and it shall and may be lawful for the Conservators assembled at any General District Meeting as aforesaid to apply and appropriate any Portion of the Money received for Licence Duties and Rates, and for Forfeitures and Penalties, for any District, as they shall consider expedient, to and for the Purposes of any such Electoral Division or Divisions, and cause the same to be lodged to the Credit of the Conservators for such Electoral Division or Divisions in the Bank which such Conservators shall as herein provided appoint to act as Treasurer, and such Treasurer shall pay such Sums of Money as shall be required for the Purposes of such Electoral Division or Divisions, from Time to Time, upon a Draft or Order signed by the Chairman at any Meeting of such Conservators for such Electoral Division or Divisions, and by Two other such Conservators: Provided always, that such Conservators acting for any Electoral Division or Divisions as herein provided shall furnish such Accounts of the Disbursements of such Money as may be lodged to their Credit in the Manner aforesaid as the Conservators for any District making such Order as aforesaid shall from Time to Time require.

Existing Fishery Districts, &c. may be altered from Time to Time by the Commissioners.

VI. 'And whereas the Commissioners appointed under the said recited Acts respectively for the 'Execution of the same, have, for the Purpose of regulating the Use of certain Engines, and generally for 'the Purposes of the said recited Acts, made sundry Divisions and Subdivisions of Fishery Districts, and 'have duly published the same respectively, and Boards of Conservators have been elected for such 'Districts respectively, which said Divisions and Subdivisions respectively it may be desirable to revise 'and alter from Time to Time for the Purposes of the said recited Act and of this Act:' Be it therefore enacted, That the said Commissioners for the Execution of the said recited Acts may for the Purposes aforesaid, upon the written Application of and signed by at least One Third Part in Number of the Board of Conservators for any Fishery District, whether now subsisting or which may have been altered, subdivided, united, or made by the said Commissioners under the Authority of this Act, alter or subdivide such District or any Electoral Division thereof, and may fix other Boundaries for the same, or unite any Two or more Electoral Divisions of One District, or make any new or additional or substituted Electoral Division in any District, and to determine the Number of Conservators to be elected for each such Electoral Division: Provided always, that every such Alteration or Subdivision, Union, or Addition, or Substitution shall be duly published and described, with the Boundaries of the same, in such Manner as is in and by an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the Protection and Improvement of the Salmon, Trout, and other Inland Fisheries of Ireland, required to be done in the Case of Divisions and Subdivisions of Fishery Districts made under that Act.

11 & 12 Vict. c. 92.

All Fisheries rated under Poor Law Valuation to pay the same Rate, in addition to Licence Duty, as Several Fisheries.

VII. 'And whereas by the said recited Act of the Twelfth Year of the Queen it is provided, that in 'the Case of certain fixed and established Fisheries which are designated Several Fisheries the same are 'liable, in addition to the Licence Duty provided by the said Act to be paid for the Engines used in 'fishing such Fishery, to such Sum as an annual Rate as shall be equal to the Amount of the Difference 'between the Sums paid by such respective Persons for such Licence Duty or Duties as aforesaid and the 'annual Sum of Ten per Cent. upon the Poor Law Valuation of such Fishery, subject to such Alteration 'of such Per-centage as may from Time to Time be made by the Board of Conservators of the District 'under the Provisions of the said Act: And whereas it is expedient that the said Liability should be 'extended to all productive Fisheries which may be rated for the Relief of the Poor at any Time:' Be it therefore enacted, That all Salmon, Trout, and Eel Fisheries whatsoever so rated for the Relief of the Poor, whether possessed as Several Fisheries, as so designated in an Act of the Sixth Year of Her present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to regulate the Irish Fisheries, or this Act, or otherwise, shall be liable to the same annual Sum or Rate as aforesaid on the Poor Law Valuation as those Fisheries designated Several Fisheries: Provided always, that such rating shall not confer a Right or Title to any such Fisheries as Several Fisheries, or any other Right or Title which the Persons possessing them would not have possessed if this Act had not passed: Provided also, that such Rate shall be recoverable in like Manner as the same Rate on Several Fisheries.

5 & 6 Vict. c. 106.

District Funds to be applied by the Conservators elected for the Year.

VIII. And be it enacted, That where any Monies shall be received by the Treasurer of any District in respect of Licence Duties or Rates for the Period or Term in which the then next Election of Conservators is to take place, such Monies shall, until such Election, be carefully retained by such Treasurer, and shall after such Election be paid over by him to or to the Order of the new Board of Conservators, to be applied by them according to the Provisions of the said recited Acts and of this Act.

Appeal against Amount of Licence Duty.

IX. And be it enacted, That any Party who shall conceive himself or any other Person to be unduly or unequally or insufficiently charged by any such Board of Conservators with any Licence Duty as aforesaid, may present his Appeal therefrom, either to the Assistant Barrister for the District or to the going Judges of Assizes at the then or then next Assizes holden for the County or Jurisdiction wherein his Fishery District is situate; and such Assistant Barrister or Judges, as the Case may be, shall hear and examine into such Appeal, and adjudicate thereon, and such their Adjudication shall be final: Provided always, that until and unless any Charge shall be reduced or disallowed by such Assistant Barrister or Judges (as the Case may be), the Party charged shall be deemed liable to the full Amount of Licence Duty wherewith he shall have so been charged: Provided also, that if such Charge shall be so reduced or disallowed as aforesaid such Reduction or Disallowance (as the Case may be) shall relate back to the Time of making such Charge, and shall operate either by way of further Charge or of Discharge in full, or pro tanto, as the Case may be; and if it shall operate by way of Discharge as aforesaid, and the Party so discharged shall have theretofore actually paid the Amount of such Charge, he shall immediately upon such Adjudication be entitled to recover back from the said Board of Conservators for such District the full Amount of such Charge, or (as the Case may be) the Excess beyond or over the true Amount of such Charge, in conformity with the said Adjudication: Provided always, that due Notice of the Party's Intention to present such Appeal shall be by him served upon the said Board of Conservators within Ten Days after the making of such Charge: Provided always, that no such Appeal shall lie in respect of any Licence Duties specified in the Schedule annexed to the said Act of the Twelfth Year of Her present Majesty.

Provisions in case of Vacancies in the Board of Conservators.

X. And be it enacted, That in case any Conservator shall die, or become incapable to act, during the Period for which he is elected, the other Conservators elected for the same District (notwithstanding such his Death or Incapacity, and whether any Person shall or not be elected in his Room,) shall immediately summon another General Meeting of the Persons in his Electoral Division so entitled to meet as in the said Act of the Twelfth Year of Her present Majesty is mentioned, for the Purpose of electing a Conservator in his Room, and such Meeting shall be so summoned and held as is therein provided with respect to the annual General Meetings, and the Person elected at such Meeting shall be and continue and act as a Conservator for such Electoral Division and District during the Residue of the said Period: Provided nevertheless, that in the meantime and until such new Election the said other Conservators shall act for such District in all respects as they might have done but for such Death or Incapacity.

Justices of the Peace being Conservators not disqualified from sitting at the Trial of Offences against this Act.

XI. And be it enacted, That no elected or other Conservator, being also a Justice of the Peace for the County or Counties or other Jurisdiction within which his District or Electoral Division is situate, shall be thereby disqualified to sit and adjudicate as such Justice of the Peace, or at any Quarter or Petty Sessions within the same, upon any Complaint made or Prosecution instituted by or on the Behalf of the Board of Conservators of which he is such Member, in respect of any Offence against this Act or the said recited Acts: Provided always, that no elected or other Conservator shall be qualified, so long as he holds such Office, to receive or hold any Office or Appointment under this Act to which any Salary, Allowance, or Remuneration is incident.

Penalty for fishing without Licence increased.

XII. And be it enacted, That any Persons using or erecting any Engine, Net, Instrument, or Device whatsoever, without being duly licensed under the Provisions of the before-recited Act of the Twelfth Year of Her Majesty, or this Act, shall be liable to pay such Penalty, not less than double nor more than treble the Licence Duty which the Engine, Net, Instrument, or Device he shall have been so using or erecting would for the Time being be subject to under the said Act or this Act, in addition to the Forfeiture of the Engine so used, anything in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Elections of Conservators to be triennial instead of annual. 11 & 12 Vict. c. 92.

XIII. 'And whereas it is enacted by the before-recited Act of the Twelfth Year of Her present 'Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for the Protection and Improvement of the Salmon, Trout, and 'other Inland Fisheries of Ireland, that for the several Districts, as fixed by the Commissioners, Con- 'servators shall be annually elected and appointed as therein provided; and it is expedient that such 'Elections should not too frequently take place:' Be it therefore enacted, That after the passing of this Act all Conservators appointed at the next Elections for Conservators, and at all future Elections, shall continue to hold Office for Three Years from the Time of their Elections, anything in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that if any Board of Conservators shall neglect to give Notice and appoint Times and Places for holding Meetings for Elections, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to appoint such Times and Places for such Purpose; and in such Cases the Election of Conservators shall be as good and valid in Law as if the Meeting had been called by the Conservators.

Commissioners may adjudicate on illegal Fishing, and order Weirs to be abated. 9 & 10 Vict. c. 114.

XIV. And be it enacted, That when any Party complaining of the erecting, maintaining, or of using any Weir, fixed Net or Engine, shall exhibit to the said Commissioners his Complaint in that Behalf, in Writing signed by him, and setting forth such Particulars of his said Complaint as are in the like Case required by an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the further Amendment of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of Her present Majesty for regulating the Irish Fisheries, the said Commissioners shall thereupon summon before them the Party or

Parties

Parties (if he or they can be found) erecting, maintaining, or using such Weir, fixed Net, or Engine, or if he or they are absent or dead, or under Incapacity, then the Occupier or Occupiers (if any) of the Land whereon the same is so erected, or the Owner or Owners of such Land, if the same shall not be occupied, to attend at some convenient Place within the County or Jurisdiction in which or on the Shore or Boundary of which any such Weir, fixed Net, or Engine, or any Part thereof, may be so erected, constructed, maintained, or used; and the said Commissioners shall accordingly, at the Time and Place mentioned in any such Summons, upon Proof of the personal Service of such Summons, or upon Proof of such Summons having been left at or on board the Vessel or at or posted on the known Residence of the Party or Parties so summoned, proceed to hear all such pertinent Evidence as may be adduced before them, whether at the Instance of them the said Commissioners, or on behalf of the Party (if any) making such Complaint, or on behalf of the Party or Parties summoned; and if, after hearing all such Evidence, the said Commissioners shall so think fit and right, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners (whether the Party or Parties so summoned shall have appeared or not at such Hearing) to make an Order or Decision in Writing under their Hands and Seals, declaring that such Weir, fixed Net or Engine, or any Part thereof, is a Nuisance, and shall be abated and removed; and the said Commissioners shall thereupon, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, direct or authorize some proper Person to abate and remove such Weir, fixed Net or Engine, or Part thereof, at the Expense of the Party or Parties summoned, or such of them as shall appear to the said Commissioners to have erected, constructed, maintained, or used the same, or suffered such Erection, Construction, Maintenance, or User, or any of them, and thereupon the same shall be abated and removed accordingly; and, subject to the Appeal herein-after provided for, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to order and direct that the Materials of any such Weir, fixed Net or Engine, or any Part thereof, be forfeited and sold, and the Produce arising from such Sale applied in such Manner as is in the said recited Acts provided in Cases of illegal Nets used or legal Nets illegally used for fishing.

Appeals from such Adjudications.

XV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Person, whether Complainant or Defendant, shall think himself aggrieved by any such Order or Decision of the said Commissioners, such Person may appeal to the next going Judges of Assize at the Assizes to be held for the County, County of the City or Town, in which or on the Shore or Boundary of which any such Weir, fixed Net or Engine, shall have been so erected, constructed, maintained, or used, provided such Assizes shall be held at any Time not less than Thirty-one Days after the Time the said Commissioners shall have made any such Order or Decision; and in case such Assizes shall be held within Thirty-one Days from the Time of such Order or Decision, such Appeal shall be made to the Assizes to be held in and for such County, County of a City or Town, next after such first Assizes; and that no such Appeal shall be allowed, received, heard, or determined unless the Party appealing shall, within Twenty-one Days from the Date of such Order or Decision, give Notice in Writing to the said Commissioners of his Intention to try such Appeal, and decide whether the Party against whom such Complaint was made had a Right to erect, construct, maintain, or use such Weir, fixed Net or Engine, or any Part thereof, or suffer such Erection, Construction, Maintenance, or User, at the Time or in the Place where the same may have been so erected, constructed, maintained, or used: Provided always, that in case of such Appeal being made against any Order or Decision for the Abatement or Removal of any such Weir, fixed Net or Engine, or Part thereof, as aforesaid, and Notice given as aforesaid, the Materials of such Weir, fixed Net or Engine, or Part thereof, as the Case may be, shall be deposited in the Custody of such Officer or Men of Coast Guard or Constabulary, or with such other Party or Person as the said Commissioners may direct or appoint for the Purpose, there to remain and be kept until the Matter of such Appeal shall be decided as aforesaid, or until the Time for prosecuting the same shall have expired; and if such Decision shall be in favour of the Appellant, such Materials shall thereupon be returned, and the Amount of his Expenses (if any) incident to such Abatement, Removal, and Deposit as aforesaid respectively repaid to such Appellant.

Penalties for erecting or using Weirs contrary to this Act.

XVI. And be it enacted, That no Person or Persons, other than the Person or Persons entitled to exercise such Right as in the said recited Acts or this Act mentioned, shall place, erect, maintain, or use any Weir, fixed Net, or other Contrivance for placing or erecting Nets or taking of Fish on any Parts of the Coast of Ireland, or on the Bank or Shore of any River or Estuary wherein the Tide ebbs and flows, or in the Sea or Tideway adjoining such Coast, Bank, or Shore; and that if any Person or Persons, other than the Person or Persons so entitled as aforesaid, shall place, erect, maintain, or use any Weir, fixed Net, or other such Contrivance as aforesaid, contrary to this Act, he or they, being thereof convicted, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds nor less than One Pound, together with the further Penalty of Ten Shillings for every Fish taken or destroyed by him or them by means of such Weir, fixed Net or Contrivance; and the said Weir, fixed Net or Contrivance shall also be forfeited, and ordered to be abated or removed at the Expense of such Offenders or Offender, by the Commissioners or (as the Case may be) by the Magistrate before whom such Conviction shall be had, and the Materials thereof shall be disposed of in such Manner as is by the said recited Acts or any of them directed with respect to illegal Nets used or legal Nets illegally used for fishing.

Penalties for erecting or re-erecting Weirs after Conviction.

XVII. And be it enacted, That if, after any Order or Decision of any Judge of Assize heretofore made for abating or removing any Weir, fixed Net, or Engine, or any Part thereof, or after any Order or Decision of any Court whatsoever, which shall at any Time hereafter be made, for abating or removing any Weir, fixed Net, or Engine, or any Part thereof, unless and until the same shall be reversed on Appeal, any Person shall erect, re-erect, use, or fish with any Weir, fixed Net or Engine, or any Part thereof, in or adjoining or contiguous to any Place where it may have been or shall be decided by any such Court that any such Weir, fixed Net or Engine, or any Part thereof, should be abated and removed, or if any Person shall erect, re-erect, use, or fish with any Weir, fixed Net or Engine, or any Part thereof, contrary to Law, and after Conviction of any Person for erecting, using, or fishing with any Weir, fixed Net or Engine, or any Part thereof, in the same Place, or in, adjoining, or contiguous to the same Place, or for erecting, using, or fishing with any Weir, fixed Net or Engine, or any Part thereof, of the same Description or used for the same Purposes, then and in every such Case the said Commissioners, or any Two Justices of the Peace for the County or other Jurisdiction wherein the said Weir, fixed Net or Contrivance, or any Part thereof, shall have been so erected or re-erected, or used or fished with, shall, by Warrant under their Hand and Seal, from Time to Time, and so often as any such Weir, fixed Net or Engine, or any Part thereof, as aforesaid, shall be so erected, re-erected, used, or fished with, abate and remove the same, at the Expense of the Party or Parties erecting, re-erecting, using, or fishing with the same, or of the Owners or Occupiers of the Soil whereon such Weir, fixed Net or Engine, or any Part thereof, shall be so erected, re-erected, used, or fished with, (if such Owners or Occupiers shall appear to have permitted or suffered such Erection, Re-erection, Use, or Fishing,) and further, that the Materials of every such Weir, fixed Net or Engine, or such Part thereof as aforesaid, shall be forfeited and sold or otherwise disposed of as the said Commissioners or Justices shall direct; and that the said Party or Parties and Owner shall (independently of all other Forfeitures and Penalties to which under this Act or the said recited Acts he or they may be liable) forfeit and pay for every such Offence any Sum not less than Twenty Pounds, and also any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds nor less than Two Pounds for every Day during which such Weir, fixed Net or Engine, or such Part thereof, shall continue to be so erected, re-erected, used, or fished with as aforesaid; and that the Produce of such Sale and all such Forfeitures and Penalties respectively shall be disposed of and applied in such Manner as is in and by the said recited Acts directed in regard of illegal Nets or Nets illegally used for fishing.

Not to prevent, in certain Cases, the Erection of Weirs in or adjoining to the Place from which Weirs had been abated and removed by Order of Court.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where any such Order or Decision of any such Court as aforesaid hath been or shall hereafter be made for abating or removing any Weir, fixed Net or Engine, or any Part thereof, merely by reason of its having been erected, used, or fished with on the Soil and without the Permission of the Person being or claiming to be the lawful Owner thereof, and for no other Reason, such Person shall not be thereby estopped or prevented from afterwards erecting, re-erecting, using, or fishing with (subject, nevertheless, to the other Provisions of this Act and the said recited Acts) any such Weir, fixed Net or Engine, or any Part thereof, as aforesaid, or any other Weir, fixed Net or Engine, or any Part thereof, in or adjoining or contiguous to the Place wherein it may have been or shall be decided by such Court as aforesaid that the said first-named Weir, fixed Net or Engine, or such Part thereof, as aforesaid, should be abated and removed: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to give to or confer upon any such Person so being or claiming as aforesaid any new or better Title to the said Soil, or any new or better Right to erect, use, or fish with any Weir, fixed Net or Engine, or any Part thereof, in or adjoining to or contiguous to such Place as aforesaid, but that he shall in other respects remain and be subject to the Provisions of the said recited Acts and of this Act in that Behalf set forth.

Nothing to affect or impair Jurisdiction of Admiralty and other Courts.

XIX. And be it enacted, That nothing in the said recited Acts or this Act contained shall take away or in any Manner lessen or impair the Powers of Her Majesty's High Court of Admiralty, or any other Court or Jurisdiction, in relation to the Removal or Abatement of Nuisances accruing or occasioned to Navigation, Fishery, or the Passage of Fish, by the placing or maintaining or using of Weirs, fixed Nets, or other Contrivances.

Metes and Bounds not necessary to be set out on Records.

XX. And be it enacted, That in any Action or Prosecution for or in respect of any of the Trespasses or Nuisances aforesaid it shall not be necessary to set forth in the Declaration or Indictment the Metes or Bounds of the Place in which the Trespass or Nuisance complained of hath been committed, and that it shall be sufficient to state generally that the same was committed within the District in which the Fishery in question shall happen to be situate.

Further Powers for defining Mouths of Rivers.

XXI. 'And whereas Provisions have been made by the said recited Acts for defining the Mouths of 'Rivers "at their Entrance into the Sea;" and for the better Protection and Regulation of the Fisheries 'it may in many Cases be expedient to prohibit the Use of Nets within certain Distances of the Mouths 'of tributary Rivers at their Entrance into other Rivers, Estuaries, Roadsteads, or Bays:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to define the Mouths of such Rivers, where they shall think fit so to do, subject to the Provisions of the said recited Acts; and when the Mouth of any such River shall have been defined as herein provided, the same Regulations with respect to using, placing, or erecting Nets shall be observed, and may be enforced in like Manner as provided by the said recited Acts and this Act, and any Person offending shall suffer the same Forfeitures and Penalties as therein provided.

Penalties for Neglect to make or maintain the statutory Free Gap or Queen's Share.

XXII. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, if any Person entitled to or possessed of the Fishing of any River or Branch thereof, or any Weir, Dam, or Dyke for the taking of Fish, and not being by Prescription or other legal Title exempted from the Obligation of having, making, or maintaining any Free Gap or Queen's Share therein, shall omit or neglect to have, make, or maintain such Free Gap or Queen's Share of the Dimensions or in the Place or to construct it in the Manner now by Law required, or shall reduce the Width of any existing Free Gap or Queen's Share, or substitute a Free Gap or Queen's Share of less Width in lieu thereof, the said Commissioners may cause such Alterations to be made, and recover the Expenses thereof against such Person, and the Person so offending shall also forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds nor less than Ten Pounds, and shall also for every Fish taken by means of such Weir, Dam, or Dyke, so long as such Free Gap or Queen's Share shall not be left, made, or maintained of the Dimensions or in the Place or shall not be constructed in the Manner now by Law required, or shall be reduced in Width, or shall remain of less Width than that in lieu of which it is substituted, forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Shillings, and shall also, for every Day during which such Free Gap or Queen's Share shall not be left, made, or maintained of the Dimensions or in the Place or shall not be constructed in the Manner now by Law required, or shall be reduced in Width, or shall remain of less Width than that in lieu of which it is substituted, forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds nor less than Five Pounds; and such Expenses and Forfeitures shall be recovered in like Manner as is herein-after provided with respect to Penalties for Offences against the said recited Acts and this Act: Provided always, that the Person who is lawfully entitled to or lawfully possessed of any Weir, Dam, or Dyke, and who shall be not liable or compellable at Law to have, make, widen, or maintain, or to cause to be left, made, widened, or maintained, a Free Gap or Queen's Share therein, shall not be liable to any Penalty for not leaving, making, widening, or maintaining (as the Case may be) such Free Gap or Queen's Share, until his Claim (if any) for Compensation for the Loss or Damage he may sustain by leaving, making, widening, or maintaining such Free Gap or Queen's Share be settled and disposed of, and the Amount of Compensation (if any) paid, tendered, or lodged, according to the Provisions herein-after contained.

Commissioners may require Owners of Weirs in certain Cases to make Gaps therein, and furnish a Claim for Compensation.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That where the Owner of any such Weir, Dam, or Dyke as aforesaid is not liable or compellable at Law to leave, make, widen, or maintain, or to cause to be left, made, widened, or maintained, any such Free Gap or Queen's Share in such Weir, Dam, or Dyke as aforesaid, it shall nevertheless be lawful for the said Commissioners, upon the Application of any Person or Persons who is or are interested in the Fisheries in or Lands adjoining to the River in which any such Weir, Dam, or Dyke shall be situate, or who is or are licensed to fish or fishing within the District or Districts whereunto such River belongs, and who shall deposit or secure, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, the Amount of the Cost of all Proceedings necessary to be taken under the Provisions herein contained (if the said Commissioners shall require such Deposit or Security), to serve a Notice on the Owner, and also the Lessee or Occupier, if any, of such Weir, or at his or their known Place of Abode, and thereby to require the Owner of such Weir, Dam, or Dyke to make, widen, or open a Free Gap or Queen's Share therein of such Construction and Dimensions as the said Commissioners shall deem fit and shall name in such Notice, not varying from the Construction nor exceeding the Dimensions specified in an Act passed in the Sixth Year of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to regulate the Irish Fisheries, and to furnish his Claim for Compensation, or his Objections, if any, to making, widening, or opening such Free Gap or Queen's Share, within a Time to be specified in such Notice, not less than Thirty Days from the Service thereof on the Owner, Lessee, or Occupier of such Weir.

5 & 6 Vict. c. 106.

Satisfaction may be made and accepted.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That every Owner of any such Weir, Dam, or Dyke, or of any Share, Estate, or Interest therein, may accept and receive as Satisfaction and Recompence for the Value of any Injury or Damage that shall be sustained on account of making, widening, or opening such Free Gap or Queen's Share, or in anywise relating thereto, such Sum of Money in respect thereof as shall be agreed upon between him respectively and the said Commissioners; and in case the said Commissioners and the said Party interested in such Weir, Dam, or Dyke, or sustaining such Injury or Damage, cannot or do not agree as to the Amount or Value of such Satisfaction, Recompence, or Compensation, the same respectively shall be ascertained and settled in manner herein-after directed.

Commissioners empowered to assess the Value in case of Dispute.

XXV. And be it enacted, That if any such Owner of such Weir, Dam, or Dyke as aforesaid shall neglect or refuse to treat or shall not agree with the said Commissioners, or by reason of Absence or Disability cannot agree, or cannot be found or known, or shall not prove to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners a clear Title to receive such Recompence or Compensation as aforesaid, or in case any such Owner of a Weir, Dam, or Dyke wherein such Gap is to be made, widened, or opened as aforesaid shall not accept such Satisfaction or Recompence for the same as shall be offered by the said Commissioners, for the Space of Thirty Days after Notice in Writing given to the known Agent or Attorney of such Owner as aforesaid, or left at his Place of Abode, or at the House of the Lessee of such Weir wherein such Gap is intended to be made, widened, or opened as aforesaid, or in case the Parties interested in the Fisheries in or Lands adjoining the River in which such Weir, Dam, or Dyke shall be situate, or Fishing within the District or Districts whereunto such River belongs, shall not agree with the Owner of such Weir, Dam, or Dyke, or shall not subscribe and deposit the Amount which the said Commissioners may agree upon with the said Owner of such Weir, Dam, or Dyke as the Amount of Compensation to be paid for making, widening, or opening such Free Gap or Queen's Share, or shall not agree upon the Proportions in which such Amount of Compensation is to be paid by the said several Parties respectively, then in every such Case the said Commissioners are hereby empowered, at a Time and Place to be specified in a Notice to be served as aforesaid, and published once in the Dublin Gazette, and once in each Week for Three successive Weeks in a Newspaper circulating in the County or Counties in which such Weir, Dam, or Dyke shall be situate, and through or by which such River shall flow, to inquire and examine and assess and award the Sum of Money to be paid for such Recompence or Compensation as aforesaid, and ascertain and settle in what Proportions the Parties interested in the Fisheries in or the Lands adjoining such River, or Fishing within the District or Districts whereunto such River belongs, belongs, should contribute to pay the Sum so awarded, and the said Commissioners shall award such Recompence so to be assessed; and the said Commissioners shall, in such Award name or describe the Persons (if known to the said Commissioners) to whom respectively the Sum mentioned therein shall be paid, and in what Proportions the same shall be paid to and among such Persons where more than One, and the Weir, naming or describing the same, in respect of which such Sum has been so awarded, and the Position and Breadth of such Free Gap or Queen's Share, and the Names or other Descriptions of the Parties who are to contribute the Amount awarded for such Recompence or Compensation as aforesaid, and the Proportion to be contributed by each respectively; and the said Commissioners shall notify and appoint a Time and Place for holding a Meeting for the Confirmation of their said Award, and shall attend at such Time and Place, and at such Meeting, or at some Adjournment thereof, proceed to consider each Case, and hear all Objections which may be made thereto by any Person whatsoever, and receive all such Evidence as they shall find pertinent and proper, and amend or confirm and settle each such Award accordingly; and such Award shall be conclusive and binding upon the Queen's most Excellent Majesty and all other Persons interested, except in the Case and subject to the Provisions herein-after contained: Provided always, that the Person who shall under the Provision before mentioned contribute in respect of Lands to such Compensation shall be the Owner in Fee Simple or Fee Tail, or for a Lease of Lives renewable for ever, or for Life with Remainder to his Issue, or for ever, or for a Term of which not less than One hundred Years are unexpired, and from whom the Fishery or Right of fishing shall not have been reserved.

Any Person dissatisfied with the Adjudication of the Commissioners may appeal to a Judge at the Assizes.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That if the Owner or other Person claiming Compensation on account of such making, widening, or opening of the Free Gap or Queen's Share in such Weir, Dam, or Dyke, or any Person liable to pay such Compensation as aforesaid, shall be dissatisfied with the Award of the said Commissioners, it shall be lawful for the Person so dissatisfied to appeal to the Judges of Assize, or One of them, at the Assizes which shall be held next after any such Award shall have been made and settled as aforesaid for the County wherein such Weir, Dam, or Dyke shall be wholly or in part situate, (provided the same shall not be held sooner than Thirty-one Days after the making of such Award,) the Party appealing, if there be sufficient Time after the making of such Award, having first given to the said Commissioners Twenty-one Days Notice at least of his Intention of bringing such Appeal, and of the Matter thereof; and if there shall not be Thirty-one Days between the making of such Award and the Day appointed for holding such Assizes, then such Appeal may be tried at the Assizes which shall be holden for such County next after the Expiration of Thirty-one Days from the making such Award, and the like Notice thereof shall be given; and any Judge at such Assizes or any Adjournment thereof, upon due Proof of such Notice having been given, is hereby empowered and required to hear and finally determine the Matter of such Appeal, in such and the same Manner as he is at present empowered to do in Cases of Appeal from Decrees on Civil Bills made by Assistant Barristers at Quarter Sessions in Ireland: Provided always, that if such Dam, Weir, or Dyke shall be situate in more than One County or between Two or more Counties, such Appeal shall be tried at the Assizes to be held in the County the Assize Town of which shall be nearest to such Weir, Dam, or Dyke; and provided also, that if no Notice of Appeal shall be served on the said Commissioners within Twenty-one Days next after their Award shall be made the same shall be final, binding, and conclusive upon all Persons and to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

If no Appeal within 21 Days Award final.

Judgments to be final.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That in all such Cases of Appeal as aforesaid the said Judges of Assize, or One of them, shall give Judgment in respect to the Matter of such Appeal, and such Judgment shall be final, binding, and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes against all Parties, Corporations, and Persons.

Awards and Judgments to be recorded.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That such of the aforesaid Awards of the said Commissioners as shall not be appealed from, and the Judgments so given as aforesaid, shall be respectively transmitted to and be kept by the respective Clerks of the Peace of the Counties in which the Land in respect of which such Awards or Judgments shall have been respectively made shall be situate, and shall be deposited with the Records, and deemed Records of such Counties respectively, to all Intents and Purposes, and the same, or certified Copies thereof, shall be allowed to be good Evidence in all Courts whatsoever, and all Persons shall have Liberty to inspect the same, paying for such Inspection the Sum of Sixpence, or to have Copies thereof, paying for every Copy the Sum of Three Halfpence for every Seventy-two Words, and so in proportion for any greater or less Number of Words.

How the Award or Judgment shall be enforced.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That upon Award or Judgment being so made and transmitted as aforesaid the said Commissioners shall cause a final Notice to be served on the Proprietor, Lessee, or Occupier of such Weir, Dam, or Dyke, and a Copy thereof to be published once in the Dublin Gazette, and once in each Week for Three successive Weeks in some One or more Newspapers circulating in the County or Counties in which such Weir, Dam, or Dyke shall be situate, stating that all the Requisites of this Act in respect to the making such Award or Judgment had been fully complied with, and calling upon all Parties liable under such Award or Judgment to pay to the said Commissioners, within a Time to be specified in such Notice, not less than Three Months from the Date thereof, the Sums of Money which such Parties thereby became liable to pay; and the Publication of such Notice shall be deemed final and conclusive Evidence that the several preliminary Measures herein-before required to be taken and observed in respect to such Award or Judgment had been duly taken and observed; and from and after the Publication of such Notice all the Parties liable under such Award or Judgment shall be bound to contribute the Sum awarded, assessed, or ascertained, in the Proportions fixed by such Award or Judgment, and within the Time specified in such Notice.

XXX. And

If not paid it may be sued for.

XXX. And be it enacted, That if any Portion of the Money so to be contributed shall remain unpaid to the said Commissioners after the Expiration of the Time specified in such Notice as last aforesaid, then it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to recover the same from the Parties liable thereto under the said Award or Judgment who shall make default in the Payment thereof, or the lawful Representatives of such Parties, by Civil Bill, or by Action or Suit in any of the Superior Courts in Dublin: Provided always, that where any Party so making default, or his lawful Representatives, shall be insolvent, or absent beyond Seas, or unable to be found, the Conservators of the District or Districts through or by which such River shall flow shall, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the said recited Acts to the contrary, apply from Time to Time any Portion of the Funds in the Hands of the Treasurers to the Credit of such District or Districts, for the Purposes of making good any Deficiency of Money so to be contributed which shall have been occasioned by such Default, together with full Costs and Expenses, and either in One Sum or by Instalments, as the said Commissioners shall appoint.

Compensation to be paid over when received, and the Alterations in the Weir, &c. to be made as directed by the 5 & 6 Vict. c. 106.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That upon Receipt of the Money so agreed, awarded, or adjudged to be paid as Satisfaction or Recompence for enlarging or opening such Free Gap or Queen's Share in such Weir, Dam, or Dyke, under the Provisions herein-before contained, the said Commissioners shall forthwith pay the same to such Persons or in such Manner as is provided and directed by the said Act of the Sixth Year of Her Majesty, in regard of Monies agreed, awarded, or adjudged to be paid as Satisfaction or Recompence for enlarging or opening a Free Gap or Queen's Share under the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act; and thereupon the said Commissioners shall take such Proceedings for the Purpose of causing the required Alterations in such Weir, Dam, or Dyke to be made and completed, and the objectionable Parts thereof to be removed, as they are by the said Act of the Sixth Year of Her said Majesty empowered to take in the Cases specified in or arising under the said Act for the like Purposes.

Savings for Mill Weirs.

XXXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein-before contained respecting the making or maintaining such Free Gap or Queen's Share shall be construed to extend to Weirs, Banks, or Heads used for the sustaining the Supply of Water to Mills, Factories, or Navigation, if such Weirs, Banks, or Heads shall not be made use of for the Purpose of taking Salmon or other Fish in any Manner whatsoever.

Commissioners not bound to do more than open the Passages required by this Act, and not liable for consequential Damages.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where the said Commissioners shall, by virtue of the Provisions in this Act contained, open or caused to be opened, in any Weir, Dam, or Dyke, a Gap of the Dimensions prescribed by this Act, or remove any Obstructions hereby declared to be illegal, it shall not be necessary for the said Commissioners, or any Person executing their Orders, to rebuild any Part of such Weir, Dam, or Dyke, or of the Works appertaining thereto, nor to fix up or erect altered or improved Boxes, Rails, or Cruives, nor shall they be answerable or accountable for any Damage or Injury arising to such Weir, Dam, or Dyke, or to such Box, Rail, or Cruive, in consequence of such Removal as aforesaid.

Removal of Nets from the Banks of Rivers during Close Seasons.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That every Proprietor, Lessee, or other Person who shall be engaged in fishing for Salmon by means of Nets of any Kind or Description, shall remove and carry away, or cause to be removed or carried away, from any Strand, or from the Banks of any River, or from the Vicinity thereof, during the yearly Close Season, all such Nets; and in case any such Person shall omit or neglect to remove or carry away, or cause to be removed or carried away, such Nets as aforesaid, he shall forfeit all such Nets, and shall forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds nor less than Two Pounds.

Having in possession Part of a Salmon or Trout, liable to Penalty.

XXXV. 'And whereas Persons having in their Possession or exposing for Sale a Salmon or Trout in 'the Close Season are now by Law liable to certain Penalties and Forfeitures in certain Cases:' Be it enacted, That any Person in whose Possession any Part or Portion of a Salmon or Trout shall be found or exposed for Sale during the Close Season shall be in the like Cases subject to the like Penalties and Forfeitures as are provided by the said recited Acts or any of them; and all Persons empowered to enforce the Provisions of the said recited Acts and this Act shall be and are hereby empowered to seize all such Salmon or Trout, or any such Portion thereof as aforesaid, when so found in the Possession of any Person or exposed for Sale during the Close Season.

Penalty for poisoning Rivers for the Purpose of taking Fish.

XXXVI. 'And whereas great Destruction to Fish and the Spawn and Fry thereof is in some Places 'occasioned by placing Matters poisonous to Fish in Rivers for the Purpose of capturing them: And 'whereas the Laws at present in force have proved insufficient to suppress this destructive Practice:' Be it therefore enacted, That any Person found on the Bank of or near any River with any deleterious Matter in his Possession, under such Circumstances as shall satisfy the Court before whom he may be tried that such Person had employed or was about to employ such deleterious Matter for the Capture or Destruction of Fish, the said Court is hereby empowered to inflict on such Person a Penalty not less than Five Pounds nor more than Ten Pounds for every such Offence; and any Person found taking Fish from any River or Lake, where it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of any Justice or Justices that such Fish have been wilfully poisoned, shall be subject to a Penalty of not less than Ten Shillings nor more than Five Pounds.

Nets and other Engines not to be used within certain Distances of Weirs.

XXXVII. 'And whereas in many Rivers Fish are impeded in their Passage up and down by means 'of Weirs used for supplying Water to Mills or Factories or for Navigation:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall not be lawful to use any Net, Instrument, or Device for taking Fish (save and except Rods and Lines only) within Two hundred Yards of any such Weir, either above or below the same; and if any Person shall offend against this Provision he shall forfeit and pay a Sum not less than Two Pounds nor more than Ten Pounds for every such Offence, and shall also forfeit such Net, Instrument, or Device: Provided always, that where such Right has been exercised in any such Place by any Person or Persons lawfully lawfully possessed of a Several Fishery therein for Twenty Years next before the passing of this Act, he shall not be subject to the Penalty herein-before provided.

Boxes, Cribs, &c. in the Tideway during Weekly Close Time to be subject to Regulations of 5 & 6 Vict. c. 106., upon the Certificate of the Commissioners.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful to take Salmon or Trout in any Crib, Box, Cruive, Eye, Sluice, or Gap, in any Salmon, Eel, or other Weirs, whether the same be set in the Tideway or in the Fresh-water Portion of any River between the Low Water next in point of Time before Six o'Clock on Saturday Night and the Low Water next in point of Time before Six o'Clock on Monday Morning, if the Weir be in the Tideway, nor between Six o'Clock on Saturday Evening and Six o'Clock on Monday Morning, if the Weir be in the Fresh-water Portion of any River; and in case any Question or Doubt should arise as to whether any such Weir is in the Tideway or in the Fresh water Portion of the River, it shall be competent to the Commissioners, on Application to them, to determine, by Certificate under their Hands and Seals, whether such Weirs should be subject to the aforesaid Regulation relating to the Tideway, or to the aforesaid Regulations relating to the Fresh Water, as to the said Close Time; and a Copy of such Certificate shall be lodged with the Clerk of the Peace for the County or Counties in which such Weirs shall be situate, and an attested Copy thereof, certified by such Clerk of the Peace, shall be received as Evidence of the Determination so made by the said Commissioners; and any Person offending against the said Regulations respectively shall be subject to the Forfeitures and Penalties provided by the said recited Act or this Act for Breaches of the Law in respect to the Weekly Close Time or Close Season.

Mill Sluices to be opened or shut as by Law required at all Times when Mills are out of Use, subject to a Penalty. 5 & 6 Vict. c. 106.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That the Waste Sluices, Waste Gates, or Overfalls of the Weirs of any Mill or Factory deriving their Supply from Rivers frequented by Salmon shall, at all Seasons of the Year when and during the Time such Mills or Factories shall not be used for Milling Purposes, be kept open, if no Passage for Fish be provided; and when such Passage for Fish shall be provided, then the Sluices which admit the Water to such Mills or Factories, and the Waste Sluices, Waste Gates, or Overfalls, shall be kept down or shut, to force the Water through such Passage for Fish, as provided by the said Act of the Sixth Year of Her present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to regulate the Irish Fisheries; and if the Owners of any such Mill or Factory not used for Milling Purposes as aforesaid shall omit to keep any such Sluice or Sluices, Waste Gates, or Overfalls shut as aforesaid, or open as aforesaid, as required in the respective Cases aforesaid, he shall forfeit and pay a Sum not less than Two Pounds nor more than Ten Pounds for every such Offence: Provided always, that the opening or shutting of such Sluices, Waste Gates, or Overfalls shall not in any way injuriously interfere with the Machinery or Water Power of any Mill or Factory whatsoever.

Otters, Spears, Gaffs, &c. prohibited.

XL. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful, in any Fresh-water River or Lake, at any Season of the Year, to use for the Purpose of taking Fish any Otter, Lyster, Spear, Strokehaul, Dree Draw, or Gaff, (except when the latter Implement may be used solely as auxiliary to angling with Rod and Line, or for the Purpose of removing Fish from any legal Weir or Box by the Owner or Occupier thereof,) and if any Person shall offend against this Provision he shall upon Conviction thereof forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds nor less than Four Pounds, and shall also forfeit such Implement and the Materials thereof: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to Eel Spears.

Power to make Oyster Beds.

XLI. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Owner or Occupier of any Land bordering on the Sea or any Estuary, with the Permission in Writing of the said Commissioners, or for any Person or Persons, with the Consent of such Owner or Occupier, and with the Permission in Writing of the said Commissioners, to form or plant any Oyster Bed or Laying on the Shore adjacent to such Lands, and either above or below the Level of the lowest Water Marks of Spring Tides, as the said Commissioners shall think fit; and it shall be lawful for the several Persons forming or planting any such Oyster Bed or Laying to hold the same as private Property, and to exercise an exclusive Control over the same, and such Oyster Beds shall be entitled to the like Protection as by the said recited Acts is provided in case of any other Oyster Beds or Layings being the exclusive Property of any Person: Provided always, that the forming and planting of such Oyster Beds as aforesaid shall not give any exclusive Right or Title to the Occupancy of the said Shore, except for the Purpose aforesaid, or to the Appropriation of any public Banks or Beds at present resorted to for Oysters, but that the Rights hereinbefore granted and conferred are to be considered as exclusively applying to Places where no such public Oyster Beds at present exist; saving to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty and all the Subjects of this Realm the free and full Exercise and Enjoyment of all other Rights of Fishing or other Rights whatsoever in or along the said Shore, subject to the Provisions herein contained.

Penalty for stealing Oysters or Oyster Brood.

XLII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall steal any Oysters or Oyster Brood from any Oyster Bed or Laying, being the exclusive Property of any other Person or Persons, and sufficiently marked out and known as such, every such Offender shall be deemed guilty of Larceny, and being convicted thereof shall be punished accordingly, unless it shall appear that the Party taking such Oysters, or accused of stealing the same, acted under a fair and reasonable Supposition that either he himself, or any other Person in whose Right or by whose Authority he acted, or the Public at large, had a Right to take the said Oysters, and to convert the same to his or their own Use.

Further Regulations as to Stake Nets, &c.

XLIII. And be it enacted, That Stake Weirs, Stake Nets, and other fixed Nets, in the Sea or Tidalways, shall be so placed and erected, maintained and used, as that clear Openings for the free Passage of Fish as in the said recited Acts provided can be made in the Pouches and Traps thereof; and if any Person shall offend by placing, erecting, maintaining, or using any Weir, Net, Leader, Engine, or Work in any Manner hereby prohibited, or neglect to construct the same in the Mode required by the Provisions contained in the said Acts, he shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds nor less than One Pound.

Nets for taking Salmon not to be used at the Mouths of narrow Rivers, nor to be stretched across the Mouths or any other Parts of Rivers.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person, save and except the Owner of a Several Fishery within the Limits thereof, at any Time to shoot, draw, or use any Net for taking Salmon at the Mouth of any River, where the Breadth of such Mouth between the Banks thereof shall not exceed a Quarter of a Mile Statute Measure; and that it shall not be lawful for any Person, save such Owner as aforesaid, within such Limits as aforesaid, to shoot, draw, or use any Net for taking Salmon within Half a Mile Seaward, or Half a Mile Inwards, or along the Coast from the Mouth of any River, such Mouth to be defined, ascertained, and mapped, in case of Dispute, by the said Commissioners; and that it shall not be lawful for any Person, save and except the Owner of a Several Fishery in the whole of a River and its Tributaries, within the Limits of such Several Fishery, to shoot, draw, stretch, or use Nets at the Mouth or any other Part of any River in such wise as, in the Judgment of the Commissioners, to be injurious or detrimental to the free Passage of Fish, and which they shall have prohibited by some Bye Law duly published as the Law directs; and if any Person shall offend by shooting, drawing, stretching, or using any Net in any Place or Manner hereby prohibited, he shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds nor less than One Pound, and also the further Penalty of Five Shillings for every Fish taken by means of such Net in such Place and Manner so prohibited as aforesaid; and such Net shall also be forfeited.

Close Season for Trout Fishing.

XLV. And be it enacted, That no Person shall kill, take, or destroy, in any Lakes or Rivers, any Trout, between the Twenty-ninth Day of September in any Year and the last Day of February in the Year following, nor shall any fixed Crib, Cruive, Box, or other Device, nor any Haul, Draw, or other Net of any Description, for the catching of such Trout, be used in any Lake or River frequented by Salmon, between the First and Twenty-ninth Day of September in any Year, or at such Periods as may be or may have been fixed for certain Lakes and Rivers by the said Commissioners in respect of Salmon Fishing, under the Powers in the said recited Acts contained.

Penalties for not opening or removing Cribs, &c. in Weekly Close Time.

XLVI. And be it enacted, That any Person occupying or using any Crib, Box, Cruive, Stake, Flood, Ebb, or Head Weir, Stake, Bag, or other fixed Net, Basket, or other Engines for catching Fish, and failing to remove or open the same as required by the said Act of the Sixth Year of Her Majesty, and any Person using any Means, Device, or Contrivance to prevent the free Passage through such Box, Cruive, or Engine, or in any way or by any Means wilfully frightening or scaring, or attempting to frighten or scare, any Salmon or other Fish from passing through such Box, Crib, Cruive, Pouch, Trap, Eye, Sluice, Gap, or other Engine, or taking therein any Salmon between Six of the Clock on Saturday Evening and Six of the Clock on Monday Morning, or between the Low Waters next in point of Time to those Periods respectively, as the Case may be, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not less than Ten Pounds and not exceeding Fifty Pounds: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to render liable to any Penalty any Person who shall be able satisfactorily to prove that he was prevented by Floods, Storm, or Stress of Weather from removing such Leaders or making such Openings as aforesaid, during the Continuance of such Prevention, but no longer.

Offences committed in Rivers, &c. forming Boundaries of Two Districts of Petty Sessions may be tried before Justice of either District.

XLVII. 'And whereas it is enacted in the before-recited Act of the Sixth Year of Her present Majesty, 'that where any of the Offences mentioned in that Act shall be committed in or upon any Lakes, 'Rivers, or Streams forming the Boundaries or Mearing Lines between any Two Counties, Districts of 'Quarter Sessions, or Districts of Petty Sessions, such Offence shall and may be prosecuted before any 'Justice or Justices of the Peace in either of such Counties or Districts, and may be alleged and stated 'to have been committed therein; and Doubts have arisen as to the Meaning of the said Clause:' Be it enacted, That where any of the Offences mentioned in this or any of the said recited Acts shall be committed in or upon any Lakes, Rivers, or Streams forming the Boundaries or Mearing Lines between any Two Districts of Petty Sessions, such Offence shall be prosecuted before any Justice or Justices of the Peace in either of such Districts, and in no other, and may be alleged and stated to have been committed therein, anything in the said Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

Recovery of Expenses.

XLVIII. And be it enacted, That wheresoever, under the Provisions of this Act or the said recited Acts, any Justice or Justices of the Peace or the said Commissioners or Conservators are authorized or empowered or required to execute any Work, or remove or alter any Weir or other Erection, or to do any Matter or Thing, at the Expense of any Offender, such Justice or Justices, or Commissioners or Conservators, as the Case may be, shall ascertain the Amount of such Expenses, and direct Payment thereof to be made by such Offender to such Person as he or they may think fit, and it shall be lawful for such Person to sue for and recover the same by Civil Bill or by Action or Suit in any of the Superior Courts in Dublin; and a Certificate in Writing under the Hand or Hands of such Justice or Justices, or Commissioners or Conservators, as the Case may be, shall be conclusive Evidence of the Amount of such Expenses, and of the Liability of the Party therein named to pay the same, and of the Right of the Person thereby authorized to sue for and recover the same.

The Mode in which Penalties are to be levied.

XLIX. And be it enacted, That all Penalties directed to be enforced against any Person or Persons offending contrary to the Provisions of this Act or the said recited Acts shall be levied by the same Persons and in the same Manner as all Fines and Penalties may by Law be levied, or by the Officers and Men of the Coast Guard Service or of the Constabulary Force.

Form of Conviction.

L. And be it enacted, That the Justice or Justices before whom any Person shall be convicted of any Offence against this Act or of any of the said recited Acts shall cause the Conviction to be drawn up in the following Form of Words, or in any other Form of Words to the same Effect; (that is to say,)

'BE it remembered, That on the Day of in the Year of our Lord at in the County of [or City, Town, or Place, as the Case may be,] 'A.O. is, upon the Complaint of G. H., convicted before me J. D. is not guilty of such Offence so charged against him 'as aforesaid by the said A. B., we therefore do adjudge that the said Complaint be and the same is 'hereby dismissed. Given under my Hand and Seal [or our Hands and Seals, as the Case may be], 'at in the County of the Day and Year first above written.'

Appeal against Dismissal.

And if any Person prosecuting shall feel aggrieved by such Order of Dismissal it shall and may be lawful for such Person to appeal to such Judges of Assize as herein-before directed with regard to Appeals from any Conviction, upon giving the like Notice as herein-before prescribed, and entering into a Recognizance, with Two sufficient Sureties, before any Magistrate, in any Sum not less than Ten Pounds, conditioned for the Payment of all such Costs and Expenses as shall be adjudged against him on the Hearing of such Appeal.

Proceedings on Appeal.

LIII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Judges of Assize assembled at any such Assizes as aforesaid to rehear the Subject Matter of such Conviction or Order of Dismissal as last aforesaid, and either affirm or reverse the same, or impose or increase or reduce any Penalty which may have been adjudged, such Imposition or Increase nevertheless not to amount to a greater Sum nor such Reduction to be to a smaller Sum than by this Act or the said recited Acts is directed; and in case such Conviction shall be affirmed it shall be lawful for such Judges to award such Costs and Expenses to the Prosecutor, and any Witnesses who may be examined in support of such Prosecution, as they may think reasonable; reasonable; and in case the Party appealing from any such Order of Dismissal as aforesaid shall not appear at such Assizes as aforesaid to prosecute the same, such Order of Dismissal shall be affirmed; and it shall be lawful for the said Judges to award to the Person accused such Costs and Expenses of Witnesses as they may think reasonable; and in case any Appellant or Respondent on any such Appeal shall not pay any Costs or Expenses which may be so awarded against him his Recognizances shall be estreated.

Courts may award Costs.

LIV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, Judges of Assize, Justices of the Peace, or any of the Courts in this Act or in the said recited Acts mentioned, where any Complaint, Suit, Action, or Indictment shall have been heard or tried and determined before them respectively under this Act or the said recited Acts, to order that the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of and incident to such Complaint, Suit, Action, or Indictment, and the Proceedings therein, and the Hearing or Trial and Determination thereof, shall follow the Event of the same respectively, and be borne and paid by the Party against whom the same shall have been determined, and that such Costs, Charges, and Expenses shall be estimated, either as between Party and Party or as between Attorney and Client, at the Discretion of such Commissioners, Judges, Justices, or Courts respectively; which Costs, Charges, and Expenses, being so ordered as aforesaid, shall be recovered against the Party therewith charged in the same Manner as is herein-before specifically provided with respect to Costs in certain Cases.

Recited Acts to be read with this Act.

LV. And be it enacted, That this Act and the said recited Acts shall for the Purposes thereof respectively be read and construed together as One Act, and the said recited Acts shall remain in full Force and Effect, except where the Provisions thereof are repealed or altered by this Act or are repugnant thereto.

Saving Rights of the Crown.

LVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing contained in this Act or in any of the Acts recited or referred to shall extend or be construed to extend to alienate, defeat, lessen, abridge, or derogate from, or in any Manner affect, any Estate, Right, Title, Interest, Franchise, Royalty, Prerogative, or Jurisdiction vested in or appertaining to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, in Right of Her Crown, or otherwise howsoever.

Act may be amended, &c.

LVII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

CAP. LXXXIX.

An Act to regulate the Proceedings in the High Court of Chancery in Ireland.

[14th August 1850.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to regulate the Proceedings in the High Court of Chancery in Ireland, and otherwise to improve the Procedure of the said Court:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in any Case in which a Suit might be instituted in Her Majesty's High Court of Chancery in Ireland by way of Bill or Information, it shall be lawful for any Person who would have been entitled to file such Bill or Information to apply to the said Court by Petition for the Relief which might have been prayed for by any such Bill or Information; and Service of Notice of such Petition shall be made, as herein-after provided, upon such Persons as the Petitioner thinks fit, but with Power to the Court from Time to Time to direct any further Service of the same; and Service of such Notice being made, the Person so served shall from the Time of such Service become a Party to such Proceeding, and be bound thereby in all respects, in the same Manner as if a Bill or Information had been filed and such Person had appeared to a Subpœna to appear and answer.

Suits may be instituted in the Court of Chancery in Ireland by Petition in all Cases.

Court to have same Jurisdiction on Petition, and Order to have same Authority, as in a Suit.

II. And be it enacted, That the Court shall have and exercise, in and about any Matter so brought before it upon Petition, the same Jurisdiction, Powers, Authorities, and Discretion, to all Intents and Purposes, as it could have exercised in a Suit for the same Purpose instituted by way of Bill or Information; and all Orders of the Court to be made in any such Matter may be made in the same Manner, whether upon Motion or otherwise, and shall have the same Authority and Effect, and may be enrolled in the same Manner, and shall be binding upon the same Persons, under whatsoever Disability they may be, and may be enforced by the same or any such Process, and shall be subject to Rehearing and Appeal, in the same Manner in all respects, except as herein provided, as if the same had been made in a Suit so instituted as aforesaid; and every Order which shall be in the Nature of a Decree shall have the same Effect as a Decree; and every Petition presented under this Act shall have the same Effect in making any Infant a Ward of Court as a Bill filed in the Matter would have had; and every such Petition shall have the same Effect as a Bill in Equity with respect to Proceedings for Redemption under the Acts relating to Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent, and also in Suits to foreclose Mortgages, and to perpetuate the Testimony of Witnesses under the Acts relating thereto.

Proviso. Court may direct a Suit to be instituted.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if it appear to the Court that the Relief prayed for by any such Petition as aforesaid, or any Part thereof, cannot be safely or conveniently granted, or that the Object or any of the Objects of such Petition, or any Part thereof respectively, cannot be safely or conveniently attained under the Procedure of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Court to direct a Suit to be instituted by way of Bill or Information, and by such Persons as the Court thinks fit, and either to retain or dismiss the Petition accordingly.

Persons objecting to Proceedings under the Act may apply for Order that a Suit be prosecuted in the ordinary Way at the Peril of Costs.

IV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That if any Person interested or claiming to be interested in the Matter of any Petition presented under this Act, or whose Rights may be injuriously affected by the Order to be made on such Petition, desire that the Relief sought thereby may be sought in a Suit to be prosecuted in the ordinary Way, it shall be lawful for such Person at any Time, whether such Petition have been referred to the Master, as herein-after provided, or not, to apply to the Court, upon Motion in a summary Way, for an Order directing that the Matter of such Petition or any Part thereof be not further proceeded with under this Act, or that a Suit with respect thereto may be instituted or proceeded with in the ordinary Way, and thereupon the Court shall make such Order as shall be just; but the Costs of all Parties to be occasioned by any such Application shall (except so far as the Court otherwise specially directs) be paid and borne by the Person by whom such Application is made; and it shall be lawful for the Court, if it think fit, by any such Order to require that such Security as it thinks fit be given by the Party making such Application, for answering the additional Costs, if any, to be occasioned by reason of such Suit or other Proceeding being instituted.

Verification of Petition.

V. And be it enacted, That every Petition to be presented under this Act may be verified by Affidavit annexed thereto or subscribed at the Foot thereof in the Form or to the Effect set out in the Schedule annexed to this Act; and that with respect to Petitions authorized to be referred to the Master in a summary Way, as herein-after provided, no Costs of any further or additional Affidavit in Verification shall be allowed, unless specially allowed by the Court.

Petitioners may annex Interrogatories to their Petition.

VI. And be it enacted, That upon presenting any such Petition as aforesaid the Petitioner may, if he think fit, annex to his Petition Interrogatories, to be answered by the Respondents to such Petition, or such of them as he requires to answer the same, or he may file such Interrogatories at any later Stage of the Proceedings on such Petition.

Respondents may file Interrogatories, to be answered by Petitioners.

VII. And be it enacted, That the Respondents to any such Petition, or any of them, may, if they think fit, annex to their Affidavits filed in answer to such Petition, or may otherwise file, Interrogatories, to be answered by the Petitioners or any of them, touching the Matters alleged in such Affidavit or Petition, and that whether such Respondents file a cross Petition or not, or they may file such Interrogatories at any later Stage of the Proceedings on such Petition.

Interrogatories not to be filed except by Leave of the Court.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That, except so far as may be otherwise provided by any General Orders to be made as herein-after mentioned, no such Interrogatories shall in either of the Cases aforesaid be filed without Leave of the Court first obtained upon Motion supported by Affidavit, and which may be made ex parte or otherwise as the Court shall direct.

Practice as to answering the Interrogatories to be same as on Bill and Subpœna.

IX. And be it enacted, That, until and except so far as it shall be otherwise provided by any Rule or Order to be made as herein-after mentioned, the Practice as to answering and enforcing an Answer to such Interrogatories shall be the same as upon a Bill or cross Bill filed, except that such Answer shall be taken in the same way that an Affidavit is taken, and the Person required to answer any such Interrogatories shall, on being served with a Copy thereof, be subject to the same Obligation as to answering the same, and the Court may exercise the same Powers for enforcing such Answer, and the Production of Documents therein referred to, as if a Bill or cross Bill had been filed against such Person, and he had been served with Subpœna to answer the same, and had appeared thereto, or an Appearance had been entered for him on the Part of the Plaintiff, pursuant to an Act of the Fourth and Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for the Amendment of the Proceedings and Practice of the High Court of Chancery in Ireland: Provided always, that every such Person shall be entitled to the Benefit of the same or the like Objection to answering any such Interrogatories as he might have insisted on by way of Plea or Demurrer in a Suit instituted in the ordinary Way.

4 & 5 W. 4. c. 78.

Petitions to be heard before the Lord Chancellor as Causes are now heard, and Petitions and Affidavits to be filed in Rolls Office and entered in a Book.

X. And be it enacted, That every Petition to be presented under the Authority of this Act shall be entitled "Cause Petition under 'The Court of Chancery (Ireland) Regulation Act, 1850,'" and shall be heard as Causes are now heard before the Lord Chancellor, unless in Cases where the Lord Chancellor specially directs the same to be heard before the Master of the Rolls, but no Subpœna to hear Judgment shall be required; and every such Petition, and all Affidavits and Interrogatories, and Answers to Interrogatories, in the Matter of any such Petition shall be filed in the Office of the Deputy Keeper of the Rolls in Ireland in like Manner as Bills and Answers are now filed there, and an Entry of such Petitions and Affidavits shall be made in a Book or Books to be kept for that Purpose, in like Manner as Bills and other Pleadings are now entered in the said Office, subject nevertheless to such Regulations and Orders as the Lord Chancellor, with the Assistance of the Master of the Rolls in Ireland, shall make in that Behalf; and the said Deputy Keeper of the Rolls and the Clerk of the Inrolments in the said Office respectively shall have Power to take Affidavits in the Matter of any such Petition; and it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, with such Assistance as aforesaid, to settle a Table of Fees to be taken in the Office of the said Deputy Keeper of the Rolls in respect of such Petitions and Affidavits and Answers, and to make all such Regulations as shall be necessary and proper for providing that the Balance of such Fees, after deducting such Payments as may lawfully be payable thereout, shall be from Time to Time duly accounted for and paid into the Bank of Ireland in the Name of the Accountant General, to be placed to the Credit of the Account there called "The Suitors Fee Fund Account."

Table of Fees to be settled, and Fees to be paid over to the Suitors Fee Fund.

Power to petition for

XI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person (the Direction of the Master in the Case of Persons under Disability as herein-after mentioned being first obtained,) to present a Petition to the the Court of Chancery in Ireland, stating any Document, Facts, or Circumstances relating to any Matter falling within the Jurisdiction of the Court by way of Special Case, and praying for the Opinion of the Court upon such Special Case; and it shall be lawful for the Court to give Judgment upon such Petition accordingly, and such Judgment shall bind all such Persons as the Court shall direct, and in default of such Direction then shall bind all such Persons as presented the same, and shall have the same Effect as a Declaration made by Decree in a Suit to which such Persons were Parties would have had, and shall be subject to Rehearing and Appeal in the same Manner as herein provided in case of other Petitions under this Act; and where the Opinion of the Court is desired in any Matter in which any Infant, Idiot, Lunatic, or married Woman is interested, it shall be lawful for the Master of the Court in rotation to direct the presenting of such Petition by way of Special Case on behalf of the Infant, Idiot, Lunatic, or married Woman, and such Direction of the Master shall be conclusive to all Intents and Purposes.

Opinion of Court upon Special Case.

XII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the High Court of Chancery in Ireland, or for any of the Masters in Ordinary of the said Court, in any Suit or in any Matter pending or being heard before them respectively, and within their respective Jurisdictions, to direct the whole or any Part of the Evidence relating to such Matter to be taken either vivâ voce on Oath before the Court or Master, or upon Affidavit, instead of upon Interrogatories or in addition to an Examination upon Interrogatories, and it shall be lawful for the said Court to exercise all the same Powers for enforcing the Attendance of any Witness in whatever Part of Ireland such Witness may reside, to be examined before the said Court or Masters respectively in any such Matter as it might exercise for enforcing the Attendance of a Witness residing within Twenty Miles of Dublin to be examined on Interrogatories according to the ordinary Practice of the said Court.

The Court or Master may in all Suits direct Evidence to be taken vivâ voce or by Affidavit, as well as on Interrogatories.

XIII. And be it enacted, That in any Case in which any Partnership Account is required to be taken before One of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery in Ireland it shall be lawful for such Master, if he think fit, to direct that in taking such Account the Books of Account in which the Accounts so required to be taken have been kept, or such of them as he thinks fit, shall be taken as primâ facie Evidence of the Truth of the Matters therein contained, with Liberty to the Parties interested to take such Objections thereto as they may be advised; and also in taking any Account other than any Partnership Accounts, where it appears to him that the Books of Account have been bonâ fide kept, and the Entries duly made therein from Time to Time as the Occasion for such Entries arose, or when from any Circumstances the Account cannot otherwise be taken, it shall be lawful for the Master, if he think fit, to direct that the Books of Account in which the Accounts so required to be taken have been kept, or such of them as he thinks fit, shall be taken as primâ facie Evidence of the Truth of the Matters therein contained, with Liberty to the Parties interested to take such Objections thereto as they may be advised; and in any of the Cases aforesaid it shall be lawful for the Master to employ an Accountant to make out the Accounts in such Mode as the Master shall require, and the Master shall be at liberty to adopt such Accounts, subject to any Objections to be made by any of the Parties, and such Accountant shall be paid such Sum as the Master shall consider reasonable and proper, by the Party having the Carriage of the Proceedings, who shall be entitled to charge the Sum so paid by him as Part of his Costs in the Cause or Matter.

In taking Accounts the Master may direct Books of Account that have been kept to be primâ facie Evidence.

XIV. And be it enacted, That in all Cases in taking the Accounts necessary for the Administration of the Estate of any deceased Person by the High Court of Chancery in Ireland, Debts may be proved before the Master by the Executor or Administrator of the Testator's Estate, and in case any Creditor, after Notice shall have been given to him of such Proof having been made, shall attempt to establish any larger Amount, the same shall be at Peril of any Costs which may be awarded against him by the Master.

In taking Accounts for Administration of Estate, Executors, &c. may prove Debts.

XV. And be it enacted, That when any such Petition as herein-before mentioned is presented to the Court with respect to any of the following Branches of the Jurisdiction of the High Court of Chancery in Ireland, that is to say,

With respect to the Administration of the Real and Personal Estate or the Personal Estate of a deceased Person,

With respect to the Foreclosure and Redemption of Mortgages,

With respect to the Appointment of new Trustees under any Deed, Will, or other Instrument,

With respect to the Appointment of Guardians and the Allowance of Maintenance to Infants,

With respect to the taking of Partnership Accounts, and

With respect to such other Branches of the said Jurisdiction as the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, with the Assistance of the Master of the Rolls in Ireland, by any General Order to be made as hereinafter provided, shall from Time to Time direct, the Court may, on the Application of the Petitioners, and on the Production of such Affidavit of Verification as aforesaid, by Order made in a summary Way, and without Notice to any other Parties, unless the Court see fit to direct any such Notice to be given, refer the said Petition to the Master in Ordinary of the said Court in rotation, either with or without any special Directions with reference thereto as to the Court may seem fit.

Certain Classes of Petitions may be referred summarily to Master.

XVI. And be it enacted, That upon any such Petition being so referred it shall be lawful for the Master to whom the same is referred to consider the Matter thereof, and to direct Service of Notice thereof as herein-after directed, and thereupon to make all such Inquiries and such Orders for Payment of Money into Court or for the Sale of Real or Personal Estates, or otherwise, not being Orders for the Distribution or Payment of any Share of Money, and generally to make such Orders and give such Directions with respect thereto the same Jurisdiction as might have been exercised by the Court in a Suit.

Master to proceed on the Petition referred to him, and to have

Directions in relation to the Relief sought by such Petition as the Case may require; and for the Purpose aforesaid the Master shall have, within the Limits and subject to the Restrictions and Regulations herein provided, the same Jurisdiction, Authority, and Discretion, and the same Power to make Orders, and otherwise to act in and about the Matter, as the Court, or any Master of the Court, could have exercised or done in or as incidental to a Suit duly instituted and conducted according to the ordinary Practice of the Court, and it shall also be lawful for the Master to examine all or any of the Parties to the Suit vivâ voce, if he think fit.

State of Facts may be dispensed with, and Master to regulate Proceedings.

XVII. And be it enacted, That, subject to any Rule or Order to be made as herein-after mentioned, the Master may, in proceeding under this Act, proceed on a Copy of the Petition, without any State of Facts, Charge, or Proposal in Writing, unless, for supplying any Deficiency in the Statement or Prayer of the Petition, the Master direct that any such Charge, Statement, or Proposal be made by any Party; and any Person interested in the Matter may apply to the Master for Leave to attend him on any Proceedings under the same, and the Master may give such Directions with respect thereto as he thinks fit, and the Master may, if he sees fit, dispense with any Summons in the course of the Proceedings, and also from Time to Time direct any Summons to be taken out by any Parties attending the Proceedings, and fix the Times at which any Summons shall be returnable before him, or at which any Proceedings necessary to be taken shall be taken, and may proceed de die in diem, or may adjourn the Proceedings from Time to Time, as he sees fit, and generally may, without Reference to any Rule or Course of Practice of the Court, save as herein provided, regulate the Course of such Proceedings in such Manner as appears to him expedient for rendering the same inexpensive and speedy, so far as Justice will admit.

Master's Orders to take effect as Orders of Court.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That no Order of the Master under this Act shall require Confirmation by the Court, except where an Order, subject to the Opinion of the Court, or a special Report, is made by him, as herein provided, except where the Court has in the Order referring the Petition to the Master given any special Directions in that Behalf, but every such Order shall have the same Authority and Effect, and may be enrolled in the same Manner, and shall be binding upon the same Persons, and may be enforced by the same or any such Process, and shall be subject to Rehearing and Appeal, in the same Manner in all respects, except as herein provided, as if the same had been made by the Court in a Suit duly instituted, or otherwise as may be directed by any General Order to be made in that Behalf, as herein-after mentioned.

Master may make special Reports or Orders, subject to Confirmation.

XIX. And be it enacted, That the Master shall have Power, if he think fit, to make a special Report concerning the Matter of any Petition referred to him as aforesaid, or upon any Question or Matter arising in the Proceedings thereupon, or to make any Order, subject to the Opinion of the Court, to the Intent that the Opinion of the Court may be taken on the Matter of such Petition, or on such Question, Matter, or Order, as the Case may be; and such special Report or Order shall be brought before the Court, by Motion praying that such special Report or Order may be confirmed, discharged, or varied by Order of the Court, or that any Directions may be given thereupon; and on the Hearing of such Motion such Report or Order respectively of the Master shall be confirmed, discharged, or varied, or such Directions shall be given, as to the Court seems just.

Service to be made as the Court or Master shall direct.

XX. And be it enacted, That Service of Notice of any Petition under this Act, whether before the Court or the Master, shall, until and except so far as it shall be otherwise provided by any General Order to be made as herein-after provided, be subject to the same Regulations as apply to the Service of a Subpœna or Letter Missive in any Suit, and the Court shall have all the same Powers with respect to ordering the Service of Notice of any such Petition out of the Jurisdiction of the Court, or otherwise, as under any Act of Parliament or by the Constitution of the Court it has or may lawfully exercise with respect to the Service of any Subpœna or Letter Missive in a Suit instituted by way of Bill or Information, but after such Service shall have been made all other Services with respect to any Matter for the Time being pending before the Court or Master under such Petition, or consequent thereon, shall be made upon such Persons and in such Manner, whether by Post or otherwise, as the Court or Master respectively shall direct, and with respect to Persons who have absconded or cannot be found, shall be sufficiently made by such Advertisements or Publications as the Court or Master shall direct; and every such Service, Advertisement, or Publication so directed by the Master shall be valid and conclusive, to the same Extent, and in the same Manner, and upon and against the same Parties or Persons, as the Service according to the Practice of the Court of any Subpœna, Letter Missive, or Petition in Equity would have been.

Power to Master to appoint Guardians to Infants for the Purpose of Proceedings under the Act.

XXI. And be it enacted, That when any Person interested in any Matter for the Time being pending under this Act is an Infant, it shall be lawful for the Master, by any Order under his Hand, to appoint such Person as he thinks proper to be the Guardian of such Infant for the Purposes of all or any Proceedings under this Act; and every Guardian so to be appointed shall have Power to institute, prosecute, defend, or consent to any Proceeding under this Act on behalf of his Ward, and shall represent his Ward in or about every such Proceeding, in the same Manner and with the same Effect, to all Intents and Purposes, as any Guardian appointed by the Court might have done with respect to any Suit or other Proceeding on behalf of his Ward, instituted according to the Practice of the Court: Provided always, that in all Cases in which there is any Father or testamentary Guardian of such Infant, Notice of the intended Application to the Master to appoint a Guardian as aforesaid shall be served on such Father or testamentary Guardian.

After Reference to Master of Petition with

XXII. And be it enacted, That after the Court has made any Order under this Act referring to the Master any Petition with respect to the Administration of the Real and Personal Estate or of the Personal Estate of any deceased Person, or after a Decree or Order has been made by the Court in any Suit respect to Administration, or after Decree, no Creditor to sue without Master's Leave.

Suit referring to the Master the Matter of any such Administration, it shall not be lawful for any Creditor or other Person, so long as any such Order as aforesaid remains in force, to commence or proceed with any Action against the Executor or Administrator of such deceased Person, or against his Heir or Devisee in the Case of Real Estate so to be administered, for any Debt or Demand claimed against the Estate of such deceased Person, without the Leave of the Master in Writing first obtained in that Behalf; and it shall be lawful for any Judge of the Court in which any such Action is pending to order that all further Proceedings in such Action be stayed until after such Leave as aforesaid of the Master has been obtained, and to make such Order as to the Costs of any such Action as to such Judge appears just.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That when any Proceedings upon Petition under this Act shall be stayed, and a Suit ordered to be instituted in lieu thereof, under the Provisions herein-before contained for that Purpose, all Proceedings, Accounts, and other Things taken and done in the Prosecution of the Matter of such Petition before the Master, prior to the Order of the Court for the Institution of a Suit or other Proceedings before the Court as aforesaid, shall (except so far as the Court otherwise directs in any Case) be as valid and conclusive, for the Purposes of any such Suit or other Proceedings, as if the same had been taken or done in such Suit or other Proceedings before the Court.

Where Suit instituted, previous Proceedings before Master to be valid.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That in case of the Illness or Absence of the Master before whom any Matter is pending under this Act, or of any Vacancy occurring by the Death or Resignation of such Master, it shall be lawful for any other Master, without any special Direction or Appointment of the Court, to act for the Time being in such Matter in the Place of the Master so being ill or absent, or having vacated, and to exercise all the Powers and Authorities which such last-mentioned Master might have exercised in the Matter.

In case of Illness, &c. of a Master, another Master may act.

XXV. And be it enacted, That, subject to the Right of Appeal herein-after provided, the Costs of all Proceedings under this Act which take place before the Master shall be in the Discretion of the Master, and the Costs of all Proceedings before the Court shall be in the Discretion of the Court; and all Costs ordered by the Master shall be ascertained by the Master, or shall be taxed by One of the Taxing Masters of the Court, and shall be recovered in the same Manner, and by the same or any such Process, as Costs ordered to be paid by any Party under any Order or Decree made in a Suit.

Payment, Taxation, and Recovery of Costs in Proceedings before the Master.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That the Masters shall as nearly as possible observe a uniform Course of Practice in their respective Offices in all Proceedings under this Act; and the said Masters shall, within Six Months from the passing of this Act, make such Rules under their Hands as seem to them necessary and expedient concerning the Form and Mode of Proceeding to be had before the Masters under this Act, and for providing that a proper Record be kept of the Proceedings of the Masters, and the Orders made by them with respect to Petitions referred to them under this Act, and concerning the collecting of the Debts due to and the realizing of all or any Part of any Estate for the Time being in course of Administration before the Master, and concerning the Costs and Fees or other Remuneration to be paid in respect of any Proceedings before the Master, and the Service of any such Proceedings by Post, Advertisement, or otherwise; and the said Masters shall have Power from Time to Time to vary or annul such Rules, and to make others in lieu thereof or in addition thereto; and all such Rules shall be entered in a Book to be kept for that Purpose by the Senior Master for the Time being, and shall be transmitted to the Lord Chancellor, for his Inspection, within One Week from the making thereof, and, unless disallowed by the Lord Chancellor within One Month from the Time of the same having been so laid before him, shall be of the same Effect and Validity as any General Rules or Orders of the Court.

Masters within Six Months to make Rules for Procedure under the Act.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That where any Person who would have been entitled to present any Petition under this Act is desirous of obtaining a partial Administration of any Estate or Trust (whether by way of Inquiries for Creditors or next of Kin, or Persons beneficially interested in or under the same, or otherwise howsoever), or is desirous of obtaining any Portion of the Relief usually granted or which might be afforded, or the Exercise of any One or more of the Powers or of any Part of the Jurisdiction usually exercised by the Court in a Suit, or which might be exercised by the Master under this Act, it shall be lawful for such Person to present a Petition to the Court for such partial Administration or partial Relief, or partial Exercise of the Powers and Jurisdiction of the Court or Master, accordingly; and it shall be lawful for the Court, if it so think fit, to grant the limited Relief sought by such Petition, and to give all proper Directions accordingly, or to make such other Order with respect thereto as shall be just; and all the Provisions herein contained with respect to any Petition presented under this Act, and to the Proceedings under the same or consequent thereon, and to the Powers and Jurisdiction of the Court and of the Master in or about the same, and to the making of Rules and Orders concerning the same, shall apply in all respects to any such Petition as last aforesaid, and to the Proceedings under the same or consequent thereon, and to the Powers and Jurisdiction of the Court or of the Master in or about the same, and to the making of Rules and Orders concerning the same.

Petition may be presented to the Court for partial Relief, &c.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Court to direct the Consolidation or to make any other Order for the carrying on together of any Two or more Proceedings relating to or connected with the same Trust or Estate, whenever such Order appears expedient.

Proceedings may be consolidated.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That if any Transmission take place, by Death, Marriage, or otherwise, of the Interest of any Party to any Proceeding, whether by Bill or Information in the ordinary Course or under this Act, it shall be lawful for any Party interested to bring before the Court the Person to whom such Interest has been so transmitted, either by a supplemental Bill, Information, or Petition, or by a Suggestion Mode of continuing Proceedings on Transmission of Interest of Parties.

Suggestion at the Foot of the original Bill, Information, or Petition, and Notice to such Person; and Service of such Notice being made, the Person so served shall, from the Time of such Service, become a Party to such Proceeding, and be bound in all respects in the same Manner as if an Order for Revivor or a supplemental Decree had been made, as the Case may require, without the Necessity for any Order of Revivor or supplemental Decree being made by the Court: Provided always, that if the Person served be under Disability the Matter shall be specially brought before the Court by Affidavit, and the Court shall thereupon make such Order as may be just.

Appeal from the Master's Orders and Orders on Petition to be upon Motion; Rehearings and Appeals to the House of Lords, to be within a limited Time.

XXX. And be it enacted, That an Appeal shall lie to the Court upon Motion, from or against all Orders, Directions, and other Proceedings of or before the Master under this Act; and any Order to be made by the Master of the Rolls under this Act may be reheard on Motion before the Lord Chancellor, and any Order which, according to the Practice of the Court, might be reheard upon Petition by the Judge who made such Order, may be so reheard upon Motion; and an Appeal shall also lie to the House of Lords from all Orders to be made by the Court under this Act, yet so that no such Appeal shall be brought or Rehearing moved unless with the special Leave of the Court (which Leave the Court shall only grant upon being satisfied that substantial Grounds probably exist for such Appeal or Rehearing, and for the Delay in bringing or moving the same), after the Expiration of the following Periods from the Time when the Order, Direction, or other Proceeding complained of was made or took place, or from the Service of Notice of the same, if the Party complaining was not present; that is to say, for an Appeal from the Orders or Directions of the Master or Proceedings before him, not being such Reports as hereafter provided for, the Period of Fourteen Days, or such further Time as the Master shall by Order made in the Matter allow; for a Rehearing before the Lord Chancellor or Master of the Rolls, the Period of One Month (both such Periods to be exclusive of any Vacations of the Court); and for an Appeal to the House of Lords, the Period of One Year, but no Order shall be enrolled pending the Time hereby limited for appealing therefrom without the special Leave of the Court: Provided always, that this Enactment shall not be taken to extend the Time within which Reports of the Masters of the Court are by any General Order of the Court directed to stand confirmed.

Lord Chancellor to make Orders for carrying the Act into effect, and extending its Scope.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That the Lord Chancellor, with the Assistance of the Master of the Rolls, in Ireland, may and they are hereby required from Time to Time to make such General Orders as shall seem necessary or expedient for carrying the Purposes of this Act into effect, and for regulating the Practice under the same, and for extending the same, if need be, to other Matters than those to which it is herein made specially applicable, and particularly for regulating the Appointment of Receivers, and the Powers and Duties of such Receivers, and the Allowances to be made to them, for the Purpose of insuring the better and more efficient Management of the Estates under the Control of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, and for determining, if need be, the Matters to which the Provisions of this Act shall not apply, and may alter or annul such Orders from Time to Time, and make others in lieu thereof.

Rules and Orders to be laid before the Houses of Parliament, and to be binding, unless objected to by Vote of either House.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That all General Rules to be made by the Masters, and not disallowed by the Lord Chancellor as herein-before provided, shall, immediately after the same take effect as aforesaid, and all General Orders made by the Lord Chancellor, with such Assistance as aforesaid, shall, immediately after the making and issuing thereof, be laid before both Houses of Parliament, if Parliament be then sitting, or if Parliament be not then sitting, then within Five Days after the next Meeting thereof: Provided always, that if either of the Houses of Parliament, by any Resolution passed at any Time before such House of Parliament have actually sat Thirty-six Days after such Rules or Orders have been laid before such Houses of Parliament, resolve that the whole or any Part of such Rules or Orders ought not to continue in force, in such Case the whole or such Part thereof as shall be so included in such Resolution, shall, from and after such Resolution, cease to be binding.

Master of the Rolls empowered to appoint a Secretary with a Salary.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Master of the Rolls in Ireland from Time to Time to appoint a fit Person to act as Secretary to the Master of the Rolls in Ireland; and the Person so appointed shall hold his Office during the Pleasure of the said Master of the Rolls, and shall be entitled to receive by way of Salary the clear annual Sum of Three hundred Pounds, payable in manner herein-after mentioned.

The Lord Chancellor's Secretary and the Masters Clerks and Examiners to be paid by a Salary in lieu of Fees.

XXXIV. 'And whereas it is expedient that the Secretary of the Lord Chancellor, and the Person for 'the Time being filling the Office of the Clerk and Examiner of each of the Masters of the said Court, 'should be remunerated by an annual Salary instead of by Fees, and that the Fees payable to such 'Secretary and to each of such Clerks and Examiners should be accounted for and applied in manner 'herein-after mentioned:' Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the Secretary of the Lord Chancellor shall be entitled to receive by way of Salary the clear annual Sum of Eight hundred Pounds, payable in manner hereafter mentioned, in lieu of the Fees heretofore received and enjoyed by him; and there shall also be allowed and paid for the Expenses of the Office of the said Secretary such Sum as the Lord Chancellor may allow for a Clerk, and for other incidental and necessary Expenses of his Office (to be defined in the Order making such Allowance), not exceeding in the whole for any One Year, including the Allowance for such Clerk, the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

The Clerks and Examiners of Masters and Assistant Clerks to hold Office during good Beha-

XXXV. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the Clerk and Examiner of each of the Masters of the said Court, and the Assistant Clerk of such Clerk and Examiner, shall hold their Offices respectively during good Behaviour, and so long as they shall personally give their Attendance upon their respective Duties, and shall conduct themselves diligently and faithfully in the due Execution of the Duties of their said Offices respectively, and shall not be removed except by the Order of the Lord Chancellor, who is hereby empowered, by Order made by him, to remove any such Clerk and and Examiner or Assistant Clerk for some sufficient Cause to be stated in such Order, but without Prejudice to the Right of the Master to appoint a Clerk and Examiner or Assistant Clerk in the Room of any Clerk and Examiner or Assistant Clerk so removed; and every such Clerk and Examiner shall be entitled to receive by way of Salary the clear annual Sum of Six hundred Pounds, payable in manner herein-after mentioned, in lieu of the Fees heretofore received and enjoyed by him; and there shall also be allowed and paid for the Expenses of the Office of such Clerk and Examiner such Sum as the Lord Chancellor shall allow for that Purpose (the Particulars of such Expenses being defined in the Order making such Allowance), not exceeding in the whole for any One Year the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and every such Assistant Clerk shall be entitled to receive by way of Salary the clear annual Sum of Two hundred Pounds, payable in manner herein-after mentioned; and such Salary shall be in lieu of the Salary or Allowance of Seventy Pounds, late Irish Currency, payable to such Assistant Clerk under an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend an Act of the Fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for the better Administration of Justice in the Court of Chancery in Ireland, and all other Fees or Emoluments heretofore received or enjoyed by him in his Office, and such last-mentioned Salary or Allowance shall cease to be payable.

viour, and to be paid by Salary in lieu of Fees.

Salary of Assistant Clerk to be in lieu of Salary payable under 6 G. 4. c. 90.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That the said Salaries and Allowances shall be payable in quarterly Payments on the First Day of January, the First Day of April, the First Day of July, and the First Day of October, and shall be charged upon and payable out of the Fund standing to the Account of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, called "The Suitors Fee Fund Account," but subject and without Prejudice to the Payment of all Salaries and all Sums of Money by any Act now in force directed or authorized to be paid thereout, and all proper Orders shall be made for that Purpose; and the first Payment shall be made on the first of the said quarterly Days happening after the passing of this Act, and the Amount thereof shall be such a proportionate Part of the said Salaries and Allowances respectively as shall have accrued from the Day of the passing of this Act to such quarterly Day; and in the event of the Death, Resignation, or Removal from Office of either of such Secretaries, or any of such Clerks and Examiners or Assistant Clerks, in the Interval between any of the said quarterly Days of Payment, the Secretary or Clerk and Examiner or Assistant Clerk so resigning or being removed, or the Executors or Administrators of the Secretary or Clerk and Examiner or Assistant Clerk so dying, shall be entitled to receive and shall be paid such proportional Part of his said Salary as shall have accrued from the next preceding quarterly Day of Payment to the Day of such Death, Resignation, or Removal, and his Successor shall be entitled to such proportional Part of the said Salary as shall have accrued from the Day of such Death, Resignation, or Removal to the then next quarterly Day of Payment.

The Salaries to be paid quarterly.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That the Secretary of the Lord Chancellor, and the said Clerks and Examiners and Assistant Clerks shall continue to discharge the Duties belonging to their several Offices; and the said Secretary of the Lord Chancellor, and the Clerks and Examiners, shall receive the Fees and Sums of Money for the Time being lawfully payable to them or in their Offices respectively, and shall keep true and accurate Accounts thereof, and shall pay into the Bank of Ireland, to the Credit of the said Accountant General, once in every Month, all Fees or Sums of Money so to be received by them respectively, after deducting thereout all Sums lawfully paid for copying Documents, at a Rate not exceeding Three Halfpennies per Office Sheet, the Amount so received and paid by them to be verified by Affidavit, to be sworn before One of the Masters of the Court; and the several Sums so paid in shall be from Time to Time paid to the said Account called "The Suitors Fee Fund Account."

The Lord Chancellor's Secretary and the Clerks and Examiners to pay over to the Suitors Fee Fund, monthly, all Fees received by them.

XXXVIII. 'And whereas it is just that a Retiring Allowance should be provided for the Officers of 'the Court of Chancery in Ireland:' Be it enacted, That if any such Officer who shall have executed the Duties of his Office under the said Court for the Term of Twenty Years shall, by Petition to the Lord Chancellor, express his Desire to be allowed to retire, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, by and with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to direct the Payment to such Officer during his Life of an Annuity as retiring Allowance not exceeding Two Third Parts of the annual Salary and Emoluments of such Officer: Provided always, that if any such Officer shall after his Appointment to his Office, and before he shall have completed the Term of Twenty Years, become afflicted with any permanent Infirmity of Mind or Body disabling him from the due Execution of the Duties of his Office, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, by and with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to direct the Payment of such Annuity as the said Lord Chancellor and the said Commissioners shall think just and reasonable to such Officer, on his resigning his Office, or on an Order being made for his Removal on account of such Disability (which Order the said Lord Chancellor is hereby authorized and empowered to make), such Annuity in any Case not to exceed Two Third Parts of the Salary and Emoluments of the Office; and every Annuity so ordered and directed shall be charged and chargeable and be paid and payable in the same Way as is herein-before provided in respect of Salaries: Provided also, that if any Officer of the said Court already appointed or who may be hereafter appointed shall, prior to such Appointment, have permanently discharged the Duties of an Assistant Officer or Clerk in the said Court, it shall be lawful in calculating the Term of Twenty Years herein-before mentioned to allow One Year for every Two Years during which such Officer shall have previously discharged the Duties of such Assistant Officer or Clerk: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall prejudice the Right of the Masters in Ordinary of the said Court to the Benefit of the Superannuation provided for by the Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-one.

Providing retiring Allowances to Officers of the Court of Chancery.

Allowances to Clerk and Examiner on Retirement from their Offices.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That the Assistant Clerk in each of the Masters Offices, and also every other Clerk of the Court holding his Office during good Behaviour, not being an Officer of the said Court, who shall hereafter resign his Office with the Sanction and under the Authority of the Lord Chancellor, or shall be removed therefrom by the Lord Chancellor in consequence of his being permanently incapable from Infirmity of Mind or Body to discharge the Duties thereof, shall be entitled to receive such Superannuation Allowance as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall think proper to direct; and in ascertaining and awarding the Amount of such Superannuation Allowance the said Commissioners shall take into consideration the whole Period during which any such Person shall have been permanently employed in the said Court, and shall proceed according to the Principle laid down by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to alter, amend, and consolidate the Laws for regulating the Pensions, Compensations, and Allowances to be made to Persons in respect of their having held Civil Offices in His Majesty's Service; and all such Sums and Allowances which shall be so awarded and granted under the Authority aforesaid shall be paid and payable and be charged and chargeable in the same Way as is herein-before provided in respect of the Salaries of the Clerks and Examiners and other Clerks.

4 & 5 W. 4. c. 24.

Abatement to be made from the Salaries of Clerks and Officers of the Court entitled to Superannuation Allowances.

XL. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act there shall be an annual Abatement made, in quarterly Proportions, in such Manner as the Lord Chancellor shall direct, from the Salaries or Official Incomes of the Persons who may be hereafter appointed Clerks and Examiners, Assistant Clerks or other Clerks of the Court for whom a Superannuation Allowance is herein-before provided; and the Amount so deducted shall be paid into the Bank of Ireland to the Credit of the said Account called "The Suitors Fee Fund Account;" and the Amount of such Abatement shall be according to the respective Rates following; that is to say,

From Salaries or Official Incomes not exceeding the annual Sum of One hundred Pounds, an Abatement at the Rate of Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum;

And from Salaries or Official Incomes exceeding One hundred Pounds, Five Pounds per Centum.

Compensation for Diminution of Emoluments to be made to Officers out of the Suitors Fund.

XLI. 'And whereas the Emoluments of some of the Officers of the Court may be diminished by the 'Operation of this Act, or by the Rules and Orders to be made thereunder, for which they may claim to 'have Compensation made:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby required, within the Space of Six Calendar Months after any such Claim shall arise and be made, by Examination on Oath or otherwise (which Oath they and each of them are and is hereby authorized to administer), to inquire whether any, and if any what, Compensation ought to be made to any Officer or Person claiming such Compensation, the said Commissioners having regard to the Conditions on which the Appointment of any such Officer was made, or to any Notice which at the Time of such Appointment may have been given to such Officer that such Office was to be holden subject to any Provision by Parliament for the Abolition or Regulation thereof, but with full Power for the said Commissioners to investigate and determine whether, from the Nature of the said Offices or the Mode of Accession thereto, any such Conditions or Notice could have been properly made or given, and also having regard to the holding of any Office, Place, or Situation by such Officer under this Act; and that in all Cases in which it shall appear to the said Commissioners that Compensation ought to be granted, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, or any Three or more of them, by Warrant under their Hands, to order and direct that such annual or other Compensation shall be made to the Persons so claiming such Compensation as aforesaid, or any of them, as to the said Commissioners in their Discretion shall seem just and reasonable; and all such Compensation, whether annual or in gross, shall be charged upon and payable out of the said Fund standing to the Account called "The Suitors Fee Fund Account," but subject and without Prejudice to the Payment of all Salaries and all Sums of Money by any Act or Acts now in force directed or authorized to be paid thereout, and all proper Orders shall be made for that Purpose: Provided always, that an Account of all such Compensations shall, within Fourteen Days next after the same shall be so granted, be laid upon the Table of the House of Commons, if Parliament be then assembled, or if Parliament be not then assembled, then within Fourteen Days after the Meeting of the Parliament then next assembled.

Petition to be a Lis pendens within the Meaning of 7 & 8 Vict. c. 90.

XLII. And be it enacted, That any Petition to the Court under this Act shall constitute a Lis pendens within the Meaning of an Act passed in the Eighth Year of Her Majesty, intituled An Act for the Protection of Purchasers against Judgments, Crown Debts, Lis pendens, and Commissions of Bankruptcy, and for providing One Office for the registering of all Judgments in Ireland, and for amending the Laws in Ireland respecting Bankrupts and the Limitation of Actions; and it shall be a sufficient Compliance with so much of the same Act as requires the Title of the Cause or Information and the Day when the Bill or Information was filed to be left with such registering Officer as therein mentioned if the Names of the Petitioners, or some One or more of them, and of the Respondents, or some One or more of them, and the Day when the Petition was presented, be left with such Officer as aforesaid.

CAP. XCI.

An Act to authorize Justices of any Borough having a separate Gaol to commit Assize Prisoners to such Gaol, and to extend the Jurisdiction of Borough Justices to all Offences and Matters arising within the Borough for which they act. [14th August 1850.]

'WHEREAS great Inconvenience and Expense have been found to result to Cities and Boroughs 'having or providing and maintaining at their own Cost Gaols or Houses of Correction, from the 'Necessity of committing to the Common Gaol of the County in which such City or Borough may be 'situated for Trial at the Assizes holden for such County Persons charged with Offences committed 'within the Limits of such City or Borough, and it is expedient that the Law should be altered and 'amended: And whereas it is also expedient that Justices of the Peace acting for any City or Borough 'should have the same Powers and Authorities in all respects with regard to Offences committed and 'Matters arising within the Limits of such City or Borough as Justices of the Peace for the County 'within which such City or Borough is situated now have with regard to such Offences or Matters 'under or by virtue of any local or general Act of Parliament:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace acting for any City or Borough now having or providing and maintaining at its own Cost, or which shall hereafter have or provide and maintain at its own Cost, a Gaol or House of Correction, to commit for safe Custody to such Gaol or House of Correction, for Trial at the Assizes to be holden for the County in which such City or Borough may be situated, any Person charged before him with any Offence, except Murder, committed within the Limits of such City or Borough, triable at such Assizes, and the Commitment shall specify that such Person is committed under the Authority of this Act, and whenever any such Person shall be committed to any such Gaol or House of Correction for Trial at such Assizes the Keeper of such Gaol or House of Correction shall deliver to the Judges of Assize a Calendar of all Prisoners in his Custody for Trial at such Assizes, in the same Way that the Sheriff of the County would be by Law required to do if such Prisoners had been committed to the Common Gaol of the County in which such City or Borough may be situated; and the Justice or Justices by whom any Person charged as aforesaid shall be committed shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the proper Officer of the Court the several Recognizances, Informations, Depositions, and Statements, relative to such Person at the Time and in the Manner that would be required in case such Person had been committed to such County Gaol.

Prisoners may be committed to Borough Gaols for Trial at the Assizes.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to give any Justice of the Peace acting for any City or Borough Power to commit Persons charged with Murder to the Gaol or House of Correction of any City or Borough for Trial at the Assizes to be holden for the County in which such City or Borough may be situated, but such Justices shall and they are hereby authorized and required to commit all such Persons to the Common Gaol of such County for Trial in such and the same Manner as if this Act had not passed: Provided also, that the Expenses properly incurred by such County in the Maintenance, safe Custody, and Care of such last-mentioned Prisoners so committed whilst in Custody in such County Gaol shall be borne and paid by such City or Borough in the Manner herein-after provided with respect to Prisoners removed to the County Gaol for Trial at the Assizes.

Justices not to commit Persons charged with Murder to any other than the County Gaol.

As to Expenses incurred in Maintenance of last-mentioned Prisoners.

III. And be it enacted, That all Persons who may under the Authority of this Act be committed to the Gaol or House of Correction of any City or Borough for Trial at the Assizes to be holden for the County in which such City or Borough may be situated shall in due Time be removed by the Gaoler or Keeper of such Gaol or House of Correction, with their Commitments and Detainers, to the Common Gaol of the County, in order that they may be tried at the Assizes to be holden for such County, and such Removal shall not be deemed or taken to be an Escape.

Prisoners committed to Borough Gaols to be removed to County Gaol previous to Trial.

IV. And be it enacted, That every Prisoner so removed shall for and during the Time of such Removal, and also for and during such Time as he shall be detained in the County Gaol, be to all Intents and Purposes deemed and considered to be in the proper legal Custody notwithstanding he may in effecting such Removal have been taken out of the Jurisdiction of the City or Borough to the Gaol or House of Correction of which he may have been originally committed into any other Jurisdiction, or out of the County in which such Gaol or House of Correction may be situated into or through any other County or Division of a County; and no Action or other Proceeding shall or may be maintained by such Prisoner or by any other Person against the Gaoler or Keeper of the Gaol or House of Correction of any City or Borough, or against the Gaoler or Keeper of the Common Gaol of the County, by reason or in consequence of such Prisoner having been taken out of the Jurisdiction of such City or Borough into any other Jurisdiction, or out of the County in which such City or Borough may be situated into or through any other County or Division of a County.

Prisoners whilst under Removal to be deemed to be in proper legal Custody.

V. And be it enacted, That the Expenses which shall be incurred by such County in the Maintenance, safe Custody, and Care of every Prisoner so removed whilst in Custody in such County Gaol, shall be calculated upon the same Principle and in the same Manner as provided by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Laws concerning Prisons, with respect to Borough Prisoners committed to a County Prison where no special Contract is subsisting between such Borough and County relative to such Prisoners; and such Expenses, and all other Expenses which which may be incurred by such County in respect of every such Prisoner, shall be paid by the Council of such City or Borough to the Treasurer of such Gaol or County; and the Amount of all such Expenses shall, in case of Dispute, be settled by a Barrister at Law in the Manner provided by the said Act.

Expenses of Prisoners removed to County Gaols to be calculated as provided by 5 & 6 Vict. c. 98.

Account of Expenses to be made out and signed by Clerk to Justices, and sent to Town Clerk of Borough.

VI. And be it enacted, That an Account in Writing of the Expenses due and payable, or claimed to be due and payable, in respect of the Maintenance, safe Custody, and Care of such Prisoners as aforesaid, shall be made out from Time to Time, and signed by the Clerk to the Visiting Justices of the County Gaol to which such Prisoners shall have been committed, and delivered to the Town Clerk of the City or Borough within which the Offences shall have been committed; and such Account shall be conclusive against such City or Borough, unless some Objection shall be made in Writing, and signed by the Town Clerk of such City or Borough, and delivered to the Clerk of the said Visiting Justices, within One Calendar Month next after such Account shall have been delivered to such Town Clerk.

In Cases of Conviction for Offences committed within Cities,&c., Court may commit Offender to Borough Gaol. In case of Commitment of Persons.

VII. And be it enacted, That whenever any Person shall be convicted at any Assizes of any Offence committed within the Limits of any City or Borough having or providing and maintaining at its own Cost a Gaol or House of Correction, for which Offence such Person shall be liable either to the Punishment of Transportation or Imprisonment, it shall be lawful for the Court, if it shall so think fit, to commit such Person to such Gaol or House of Correction, in execution of his Judgment; and in case of the Commitment of any Person either sentenced to Transportation or pardoned for any Capital Offence on Condition of Transportation, all the Powers, Provisions, and Authorities for the Removal of Offenders sentenced to Transportation given or granted by any former Act or Acts of Parliament to Sheriffs or Gaolers shall be and the same are hereby extended and given to the Gaoler or Keeper of the Gaol or House of Correction in whose Custody such Offender shall be.

Provisions as to Removal before Trial to apply to Removal after Conviction.

VIII. And be it enacted, That all the Provisions herein-before contained with reference to the Removal of Prisoners from any City or Borough Gaol to the County Gaol for Trial at the Assizes shall be applicable and shall be applied to the Removal from the County Gaol to any City or Borough Gaol of any Prisoner who, having been convicted at the Assizes, shall be committed by the Court to such Gaol or House of Correction, in execution of his Judgment.

Borough Justices to have the same Jurisdiction as County Justices under any local Act as to Offences committed within the Borough.

IX. And be it enacted, That after the passing of this Act the Justices of every City or Borough shall have the same Jurisdiction with respect to all Offences committed and Matters arising within such City or Borough as the Justices of the County in which such City or Borough is situate now have under or by virtue of any local or general Act of Parliament; and such Offences and Matters shall be cognizable by One or more of the Justices of such City or Borough in the same Manner as such Offences and Matters are now cognizable by One or more of the Justices of such County: Provided always, that in every Case in which Imprisonment may be awarded for or in respect of any such Offences or Matters aforesaid, or to enforce Payment of any Penalty, Rate, Sum of Money, or Costs imposed or made payable by or by virtue of any such general or local Act or otherwise, such Imprisonment may be awarded to take place in any Gaol or House of Correction to which the Justices of the said City or Borough now have or hereafter may have Power to commit Offenders.

Interpretation of Terms.

X. And be it enacted, That throughout this Act, where there shall be nothing in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction, Words importing the Singular Number only shall include the Plural Number, and Words importing the Plural Number only shall include the Singular Number, and Words importing the Masculine Gender only shall include Females.

Extent of Act.

XI. And be it enacted, That this Act shall extend only to England and Wales.

Act may be amended, &c.

XII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XCII.

[14th August 1850.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to prevent wanton Cruelty in the Treatment of Horses, Cattle, and other domestic Animals, in Scotland:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That any Person who shall from and after the passing of this Act cruelly beat, ill-treat, over-drive, abuse, or torture, or cause or procure to be cruelly beaten, ill-treated, over-driven, abused, or tortured, any Animal, shall be guilty of an Offence, and shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Penalty for ill-treating, over-driving, &c. Animals.

Penalty on Persons keeping Places for Bull-baiting, Dog-fighting, &c.

II. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall keep or use or act in the Management of any Place for the Purpose of fighting or baiting any Bull, Bear, Badger, Dog, Cock, or other Kind of Animal, whether of domestic or wild Nature, or shall permit or suffer any Place to be so used, shall be guilty of an Offence, and every such Offender shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for every Day he shall so keep or use or act in the Management of any such Place, or permit or suffer any Place to be used as aforesaid: Provided always, that every Person who shall receive Money for the Admission of any other Person to any Place kept or used for any of the Purposes aforesaid shall be deemed to be the Keeper thereof; and every Person who shall in any Manner encourage, aid, or assist at the fighting or baiting of any Bull, Bear, Badger, Dog, Cock, or other Animal as aforesaid, shall be guilty of an Offence, and be liable for every such Offence to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Keepers of Slaughter-houses for kill.

III. And be it enacted, That no Person shall keep or use any House or Place for the Purpose of slaughtering or killing any Horse or other Animal (which shall not be intended for Butchers Meat) without ing Horses to be licensed.

without first taking out a Licence for that Purpose, which Licence every Sheriff within his own County is hereby authorized to grant upon being satisfied that the Person applying for such Licence is a proper Person for keeping such House or Place, and upon Payment of a Sum not exceeding Five Shillings to the Sheriff Clerk for making out and recording such Licence; and a Copy of such Licence shall be recorded in the Sheriff Clerk's Books; and any Person shall at all reasonable Hours be entitled to inspect such Books, and to make any Extract relating to such Licence therefrom, upon Payment to the Sheriff Clerk of Sixpence for such Inspection and Extract; and every Person so licensed shall cause to be painted in large legible Characters on a Board to be affixed over the Gate or Door of such House or Place his or her Name, with the Words "Licensed for slaughtering Horses, pursuant to an Act passed in the Session "of Parliament holden in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen "Victoria;" and any Person failing so to do shall be guilty of an Offence, and shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for such Offence, and a farther Penalty of Five Pounds for every Day during which such Board shall not be so affixed.

Persons licensed to affix over Door, &c. a Board with the Words "Licensed for slaughtering Horses."

Description of Cattle received for slaughtering to be entered in a Book.

IV. And be it enacted, That every Person keeping or using or having the Management of any Place for slaughtering Horses or other Cattle (not intended for Butchers Meat) shall, at the Time of receiving any Horse or other Cattle in such Place, enter in a Book such a full and correct Description of the Colour, Marks, and Gender of such Horse or other Cattle as may clearly distinguish and identify the same; and if any such Person shall refuse or neglect to make such Entry in a clear and distinct Manner, or shall refuse or neglect to produce such Book before any Magistrate, whenever required by such Magistrate so to do, or shall refuse to allow such Book to be inspected, and Extracts to be made therefrom, at all reasonable Times, by any Constable or other Person duly authorized by such Magistrate, every such Person shall be guilty of an Offence, and be liable to a Penalty for every such Offence not exceeding Forty Shillings.

Penalty for Neglect.

Persons licensed to slaughter Horses not to be licensed as Horse Dealers at same Time.

V. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person who shall be licensed to slaughter Horses during the Time such Licence shall be in force to be licensed as a Horse Dealer, or exercise or use the Trade or Business of a Dealer in Horses; and if any Person licensed to slaughter Horses shall while such Licence shall be in force obtain a Licence as a Horse Dealer, every such last-mentioned Licence shall be void.

Apprehension of Offender.

VI. And be it enacted, That when and so often as any of the Offences against the Provisions of this Act shall be committed, it shall and may be lawful for any Constable, upon his own View thereof, or upon the Complaint and Information of any other Person who shall declare his or her Name and Place of Abode to the said Constable, to seize and secure, by the Authority of this Act, any Offender, and forthwith, without any other Authority or Warrant, to convey such Offender before a Magistrate, to be dealt with for such Offence according to Law.

Time of preferring Complaint, and before whom and how to be disposed of.

VII. And be it enacted, That every Complaint under the Provisions of this Act shall be made within One Calendar Month after the Cause of such Complaint shall arise; and where such Complaint shall be made to the Sheriff it shall be competent to such Sheriff to proceed in and to try and to dispose of the same in the same Way and Manner, or as nearly as may be in the same Way and Manner, as any summary Criminal Case may be proceeded in, tried, and disposed of by any Sheriff in Scotland; and where such Complaint shall be made to a Justice of the Peace or other Magistrate, it shall be competent to such Justice or Magistrate to proceed in and to try and to dispose of the same in the same Way and Manner, or as nearly as may be in the same Way and Manner, as Justices of the Peace or other Magistrates in Scotland may proceed in, try, and dispose of summarily any Offence against Police, or any Breach of the Peace.

Magistrate empowered to adjudge Offender to be imprisoned or fined.

VIII. And be it enacted, That in every Case of a Conviction under this Act, where the Sum imposed as a Penalty, together with Costs (if any) awarded, by any Magistrate, for or in respect of any Offence against the Provisions of this Act, shall not be paid immediately upon the Conviction, or within such Time as the convicting Magistrate shall in the Exercise of his Discretion appoint and limit, it shall be lawful for such Magistrate and he is hereby required to adjudge the Offender to be imprisoned for any Time not exceeding Two Calendar Months, unless Payment be sooner made: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for such Magistrate, if he shall think fit, instead of imposing a pecuniary Penalty, forthwith to adjudge any such Offender to be imprisoned for any Time not exceeding Three Calendar Months.

Vehicles may be detained.

IX. And be it enacted, That whenever any Person having charge of any Vehicle or any Animal shall be taken into Custody by any Constable for any Offence against the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for such Constable to take charge of such Vehicle or Animal, and deposit the same in some Place of safe Custody, as a Security for Payment of any Penalty to which the Person having had charge thereof, or the Owner thereof, may become liable, and for Payment of any Expenses which may have been or may be necessarily incurred for taking charge of and keeping the same; and it shall be lawful for any Magistrate before whom the Case shall have been heard to order such Vehicle or such Animal to be sold, for the Purpose of satisfying such Penalty and reasonable Expenses, in default of Payment thereof.

As to Actions.

X. And be it enacted, That no Action shall be brought against any Magistrate or other Person for anything done in pursuance or under the Authority of this Act, unless such Action shall be commenced within Two Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and no Action shall be commenced until One Calendar Month at least after a Notice in Writing of such intended Action shall have been delivered to the Defender, or left for him at his usual Place of Abode, by the Party intending to commence such Action,

Action, or by his Agent, in which Notice the Cause of Action shall be clearly and explicitly stated, and upon the Back thereof shall be endorsed the Name and Place of Abode of the Parties so intending to sue, and also the Name and Place of Abode or of Business of such Agent, if such Notice shall have been served by such Agent.

Construction of Terms.

XI. And be it enacted, That the following Words and Expressions shall have the Meanings hereby assigned to them respectively, unless there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction; (that is to say,)

The Word "Magistrate" shall be taken to mean a Sheriff or Justice of the Peace or other Magistrate for the County, City, Burgh, Stewartry, or other Jurisdiction in which any Offence against this Act shall be committed, or in which the Matter requiring the Cognizance of such Sheriff, Justice of the Peace, or Magistrate shall arise:

Explanation and Alteration of Terms in

3. And be it declared and enacted, That the Words "Seaman" and "Seamen" in the said "Seamen's Protection Act" are meant to include any Person or Persons about to serve as Seamen, notwithstanding that they have not previously been at Sea, and are also meant to include Apprentices in the Sea Service and

& 9 Vict. c. 116.

and Persons about to become such Apprentices; and that the said "Seamen's Protection Act" shall, after the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty, be read and construed as if the Expression "the Ship's Husband" were replaced by the Expression "a Mate of the Ship," and the Expression "Ship's Husband" were replaced by the Expression "Mate of the Ship."

III. Extent of Operation.

4. And be it enacted, That the several Parts of this Act which relate to any "Ships," or to the Owners, Masters, Mates, "Seamen," or Apprentices of any "Ships," shall, so far as the Context and Subject Matter admit, have the following Applications; (that is to say,)

As to Parts which affect or repeal former Acts;

So much of this Act as repeals, alters, or explains any existing Enactment shall apply to the same "Ships" and to the same Matters and Persons to which such Enactment applies:

As to Remainder.

The Remainder of this Act shall, so far as the Context and Subject admit, apply to all "Ships" registered or licensed in the "United Kingdom," (except such as are exclusively employed in fishing on the Coasts of the "United Kingdom," and such as belong to the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, or the Corporation for preserving and improving the Harbour of Dublin, and also except Pleasure Yachts,) and also to all "Ships" registered or licensed in any other Part of "Her Majesty's Dominions," and employed in trading or going between any Place in the "United Kingdom" and any Place or Places not situate in the Territory or Colony in which such "Ship" is registered, and to the Owners, Masters, Mates, and Crews of such "Ships" respectively.

IV. Time of Operation.

5. And be it enacted, That the several Parts of this Act shall come into operation at the several Times following; (that is to say,)

As to Boards, &c., Shipping and Register Offices, and Examinations;

So much of this Act as relates to the Appointment of new Officers of the "Board of Trade," and to the Powers hereby given to that Board, and to the Constitution and Powers of Local Marine Boards, and to the Register Office for "Seamen," and to the Establishment of Shipping Offices, and of Examinations for Masters and Mates, shall come into operation immediately on the passing hereof:

As to Production of Certificates, &c.;

So much of this Act as relates to the compulsory Production of Certificates of Masters and Mates, Agreements with "Seamen," Advances and Allotments of Wages, Health on board Ship, Desertion, Discipline, Log Books, Payment of Wages, and Discharge of "Seamen," shall, with respect to such "Ships" as are in the "United Kingdom" on the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and to the Owners, Masters, Mates, and Crews thereof, come into operation on that Day; and with respect to such "Ships" as are not within the "United Kingdom" on that Day, and to the Owners, Masters, Mates, and Crews thereof, as soon after the first subsequent Arrival of such "Ship" in the "United Kingdom" as Preparations are commenced for a further Voyage or Departure from any Place therein:

As to Remainder.

And the Remainder of this Act shall come into operation on the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

V. Board of Trade and Local Boards.

6. And be it enacted, That the "Board of Trade" shall undertake the general Superintendence of Matters relating to the British Mercantile Marine, and shall be authorized to carry this Act into execution, and to enforce by legal Proceedings or by such other lawful Means as may seem to it expedient the Provisions of this Act and of all other Acts and Laws relating to the British Merchant Service, and may also open an Account or Accounts with the Bank of England in the Manner and for the Purposes herein-after mentioned.

New Duties and Powers generally.

Constitution and Functions of Local Marine Boards.

7. And be it enacted, That at such of the Seaports of the "United Kingdom" as have in "Ships" ordinarily employed as "Foreign-going Ships" a Registered Tonnage of Thirty thousand Tons or upwards, and at such other Places as the "Board of Trade" may appoint for this Purpose, Local Marine Boards shall be established for carrying into effect the Provisions of this Act, under the Superintendence of the "Board of Trade;" and each of such Local Marine Boards shall be constituted as follows; that is to say, the Mayor or Provost and the Stipendiary Magistrate, or such of the Mayors or Provosts and Stipendiary Magistrates of the Place (if more than One) as the "Board of Trade" may appoint, shall be a Member or Members ex officio, the "Board of Trade" shall appoint Four Members from Residents in the Place or within Seven Miles thereof, and the Owners of such Foreign-going Shipping as aforesaid registered at the Port shall elect Six Members, to be qualified as herein-after mentioned; and such Appointments and Elections shall, in the first instance, take place on the Twenty-fifth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty, and shall afterwards take place on the Twenty-fifth Day of October in every Third succeeding Year, except in the Case of occasional Vacancies by Death, Resignation, Disqualification, or otherwise, which shall be filled up within One Calendar Month after they occur; and every Person elected on an occasional Vacancy shall continue a Member until the next ordinary triennial Election; and the Mayor or Provost shall fix the Place and Mode of conducting such Elections, and also on occasional Vacancies the Day of Election, and shall give at least Ten Days Notice thereof; and the Board of Trade shall have Power to decide any Questions which may be raised concerning the Conduct of such Elections: Provided, that no Act of any Local Board shall be vitiated or prejudiced by reason of any Irregularity in the Election of any of its Members, or of any Error in the List of Voters herein-after mentioned, or of any Irregularity in the making or revising such List, or by reason of any Person who is not duly qualified as herein-after provided acting upon such Board: Provided also, that if in any Place, by reason of any Election not taking place, or of the constant Non-attendance of all or the greater Part of the elective Members, or from any other Cause, any Local Marine Board fails to meet or to discharge its Duties, the "Board of Trade" may, if such Failure occurs within Three Months before the next triennial Election of such Local Marine Board, undertake undertake such Duties provisionally until such Election, or, if such Failure occurs more than Three Months before such Election, may direct a new Election of the Elective Members of such Local Marine Board to be had immediately. Board of Trade, &c.

8. And be it enacted, That every Local Marine Board shall keep Minutes of its Proceedings, in such Mode as the Board of Trade may prescribe, and such Minutes, and all Books or Documents used or kept by any Local Marine Board, or by any Examiners, Shipping Masters, or other Officers, under the Control of any Local Marine Board, shall be open to the Inspection of the Board of Trade and its Officers; but every Local Marine Board may regulate the Mode in which its Meetings are to be held and its Business conducted. Minutes and Business of Local Boards.

9. And be it enacted, That Owners of "Foreign-going Ships" registered at any Seaport in which there is to be a Local Marine Board shall have Votes at the Election of Members of such Board, as follows; (that is to say,) every registered Owner of Two hundred and fifty Tons in the whole of such Shipping shall, on the Election of each Member, have One Vote for every Two hundred and fifty Tons owned by him, so that his Votes for any One Member do not exceed Ten; and for the Purpose of ascertaining such Qualification the following Rules shall be observed; (that is to say,) in the Case of a "Foreign-going Ship" registered in the Name of One Person, such Person shall be deemed to be the Owner; and in the Case of a "Foreign-going Ship" registered in distinct and several Shares in the Names of more Persons than One, the Tonnage shall be apportioned among the Owners as nearly as may be in proportion to their respective Shares, and each of such Persons shall be deemed the Owner of the Tonnage so apportioned to him; and in the Case of a "Foreign-going Ship," or Shares of a "Foreign-going Ship," registered jointly without Severance of Interest in the Names of more Persons than One, the Tonnage shall, if it is sufficient, either alone or together with other Tonnage (if any) owned by such joint Owners, to give a Qualification to each of them, be apportioned equally between the joint Owners, and each of such joint Owners shall be deemed the Owner of the equal Share so apportioned to him, but if the Tonnage aforesaid is not so sufficient, the whole of such Tonnage shall be deemed to be owned by such One of the joint Owners resident at the Port, or within Seven Miles thereof, as is first named on the Register; and in making Apportionment any Portion may be struck off so as to obtain a divisible Amount; and the whole Amount of Tonnage so owned by each Person, whether in "Ships" or Shares of or Interests in "Ships" shall be added together, and if sufficient shall constitute his Qualification; provided that no Person appearing by the Register to be a Mortgagee or Trustee for Sale shall be entitled to vote, but the Person who, subject to such Mortgage or Trust, is the registered Owner, shall for the Purpose of voting be considered the Owner as if no such Mortgage or Trust existed. Qualification of Voters for Members to Local Marine Boards.

10. And be it enacted, That the Collector of Her Majesty's Customs in every Seaport of the United Kingdom at which there is to be a Local Marine Board shall, with the Assistance of the Registrar of Seamen, on or before the Twenty-fifth Day of September in the present and in every Third succeeding Year, make out or cause to be made out an alphabetical List of all Persons who may be entitled by virtue of this Act to vote in the Election of a Member or Members to serve on the Local Marine Board of such Seaport; and in such List the Christian Name and Surname and Residence of every Person shall be written at full Length, together with the Number of Votes to which such Person is entitled; and the said Collector shall sign such List, and shall cause a sufficient Number of Copies of such List to be printed, and to be fixed on or near the Doors of the Custom House at such Seaport for Two entire Weeks next after such List has been made; and the said Collector shall likewise keep true Copies of such List, to be perused by any Person, without Payment of any Fee, at all reasonable Hours during such Two Weeks. Register of Votes for Election of Members of Board.

11. And be it enacted, That Two of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, to be nominated triennially by the Mayor or Provost of every Seaport at which there is to be a Local Marine Board, and which Nomination the said Mayor or Provost is hereby required from Time to Time to make, shall, between the Eighth and Fifteenth Days of October, both inclusive, in the present and in every Third succeeding Year, having first given Three Days Notice of such Revision by advertising the same in One or more Newspapers in such Seaport, and by affixing such Notice on or near to the Doors of the Custom House of such Seaport, revise at such Custom House, or in some convenient Room or Place near thereto to be hired for the Purpose by the said Collector, the List so made out as aforesaid; and on every such Revision any Person whose Name has been omitted from such List may claim to be inserted therein, and any Person whose Name has been inserted in such List may object to any other Person as not being entitled to have his Name inserted therein; and the said Revisors may insert the Name of any such Person so claiming to be inserted in such List, on Proof of his being entitled to have his Name so inserted, and shall retain the Name of any Person so objected to, if the Objection shall not have been established to their Satisfaction, and shall retain in the said List the Name of every Person to whom no such Objection shall have been made; and the Decision of the said Revisors with respect to every such List shall be final and conclusive, without Appeal; and the said Revisors shall immediately after such Revision sign their Names at the Foot of the List so revised; and such List, so revised, shall be the Register of Voters in the Election of Members to the Local Marine Board of such Seaport for Three Years from the Twenty-fifth Day of October then next ensuing, inclusive, to the Twenty-fourth Day of October inclusive, in the Third succeeding Year; and when and so soon as the said List is so signed the same shall be delivered to the Mayor or Provost of the said Seaport, who shall cause a sufficient Number of Copies thereof to be printed, and delivered to any Voter applying for the same. Revision of List of Voters.

Board of Trade, &c.

Registers to be produced.

12. And be it enacted, That the Collector of Her Majesty's Customs of every such Seaport shall, for the Assistance of the said Revisors in revising the said List, produce to them the Books containing the Register of Ships registered at such Seaport, and such Revisors shall be allowed to inspect the same; and the Registrar of Seamen shall also produce or transmit to such Revisors such certified Extracts or Returns from the Books in his Custody as may be necessary for the same Purpose.

Expenses of Collector, Mayor, or Provost, to be repaid to him.

13. And be it enacted, That all Expenses incurred by the said Collector at any such Seaport in making and printing the said List, and in the Revision thereof, and all Expenses of the Mayor or Provost in printing the same, shall be certified by the said Justices, in Writing under their Hands, and shall be repaid to the said Collector, Mayor, and Provost by the Board of Trade; and the Board of Trade shall also repay to the said Mayor or Provost all Expenses properly incurred by them in Elections under this Act.

Persons on List qualified to vote.

14. And be it enacted, That every Person whose Name shall appear on such revised List, and no other Person, shall be qualified to vote at the Election of Members of the Local Marine Board at such Seaport to be held on the Twenty-fifth Day of October next after the Revision of such List, and at any occasional Election held at any Time between that Day and the next ordinary triennial Election of Members of the said Board.

Qualification of Members of Local Marine Boards.

15. And be it enacted, That every Male Person who is, according to such revised List, entitled to a Vote or Votes, and shall reside in the Seaport for which such List has been revised, or within Seven Miles thereof, shall be qualified to be elected a Member of the Local Marine Board of such Seaport: Provided always, that every such Person elected to such Board who after such Election ceases to be an Owner of such Quantity of Tonnage as would entitle him under this Act to One Vote as aforesaid, or to reside as aforesaid, shall no longer continue to act or be considered as a Member of such Board, and thereupon another Election of a qualified Member shall take place and be had in the Stead of such Member of the said Board ceasing to be entitled or to reside as aforesaid.

Certain Functions of Admiralty may be transferred to Board of Trade.

16. And be it enacted, That any Functions or Powers relating to "Seamen" or Apprentices not employed in Her Majesty's Service, which are now vested in or exercised by the Lord High Admiral or the Commissioners for executing his Office, may, with his or their Consent, be transferred to and exercised by the "Board of Trade."

New Officers and Servants to be appointed.

17. And be it enacted, That the "Board of Trade" shall nominate Two proper Persons to assist such Board in the Execution of this Act, and may from Time to Time remove and replace them, and appoint an annual Salary not exceeding Six hundred Pounds to each of them, and may also for the Purposes aforesaid from Time to Time appoint and remove such Officers, Clerks, and Servants as it may deem necessary, and fix and alter the Amount of Salaries and Wages to be paid to them.

Accounts to be laid before Parliament.

18. And be it enacted, That the "Board of Trade" shall cause Accounts of all Monies received or paid by it or by its Agents, in pursuance of this Act, during the preceding Year, and of all Monies or Investments applicable to any of the Purposes of this Act of which it may be possessed for the Time being, to be laid before each House of Parliament in the Month of January in every Year, if Parliament is then sitting, or, if Parliament is not then sitting, within One Month after the next Meeting thereof.

Minutes, &c. if sealed, to be received as Evidence.

19. And be it enacted, That all Documents purporting to be Originals or Copies of any Minutes or Orders of the "Board of Trade" on Matters connected with the Merchant Service, or of any Scales of Fees settled by it in pursuance of this Act, and purporting to be sealed with the Seal of the "Board of Trade," shall be taken as Evidence of such Minutes, Orders, and Scales of Fees respectively, without any further Proof.

The Board to sanction Forms required by 7 & 8 Vict. c. 112.

20. And be it enacted, That the "Board of Trade" shall sanction Forms of the several Documents which are required to be in any particular Form by the "General Merchant Seamen's Act," or by so much thereof as is in force for the Time being, and may vary such Forms from those contained in the Schedules thereto, not omitting any essential Particulars.

The Board to settle and issue Forms required by this Act.

21. And be it enacted, That the "Board of Trade" shall cause all such Forms as are hereby required to be sanctioned by it to be prepared, and to be sealed with such Seal as aforesaid, or to be marked with some other distinguishing Mark to be devised and employed for that Purpose, and shall cause such Forms to be issued and sold as herein-after mentioned; and all Books and Documents hereby required to be made in Forms so sanctioned shall, if made in Forms purporting to be so sealed or marked, be taken to have been made in such Forms, unless the contrary is proved; and no Book or Document hereby required to be made in a Form so sanctioned shall be admissible in Evidence in any Civil Proceeding on the Part of any Owner or Master of a Vessel unless the same purports to be so sealed or marked: Provided, that the First Set of Forms to be so issued shall be circulated amongst the Local Marine Boards and otherwise published for Six Weeks previous to the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one no new Form shall be finally issued and brought into use, unless the same has, Three Months or upwards previously to such Issue, been circulated amongst the Local Marine Boards or otherwise published.

No Form not marked to be received as Evidence.

Forms to be published previously.

Forms to be exempt from Stamp Duty.

22. And be it enacted, That all Instruments hereby required to be made in Forms sanctioned by the "Board of Trade" shall, if made in such Forms, be exempt from Stamp Duty.

Penalties for Forgery of Seal, and fraudulent Alteration of Forms;

23. And be it enacted, That every Person who forges or procures to be forged or assists in forging such Seal or other distinguishing Mark as aforesaid, or who fraudulently alters or procures to be altered or assists in altering any Form issued by the "Board of Trade," with the view of evading any of the Provisions of this Act, or any Condition contained in such Form, for each Offence shall either be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, or shall be liable summarily to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds, or to Imprisonment not exceeding Three Months, with or without hard Labour, as the Justice or Court hearing the Case may think fit; and every Person who, in any Case in which a Form sanctioned by the "Board of Trade" is hereby required, without reasonable Excuse uses any Form not purporting to be so sanctioned, or who sells, buys, or uses any Document purporting to be a Form so sanctioned, knowing the same not to be so sanctioned, or not to have been prepared and issued by the "Board of Trade," shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds.

Board of Trade, &c.

for not using Forms issued by the Board.

VI. Conduct and Qualifications of Masters and Mates.

24. And be it enacted, That Examinations shall be instituted for Persons who intend to become Masters or Mates of "Foreign-going Ships," or who wish to procure Certificates of Competency hereinafter mentioned; and the "Board of Trade" shall from Time to Time determine on a general Plan for the Conduct thereof; and the Local Marine Boards of such Ports as have in "Ships" ordinarily employed as "Foreign-going Ships" a registered Tonnage of Thirty thousand Tons or upwards, and such other Local Marine Boards as the Board of Trade may appoint, shall provide for the Examinations at their respective Ports, and may appoint and from Time to Time remove and re-appoint Examiners to conduct the same, and may, subject to the general Superintendence of the "Board of Trade," regulate the same, and may, subject to the Sanction of the Board of Trade, fix the Remuneration of such Examiners; provided, that if it appears to the "Board of Trade" that the Examinations for any Two or more Ports can be conducted without Inconvenience by the same Examiners, it may require and authorize the Local Marine Boards of such Ports to act together as One Board in providing for and regulating Examinations and appointing and removing Examiners for such Ports; and all Examiners shall possess Certificates of Qualification to be from Time to Time granted by the "Board of Trade," and shall adhere to the general Plan of Examination instituted by it; and the "Board of Trade" may at any Time depute any of its Officers to be present and assist at any Examination, and any Members of the Local Marine Board of the Place where the Examination is held may also be present and assist at any such Examination.

Examinations to be instituted for Masters and Mates of "Foreign-going Ships."

25. And be it enacted, That all Applicants for Examination shall pay such Fees, not exceeding the Sums specified in Schedule (A.), as the "Board of Trade" may direct, to such Persons as it may appoint for that Purpose.

Fees to be paid by Applicants.

26. And be it enacted, That the "Board of Trade" shall deliver to every Applicant who is reported by the Local Examiners to have passed the Examination satisfactorily, and to have given satisfactory Evidence of his Sobriety, Experience, Ability, and general good Conduct on Shipboard, a Certificate to the Effect that he is competent to act as Master or Mate, herein-after called a Certificate of Competency.

Certificates of Competency to be granted to those who pass, &c.

27. And be it enacted, That Persons who have before the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one served as Masters or Mates in the British Merchant Service, or who have attained or hereafter may attain the Rank of Lieutenant, Master, Passed Mate, or Second Master, or any higher Rank, in the Naval Service of Her Majesty or of the East India Company, shall be entitled, without Payment of any Fee, to Certificates as Masters or Mates (as the Case may be), differing in Form from "Certificates of Competency," and herein-after called "Certificates of Service;" and each of such Certificates shall contain Particulars of the Name, Place, and Time of Birth, and of the Length and Nature of the previous Service of the Person to whom the same is delivered; and the "Board of Trade" shall deliver to any Person who proves himself to have served as Master in such Manner and before such Time as aforesaid, or to have attained such Rank as aforesaid, and who also gives a full and satisfactory Account of the Particulars aforesaid, a "Certificate of Service" either as Master or Mate, as he may desire, and shall deliver to any Person who proves himself to have served as Mate in such Manner and before such Time as aforesaid, and who also gives a full and satisfactory Account of the Particulars aforesaid, a "Certificate of Service" as Mate; and the "Board of Trade" may also, in Cases in which it thinks fit so to do, give Certificates of Competency in lieu of Certificates of Service to any deserving Persons who have attained such Rank as above mentioned, or who before this Act comes into operation have obtained Certificates from the "Board of Trade," without requiring them to be examined.

Certificates of Service to be delivered to Persons who are already Masters and Mates, and to Officers in the Service of Her Majesty and the East India Company.

Board may in some Cases give them Certificates of Competency.

28. And be it enacted, That if any Master or Mate is convicted of a Misdemeanor under this Act, or is superseded by the Order of a Naval Court constituted as herein-after mentioned, the "Board of Trade" may thereupon cancel or suspend his Certificate, whether of Competency or Service; and if the "Board of Trade" or any Local Marine Board has Reason to believe that any Master or Mate is from Incompetency or Misconduct unfit to discharge his Duties, such Board may either institute an Investigation, or, if expedient, the "Board of Trade" may direct the Local Marine Board at or nearest to the Place at which it may be convenient for the Parties and Witnesses to attend to institute the same; and thereupon such Persons as the "Board of Trade" may appoint for the Purpose, or, as the Case may be, the Local Marine Board, shall, with the Assistance of a Local Stipendiary Magistrate (if any), and if there is no such Magistrate, of a competent legal Assistant to be appointed by the "Board of Trade," conduct the Investigation, and may summon the Master or Mate to appear, and shall give him full Opportunity of making a Defence, either in Person or otherwise, and may exercise any of the Powers of procuring Evidence herein-after given to Special Inspectors appointed by the "Board of Trade," and shall on the Conclusion of the Investigation make a Report upon the Case to the "Board of Trade;" and if such Report is to the Effect that such Master or Mate is, either from Incompetency, or from habitual Drunkenness, or from tyrannical Habits, unfit to discharge his Duties, the "Board of Trade" may cancel or suspend his Certificate, whether of Competency or Service; and every Master or Mate whose Certificate is cancelled or suspended shall thereupon deliver it to the "Board of Trade," or as it may direct; and such Board may at any subsequent Time grant a fresh Certificate to any Person whose Certificate has been cancelled, and it may pay the Expense of any such Investigation as aforesaid, and may pay to such Magistrate or legal Assistant as aforesaid such Remuneration as it may deem fit: Provided always, that no Person interested in any Ship shall take part in any Investigation relating thereto or to the Conduct or Competency of any Master or Mate thereof.

Power to Board of Trade, under certain Conditions, to cancel or suspend Certificates.

Masters and Mates.

The Registrar to have Notice of Grants, Cancellations, &c. of Certificates, and to record the same.

Duplicates and Entries to be Evidence.

In case of Loss a Copy to be granted.

29. And be it enacted, That all Certificates, whether of Competency or Service, shall be made in Duplicate, and one Part shall be delivered to the Person entitled to the Certificate, and the other shall be kept and recorded by the Registrar of Seamen or by such other Person as the "Board of Trade" may direct so to do; and the Board shall give to the Registrar or such other Person immediate Notice of all Orders made by it for cancelling, suspending, altering, or otherwise affecting any Certificate; and the Registrar or such other Person as aforesaid shall thereupon make a corresponding Entry in the Record of Certificates; and a Copy purporting to be certified by the Registrar or his Assistant or by such Person as aforesaid of any Certificate shall be primâ facie Evidence of such Certificate, and a Copy purporting to be so certified as aforesaid of any Entry made as aforesaid in respect of any Certificate shall be primâ facie Evidence of the Truth of the Matters stated in such Entry; and in case any Master or Mate proves to the Satisfaction of the "Board of Trade" that he has innocently lost or been deprived of any Certificate already granted to him, the Board shall, upon Payment of such Fee (if any) as it may direct, cause a Copy of the Certificate to which by the Record so kept as aforesaid he appears to be entitled to be made out and certified as aforesaid, and to be delivered to him, and any Copy which purports to be so made and certified as aforesaid shall have all the Effect of the Original.

No Foreign-going Ship is to proceed to Sea without Production of the Certificates of the Master and Mates.

30. And be it enacted, That no "Foreign-going Ship" shall go to Sea, unless the Master and the First and Second Mates or the only Mate (as the Case may be), if engaged to serve in those Capacities at the Commencement of the Voyage, have obtained and possess valid Certificates either of Competency or Service appropriate to their several Stations; and no Officer of Customs shall clear Outwards any such "Ship" or permit any such "Ship" to proceed to Sea unless such appropriate Certificates are produced to him; and the Tide-waiters left on board shall be maintained at the Expense of the Master or Owner until such Certificates are produced, and Clearance may be delayed till such Expense is satisfied.

Penalties for false Representations; for forging or altering or fraudulently using any Certificate; for neglecting to give up Certificate when cancelled; and for going to Sea without Certificate.

31. And be it enacted, That every Person who makes or procures to be made or assists in making any false Representation for the Purpose of obtaining for himself or for any other Person a Certificate either of Competency or Service, or who fraudulently forges or alters, or procures to be forged or altered, or assists in forging or altering, any such Certificate or any official Copy of any such Certificate, or who fraudulently makes use of any such Certificate or any Copy of any such Certificate which is forged, altered, cancelled, suspended, or to which he is not justly entitled, for each Offence shall either be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, or shall be liable summarily to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds, or to Imprisonment not exceeding Three Months, with or without hard Labour, as the Justice or Court hearing the Case may think fit; and every Person who neglects or refuses to give up a cancelled or suspended Certificate when required by the "Board of Trade" so to do, or who, having been engaged to serve as Master or as First or Second or only Mate of any "Foreign-going Ship," goes to Sea as such Master or Mate without being at the Time entitled to and possessed of a valid and appropriate Certificate, or who employs any Person as Master or Mate of any such "Ship" as aforesaid knowing him not to be entitled at the Time to a valid and appropriate Certificate, shall for each such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds.

VII. Registration.

Transfer to Board of Trade of Control over Registrar.

Register Tickets may be dispensed with.

Power to alter or abolish the Office.

32. And be it enacted, That all Powers of controlling and regulating the General Register and Record Office for Seamen which are given to the Lord High Admiral or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral by the said "General Merchant Seamen's Act" and by an Act passed in the Session of the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend and consolidate the Laws relating to the Merchant Seamen of the United Kingdom, and for forming and maintaining a Register of all the Men engaged in that Service, shall, from the Time when this Act comes into operation, be vested in the "Board of Trade;" and such Board may, with the Concurrence of the said Lord High Admiral or Commissioners, dispense with the Observance of all or any of those Parts of the "General Merchant Seamen's Act" which relate to Register Tickets of "Seamen;" and such Board may direct the Performance by the Registrar of Seamen of any other Duties than those now imposed on him, or may unite his Office and Duties with any other Office and Duties relating to the Merchant Service, or may abolish his Office, and direct any Duties thereof which the Board may think it desirable to continue to be performed by such Persons, being Servants or Agents of the Board, and in such Manner as the Board may think fit; and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may make any Alterations in the Payment of the Salaries and Allowances of the Registrar, his Assistants and Clerks, and may regulate the Salaries or Allowances to be paid to them or to any other Persons for performing any of his or their continuing Duties.

Treasury to regulate Salaries.

Registry, how to be kept in future.

33. And be it enacted, That the Registrar of Seamen or such other Person as the "Board of Trade" may direct so to do shall, so far as by means of the Documents transmitted to him he is able so to do, keep a Record of such Particulars relating to Persons in the Merchant Service as are now recorded by him, or such other Record of Matters relating to such Persons as the Board may direct.

Shipping Masters and other Officers

34. And be it enacted, That all Shipping Masters and Officers of Customs shall take charge of all Documents which are delivered or transmitted to or retained by them in pursuance of this Act, and shall keep them for such Time (if any) as may be necessary for the Purpose of settling any Business arising arising at the Place, or for any other proper Purpose, and shall, if required, produce them for any of such Purposes, and shall then transmit them, excepting Log Books, to the Registrar of Seamen, or to such other Person as the "Board of Trade" may direct, to be by him recorded and preserved; and the Registrar, or such other Person as the Board may intrust with the Custody of any such Document, shall, on Payment of a moderate Fee to be fixed by the Board, or without Payment of any Fee if the Board so direct, allow any Person to inspect the same, and, in Cases in which the Production of the Original in any Court of Justice or elsewhere is essential, produce the same, and in other Cases make and deliver to any Person requiring it a certified Copy thereof or of any Part thereof; and every Copy purporting to be so made and certified shall be received in Evidence, and shall have all the Effect of the Original of which it purports to be a Copy.

to transmit Documents to Registrar, to be preserved.

Registrar to permit Inspection, to produce Originals, and give Copies.

VIII. Shipping Offices.

35. And be it enacted, That in every Seaport in the "United Kingdom" in which there is a Local Marine Board such Board shall establish a Shipping Office or Shipping Offices, and may procure the requisite Premises, and appoint, and from Time to Time remove and re-appoint, Superintendents of such Offices, to be called Shipping Masters, with any necessary Deputies, Clerks, and Servants, and fix and from Time to Time alter their Salaries and Wages, and regulate the Mode of conducting Business at such Offices, and have complete Control over the same, subject to the Approval and immediate Direction of the "Board of Trade" so far as regards the Number of Persons appointed, the Amount of Salaries and Wages, and the Receipt and Payment of Money; and, subject as aforesaid, every Shipping Master shall obey the Directions of the Local Marine Board by which he is appointed; and all Shipping Masters, Deputies, Clerks, and Servants shall before entering upon their Duties give such Security (if any) for the due Performance thereof as the "Board of Trade" may require; and every Act done by or before any Deputy duly appointed shall have the same Effect as if done by or before the Shipping Master: Provided, that if in any Case any Two Members of any Local Marine Board complain to the "Board of Trade" that any Shipping Master, Deputy, Clerk, or Servant appointed by such Local Marine Board does not properly discharge his Duties, the "Board of Trade" may investigate the Case, and may, if the Complaint is substantiated, remove him from his Office, and may provide for the proper Performance of his Duties until another Person is properly appointed in his Place.

Local Boards may establish and regulate Shipping Offices.

36. And be it enacted, That it shall be the general Business of Shipping Masters appointed as aforesaid to afford Facilities for engaging "Seamen" by keeping Registries of their Names and Characters, to superintend and facilitate their Engagement and Discharge in manner herein-after mentioned, to provide Means for securing the Presence on board at the proper Times of Men who are so engaged, and to perform such other Duties in respect of "Seamen" as are hereby or may hereafter be committed to them.

Business of such Offices generally.

37. And be it enacted, That the "Board of Trade" may, with the Consent of Her Majesty's Commissioners of Customs, cause any Duties relating to "Seamen" or Apprentices which are now performed by Officers of Customs to be transferred to and performed by Shipping Masters appointed under this Act.

Business may be transferred from Customs to Shipping Masters.

38. And be it enacted, That Fees shall be payable upon Engagements and Discharges which in pursuance of this Act are to be effected before Shipping Masters as herein-after mentioned, so nevertheless that such Fees shall not exceed the Sums specified in Schedule B.; and, subject to such Restriction, the "Board of Trade" shall fix and may alter the Amount of such Fees, and shall cause Scales thereof to be prepared and to be conspicuously placed in the Shipping Offices; and all Shipping Masters, their Deputies, Clerks, and Servants, may refuse to proceed with any Engagement or Discharge unless the Fees payable thereon are first paid.

Fees to be paid upon Engagements and Discharges, not exceeding Sums in Schedule B.

39. And be it enacted, That every Owner or Master of a "Ship" engaging or discharging any Crew or "Seaman" in a Shipping Office or before a Shipping Master shall pay to the Shipping Master the whole of the Fees hereby made payable in respect of such Engagement or Discharge, and may, notwithstanding anything in the "Seamen's Protection Act" contained, for the Purpose of in part reimbursing himself, deduct in respect of each such Engagement or Discharge, from the Wages of all Persons (except Apprentices) so engaged or discharged, and retain, any Sums not exceeding the Sums specified in that Behalf in Schedule C.

Masters to pay Fees, and to deduct Part from Wages.

Schedule C.

40. And be it enacted, That any Shipping Master, Deputy Shipping Master, Clerk, or Servant who demands or receives any Remuneration whatever, either directly or indirectly, for hiring, supplying, or providing any "Seaman" for any Merchant Ship, excepting the lawful Fees payable under this Act, shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Shipping Masters taking unlawful Fees liable to a Penalty.

41. And be it enacted, That the "Board of Trade" shall cause printed Forms of all Agreements, Advance Notes, Allotment Notes, Receipts, Discharges, Official Log Books, and other Documents which in pursuance of this Act are issued or sanctioned by the Board for the Use of Persons engaged in or connected with the Merchant Service, to be supplied or sold at all Shipping Offices, at such Times, to such Persons, at such moderate Prices (if any), and in such Manner as the Board may direct, or by such other Persons as it may license so to do.

Forms issued by the Board to be sold at Shipping Offices.

42. And be it enacted, That the "Board of Trade" may, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, direct that at any Place in which no separate Shipping Office is established the whole or any Part of the Business of the Shipping Office shall be conducted at the Custom House, and thereupon the same shall be there conducted accordingly; and in respect of such Business such Custom House shall for all Purposes be deemed to be a Shipping Office, and the Officer of the Customs there to whom whom such Business is committed shall for all Purposes be deemed to be a Shipping Master, within the Meaning of this Act.

Business of Shipping Offices may be transacted at Custom Houses

The Board may authorize Sailors Homes to take and retain Fees; and may appoint Sailors Homes in London.

43. 'And whereas it is expedient to encourage Sailors Homes in the Seaports of the "United 'Kingdom:"' Be it enacted, That if the "Board of Trade" or any Local Marine Board appoints any Superintendent or other Person connected with any such Home to be a Shipping Master, or constitutes any Office in any such Home a Shipping Office for all or any of the Purposes of this Act, the "Board of Trade" may authorize the whole or any Portion of the Fees paid at any such Office to be appropriated for the Use of such Home: Provided also, that in the Port of London the "Board of Trade" may appoint any Superintendent of any Sailors Home, or any other Person connected therewith, to be a Shipping Master, with such Deputies, Clerks, and Servants as may be necessary, and may appoint any Office in any such Home to be a Shipping Office, and may from Time to Time revoke and alter such Appointments; and all Shipping Masters, Deputies, Clerks, and Servants so appointed, and all Shipping Offices so constituted, in the Port of London, shall be subject to the immediate Control of the "Board of Trade," and not to the Local Marine Board of the Port.

The Board may dispense with the Shipping Master's Superintendence.

44. And be it enacted, That the "Board of Trade" may from Time to Time in any Case or Class of Cases dispense with the Transaction before a Shipping Master or in a Shipping Office of any Matters required by this Act to be so transacted; and thereupon such Matters shall, if duly transacted as otherwise required by Law, be as valid as if transacted before a Shipping Master or in a Shipping Office.

IX. Engagement of Seamen and Commencement of Employment.

Repeal of Provisions as to Agreements, &c.

45. And be it enacted, That so much of the "General Merchant Seamen's Act" as relates to Agreements with "Seamen" shall be repealed from the Time when so much of this Act as relates to the same Particulars comes into operation, except as to Agreements entered into and Liabilities and Penalties incurred before that Time; and that such of the Provisions of the same Act as relate to the Delivery and Production of the Agreements thereby required to any Consular or Naval Officer or Officer of Customs abroad, and to Endorsements to be made thereon by any such Officer, shall apply to the Agreements hereby required.

Agreements to be made with Seamen, containing certain Particulars.

46. And be it enacted, That every Master of a "Ship" shall, on carrying any "Seaman" to Sea as one of his Crew, enter into an Agreement with him in the Manner herein-after mentioned; and every such Agreement shall be in a Form to be sanctioned and issued by the "Board of Trade," and shall be dated at the Time of the First Signature thereof, and shall be signed by the Master before any "Seaman" signs the same, and shall contain the following Particulars as Terms thereof;

1. The Nature, and, as far as practicable, the Length of the Voyage or Engagement on which the "Ship" is to be employed:
2. The Time at which each "Seaman" is to be on board or to begin Work:
3. The Capacity in which each "Seaman" is to serve:
4. The Amount of Wages which each "Seaman" is to receive:
5. A Scale of the Provisions which are to be furnished to each "Seaman:"
6. Any Regulations as to Conduct on board, and as to Fines, short Allowance of Provisions, or other lawful Punishments for Misconduct, which have been sanctioned by the "Board of Trade" as Regulations proper to be adopted, and which the Parties agree to adopt:

And shall be so framed as to admit of Stipulations, to be adopted at the Will of the Master and "Seaman" in each Case, as to Advance and Allotment of Wages; and may contain any other Stipulations which are not contrary to Law.

For Foreign-going Ships Agreements, except, &c. to be made before, &c. Shipping Master; in Duplicate; one Copy to be retained, the other for Master.

47. And be it enacted, That with respect to "Foreign-going Ships," every Agreement (except in the special Cases of Agreements made out of the "United Kingdom" and of Agreements with Substitutes herein-after mentioned) shall be signed by each "Seaman" in the Presence of a Shipping Master; and such Shipping Master shall cause the Agreement to be read over and explained to each "Seaman," or otherwise ascertain that each "Seaman" understands the same, before he signs it, and shall attest each Signature; and when the Crew is first engaged the Agreement shall be signed in Duplicate; and one Part shall be retained by the Shipping Master, and the other Part shall contain a special Place or Form for the Descriptions and Signatures of Substitutes or Persons engaged subsequently to the first Departure of the "Ship," and shall be delivered to the Master; and in the special Cases of "Seamen" engaged out of the "United Kingdom," and of Substitutes engaged in the Place of "Seamen" who have duly signed the Agreement, and whose Services are lost within Twenty-four Hours of the "Ship's" putting to Sea, by Death, Desertion, or other unforeseen Cause, the Engagement may, when practicable, be made before some Official Shipping Master duly appointed either in the "United Kingdom" or in Her Majesty's Dominions abroad for the Purpose of shipping "Seamen," and in the Manner herein-before specified for ordinary Cases happening in the "United Kingdom;" and in such special Cases whenever the Engagement is not so made, the Master shall, before the "Ship" puts to Sea, if practicable, and if not, as soon afterwards as possible, cause the Agreement to be read over and explained to the "Seaman," either before some "Consular Officer," or before some Officer of Customs, or on board the "Ship;" and the "Seaman" shall thereupon sign the same in the Presence of such Officer, or of some other Witness, who shall attest his Signature; provided, that nothing herein contained shall dispense with the Sanction for shipping "Seamen" at Foreign Ports required by the "General Merchant Seamen's Act."

Provision for Engagements abroad and for Substitutes.

In Home Trade Agreement to be entered into either before a Shipping

48. And be it enacted, That with respect to "Home Trade Ships," Crews or single "Seamen" may, if the Master thinks fit, be engaged or discharged before a Shipping Master in the Manner herein-before directed with respect to "Foreign-going Ships;" and in every Case in which the Engagement is not so made the Master shall, before the "Ship" puts to Sea, if practicable, and if not, as soon afterwards as possible, possible, cause the Agreement to be read over and explained to each "Seaman," and the "Seaman" shall thereupon sign the same in the Presence of a Witness, who shall attest his Signature. Master or on board.

49. And be it enacted, That every Erasure, Interlineation, or Alteration in any such Agreement as aforesaid (except Additions so made as herein-before directed for shipping Substitutes or Persons engaged subsequently to the first Departure of the "Ship") shall be wholly inoperative, unless proved to have been made with the Consent of all the Persons interested by the written Attestation (if made in Her Majesty's Dominions) of some Shipping Master, Justice, Officer of the Customs, or other public Functionary, or (if made out of Her Majesty's Dominions) of a "Consular Officer," or, where there is no "Consular Officer," of Two respectable British Merchants. Alterations to be void unless attested to have been made with the Consent of all Parties.

50. And be it enacted, That in the Case of "Foreign-going Ships" the Master shall, before quitting the first Port of Departure, produce and show to the Collector or Comptroller of Customs the Agreement so signed and attested as aforesaid, and no Officer of Customs shall clear any such "Ship" Outwards or permit any such "Ship" to proceed to Sea without such Production; and the Master shall also, within Forty-eight Hours after the "Ship's" Arrival at her final Port of Destination in the "United Kingdom," or upon the Discharge of the Crew, whichever first happens, deliver such Agreement to the Shipping Master, or, if there is no Shipping Master, to the Collector or Comptroller of Customs; and the Shipping Master or Officer of Customs shall thereupon give to the Master a Certificate of such Delivery; and no Officer of Customs shall clear Inwards any "Foreign-going Ship" without the Production of such Certificate; and in every Case in which any such "Ship" is delayed for Want of the Production of any Agreement or Certificate of the Delivery thereof the Tide-waiters left on board shall be maintained at the Expense of the Master or Owner until the same is produced, and Clearance may be delayed till such Expense is satisfied. Agreements to be produced by Foreign-going Ships, on Departure, and delivered on Arrival; otherwise they are not to be cleared Inwards.

51. And be it enacted, That in the Case of "Home Trade Ships" no Agreement shall extend beyond the next following Thirtieth Day of June or Thirty-first Day of December, or the first Arrival of the "Ship" at her final Port of Destination in the "United Kingdom" after such Date; and the Owner or Master of every such "Ship" shall, within Twenty-one Days after the Thirtieth Day of June and the Thirty-first Day of December in every Year, transmit or deliver to some Shipping Master or Officer of Customs in the "United Kingdom" every Agreement made within the Six Calendar Months next preceding such Days respectively; and the Shipping Master or Officer of Customs shall thereupon give to the Master or Owner a Certificate of such Transmission or Delivery; and no Officer of Customs shall give to the Master or Owner of any such "Ship" as aforesaid a Transire or any other Customs Document necessary for the Conduct thereof without the Production of such Certificate. Agreements to be produced by Home Trade Ships half-yearly; otherwise they are not to receive Transire, &c.

52. And be it enacted, That any "Seaman" may bring forward Evidence to prove the Contents of any Agreement or otherwise to support his Case without producing or giving Notice to produce the Agreement or any Copy thereof. Seamen not bound to produce Agreement or Copy.

53. And be it enacted, That no "Seaman" shall by reason of any Agreement forfeit his Lien upon the Ship, or be deprived of any Remedy for the Recovery of his Wages to which he would otherwise have been entitled; and every Stipulation which is inconsistent with any Provision of this Act or of any other Act relating to Merchant "Seamen," and every Stipulation by which any "Seaman" consents to abandon his Right to Wages in the Case of the Loss of the Ship, or to abandon any Right which he may have or obtain in the Nature of Salvage, shall be wholly inoperative. Seamen not to lose Lien for Wages. Certain Stipulations to be void.

54. And be it enacted, That the Master shall at the Commencement of every Voyage or Engagement cause a legible Copy of the Agreement (omitting the Signatures) to be placed on board in such a Manner as to be accessible to the Crew. Copy of Agreement to be accessible to Crew.

55. And be it enacted, That if in any Case any "Seaman" is carried to Sea without entering into an Agreement in the Form and Manner and at the Place and Time hereby in such Case required, or if any Agreement or such Copy thereof as aforesaid is not delivered or transmitted to a Shipping Master or Officer of Customs at the Time and in the Manner hereby directed, the Master in the Case of a "Foreign-going Ship," and the Master or Owner in the Case of "a Home Trade Ship," shall for each of such Offences be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds; and if a Copy of the Agreement is not placed on board in the Manner herein-before directed, the Master shall for such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds; and every Person who fraudulently alters or procures to be altered, or assists in altering, or makes or procures to be made, or assists in making, any false Entry in, or delivers or procures to be delivered or assists in delivering a false Copy of any Agreement, for each such Offence shall either be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, or shall be liable summarily to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds, or to Imprisonment not exceeding Three Months, with or without hard Labour, as the Justice or Court hearing the Case may think fit. Penalties on Masters for taking Seamen to Sea without Agreement; for Non-production of Agreement; for not giving Agreement to Crew; for falsifying Agreement.

56. And be it enacted, That a "Seaman's" Right to Wages and Provisions shall be taken to commence either at the Time at which he commences Work or at the Time specified in the Agreement for his Commencement of Work or Presence on board, whichever first happens: Provided, that this Enactment shall not prejudice the Infliction of any lawful Punishment, Forfeiture, or Fine; nor shall any "Seaman" be entitled to Wages for any Period during which he refuses or neglects to work when required, whether before or after the Time fixed by the Agreement for his beginning Work. Right to Wages and Provisions, when to begin.

57. And be it enacted, That any "Seaman" who has signed an Agreement, and who is discharged before the Commencement of the Voyage, or before One Month's Wages are earned, without Fault on his Part justifying such Discharge, and without his Consent, shall be entitled to receive from the Master or Owner, in addition to any Wages he may have earned, due Compensation for the Damage thereby caused Seamen discharged before Voyage to have Compensation.

caused to him not exceeding One Month's Wages, and may, on adducing such Evidence as the Justice hearing the Case may deem satisfactory of his having been so improperly discharged as aforesaid, recover such Compensation as if it were Wages duly earned.

X. Advance and Allotment of Wages.

58. And be it enacted, That so much of the "Seamen's Protection Act" as relates to Advance of Wages and Advance Notes shall be repealed from the Time when those Parts of this Act which relate to the same Particulars come into operation, except as to Advances made and Advance Notes given before that Time.

Repeal of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 116. s. 7.

Regulation of Advances and Advance Notes.

59. And be it enacted, That no Advance Note shall be made except in Forms sanctioned by the "Board of Trade," which are to contain Blanks for the Number of Days within which the Notes are to be payable and such other Blanks as may be necessary; and no such Form shall be altered except by duly filling up the Blanks therein; and no Advance of Wages shall be made or Advance Note given to any Person but the "Seaman" himself; and no Advance of Wages shall be made or Advance Note given unless the Agreement contains a Stipulation for the same and an accurate Statement of the Amount thereof; and no Advance Note shall be given to any "Seaman" who signs the Agreement before a Shipping Master, except in the Presence of such Shipping Master, or, except in the Case of a Substitute, until Four Hours after the Agreement has been so signed.

Advances made contrary to the above Regulations to be no Discharge of Wages.

60. And be it enacted, That if any Advance of Wages is made or any Advance Note given to any "Seaman" in any such Manner as to constitute a Breach of any of the above Provisions, the Wages of such "Seaman" shall be recoverable by him as if no such Advance had been made or promised; and in the Case of any Advance Note so given no Person shall be sued thereon unless he was a Party to such Breach.

Advance Notes to be receipted when discounted, and may be sued on summarily;

61. And be it enacted, That whenever any Advance Note is discounted for any "Seaman" such "Seaman" shall sign or set his Mark to a Receipt endorsed on the Note, stating the Sum actually paid or accounted for to him by the Person discounting the same; and such Person may, after the Expiration of Ten Days from the final Departure of the "Ship" from her last Port of Departure in the "United Kingdom," sue for and recover the Amount promised by the Note, with Costs, either from the Owner or from any Agent who has drawn or authorized the drawing of such Note, either in the County Court or in the summary Manner in which "Seamen" are by the "General Merchant Seamen's Act" enabled to sue for and recover Wages not exceeding Twenty Pounds; and in any such Proceeding it shall be sufficient for such Person to prove that the Note was given by the Owner or by the Master or some other authorized Agent, and that the same was discounted to and receipted by the "Seaman;" and the "Seaman" shall be presumed to have gone to Sea with the "Ship," and to have duly earned or to be duly earning his Wages, unless the contrary is proved, either by the Production of his Register Ticket, or by the Official Statement of the Change in the Crew caused by his Absence made and signed by the Master as herein-after required, or in some other Manner.

certain Evidence to be sufficient.

Stipulations for Allotment to be inserted in Agreements.

62. And be it enacted, That all Stipulations for the Allotment of any Part of the Wages of a "Seaman" during his Absence shall be inserted in the Agreement, and shall state the Amounts and Times of the Payments to be made; and all Allotment Notes shall be in Forms sanctioned by the "Board of Trade."

XI. Health, &c. on Voyage.

Space appropriated to Seamen.

63. And be it enacted, That every Place in any "Ship" occupied by "Seamen" or Apprentices, and appropriated to their Use, shall have a Space of not less than Nine Superficial Feet for every Adult measured on the Deck or Floor of such Place, which shall be kept free from Stores or Goods of any kind not being their Personal Property in use during the Voyage; and every such Place shall be securely and properly constructed and well ventilated.

Scale of Medicines according to 7 & 8 Vict. c. 112. s. 18.

64. And be it enacted, That the Duty of issuing a Scale of Medicines and Medicaments, which is by the "General Merchant Seamen's Act" imposed on the Lord High Admiral or the Commissioners for executing his Office, shall be transferred to the "Board of Trade."

Board may dispense with Lime Juice, &c. in certain Cases.

65. And be it enacted, That in the Case of "Ships" bound to any Ports in "Her Majesty's Dominions" in North America the "Board of Trade" may, by general Regulations, dispense with the Observance of so much of the "General Merchant Seamen's Act" as relates to Lime or Lemon Juice, Sugar, and Vinegar, and may limit such Dispensation to any Class of such "Ships," and impose any Conditions it may think fit, and may revoke any such Dispensation.

Board of Trade and Local Boards may appoint Inspectors of Medicines, who are to see that Ships are properly supplied.

66. And be it enacted, That the "Board of Trade" and the Local Marine Boards may appoint proper Medical Inspectors to inspect the Medicines, Medicaments, Lime or Lemon Juice, Sugar, and Vinegar required by the "General Merchant Seamen's Act," and may, subject to the Sanction of the "Board of Trade," fix the Remuneration of such Persons; and such Medical Inspectors shall for the Purposes of such Inspection have the same Powers as the Special Inspectors herein-after mentioned; and whenever any such Medical Inspector reports to the Collector or Comptroller of Customs in any Port, and at the same Time to the Master, Owner, or Consignee of any "Ship" lying therein which is required to carry such Articles, that in such "Ship" the said Articles or any of them are deficient in Quantity or Quality or are placed in improper Vessels, the Master of such "Ship," before proceeding to Sea, shall produce to such Collector or Comptroller a Certificate under the Hand of such Medical Inspector or of some other Medical Inspector, to the Effect that such Deficiency has been supplied or remedied, or that such improper Vessels have been replaced by proper Vessels, as the Case may be; and if such "Ship" proceeds to Sea without the Production of such Certificate, the Owner, Master, or Consignee thereof shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds: Provided, that every such Inspector, if required by timely Notice in Writing from the Master, Owner, or Consignee, shall make his Inspection Three Days at at least before the "Ship" proceeds to Sea, and if the Result of the Inspection is satisfactory shall not again make Inspection before the Commencement of the Voyage, unless he has Reason to suspect that some of the Articles inspected have been subsequently removed, injured, or destroyed.

Health, &c. on Voyage.

67. And be it enacted, That any Person who sells or supplies any Medicines, Medicaments, Lime or Lemon Juice, of bad Quality, for the Use of any Ship, shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Persons selling bad Drugs liable to Penalty.

68. And be it enacted, That every Master shall keep on board proper Weights and Measures, for the Purpose of determining the Quantities of the several Provisions and Articles served out, and shall allow the same to be used at the Time of serving out in the Presence of a Witness whenever any Dispute arises about such Quantities.

Masters to keep Weights and Measures on board.

69. And be it enacted, That if any Place in any "Ship" occupied by "Seamen" or Apprentices, and appropriated to their Use, is not in the whole sufficiently large to give such Space as herein-before required, or if any such Place is not securely and properly constructed and well ventilated, the Owner shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds; and if any such Space as aforesaid is not kept free from Goods and Stores as aforesaid, or if proper Weights and Measures are not kept or allowed to be used as herein-before directed, the Master shall for every Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds.

Penalties for Want of Space; for improper Construction or Ventilation; for not keeping Weights and Measures.

XII. Provisions for checking Desertion.

70. And be it enacted, That if any "Seaman," after signing the Agreement as herein-before required, or any Apprentice, wilfully neglects or refuses to join his "Ship," or deserts, and then or afterwards is found or arrives at any Place in which there is a Court or Justice capable of exercising Jurisdiction under this Act, he shall, on due Proof of the Offence, and, when practicable, of a proper Entry thereof in the Official Log Book, be summarily punished by Imprisonment for a Period not exceeding Twelve Weeks, with or without hard Labour, at the Discretion of the Court or Justice inflicting the same; provided that, in case the Master or the Owner or his Agent so requires, such Court or Justice may, instead of committing the Offender to Prison, cause him to be conveyed on board for the Purpose of proceeding on the Voyage, or may deliver him to the Master or any Mate of the "Ship," or the Owner or his Agent, to be by them so conveyed, and may in such Case order any Costs and Expenses properly incurred by or on behalf of the Master or Owner by reason of the Offence to be paid by the Offender, and, if necessary, to be deducted from any Wages which he may have then earned, or which by virtue of his then existing Engagement he may afterwards earn.

Refusal to join, and Desertion, Three Months Imprisonment; with Power to Justice to send the Offender on board.

71. And be it enacted, That whenever a "Seaman" or Apprentice neglects or refuses to join, or absents himself without Leave or deserts from, any "Ship" in which he is engaged to serve, the Master or any Mate, or the Owner, Ship's Husband, or Consignee, may, for the Purpose of carrying him before a Justice, apprehend or require any Police Officer or Constable to apprehend him, without first procuring a Warrant, but so nevertheless as not to detain him in Custody more than Twenty-four Hours, or such shorter Time as may in the particular Case be reasonable, before the Case is heard or a proper Warrant is procured; but if any such Apprehension appears to the Court or Justice before whom the Case is brought to have been made on improper or on insufficient Grounds, the Master, Mate, Owner, Ship's Husband, or Consignee who made the same, or caused the same to be made, shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Master or Owner may give Deserters, &c. in charge without Warrant.

72. And be it enacted, That if in the course of a Voyage any "Seaman" or Apprentice is found absenting himself from his "Ship" without Leave, the Master or any Mate, or the Owner, Ship's Husband, or Consignee, may, in any Place in Her Majesty's Dominions, with or without the Assistance of the local Authorities, who are hereby directed to give the same, if required, and also at any Place out of Her Majesty's Dominions, if and so far as the Laws in force at such Place will permit, apprehend him, and shall thereupon, if he so requires, and if practicable, convey him before some Court or Justice capable of hearing his Complaint, to be dealt with according to Law, or may, if he does not so require, or if there is no such Court or Justice at or near the Place, at once convey him on board.

On Voyage Seamen found absent without Leave may be carried on board.

73. And be it enacted, That such Wages or Parts of Wages forfeited for Desertion as are, by the Section of the "General Merchant Seaman's Act" numbered IX. in the Copy printed by the Queen's Printer, applicable to the Reimbursement of the Expenses occasioned by such Desertion to the Master or Owner of the "Ship" from which the "Seaman" has deserted, may be recovered by such Master or by the Owner or his Agent in the same Manner as the "Seaman" might have recovered the same if they had not been forfeited; and any Court or Justice may in any Proceeding relating to such Wages order the same to be paid accordingly.

Wages forfeited for Desertion to be recoverable by Master, &c. 7 & 8 Vict. c. 112. s. 9.

74. And be it enacted, That in all Cases of Desertion from any "Ship" in any Place abroad the Master shall produce the Entry of such Desertion in the Official Log Book to the Person or Persons required by the "General Merchant Seaman's Act" to indorse on the Agreement a Certificate of such Desertion; and such Person or Persons shall thereupon make and certify a Copy of such Entry and also a Copy of the said Certificate of Desertion; and if such Person is a public Functionary he shall, and in other Cases the said Master shall, forthwith transmit such Copies to the Registrar of Seamen in England; and the said Registrar shall, if required, cause the same to be produced in any legal Proceeding; and such Copies, if purporting to be so made and certified as aforesaid, and if shown to have come from the Custody of the said Registrar, shall in any legal Proceeding relating to such Desertion be received as Evidence of the Entries therein appearing.

Entries and Certificates of Desertion abroad to be copied, sent home, and admitted in Evidence. 7 & 8 Vict. c. 112. ss. 9. 46.

75. And be it enacted, That if any "Seaman" on or before being engaged wilfully and fraudulently makes a false Statement of the Name of his last "Ship" or last alleged "Ship," or wilfully and fraudulently False Statement as to last Ship or Name to be Forfeiture.

Provisions for checking Desertion.

fraudulently makes a false Statement of his own Name, he shall forfeit out of the Wages he may earn by virtue of such Engagement a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds; and such Sum shall, subject to Reimbursement of the Loss and Expenses (if any) occasioned by any previous Desertion, be paid to the "Board of Trade."

Board may dispense with Sanction for Discharge of Men in Colonies required by 7 & 8 Vict. c. 121. s. 46.

76. And be it enacted, That the "Board of Trade" may, by Regulations duly published, dispense with the Necessity of obtaining such Sanctions for the Discharge of "Seamen" in "Her Majesty's Dominions" abroad as are required by the "General Merchant Seamen's Act," and may limit such Dispensations to any particular Class of "Ships" or Voyages, and may impose any Conditions it may think fit, and may revoke any such Dispensation; and whilst any such Dispensation is in force any Master, whose Agreement permits of his so doing, may discharge his Crew or any Members thereof, without such Sanction as aforesaid, in any Place to which such Dispensation may apply.

XIII. Discipline on Voyage.

Misconduct endangering the Ship or Life or Limb a Misdemeanor.

77. And be it enacted, That any Master or Mate of, or any "Seaman" or Apprentice belonging to, any British "Ship," who by wilful Breach of Duty, or by Neglect of Duty, or by reason of Drunkenness, does any Act tending to the immediate Loss, Destruction, or serious Damage of such "Ship," or tending immediately to endanger the Life or Limb of any Person belonging to or on board of such "Ship," or who by wilful Breach of Duty, or by Neglect of Duty, or by reason of Drunkenness, refuses or omits to do any lawful Act proper and requisite to be done by him for preserving such "Ship" from immediate Loss, Destruction, or serious Damage, or for preserving any Person belonging to or on board of such "Ship" from immediate Danger to Life or Limb, shall for each such Offence be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Certain Offences to be punishable on Arrival in Port:

78. And be it enacted, That any "Seaman" or Apprentice who whilst on Service commits any of the following Offences, and who then is or afterwards arrives or is found at any Place in which there is a Court or Justice capable of exercising summary Jurisdiction under this Act, may, on due Proof of the Offence, and of such Entry thereof in the Log Book as herein-after directed, be summarily punished by Imprisonment, with or without hard Labour, not exceeding in Duration the several Periods following; (that is to say,)

Theft or wilful Damage;

1. Twelve Weeks for wilfully damaging the "Ship," or embezzling or wilfully damaging any of her Stores or Cargo:

Assaulting Officers;

2. Twelve Weeks for assaulting any Master or Mate:

Disobedience;

3. Four Weeks for wilful Disobedience to any lawful Command:

4. Twelve Weeks for continued wilful Disobedience to lawful Commands, or for continued wilful Neglect of Duty:

Combining to disobey or neglect Duty.

5. Twelve Weeks for combining with any other or others of the Crew to disobey lawful Commands, or to neglect Duty, or to impede the Navigation of the "Ship" or the Progress of the Voyage:

Provided always, that nothing herein-before contained shall take away or abridge any Powers which a Master has over his Crew.

Fines to be deducted from Wages, and paid to Shipping Master.

79. And be it enacted, That whenever any Act of Misconduct is committed which is by the Agreement subject to a Fine, the appropriate Fine shall, if an Entry of the Offence is made and attested in the Official Log Book as herein-after directed, and if the Offence is proved to the Satisfaction of the Shipping Master to whom the Fine is to be paid, be deducted from the Wages of the Offender; and the Master or Owner shall pay over every Fine so deducted as follows; that is to say, in the Case of "Foreign-going Ships" to the Shipping Master before whom the Crew is discharged, and in the Case of "Home Trade Ships" to the Shipping Master at or nearest to the Place at which the Crew is discharged; and any Master or Owner who neglects or refuses to pay over any such Fine as aforesaid shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Six Times the Amount of the Fine retained by him: Provided always, that if, before the final Discharge of the Crew in the United Kingdom, any such Offender as aforesaid enters into any of Her Majesty's Ships, or is discharged abroad, the Offence shall then be proved to the Satisfaction of the Officer in command of the Ship into which he so enters, or of the Consular Officer, Officer of Customs, or other Person by whose Sanction he is so discharged; and the Fine shall thereupon be deducted as aforesaid; and an Entry of such Deduction shall then be made in the Official Log Book, and signed by such Officer or other Person; and such Fine shall, on the Return of the Ship to the United Kingdom, in the Case of "Foreign-going Ships," be paid to the Shipping Master before whom the Crew is discharged, and in the Case of "Home Trade Ships" to the Shipping Master at or nearest to the Place at which the Crew is discharged.

Both Imprisonment and Forfeiture may be inflicted, if Justice so requires.

80. And be it enacted, That whenever in any Proceeding under the General Merchant Seamen's Act or this Act any Question arises concerning any Offence committed by a "Seaman" or Apprentice which is punishable under either of such Acts, the Court or Justice hearing the same may, if the Justice of the Case requires, order the Offender to be punished, both by lawful Imprisonment appropriate to the Case, and, in addition, may make such Order in regard of Wages accruing due in the meantime as to such Court or Justice may seem fit.

No Allowance for Reduction in Provisions during Neglect of Duty, &c. 7 & 8 Vict. c. 112. s. 12.

81. And be it enacted, That no "Seaman" or Apprentice shall be entitled to any pecuniary Allowance, on account of any Reduction in the Quantity of Provisions furnished to him during such Time as he wilfully and without sufficient Cause refuses or neglects to perform his Duty, or is lawfully under Confinement for Misconduct either on board or on shore, or during such Time as such Quantity may be reduced in accordance with any Regulation for Reduction by way of Punishment contained in the Agreement.

82. And

XIV. Naval Court on Voyage.

Naval Court for hearing Complaints on the High Seas and abroad; its Constitution; and Powers.

82. And be it enacted, That if, whilst any "Ship" is out of "Her Majesty's Dominions," a Complaint is made by the Master or by any of the certificated Mates, or by One Third or more of the "Seamen" in her Crew, or by the Consignee, to any Naval Officer in Command of any "Ship" of Her Majesty, or in the Absence of such Naval Officer, to any "Consular Officer," such Naval or Consular Officer shall thereupon, if Circumstances admit, and if he thinks the Case requires immediate Investigation, but not otherwise, summon a Court consisting of not more than Five and not less than Three Members, of whom if possible, One shall be a Naval Officer not below the Rank of Lieutenant, One a "Consular Officer," and One a Master of a British Merchant Ship, and the rest shall be either Naval Officers, Masters of British Merchant Ships, or British Merchants, and such Court may include the Naval or Consular Officer summoning the same, but shall not include the Master or Consignee of the "Ship" to which the Parties complaining or complained against may belong; and the Naval or Consular Officer on such Court, if there is only One such Officer on the Court, and if there is more than One, the Naval or Consular Officer who according to any Regulations for settling their respective Ranks for the Time being in force is of the highest Rank, shall be the President of such Court; and such Court shall hear the Case, and may for that Purpose summon and compel the Attendance of Parties and Witnesses, and administer Oaths and Affirmations, and order the Production of Documents, and may discharge any "Seaman" from his "Ship," and may, if the Court is unanimous that the Safety of the "Ship" or Crew, or the Interests of the Owner, absolutely require it, supersede the Master, and appoint another Person to act in his Stead, such Appointment to be made with the Consent of the Consignee of the "Ship," if then at the Place, and shall, whether any Order is made or not, make a Report containing a Statement of the Proceedings and of the Evidence, and send it to the "Board of Trade;" and such Report, if purporting to be signed by the senior Naval Officer or Master, or to be sealed with the Consular Seal, and if produced out of the Custody of the "Board of Trade" or its Officers, shall be admitted in Evidence in any legal Proceeding.

Report to be sent home.

Costs of Proceeding and Compensation for Delay.

83. And be it enacted, That such Court may order the Costs of the Proceeding before it (if any), or any Portion thereof, to be paid by any of the Parties thereto, and may order any Person making a frivolous or vexatious Complaint to pay Compensation for any Loss or Delay caused thereby; and any Cost or Compensation so ordered shall be paid by such Person accordingly, and may be recovered in the same Manner as other Sums hereby made recoverable, or may, if the Case admits, be deducted from his Wages; and the "Board of Trade" may, in any Case in which it thinks fit so to do, pay any Costs of any such Proceeding, and make any reasonable Compensation for any Damage or Delay caused thereby.

Penalty for preventing Complaint.

84. And be it enacted, That any Person who wilfully and without due Cause prevents or obstructs the making or Investigation of any such Complaint as aforesaid shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds, or to Imprisonment, with or without hard Labour, for a Period not exceeding Twelve Weeks.

XV. Log Books.

The Board is to sanction Forms of Log Books, which are to be invariably employed and properly kept.

85. And be it enacted, That the Board of Trade shall sanction Forms of Official Log Books, which may be different for different Classes of "Ships," and shall contain, amongst other things, Blanks for the Entries herein-after required, and for Entries as to the Character and Conduct of the several Members of the Crew; and an Official Log of every "Ship" shall be kept in the sanctioned Form, and all the Blanks therein shall be duly filled up; and in all Cases the Entries shall be made as soon as possible after the Occurrences to which they relate, and in no Case shall any Entry be made more than Twenty-four Hours after the Arrival of the "Ship" at her final Port of Entry or Discharge in respect of any Occurrence happening previously to such Arrival; and the Official Log may, at the Discretion of the Master or Owner, be either united with or kept distinct from the ordinary Ship's Log; and in Cases in which they are kept distinct, and in which the Official Log is properly kept, nothing herein contained shall apply to the ordinary Ship's Log.

Entries of Fines and Punishments to be made in the Log, and attested; also Entries as to Conduct generally.

86. And be it enacted, That the Master of every "Ship" shall, upon every legal Conviction of any Member of his Crew, and upon every Infliction of Punishment on any such Member, and upon the Commission of every Offence by any such Member for which it is intended to procure Punishment to be inflicted or to enforce a Forfeiture or exact a Fine, immediately cause a Statement of the Offence, and in the Case of a Conviction or of Punishment actually inflicted a Statement of such Conviction or Punishment, to be entered in the Official Log Book, and shall cause such Entry to be signed by a Mate of the "Ship," or, if there is no Mate, by the Carpenter, Boatswain, or One of the oldest Members of the Crew; and the Master shall also from Time to Time or at some Time before the Discharge of the Crew fill up the Blanks left for that Purpose in the Official Log Books with true Entries concerning the Conduct and Character of the several Members of the Crew, or may, in a Blank to be left for that Purpose, state that he declines to give any Opinion thereupon.

Entries of Illness, Injury, and Death to be made in Log Books; also of Seamen leaving Ship.

87. And be it enacted, That every Master shall, in every Case of Illness or Injury causing Suspension of Work or of Death happening to any "Seaman" or Apprentice during a Voyage, cause an Entry thereof, and also, in the Case of Illness or Injury, of the Nature thereof and of the Medical Treatment adopted, and, in the Case of Death, of the Cause of Death, to be made in the Official Log Book, such Entry to be signed by the Mate, or, if there is no Mate, by the Carpenter, Boatswain, or one of the oldest Members of the Crew, and by the Surgeon or Medical Man on board, if any, and shall also, in case of any "Seaman" or Apprentice ceasing to be a Member of the Crew otherwise than by Death on board, thereupon immediately cause an Entry of the Place, Time, Manner, and Cause of such "Seaman" or Apprentice ceasing to be a Member of the Crew to be made in the Official Log Book, such Entry to be signed by the Mate, or, if there is no Mate, by the Carpenter, Boatswain, or One of the oldest Members of the Crew.

Log Books.

List in Schedule (G.) 7 & 8 Vict. c. 112. s. 26. not required.

88. And be it enacted, That no Lists made in the Form set forth in Schedule (G.) to the "General Merchant Seamen's Act" shall be required from any Master who has engaged his Crew before a Shipping Master; but the Master of every "Foreign-going Ship" of which the Crew has been so engaged shall, before finally leaving the "United Kingdom," sign and send to the nearest Shipping Master a full and accurate Statement, in a Form to be sanctioned by the "Board of Trade," of every Change which takes place in his Crew before finally leaving the "United Kingdom."

Changes in Crew to be reported.

Official Logs to be delivered by Foreign-going Ships on Arrival;

89. And be it enacted, That in the Case of "Foreign-going Ships" the Master shall within Forty-eight Hours after the "Ship's" Arrival at her final Port of Destination in the "United Kingdom" or upon the Discharge of the Crew, whichever first happens, deliver to the Shipping Master, or, if there is no Shipping Master, to the Collector or Comptroller of Customs, the Official Log Book of the Voyage; and the Shipping Master or Officer of Customs shall thereupon give to the Master a Certificate of such Delivery, and no Officer of Customs shall clear Inwards any "Foreign-going Ship" without the Production of such Certificate; and in every Case in which any such "Ship" is delayed for Want of such Certificate the Tide-waiters left on board shall be maintained at the Expense of the Master or Owner until the same is produced, and Clearance may be delayed till such Expense is satisfied.

otherwise they are not to be cleared.

Official Logs to be delivered by Home Trade Ships half-yearly;

90. And be it enacted, That in the Case of "Home Trade Ships" the Owner or Master shall within Twenty-one Days after the Thirtieth Day of June and the Thirty-first Day of December in every Year transmit or deliver to some Shipping Master or Officer of Customs in the "United Kingdom" the Official Log Book for the preceding Half Year, and the Shipping Master or Officer of Customs shall thereupon give to the Master or Owner a Certificate of such Transmission or Delivery; and no Officer of Customs shall give to the Master or Owner of any such "Ship" as aforesaid a Transire or other Customs Document necessary for the Conduct thereof, without the Production of such Certificate.

otherwise they are not to receive Transire.

Logs to be sent home in case of Transfer of Ship;

and in case of Loss.

91. And be it enacted, That if any "Ship" is so transferred as no longer to be within the Operation of this Act, the Master or Transferor thereof shall, within One Month if such Transfer is made in the "United Kingdom," and within Six Months if the same is made elsewhere, deliver or transmit to the Shipping Master or Comptroller or Collector of Customs at the "Port" to which the "Ship" previously belonged the Official Log Book duly made out to the Time of such Transfer; and if any "Ship" is lost, the Master or Owner thereof shall, if practicable, and as soon as possible, deliver or transmit to the Shipping Master or Comptroller or Collector of Customs at the Port to which the "Ship" belonged the Official Log Book duly made out to the Time of such Loss.

Logs to be re-delivered to Master or Owner.

92. And be it enacted, That every Shipping Master or Officer of Customs to whom any Log Book is delivered in pursuance of this Act shall, at any Time after the Expiration of Forty-eight Hours after such Delivery, re-deliver the same to the Master or Owner, if required so to do; and such Master or Owner shall at any Time within Two Years of such Re-delivery, if required by the "Board of Trade," produce the same for Inspection, as it may direct.

Penalties for not keeping Log;

for not reporting Change in Crew;

for not delivering Log;

for making Entries in Log more than 24 Hours after Arrival; for making false Entries.

93. And be it enacted, That if any Log Book hereby required to be kept or made in a particular Manner is not so kept, or if any Entry hereby directed to be made in any Log Book is not made at the Time and in the Manner hereby directed, or if, in case of any such Change in a Crew before leaving the "United Kingdom" as herein-before mentioned, such Statement thereof is not signed and sent as herein-before directed, the Master shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds; and if any Log Book hereby required to be delivered, transmitted, or produced is not delivered, transmitted, or produced as hereby directed, the Master or Owner (as the Case may require) shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds; and every Person who makes or procures to be made or assists in making any Entry in any Official Log Book more than Twenty-four Hours after the "Ship" has arrived at her final Port of Discharge in respect of any Occurrence happening previously to such Arrival, shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Thirty Pounds; and every Person who wilfully makes or procures to be made or assists in making any false or fraudulent Entry or Omission in any Log Book, for each Offence shall either be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, or shall be liable summarily to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds, or to Imprisonment not exceeding Three Months, with or without hard Labour, as the Court or Justice hearing the Case may think fit.

XVI. Payment of Wages and Discharge of Crews.

No Seaman to sue for Wages abroad except in certain Cases.

94. And be it enacted, That no "Seaman" who is engaged for a Voyage or Engagement which is to terminate in the "United Kingdom" shall be entitled to sue abroad for Wages in any Court or before any Justice, unless he is discharged in the Manner required by the "General Merchant Seamen's Act," and with the written Consent of the Master, or proves such Ill-usage on the Part of the Master, or by his Authority, as to warrant reasonable Apprehension of Danger to the Life of such Seaman by remaining on board; but if any "Seaman" on his Return to the "United Kingdom" proves that the Master or Owner has been guilty of any Conduct or Default which, but for this Enactment, would have entitled the "Seaman" to sue for Wages before the Termination of the Voyage or Engagement, he shall be entitled to recover, in addition to his Wages, such Compensation, not exceeding Twenty Pounds, as the Court or Justice hearing the Case may think reasonable.

Remedy on Return to United Kingdom.

Masters to deliver Accounts to Seamen.

95. And be it enacted, That, except in Cases in which "Seamen" expressly require to be paid without waiting for an Account, every Master shall, not less than Twenty-four Hours before paying off or discharging any "Seaman," deliver to him, or, if the "Seaman" is to be discharged before a Shipping Master, to such Shipping Master, a full Account, in a Form sanctioned by the Board, of his Wages, and of all Deductions to be made therefrom on any Account whatever; and no such Deduction (except (except in the Cases above excepted, and also except in respect of any Matter happening after such Delivery,) shall be allowed unless a Statement thereof is so made and delivered.

Discharge from Foreign-going Ships to be made before Shipping Master.

96. And be it enacted, That in the Case of "Foreign-going Ships" all "Seamen" discharged in the "United Kingdom" shall be discharged and receive their Wages in the Presence of a Shipping Master duly appointed hereunder.

Shipping Master may decide Questions which Parties refer to him.

97. And be it enacted, That the Shipping Master shall hear and decide any Question whatever between a Master or Owner and any of his Crew which both Parties agree in Writing to submit to him; and every Decision so made by him shall be binding on both Parties, and shall, in any legal Proceeding which may be taken in the Matter before any Court or Justice, be deemed to be conclusive as to the Rights of the Parties; and such written Submission, though unstamped, signed by the Parties, with an unstamped Certificate of the Decision signed by the Shipping Master, shall be sufficient Evidence that the same has been duly made.

Release to be signed before and attested by the Shipping Master; and to be kept;

and to be a Discharge;

98. And be it enacted, That upon the Completion before a Shipping Master of any Discharge and Settlement the Master or Owner and each "Seaman" shall respectively in the Presence of the Shipping Master sign a mutual Release of all Claims in respect of the past Voyage or Engagement, in a Form to be sanctioned by "the Board of Trade," and the Shipping Master shall also sign and attest it, and shall retain and transmit it as herein-before directed; and such Release so signed and attested shall operate as a mutual Discharge and Settlement of all Demands between the Parties thereto in respect of the past Voyage or Engagement; and a Copy of such Release, certified under the Hand of such Shipping Master to be a true Copy, shall be given by him to any Person who may be a Party thereto, and may require the same; and such Copy shall be receivable in Evidence upon any future Question touching such Claims as aforesaid, and shall have all the Effect of the Original of which it purports to be a Copy; and in Cases in which Discharge and Settlement before a Shipping Master is required, no Payment, Receipt, Settlement, or Discharge otherwise made shall operate or be admitted as Evidence of the Release or Satisfaction of any Claim; and upon any Payment being made by a Master before a Shipping Master the Shipping Master shall, if required, sign and give to such Master a Statement of the whole Amount so paid; and such Statement shall, as between the Master and his Employer, be received as Evidence that he has made the Payments therein mentioned.

and no other Receipt to be a Discharge.

Voucher to be given to Master, and to be Evidence.

Master to make Reports of Character.

99. And be it enacted, That every Master shall, upon any Discharge being effected before a Shipping Master, make and sign in Duplicate, in a Form sanctioned by the "Board of Trade," a Report of the Conduct, Character, and Qualifications of the Persons discharged, or may state in a Column to be left for that Purpose in the said Form that he declines to give any Opinion thereupon; and the Shipping Master shall retain one Copy, and shall transmit the other to the Registrar of Seamen, or to such other Person as the Board may direct, to be recorded, and shall, if desired so to do by any "Seaman," give to him or endorse on his Certificate of Discharge a Copy of so much of such Report as concerns him.

Master, &c. to produce Ship's Papers, &c. to Shipping Masters, and give Evidence.

100. And be it enacted, That any Shipping Master may, in any Proceeding relating to the Wages, Claims, or Discharge of any "Seaman" hereby directed to be carried on before him, call upon the Owner or his Agent, or upon the Master or any Mate or other Member of the Crew, to produce any Log Books, Papers, or other Documents in their respective Possession or Power relating to any Matter in question in such Proceeding, and may call before him and examine any of such Persons, being then at or near the Place, on any such Matter.

Penalties for not discharging before Shipping Master; for not giving Account to Seamen;

for not giving Evidence;

for falsifying, forging, or fraudulently using Certificates of Character.

101. And be it enacted, That any Master or Owner who, in any Case in which Discharge and Settlement for Wages are hereby directed to be made before a Shipping Master, discharges any "Seaman" or settles with him for his Wages otherwise than as herein-before directed, shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds; and any Master who fails to deliver such Account as herein-before required at the Time and in the Manner herein-before directed shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds; and every Owner, Agent, Master, Mate, or other Member of the Crew, who when called upon by the Shipping Master does not produce any such Paper or Document as herein-before in that Behalf mentioned, if in his Possession or Power, or does not appear and give Evidence, and does not show some reasonable Excuse for such Default, shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds; and every Person who makes or procures to be made or assists in making any false Certificate or Report of the Service, Qualifications, Conduct, or Character of any "Seaman," knowing the same to be false, or who fraudulently forges or alters, or procures to be forged or altered, or assists in forging or altering, any such Certificate or Report, or who fraudulently makes use of any Certificate or Report which is forged or altered or does not belong to him, for each Offence shall either be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, or shall be liable summarily to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds, or to Imprisonment not exceeding Three Months, with or without hard Labour, as the Justice or Court hearing the Case may think fit.

XVII. Powers of Investigation.

Power of procuring Returns, &c.

102. And be it enacted, That all "Consular Officers" and all Officers of Customs abroad, and all Local Marine Boards, and Shipping Masters, shall make and send to the "Board of Trade" such Returns or Reports on any Matter relating to the British Merchant Service or to Persons employed therein as it may require; and all Shipping Masters shall, when required, produce to the "Board of Trade" or to its Officers all Log Books and other Documents which in pursuance of this Act are delivered to them, and the "Board of Trade" may require the Attendance of any Officer of Customs or other public Officer or Servant in the "United Kingdom" whom it thinks fit to examine concerning any such Matter as aforesaid, and may require from him any Answers or Returns as to any such Matter, and may examine him him on Oath or Affirmation, and cause him to produce before it any Documents in his Possession relating to any such Matter.

Shipping Masters, Naval Officers, Consuls, and Officers of Customs may call for Log, &c.

103. And be it enacted, That every Shipping Master, and every Officer and Agent of the "Board of Trade," and every Commissioned Officer of any of Her Majesty's "Ships," and every British "Consular Officer," and every Chief Officer of Customs in any Place in "Her Majesty's Dominions" abroad, may require the Production of the Official Log Book and any Documents relating to the Crew in the Possession of the Owner, Master, or any of the Crew, for the Purpose of inspecting the same, and of seeing that the Provisions of this Act, and of every other Act relating to Merchant "Seamen," are complied with.

In Cases of Accident, Misconduct, and of gross Violation of Law, the Board may appoint special Inspectors to report.

104. And be it enacted, That whenever the "Board of Trade" has Reason to apprehend that any serious Accident occasioning Loss of Life or Property has been sustained or caused by or has happened on board of any "Ship," or that any "Ship" has been lost or has received material Damage, or that any of the Provisions of this Act or of any other Act relating to Merchant "Ships" or Merchant Sailors are so grossly neglected or disobeyed as to require special Investigation, it may appoint the local Examiners or any other proper Person or Persons as special Inspector or Inspectors to inquire into and to report thereupon; and every Person so authorized may at all reasonable Times, upon producing his Authority (if required), go on board and inspect any "Ship" the Inspection of which appears to him requisite for the Purpose of the Investigation, and every Part thereof, not detaining the "Ship" from proceeding on her Voyage, and enter and inspect any Premises the Entry or Inspection of which appears to him requisite for the same Purpose, and may make such Inquiries in the Matter as he may think fit.

Inspectors may call for the Production of Evidence.

105. And be it enacted, That every such special Inspector as aforesaid may, by Summons under his Hand, require the Attendance of all such Persons as he may think fit to call before him upon any Matter connected with the Execution of any of the Powers and Duties vested in him as such Inspector, and may require Answers or Returns to any Inquiries he may think fit to make, and may require and enforce the Production of all Log Books, Accounts, Agreements, or other Papers or Writings in anywise relating to any such Matter, and may also require every such Person to make and subscribe a Declaration of the Truth of the Statements made by him in his Examination: Provided always, that no such Person need for the Purpose of obeying any such Summons travel more than Ten Miles from his actual Abode at the Time of receiving the same, unless Tender is made to him of such reasonable Expenses in respect of his Attendance to give Evidence and his Journeys to and from the Place where he is required to attend for that Purpose as would be allowed to any Witness attending on Subpœna to give Evidence before any of Her Majesty's Courts at Westminster; and in case of any Dispute as to the Amount of such Expenses the same shall be referred by the Inspector to One of the Masters of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench, who is hereby required, on a Request made to him for that Purpose under the Hand of the said Inspector, to ascertain and certify the proper Amount of such Expenses.

Expenses of Witnesses.

Penalties for obstructing Inspectors in the Execution of their Duty; and for not giving Evidence to Inspector.

106. And be it enacted, That every Person who wilfully impedes any special Inspector appointed by the "Board of Trade" or any other Person hereby authorized to enter and inspect any "Ship" or other Premises in the Execution of his Duty, whether on board any "Ship" or elsewhere, may be seized and detained by such Inspector or other Person, or by any Person or Persons whom he may call to his Assistance, until such Offender can be conveniently taken before some Justice of the Peace or other Officer having proper Jurisdiction; and every such Offender, and also every Person who refuses to attend as a Witness before any special Inspector when required so to do in the Manner hereby directed, or who refuses or neglects to make any Answer, or to give any Return, or to produce any Document in his Possession, or to make or subscribe any Declarations, which any special Inspector or other such Person as aforesaid is hereby empowered to require, shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds.

XVIII. Procedure.

Misdemeanors to be prosecuted by Information or Indictment.

107. And be it enacted, That all Misdemeanors mentioned or created by this Act may be prosecuted by Information at the Suit of Her Majesty's Attorney General, or by Indictment, or by such other legal Proceeding as is applicable in the like Cases in any Court having appropriate Criminal Jurisdiction in any of "Her Majesty's Dominions," and shall be punishable with Fine or Imprisonment, with or without hard Labour, or both, as such Court may think fit, and the Court may, if it shall think fit, order Payment of the Costs and Expenses of the Prosecution; and all Penalties and other Sums of Money hereby made payable or recoverable may be recovered, with Costs, and all Offences hereby made punishable otherwise than solely as Misdemeanors may be prosecuted and punished, and the Costs of such Prosecution recovered, by some appropriate summary Proceeding, before One or more Justice or Justices, Sheriff or Sheriffs, or other Officer or Officers exercising a similar Jurisdiction in any Part of "Her Majesty's Dominions;" and all such summary Proceedings, if instituted in England or Wales, may, so far as is consistent with the Provisions of this Act, be carried on either in the Manner directed by an Act passed in the Session of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled An Act to facilitate the Performance of the Duties of Justices of the Peace out of Sessions within England and Wales with respect to summary Convictions and Orders, or, if the Case admits, in the Manner directed by the "General Merchant Seamen's Act" as to Penalties thereby imposed.

Penalties and other Sums to be recovered and Offences punished summarily.

11 & 12 Vict. c. 43.

7 & 8 Vict. c. 112.

Jurisdiction to be where Offence committed or Offender is.

108. And be it enacted, That for the Purpose of giving Jurisdiction under this Act every Offence shall be deemed to have been committed, and every Cause of Complaint to have arisen, either in the Place in which the same actually was committed or arose or in any Place in which the Offender or Person complained against may be.

109. And Personal Service, or on board, good. 7 & 8 Vict. c. 112. 8 & 9 Vict. c. 116.

109. And be it enacted, That Service of any Summons or other Matter in any legal Proceeding under the "General Merchant Seamen's Act" or the "Seamen's Protection Act" or this Act, shall be good Service, if made personally on the Person to be served, or if made by leaving such Summons for him on board any Vessel to which he may belong, with the Person being or appearing to be in command or charge of such Vessel.

Evidence. 7 & 8 Vict. c. 112. 8 & 9 Vict. c. 116.

110. And be it enacted, That in any legal Proceeding of a Civil Nature under the "General Merchant Seamen's Act" or the "Seamen's Protection Act" or this Act, every Person, whether a Party to the Proceeding or not, shall be a competent Witness, and be allowed to give Evidence accordingly.

Amount and Application of Penalties.

111. And be it enacted, That any Justice or Justices or other Court or Officer imposing any Penalty under this Act for which no specific Application is herein provided, may, if he or they think fit, direct that a Part, not exceeding One Moiety thereof, shall be applied to compensate any Person or Persons for any Wrong or Damage which he may have sustained by the Act or Default in respect of which such Penalty is imposed; and, subject to such Directions or specific Application as aforesaid, all Penalties recovered in the "United Kingdom" shall be paid over to the "Board of Trade" or applied as it directs, and all Penalties recovered in "Her Majesty's Dominions" abroad shall be paid over into the public Treasury of the Place, and form Part of the public Revenue thereof; and all Sums of Money hereby made recoverable, not being Penalties, shall be paid to the Persons hereby enabled to recover the same; and all Penalties and Forfeitures which by the General Merchant Seamen's Act or the Seamen's Protection Act are made payable to the Seamen's Hospital Society shall be paid to the Board of Trade, or as it may direct.

No Proceeding to be void for Informality.

112. And be it enacted, That no Conviction, Order, or other Proceeding under the "General Merchant Seamen's Act" or this Act shall be quashed or vacated for Want of Form.

Distress not unlawful for Want of Form. 7 & 8 Vict. c. 112. 8 & 9 Vict. c. 116.

113. And be it enacted, That no Distress levied in any Proceeding under the "General Merchant Seamen's Act" or the "Seamen's Protection Act" or this Act shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall any Person making the same be deemed a Trespasser, on account of any Defect of Form in the Summons, Order, Conviction, Warrant of Distress, or other Proceeding relating thereto, nor shall such Party be deemed a Trespasser ab initio on account of any Irregularity afterwards committed by him, but any Person aggrieved by such Defect or Irregularity may recover Satisfaction for the special Damage in an Action.

Limitation of Time.

114. And be it enacted, That every legal Proceeding under this Act shall, in case the Offence is committed or the Cause of Complaint arises within Twenty Days before the Commencement or during the Continuance of any Voyage made either by the Person complaining or the Person offending complained against, be commenced not later than Twelve Calendar Months after the first subsequent Arrival of such Person or of both of such Persons in the "United Kingdom," and in all other Cases within Twelve Calendar Months after the Offence or Cause of Complaint has been committed or arisen.

XIX. Evidence taken abroad.

Depositions before Consuls, when Evidence. 7 & 8 Vict. c. 112. s. 59.

115. And be it enacted, That whenever, in any legal Proceeding in England in respect of any Matter in which British "Consular Officers" have the Power of taking Depositions, it is proved that a Witness who has been examined before any "Consular Officer" abroad is out of the "United Kingdom" or cannot be found or produced on the Trial or Hearing, the Deposition of such Witness taken before such "Consular Officer" in the Matter, and, if the Proceeding is criminal, in the Presence of the Party accused, and certified by such "Consular Officer" under his official Seal to have been so taken, shall be admitted in Evidence in such Proceeding; and any Deposition purporting to be so certified as aforesaid shall be deemed to have been so taken and certified as aforesaid, unless the contrary is proved.

XX. Application of Monies.

Shipping Masters, &c. to account to the Board for Money received.

116. And be it enacted, That every Shipping Master, Officer of Customs, or other public Officer or Servant, who receives or recovers within the "United Kingdom" any Sum of Money for the Sale of any Forms supplied to him by the "Board of Trade," or any Fee, Fine, or Penalty hereby made payable, shall be deemed to be the Agent of such Board in respect thereof, and shall, according to its Instructions, either transmit the same to or to the Account of such Board, or retain or apply the same as it may direct, and shall, at such Times as such Board may direct, render to it a full Account of all Monies so received, and of the Application thereof.

Monies not presently required to be invested in Parliamentary Securities.

117. And be it enacted, That all Monies coming to the Hands of the "Board of Trade" under the Provisions of this Act which are not presently required for any of the Purposes herein-after mentioned, and of which no other Application is hereby specially directed, shall be paid into the Bank of England to an Account or Accounts to be there opened in the Name of such Board; and such Board may, at its Discretion, invest any such Monies in Parliamentary Securities, but in no other Security, and may from Time to Time either accumulate the annual Produce of such Investments, or apply the same to any of the Purposes herein-after mentioned, and may from Time to Time sell any Part of the Principal, and apply the Proceeds to any of such Purposes.

Monies to be applied in Payment of Expenses, &c.

118. And be it enacted, That the "Board of Trade" shall, out of the Monies which come to its Hands or to the Hands of its Agents as aforesaid (except Monies of which some other Application is hereby specially directed), and the Produce of the Investments of such Monies, in the first place pay all Salaries, Wages, Remunerations, Payments, and Expenses hereby authorized, and all Expenses properly incurred by the Board or its Agents in pursuance of any of the Provisions of this Act, and in the next place pay annually to the Seamen's Hospital Society the following Sums, that is to say, in case the net Amount arising from such Fines and Forfeitures as have hitherto been received by the said Society equals or exceeds One thousand one hundred and fifty Pounds, then the Sum of One thousand one hundred and fifty fifty Pounds, or in case such net Amount is less than One thousand one hundred and fifty Pounds, then a Sum equal to such net Amount, and shall apply the Remainder of such Monies for the Benefit of Persons engaged in or connected with the Merchant Service in such Manner as it may think fit.

XXI. East Indies and Colonies.

Certain Provisions in 7 & 8 Vict. c. 112. extended to India.

119. And be it enacted, That in construing the "General Merchant Seamen's Act" the Expressions "Her Majesty's Dominions," "Her Majesty's Possessions," "Her Majesty's Colonies," "Her Majesty's Plantations," "British Possessions," and "British Colonies," shall, from the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty, be taken to include the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, and all other Territories (if any) governed by virtue of any Charter or Licence from the Crown or Parliament of Great Britain.

East Indian and Colonial Governments may appoint Officers, and give Directions for enforcing 7 & 8 Vict. c. 112. and this Act.

120. And be it enacted, That the Governor General of India in Council and the respective Legislative Authorities in Her Majesty's Colonies and Possessions abroad may, by any Acts, Orders, or other appropriate Means, appoint any Functionaries to perform any of the Duties and exercise any of the Powers within their respective Jurisdictions which are by this Act or by the "General Merchant Seamen's Act" committed to Justices, Officers of Customs, or other public Servants, and may direct in what Manner the Offences thereby made punishable shall be prosecuted and punished, and in what Manner the Penalties thereby imposed and Sums of Money thereby made recoverable shall be recovered in Places within their respective Jurisdictions, and in what Manner and to what Uses such Penalties and Sums of Money shall be applied; and every such Appointment and Direction shall be valid, notwithstanding anything in the "General Merchant Seamen's Act" or in this Act contained.

The Provisions of 7 & 8 Vict. c. 112., 8 & 9 Vict. c. 116., and this Act, when applied by East Indian and Colonial Governments to their own Ships, may be enforced throughout the Empire.

121. And be it enacted, That if the Governor General of India in Council or the respective Legislative Authorities in any of Her Majesty's Colonies or Possessions abroad think fit, by any Acts, Orders, or other appropriate legal Means, to apply or adopt any of the Provisions in the "General Merchant Seamen's Act" or in the "Seamen's Protection Act" or in this Act contained to any British "Ships" registered at, trading with, or being at any Place within their respective Jurisdictions, and to the Owners, Masters, Mates, and "Crews" thereof, such Provisions, when so applied and adopted as aforesaid, and as long as they remain in force, shall, in respect of the "Ships" and Persons to which the same are applied, be enforced, and Penalties and Punishments for the Breach thereof shall be recovered and inflicted throughout "Her Majesty's Dominions," in the same Manner as if such Provisions had been hereby so adopted and applied, and such Penalties and Punishments had been hereby expressly imposed: Provided that if in any Matter relating to any "Ship," or to any Member of the Crew of any "Ship," there appears to be a Conflict of Laws, the Case shall be governed by the Law of the Place in which such "Ship" is registered or licensed.

East Indian and Colonial Acts to be subject to Disallowance, and require Sanction as in other Cases.

122. Provided also, and be it enacted, That every Act, Order, or other Form of Law to be passed or promulgated by the Governor General of India in Council or by any other Legislative Authority in pursuance of this Act shall respectively be subject to the same Right of Disallowance or Repeal, and require the same Sanction or other Acts and Formalities, and be subject to the same Conditions in all respects, as exist and are required in order to the Validity of any other Act, Order, or other Form of Law passed by such Governor General or other Legislative Authority respectively.

Penalty for obtaining Passage surreptitiously.

123. And be it enacted, That any Person who secretes himself and goes to Sea in any "Ship" without the Consent of either the Owner, Consignee, or Master, or of any Mate, or of any Person in charge of such Ship, or of any other Person entitled to give such Consent, shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds, or to Imprisonment, with or without hard Labour, for a Period not exceeding Four Weeks, at the Discretion of the Court or Justice inflicting the same.

Corporations, &c. may grant Sites for Sailors Homes.

124. And be it enacted, That the Municipal Corporation of any Borough, being a Seaport, in the United Kingdom, and any Body Corporate, Association, or Trustees in any such Seaport existing or constituted for any public Purposes relating to the Government or Benefit of Persons engaged in the British Merchant Service, or to the Management of Docks and Harbours, or for any other public Purposes connected with Shipping or Navigation, may, with the Consent of Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, appropriate any Lands vested in them, or in Trustees for them, as a Site or Sites for a Sailors Home or Sailors Homes, and may for that Purpose either retain and apply the same accordingly or convey the same to Trustees, with such Powers for appointing new Trustees and continuing the Trust, as they may think fit.

Act may be amended, &c.

125. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed during this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XCIV.

An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.

[14th August 1850.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for carrying into effect the Reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the State of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues, so far as they relate to Episcopal Dioceses, Revenues, and Patronage; and an Act was passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to carry into effect, with certain Modifications, the Fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues; and an Act was passed' 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 77. 3 & 4 Vict. c. 113.

4 & 5 Vict. c. 39.

'passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to explain and amend Two several 'Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England: And whereas it is expedient that the 'said recited Acts should be amended:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual, to appoint Two Lay Members of the United Church of England and Ireland to be Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act, by the Title of First and Second Church Estates Commissioners; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty upon every Vacancy in the Office of First or Second Church Estates Commissioner to appoint in like Manner some other Lay Member of the said Church to such Office; and it shall be lawful for the Archbishop of Canterbury for the Time being to appoint, under his Hand and Archiepiscopal Seal, One Member of the said Church to be a Commissioner for the Purposes of this Act, by the Title of a Church Estates Commissioner, and upon every Vacancy in the Office of a Church Estates Commissioner so appointed to appoint in like Manner some other Member of the said Church to such Office; and every Church Estates Commissioner appointed by Her Majesty shall hold his Office during Her Majesty's Pleasure; and every such Commissioner appointed by the said Archbishop shall hold his Office during the Pleasure of the said Archbishop for the Time being; and every Church Estates Commissioner shall, by virtue of such Appointment, and so long as he shall hold his Office of Church Estates Commissioner, be an Ecclesiastical Commissioner, and a Member of the Body Corporate of "The Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," in addition to the other Members for the Time being of such Body Corporate: Provided always, that any of the Lay Ecclesiastical Commissioners for the Time being appointed by Name, and not by virtue of any Office, shall be capable of being appointed as aforesaid to the Office of Church Estates Commissioner, but any such Ecclesiastical Commissioner may after his Removal from or Resignation of the Office of Church Estates Commissioner continue to hold his Appointment as Ecclesiastical Commissioner so long as he shall well demean himself as such Ecclesiastical Commissioner (unless he expressly resign such last-mentioned Appointment).

Appointment of Church Estates Commissioners.

Salaries to Church Estates Commissioners.

II. And be it enacted, That there shall be paid to the First Church Estates Commissioner a Salary not exceeding the yearly Sum of One thousand two hundred Pounds, and to the Church Estates Commissioner appointed by the said Archbishop a Salary not exceeding the yearly Sum of One thousand Pounds, to be determined by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury; and such Salaries shall be paid out of the Monies from Time to Time in the Hands of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.

First Church Estates Com^r may sit in House of Commons.

III. And be it enacted, That the First Church Estates Commissioner for the Time being shall be capable of being elected and of sitting and voting as a Member of the House of Commons.

Church Estates Commissioners to sign Declaration.

IV. And be it enacted, That every Church Estates Commissioner so appointed as aforesaid, before he proceed to do any Act by virtue of his Appointment, shall (unless at the Time of such Appointment he be an Ecclesiastical Commissioner, and have subscribed the Declaration herein-after mentioned,) subscribe the like Declaration as by the recited Acts is required to be subscribed by the other Lay Members of the said Corporation.

Treasurer and Secretary not to be the same Person.

First Church Estates Commissioner and Commissioner appointed by Archbishop to be joint Treasurers.

V. And be it enacted, That so much of the secondly-recited Act as relates to the Offices of Treasurer and Secretary to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall be repealed; and the First Church Estates Commissioner and the Church Estates Commissioner appointed by the said Archbishop shall be joint Treasurers of the said Corporation, but shall not as such Treasurers be entitled to any Salary other than their respective Salaries as Church Estates Commissioners under this Act; and the Secretary of the said Corporation shall be appointed and liable to be removed as is provided by the first-recited Act; and all Provisions in any Act of Parliament, Assurance, or Instrument whatever concerning the Payment of Money to the Treasurer and Secretary for the Time being of the said Corporation, or for making the Receipts of such Treasurer and Secretary Discharges for Money, shall be applicable to the joint Treasurers for the Time being of the said Corporation, as if such joint Treasurers had been mentioned therein instead of such Treasurer and Secretary.

Estates held in trust for the Ecclesiastical Commissioners to be vested in the First Church Estates Commissioner for the Time being.

VI. And be it enacted, That upon the Appointment of a First Church Estates Commissioner under this Act all Lands and Hereditaments of any Tenure which are now vested in Charles Knight Murray Esquire, the late Secretary and Treasurer of the said Corporation, for any Estate or Interest whatever, in trust for the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and all Powers which are now vested in the said Charles Knight Murray under any Mortgage or other Security in trust for the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, shall be vested in such First Church Estates Commissioner, by virtue of his Appointment, for the like Estate and Interest and in like Manner as the same are now vested in the said Charles Knight Murray; and all Lands, Hereditaments, and Powers which from Time to Time by virtue of this Act, or under any Assurance or Security hereafter made, shall be vested in any First Church Estates Commissioner, in trust for the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and shall continue vested in such First Church Estates Commissioner at the Time of his ceasing to be such Commissioner, shall, immediately upon the Appointment of a First Church Estates Commissioner in his Place, be vested in such Commissioner, by virtue of his Appointment, for the like Estate and Interest and in like Manner as the same were vested in the immediately preceding First Church Estates Commissioner at the Time of his ceasing to be such Commissioner; provided, that where any Copyhold or Customaryhold Land becomes vested in any First Church Estates Commissioner by virtue of this Act, such First Church Estates Commissioner shall in each such Case be admitted thereto in trust as aforesaid, and the like Fees, Fines, or Sums of Money shall be paid in respect of such Admittance as would have been payable in respect of the Admittance of an Heir.

VII. And

As to Appointment of Estates Committee.

VII. And be it enacted, That the Church Estates Commissioners for the Time being shall be a Committee of the said Corporation, to be styled "The Estates Committee," but the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners may within Six Weeks after the passing of this Act, and again in the Month of February in every Year, by an Instrument under their Common Seal, appoint Two Members of the said Corporation (of whom One at least shall be a Layman who shall have been appointed an Ecclesiastical Commissioner by Name, and not in right of any Office,) to be Members of such Estates Committee, in addition to the Church Estates Commissioners; and the Two Members so appointed from Time to Time shall cease to be Members of such Committee at the End of the Month of February next after their Appointment, or upon the Appointment of others in their Stead, which shall first happen, but every such Member of such Committee shall be capable of being re-appointed; and on any Vacancy occurring among such Two Members the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners may appoint to supply such Vacancy, until the next annual Appointment, any Commissioner who might have been originally appointed, but the said Estates Committee may act notwithstanding any Vacancy among or Non-appointment of such Two Members as aforesaid.

The Estates Committee to manage all Property of the Commissioners.

VIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be the Duty of such Estates Committee, or any Three of them, of whom Two or more shall be Church Estates Commissioners, to consider all Matters in any way relating or incident to the Sale, Purchase, Exchange, Letting, or Management, by or on behalf of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of any Lands, Tithes, or Hereditaments, and to devise such Measures touching the same as shall appear to such Committee to be most expedient; and such Estates Committee, or any Three of them, of whom Two or more shall be Church Estates Commissioners, shall have full Power and Authority, subject to such General Rules as are herein-after mentioned, and as shall have been made by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to do and execute any Act, including the affixing of the Common Seal to any Scheme or other Instrument, within the Power of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, in respect of the Sale, Purchase, Exchange, Letting, or Management of any Lands, Tithes, or Hereditaments: Provided always, that no such Act shall be done or executed by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners otherwise than by the said Estates Committee, nor by such Committee unless with the Concurrence of Two at least of the Church Estates Commissioners.

Chairman of Estates Committee.

IX. And be it enacted, That at all Meetings of the Estates Committee the First Church Estates Commissioner shall preside, or if he shall be absent the other Church Estates Commissioner appointed by Her Majesty, or the Church Estates Commissioner appointed by the Archbishop, shall be Chairman at alternate Meetings; and in case of an Equality of Votes the Chairman shall have a second or casting Vote.

Nothing to be done at Meetings of Eccl^{l} Com^{rs} unless 2 Estates Com^{rs} are present.

X. And be it enacted, That no Act, Matter, or Thing shall be done or performed at any Meeting of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners unless Two or more of the Church Estates Commissioners be present.

Ecclesiastical Commissioners may make special References to Estates Committee or Commissioners.

XI. And be it enacted, That the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners at any Time and from Time to Time may refer to the Consideration of the said Estates Committee any Matters in addition to the Matters which are to be considered by such Estates Committee under the Provision herein-before contained, for the Report of such Estates Committee thereon, or by an Instrument under their Common Seal may authorize the said Committee or the said Church Estates Commissioners, or any Two of such Commissioners, to do and complete any Act within the Powers of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, in addition to the Acts which the said Estates Committee are herein-before authorized to do and execute, except affixing the said Common Seal to any Scheme to which the said Estates Committee are not herein-before authorized to affix such Seal without reporting to or requiring further Instructions from the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners.

Ecclesiastical Commissioners may make General Rules for the Direction of the Estates Committee.

XII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners from Time to Time to make General Rules for the Direction of the Estates Committee relative to the Matters and Acts to be considered, done, and executed by such Estates Committee, in which Rules the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners may not only establish General Regulations for the Transaction of the Business of such Committee, but may declare the general Principles which shall guide the Decision of such Committee, and the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners may from Time to Time revise and by other General Rules vary the same as the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall think fit; and all such General Rules shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Fourteen Days after the making thereof, if Parliament be sitting, and if Parliament be not sitting, then within Fourteen Days after the next Meeting of Parliament.

So much of 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 77. as provides who shall be Chairman repealed, and other Regulations made.

XIII. And be it enacted, That so much of the said first-recited Act as directs who shall preside at each Meeting of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners as Chairman shall be repealed, and the Archbishop of Canterbury, if present at the Commencement of any Meeting, shall be Chairman, but if he be not present a Chairman shall be appointed at each Meeting of the said Commissioners; and if any Difference arise upon the Choice of a Chairman at any Meeting such Chairman shall be chosen by the Majority of Votes of the Commissioners present thereat, and in case there be an equal Number of Votes upon such Choice then the Commissioner proposed first in Rank and Precedence, and in case of the Equality in Rank and Precedence of the Commissioners proposed, then the Senior in Order of Appointment of the Commissioners proposed, shall preside as Chairman; and the Commissioner who takes the Chair at the Commencement of any Meeting may continue to preside during such Meeting.

As to the Audit of Accounts.

XIV. And be it enacted, That the Accounts of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall be audited from Time to Time in such Manner and at such Times as shall be directed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury; and the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may from Time to Time appoint any Person to be an Auditor of such Accounts, and may remove any such Auditor.

Episcopal Fund to be transferred to the Common Fund.

XV. 'And whereas the Fund accruing to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England under the 'said first-recited Act, and other Property and Revenues accruing to the said Commissioners from 'like Sources, have been carried to a separate Fund or Account designated as the "Episcopal Fund," 'and have been held applicable only to the Purposes of the said first-recited Act and other Episcopal 'Purposes; and it is expedient that the said Episcopal Fund and the Common Fund vested in the said 'Commissioners should form One Fund applicable to all the Purposes conducive to the Efficiency of 'the Established Church now separately provided for by the said Episcopal Fund and Common Fund 'respectively:' Be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the Fund accrued and accruing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners under the first-recited Act, and all other the Monies, Revenues, and Property carried to or deemed Part of the said Episcopal Fund, or which if this Act had not been passed might have been carried to or deemed Part of the said Episcopal Fund, or have been applicable to the Purposes thereof, shall be carried to and form Part of the Common Fund mentioned in the said secondly-recited Act, and be applicable to the Purposes of such Common Fund; and that all the several Payments and Provisions now payable out of or charged upon the said Episcopal Fund and Common Fund respectively, or out of or upon the Property applicable to the Purposes of the said respective Funds, or which if this Act had not been passed might have been payable out of or charged upon such Funds and Property respectively, shall and may be payable out of and charged upon the said Common Fund, and the Property applicable, and under this Act and otherwise to become applicable, to the Purposes thereof: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, if they shall think fit, at the Request of the Bishop, to provide for the spiritual Necessities of any Parish where the Tithes form Part of the Episcopal Revenue, in the same Manner as if those Tithes arose from a sinecure Rectory in the Possession of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners.

Certain Provisions of 5 & 6 Vict. c. 26. as to Deficiency of Incomes of Bishops, repealed.

XVI. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to alter and 'amend the Law relating to Ecclesiastical Houses of Residence, it was enacted, that in case such a 'Deficiency should have been or would be created in the average annual Income of any Bishop appointed 'after the passing of the said first-recited Act, by the effecting of any Mortgage or other Arrangement 'under either of the Acts therein mentioned, or that Act, (being Mortgages and Arrangements for pro-'viding the Bishop with a Residence, or more convenient or suitable Residence,) as to reduce it below 'the average annual Income of such Bishop named in the said first-recited Act, or in any Order of Her 'Majesty in Council issued under the Provisions thereof, it should be lawful, by the Authority in the 'Act now in recital mentioned, out of any Monies from Time to Time standing to the Credit and Account 'of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, being Part of Payments from the larger Sees respec-'tively towards the Augmentation of the Incomes of the Bishops of the smaller Sees, if it should be 'deemed fit, and if such Monies, after duly considering all the Claims thereon, should appear to be suf-'ficient for such Purpose, to make any Arrangement for supplying or preventing such Deficiency or any 'Part thereof which by the like Authority should be deemed expedient:' Be it enacted, That the lastly herein-before recited Enactment shall be repealed, saving and without Prejudice to any Arrangement made or Matter done under such Enactment before the passing of this Act.

Fixed Incomes may be secured to Archbishops and Bishops appointed after 1st January 1848.

XVII. 'And whereas Her Majesty has issued a Commission to certain Persons therein named to inquire, 'amongst other things, whether any and what Improvement can be made in the existing Law and Practice 'relating to the Incomes of Archbishops and Bishops, so as to secure to them respectively fixed instead 'of fluctuating annual Incomes; and it is expedient that until the said Commissioners shall have made 'their Report, and Parliament shall have determined upon some permanent Mode of effecting the Object 'last aforesaid, temporary Arrangements should be made for that Purpose:' Be it enacted, That, notwithstanding the Provisions of the said first-recited Act, and any Order or Orders of Her Majesty in Council founded thereon, relating to or providing for the Payment to or by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of fixed annual Sums, it shall be lawful, by the Authority and in the Manner by and in which the Arrangements for carrying into effect the Recommendations in the said Act recited may now be made, so to regulate from Time to Time the Amounts, Times, Modes, and Conditions of Payments to be made to or by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, as the Case may be, by or to any Archbishop or Bishop who shall have succeeded to a See upon any Avoidance thereof happening after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, or any other Archbishop or Bishop who may signify his Willingness to accept such annual Income as herein-after mentioned in lieu of his present Income, as to secure to every such Archbishop and Bishop the annual Income named for the Archbishop or Bishop of his See in the same or any other Act now in force, or in any Order of Her Majesty in Council duly made and published, and no more, and any Arrangements which may be made for effecting the Purpose last aforesaid shall remain in force until Parliament shall otherwise direct.

As to Endowments of Deans of Salisbury and Wells.

XVIII. 'And whereas it was by the secondly-recited Act enacted, that so much and such Parts of the 'Lands, Tithes, and other Hereditaments annexed or belonging to or usually held and enjoyed with the 'respective Deanries of York, Chichester, Exeter, Hereford, Lichfield, Salisbury, and Wells respectively 'should, by the Authority therein provided, be, upon the Vacancies of the said respective Deanries, 'applied to make such Provision for the said Deans respectively as by the like Authority should be 'deemed just and proper, and by the thirdly-recited Act Power was given to carry such Purposes into 'effect by any other Mode of Payment, Contribution, Augmentation, or Endowment which might be 'deemed fit: And whereas the late Dean of Salisbury and the present Dean of Wells accepted their 'respective Deanries on the Faith of Arrangements proposed by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners 'for making up the annual Income of each such Deanry to One thousand five hundred Pounds; but 'Doubts have arisen whether such Arrangements can be lawfully made:' Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful, by the Authority and by any of the Modes in the said Acts provided, to provide for the present Dean of Wells as from his Acceptance of such Deanry, and so long as he shall continue to hold the same, an average yearly Income not exceeding One thousand five hundred Pounds, and to pay to the personal Representatives of the late Dean of Salisbury such Sum as with the Income received in respect of his Deanry may make up an annual Income of One thousand five hundred Pounds for the Period during which he held the same.

Deans appointed after 10th of April 1850 not to hold any Benefice not situated within the City or Town, &c.

XIX. And be it enacted, That no Spiritual Person appointed to the Deanry of any Cathedral or Collegiate Church after the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty shall accept, to take and hold therewith, any Benefice not situate within the City or Town of the Cathedral or Collegiate Church in which he shall hold such Deanry, and where any Spiritual Person so appointed after the said Tenth Day of April holds at the Time of his Admission to such Deanry any Benefice not situate within such City or Town, such Benefice, unless sooner avoided, shall become void on the Expiration of Six Calendar Months from the Time of his Admission to such Deanry: Provided always, that the Income of any Benefice which may be holden with any such Deanry shall in no Case exceed the Amount or Sum of Five hundred Pounds per Annum.

Commissioners may, by Authority of 3 & 4 Vict c. 113. and 4 & 5 Vict. c. 39., commute for any Prebend annexed to a Dignity or Office.

XX. 'And whereas the secondly and thirdly recited Acts contain Provisions under which all Lands, 'Tithes, Tenements, and other Hereditaments and Endowments (except any Right of Patronage) belonging 'to any Prebend not residentiary in any Cathedral or Collegiate Church in England become from Time 'to Time, as Vacancies occur in such Prebends, vested in the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England 'for the Purposes in the same Acts specified, and the same Acts contain Provisions for enabling the said 'Commissioners, with the Sanction of Her Majesty in Council, in manner by the same Acts specified, to 'make any Arrangements, with the Consent in Writing of the Holder of any such Prebend, for substituting 'in any Case any Money Payment for any such Lands, Tithes, Tenements, or Hereditaments, but every 'Prebend which is permanently annexed to any Bishoprick, Archdeaconry, Professorship, or Scholarship, or to any School or to the Mastership thereof, are exempted from the Operation of all the said 'Provisions: And whereas it is expedient that the last-mentioned of the said Provisions relating to the 'Substitution of a Money Payment for any Lands, Tithes, Tenements, or Hereditaments should be 'extended to the Prebends so exempted as aforesaid, with a view to enabling the said Commissioners to 'make the Tithes or other Property belonging thereto more conducive to the Spiritual Welfare of the 'several Parishes or Places dependent thereon or connected therewith:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful, by the Authority in the secondly and thirdly recited Acts provided, with the Consent in Writing of the Patron of the Dignity or Office to which the same is annexed, to make any Arrangement for vesting in the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England all or any of the Lands, Tithes, Tenements, and Hereditaments or other Endowments of the same Prebend, and to substitute for the same any just and reasonable Money Payment to such Holder, and all future perpetual annual Payments to his Successors in the same Dignity or Office as shall be deemed by the like Authority to be fit and proper, and also, with the Consent in Writing under the Hand of such last-mentioned Patron, to make any Arrangement which shall be deemed fit as to the future Exercise of the Patronage of any Benefice with Cure of Souls now held by the Holder of such Prebend for the Time being as such Holder; but that no such Alterations shall take any Effect during the Time that the present Holder of such Prebend shall hold the same, except with the Consent in Writing thereto under the Hand of such present Holder.

Commuted Lands, &c. to be subject to similar Uses as Lands vested under former Acts.

XXI. And be it enacted, That all Lands, Tithes, Tenements, and other Hereditaments and Endowments which shall so become vested in the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall be by them held, possessed, and administered for the Purposes and under and according to the several Provisions of the same Acts as amended by this Act which apply to Lands, Tenements, and other Hereditaments and Endowments by and under the same Acts vested or liable to be vested in the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners.

Benefices annexed to Sees of Gloucester and Bristol, Oxford, and Peterborough to be severed from the Sees.

XXII. 'And whereas certain Benefices with Cure of Souls are annexed to or have long been accusto- 'mably held with the several Sees of Gloucester and Bristol, Oxford, and Peterborough; and it is expe- 'dient that such Benefices should be severed from the said Sees, and that the Endowments thereof should 'be applied as herein-after mentioned:' Be it enacted, That so soon as conveniently may be the said several Benefices shall, by the Authority by the secondly and thirdly recited Acts provided, be detached and dissevered from the said Sees respectively, and the Tithes, Glebe, and other Endowments belonging to the said Benefices respectively shall, by the like Authority, by means of Division of United Parishes, Endowment of District Churches, or such other Arrangements as the Case may require, be distributed and appropriated in such Manner, within the Limits of the respective Parishes, as shall be deemed most conducive to the Spiritual Welfare of the Inhabitants thereof respectively; and that immediately from and after the Severance of each such Benefice the same shall, subject to such Distribution and Appropriation as aforesaid, be a Rectory or Vicarage, as the Case may be, with Cure of Souls, in the Patronage of the Bishop of the Diocese from which the same shall have been severed, and his Successors, but subject nevertheless to the Provisions of the first-recited Act relating to the Patronage of Bishops; and there shall be assigned, by such Authority as aforesaid, to the Bishop in possession of each such Benefice at the Time of such its Severance from his See, an annual Sum, to be paid to him so long as he shall continue Bishop of the same See, out of the Funds in the Hands of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, not exceeding in Amount the average annual net Income theretofore accruing to such Bishop from such Benefice, Benefice, after deducting all Charges thereupon and Outgoings therefrom, including for the Stipend or Stipends of any Curate or Curates employed by such Bishop the Rate of Stipend now by Law payable in the like Case to the Curate of non-resident Incumbents, or such greater Stipend or Stipends as shall have been actually paid by such Bishop: Provided always, that the Patronage of each such Benefice shall in the first instance be exercised in favour of the Curate (or of the Curate first licensed, if there be more than One Curate,) performing the Spiritual Duties of the Parish at the Time of the Severance, if he shall have performed such Duties for the Seven Years at the least last preceding such Severance.

Owners of Impropriation Tithes may annex the same to the Parsonage or Vicarage.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That the Owner or Proprietor of any Impropriation Tithes, Portion of Tithes, or Rent-charge in lieu of Tithes shall and may have Power to annex the same or any Part thereof unto the Parsonage, Vicarage, or Curacy of the Parish Church or Chapel where the same lie or arise, or to settle the same in trust, for the Benefit of such Parsonage, Vicarage, or Curacy, any Statute or Law whatsoever to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Extension of 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 77. s. 10. for abolishing peculiar, &c. Jurisdictions.

XXIV. And be it declared and enacted, That the Arrangements with reference to peculiar or exempt Ecclesiastical Jurisdictions which the said Commissioners are under the Provisions of the said first-recited Act empowered and authorized to propose in any Scheme for carrying into effect any of the Recommendations therein recited, may be recommended and proposed in any Scheme or Schemes, whether relating to such Arrangements solely, or also to any other Matter and Thing contained in any or either of the said recited Acts or this Act.

Construction of 3 & 4 Vict. c. 113. s. 56. as to the Transfer of Estates of newly endowed Archdeaconries to Commissioners.

XXV. And be it declared and enacted, That in the Case of any Archdeaconry which shall no longer be held by the Archdeacon who was at the Time of the passing of the secondly-recited Act in possession thereof, the Provisions of the same Act which relate to the Transfer to the said Commissioners of the Estates of any Archdeaconry upon its Endowment in either of the Modes therein provided, and also to the disannexing from any such Archdeaconry of any Benefice with Cure of Souls, shall be construed and held to authorize such Transfer or such Disannexation, with the Consent of the Bishop of the Diocese, and of the Archdeacon in possession of the Archdeaconry at the Time, or if the Archdeaconry be then vacant, with the Consent of the Bishop only; and the Provisions of the same Act as amended by this Act for disannexing any Benefice from any Archdeaconry endowed as aforesaid, and concerning the Patronage of such Benefice, shall extend and be applicable for disannexing any Benefice from any Archdeaconry not so endowed, and to the Patronage of such Benefice.

Annual Report to be made of the Commission to One of the Secretaries of State, and to be laid before Parliament.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall in each Year, on or before the First Day of March, make a Report, under the Corporate Seal of the said Commission, to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, of all the Proceedings of the said Commission for the Year preceding the First Day of November then last past, and shall annex to such Report Copies of the Schemes sanctioned and approved by the Queen in Council during such Year, and also an Abstract of the Accounts of the said Commission during such Year; and within Fourteen Days after the Receipt thereof such Report shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament, if Parliament be then sitting, and if not, within Fourteen Days after the then next Meeting of Parliament.

Powers of 7 & 8 Vict. c. 94. s. 9., relating to the Alteration of Boundaries of Districts, extended.

XXVII. And be it declared and enacted, That the Powers and Authority relating to the Alteration of the Boundaries of Districts contained in an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Seventh and Eighth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to explain and amend an Act for making better Provision for the Spiritual Care of populous Parishes, may, as to any such District now existing, notwithstanding the Limitation in the same Act contained, be exercised at any Time within Five Years from the passing of this Act, and as to every such District hereafter to be constituted within Five Years from the Date of the Licence of the Minister first licensed thereto, and this notwithstanding that any such District may have become a new Parish by virtue of the Provisions of the Act under which such District was constituted.

Powers, &c. of former Acts extended to this Act.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That all the Powers and Authorities vested in Her Majesty in Council and in the said Commissioners by the said secondly and thirdly recited Acts with reference to the Matters therein contained, and all other the Provisions of the same Acts relating to Schemes and Orders prepared, made, and issued for the Purposes thereof, shall, so far as the same are consistent with the Provisions of this Act, be continued and extended and apply to Her Majesty in Council and to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and to all Schemes and Orders prepared, made, and issued by them respectively with reference to all Matters contained in this Act, as fully and effectually as if the said Powers, Authorities, and other Provisions were repeated in this Act.

Act may be amended, &c.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

CAP. XCV.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Customs. [14th August 1850.]

'WHEREAS several Acts were passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, for consolidating the Laws of the Customs: And whereas since the passing of the said Acts divers Acts for the Amendment thereof have from Time to Time been passed: And whereas certain further Amendments of the said Acts are now required:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act the same shall, except so far as is otherwise provided by this Act, come into and be and continue in full Force and Operation for the Purposes herein mentioned.

Commencement of Act.

I. 'And Management.

Rules, &c. of Commissioners of Customs declared valid.

II. 'And whereas divers Rules, Orders, and Regulations have from Time to Time been made by the 'Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, in pursuance of the Powers conferred upon them by certain 'Acts passed in various Sessions of Parliament, some of which Acts have since been repealed, and Doubts 'have arisen whether such Rules, Orders, and Regulations are still of legal Force and Efficacy:' Be it therefore enacted, That all Rules, Orders, and Regulations already made or issued by or under the Authority of the said Commissioners, under or in pursuance of any Act or Acts relating to the Customs, or to Trade or Navigation, although such Act or Acts may have been repealed, shall be and continue in full Force and Effect, so far as such Rules, Orders, and Regulations are consistent with the Provisions of the Laws in force relating to the Customs, or to Trade or Navigation, unless and until the same shall be revoked or rescinded, and that all Acts whatsoever to be done in pursuance of any such Orders, Rules, and Regulations shall be valid and effectual.

Superannuation Allowances not assignable.

III. And be it enacted, That when any Sum of Money shall have been or shall be granted annually or otherwise to any Person who has been or shall have been employed in the Service of the Customs, as a Superannuation Allowance upon the Retirement of such Person from such Service, or as a Compensation for past Services, it shall not be lawful for the Grantee of such Allowance or Compensation to assign or dispose of the same to any Person or Persons whomsoever; and that all such Assignments or Dispositions of such Allowances or Compensations made after the passing of this Act shall be wholly void to all Intents and Purposes, and shall not be enforced in any Court of Law or Equity.

Regulation.

Account of free Goods to be delivered in Twenty-four Hours after Arrival.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Owner or Consignee of all Goods free of Duties imported into the United Kingdom from Parts beyond the Seas shall, within Twenty-four Hours after the due Entry and landing of such Goods, deliver or cause to be delivered to the Collector of the Customs, or other proper Officer at the Port where the Goods shall be discharged, a true Account of all such free Goods so landed; and in default thereof every such Owner or Consignee shall forfeit and pay a Penalty of Five Pounds.

Goods of Guernsey, Jersey, &c. Duty-free.

V. And be it enacted, That any Goods the Growth of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, and any Goods manufactured in the said Islands or either of them from Materials not subject to Duty in the United Kingdom, or from Materials upon which the Duty shall have been paid in the United Kingdom, and upon which no Drawback or Bounty shall have been subsequently granted, and any Manufactures of Linen or Cotton made in and imported from the Isle of Man, may be imported into the United Kingdom from the said Islands respectively without Payment of any Duty, and that such Goods shall not be deemed to be included in any Charge of Duties imposed by any Act hereafter to be made on the Importation of Goods generally from Parts beyond the Seas: Provided always, that such Goods may nevertheless be charged with any Proportion of such Duties as shall fairly countervail any Duties of Excise or Inland Revenue or any Coast Duty payable on the like Goods the Produce or Manufacture of the Part of the United Kingdom into which they shall be imported, or payable upon any of the Materials from which such Goods are manufactured: Provided also, that all Goods manufactured in any of the said Islands from any other Materials than the Materials aforesaid, except Manufactures of Linen and Cotton made in and imported from the Isle of Man as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be Foreign Goods.

Exceptions.

Manufactured Goods.

VI. And be it enacted, That all manufactured Goods shall be deemed to be the Produce of the Country of which they are the Manufacture.

No Abatement for Damage.

VII. And be it enacted, That no Abatement of Duties shall be made on account of any Damage received by any Corn, Grain, Meal, or Flour imported into the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man.

Cigars, &c. may be imported from United Kingdom into Guernsey, &c. as like Goods into the United Kingdom.

VIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful to import into the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark, from the United Kingdom, in Vessels of not less than Sixty Tons Burden, any Cigars, Tobacco, or Snuff in Packages of such Cigars, Tobacco, or Snuff respectively of the same Weight at least in which the like Sorts of Goods may be legally imported into the United Kingdom: Provided always, that no such Cigars, Tobacco, or Snuff shall be separated or divided in any Manner within any such Package; and all Cigars, Tobacco, or Snuff imported into the said Islands respectively, or found within One League of the Coasts thereof, contrary hereto, shall be forfeited.

So much of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 86. and 9 & 10 Vict. c. 102. as alters Restrictions as to Importation of Tobacco, repealed.

IX. 'And whereas by one of the said Acts, intituled An Act for the general Regulation of the Customs, 'certain Restrictions are imposed upon the Importation of Tobacco into the United Kingdom: And whereas 'by another Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Ninth and Tenth Years of the Reign 'of Her said Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Customs, the said Restrictions are 'thereby altered and amended: And whereas it is expedient to further alter and amend the said Restrictions:' Be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said last-mentioned Act as alters and amends the said Restrictions as to the Importation of Tobacco into the United Kingdom shall be repealed.

Tobacco from Porto Rico, &c. may be imported in Packages of 80 lbs.

X. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful to import into any of the Ports of the United Kingdom into which Tobacco may be lawfully imported any Tobacco from Malta, or any Tobacco the Produce of Porto Rico, Mexico, South America, Saint Domingo, Cuba, or the British Possessions in America, and imported direct from any of those Places, in Packages each containing at least Eighty Pounds net Weight of such Tobacco.

Repeal of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 86. as to Re-importation of Tea.

XI. And be it enacted, That so much of the said Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the general Regulation of the Customs, as prohibits the Re-importation of Tea for home Use, shall be repealed.

Repeal of so much of 3 & 4 W. 4. c. 101.

XII. And be it enacted, That so much of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to as prohibits the Importation of Tea into the Channel Islands, &c.

to provide for the Collection and Management of the Duties on Tea, as prohibits the Importation of Tea into any of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey Alderney, or Sark, or into the British Possessions in America, from any other Place than the Cape of Good Hope and Places Eastward of the same to the Straits of Magellan, or from the United Kingdom, shall be repealed.

Tobacco may be imported from Manilla in Bales of 300 lbs.

XIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful to import into the United Kingdom into any of such Ports any Tobacco the Produce of the Phillipine Islands, and imported direct from Manilla, in Bales or Packages containing Three hundred Pounds Weight of Tobacco each at least, not being separated or divided in any Manner within such Bale or Package; and all such Tobacco imported contrary hereto shall be forfeited.

Acts recited in 9 & 10 Vict. c. 99. s. 1. to remain in force as regards Scotland.

XIV. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Ninth and Tenth 'Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws 'relating to Wreck and Salvage, certain Acts and Parts of Acts therein mentioned are thereby repealed: 'And whereas by the said Act it is enacted, that the same shall extend to all Parts of the United Kingdom 'except Scotland: And whereas Doubts are entertained whether such Acts and Parts of Acts are still in 'force as regards Scotland:' Be it therefore enacted and declared, That the said Acts and Parts of Acts mentioned and recited in the said Act shall, so far as the same are applicable to Scotland, be deemed to be and continue in full Force and Effect.

Extracts, &c. of Coffee, Chicory, &c.

XV. And be it enacted, That the Importation into the United Kingdom of any Extracts, Essences, or other Concentrations of Coffee, Chicory, Tea, or Tobacco, or any Admixture of the same, shall be prohibited.

Smuggling.

Persons unshipping Tobacco Stalks, &c. to be dealt with as in case of Tobacco.

XVI. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall be in any way concerned in importing or bringing into the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man, or who shall unship, carry, convey, harbour, or conceal, or be aiding, assisting, or concerned in the unshipping, carrying, conveying, harbouring, or concealing, any Tobacco Stalks or Tobacco Stalk Flour, or to whose Hands or Possession the same shall come, shall and may be dealt with in like Manner as if such Tobacco Stalks or Tobacco Stalk Flour were Tobacco; and the Value thereof shall be estimated, in the Adjudication of any Penalty, as if the same were unmanufactured Tobacco of the best Description upon which the Duty had been paid.

Justices may summon Witnesses, who, if they refuse to appear or to give Evidence, shall forfeit Fifty Pounds.

XVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, and for any Justice or Justices of the Peace before whom any Complaint, Information, or any Matter or Thing under this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Customs, shall be judicially brought or exhibited, to summon any and every Person (other than the Person or Persons against whom such Complaint, Information, Matter, or Thing is brought or exhibited), in whatever Part of the United Kingdom any such Person or Persons so to be summoned shall then reside or be, to appear before the said Commissioners or Justices, as the Case may be, who are to hear, adjudge, and determine such Complaint, Information, Matter, or Thing, at a certain Time and Place to be specified and set forth in such Summons, to give Evidence upon Oath of the Truth of any Facts alleged in such Complaint, Information, Matter, or Thing, or otherwise touching or relating thereto; and every Person so summoned, having his or her reasonable Expenses for such Attendance, if required, tendered to him or her at the Time of Service of such Summons, who shall neglect or refuse to appear according to the Exigency thereof, or who, having so appeared, shall refuse to take Oath, or, if a Quaker or other Person having legal Power to make Affirmation, refuse to affirm, or shall refuse to give Evidence, or to answer according to the best of his or her Knowledge and Belief any legal Question when thereunto required, shall for every such Default or Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

Justices may issue Summonses from Time to Time on Informations laid within Six Months after Offence.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That where any Information shall have been exhibited before any Justice or Justices of the Peace for any Offence against any Act or Acts relating to the Customs, or to Trade or Navigation, for which Offence the Party charged is not liable to be detained, and by which Information any Penalty or Forfeiture shall be sought to be recovered, or any Punishment of hard Labour sought to be inflicted, and such Information shall have been exhibited before such Justice or Justices within Six Months next after the Date of the Offence committed, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, or any other Justice or Justices having Jurisdiction in that Behalf, from Time to Time and at any Time afterwards to issue a Summons thereon for the Appearance of the Party against whom such Information may have been exhibited as aforesaid before any Two Justices of the Peace; and every such Summons, directed to such Party, being left either at his or her last known Place of Residence, or on board any Ship or Vessel to which such Party may belong or may have lately belonged, shall be deemed to have been sufficiently served; and either upon the Appearance or Default of the Party so summoned, as the Case may be, it shall be lawful for such Justices to proceed to the Examination of the Matter contained in any such Information, and to adjudicate thereon, in like Manner as any Two Justices are authorized to proceed under the Laws for the Prevention of Smuggling.

Penalties how recoverable.

XIX. And be it enacted, That every Penalty or Forfeiture imposed or incurred under this or any other Act now in force or hereafter to be made relating to the Customs, or to Trade or Navigation, shall and may be sued for and recovered either in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record at London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, or before any Justice or Justices of the Peace or Deemster, as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs may see fit to direct; and such Penalties and Forfeitures, when received or recovered, shall and may be remitted, mitigated, restored, disposed of, applied, and dealt with as any Penalty or Forfeiture can or may be remitted, mitigated, restored, disposed of, applied, and dealt with under any Act or Acts now in force relating to the Customs, or to Trade or Navigation.

Penalties may be remitted, &c.

XX. 'And Navigation.

XX. 'And whereas it is expedient that the original Names of all Foreign Vessels purchased by 'British Subjects and registered as British Vessels should be recorded on the Registry thereof, in order 'to maintain the Identity of such Vessels:' Be it enacted, That before any Foreign-built Vessel shall be registered as a British Vessel the Owner or Owners thereof shall state in Writing to the Collector or Comptroller of the Port at which such Vessel is intended to be registered the Foreign Name of such Vessel, and the same shall be inserted in the Declaration now required by Law to be made previous to the Registry of any Vessel, and also in the Certificate of Registry of such Vessel; and if any Person shall make any false Declaration of any Matter or Thing in order to obtain Registry of any Vessel he shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and such Penalty shall be recoverable in the same Manner as any Penalty can or may be recovered under any of the Laws relating to the Customs.

Foreign Name to be retained on Registry of Foreign Vessels as British.

Penalty for making false Declaration.

XXI. And be it enacted, That if any Passenger or Passengers shall be carried by any Foreign Ship or Vessel contrary to the Provisions of the Law of Navigation, the Master of such Ship or Vessel shall forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds for each and every Passenger so carried.

Penalty on carrying Passengers contrary to Law.

XXII. And be it enacted, That whenever any Penalty or Forfeiture shall have been incurred in any of the British Possessions abroad, under or by virtue of such last-mentioned Act, such Penalty or Forfeiture shall and may be sued for, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of in any Court of Record or of Vice Admiralty having Jurisdiction in any such British Possession where the same may have been incurred or forfeited; but in case there shall be no such Court at such British Possession, then such Penalty or Forfeiture shall and may be sued for, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of in the Court of Record or of Vice Admiralty having Jurisdiction in some British Possession near to that where such Penalty or Forfeiture may have been incurred.

Penalties and Forfeitures under Navigation Act, how to be recovered in British Possessions abroad.

Duties.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That no Duties of Customs shall be chargeable upon the Importation of the following Articles; that is to say,

Wood.—Stringy Bark Wood and Blue Gum Wood for Shipbuilding, and shaped for Treenails, not exceeding Three Feet in Length:

——— Locust Treenails for Shipbuilding:

——— Green Hart, Mora Wood, and Locust Wood for Shipbuilding:

——— Shovel Hilts.

Certain Articles not to be chargeable with Duty.

XXIV. 'And whereas by one other of the said Acts, intituled An Act for granting Duties of Customs, 'a Duty of Four Shillings per Ton is imposed upon Coals, Culm, or Cinders exported to Foreign Countries 'in a Foreign Ship: And whereas it is expedient to repeal the said Duty:' Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the said Duty shall be repealed.

Repeal of Export Duty on Coals.

Warehousing.

XXV. And be it enacted, That so much of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the warehousing of Goods, as enacts that before Goods shall be delivered to be removed from one Warehousing Port to another Port to be there warehoused due Entry of the same shall be made, and a proper Bill of such Entry with Duplicates thereof shall be delivered to the Collector and Comptroller, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Certain Provisions of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 91. repealed.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That no Entry shall from and after the passing of this Act be received for or in respect of any Timber or Wood Goods deposited in any Warehouse, Yard, or other Bonded Premises for Security of Duties, for any less Quantity at any One Time than Five Loads of such Timber or Wood Goods, unless such Wood Goods shall be delivered by Tale, in which Case such Entry may be passed for any Quantity thereof not less than Two hundred and forty Pieces or Two Great Hundreds of such Wood Goods; and that no less Quantity of such Timber or Wood Goods shall be delivered in virtue of any such Entry at any One Time than Five Loads of such Timber or Wood Goods, or Two hundred and forty Pieces of such Wood Goods if delivered by Tale.

Entries for Wood Goods restricted.

CAP. XCVI.

An Act to continue and amend the Acts for authorizing a Composition for Assessed Taxes.

[14th August 1850.]

'WHEREAS under and by virtue of an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Her present 'Majesty, intituled An Act to continue for Five Years and to amend the Acts for authorizing a 'Composition for Assessed Taxes, divers Persons have compounded for their Assessed Taxes in Great 'Britain for a Term which will expire on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-'one: And whereas it is expedient to relieve such Persons who have so compounded as aforesaid, as well 'as others who may be willing to compound under the Provisions of this Act, from an annual Assessment 'for a further Term herein limited:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Assessments made or to be made for the Year to end on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, under and by virtue of the several Acts now in force in relation to such of the Duties of Assessed Taxes as may be comprised in any Composition to be entered into under this Act, shall severally be and remain to the same annual Amount in respect of every Person who shall compound for the same under this Act for the Term of Five Years, to be computed from the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one; and the

8 & 9 Vict. c. 36.

Assessments for the Year ending 5th April 1851 on Persons compounding under this Act to remain to the same Amount for Five Years; and Compositions under former Acts may be renewed for like Term.

Form of Contract of Composition.

the several Compositions entered into under any former Act or Acts, and now in force, may, in respect of such of the said Duties as are herein enumerated and allowed to be compounded for, be renewed under this Act for the like Term of Five Years, to be computed as aforesaid, in the Manner, and subject to the Terms, Conditions, and Exceptions, herein prescribed; and every Contract of Composition to be entered into or renewed under this Act may be made according to the Form set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed, mutatis mutandis, or according to such other Form as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall provide in that Behalf, and shall specify the Number of Servants, Carriages, Horses, and other Articles of the Establishment upon which such Composition shall be made or renewed as aforesaid.

Articles kept for Trade or by Persons in Partnership, or for Hire, not to be compounded for.

Enumeration of Articles to be compounded for.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Composition shall be entered into or renewed under this Act in respect of any Carriage, Horse, or other Article kept for the Purpose of Trade, or let or used for Hire, or assessed or charged upon Two or more Persons jointly or in Partnership, nor for any Duties of Assessed Taxes other than the Duties on the following Articles forming the Establishment of the Person so compounding, and retained, employed, kept, and used for his own Use, and not for or to the Use, Benefit, or Profit of any other Person; (videlicet,) the Duties on Servants mentioned in the Schedule marked (C.) No. 1. and No. 3. of Two several Acts passed respectively in the Forty-eighth and Fifty-second Years of the Reign of King George the Third, and the reduced Duty granted by an Act of the Fifty-ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Third on Under Gamekeepers; the Duties on Carriages mentioned in the Schedule marked (D.) No. 1. and No. 2. of the said Acts respectively, and the several reduced Duties granted by an Act of the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth upon Carriages with Four Wheels of less Diameter than Thirty Inches, and drawn by Ponies not exceeding Thirteen Hands in Height, and upon Carriages with Four Wheels and drawn by One Horse only; and also the Duties on Horses mentioned in the Schedules respectively marked (E.) No. 1. and (F.) No. 1. of the said respective Acts of the Forty-eighth and Fifty-second Years of King George the Third, whether such Horses are subject to the Rates mentioned in the said Acts, or to any reduced Duty by any subsequent Act; and the reduced Duty granted by Two several Acts, passed respectively in the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Third and the Fourth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, upon Horses not exceeding the Height of Thirteen Hands, used for the Purpose of riding or drawing Carriages; and also the Duties on Race Horses granted by an Act passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth; and the Duties on Dogs mentioned in the Schedule marked (G.) of the said respective Acts of the Forty-eighth and Fifty-second Years of King George the Third; and the Duties in respect of using or wearing Hair Powder mentioned in the Schedule marked (I.) of the said Act of the Forty-eighth Year of King George the Third; and also the Duties in respect of using or wearing Armorial Bearings or Ensigns mentioned in the Schedule marked (K.) of the said last-mentioned Act; and every such Composition which shall comprise any other Duty or Duties than the Duties herein-before enumerated, and allowed by this Act to be compounded for, shall be void and of no Effect in respect of such other Duties; and all such other Duties shall be assessed and charged according to the Laws in force relating to Assessments, notwithstanding any such Composition.

Persons assessed for the Year ending 5th of April 1851 may compound on the Amount assessed in that Year, paying an additional Duty of 5*l.* per Cent.

III. And be it enacted, That every Person, not having compounded under any of the said former Acts, who is or shall be duly assessed for the Year ending on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one to the Duties chargeable under the Acts relating to Assessed Taxes may compound for the said Duties in respect of the Articles comprised in such Assessment and herein enumerated for the said Term of Five Years hereby limited, on Payment of the same Amount annually as is or shall be assessed on him for the said Year ending as aforesaid in respect of the said Articles herein enumerated, together with an additional annual Duty of One Shilling for every Twenty Shillings, and after that Rate for any greater or less Sum than Twenty Shillings of the said Amount so assessed, but no fractional Part of One Penny of the said additional Duty shall be payable.

Persons who have compounded under former Acts may renew their Compositions under this Act.

Duties to be paid on renewed Compositions.

IV. And be it enacted, That every Person, except as herein after is excepted, who hath compounded under any of the said former Acts for the Duties of Assessed Taxes by any Contract now in force may renew such Composition as to the Duties on the Articles herein enumerated and allowed by this Act to be compounded for; and the Commissioners of the Division in which such Person shall reside shall renew such Composition under the Provisions of this Act, whether the same was entered into with the Commissioners of the same Division or of any other Division; and the Amount of Duty charged and now payable on the same Articles respectively comprised in the said former Composition, together with the additional Per-centage Rate or several additional Per-centage Rates of Duty also charged therein under the said former Acts in respect of the said Articles, shall form the aggregate Amount on which the following additional Rates of Duty shall respectively be computed and charged for the Renewal of such Composition under this Act; (that is to say,) where the Person who hath compounded as aforesaid hath increased his Establishment of Servants, Horses, Carriages, or other Articles upon which such Composition hath been made, but to such an Extent only that the Duties chargeable thereon under an Assessment would not exceed by more than One Fourth the total Amount of the Sum now payable on such Contract of Composition, there shall be payable annually a further additional Duty of One Shilling for every Twenty Shillings, and after that Rate for any greater or less Sum than Twenty Shillings of the said aggregate Amount; and where such Person hath increased such his Establishment beyond the Extent aforesaid, but so that the Duties chargeable thereon under an Assessment would not exceed double the Sum now payable on such Contract of Composition, there shall be payable annually a further additional Duty of Two Shillings for every Twenty Shillings, and after that Rate for any greater or less

Sum

Sum than Twenty Shillings of the said aggregate Amount, but no fractional Part of One Penny of the said respective additional Duties shall be payable under this Act: Provided always, that where the Person who hath compounded as aforesaid hath not increased such his Establishment so that the Duties chargeable thereon under an Assessment would exceed the total Amount of the Sum now payable on his Contract of Composition, no additional Rate of Duty shall be payable under this Act for the Renewal of such Composition.

The Duty of 10 per Cent. by 3 & 4 Vict. c. 17. to be charged on Composition under this Act.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the additional Duty of Ten per Centum granted and now payable under an Act passed in the Third Year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for granting to Her Majesty Duties of Customs, Excise, and Assessed Taxes, shall be computed and charged upon and shall be payable over and above the gross aggregate Amount of all the Duties charged by this or any former Act or Acts upon or in respect of any Contract of Composition made or renewed under this Act.

Persons who, since compounding, have increased their Establishments more than double, or compounded on too low a Duty, not to renew Compositions, but compound de novo.

VI. And be it enacted, That no Contract of Composition shall be renewed under this Act with any Person who, since entering into such Contract, hath increased his Establishment of Servants, Carriages, Horses, or other Articles upon which such Composition hath been made, so that the Duties chargeable on such Establishment, under an Assessment for the Year to commence from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, would amount to more than double the Sum now payable under such Contract, nor with any Person who hath compounded on a less Amount of Duty than ought to have been included in such Composition; but nevertheless it shall be lawful for any such Person, in either of the Cases aforesaid, after he shall have made a bonâ fide Return of the greatest Number of Servants, Carriages, Horses, and other Articles of his Establishment, according to the Laws in force relating to the Assessed Taxes, in order to an Assessment thereon for the Year to commence from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and shall be duly assessed for that Year, to compound de novo on the Amount so assessed in respect of the Articles herein enumerated, together with the additional Duty chargeable on Contracts of Composition entered into under this Act.

Persons who have compounded under former Acts giving Notice of Reduction in their Establishment not to renew their Compositions, but may compound de novo.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Person who hath compounded under any of the said former Acts, and who hath given or shall give Notice in this present Year in pursuance of the said Acts of his Intention to discontinue any Part of his increased Establishment of Servants, Carriages, Horses, or other Articles in the Manner provided by the said Acts, shall be allowed to renew his former Contract of Composition, or to enter into any new Contract of Composition under this Act, except upon the Amount of an Assessment to be made on a bonâ fide Return of the greatest Number of Servants, Carriages, Horses, and other such Articles as aforesaid kept or used or employed by him in the Year commencing from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty, together with the additional Duty chargeable thereon under this Act, in the same Manner as if such Person had not compounded under the said former Acts, notwithstanding the said Notice, or anything contained in the said former Acts or in this Act.

Persons having diminished their Establishment abroad, or Persons residing abroad, not to compound.

VIII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That no Composition shall be entered into under this Act with any Person who shall have resided out of Great Britain before the passing of this Act for a temporary Purpose only, and who shall be assessable to the said Duties, for the Year ending the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, to a less Amount than he was assessed before his Departure from Great Britain, nor shall any Composition be entered into or renewed with any Person who shall be residing out of the United Kingdom.

Persons having compounded and reduced their Establishments may compound de novo on the Assessment of 1851.

IX. And be it enacted, That if any Person having compounded under the said former Acts shall have reduced his Establishment so that he may be chargeable with a less Amount of Assessed Taxes for the Year commencing from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one than the Amount of Duty compounded for, and shall by reason thereof be desirous of waiving the said Composition, and of compounding de novo, it shall be lawful for him so to do, upon giving Notice in Writing of such his Intention to the Surveyor of Taxes for the District in which such Person shall reside, on or before the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and annexing to such Notice a full, true, and complete Return or List of the greatest Number of Articles chargeable with Duty kept and retained or employed by such Person after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty, so that an Assessment may be duly made for the Year to commence from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty one on all the Articles chargeable for that Year; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to enter into Composition de novo with the Person giving the Notice aforesaid, upon the Amount of such Assessment as aforesaid, with the additional Duty chargeable thereon under this Act, as if such Person had not compounded under the said former Acts.

Persons who keep taxable Articles not included in a renewed Contract of Composition may compound for the same by a separate Contract.

X. And be it enacted, That where any Person who hath compounded under any of the said former Acts, and shall renew such Composition under this Act, shall have kept or employed or used any taxable Articles of a Description allowed to be compounded for under this Act, but of a different Description from those included in such his former Composition, and for which Articles he is or will be liable to be assessed for the Year ending the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, it shall be lawful for such Person, upon being duly assessed for such Articles not included in the renewed Composition, to compound for the same by a separate and distinct Contract, on the same Terms and in the like Manner as any Person who hath not compounded under the said former Acts may enter into an original Contract of Composition under this Act.

Compounders entitled to the like Privileges

XI. And be it enacted, That every Person entering into or renewing any Composition under this Act shall be entitled to the like Privileges of setting up or retaining, and keeping, using, or employing any of increasing Establishments, &c. as under former Acts.

Exceptions as to certain Descriptions of Dogs.

any additional Articles of the same Description, and chargeable under the same Schedule and Number of the Schedule, or with the same or a lower Rate of Duty as the Articles compounded for composing his Establishment, and to and for his own Use, but not otherwise, as the Persons compounding under the said former Acts are now by Law entitled to, and shall be exempt from all Assessments on such additional Articles of his Establishment during the Term mentioned in such Composition, save and except that no Person who shall compound or renew any Composition under this Act for any Dog chargeable with a less Rate of Duty than Fourteen Shillings shall be entitled to keep free of Duty any Hound, Pointer, Setting Dog, Spaniel, Terrier, or Lurcher; nor shall any Person who shall have compounded for any Dog or Dogs other than Hounds, and not for any Hound, keep free of Duty any Hound; nor shall any Person who shall have compounded for any less Number of Hounds than Ten keep free of Duty any additional Number of Hounds; neither shall any Person keep free of Duty any Greyhound, unless he shall have compounded for a Greyhound; in all which excepted Cases, as well as in all Cases where Articles of any Description excluded from Composition by this Act shall be kept, retained, employed, or used, Assessments and further or increased Charges shall be made; and the Penalties which may be incurred under any of the Acts relating to Assessed Taxes shall and may be sued for, prosecuted, and recovered according to the Provisions of the said several Acts as fully and effectually as if no Composition had been made or renewed under this Act.

Persons compounding for Servants, Carriages, and Horses at the higher Rates of Duty entitled to keep free of Duty Servants, Carriages, and Horses chargeable at lower Rates.

XII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for every Person who shall enter into or renew any Composition under this Act in respect of any Male Person employed in any of the Capacities described in and chargeable with Duty under the said Schedule marked (C.) No. 1. of the said respective Acts of the Forty-eighth and Fifty-second Years of King George the Third to retain, keep, and employ free of Duty any other Male Person or Number of Male Persons employed in the same Capacity, or in any other Capacity chargeable with the same or any lower Rate of Duty, and allowed by this Act to be compounded for; and it shall be lawful for every Person who shall enter into or renew any Composition as aforesaid in respect of any Carriage of whatever Description chargeable with Duty, and allowed by this Act to be compounded for, to set up, keep, and use free of Duty any other Carriage or Number of Carriages of the same Description, or of any other Description chargeable with the same or a lower Rate of Duty, and allowed to be compounded for as aforesaid; and it shall also be lawful for every Person who shall enter into or renew any Composition as aforesaid in respect of any Horse chargeable with Duty under the Schedule marked (E.) No. 1. of the said respective Acts to keep and use free of Duty any additional Number of Horses chargeable with Duty under the same Schedule, or any Horse or Horses chargeable with any lower Rate of Duty, and allowed to be compounded for as aforesaid.

Persons assessed or having compounded for a Carriage at a lower Rate of Duty entitled to substitute for it in their Composition Contract a Carriage at a higher Rate.

XIII. And be it enacted, That where any Person intending to compound under this Act is or shall be assessed for the Year ending on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one in respect of any Carriage with Four Wheels, and drawn by One Horse only, or any Carriage of whatever Description chargeable with the same Rate of Duty as the last-mentioned Carriage or a lower Rate, and also where any Person intending to renew any Contract of Composition now in force hath by such Contract compounded for any such Carriage as aforesaid, and where any such Person in either of the Cases aforesaid, after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty, shall have set up, kept, or used, or shall intend to set up, keep, or use, any Carriage chargeable with a higher Rate of Duty than that for which he shall have been so assessed or hath compounded as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for him, if he shall think fit, to compound or to renew his Composition under this Act for a Carriage at such higher Rate, upon giving Notice thereof in Writing to the Surveyor of the Division in which he shall reside within the Time herein limited for giving Notice of Intention to compound, and thereupon such Carriage at the higher Rate of Duty shall be substituted in the Contract to be entered into under this Act for the Making or Renewal of such Composition for and in lieu of One such Carriage at the lower Rate;

Persons having compounded for a Carriage at a lower Rate of Duty entitled to set up under their Composition a Carriage chargeable at a higher Rate, on Payment of the Difference of Duty.

and where any Person who shall have entered into any Contract for the Making or Renewal of any Composition under this Act in respect of any Carriage with Four Wheels, and drawn by One Horse only, or any Carriage of whatever Description chargeable with the same Rate of Duty as such last-mentioned Carriage or a lower Rate, and such Person at any Time after the entering into such Contract shall be desirous of setting up and keeping under such Composition any Carriage chargeable with a higher Rate of Duty, such Person shall give Notice thereof to the Surveyor of the Division in which he shall reside One Calendar Month at least before setting up or keeping or using such Carriage chargeable with the higher Rate of Duty; and the said Surveyor shall transmit such Notice to the Clerk of the Commissioners acting for the said Division, and such Clerk shall cause to be endorsed upon each Part of the Contract of Composition, and to be signed by Two of the said Commissioners, a Certificate of such Notice, and of the additional Duty to be paid on such Contract in that Behalf; (that is to say,) there shall be payable thereon annually, during the Remainder of the Term of Composition, the Difference between the Rate of Duty chargeable on one such Carriage which shall have been compounded for as aforesaid and the Rate of Duty chargeable on the Carriage intended to be set up, kept, and used as aforesaid, together with the several additional Per-centage Rates of Duty payable under the said Contract, to be computed upon such Difference; and such additional Duties shall be payable for the whole Year, commencing from the Fifth Day of April next preceding the Date of such endorsed Certificate, and shall be paid during all the Remainder of the Term of Composition by half-yearly Instalments, and be collected, levied, and recovered in like Manner as if the same had been comprised in the Body of the said Contract; and after such Notice, and the Endorsement of such Certificate as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Person compounding as aforesaid to set up, keep, and use any such Carriage as aforesaid, with the like Privileges and Immunities during the Remainder of the said Term as he would have been entitled to if he had originally compounded in respect of such Carriage chargeable at the higher Rate of Duty.

Persons compounding not to be charged for their increased Establishment.

XIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Person shall be chargeable under the Acts in force at the Time of passing this Act, after the Expiration of the said Term of Five Years, for any Part of the increased Establishment not included in the Composition entered into under this Act, who shall give Six Months previous Notice of his Intention to discontinue the same, and who shall actually have ceased to keep the same One Calendar Month prior to the Expiration of the said Period of Five Years.

Compositions with Persons afterwards succeeding to Estates on the Death of any Person, or on Marriage, and increasing their Establishments beyond a certain Extent, to cease, with Power to compound de novo.

XV. And be it enacted, That every Composition entered into or renewed under this Act with any Person herein-after described shall cease and determine at the respective Times herein-after mentioned; (that is to say,) if any Person who shall compound or renew any Composition under this Act shall afterwards come into possession of any Estate, Real or Personal, or become entitled to the Rents or Profits of any Estate, Real or Personal, upon the Death of any Person, whether by Descent, Devise, Bequest, Gift, or Settlement, or under the Statute for the Distribution of Estates of Intestates, and shall thereupon or afterwards begin to keep any greater Number of Servants, Carriages, Horses, or other taxable Articles of the Description comprised in such Composition, whereby the Establishment of the Person compounding shall be increased, so that the Duties which would be chargeable thereon under an Assessment, if no such Composition had been made, would exceed by One Fourth or more the Amount of the Duties payable under such Composition, then and in every such Case the Composition entered into or renewed under this Act by any such Person herein-before described shall cease and determine on the Fifth Day of April next after any such Increase of Establishment shall take place; and if any Person shall intermarry after entering into or renewing any Composition under this Act, and shall by such Marriage come into the Possession or to the Use or Enjoyment of the Rents or Profits of any Estate, Real or Personal, belonging to his Wife before Marriage, whether upon such Marriage the Husband shall acquire any Interest in Law or Equity in such Estate or not, or whether the said Estate shall remain in or be vested to the sole Use of the Wife or not, in case the Husband shall, upon or after such Marriage, retain or keep any Servants, Carriages, Horses, or other Articles of the Description aforesaid kept by or belonging to his Wife before Marriage, or in case the Wife shall, after such Marriage, retain her former Establishment or any Part thereof, or in case the Husband or Wife shall, upon or after such Marriage, begin to keep any other Servants, Carriages, Horses, or other Articles of the Description aforesaid, in lieu of the like Articles of the Establishment of the Wife before Marriage, so that the Husband, if no Composition had been entered into, would have been assessable to an Amount of Duty exceeding by One Fourth the Amount of the Duties payable under such Composition, then and in such Case the Composition entered into or renewed under this Act by any such Person so intermarrying as aforesaid shall cease and determine on the Fifth Day of April next after such Marriage shall take place, or such increased Establishment shall begin to be kept: Provided always, that in all the several Cases in which the Composition is determined and made to cease by this Act for any of the respective Causes aforesaid it shall be lawful for every such Person as aforesaid, after he shall have made a bonâ fide Return of the greatest Number of Servants, Carriages, Horses, and other Articles for which he shall be chargeable with any Duty of Assessed Taxes, in order to an Assessment thereon for the Year commencing on the Sixth Day of April next after the Determination of such Composition, and upon being duly assessed for that Year, to compound de novo for the Remainder of the Term limited by this Act then to come and unexpired on the Amount so assessed on him in respect of such of the said Articles as are allowed to be compounded for under this Act, together with the additional Duty chargeable thereon under this Act, and as if such Person had not before compounded.

Composition Contracts of married Women to cease.

XVI. And be it enacted, That no Contract of Composition shall be entered into or renewed under this Act with any married Woman, and that every such Contract which shall be entered into or renewed with any unmarried Woman who shall afterwards marry shall cease and determine on the Fifth Day of April next after her Marriage.

Commissioners and Officers acting in the Execution of the Acts relating to Assessed Taxes to execute this Act.

XVII. And be it enacted, That the several Persons who for the Time being shall be Commissioners for putting in execution the Acts relating to Assessed Taxes shall be Commissioners for putting in execution this Act, and the Powers herein contained or referred to, in all and every the respective Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Shires, and Stewartries, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns, and Places in Great Britain; and the several Assessors, Collectors, Surveyors, Inspectors, and other Officers for the Time being appointed or to be appointed to put into execution the said Acts shall respectively be Assessors, Collectors, Surveyors, Inspectors, and Officers to put in execution this Act within the Limits of their respective Divisions, Districts, and Places to which they are or shall be appointed; and the respective Commissioners and other Persons authorized by the said former Acts to contract and agree for Compositions for Assessed Taxes, or to do or perform any other Matter or Thing for carrying the said Acts into execution, shall respectively contract and agree for the Compositions to be entered into or renewed under this Act, and shall do and perform all such other Matters and Things as are required to be done and performed in the Execution of this Act within the Limits of their respective Jurisdictions; and all Powers, Authorities, Rules, Regulations, Directions, Clauses, Penalties, Matters, and Things contained in any former Act or Acts relating to Assessed Taxes, or to Compositions for Assessed Taxes, and now in force, shall severally and respectively be construed and deemed to apply to the Compositions to be made and renewed respectively under this Act, and shall, so far as the same shall be consistent with Powers and Provisions of former Acts to remain and to be applied to the

with and shall not be superseded by the express Provisions of this Act, be observed, applied, enforced, and put in execution with relation to the Compositions to be made and renewed respectively under this Act, and for the raising, levying, paying, and accounting for the Monies to arise under this Act. and for the Prevention and Punishment of Fraud, Imposition, and Evasion in relation thereto, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if such Powers, Authorities, Rules, Regulations, Directions, Clauses, Penalties, Matters. and Things had been herein repeated and specially enacted with reference to the Compositions respectively to be made and renewed under this Act.

Persons intending to compound or to renew any Composition to give Notice thereof, together with a Statement of the Articles of Composition.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That every Person intending to compound under this Act shall on or before the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one in England, and on or before the Term of Whitsunday in the same Year in Scotland, deliver or cause to be delivered, free of Charge, to the Surveyor of Taxes for the Division in which such Person shall reside, a Notice in Writing in such Form as shall be provided by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue in that Behalf, declaring the Intention of such Person to compound, which Notice shall be signed by such Person (or by some authorized Agent on his Behalf residing in such Division, and whose Place of Residence shall be specified in such Notice) in the Presence of one of the Assessors or Collectors of the said Duties for the same Parish or Place where the Person intending to compound shall reside, or in the Presence of such Surveyor, who respectively shall subscribe his Name thereto as attesting such Signature; and every such Notice shall bear Date on the Day of signing the same, and shall contain a full, true, and complete Return or List of the greatest Number of Servants, Carriages, Horses, and all other Articles of his Establishment chargeable with Duty upon which he shall be entitled to compound under this Act, and which have been kept, retained, or employed by him at any Time during the Year commencing from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine; and every Person intending to renew his former Composition under this Act shall, on or before the respective Days or Times herein-before limited for the Delivery of such Notices as aforesaid, deliver or cause to be delivered, in like Manner, to such Surveyor as aforesaid, the Contract of his former Composition, or a true Copy or Certificate thereof, under the Hands of any Two of the Commissioners acting for the Division in which such Contract was entered into, together with a Notice in such Form as shall be provided by the said Commissioners of Inland Revenue in that Behalf, and signed and attested in the Manner herein-before directed with regard to Notices of Intention to compound, declaring the Intention of such Person to renew such former Composition, and containing a full, true, and complete Return or List of the greatest Number of Servants, Carriages, Horses, and other Articles of his Establishment chargeable with Duty which shall have been kept and retained or employed by such Person at any Time during the Year commencing from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty.

Persons assessed in Places other than where they reside to deliver Certificates of Assessments to the Surveyor.

XIX. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall be assessed for any Servants, Carriages, Horses, or other taxable Articles, for the Year ending the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, in Two or more Divisions in Great Britain, or who shall be assessed for that Year in a different Division from that in which he resides, and who shall be desirous of compounding under this Act, shall deliver or cause to be delivered in manner aforesaid, to the Surveyor of Taxes to whom he is by this Act required to give Notice of his Intention to compound, a Certificate under the Hand of the Surveyor of the Division or of each Division in which he shall be so assessed as aforesaid, containing the Particulars of such Assessment in every such Division, according to such Form as shall be provided by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue in that Behalf.

Surveyor to examine Notices of Intention to compound or renew Compositions, and to deliver the same with his Certificate to the Commissioners.

XX. And be it enacted, That all such Notices and Contracts, or Copies or Certificates of Contracts, and Certificates of Assessment, by this Act directed to be delivered to the Surveyors of Taxes by Persons intending to compound or to renew any Composition, may respectively be retained in the Hands of the said Surveyors respectively until the Expiration of Two Calendar Months after the Delivery thereof; and every such Surveyor shall carefully and diligently inspect and examine every Assessment relating to the Persons so applying to compound or to renew any Composition as aforesaid, and every Contract of Composition entered into under the said former Acts by any such Persons respectively, and also any Notices which may have been delivered by such Persons under the said Acts to discontinue any increased Establishment set up under any such former Contract; and after such Examination thereof every such Surveyor shall deliver all such Notices and Contracts, or Copies or Certificates of Contracts, and Certificates of Assessment, to the Clerks of the respective Commissioners authorized by this Act to contract for such Compositions, and for the Renewal of such former Compositions; and such Surveyor shall also certify to the said Commissioners either his Satisfaction with the Notices delivered in such Cases, or his Objection thereto, and the Grounds of such Objection, and the Amount of Duty on which every such Composition ought to be made or renewed; and no Composition shall be entered into or renewed in any of the Cases so objected to until a full and complete Return shall be made of every Article chargeable with Duty on which the Composition ought to be made under the Provisions of this Act; and every Composition entered into or renewed contrary to the Provisions of this Act shall be void and of no Effect, and the Person entering into or renewing the same shall be liable to Assessment and to the Charge of the respective Surveyors, according to the Provisions of the Acts in force relating to Assessed Taxes, as if no Composition had been entered into or renewed.

Errors or Mistakes in Compositions may be amended.

XXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where by any Error or Mistake the just Amount of Duty shall not be duly computed or inserted in the Contract of Composition, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, by Certificate under the Hands of any Two or more of them directed to the Commissioners of the Division by whom such Contract shall have been made or allowed, to certify such such Error or Mistake, and to direct the same to be amended or a new Contract made and executed in such Manner as may seem to the said Commissioners of Inland Revenue to be expedient to obviate such Error or Mistake, and conformable to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; and the Commissioners to whom such Certificate shall be directed shall cause such Contract to be amended or a new Contract to be entered into accordingly.

Composition Contracts not liable to Duty.

XXII. And be it enacted, That no Contract for the making or renewing of any Composition under this or any former Act shall be liable to any Stamp Duty.

Act may be amended.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XCVII.

An Act to repeal certain Stamp Duties, and to grant others in lieu thereof; and to amend the Laws relating to the Stamp Duties. [14th August 1850.]

55 G. 3. c. 184. ‘WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act for repealing the Stamp Duties on Deeds, Law Proceedings, and other written or printed Instruments, and the Duties on Fire Insurances, and on Legacies, and Successions to Personal Estate upon Intestacies, now payable in Great Britain, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof, certain Stamp Duties specified and contained in a Schedule to the said Act annexed were granted and made payable in and throughout Great Britain, for and in respect of the several Instruments, Matters, and Things described or mentioned in the said Schedule: And whereas by an Act passed

'passed in the Third Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to reduce the 3 G. 4. c. 117.
'Stamp Duties on Reconveyances of Mortgages and in certain other Cases, and to amend an Act of 'the last Session of Parliament for removing Doubts as to the Amount of certain Stamp Duties in 'Great Britain and Ireland respectively, certain Stamp Duties therein mentioned or referred to were 'repealed, and in lieu thereof certain other Stamp Duties in the said last-recited Act specified were 'granted and made payable in and throughout Great Britain and Ireland respectively: And whereas
'by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to assimilate 5 & 6 Vict. c. 82.
'the Stamp Duties in Great Britain and Ireland, and to make Regulations for collecting and managing 'the same until the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, certain of the 'said Stamp Duties granted by the said first-recited Act were extended to and made payable in Ireland;
'and under and by virtue of the said Three several Acts, and also of Two other Acts passed respectively 8 & 9 Vict. c. 2.
'in the Eighth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty's Reign, for continuing the said last-recited Act, 11 & 12 Vict.
'the said Stamp Duties are now payable in Great Britain and Ireland respectively: And whereas it is c. 9.
'expedient to repeal certain of the said Stamp Duties, so far as the same relate to the several Instru'ments, Matters, and Things mentioned and described in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and to 'substitute in lieu thereof other Rates of Duties for and in respect of the same Instruments, Matters, and
'Things:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty the several Stamp Duties now payable in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, under or by virtue of the said several Acts herein-before recited or referred to, or any of the said Acts respectively, or any other Act or Acts, for or in respect of the several Instruments, Matters, and Things described or mentioned in the said Schedule to this Act annexed, and whereon other Duties are by this Act granted and imposed, shall respectively cease and determine, and shall be and the same are hereby repealed, and in lieu and instead thereof there shall be granted, raised, levied, collected, and paid in and throughout the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, unto and for the Use of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, for and in respect of the said several Instruments, Matters, and Things, or for or in respect of the Vellum, Parchment, or Paper upon which the same respectively shall be written, the several Duties or Sums of Money set down in Figures against the same respectively, or otherwise specified and set forth in the said last-mentioned Schedule, and that the said last-mentioned Schedule, and the several Provisions, Regulations, and Directions therein contained with respect to the said Duties, and the Instruments, Matters, and Things charged therewith, shall be deemed and taken to be Part of this Act, and shall be applied, observed, and put in execution accordingly: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to repeal or alter any of the said Duties now payable in relation to any Deed or Instrument which shall have been signed or executed by any Party thereto, or which shall bear Date before or upon the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty.

Stamp Duties on Instruments specified in the annexed Schedule repealed, and other Duties granted in lieu thereof.

II. And be it enacted, That the said Duties by this Act granted shall be denominated and deemed to be Stamp Duties, and shall be under the Care and Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue for the Time being; and that all Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Regulations, Directions, and Exemptions, Fines, Forfeitures, Pains, and Penalties, contained in or imposed by the said recited Act of the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Third and the Schedule thereto annexed, and in or by any other Act or Acts, relating to any Duties of the same Kind or Description heretofore payable in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, and in force at the Time of the passing of and not repealed by this Act, shall respectively be of full Force and Effect with respect to the Duties by this Act granted, and to the Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, Instruments, Matters, and Things, charged and chargeable therewith, and to the Persons liable to the Payment of the said Duties, so far as the same are or shall be applicable, in all Cases not hereby expressly provided for, and shall be observed, applied, allowed, enforced, and put in execution for and in the raising, levying, collecting, and securing of the said Duties hereby granted, and otherwise in relation thereto, so far as the same shall not be superseded by and shall be consistent with the express Provisions of this Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been herein repeated and specially enacted, mutatis mutandis, with reference to the said Duties by this Act granted, and the said Schedule annexed to the said Act of the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Third and the said Schedule to this Act annexed shall be read and construed as One Schedule and as One Act.

Duties granted to be denominated Stamp Duties, and to be under the Care of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

Powers and Provisions of former Acts to be in force and be put in execution with regard to the Duties hereby granted.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act or in the Schedule hereto annexed contained shall extend or be deemed or construed to extend to charge with Stamp Duty any Deed or Instrument which by any Act or Acts now in force is expressly exempted from all Stamp Duty; or to subject or charge any Transfer or Assignment of any Share in the Stock and Funds of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or of the South Sea Company, or of the East India Company respectively, to or with any higher or other Stamp Duty than such Transfers and Assignments are respectively subject and liable to under any Act or Acts now in force.

Duties not to be charged on Deeds or Instruments expressly exempted from Stamp Duty by existing Acts.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Duties imposed by the said Act of the Sixth Year of Her Majesty's Reign upon any Lease, Release, or Deed, Minute, Memorandum, or legal or equitable Article or Instrument for setting or demising Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in Ireland, in the Manner in the said Act mentioned, and also the Duty imposed by an Act passed in the Tenth Year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to facilitate and encourage the granting of certain Leases for Terms of Years in Ireland, on any Lease in the said last-mentioned Act described, shall, so far as the same respectively relate Duties imposed by 5 & 6 Vict. c. 82. and 9 & 10 Vict. c. 112. on certain Leases in Ireland, repealed.

relate to any such Lease, Release, or Deed, Minute or Memorandum, Article or Instrument as aforesaid which shall bear Date after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty, be and the same are hereby repealed; and every such Lease, Release, or Deed, Minute, Memorandum, or legal or equitable Article or Instrument last mentioned shall be and become subject and liable to and chargeable with the Duties imposed by this Act and the said Act of the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Third respectively, on Deeds and Instruments of the like Kind or Description.

For removing Doubts as to the Stamp Duties on certain Agreements for setting or demising Lands in Ireland.

V. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Seventh Year of Her Majesty's Reign the Stamp Duty on 'an Agreement, or Minute or Memorandum of an Agreement, under Hand only, and in the said last-'mentioned Act more particularly described, was reduced to the Sum of Two Shillings and Sixpence: 'And whereas Doubts have arisen as to whether the said reduced Duty extends to Agreements or other 'Instruments under Hand only for setting or demising Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in Ireland 'at a yearly Rent not exceeding Fifty Pounds; and it is expedient to remove such Doubts:' Be it therefore declared and enacted, That no Agreement, or Minute, Memorandum, or legal or equitable Article or Instrument, under Hand only, made or to be made at any Time since the Sixth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and before or upon the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty, for setting or demising Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in Ireland at any yearly Rent not exceeding Fifty Pounds, shall be held or deemed to be or to have been subject or liable to any higher Amount of Stamp Duty than the said reduced Duty of Two Shillings and Sixpence payable on an Agreement, or Minute or Memorandum of an Agreement, under Hand only, by virtue of the said Act of the Seventh Year of Her Majesty's Reign.

Preamble.

4 & 5 Vict. c. 21.

8 & 9 Vict. c. 106.

VI. 'And whereas under or by virtue of the said several Acts herein-before recited, or some of them, 'certain Stamp Duties are now payable for or in respect of any Bargain and Sale, or Lease for a Year, for 'vesting the Possession of Lands or other Hereditaments, and enabling the Bargainee to take a Release of 'the Freehold or Inheritance: And whereas by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of Her 'present Majesty, intituled An Act for rendering a Release as effectual for the Conveyance of Freehold 'Estates as a Lease and Release by the same Parties, it is provided, that every Deed or Instrument taking 'effect under the said last-mentioned Act in the Manner therein mentioned shall be chargeable with the 'same Amount of Stamp Duty as any Bargain and Sale or Lease for a Year would have been chargeable 'with (except Progressive Duty) if executed to give Effect to such Deed or Instrument, in addition to 'the Stamp Duties which such Deed or Instrument shall be chargeable with as a Release or otherwise 'under any Act or Acts relating to Stamp Duties: And whereas by an Act passed in the Ninth Year of 'the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Law of Real Property, it is enacted, 'that every Deed which by force only of the said last-mentioned Act shall be effectual as a Grant shall 'be chargeable with the Stamp Duty with which the same Deed would have been chargeable in case 'the same had been a Release founded on a Lease or Bargain and Sale for a Year, and also with the 'same Stamp Duty (exclusive of Progressive Duty) with which such Lease or Bargain and Sale for a 'Year would have been chargeable: And whereas it is expedient to repeal the said Stamp Duties now 'payable for or in respect of any such Bargain and Sale or Lease for a Year as aforesaid, and also to 'repeal so much of the said Two several Acts last mentioned as imposes upon any Deed or Instrument 'the said additional Stamp Duty as for a Bargain and Sale or Lease for a Year:' Be it therefore enacted, That the said Duties now payable for or in respect of any such Bargain and Sale or Lease for a Year as aforesaid, and also so much of the said Two several last-mentioned Acts as is herein-before recited, shall, so far as the same respectively relate to any Deed or Instrument which shall bear Date after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Stamp Duties on a Bargain and Sale, and so much of said Two Acts as is recited, repealed.

Preamble.

Additional Duty on a Conveyance by Feoffment or Bargain and Sale enrolled, repealed.

VII. 'And whereas by the said recited Act of the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of King George the 'Third, and the Schedule thereto annexed, it is provided, that where any Freehold Lands or Heredita-'ments shall be conveyed by a Deed of Feoffment or by a Deed of Bargain and Sale enrolled, such Deed 'of Feoffment or Bargain and Sale, unless accompanied with a Lease and Release, shall be charged with 'such further Duty as in the said last-mentioned Schedule is specified and contained in that Behalf:' Be it enacted, That so much of the said last-mentioned Act and of the said Schedule as charges such Deed of Feoffment or Bargain and Sale with any such further Duty shall, as to any such Deed as aforesaid which shall bear Date at any Time after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty, be and the same is hereby repealed.

All Persons receiving Monies for Stamp Duties, and misappropriating the same, to be liable for the Amount, and the Court of Exchequer to enforce Payment thereof.

VIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall have received or gotten into his Hands, or shall receive or get into his Hands, any Sum or Sums of Money as and for the Stamp Duty upon or in respect of any Deed, Instrument, or Transaction, or intended Deed, Instrument, or Transaction, or the Duty upon or in respect of any Legacy or Residue, and shall improperly neglect or omit to appropriate such Sum or Sums of Money to the due Payment of such Duty, or shall otherwise by or under any Means or Pretence whatsoever improperly withhold or detain the same, every such Person shall be accountable for the Amount of such Duty or Sum or Sums of Money, and the same shall be a Debt from such Person to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and recoverable as such accordingly; and it shall be lawful for the Barons of Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer in England, Scotland, or Ireland respectively, upon Application to be made for that Purpose on behalf of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, upon such Affidavit as to such Court may appear sufficient, to grant a Rule requiring such Person, or his Executor or Administrator, to show cause why he should not deliver to the said Commissioners an Account upon Oath of all such Duties and Sums of Money as aforesaid, and why the same should not be forthwith paid to the Receiver General of Inland Revenue, or to such Person as the said Commissioners shall appoint appoint or authorize to receive the same; and it shall be lawful for such Court to refer the taking or auditing of any such Account to the proper Officer of such Court, who shall examine any such Person as a Debtor or alleged Debtor to the Crown, on personal Interrogatories, if such Court shall think proper so to do; and it shall be lawful for such Court to make absolute any such Rule as aforesaid in every Case in which the same may appear to such Court to be proper and necessary, and to enforce by Attachment or otherwise the Payment of any such Duties or Sums of Money as on such Proceedings shall appear to such Court to be due, together with the Costs of all such Proceedings.

For removing Doubts as to the Duties upon Transfers of Mortgages.

IX. 'And whereas Doubts have arisen as to certain Stamp Duties in Great Britain and Ireland 'respectively payable under the said Act of the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, 'the said Act of the Third Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, and the several Acts respec- 'tively therein recited or mentioned, and the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of Her present 'Majesty, or under some or one of the said several Acts respectively, upon or in respect of certain 'Deeds or Instruments herein-after mentioned, and it is proper that such Doubts should be removed:' Be it therefore enacted and declared, That any Transfer or Assignment, Disposition or Assignation, already made, or which on or before the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty may be made, of any Mortgage or Wadset or of any other Security in the said Acts or any of them mentioned, or of the Benefit thereof, or of the Money or Stock thereby secured, shall not, by reason of its containing, either by the Mortgagor or by any Person entitled to the Property mortgaged by Descent, Devise, or Bequest from such Mortgagor, any further or additional Security for the Payment or Transfer or Re-transfer of such Money or Stock, or any Interest or Dividends thereon, or any new Covenant, Proviso, Power, Stipulation, or Agreement, or other Matter whatever, in relation to such Money or Stock, or the Interest or Dividends thereon, or by reason of its containing all or any of such Matters, be or be deemed to be liable to any further or other Duty (except Progressive Duty) than the Duty herein-after mentioned; (that is to say,) where no further Money or Stock has been or shall be added to the Principal Money or Stock already secured, a Stamp Duty of One Pound Fifteen Shillings, and where any further Sum of Money or Stock has been or shall be added to the Principal Money or Stock already secured, the same Stamp Duty only as on a Mortgage or Wadset for such further Sum or Stock; and that any Deed or Instrument, either by the Mortgagor or by any Person entitled as aforesaid, already made or which may be made as aforesaid, operating or intended to operate as a further Charge or as a Security for any further or additional Money or Stock advanced upon any Property already comprised in any Mortgage or other Security, shall not by reason of its containing all or any of the Matters aforesaid, in relation to the Money or Stock previously secured, or the Interest or Dividends thereon, be deemed to be liable to any further or other Stamp Duty than the Duty chargeable on an original Mortgage for the further or additional Money or Stock in and by such Deed of further Charge or Security charged or secured, or intended so to be.

For affording Relief in certain Cases of Leases.

X. 'And whereas numerous Leases have been from Time to Time granted upon or after Sales made 'in consideration of Money paid to some other Person or Persons than the Lessor, without stamping 'such Leases with any ad valorem Stamp in respect of such pecuniary Consideration, the Parties to such 'Leases conceiving that the Provisions of the several Acts now in force requiring the Consideration to 'be set out, and imposing an ad valorem Duty thereon, did not apply to any other Consideration than 'that passing between the Lessor and Lessee; but inasmuch as Doubts have arisen on the Subject, it is 'reasonable that such Relief as is herein-after mentioned should be afforded in such Cases:' Be it therefore enacted and declared, That no Lease made and executed before the Twentieth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty shall be adjudged, deemed, or taken to be improperly stamped by reason of there not being an ad valorem Stamp impressed thereon for or in respect of any pecuniary Consideration which may have been paid or may be therein expressed to be paid by the Lessee to any other Person or Persons than the Lessor, and that the Seller and the Lessee respectively in any such Lease, and any Attorney, Solicitor, Writer to the Signet, or other Person employed in or about the Preparation or Completion of the same, shall be exempted from all Penalties and other Liabilities for or by reason of any Default in setting forth any such pecuniary Consideration as aforesaid.

For removing Doubts regarding Progressive Duties.

Progressive Duties not to be charged on Deeds or Instruments in respect of others duly stamped, and endorsed on or referred to therein.

XI. 'And whereas, by the several Acts now in force relating to the Stamp Duties as well as by this 'Act, certain Stamp Duties called Progressive Duties are imposed upon Deeds and Instruments in respect 'of certain Quantities of Words contained therein, together with any Schedule, Receipt, or other Matter 'put or endorsed thereon or annexed thereto: And whereas Doubts are entertained whether such Pro- 'gressive Duties are chargeable on any Deed or Instrument in respect of the Words contained in any 'other Deed or Instrument liable to Stamp Duty and duly stamped which may be put or endorsed upon, 'or annexed to, or referred to in or by such first-mentioned Deed or Instrument, and it is expedient to 'remove such Doubts:' Be it therefore declared and enacted, That the said Progressive Duties shall not be deemed or held to be or to have been imposed or chargeable upon any Deed or Instrument in respect of the Words or any Quantity of the Words contained in any other Deed or Instrument liable to Stamp Duty and duly stamped which may be or may have been put or endorsed upon or annexed to such first-mentioned Deed or Instrument, or which may be or may have been in any Manner incorporated with or referred to in or by the same.

Terms and Conditions on which Deeds, &c. may be stamped after the signing thereof.

XII. 'And whereas, for securing the due Payment of the Stamp Duties imposed by Law on Deeds 'and other Instruments, it is expedient to alter the Terms and Conditions on which any such Deed or 'Instrument may be stamped after the Execution or signing thereof:' Be it therefore enacted, That where any Deed or Instrument liable by Law to any Stamp Duty shall be written on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, and shall be signed or executed by any Person before such Vellum, Parchment, or Paper shall be be duly stamped for denoting the Payment of the said Duty, then and in every such Case there shall be due, answered, and paid to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, the whole or (as the Case may be) the Deficiency of the Stamp Duty payable upon or in respect of such Deed or Instrument, and there shall also be paid and payable, over and above the said Duty or Deficiency of Duty, by way of Penalty, and in lieu of any former Penalty imposed or made payable by Law in the like Case, the Sum of Ten Pounds; and where the whole Amount of the Duty or Deficiency of Duty, as the Case may be, to be denoted by the Stamp or Stamps required to be impressed on such Deed or Instrument when the same shall be brought to be stamped shall exceed the Sum of Ten Pounds, there shall be paid by way of Penalty, in addition to the said Sum of Ten Pounds, Interest on the said Duty or Deficiency of Duty computed at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum from the Date or first signing or Execution of such Deed or Instrument; provided, that if such Interest shall exceed in Amount the said Duty or Deficiency of Duty, then there shall be paid by way of Penalty, in addition to the said Duty or Deficiency of Duty, and the said Sum of Ten Pounds, and in lieu of the said Interest, a Sum equal to the Amount of the said Duty or Deficiency of Duty; and the Commissioners of Inland Revenue are hereby required, upon Payment of the said Duty or Deficiency of Duty, and of the said Sum or Sums herein-before directed to be paid by way of Penalty, to cause such Deed or Instrument to be duly stamped with a Stamp or Stamps for denoting the Payment of such Duty or Deficiency, and also with a Stamp for denoting the Payment of a Penalty, in lieu of the Receipt heretofore required by any Act to be written or given for such Penalty; and no such Deed or Instrument shall be pleaded or given in Evidence, or admitted to be good, useful, or available in Law or Equity, until the same shall be duly stamped in manner aforesaid: Provided always, that where it shall appear to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, upon Oath or otherwise, to their Satisfaction, that any Deed or Instrument hath not been duly stamped previously to being signed or executed, by reason of Accident, Mistake, Inadvertency, or urgent Necessity, and without any wilful Design or Intention to defraud Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, of the Duty chargeable in respect thereof, or to evade or delay the Payment of such Duty, then and in any such Case, if such Deed or Instrument shall within Twelve Calendar Months after the first signing or executing of the same by any Person be brought to the said Commissioners in order to be stamped, and the Stamp Duty chargeable thereon by Law shall be paid, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall think fit, to remit the whole or any Part of the Penalty payable on stamping such Deed or Instrument, and to cause such Deed or Instrument to be duly stamped, upon Payment of the whole, or, as the Case may be, the Deficiency of the Stamp Duty chargeable thereon by Law, and either with or without any Portion of the said Penalty; and thereupon every such Deed or Instrument shall be as valid and available in the Law as it would have been if it had been duly stamped before the signing or executing of the same: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be deemed or construed to extend to any Deed or Instrument for the stamping of which after the signing or Execution thereof Provision is specially made by any Law now in force, or to any Deed or Instrument the stamping of which after the signing or Execution thereof is expressly prohibited or restricted by any such Law as aforesaid, or to repeal, alter, or affect any such Provision, Prohibition, or Restriction.

Commissioners of Inland Revenue authorized to remit the Penalty on stamping Deeds, &c. within Twelve Months after the signing thereof.

Not to extend to Instruments for which special Provision is made, or where the stamping is by Law prohibited.

XIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue to order and direct that any Deed or Instrument which shall have been or shall or may be signed or executed by any Party thereto at any Place out of the United Kingdom may be duly stamped, upon Payment of the proper Stamp Duty payable thereon, and without Payment of any additional Duty or Penalty, provided such Deed or Instrument shall be brought to the said Commissioners to be stamped as aforesaid within the Space of Two Calendar Months from the Time when the same shall have been received in the United Kingdom, and provided Proof shall be first made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of the Facts aforesaid.

Commissioners may stamp Instruments executed abroad, without Penalty, if brought to them within Two Months after Arrival home.

XIV. ‘ And whereas Doubts frequently arise as to the Stamp Duties with which some Deeds or ‘ Instruments are chargeable, and it is expedient that Provision should be made whereby such Doubts ‘ may be removed:’ Be it therefore enacted, That when any Deed or Instrument liable to Stamp Duty, whether previously stamped or otherwise, shall be presented to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue at their Office, and the Party presenting the same shall desire to have the Opinion of the said Commissioners as to the Stamp Duty with which such Deed or Instrument in their Judgment is chargeable, and shall tender and pay to the said Commissioners a Fee of Ten Shillings (which shall be accounted for and paid over as Part of Her Majesty's Revenue arising from Stamp Duties), it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners and they are hereby required to assess and charge the Stamp Duty to which in their Judgment such Deed or Instrument is liable, and upon Payment of the Stamp Duty so assessed and charged by them, or, in the Case of a Deed or Instrument insufficiently stamped, of such a Sum as, together with the Stamp Duty already paid thereon, shall be equal to the Duty so assessed and charged, and upon Payment also of the Amount, if any, payable by way of Penalty on stamping such Deed or Instrument, to stamp such Deed or Instrument with the proper Stamp or Stamps denoting the Amount of the Duty so paid, and thereupon, or if the full Stamp Duty to which in the Judgment of the said Commissioners such Deed or Instrument shall be liable shall have been previously paid and denoted upon the same in manner aforesaid, the said Commissioners shall impress upon such Deed or Instrument a particular Stamp to be provided by them for that Purpose, with such Word or Words or Device or Symbol thereon as they shall think proper in that Behalf, and such last-mentioned Stamp shall be deemed and taken to signify and denote that the full Amount of Stamp Duty with which such Deed or Instrument is by Law chargeable has been paid, and every Deed or Instrument upon which the same shall be impressed shall be deemed to have been duly stamped, and shall be receivable in Evidence in all Courts of of Law or Equity, notwithstanding any Objection made to the same as being insufficiently stamped; save and except that such last-mentioned Stamp shall not be impressed upon any Deed or Instrument chargeable with ad valorem Duty under or by reference to the Head of Bond or Mortgage in the Schedule to this Act where the same is made as a Security for the Payment or Transfer or Re-transfer of Money or Stock without any Limit as to the Amount thereof; and provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to extend to require or authorize the said Commissioners to stamp as last aforesaid any Probate of a Will or Letters of Administration, or to stamp as last aforesaid any Deed or Instrument after the signing or Execution thereof in any Case in which the stamping thereof is expressly prohibited by any Law in force.

Party dissatisfied with the Determination of the Commissioners as to the Stamp Duty chargeable may appeal to the Court of Exchequer, and the Duty shall be paid according to the Decision of the Court.

XV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if the Party presenting such Deed or Instrument to the said Commissioners as aforesaid for their Opinion as to the Stamp Duty with which the same is chargeable shall declare himself dissatisfied with the Determination made by them in that Behalf, it shall be lawful for such Party, upon paying the Amount of the Stamp Duty according to such Determination, and depositing with the said Commissioners the Sum of Forty Shillings for Costs and Charges to be paid by him in the event herein-after provided for, to require the said Commissioners to state specially and to sign the Case on which the Question with respect to such Stamp Duty arose, together with their Determination thereupon, which Case the said Commissioners are hereby required to state and sign accordingly, and to cause the same to be delivered to the Party making such Request as aforesaid, in order that he may appeal against such Determination to Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster; and upon the Application of the said Party (due Notice thereof being given to the Solicitor of Inland Revenue, to the end that Counsel may be heard on behalf of the said Commissioners,) it shall be lawful for the said Court of Exchequer and the said Court is hereby required to hear and determine the said Appeal, and to decide as to the Stamp Duty with which such Deed or Instrument is chargeable, and according to such Decision the Stamp Duty and Penalty (if any) which shall have been the Subject of such Case shall be deemed to have been payable by Law; and if no Excess of Stamp Duty or Penalty shall have been paid to the said Commissioners by the said Appellant, over and above the Sum which according to the Decision of the said Court ought to have been paid upon or in respect of such Deed or Instrument, the said Sum of Forty Shillings deposited for Costs and Charges as aforesaid shall be applied to the Use of Her Majesty's Revenue; but if any such Excess as aforesaid shall have been so paid by the said Appellant, the same, together with the said Sum of Forty Shillings deposited as aforesaid, shall be repaid by the said Commissioners to the said Appellant; and if the Sum paid for Stamp Duty or Penalty upon or in respect of such Deed or Instrument shall fall short of the Amount which, according to the Decision of the said Court upon any such Appeal, is chargeable or ought to be paid upon or in respect of such Deed or Instrument, the Deficiency of such Stamp Duty or Penalty, or both, as the Case may be, shall be paid by the said Appellant to the said Commissioners, and the Court shall order and enforce the Payment thereof accordingly.

Conveyances, Mortgages, and Settlements of Property under Contract or Obligation before 20th March 1850 exempted from any increased ad valorem Duty.

XVI. And be it enacted, That where any Lands or other Property shall have been actually and bonâ fide contracted to be sold prior to the Twentieth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty by any Contract or Agreement in Writing duly stamped, or shall have been actually and bonâ fide sold under the Decree of any Court made prior to the said Twentieth Day of March, and the same shall be conveyed to the Purchaser or any other Person by his Direction after the Tenth Day of October, and before or on the Thirty-first Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, or where any Lands or other Property shall have been actually and bonâ fide contracted to be mortgaged prior to the said Twentieth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty, and the Abstract of Title of the Mortgagor to such Lands or other Property shall have been actually delivered to the intended Mortgagee or his Solicitor prior to the said Twentieth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty, and the same Mortgage shall be executed after the said Tenth Day of October, and before or on the Thirty-first Day of March One thouaand eight hundred and fifty-one, or where any Deed or Instrument liable to the ad valorem Duty by this Act granted under the Head of "Settlement" in the Schedule to this Act shall be executed after the said Tenth Day of October, and before or on the Thirty-first Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, in pursuance of an Obligation contained in any Deed, Will, or other Instrument which was actually and bonâ fide in force and obligatory upon the Party executing the same prior to the said Twentieth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty, or in pursuance of the Decree of any Court made prior to that Day, the principal or only Deed or Instrument whereby such Lands or other Property as aforesaid shall be conveyed or mortgaged respectively, and the principal or only Deed chargeable with ad valorem Duty by this Act granted under the Head of "Settlement" in the Schedule hereto, shall be exempt from any ad valorem Duty of a greater Amount than would have been payable on such Deed or Instrument respectively if this Act had not been passed; but in order to prevent Frauds such Deed or Instrument shall be produced on or before the Thirtieth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, duly executed and duly stamped, to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and upon its being proved to their Satisfaction that the Lands or other Property therein comprised were actually and bonâ fide contracted to be sold as aforesaid, or were actually and bonâ fide sold under the Decree of any Court made prior to the said Twentieth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty, or that such Lands or other Property therein comprised were actually and bonâ fide contracted to be mortgaged as aforesaid, and that the Abstract of Title thereto was actually delivered as aforesaid, or that such Deed or Instrument liable to the ad valorem Duty by this Act, granted under the Head of "Settlement" in the Schedule to this Act, was executed in pursuance of an Obligation contained in such Deed, Will, or other Instrument so in force and obligatory as aforesaid, or was actually and bonâ fide executed in pursuance of the Decree of any Court made prior to the said Twentieth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty, and that such Deed or Instrument was duly executed on or before the Thirty-first Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, the said Commissioners of Inland Revenue, or some or One of them, shall sign a Certificate of what shall be so proved to their Satisfaction upon such Deed or Instrument, and thereupon such Deed or Instrument, being stamped with the ad valorem Duty which would have been payable if this Act had not been passed, shall be as valid and available in the Law as if the same had been stamped with the said ad valorem Duty by this Act granted, but the same shall not without such Certificate be given in Evidence, or be in any Manner available unless stamped with such ad valorem Duty last mentioned.

1 & 2 G. 4. c. 55.

XVII. 'And whereas it is considered that under the Provisions of an Act passed in the First and 'Second Years of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to remove Doubts as to the 'Amount of Stamp Duties to be paid on Deeds and other Instruments under the several Acts in force 'in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, any Deed, Agreement, or other Instrument which relates 'wholly to Real or Personal Property in Ireland, or to any Matter or Thing (other than the Payment 'of Money) to be done in Ireland, cannot after the engrossing thereof properly be stamped elsewhere 'than at the Stamp Office in Dublin, and also that any Deed, Agreement, or other Instrument which 'relates to any Real or Personal Property situate elsewhere than in Ireland, or to any Matter or Thing '(other than the Payment of Money) to be done elsewhere than in Ireland, cannot after the engrossing 'thereof properly be stamped elsewhere than at the Stamp Office in London: And whereas such Con-'struction of the said Act as aforesaid is the Occasion of Inconvenience:' Be it therefore enacted and declared, That from and after the passing of this Act any such Deed, Agreement, or Instrument as aforesaid may and shall, without regard to the Place where the Property, Matter, or Thing to which the same may relate may be situate or may be to be done, be stamped with such Duty or Duties as the same may be liable to, either at the Stamp Office in London or at the Stamp Office in Dublin, according as the same shall for that Purpose be presented at either of the said Offices.

Deeds, &c. may be stamped either in London or Dublin.

The Allowance on Receipt Stamps granted by 12 & 13 Vict. c. 80. repealed.

XVIII. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of Her said Majesty, 'intituled An Act to repeal the Allowances on the Purchase of Stamps, and for the receiving and 'accounting for the Duties on Gold and Silver Plate, and to grant other Allowances in lieu thereof, an 'Allowance at the Rate of One Pound Ten Shillings per Cent. is granted to any Person who shall 'produce at the Office of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue in London or Dublin to be stamped, or 'shall purchase of the said Commissioners at their Office in London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, Vellum, 'Parchment, or Paper stamped with Stamps (not being Labels for Medicines) under the Value respec-'tively of Ten Pounds each, but to the Amount or Value in the whole of Thirty Pounds or upwards: 'And whereas it is expedient to repeal the said Allowance so far as relates to Stamps for Receipts, and 'to grant another and increased Rate of Allowance in lieu thereof:' Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the said Allowance granted by the said last-mentioned Act, so far as the same relates to Stamps for Receipts, shall be and the same is hereby repealed, and that in lieu thereof there shall be made and granted the Allowance following; (that is to say,) to any Person who at one and the same Time shall produce at the Office of the said Commissioners in London or Dublin Paper to be stamped with Stamps for Receipts to the Amount of Five Pounds or upwards, or shall purchase at the Office of the said Commissioners in London, Edinburgh, or Dublin Stamps for Receipts to the Amount of Five Pounds or upwards, or of any Distributor or Sub-distributor of Stamps at any Place not within the Distance of Ten Miles from the said Offices respectively to the Amount of One Pound or upwards, an Allowance at and after the Rate of Seven Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum, provided that no such Allowance shall be made for any Fraction of a Pound.

Allowance of 7*l.* 10*s.* per Cent. granted.

Reciting 55 G. 3. c. 101. as to Fire Insurances in Ireland.

XIX. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, 'intituled An Act to regulate the Collection of Stamp Duties on Matters in respect of which Licences 'may be granted by the Commissioners of Stamps in Ireland, it is enacted, that the said Commissioners 'shall annually grant a Licence for insuring Houses, Furniture, Goods, Wares, Merchandize, or other 'Property from Loss by Fire to all and every Body and Bodies Politic or Corporate or Person or Persons 'applying for the same in manner therein mentioned, and that where the Business of Insurance is carried 'on by a Company consisting of a greater Number than Four the said Licence shall be granted to such 'Two or more of such Company or Partners, or if such Company or Partnership shall be a British Com-'pany or Partnership, then to such Agent or Agents resident in Ireland as shall be named to the said 'Commissioners; and that no Person or Persons or Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate shall insure, or 'open or keep any Office in Ireland for insuring Houses, Furniture, Goods, Wares, Merchandize, or 'other Property from Loss by Fire, without having first taken out and continuing to take out annually a 'Licence for that Purpose; and it is also enacted, that all and every Person and Persons and Body or 'Bodies Politic or Corporate to whom any such Licence as aforesaid shall be granted shall at the Time 'of receiving such Licence give such Security, with sufficient Sureties, to be approved of by the said 'Commissioners of Stamps, by Bond to His Majesty, conditioned for making out, signing, and delivering 'the Accounts of all Monies received for Duties upon such Insurances, and Payment of the same, as 'therein mentioned: And whereas under and by virtue of an Act passed in the Sixth and Seventh Years 'of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to enable Persons to make 'Deposits of Stock or Exchequer Bills in lieu of giving Security by Bond to the Postmaster General 'and Commissioners of Land Revenue, Customs, Excise, Stamps, and Taxes, and of an Act passed in 'the First and Second Years of Her present Majesty's Reign, for amending the said last-mentioned Act, 'any Person from whom any Security is required in respect of any Matter relating to the Revenues of 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 28. and 1 & 2 Vict. c. 61. as to Deposit of Stock.

'the Post Office, Land Revenues, Customs, Excise, Stamps, or Taxes is enabled, in lieu of giving such 'Security by Bond, to give the same by Transfer of Stock or Deposit of Exchequer Bills, as therein 'mentioned: And whereas the giving of Security every Year by Persons in Ireland insuring Property 'from Loss or Damage by Fire on taking out a Licence for that Purpose is attended with great Incon-'venience, and it is expedient to provide a Remedy for the same:' Be it therefore enacted, That every Licence which shall be hereafter granted for insuring Houses, Furniture, Goods, Wares, Merchandize, or other Property from Loss by Fire, under the said Act passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, shall endure and remain in force from the Day of the Date thereof for and during all such Time as the Body Politic or Corporate to which the same shall be granted, or the Person or Persons therein named, or any of them, shall continue to insure or carry on the Business of Fire Insurance, or, in the Case of a Company in Ireland not incorporate, so long as the Persons named in the Licence shall be Members or Partners or a Member or Partner of the Company named or described in such Licence, and as and for the whole of which the same shall have been granted, anything in any of the said recited Acts or in any other Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that every Person and Body Politic or Corporate to whom any such Licence as aforesaid shall be granted shall give Security by Bond to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in such Sum as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, or their proper Officer in that Behalf in Ireland, shall think proper, with sufficient Sureties, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners or Officer, or by Transfer of Stock or Deposit of Exchequer Bills, in pursuance of the said recited Acts in that Behalf, for duly and faithfully keeping, making out, signing, and delivering, in the Manner required by any Act of Parliament relating thereto, all and every the Accounts by any such Act required to be kept, made out, signed, and delivered by Persons and Bodies Politic or Corporate to whom Licence is granted for insuring Houses, Furniture, Goods, Wares, Merchandize, or other Property from Loss by Fire, and for duly and faithfully paying, as required by any such Act, the Duties which shall appear to be due on such Accounts respectively, and for truly and faithfully observing and performing all the Directions, Matters, and Things contained in the said Acts, on the Part of such licensed Person or Body Politic or Corporate to be observed and performed; and every such Security to be given under any of the said Acts, whether by Bond, or Transfer or Deposit of Stock or Exchequer Bills, and in the Case of any such Transfer or Deposit in or into whose Name or Names soever, together with the Name of the Chairman of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue for the Time being, the Stock or Exchequer Bills shall be or be transferred or deposited, shall continue and be a Security for the due Performance of all Things required as aforesaid, not only during all such Time as the Licence to which the same shall relate shall be in force, but, in the Case of Bodies Politic or Corporate or Companies not incorporate in Ireland, during all such Time as the Body Politic or Corporate or the Company not incorporate named or described in such Licence shall insure any such Property from Loss by Fire, or shall carry on the Business of such Insurance, whether any such Licence shall be in force or not, or otherwise, according to the Conditions of any such Bond, or the Terms or Conditions of any Declaration relating to any such Stock or Exchequer Bills; and such Stock or Exchequer Bills may, when the Security for which the same was or were transferred or deposited shall be no longer necessary, be transferred or delivered up to any of the Persons who for the Time being shall be a Partner or Member or Partners or Members of the Company for on whose Behalf the same was or were transferred or deposited, or otherwise, according to the Terms, if any, in that Behalf mentioned and contained in any such Declaration as the said Chairman for the Time being shall think proper: Provided always, that every such Security shall be renewed from Time to Time as often as any such Bond shall become forfeited, or any of the Parties thereto shall die, or become bankrupt or insolvent, or reside in Parts beyond the Seas, and also as often as the said Commissioners or their said Officer shall think fit, and in such Amount as they or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall direct, whether the same shall be by Bond or Transfer or Deposit as aforesaid; and in the event of any Neglect or Refusal to renew the same, when required by this Act, or by the said Commissioners of Inland Revenue or their said Officer, it shall be lawful for the said last-mentioned Commissioners to revoke the Licence which shall have been granted to the Body Politic or Corporate, or Company, or Person or Persons, neglecting or refusing to renew such Security, to insure Property from Loss by Fire, and thenceforth such Licence shall cease and determine.

Fire Insurance Licences in Ireland to be permanent.

Security to be given for Payment of Duties.

The Security to continue in force so long as the Person to whom the Licence is granted or the Company shall continue to insure.

The Security to be renewed.

XX. And in order to avoid the frequent Use of divers Terms and Expressions, and to prevent any Misconstruction of the Terms and Expressions used in this or any other Act relating to Stamp Duties, be it enacted, That wherever in this Act or in any other such Act as aforesaid, with reference to any Person, Offence, Matter, or Thing, any Word or Words is or are or have been or shall be used importing the Singular Number or the Masculine Gender only, yet such Words shall be understood to include several Persons as well as one Person, Females as well as Males, Bodies Politic or Corporate as well as Individuals, and several Matters or Things as well as one Matter or Thing, unless it be otherwise specially provided, or there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction; and that wherever the several Words, Terms, or Expressions following are or shall be used in this Act or in any other such Act as aforesaid, with reference to any Deed or Instrument, they shall be construed respectively in the Manner herein-after directed, (that is to say,) the Word "write" or the Word "written" shall be respectively deemed to mean and include the several Words "print" or "printed," or "partly write and partly print," or "partly written and partly printed," as well as "write" or "written."

Construction of certain Terms used in Stamp Acts.

XXI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

Act may be amended, &c.

CAP. XCVIII.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the holding of Benefices in Plurality.

[14th August 1850.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament held in the First and Second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to abridge the holding of Benefices in Plurality, and to make better Provision for the Residence of the Clergy; and it is by the said Act provided, that no Spiritual Person shall hold together any Two Benefices, if, at the Time of his Admission, Institution, or being licensed to the Second Benefice, the Value of the Two Benefices jointly shall exceed the yearly Value of One thousand Pounds, and that the said Benefices shall be within the Distance of Ten Statute Miles the one from the other, and that the Population of the said Benefices shall not exceed a certain Amount, as provided by the said Act: And whereas it is desirable further to restrain Spiritual Persons from holding Benefices in Plurality:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, notwithstanding any Provision in the said recited Act contained, it shall not be lawful, after the passing of this Act, for any Spiritual Person to take and hold together any Two Benefices, except in the Case of Two Benefices the Churches of which are within Three Miles of one another by the nearest Road, and the annual Value of one of which does not exceed One hundred Pounds. 1 & 2 Vict. c. 106.

Spiritual Persons not to hold Benefices in Plurality, except under certain Circumstances.

II. And be it enacted, That, notwithstanding any Provision in the said recited Act contained, it shall be lawful for any Spiritual Person to hold together Two Benefices according to the Provision hereinbefore contained, whatever may be the yearly Value of such Two Benefices jointly, but this Enactment shall not extend to repeal or affect any Provision of the said Act whereby any Restraint on the holding of Benefices in Plurality is imposed in respect of or with reference to the Amount of the Population of any Benefice, or to repeal or affect the Provisions of the said Act concerning the Licence or Dispensation required for the holding together of any Two Benefices. Spiritual Persons may hold Two Benefices, subject to Provisions of this Act.

III. And be it enacted, That the Term "Benefice" in this Act shall be taken to mean Benefice with the Cure of Souls, and no other, and therein to comprehend all Parishes, Perpetual Curacies, Donatives, endowed Public Chapels, Parochial Chapelries, and Chapelries or Districts belonging or reputed to belong, or annexed or reputed to be annexed, to any Church or Chapel, anything in any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding. Explanation of Term "Benefice."

IV. And be it enacted, That for the Purpose of estimating the annual Value of such Benefice there shall be considered as deducted from the gross Amount of the annual Value all Taxes, Rates, Tenths, Dues, and permanent Charges and Outgoings, but not to deduct or allow for any Stipend or Stipends to any Stipendiary Curate or Curates, nor for such Taxes or Rates in respect of the House of Residence of any Benefice, or of the Glebe Land belonging thereto, as are usually paid by Tenants or Occupiers, nor for Monies expended in the Repair or Improvement of the House of Residence and Buildings and Premises belonging thereto. To estimate Value of Benefice.

V. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person appointed after the passing of this Act to the Deanery of any Cathedral Church to hold the Office of Head Ruler of any College or Hall within either of the Universities of Oxford or Cambridge, or the Office of Provost of Eton College, or of Deans of Cathedrals not to hold Office of Heads of Colleges or Halls in the Universities.

Warden of Winchester College, or of Master of the Charter House, together with his Deanery: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall apply to the Dean of the Cathedral Church of Christ in Oxford as Chief Ruler of the College there maintained.

Heads of Colleges in the Universities not to hold Cathedral Preferments, except in certain Cases.

VI. And be it enacted, That (anything in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding) it shall not be lawful for any Spiritual Person, being Head Ruler of any College or Hall within either of the Universities of Oxford or Cambridge, or being Warden of the University of Durham, and also holding any Benefice, to take after the passing of this Act and hold therewith any Cathedral Preferment or any other Benefice, or for any such Spiritual Person, also holding any Cathedral Preferment, to take after the passing of this Act and hold therewith any Benefice: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to prevent any such Spiritual Person from holding any Benefices or Cathedral Preferment permanently attached to or forming Part of the Endowment of his Office.

Presentation of the same Person to Two Benefices to be void.

VII. And be it enacted, That if any Spiritual Person holding any Benefice or Benefices shall accept any other Benefice, and shall be admitted, instituted, or licensed thereto, contrary to the Provisions of this Act, every such Benefice or Benefices which he previously held shall become ipso facto void, as if he had died or resigned the same, any Law, Statute, Canon, Usage, Custom, Faculty, or Dispensation whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

Her Majesty in Council may authorize Union of Benefices in certain Cases.

VIII. 'And whereas in the said recited Act a Provision is contained authorizing the Union by Order 'of Her Majesty in Council after such Inquiry and Notice, and with such Consent and upon such Cer-'tificate as therein mentioned, of Two or more Benefices, or of One or more Benefice or Benefices, and 'One or more Spiritual Sinecure Rectory or Rectories, Vicarage or Vicarages, in the same Parish, or 'contiguous to each other, of which the aggregate Population shall not exceed One thousand five 'hundred Persons, and the aggregate yearly Value shall not exceed Five hundred Pounds:' Be it enacted, That the said Provision of the said Act shall extend and be applicable to and for the Union of Two or more Benefices, or One or more Benefice or Benefices and One or more Spiritual Sinecure Rectory or Rectories, Vicarage or Vicarages, in the same Parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate Population shall not exceed One thousand five hundred Persons, notwithstanding the aggregate yearly Value shall exceed Five hundred Pounds, in like Manner and with the like Preliminaries and Consequences as if the Words "and the aggregate yearly Value shall not exceed Five hundred Pounds" had not been inserted in the Provision lastly herein-before referred to: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Bishop to direct that there shall be Two full Services in each Church of such consolidated Livings.

Not to affect Possession of Preferments or Benefices already existing.

IX. And be it enacted, That nothing herein-before contained shall be construed to prejudice or affect the Right of Possession in any Preferment or Benefice to which any Spiritual Person shall have been admitted, instituted, or licensed, or which shall have been otherwise granted to any Spiritual Person, before the passing of this Act.

Persons holding Benefices may hold One other if nominated, &c. for next Presentation before 23d Dec. 1837.

X. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein-before contained shall be construed to prevent any Spiritual Person possessed of One or more than One Benefice on the Fourteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, and to whom or in trust for whom the Advowson of or the next Presentation or Nomination to any other Benefice has been conveyed, granted, or devised by any Deed or Will made before the Twenty-third Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, from taking the said last-mentioned Benefice, and holding together such Benefice and any One such first-mentioned Benefice.

Extending Provisions of Act 4 & 5 Vict. c. 39. as to holding Benefices with Honorary Canonries, &c.

XI. And be it enacted, That the Provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fourth and Fifth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to explain and amend Two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, which authorize the holding of more Benefices than One with an Honorary Canonry, or with any Prebend, Dignity, or Office not then in any Manner endowed, or whereof the Endowments shall have been vested in the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, or which might thereafter be endowed to an Amount not exceeding Twenty Pounds by the Year, shall be extended so as to authorize the holding of One Benefice and One Cathedral Preferment in the same Church with such Honorary Canonry, Prebend, Dignity, or Office.

Previous Provisions not to extend to Ireland.

XII. And be it enacted, That nothing herein-before contained shall be construed to extend to that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland.

Faculties for the same Person to hold Two Livings in Ireland not to be granted.

XIII. 'And whereas no Faculty or Dispensation has been granted for the holding of Two or more 'Benefices in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland for upwards of Twenty Years last past, 'and it is expedient to prevent the future Grant thereof:' Be it therefore enacted, That no Faculty or Dispensation shall be granted to any Spiritual Person to hold Two or more Benefices in Ireland; and that if any Spiritual Person, holding or taking any Benefice in Ireland, shall take or accept of any other Benefice to the holding whereof together with the Benefice so previously held a Faculty or Dispensation would before the passing of this Act have been necessary, and shall be admitted, licensed, or instituted to the same, every Benefice so previously held by such Spiritual Person shall be and become ipso facto void as if he had died or had resigned the same, any Law, Statute, Canon, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed, construed, or taken to affect or alter the Laws now in force in Ireland regulating and respecting the Unions or Divisions of Parishes.

Act may be amended, &c.

XIV. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XCIX.

An Act for the better assessing and collecting the Poor Rates and Highway Rates in respect of Small Tenements. [14th August 1850.]

'WHEREAS the Collection of Poor Rates and Highway Rates assessed upon the Occupiers of 'Tenements of small annual Value is expensive, difficult, and frequently impracticable, and it is 'expedient to make better Provision for the rating of such Tenements, and for the Collection of such 'Rates:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the Vestry of any Parish, from Time to Time and at all Times hereafter, to declare and order that the Owners of Tenements in such Parish the yearly rateable Value whereof shall not exceed Six Pounds shall be rated and assessed to the Rates for the Relief of the Poor in respect of such Tenements instead of the Occupiers thereof, and the Order so made shall remain in force until rescinded in the Manner herein-after authorized.

Vestries to determine whether 6*l.* Tenements shall be rated to the Owners instead of Occupiers.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Vestry of the said Parish, by a Majority of Two Thirds at least of the Votes of the Persons present at a Meeting duly called for that Purpose pursuant to Notice, as herein-after mentioned, and competent to vote thereat, at any Time after the Expiration of Two Years from the Time when any such Order shall have been so made, to order that from and after a Day to be fixed by such Vestry, not being less than Three Years from the Date of such original Order, such Order shall cease and be rescinded, in which Case, from and after such last-mentioned Day, the said Order shall be rescinded and no longer in force: Provided nevertheless, that the Provisions in this Act contained shall remain and continue in force for the Purpose of collecting and recovering any Rate which may have been previously made in pursuance of such Order: Provided also, that Notice for calling every such Meeting as aforesaid shall be by Writing, signed by Four Rate-payers of the Parish, affixed on the principal outer Door of the Parish Church or Chapel of the Parish, or on the usual Place of affixing Notices relating to the Affairs of the Parish, at some Time not less than Thirty or more than Forty Days previous to such Meeting.

Order may be rescinded by a Majority of Two Thirds of Persons present at Vestry.

III. And be it enacted, That whilst any such Order as firstly herein-before mentioned is in force the respective Owners of such Tenements shall be rated and assessed (instead of the Occupiers thereof) to the Rates for the Relief of the Poor and to the Rates for the Repairs of the Highways which otherwise such Occupiers might by Law be rated to.

Whilst Order in force, the Owners to be rated.

IV. And be it enacted, That whilst such Order as firstly herein-before mentioned is in force the Owner of every Tenement in every Parish the yearly rateable Value whereof shall not exceed Six Pounds shall be assessed to the Rates for the Relief of the Poor, and to the Rates for the Repairs of the Highways, in respect of such Tenement, at Three Fourths of the Amount at which such Tenement would be liable to be rated in case this Act had not passed; and further, that whilst such Order as firstly herein-before mentioned is in force, if any Owner of One or more such Tenements shall be desirous of paying a Rate for One Year in respect of all such Tenements in any Parish, whether such Tenements be occupied or unoccupied, and shall give Notice in Writing of such his Desire to the Overseers of the Poor and the Surveyors of the Highways within One Calendar Month after the passing of this Act, or in any subsequent Year within Fourteen Days next after the Twenty-fifth Day of March in that Year, then and in such Case such Owner shall be assessed to the Rates for the Relief of the Poor, and to the Rates for the Repair of the Highways, in respect of such Tenement or Tenements respectively, whether the same be occupied or unoccupied, from thenceforth till the Twenty-fifth Day of March following, at a Sum not being less than One Half of the Amount at which such Tenement or Tenements respectively would be liable to be rated if occupied in case this Act had not passed.

Owner to be rated on a reduced Scale.

V. And be it enacted, That the Rates to be assessed as aforesaid, together with the Costs and Charges of levying and recovering the same, may be levied on the Goods of and recovered from the respective Owners of such Tenements as aforesaid, by Distress, Action, Suit, or other Proceeding, in the same Way as such Rates, if lawfully assessed on the Occupiers of such Tenements, might by Law be levied on the Goods of or recovered from such Occupiers; and, further, the Goods and Chattels of the Occupiers of such Tenements shall be liable to be distrained and sold for Payment of such of the said Rates as shall accrue due during their respective Occupations, in the same Way as if such Rates were assessed on such Occupiers.

Remedies for recovering of Rates.

VI. And be it enacted, That every such Owner so rated as aforesaid shall have the same Right of Appeal (subject to the same Conditions) against Rates, and the same Right to vote in Vestry, as if he were an Occupier duly rated in respect of the same Tenement.

Owners possessed to have the Privileges of Occupiers.

VII. And be it enacted, That where the Owner of any such Tenement shall be rated to the Relief of the Poor by virtue of this Act instead of the Occupier thereof, and such Owner shall have paid all Money due on account of any Rate or Rates in respect of such Tenement, such Occupier shall be entitled to all Municipal Privileges and Franchises to which by virtue of an Act made and passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to provide for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales, he would have been entitled if he himself had been rated, and had paid such Rate or Rates; and if such Owner so rated as aforesaid shall not have paid such Rate or Rates, it shall be lawful for such Occupier to tender to the Overseers of the Poor, or other Person authorized by Law to receive the same, the Amount of any

When Owner is rated, Occupier to be entitled to the same Municipal Privileges under 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 76. as if he was rated instead of the Owner.

any Rate or Rates then due from such Owner in respect of such Tenement, and such Overseer or other Person so authorized as aforesaid shall be bound to receive the same; and such Occupier shall, on the Payment or Tender of such Amount, be entitled to exercise all such Privileges and Franchises as hereinbefore mentioned: Provided always, that any Occupier so paying any Rate or Rates in respect of any Tenement where the Owner is rated to the same shall be entitled to deduct and retain the Amount so paid by him from the next Payment of Rent to be made by him to such Owner, or to recover the same from such Owner as Money paid to and for the Use of such Owner.

Owners of Tenements held for longer Periods than from Year to Year entitled to add to Rent the Amount paid for Rates.

VIII. And be it enacted, That such Owners paying such Rates in respect of Tenements continuing to be held by Occupiers under now existing Tenancies for a greater Term than from Year to Year shall be entitled to add what they shall so pay to the Rent payable in respect of such Tenements, and have the same Remedies for recovering the same as for Rent in arrear; and that Occupiers other than such as shall continue to hold under now existing Tenancies for a greater Term than from Year to Year may (whether paying such Rates voluntarily or by Compulsion) deduct the respective Amount so to be answered by them as aforesaid, together with all Costs and Charges they may have incurred on account thereof, from the Rent payable in respect of such Tenements, and such Amounts shall be deemed Debts due from such Owners to such Occupiers, and be recoverable by Action.

Interpretation of Terms.

IX. And be it enacted, That the Word "Tenement" in this Act shall be construed to include any Land, House, Cottage, Apartment, or corporeal Hereditament; the Word "Owner" shall be construed to mean any Person receiving or claiming the Rent of any such Tenement for his own Use, or receiving the same for the Use of any Corporation aggregate, or of any public Company, or of any Landlord or Lessor who shall be a Minor, under Coverture, or insane, or for the Use of any Person who shall not be usually resident within Twenty Miles from the Parish in which such Tenement shall be situated; the Word "Person" shall be construed to include any Corporation or public Company as well as any Individual; the Word "Parish" shall be construed to include any Parish, Township, Vill, or Place maintaining its own Poor separately; the Word "Vestry" shall be construed to include any Meeting of the Inhabitants of any such Parish, Township, Vill, or Place, to be held after due Notice for carrying into execution the Laws for the Relief of the Poor; and wherever in this Act, in describing any Person, Matter, or Thing, the Word importing the Singular Number or the Masculine Gender only is used, the same shall be understood to include and be applied to several Persons as well as one Person, and Females as well as Males, and several Matters or Things as well as one Matter or Thing respectively; unless there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction.

Extension of Act.

X. And be it enacted, That this Act shall extend only to England and Wales, and shall not apply to any Place where Owners are made liable to be rated to the Relief of the Poor under the Provisions of any local Act.

Act may be amended, &c.

XI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. C.

An Act for Inspection of Coal Mines in Great Britain. [14th August 1850.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that Provision should be made for the Inspection of Coal Mines in Great Britain:' Be it enacted, therefore, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State from Time to Time to appoint any fit Person or Persons to be an Inspector or Inspectors of Coal Mines, and from Time to Time to remove any such Inspector or Inspectors; and Notice of the Appointment of every such Inspector shall be published in the London Gazette.

Secretary of State may appoint Inspectors of Mines.

Powers and Duties of Inspectors.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any such Inspector as aforesaid to enter, inspect, and examine any Coal Mine or Colliery, and the Works and Machinery belonging thereto, at all reasonable Times and Seasons, by Day or Night, but so as not to impede or obstruct the working of the said Coal Mine or Colliery, and to make Inquiry into and touching the State and Condition of such Coal Mine or Colliery, Works and Machinery, and the Ventilation of such Coal Mine or Colliery, and the Mode of lighting or using Lights in the same, and into all Matters and Things connected with or relating to the Safety of the Persons employed in or about the same; and the Owner or Agent of such Coal Mine or Colliery is hereby required to furnish the Means necessary for such Entry, Inspection, Examination, and Inquiry; and if such Inspector find any Part of such Coal Mine or Colliery, Works or Machinery, or any Aircourses, Airdoors, Waterways, Drains, Pits, Levels, Shafts, or other Matter or Thing in or connected with such Coal Mine or Colliery, or the Mode of lighting or using Lights in the same, to be dangerous or defective, so as in his Opinion to threaten or tend to the bodily Injury of any Person employed in or about such Coal Mine or Colliery, such Inspector shall thereupon summon before him the Manager or principal Colliery Viewer or Agent having charge of the said Coal Mine or Colliery, in order to his being heard upon the Matter giving rise to such finding as aforesaid; and if such Manager or principal Colliery Viewer or Agent shall not attend after reasonable Notice, or having attended shall fail to satisfy such Inspector, then such Inspector shall serve Notice in Writing of the particular Grounds on which he shall be of opinion that the said Colliery or Coal Mine is dangerous or defective, on the Owner or Agent of such Mine, and shall also report the same to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

III. And

Owner to produce Map or Plan of Mine to Inspector.

III. And be it enacted, That the Owner or Agent of every Coal Mine or Colliery shall, on the Occasion and for the Purpose of the Inspection and Examination thereof, produce and submit for Examination to any such Inspector as aforesaid a Map or Plan of the Workings of such Coal Mine or Colliery, upon which Map or Plan shall be delineated the several Parts, Aircourses, Airdoors, Waterways, Drains, Pits, Levels, and Shafts in and connected with such Coal Mine or Colliery; and if such Owner or Agent do not produce and submit for Examination as aforesaid such a Map or Plan as aforesaid, or if any such Inspector as aforesaid find that any Portion of any Map or Plan is withheld, or any Part of the Workings of any such Mine or Colliery is concealed from his Inspection, or if he find, on examining and verifying any Map or Plan, that the same is imperfect or inaccurate, he is hereby empowered to require that an accurate Map or Plan of the actual Workings of such Coal Mine or Colliery, and the Works thereto belonging, clearly delineating such Matters and Things as aforesaid, be made within a reasonable Time, by and at the Expense of the Owner of such Mine, on a Scale of not less than Two Chains to One Inch, such other Scale as the Plan then used in the Colliery is constructed on; and every such Map or Plan as aforesaid shall show the Workings of the Mine up to within Six Months of the Time of Inspection; and the Owner or Agent of the Coal Mine or Colliery shall, if required so to do by any such Inspector as aforesaid, mark or cause to be marked on such Map or Plan the Progress of the Workings of the Coal Mine or Colliery up to the Time of his Inspection thereof: Provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize any Inspector to make a Copy of the whole or any Part of a Map or Plan which shall be produced or made.

Inspector may require Map, &c. to be made.

No Land Agent or Manager, &c. of Coal Mine to act as Inspector.

IV. And be it enacted, That no Person who shall act or practise as a Land Agent, or as a Manager, Viewer, or Agent of, or be otherwise employed in, any Coal Mine or Colliery, shall act as an Inspector under this Act.

Notice of Accidents in Mines to be given to Secretary of State.

V. And be it enacted, That if and when Loss of Life to any Person employed in or about any Coal Mine or Colliery shall occur by reason of any Accident within such Coal Mine or Colliery, or any Pits or Shafts thereof, or any Works or Machinery connected with such Pits or Shafts, the Owner or Agent of such Coal Mine or Colliery shall, within Twenty-four Hours next after such Loss of Life, send Notice of such Accident, under the Hand of such Owner or Agent, to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and in Scotland to the Lord Advocate, and shall specify in such Notice the probable Cause of such Accident, and such Notice may be sent through the Post Office, by Letter addressed to such Secretary of State or Lord Advocate; and such Owner or Agent shall furnish such Information to such Secretary of State or to the Lord Advocate in relation to such Accident as such Secretary of State or Lord Advocate may require; and every Owner or Agent who shall neglect to send or cause to be sent such Notice as aforesaid within the Time aforesaid shall for such Offence be liable to a Penalty of not less than Ten Pounds and not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Provision for giving Notice to Secretary of State of holding Inquests on Deaths from Accidents in Coal Mines.

VI. And be it enacted, That every Coroner holding an Inquest upon the Body of any Person whose Death may have been caused by any such Accident as aforesaid shall (unless some Person be present on behalf of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to watch the Proceedings at such Inquest, or Notice of such Accident shall have been sent, Two Days at the least previously thereto, through the Post Office, by Letter addressed to One of such Secretaries of State, and the sending of the same be proved to the Satisfaction of the Coroner,) adjourn such Inquest, and by Letter sent Two Days at the least before holding such adjourned Inquest, through the Post Office, addressed to One of such Secretaries of State, give Notice to such Secretary of State of the Time and Place of holding the same.

Penalty for obstructing Inspectors.

VII. And be it enacted, That every Owner or Agent of any Coal Mine or Colliery who shall refuse or neglect to furnish to any Inspector appointed under this Act the Means necessary for making any Entry, Inspection, Examination, or Inquiry under this Act, and every Person who shall wilfully obstruct any such Inspector in the Execution of this Act, shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty of not less than Five Pounds and not exceeding Ten Pounds.

Penalties how recoverable.

VIII. And be it enacted, That all Penalties imposed by this Act may be recovered in a summary Manner before Two Justices of the Peace, or in Scotland before the Sheriff, having Jurisdiction in the County or Place where the Offence is committed, in the Manner prescribed by the Law in that Behalf; and it shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to direct that any Penalty imposed for neglecting to send or cause to be sent Notice of any Accident as required by this Act shall be paid to or among any of the Family or Relatives of any Person or Persons killed by such Accident as he may think fit; and, save as aforesaid, all Penalties imposed by this Act shall, when recovered in England, be paid to the Treasurer of the County, Riding, Division, or Place for which the Justices before whom the Penalty is recovered shall have acted, and where recovered in Scotland be paid to the Treasurer or Collector of the Funds for the Poor of the Parish in which the Offence has been committed, for the Benefit of the Poor of such Parish.

Interpretation of Terms.

IX. And be it enacted, That in the Construction of this Act, unless such Construction be repugnant to or inconsistent with the Context, Words importing the Singular Number shall include the Plural Number, and Words importing the Plural Number shall include the Singular Number, and Words importing the Masculine Gender shall include Females; and the Term "Owner" of a Coal Mine or Colliery shall mean the immediate Proprietor, Lessee, or Occupier thereof; and the Term "Agent" of a Mine shall mean any Person having on behalf of the Owner of any Mine the Care or Direction thereof.

Act not to extend to Ireland.

X. And be it enacted, That this Act shall not extend to Ireland.

Act may be amended, &c.

XI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed in this present Session of Parliament.

XII. And

Continuance of this Act.

XII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall continue until the Expiration of Five Years after the passing of this Act, and thenceforth until the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

CAP. CI.

An Act to continue Two Acts passed in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, for charging the Maintenance of certain poor Persons in Unions in England and Wales upon the Common Fund; and to make certain Amendments in the Laws for the Relief of the Poor. [14th August 1850.]

11 & 12 Vict. c. 110. 12 & 13 Vict. c. 103.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled 'An Act to alter the Provisions relating to the Charges for the Relief of the Poor in Unions,' certain Provisions were made whereby the Costs of the Relief and the Expenses of the Burial of certain 'poor Persons therein described were made chargeable upon the Common Fund of the Union until the 'Thirtieth Day of September in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine: And whereas by 'an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament such Provisions were continued in full Force until the 'Thirtieth Day of September in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the End of the 'then next Session of Parliament; and by the said last-mentioned Act other Provisions for charging 'upon the Common Fund of the Union the Cost of removing and maintaining certain lunatic Paupers 'were made to continue in force for the like Period; and it is expedient that all the several Provisions 'aforesaid should be continued for a limited Time:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all the said several temporary Provisions in the said recited Acts above referred to shall continue in full Force until the Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and shall apply, and shall be held to have applied, to the Incorporated Hundred of Forehoe, to the Incorporated Hundreds of East and West Flegg and of Tunstead and Happing, in the County of Norfolk, and to the Incorporated Hundred of Mutford and Lothingland in the County of Suffolk, in like Manner and to the same Extent as to the Unions in the said Acts referred to.

Certain Provisions of 11 & 12 Vict. c. 110. and of 12 & 13 Vict. c. 103. continued for a limited Time.

Burials of poor Persons dying in Workhouses.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Guardians of any Union to contribute out of the Common Fund, or for the Guardians of any Parish to contribute out of the Poor Rates of such Parish, such Sum of Money as the Poor Law Board shall approve, towards the Enlargement of any Churchyard or consecrated public Burial Ground in the Parish wherein the Workhouse shall be situated, or in any other Parish of the Union, or towards the obtaining of any such consecrated public Burial Ground, and where any such Burial Ground shall be enlarged or obtained with the Aid of such Contribution, it shall be lawful for them to bury therein the dead Body of any poor Person dying in such Workhouse: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall discharge or vary the Obligation now imposed by Law upon the Guardians to bury the dead Body of such poor Person elsewhere, in case the deceased Person, or the Husband, or Wife, or next of Kin of such deceased Person, shall have so requested: Provided also, that in all Cases of Burial under the Direction of the Guardians as aforesaid the Fee or Fees payable by the Custom of the Place where the Burial may be, or under the Provisions of any Act of Parliament, shall be paid by the said Guardians for the Burial of each such Body to the Person or Persons who by such Custom or under such Act shall be entitled to receive such Fee or Fees, and charged by them in like Manner as the Relief to the Deceased when living was last chargeable.

Contribution to enlarge or obtain Burial Grounds.

Purchase of Site for District Schools. 7 & 8 Vict. c. 101.

III. And be it enacted, That, in addition to the Principal Sum or Sums of Money which the Board of Management of a School District formed under the Authority of the Act of the Eighth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act for the further Amendment of the Laws relating to the Poor in England, are empowered to raise or borrow for the Purpose of providing a Building for the School of such District, such Board may, whenever any Part of such District is situated within the Metropolitan Police District, with the Consent and Order of the Poor Law Board, also raise or borrow and charge the future Poor Rates of the Unions and Parishes respectively combined in such District with such further or other Sum or Sums of Money as may be or may have been necessary for the Purchase of any Land, or Interest in Land, required for the Site of such School, or required for the training of the Children maintained thereat, or for the Site of any Addition to such School.

4 & 5 W. 4. c. 76. s. 62. 12 & 13 Vict. c. 103. s. 20.

IV. 'And whereas Authority is given by the Act of the Fifth Year of King William the Fourth, 'intituled An Act for the Amendment and better Administration of the Laws relating to the Poor in 'England and Wales, for defraying, out of the Poor Rates of any Parish, the Expenses of the Emi- 'gration of poor Persons having Settlements in such Parish, and by the before-mentioned Act of the last 'Session the Guardians of any Union or separate Parish for which a Board of Guardians is or shall be 'established may, to a limited Extent, exercise the same Authority in and about the Emigration of poor 'Persons having Settlements in such Parish, or in any Parish of such Union respectively: And whereas 'poor Orphans and deserted Children having no Settlements, or whose Settlements are unknown, are 'frequently chargeable to Parishes, and it is expedient to furnish Means for the Purpose of facilitating 'the Emigration of such poor Orphans and deserted Children so being chargeable:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Guardians of any Union or Parish, in like Manner and subject to the same Regulations, Limitations, and Restrictions as are contained in the said last-mentioned Act, but with the Consent in Writing of the Guardian or the Majority of the Guardians of the Parish of the Chargeability in place of the Parish of the Settlement, transmitted as therein specified, to expend Money

in and about the Emigration of any poor Orphan or deserted Child under the Age of Sixteen Years having no Settlement, or the Place of whose Settlement shall not be known, who may be chargeable to some Parish in their Union or to their Parish respectively, and such Guardians shall charge the Expense so incurred to the same Parish to which such Orphan or deserted Child was chargeable at the Time of the Emigration; and where any such Orphan or deserted Child shall be chargeable to the Common Fund of any Union, the Guardians of such Union shall have the same Powers (subject to the same Conditions) to procure or assist in procuring the Emigration of any such last-mentioned Orphan or deserted Child as they have with regard to poor Persons rendered irremovable by virtue of an Act of the Tenth Year of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Removal of the Poor: Provided always, that no Emigration of any such Orphan or deserted Child, under any of the above-mentioned Powers, shall take place until such Orphan or deserted Child shall have consented thereto before the Justices assembled in Petty Sessions holden in or near to the Union or Parish the Guardians whereof propose to procure such Emigration, and a Certificate of such Consent under the Hands of Two of the Justices present thereat shall have been transmitted to the Poor Law Board.

11 & 12 Vict. c. 110. s. 5. 9 & 10 Vict. c. 66.

V. And be it enacted, That where any married Woman being lunatic shall be duly removed to any Asylum, licensed House, or registered Hospital under any of the Statutes in such Behalf, any Two Justices having Jurisdiction in the Place wherein the Husband of such Lunatic shall dwell, upon Application by or on behalf of the Guardians of the Union or of the Parish having a separate Board of Guardians, or the Overseers of the Parish to which Union or Parish respectively such Lunatic shall be or become chargeable, may summon such Husband to appear before them to show Cause why an Order should not be made upon him to maintain or contribute towards the Maintenance of his Wife in such Asylum, licensed House, or registered Hospital; and upon his Appearance, or in the event of his not appearing upon Proof of due Service of such Summons upon him, such Justices may (if they think fit) make an Order upon him to pay such Sum, weekly or otherwise, for or towards the Cost of the Maintenance of such Lunatic, as after Consideration of all the Circumstances of the Case shall appear to them to be proper, and determine in such Order how and to whom the Payments shall from Time to Time be made, which Order shall, if the Payments required by it to be made be in arrear, be enforced in the Manner prescribed by the Statute passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to facilitate the Performance of the Duties of Justices of the Peace within England and Wales with respect to summary Convictions and Orders, for the enforcing of Orders of Justices requiring the Payment of a Sum of Money.

An Order for paying the whole or Part of the Cost of Maintenance of a lunatic married Woman maintained in any Lunatic Asylum, licensed House, or registered Hospital, and chargeable to any Union or Parish, may be made upon her Husband. 11 & 12 Vict. c. 43.

VI. And be it enacted, That no Master of a Workhouse nor any Relieving Officer shall be henceforth qualified to be appointed to the Office of Overseer of the Poor, Constable, or any other Parochial or Township Office, so long as he shall continue to be such Master of a Workhouse or Relieving Officer, except where the Poor Law Board shall authorize any Relieving Officer to hold a paid Office in a Parish: Provided always, that no Rate or Assessment made, nor any other Act or Thing done, by any such Person as such Parochial or Township Officer, nor the Service of any Notice, Demand, Order, or Process upon him as such, shall, if in other respects legal and sufficient, be deemed invalid by reason only of such Disqualification as aforesaid.

Master of a Workhouse and Relieving Officer not to be appointed to any Parochial Office.

VII. 'And whereas by the Act of the Seventh Year of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, 'intituled An Act to regulate Parochial Assessments, it is provided, that the Justices acting in and for 'every Petty Sessions Division shall hold Special Sessions for hearing Appeals against the Rates of the 'several Parishes within their respective Divisions, and shall cause public Notice of the Time and 'Place of the holding of such Special Sessions to be given in each Parish, but no Provision is made for 'the Payment of the Costs incurred in preparing and giving of such Notice:' Be it therefore enacted, That such Fee or Remuneration as shall have been or shall hereafter be settled by the Justices of the Peace at their respective General Quarter Sessions, according to the Statute in that Behalf, to be paid to the Clerks to Justices of the Peace for the preparing and giving of a Notice of a Special Sessions for this Purpose, or in default thereof of a Notice of any Special Sessions, shall be paid by the Overseers of each Parish comprised within the Division for which the Special Sessions are to be held, and be charged by them upon the Poor Rate.

The Fee for giving Notices of Special Sessions under the Act 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 96. s. 6. to be paid by the Overseers out of the Poor Rate.

VIII. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, 'intituled An Act to prevent poor Persons in Workhouses from embezzling certain Property provided 'for their Use, to alter and amend so much of an Act of the Thirty-sixth Year of His present Majesty as 'restrains Justices of the Peace from ordering Relief to poor Persons in certain Cases for a longer 'Period than One Month at a Time, and for other Purposes herein mentioned relating to the Poor, and 'by an Act passed in the Eighth Year of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the further Amend-'ment of the Laws relating to the Poor in England, Power is given to punish by Imprisonment any 'Person or Persons deserting, absconding, or running away from any Workhouse or Workhouses, and 'carrying away with him, her, or them any Clothes, Linen, or other Goods in the said Act of the 'Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Third enumerated and described:' Be it enacted, That in the Case of every such Offence it shall be lawful for the convicting Justice or Justices, if he or they shall so think fit, to order and adjudge that the Person or Persons convicted shall, during the Period of Imprisonment by Law authorized, be kept to hard Labour.

Persons committed to Prison for Offences against 55 G. 3. c. 137. s. 2. and 7 & 8 Vict. c. 101. ss. 57, 58. may be kept to hard Labour.

IX. And be it enacted, That where any Person shall be charged with and convicted of any Assault upon any Officer of a Workhouse or Relieving Officer in the due Execution of his Duty, or upon any Person acting in aid of such Officer, the Court may sentence the Offender to the same Punishment as is provided in the Discharge of their Duty.

Assaults upon Workhouse Officers or Relieving Officers

provided by Law for an Assault upon a Peace Officer or Revenue Officer in the due Execution of his Duty, and shall have the same Power as in case of such last-mentioned Assault to order Payment of the Costs and Expenses of the Prosecution.

Providing for Expense of collecting Rates. 12 & 13 Vict. c. 65.

X. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to provide a more convenient Mode of levying and collecting County Rates, County Police Rates, and District Police Rates in Parishes situated partly within and partly without the Limits of Boroughs which are not liable to such Rates, Provision is made to enable the Overseers or other Persons charged with the Collection of the Poor Rate, in Cases where any Parish or Place shall be partly within and partly without a Borough, to assess and levy upon the Inhabitants and Occupiers of all Messuages, Lands, and Tenements liable to the Poor Rates in that Part of the Parish or Place which is within the Borough the Amount of Money which they shall be required to raise as a Contribution towards a District, Borough, or other Rate upon a Warrant from the Mayor, Justice, Constable, or other Officer, as therein mentioned: And whereas some Difficulty has arisen in certain Parishes as to the Payment of the Expenses of collecting the Rates upon such Assessments, and enforcing of the Payment thereof:' Be it therefore enacted, That the Overseers of any such Parish may employ for the Collection of such Rate as aforesaid, or of any Gaol Rate assessed upon any such Part thereof, the Collector of the Poor Rates in the said Parish, or some other Person to be appointed with the like Authority, and subject to the same Regulations as regards his Term of Office, his Remuneration, the Security to be given for the Discharge of his Duties, and his Liability to account to the Auditor and other Persons, as such Collector of Poor Rates is or shall be subject to, and to pay such Remuneration out of the Sum raised by the Rate assessed upon such Part as aforesaid; and that the Collector of Poor Rates, or other Person as aforesaid, shall, for the Purpose of collecting the Rate so assessed upon such Part, have all the Powers, Privileges, Protections, and Incidents which belong to the Overseers in the Collection of the Poor Rate, and the like Remedy for the Recovery of the Costs of Proceedings to enforce the Payment of the Rate aforesaid, as in the Case of a Poor Rate; and the said Overseers, in estimating the Amount of their Assessment for such Rate upon any Part of a Parish divided as aforesaid, may include such a Sum as will provide for the Payment of the Costs of the Assessment and Collection and a reasonable Sum in respect of the Rates which may be excused or become irrecoverable.

Construction of Act.

XI. And be it enacted, That the several Words used in this Act shall be construed in the Manner prescribed by the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, and the Statutes explaining and extending it; and that all the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act and of the said Statutes not repealed shall extend to this Act, except where any such Provision would be inconsistent with anything herein contained.

Extent of Act.

XII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall extend only to England and Wales.

Act may be amended, &c.

XIII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. CII.

An Act to consolidate and amend the Acts relating to certain Offences and other Matters as to which Justices of the Peace exercise a summary Jurisdiction in Ireland. [14th August 1850.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the Acts by which Justices of the Peace are empowered to adjudicate in a summary Way as to certain Offences and other Matters in Ireland:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Commencement of this Act it shall be lawful for any Justice or Justices sitting in Petty Sessions, (or for any Two Justices acting out of Petty Sessions, in any Cases of Offences where the Defendant shall be unable to procure Bail for his Appearance at Petty Sessions,) within his or their Jurisdiction, to hear and determine, either on the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses, or on the Confession of the Defendant, all Complaints relating to the Offences or other Matters herein-after mentioned, and to award such Fine, Imprisonment, Compensation, Expenses, and Sums, or to make such other Order relating to each Offence or other Matter as the Defendant shall be liable to under the Provisions of this Act.

Justices may fix Time for and Manner of Payment of Fine, &c. awarded.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices, if he or they shall think fit, to order that any Fine, Compensation, or other Sum awarded under the Provisions of this Act shall be paid either forthwith or at such Time or Times as he or they shall direct, and where such Sum shall not be a Fine for an Offence, that same shall be paid either in One Sum or by Instalments; and it shall also be lawful for the Justice or Justices, if he or they shall think fit, in every Case where any Person shall be convicted before him or them of any of the Offences herein-after mentioned, as to which it is not herein-after provided that Imprisonment shall only be in default of Payment of the Sum ordered or of Distress for the same, to award, in addition to any Compensation which may be ordered, either the Fine or the Imprisonment specified in each Case; and it shall also be lawful for the Justice or Justices, if he or they shall think fit, in any such Cases of Offences, where any such Fine or Compensation, or both Fine and Compensation, shall be awarded, either to order in the first instance, or afterwards to direct by the Warrant of Distress, that in default of Distress for the same the Person against whom such Order shall be made shall be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding One Week where the Sum to be paid shall not exceed Five Shillings, and not exceeding Two Weeks where such Sum shall exceed Five Shillings and shall not exceed Ten Shillings, and not exceeding One Month where such Sum shall exceed Ten Shillings and

In Offences Justices may order Fine or Imprisonment; or Imprisonment in default of Distress, according to Scale.

Scale of Imprisonment.

shall not exceed Forty Shillings, and not exceeding Two Months where such Sum shall exceed Forty Shillings and shall not exceed Five Pounds, and not exceeding Four Months where the Sum to be paid shall exceed Five Pounds and shall not exceed Ten Pounds, and not exceeding Six Months in any other Case, such Imprisonment to be determinable in each of such Cases upon Payment of the Sum ordered, and any Costs of the Distress when a Distress shall be made; and it shall also be lawful for the Justice or Justices, in every Case where Imprisonment for an Offence shall be ordered, to direct that it shall be either with or without hard Labour according as he or they shall think fit.

Imprisonment may be with or without hard Labour.

III. And be it enacted, That any Person who shall commit any of the next following Offences shall on Conviction thereof be liable to the Punishment herein-after specified in each Case; that is to say,

CRIMINAL JURISDICTION.

Malicious Injury to Persons.

Any Person who shall unlawfully assault or beat any other Person shall be liable to a Fine not exceeding the Sum of Five Pounds, or to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Two Months:

Assaults.

Any Person who shall assault or beat or use any other Violence to any other Person with Intent to deter him from buying or selling any Corn or other agricultural or Garden Produce in any Market or other Place, or to stop the Conveyance of same, shall be liable to a Fine not exceeding the Sum of Ten Pounds, or to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Three Months:

Assaults with Intent to prevent Sale of Corn, &c.

Provided always, that in case the Justice or Justices shall find any such Assaults as aforesaid to have been accompanied by any Attempt to commit Felony, or shall be of opinion that the same is from any other Circumstance a fit Subject for a Prosecution by Indictment, he shall abstain from any Adjudication thereupon, and shall deal with the Case in all respects as one to be prosecuted at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions; and nothing herein contained shall authorize any Justice or Justices to hear and determine in a summary Way any Case of Assault in which any Question shall arise as to the Title to any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any Interest therein or accruing thereupon, or as to any Bankruptcy or Insolvency, or any Execution under the Process of any Superior Court of Justice.

Provisions not to apply to aggravated Assaults; nor where a Title to Lands, &c. is in question.

Malicious Injury to Property.

IV. And be it enacted, That any Person who shall commit any of the next following Offences shall be liable to the Punishment herein-after specified in each Case; that is to say,

Punishments:

Any Artificer, Workman, Journeyman, Apprentice, Servant, or Labourer who shall wilfully and unlawfully damage, spoil, or destroy any Goods, Wares, Work, or Materials committed to his Care or Charge, without the Consent of the Person by whom he shall be hired, retained, or employed, the Injury done being under the Value of Five Pounds, shall pay to the Party aggrieved such reasonable Amount of Compensation for the Injury done as the Justice or Justices shall see fit, and shall also be liable to a Fine not exceeding the Sum of Forty Shillings, or to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding One Month:

First Offence.

Second Offence.

Any Person who shall unlawfully stop or seize upon any Waggon, Cart, or other Carriage, or Horse, loaded with Corn, Potatoes, or other Provisions, in or on the Way to or from any Market or Place of shipping the same, or shall maliciously damage or destroy the same or any Part thereof, or the Harness of the Horses drawing the same, or shall unlawfully take off, drive away, kill, or wound any of such Horses in order to stop the same, or shall, by cutting the Sacks or otherwise, scatter or throw abroad such Corn, Potatoes, or other Provisions, or shall take and carry away or damage the same or any Part thereof, or shall distribute the same, or compel the Owner or his Servant, or the Carrier of the same, to distribute or otherwise depart from the Possession thereof or of any Part thereof, Obstructing Export of agricultural Produce.

Malicious Injury to Property.

contrary to his Consent, shall be liable to a Fine not exceeding the Sum of Ten Pounds, or to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Six Months:

Breaking Windows or injuring other Property of a Workhouse.

Any Person who shall unlawfully and maliciously break any Pane of Glass in the Windows of any Workhouse of a Poor Law Union, or damage or destroy any of the Furniture, Clothes, or other Property of the Guardians of the Poor of any Poor Law Union, the Injury done being under the Value of Forty Shillings, shall be liable to a Fine not exceeding the Sum of Forty Shillings, or to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding One Month:

Damage to Property in any Case not previously provided for.

Any Person who shall unlawfully and maliciously commit any Damage, Injury, or Spoil to or upon any Real or Personal Property whatsoever, either of a public or private Nature, for which no Punishment is already otherwise herein provided, the Injury done being under the Value of Five Pounds, shall pay to the Party aggrieved such reasonable Amount of Compensation for the Injury done as the Justice or Justices shall see fit, and shall also be liable to a Fine not exceeding the Sum of Forty Shillings, or to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding One Month:

Malice against the Owner not essential;

but not to apply to unintentional Trespasses.

And every Punishment and Forfeiture so imposed on any Person maliciously committing any of such Offences against Property shall equally apply and be enforced, whether the Offence shall be committed from Malice conceived against the Owner of the Property in respect of which it shall be committed, or otherwise: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to any Case where the Party offending acted under a fair and reasonable Supposition that he had a Right to do the Act complained of, nor to any Trespass, not being wilful and malicious, committed in Hunting, Fishing, or the Pursuit of Game; but every such Trespass shall be punishable in the same Manner as before the passing of this Act.

Persons in the Act of offending may be apprehended without Warrant.

V. And be it enacted That any Person found committing any of the said Offences in respect to the malicious Injury of Property may be immediately apprehended, without a Warrant, by any Sub-Inspector, Head or other Constable, or by the Owner of the Property in respect of which the Offence shall have been committed, or by the Servant of such Owner, or by any other Person authorized by such Owner, or by any other Person in care or charge of such Property, and may be forthwith taken before some neighbouring Justice, to be dealt with according to Law.

Stealing Property.

VI. And be it enacted, That if any Person in whose Possession or on whose Premises with his Knowledge any of the Articles of Property herein-after mentioned shall be found in the Manner herein-after mentioned shall not satisfy the Justice or Justices before whom he shall be brought that he came lawfully by the same, or that the same was on his Premises without his Knowledge or Assent, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices to commit such Person to Gaol, in order that he may be brought forward for Trial for such Offence at the next Court of Petty Sessions of the District, unless he shall enter into Recognizance, with One or more Sureties, to appear before such Court; and if afterwards such Person shall be convicted at such Court of any of the next following Offences he shall be liable to the Punishment herein-after specified in each Case; that is to say,

Justice may require Person to account for Possession of certain Articles, and on Failure order Punishment in following Cases:

Persons in possession of shipwrecked Goods.

Any Person in whose Possession or on whose Premises with his Knowledge any Goods, Merchandize, or Articles of any Kind belonging to any Ship or Vessel in distress, or wrecked, stranded, or cast on shore, shall be found by virtue of a Search Warrant, and who shall not satisfy the Justice or Justices that he came lawfully by the same, shall be liable to a Fine not exceeding Fifty Pounds, or to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Twelve Months:

Shipwrecked Goods offered for Sale.

Any Person who shall offer or expose for Sale any Goods, Merchandize, or Articles whatsoever which shall have been unlawfully taken, or reasonably suspected to have been taken, from any Ship or Vessel in distress, or wrecked, stranded, or cast on shore as aforesaid, and who shall not satisfy the Justice or Justices that he came lawfully by the same, shall pay such Sum as the said Justice or Justices shall fix as a reasonable Reward to the Person who shall have seized the same, and shall also be liable to a Fine not exceeding Thirty Pounds, or to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Six Months; and in every such Case any Person to whom the same shall be offered for Sale, or any Officer of the Customs or Excise or Constabulary Force, or other Peace Officer, may lawfully seize the same, and with all convenient Speed carry the same or give Notice of such Seizure to some neighbouring Justice:

Officers of Customs, &c. may seize the Goods.

Persons in possession of stolen Mutton, &c.

Any Person in whose Possession or on whose Premises with his Knowledge the Carcass of any Sheep, Lamb, or Deer, or the Head, Skin, or other Part thereof, or any Venison, Mutton, Fat, Skin, or Fleece of such Deer, Sheep, or Lamb, shall be found by virtue of any Search Warrant, and who shall not satisfy the Justice or Justices that he came lawfully by the same, shall pay to the Party aggrieved the Charges previous to and attending his Conviction, and shall also be liable to a Fine not exceeding Five Pounds, or to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Three Months:

Persons in possession of stolen Wood.

Any Person in whose Possession or on whose Premises with his Knowledge the whole or any Part of any Tree, Sapling, or Shrub, or any Underwood, or any Part of any live or dead Fence, or any Post, Pale, Rail, Stile, or Gate, or any Part thereof, being of the Value of Two Shillings at the least, shall be found by virtue of any Search Warrant, and who shall not satisfy the Justice or Justices that he came lawfully by the same, shall pay to the Party aggrieved the Value of the Article or Articles so found, and shall also be liable to a Fine not exceeding Forty Shillings, or to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding One Month:

Justices may order Restitution of stolen Property.

And in every Case where any such Articles of Property shall be of a perishable Nature it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices by whom such Person shall be so bound to appear at Petty Sessions, to direct that the same shall be delivered over to such Person as he or they shall be clearly satisfied to be the rightful Owner thereof; and in every Case where any such Articles of Property shall not be so delivered over in the first instance, it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices by whom the Case shall be heard at Petty Sessions to direct that the same shall be delivered over to the rightful Owner, if known, or if the rightful Owner shall not be known, that the same shall be sold, and the Proceeds thereof applied in like Manner as any Penalties imposed by any Justice shall be by Law applicable: Provided always, that if any Person shall not under the Provisions last aforesaid be liable to Conviction, then, for the Discovery of the Person who actually stole or killed such Articles of Property, it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices, at his or their Discretion, as the Evidence given and the Circumstances of the Case shall require, to summon before him or them any and every Person through whose Hands such Articles of Property or any Part thereof shall appear to have passed; and if the Person from whom the same shall have been first received, or any Person who shall have had Possession thereof, shall not satisfy the Justice or Justices that he came lawfully by the same, he shall be liable to the like Punishment as is herein-before provided in each Case.

Stealing Property.

In case they are not convicted, Justice may summon other Persons.

VII. And be it enacted, That any Person who shall commit any of the next following Offences shall be liable to the Punishment herein-after specified in each Case:

Punishment for Offences:

Any Person who shall unlawfully and wilfully course, hunt, snare, or carry away, or kill or wound, or attempt to kill or wound, any Deer kept or being in any Park, Paddock, or inclosed Land wherein Deer shall be usually kept, shall be liable to a Fine not exceeding Thirty Pounds, or to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Six Months:

Stealing, &c. Deer in any inclosed Ground.

Any Person who shall steal any Dog, or any Beast or Bird ordinarily kept in a State of Confinement, not being the Subject of Larceny at Common Law, or in whose Possession or on whose Premises the same, or the Skin or Plumage thereof, shall be found by virtue of a Search Warrant, such Person knowing that the said Dog, Beast, or Bird has been stolen, or that the Skin is the Skin of a stolen Dog or Beast, or that the Plumage is the Plumage of a stolen Bird, shall for the First Offence pay the Value of the Dog, Beast, or Bird to the Party aggrieved, and shall also be liable to a Fine not exceeding Ten Pounds, or to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Six Months; and for a Second or subsequent Offence shall, in addition to any such Compensation, be liable to a Fine not exceeding Twenty Pounds, or to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Twelve Months:

Stealing Dogs or Beasts or Birds ordinarily kept in Confinement, and not the Subjects of Larceny.

Any Person who shall steal or damage with Intent to steal any Part of any live or dead Fence, or any Wooden Post, Pale, or Rail set up or used as a Fence, or any Stile or Gate, or any Part thereof respectively, shall for the First Offence pay to the Party aggrieved the Value of the Article or Articles so stolen, or the Amount of the Injury done, and shall also be liable to a Fine not exceeding Five Pounds, or to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Three Months; and for any subsequent Offence shall, in addition to any such Compensation, be liable to a Fine not exceeding Ten Pounds, or to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Six Months:

Stealing, &c. any live or dead Fence, Wooden Stile or Gate.

First Offence.

Subsequent Offence.

Any Person who shall steal, or shall cut, break, root up, or otherwise destroy or damage with Intent to steal, the whole or any Part of any growing Tree, Sapling, Shrub, or Underwood, or any growing Fruit or vegetable Production, or any growing cultivated Root or Plant, shall, in case the Value of the Article or Articles stolen or the Amount of the Injury done shall not exceed Five Pounds, for the First Offence pay to the Party aggrieved the Value of the Article or Articles stolen or the Amount of the Injury done, and shall also be liable to a Fine not exceeding Five Pounds, or to be imprisoned for any Period not exceeding Three Months; and for any Second or subsequent Offence of the same Kind shall, in addition to any such Compensation, be liable to a Fine not exceeding Ten Pounds, or to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Six Months:

Stealing Trees, Shrubs, &c. under the Value of 5*l.* growing anywhere.

First Offence.

Second Offence.

Any Person who shall steal or damage with Intent to steal the whole or any Part of any Tree, Sapling, Shrub, or Underwood, or any cultivated Plant, Root, Fruit, or vegetable Production, severed from the Soil, or any Turf or Peat manufactured or partly manufactured for Fuel, in case the Value of such Article or Articles stolen or the Amount of the Injury done shall not exceed Forty Shillings, shall for the First Offence pay to the Party aggrieved the Value of the Article or Articles so stolen or the Amount of the Injury done, and shall also be liable to a Fine not exceeding Five Pounds, or to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Three Months; and for a Second or subsequent Offence of the same Kind shall, in addition to any such Compensation, be liable to a Fine not exceeding Ten Pounds, or to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Six Months:

If Trees, &c. severed from the Soil, or Turf Fuel, not exceeding 40*s.* in Value.

First Offence.

Second Offence.

Any Artificer, Workman, Journeyman, Apprentice, Servant, or Labourer who shall unlawfully dispose of or retain in his Possession, without the Consent of the Person by whom he shall be hired, retained, or employed, any Goods, Wares, Work, or Materials committed to his Care or Charge, the Value of such Goods, Wares, Work, or Materials not exceeding the Sum of Five Pounds, shall pay to the Party aggrieved such Compensation as the Justice or Justices shall think reasonable, and shall also be liable to a Fine not exceeding Forty Shillings, or to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding One Month:

Workman making away with Goods committed to his Care.

And in every such Case any such Articles of stolen Property shall, by Order of the Justice or Justices by whom the Case shall be heard and determined, be delivered over to the rightful Owner, if known, or if the right Owner shall not be known, the same shall be sold, and the Proceeds thereof applied in like Manner as any Penalties imposed by a Justice or Justices shall be by Law applicable.

Justices may order Restitution of stolen Property.

VIII. And be it enacted, That if the Justice or Justices before whom any Person charged with any of such last-mentioned Offences relating to the stealing or damaging with Intent to steal any such Property shall be brought shall be of opinion that the Case is a fit Subject for Prosecution by Indictment for Larceny,

If any such last-mentioned Offence be deemed fit for Indictment, Case to be dealt with as such.

Larceny, such Justice or Justices shall, instead of summarily adjudicating thereupon, deal with the Case as one to be prosecuted by Indictment at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions.

Persons in the Act of committing such Offences may be apprehended without Warrant.

IX. And be it enacted, That any Person found committing any of the said Offences in respect to the stealing or damaging with Intent to steal Property may be immediately apprehended, without a Warrant, by any Sub-Inspector, Head or other Constable, or by the Owner of the Property with respect to which the Offence shall be committed, or by the Servant of such Owner or any Person authorized by such Owner, and such Offender may be forthwith taken before some neighbouring Justice, to be dealt with according to Law.

A Justice, upon good Grounds of Suspicion, proved on Oath, may grant a Search Warrant.

X. And be it enacted, That if any credible Witness shall prove upon Oath before a Justice that there is reasonable Cause to suspect that any such Property with respect to which any such Offences as aforesaid, as to any Person having shipwrecked or stolen Goods in his Possession, or stealing or damaging with Intent to steal the Articles of Property aforesaid, shall have been committed, is in any Dwelling House, Outhouse, or other Place or Places, the Justice may grant a Warrant to search such Dwelling House, Outhouse, or other Place or Places for such Property, as in the Case of other stolen Goods; and any Person to whom any such Property shall be offered to be sold, pawned, or delivered, if he shall have reasonable Cause to suspect that any such Offence has been committed on or with respect to such Property, is hereby authorized, and, if in his Power, is required to apprehend, without a Warrant, and forthwith to carry before a neighbouring Justice, the Party offering the same, together with such Property, to be dealt with according to Law.

Any Person to whom stolen Property is offered to seize the Party.

Receivers, where original Offence is punishable summarily, shall be punished as original Offenders.

XI. And be it enacted, That where the stealing or taking of any Property whatsoever is punishable by this Act, any Person who shall receive any such Property, knowing the same to be unlawfully come by, shall, on Conviction thereof before a Justice or Justices, be liable, for every First, Second, or subsequent Offence of receiving the same, to the same Forfeiture and Punishment to which a Person guilty of a First, Second, or subsequent Offence of stealing or taking such Property is by this Act made liable.

Juvenile Offenders.

Persons not exceeding the Age of 14 Years may for certain Offences be summarily convicted.

XII. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall be charged with having committed or having attempted to commit, or with having been an Aider, Abettor, Counsellor, or Procurer in the Commission of any Offence which now is or hereafter shall or may be by Law deemed or declared to be Simple Larceny, or punishable as Simple Larceny, and whose Age at the Period of the Commission or attempted Commission of such Offence shall not, in the Opinion of the Justice or Justices before whom he shall be brought or appear, exceed the Age of Fourteen Years, shall, upon Conviction thereof before a Justice or Justices sitting in Petty Sessions and in open Court, be committed to Gaol for any Term not exceeding Three Months, or in the Discretion of the Justice or Justices shall pay such Fine not exceeding Three Pounds as the said Justice or Justices shall adjudge, or, if a Male, shall be once privately whipped, either instead of or in addition to such Imprisonment; and the said Justice or Justices shall from Time to Time appoint some fit and proper Person to inflict said Punishment of Whipping when ordered to be inflicted out of Prison: Provided always, that if such Justice or Justices, upon the Hearing of any such Case, shall deem the Offence not to be proved, or that it is not expedient to inflict any Punishment, he or they shall dismiss the Party charged, on finding Surety or Sureties for his future good Behaviour, or without such Sureties, if the said Justice or Justices shall so think fit: Provided also, that if such Justice or Justices shall be of opinion, before the Person charged shall have made his Defence, that the Charge is from any Circumstance a fit Subject for Prosecution by Indictment, or if the Parent or next Friend of the Person charged shall, upon his being called upon to answer the Charge, object to the Case being summarily disposed of under the Provisions of this Act, such Justice or Justices shall, instead of summarily adjudicating thereupon, deal with the Case as one to be prosecuted by Indictment at Assizes or Quarter Sessions.

Justices may dismiss Parties, with or without Sureties.

If the Charge is thought fit for Indictment, &c. Case to be dealt with as if this Act had not passed.

No Forfeiture upon such Convictions, but presiding Justices may order Restitution of Property; and if not forthcoming may order Compensation.

XIII. And be it enacted, That no Conviction of any such Juvenile Offender for any such Offence shall be attended with any Forfeiture save as herein-before mentioned, but whenever any such Person shall be deemed guilty of such Offence it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices to order Restitution of the Property in respect to which such Offence shall have been committed to the Owner thereof or his Representatives; but if such Property shall not then be forthcoming, the Justice or Justices, whether he or they shall award Punishment or dismiss the Complaint, may inquire into and ascertain the Value thereof in Money, and if he or they shall think proper order Payment of such Sum of Money to the true Owner by the Person convicted, either at One Time or by Instalments at such Periods as he or they may deem reasonable.

Frauds as to Property.

XIV. And be it enacted, That any Person who shall commit any of the next following Offences shall on Conviction thereof be liable to such Punishment as is herein-after specified in each Case:

Punishments: Corn, &c. adulterated offered for Sale.

Any Person who shall sell or offer for Sale any Wheat, Rye, Meslin, Peas, Beans, Barley, Bere, Oats, Shillin, Cutlings, Meal, Flour, Malt, or other Corn which shall in the whole or in part be spoiled or adulterated by wetting or mixing therewith any Sand, Gravel, Dirt, or rotten or damaged Corn, Grain, Malt, Meal, or Flour, or grown or blighted Corn, or other Kind of Stuff, or which shall not be in Quality of equal Goodness to that produced to the View of the intended Buyer or Buyers thereof, or shall use any other Fraud or Deceit therein, in order to make such Corn, Grain, Malt, Meal, or Flour appear heavier than it would have been without such Mixture, Fraud, or Deceit, shall forfeit all such Corn, Grain, Malt, Meal, or Flour, to be disposed of as the Justice or Justices shall direct, and shall also be liable to a Fine not exceeding Forty Shillings, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding One Month:

Any

Frauds as to Property.

Frauds in the Sale of Meat, &c. in Markets.

Any Person who shall in any Fair, Market, or other Place exhibit for Sale any unwholesome or fraudulently prepared Meat, Fish, or other Provisions or Food of any Kind for Man or Beast, or shall practise any Deceit or Fraud in respect to the Weight or Quality of any such Meat, Fish, or other Provisions, shall forfeit all such Meat, Fish, or other Provisions, to be disposed of as the Justice or Justices shall direct, and shall also be liable to a Fine not exceeding Forty Shillings, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding One Month:

And it shall be lawful for any Justice or Justices to seize or cause to be seized any of the Articles herein-before last mentioned as to which any such Offence shall be committed; and the said Justice or Justices may, if he or they shall deem it expedient, either proceed at once to hear and determine the Case, or may adjourn the Hearing thereof to the next Petty Sessions of the District.

Trespass of Persons.

Trespass on Fields, &c. after Warning;

but not to extend to certain Cases;

and not to prevent Right of Civil Action.

XV. And be it enacted, That any Person who shall wilfully trespass in any Field, Garden, Pleasure Ground, Wood, or Plantation, or other Inclosure, and shall neglect or refuse to leave any such Place after he shall have been warned to do so by the Owner, or by the Caretaker or Servant of the Owner, or by any Person authorized in that Behalf by the Owner, or who shall repeat any such Trespass within One Month from the Time when such Warning shall have been so given to him, shall, on Conviction thereof, be liable to a Fine not exceeding Ten Shillings, and in default of Payment thereof at such Time as the Justice or Justices shall direct shall be liable to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding One Week: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to any Case where the Party trespassing acted under a fair and reasonable Supposition that he had a Right to go into or upon any such Place, nor to any Trespass, not being wilful or malicious, committed in Hunting, Fishing, or the Pursuit of Game, but every such Trespass shall be punishable in the same Manner as before the passing of this Act: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any Person from maintaining any Civil Action or Suit for any such Trespass, instead of proceeding under this Act.

Offences and Obstructions on public Roads.

Injuries to Road.

Punishment:

Deepening Ditches:

Omitting to scour Ditches, or to have Drains from Roads:

Building Houses:

Altering Fences without Consent of County Surveyor, &c.:

Scraping Roads without Consent:

Drawing Timber, &c. so as to injure Road:

Riding on Footpaths.

Centre of Road.

Surveyors may fill Drains and remove Nuisances, at Expense of Party offending.

XVI. And be it enacted, That any Person who shall on or relating to any public Road commit any of the following Offences shall be liable to a Fine not exceeding Twenty Shillings; that is to say,

Any Person who shall scour, deepen, widen, or fill up any Ditch or Drain on the Side of any public Road, unless with the Consent of the County Surveyor or by the Authority of any Presentment:

Any Owner or Occupier of any Lands contiguous to any public Road who shall omit to scour any Ditch or Drain leading from such Road, so as to allow the Water to pass away, within Ten Days after Notice shall be given to him so to do by the County Surveyor or by the Contractor for the Repair of such Road, or who shall suffer the Passage of the Water to be obstructed by making or leaving any Way or Passage from any Road into the adjoining Lands, or into his House, without a sufficient Pipe, Sewer, or Gullet underneath it:

Any Person who shall build or cause to be built any House or Part of a House within Thirty Feet of the Centre of any public Road, except in the Streets of Corporate or Market Towns, or where a House now stands, shall be liable to a Fine not exceeding Ten Pounds, and to a further Sum of Ten Shillings a Week from the Time of his Conviction until the same shall be pulled down or removed:

Any Person who shall alter the Fences of any public Road, or who shall build any Wall, or make any Ditch, Drain, or Watercourse, or dig any Pit or Hollow, on any public Road, or within Thirty Feet of the Centre thereof (save upon or within any ancient Fence adjoining such Road), or who shall otherwise break up the Surface of any Road or Footpath, unless with the Consent of the County Surveyor or by the Authority of any Presentment:

Any Person who shall, without the Consent of such Surveyor or Contractor, scrape any public Road, or cut any Sods or Turf on the Side of any such Road, or take any Earth, Clay, Stone, or Gravel therefrom:

Any Person who shall draw any Timber or Stones along any Part of a public Road, without being supported by Wheels from touching the same:

Any Person who shall ride or drive any Horse or other Animal, willingly and unnecessarily, on any Footpath:

Provided always, that the Centre of the Road, for the Purposes of this Act, shall be deemed to be the Centre of the Part thereof made with Gravel or Stones; and it shall be lawful for the County Surveyor or such Contractor, if duly authorized by the Justices at any Petty Sessions of such County, to fill up any Ditch or Drain which shall be scoured, deepened, or widened, or to scour any Drains which have been filled on the Side of any public Road, without such Consent as aforesaid, or to scour or deepen any Drain or Ditch leading from any Road which shall be omitted to be scoured or deepened after such due Notice as may be required by Law, or to remove any Way or Passage from any Road into any adjoining Land or to any House which may obstruct the free Passage of the Water, and to re-make the same by building a Gutter, Sewer, or Arch therein, or to pull down any Wall or fill up any Ditch or Drain which shall be so built or made contrary to the Provisions of this Act, at the Expense of the Offender or Occupier of the Lands where such Offence shall be committed; and it shall be lawful for the Justices at any Petty Sessions of the County, upon Complaint of such Surveyor or Contractor, and upon Proof of the Expenses incurred, to issue a Warrant for the Levy of such Expenses by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Offender or Occupier.

Surveyor or Contractor may require Owners of Land to XVII. And be it enacted, That if the County Surveyor or the Contractor for the repairing of any public Road in any County shall think that such Road is prejudiced by the Shade of any Hedges or Trees (except those planted for Ornament or Shelter of any Dwelling House, Court-yard, or Garden),

or

or if any Obstruction is caused in any public Road by any Hedge or Tree, it shall be lawful for such Surveyor or Contractor, and they or either of them, or any Head or other Constable directed in Writing by Two Justices, are hereby authorized to require the Owner of the Land on which such Hedges or Trees are growing to cause such Hedges to be cut or plashed, or such Trees to be pruned or lopped, so as that such Road may not be prejudiced or obstructed by the same; and if such Owner shall not comply with such Request within Ten Days it shall and may be lawful for such Surveyor or Contractor or Constable as aforesaid, and they are hereby respectively authorized and required, to summon such Owner before the Justices assembled at any Petty Sessions of such County, to show Cause why he has not complied with such Request; and if such Justices shall order and direct that such Hedges shall be cut or plashed, or such Trees pruned or lopped, and if the said Owner shall not obey such Order within Ten Days after the making of the same, it shall and may be lawful such Surveyor or Contractor or Constable as aforesaid to cut or plash such Hedges, or to prune or lop such Trees, for the Benefit and Improvement of such Road, and to remove such Obstruction as aforesaid, to the best of his Skill and Judgment; and the said Surveyor or Contractor or Constable as aforesaid shall be reimbursed by the said Owner the Expenses he shall be at in cutting or plashing such Hedges, or pruning or lopping such Trees; and it shall be lawful for such Justices at Petty Sessions aforesaid, upon Complaint of such Surveyor or Contractor or Constable as aforesaid, and upon Proof of the Expenses incurred, to issue their Warrant for the Levy of such Expenses by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Owner or Occupier, in such Manner as any Forfeitures may be levied by virtue of this Act: Provided always, that no Person shall be compelled, nor any such Surveyor or Contractor or Constable as aforesaid permitted, to cut or prune any Hedge at any other Time than between the last Day of September and the last Day of March.

Owners not complying to be summoned before Justices; who may order such pruning by Owner; and on his Refusal Surveyor or Contractor may do it.

Owner to pay Expenses, which may be levied by Distress and Sale.

Hedges, &c. not to be cut or pruned at certain Seasons.

Penalty on taking Materials to the Injury of any Road or Building.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That if any County Surveyor or Road Contractor, or any other Person, shall dig, raise, and carry away any Gravel, Stones, Sand, or other Materials from the Side of any public Road, or from any Beach or Sea-shore, whereby a public Road, or Bulwark or Defence to any Bridge or like Building, or any Land within the Fences of any such Road, may be injured, he shall be liable to a Fine not exceeding Five Shillings for every Cartload of such Gravel, Stones, Sand, or other Materials so dug, raised, or carried away.

Penalty for destroying any Pay Gate, &c.; or rescuing any Person in Custody for such Offences.

XIX. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall, by Day or by Night, wilfully damage or destroy any Pay Gate or Turnpike Gate, or any Post, Rail, Wall, Chain, Bar, or other Fence of any Kind whatsoever, which shall be used to prevent Passengers from passing by without paying the Toll payable by virtue of any Act of Parliament, or any Toll House for the Use of any such Pay Gate or Turnpike Gate, or shall forcibly rescue any Person or Persons, being lawfully in Custody of any Constable or other Person for any of the Offences last mentioned, he shall be liable to a Fine not exceeding Forty Shillings, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Two Months.

Penalty for assaulting Engineers, Surveyors, or Contractors on public Roads.

XX. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall wilfully prevent, assault, or threaten to assault any County Surveyor or Road Contractor in the Execution of his Duty, or any Person or Persons employed by proper Authority in surveying or measuring or laying out any Line intended for a new Road, or shall wilfully destroy, pull up, deface, or injure any Surveyors Instruments or Implements used in making or laying out any public Road, or any Milestone, Milepost, or Direction Post, or any Bridge, Battlement, Wall, Railing, Mound, or Fence belonging to any public Road, or shall wilfully break, deface, pull down, or take away Stones out of any such Battlement, Wall, Mound, or Fence, or out of any Bridge, Pipe, Arch, or Gullet belonging to any public Road, he shall be liable to a Fine not exceeding Ten Pounds, or to be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Three Months.

Penalty for using new Road for certain Time after making.

XXI. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Two Justices of the County, upon Application of the County Surveyor, to forbid any Person or Persons from riding or driving any Kind of Beast or Carriage on any new Road for such Space of Time as shall to them appear necessary, not exceeding Six Months after such new Road shall have been made, and the Expenditure thereon duly accounted for at Special Sessions; and any Person who shall wilfully disobey such Order, the same being duly notified by a Notice affixed to a Board or Boards erected upon such Road, shall be liable to a Fine not exceeding Twenty Shillings.

Road Nuisances.

Punishment: Turning Horse, &c. loose: Injury from driving Cattle. Flying Kites, &c.: Fireworks, &c.: Leaving Ploughs, Harrows, &c. on the Road:

XXII. And be it enacted, That any Person who shall commit any of the next following Offences shall be liable to a Fine not exceeding Ten Shillings; that is to say,

Any Person who shall in any public Road or Street of a Town turn loose any Horse or Cattle, or set on or urge any Dog or other Animal to attack or worry any Person, Horse or other Animal:

Any Person who by Negligence or Ill-usage in driving Cattle shall in any public Road or any Street of a Town cause any Mischief to be done by such Cattle:

Every Person who shall fly any Kite, or play at any Game, or make or use any Slide upon Ice or Snow, on any public Road or in any Street of a Town, to the common Danger of the Passengers:

Any Person who shall cast or throw any Fireworks or discharge any Fire-arms on any public Road, or within Sixty Feet of the Centre thereof, or in any Street or Passage of a Town, or who shall cast, throw, or discharge the same, or suffer the same to be cast, thrown, or discharged, from out of his House, Shop, Dwelling, Lodging, or Habitation, or from out of any Place thereto belonging, into any public Road, Street, or Passage:

Any Person who shall leave or permit to be left on any public Road, opposite to or near his House or Office, any Plough, Harrow, Cart, or other Carriage, without the Horse or other Animal being harnessed thereto, unless such Carriage shall have been accidentally broken down there:

Any

Any Person who shall slaughter any Beast, or leave any dead Beast, or skin or permit to be skinned any Beast, on any public Road or within Thirty Feet of the Centre thereof, save within any House or Yard: Slaughtering Beasts on a Road:

Any Person who shall lay any Stones, Timber, Dirt, Dung, Turf, Straw, Rubbish, or Scourings of any Ditches or Drains, or other Object, on any public Road or within Thirty Feet of the Centre thereof, or in any Street of a Town, so as to cause Danger or Mischief to any Passengers, and shall allow the same to remain there longer than shall be absolutely necessary: Laying Stones, Timber, &c.:

Any Person who shall hoop, scald, or fire any Cask, or bind any Car or Cart Wheels, or beat any Flax, or thresh or winnow any Corn, on any public Road or Street of a Town, or within Thirty Feet of the Centre thereof, save within any House or Yard: Scalding Casks, beating Flax, or winnowing Corn, &c.:

Any Person who shall keep or suffer to be at large within Fifty Yards of any public Road any Cur Dog, Mastiff, or Bull Dog, without having such Dog muzzled, or without having a Block of Wood fastened to the Neck of such Dog, of sufficient Weight to prevent such Dog from being dangerous: Keeping unlogged Dogs:

Any Person who shall steep any Flax, or burn any Bricks or Lime, or any Weeds or Vegetables for Ashes, upon any public Road, or within Sixty Feet of the Centre thereof, or shall make or assist in making any Fires commonly called Bonfires, or any other Kind of Fire, upon any public Road or within Sixty Feet of the Centre thereof, save within any House or Yard: Drying Flax or burning Weeds, &c.:

Any Person who shall lead or drive on any public Road or Street of a Town any Car or Carriage with Timber, Boards, or Iron laid across, so that either End shall project more than Two Feet beyond the Wheels or Sides thereof: Carrying Timber crosswise.

Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall render any County Surveyor or Road Contractor liable to any Fine for any Act done by such Surveyor in the Discharge of the Duties of his Office, or by such Contractor in the necessary Execution or Performance of his Contract; but if any such Surveyor or Contractor shall lay or cause to be laid any Heap of Stones, Gravel, Rubbish, or other Matter whatever, upon any public Road, and allow the same to remain there at Night, to the Danger or personal Damage of any Person passing thereon, all due and reasonable Precautions not having been taken by him to prevent any such Danger or Damage, such Surveyor or Contractor shall be liable to a Fine not exceeding Forty Shillings. Surveyor or Contractor not liable to Fine, except in certain Cases.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person whatsoever to seize and impound, or cause to be seized or impounded, any Swine or other Beast which shall be found wandering upon any public Road, or about the Streets or Passages of any Town, in case the Owner shall not claim such Animal, or shall not be known; and it shall be lawful for any Justice to impose upon the Owner of such Animal, if known, a Fine not exceeding Two Shillings; and in case such Fine, and the Expenses of impounding and detaining such Animal when it shall be so impounded, shall not be paid within Four Days after imposing such Fine, or after such impounding, as the Case may be, it shall be lawful for any Justice to cause such Animal to be sold, and out of the Money arising from the Sale thereof to cause such Fine and Expenses of impounding, keeping, and selling the same to be paid, rendering the Overplus (if any) to the Owner, due Notice having been previously given of such Sale, in which shall be inserted the Name of the Parish and Townland where such Animal was seized; which Notice shall be posted up in some conspicuous Place in the Parish where such Animal was seized, and at the Place where impounded, Forty-eight Hours at the least before the Time of Sale. Swine, &c. wandering on Roads may be seized and impounded, and Owner fined, &c. Notice of Seizure to be posted.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the County Surveyor or Road Contractor, or any Head or other Constable duly authorized in Writing by any Justice of the County, to remove any of the herein-before mentioned Objects which may be so left on any public Road or Street contrary to the Provisions of this Act, at the Expense of the Offender; and it shall be lawful for the Justices at any Petty Sessions of the County, upon Complaint of such Surveyor, Contractor, or Constable, and upon Proof of the Expense incurred, to issue a Warrant for the Levy of the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender; and for every Cartload of Dung, Rubbish, Scourings, Clay, Stones, Bricks, Sand, or Lime, or other like Materials, which shall have been laid on any public Road or Street contrary to the Provisions of this Act, and which shall be allowed to remain there for more than Twenty-four Hours after the Owner thereof shall have been required by any Justice or by the County Surveyor, by Notice in Writing, to remove the same, such Owner shall, in addition to any Fine for so leaving the same there in the first instance, be also liable to a further Fine not exceeding Two Shillings and Sixpence for every Day that the same shall be allowed to remain there after the Expiration of the said Period of Twenty-four Hours; and it shall also be lawful for any Justice or Justices, within his or their Jurisdiction, to issue a Warrant to any Head or other Constable, directing him to seize or kill any dangerous Dog which shall be kept near any public Road contrary to the Provisions of this Act, and such Head or other Constable may accordingly seize or kill any such Dog. Justice may order Removal of Nuisances. Fine for every Day that Materials are left on Road after Notice to remove the same. Justices may order dangerous Dogs to be killed.

XXV. And be it enacted, That any of the Persons herein-after mentioned who shall commit any of the next following Offences on any public Road or in any Street of a Town shall, in addition to any Civil Action to which he may subject himself, be liable for each of such Offences to a Fine not exceeding Forty Shillings; that is to say, Stage Carriages. Punishment for Offences:

Any Driver, Owner, or Guard of any Coach, Omnibus, Car, Caravan, or other Carriage, by what Name soever the same is or shall hereafter be called or known, which shall be employed as a public Stage Carriage for the Purpose of conveying Passengers for Hire, who shall permit more Passengers to be carried by the same than the Number for whom Seats shall be respectively provided, inside or outside Carrying more than a certain Number:

Offences and Obstructions on public Roads.

Stage Carriages.

outside of the same, allowing a Space of at least Sixteen Inches for each Passenger, over and above the Space allotted to the Driver and Guard when there is a Guard: Provided always, that no Child under Seven Years of Age shall be included in or counted as One of such Number; and it shall be lawful for any Justice, Sub-Inspector, Head or other Constable, to stop any such Carriage which shall appear to carry a greater Number of Passengers than it can legally carry under the Provisions of this Act, and to measure the Seats of same, in order to ascertain whether sufficient Space has been allotted to the Passengers:

Carrying Luggage on the Top of any Carriage with Inside Passengers exceeding a certain Height:

Any Driver, Owner, or Guard of any such Carriage who shall carry a greater Number of Persons than such Carriage can carry on the Seats of same according to the Provision herein-before contained, or who shall allow any Passenger to sit upon the Top of any Luggage, or upon any Part of such Carriage not intended to carry Passengers, or who shall carry or permit or suffer any Parcel or Parcels of Luggage whatever exceeding Two Feet in Height above the Roof to be conveyed on any such Carriage carrying Inside Passengers:

Omitting to paint Number of Passengers to be conveyed, on the Doors, &c. of public Carriages:

Any Person who shall keep any such Carriage for the Purpose of conveying Passengers for Hire, and who shall not paint or cause to be painted on the Outside of the Door, or of each Door when there shall be more than One, of such Carriage, or on some other conspicuous Part of such Carriage, in legible Letters of at least One Inch in Height, and in a different Colour from the Ground on which the same is painted, and in Words at Length, the Number of Passengers which such Carriage shall be intended to carry, together with the Name or Names of the Person or Persons or Firm of the Company of Proprietors to whom such Carriage shall belong, or who shall cause any such Carriage as aforesaid to be employed or used for carrying any Passengers for Hire without having the said Words painted in such Manner as is herein-before directed:

Misconduct of Drivers, &c. to Passengers, &c.:

Any Driver or Guard of any such Carriage who shall, by reason of Intoxication, Negligence, or other Misconduct, endanger the Passengers in their Lives or their Property, or the Property of any other Person with which they may be intrusted, or who shall wilfully mis-spend or lose Time on the Road, or who shall use abusive or insulting Language to any Passengers, or who shall demand or exact more than the proper Fare due from any Passenger: Provided always, that in any such Case the Justice or Justices may, in addition to the Fine, order such Offender to repay to the Party aggrieved any Sum so exacted, and also to make reasonable Compensation for any Damage or Loss caused by such Mischief:

Drivers leaving their Horses until a proper Person shall stand at their Head:

Any Driver of any such Carriage who shall (at any Place or Places where Assistance can be procured) quit his Horse or Horses, or the Box of such Carriage, until a proper Person or Persons shall stand at the Head of the Horse or Horses or Fore-horse or Fore-horses, or shall hold the Reins so as to prevent them from running away, or any such last-mentioned Person or Persons who shall not remain at their Head or hold the Reins until the Driver has returned to his Box, or any Driver of any such Carriage who shall intrust the Reins to any other Person to drive such Carriage, or any Person who shall so take such Reins and drive such Carriage:

Summons for the Driver left with the Book-keeper to be good Service.

And any Summons issued by any Justice requiring any Owner, Driver, or Guard of any such Carriage to appear before him to answer to any Complaint for any such Offence, shall be deemed good and sufficient Service in case the same be left with the known or acting Book-keeper, or with any other Person having the Care of any Office where Places are usually taken or Parcels received for such Carriage.

Carts and Cars.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That any of the Persons herein-after mentioned who shall commit any of the next following Offences on any public Road, or in any Street of a Town, shall, in addition to any Civil Action to which he may subject himself, be liable for every such Offence to a Fine not exceeding Ten Shillings; that is to say,

Punishment for Offences:

Where Names of Owners are not painted on Carts, &c.:

Any Owner of any Cart, Dray, Waggon, or other such Carriage for the Conveyance of Goods, who shall not paint or cause to be painted upon some conspicuous Part of the Right or Off Side of such Carriage, before the same shall be used on any public Road or Street of a Town, in legible Letters not less than One Inch in Height, and in a different Colour from the Ground on which the same is painted, and in Words at Length, his Name or Residence, or the Name and Residence of a Partner or Owner thereof, and who shall not continue the same thereupon so long as such Carriage shall be used upon any such public Road or Street, or who shall use or allow the same to be used on any such public Road or Street without the said Name and Residence being painted thereon as aforesaid, or who shall suffer the same to become illegible, or who shall paint or cause to be painted any false or fictitious Name or Residence on such Carriage:

One Driver taking charge of more than One Cart, &c., except in certain Cases:

Any Person who shall act as the Driver or have the sole Charge of more than One such Carriage as last aforesaid on any public Road or Street, unless in the Cases where Two of such Carriages and no more shall be drawn each by One Horse only, and the Horse of the hinder of such Carriages shall be attached by a sufficient Rein to the Back of the foremost of such Carriages:

Drivers of Carts riding thereon without some other Person to guide them:

Any Person having the Care and Charge of any such Carriage as last aforesaid who shall ride upon the same, or upon any Horse drawing the same, on any public Road or Street, not being accompanied by some other Person on Foot or on Horseback to guide the same, except where such Carriage shall be driven with Reins, and be conducted by some Person holding the Reins of all the Horses drawing the same:

Drivers leaving their Carts:

Any Driver of any such Carriage as last aforesaid who shall negligently or wilfully be at such Distance from such Carriage, or in such a Situation whilst it shall be passing upon any such Road or Street, that he cannot have the Direction of the Horse or Horses drawing the same, or shall leave any such Carriage on such Road or Street so as to obstruct the Passage thereof:

Drivers refusing to tell Owner's Name.

Any Driver of any such Carriage as last aforesaid, not having the Owner's Name thereon as hereby required, and remaining legible thereon, who shall refuse to tell or to discover the true Christian and Surname and Residence of the Owner of such Carriage:

One-horse Cars without double Reins.

Any Person having the Care of any such Carriage drawn by One Horse, Mule, or Ass who shall not have a double Rein extending back to such Carriage.

Rules of the Road.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That any Person who shall on any public Road or Street commit any of the next following Offences shall, in addition to any Civil Action to which he may make himself liable, be also liable for every such Offence to the Punishment herein-after specified in each Case; that is to say,

Punishment for Offences:

Keeping on wrong Side of the Road:

Any Person driving any Carriage whatsoever, or riding any Horse or other Animal, who, meeting any other Carriage or Horse or other Animal, shall not keep his Carriage or Horse or other Animal on the Left or Near Side of the Road or Street, or, if passing any other Carriage or Horse or other Animal going in the same Direction, shall not in all Cases where it is practicable go and pass to the Right Side of such other Carriage or Horse or other Animal, shall be liable to a Fine not exceeding Ten Shillings:

Passing with a led Horse:

Any Person riding any Horse and leading any other Horse, who shall not keep such led Horse on the Side away from any Carriage or Person passing him on any public Road or in any Street of a Town, shall be liable to a Fine not exceeding Ten Shillings:

Obstructing free Passage:

Any Person who shall in any Manner wilfully prevent any other Person, or any Carriage or Horse or other Animal under his Care, from passing him upon any public Road or Street, or who shall by Negligence or Misbehaviour prevent, hinder, or interrupt the free Passage of any Person or Carriage on any public Road or Street, shall be liable to a Fine not exceeding Twenty Shillings:

Furious Driving:

Negligent Driving:

Any Person riding any Horse or Animal, or driving any Sort of Carriage, who shall ride or drive the same furiously on any public Road or Street so as to endanger the Life or Limb of any Passenger or Person, or to the common Danger of the Passengers, or who shall by Carelessness or wilful Misbehaviour cause any Hurt or Damage to any Person or Property being on any public Road or Street, shall be liable to a Fine not exceeding Twenty Shillings:

Children under Thirteen Years not to drive.

And no Cart, Dray, Waggon, or other such Carriage, and no Hackney Car or Carriage, or Car or Carriage let on Hire, travelling on any public Road or Street, shall be driven by any Person who shall not be of the full Age of Thirteen Years, under a Penalty not exceeding Ten Shillings, to be paid by the Owner of such Carriage.

Compensation for Damage not exceeding 40s. recoverable before Justices in such Cases.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That in every Case where any Hurt or Damage shall have been caused by the Commission of any of the said Offences upon Roads or in Streets of Towns, the Justice or Justices, upon the Hearing of the Complaint, may, in addition to any Penalty herein provided, adjudge as and for Compensation to be paid to any Party aggrieved thereby a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, provided such Amount of Damage shall have been proved, and may order the Party offending, or, in case of an Offence by the Driver of any Carriage, the Owner of such Carriage, forthwith to pay such Sum, and also such Costs as shall have been incurred, and the Payment thereof may be enforced in like Manner as any Fine may be enforced under and by virtue of this Act, and subject to the like Provisions as to Imprisonment in default of Distress for the same: Provided always, that any Sum which shall be so paid by the Owner shall and may in like Manner be recovered by him in a summary Way before a Justice or Justices from the Driver through whose Default such Sum shall have been so paid, upon Proof of the Payment thereof pursuant to the Order of the Justice or Justices.

Owners may recover over against Drivers.

Constabulary to take cognizance.

Offenders, if known, to be summoned; or if not known, may be arrested.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That the County and Sub-Inspectors, Head and other Constables of the Constabulary Force, shall take cognizance of all such Offences upon any public Road or in any Street of a Town as aforesaid, and shall, in every Case where the Name and Residence of any such Offender is known or can be ascertained, summon him before the Justices at Petty Sessions; and where the Name and Residence of such Offender shall be unknown and cannot be ascertained, he may, with or without any Warrant, be apprehended by any County or Sub-Inspector, Head or other Constable, or any Persons whom he may call to his Assistance, and shall be forthwith conveyed before any Justice or Justices, to be dealt with according to Law; and if any such Person in any of the Cases aforesaid shall refuse to discover his Name, it shall be lawful for the said Justice or Justices before whom he shall be taken, or to whom any such Complaint shall be made, to commit him to Gaol, there to be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding One Month, or to entertain any Proceeding against him for the Penalty aforesaid by a Description of his Person and the Offence only, without adding any Name or Designation, but expressing in the Proceedings that he refused to discover his Name; and in all Cases of Proceedings for any such Offences by the Owner or Driver of any Carriage or Animal on any public Road or Street of a Town, it shall be lawful to summon the Offender either before the Justices of the Petty Sessions District in which the Offence shall be committed, or before the Justices of any other Petty Sessions District in which such Offender may reside or be at the Time of taking such Proceeding, and such Justices are hereby authorized to hear and determine such Case, either upon the Complaint of such County or Sub-Inspector, Head or other Constable, or of any other Person.

Proceeding if Driver will not discover his Name.

Offenders as to Carriages, &c. on Roads may be proceeded against wherever they may be.

Horses, Carriages, &c. of Offenders may be detained.

XXX. And be it enacted, That whenever any Person having charge of any Horse, Cart, Carriage, or any other Animal or Thing, shall be taken into the Custody of any Head or other Constable under the Provision herein-before last contained, it shall be lawful for such Head or other Constable to take charge of of such Horse, Cart, Carriage, or such other Animal or Thing, and to deposit the same in some Place of safe Custody, as a Security for Payment of any Penalty to which the Person having had Charge thereof may become liable, and for Payment of any Expenses which may have been necessarily incurred for taking charge of and keeping the same; and it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices by whom the Case shall be heard to order that, in default of such Penalty and Expenses being paid, such Horse, Cart, Carriage, or such other Animal or Thing, shall be sold, for the Purpose of satisfying such Penalty and Expenses, in like Manner as if the same had been subject to be distrained and had been distrained for the Payment of the same.

CIVIL JURISDICTION.

Order for Possession of Small Tenements.

Possession of small Tenements may be recovered by Summons before Justices of the Peace

XXXI. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, when the Term or Interest of the Tenant of any House or any Part of a House, situate in any City, Town, or Village in which any Fair or Market is usually held, and which shall be held by him for any Term not exceeding One Calendar Month at a Rent not exceeding the Rate of One Pound Sterling by the Month, shall have ended, or shall have been duly determined by a legal Notice to quit, and such Tenant, or (if such Tenant do not actually occupy the Premises, or only a Part thereof,) any Person by whom the same or any Part thereof shall be then actually occupied, shall neglect or refuse to deliver up Possession of the same, it shall be lawful for the Landlord of the said Premises, or his known Agent, or for the Receiver of the Rents of his Estate, to cause the Person so neglecting or refusing to quit and deliver up Possession to be served with a Summons in Writing, to be signed by a Justice or Justices having Jurisdiction in the Place in which the said Premises shall be situated, to appear before a Justice or Justices at the Petty Sessions of the District in which the said Premises shall be situated, to show Cause why Possession of the said Premises should not be delivered up to such Landlord or such Agent or Receiver as aforesaid; and if the Tenant or Occupier shall not appear at the Time and Place appointed, or if such Tenant or Occupier shall appear, and shall not show to the Satisfaction of such Justice or Justices reasonable Cause why Possession should not be given, and shall still neglect or refuse to deliver up the Possession of the said Premises, or such Part thereof as he was in possession or occupation of at the Time of the Service of such Summons, to the said Landlord or the said Agent or Receiver, it shall be lawful for the said Landlord or the said Agent or Receiver to give such Justice or Justices Proof of the Holding and of the End or Determination of the Tenancy, with the Time and Manner thereof, and, where the Title of the Landlord hath accrued since the letting of the Premises, the Right by which he claims the Possession; and thereupon it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices to issue a Warrant under their Hands to any Head or other Constable of or acting in the District within which such Premises shall be situate, or to any other Person as a special Bailiff in that Behalf, requiring and authorizing him, within a Period to be therein named, not less than Seven or more than Ten clear Days from the Date of such Warrant, to give Possession of the Premises to such Landlord, Agent, or Receiver; and such Warrant shall be a sufficient Warrant to the said Constable or Bailiff to enter upon the Premises, with such Assistants as he shall deem necessary, and to give Possession accordingly: Provided always, that Entry upon any such Warrant shall not be made on a Sunday, Good Friday, or Christmas Day, or at any Time except between the Hours of Nine in the Morning and Four in the Afternoon.

If Party summoned give Undertaking to deliver up Possession and pay Arrears in 14 Days, no Warrant shall issue; but if Party continue in possession at the End of such 14 Days, Justices may issue Warrant forthwith.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That if the Party so summoned to give up Possession shall, in obedience to such Summons, appear before the Justices, and shall give an Undertaking (to be entered in Writing by the Clerk of Petty Sessions) quietly and peaceably to deliver up, within Fourteen Days from the Date thereof, Possession of the Premises of which he is such Tenant or Occupier, in good Order and Repair, to the Landlord, or such Agent or Receiver, and in the meantime to pay all Rent and Arrears of Rent claimed by such Landlord in respect to such Tenement, in such Case the Justices shall not issue their Warrant for giving Possession till the Expiration of such Period of Fourteen Days: Provided always, that if the Tenant or Occupier shall at the Expiration of such Period continue in possession or occupation of the said Tenement, save by the Permission of such Landlord, Agent, or Receiver, it shall be lawful for the Justices, at the Instance of the Landlord or of such Agent or Receiver, to issue their Warrant for giving Possession of the same as aforesaid, and such Warrant shall be executed forthwith, without further Notice to such Tenant or Occupier.

Manner in which such Summons shall be served.

Substitution of Service in certain Cases.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That such Summons as last aforesaid may be served either personally or by leaving the same with some Person being in occupation of such House or Part of a House, and where the Tenant of such House or Part of a House shall not reside therein, by serving the same personally or by leaving the same at the Place of Abode of the Tenant so holding over as aforesaid Four clear Days before the Day appointed for the Hearing of the Matter of the said Summons: Provided always, that if the Person so holding over cannot be found, and Admission into the Premises so overheld for serving such Summons cannot be obtained, and the Place of Abode of such Person not residing as aforesaid shall either not be known or Admission thereto cannot be obtained for serving such Summons, the posting of the said Summons on some conspicuous Part of the Premises so held over shall be deemed to be good Service upon such Person.

But Act not to protect Persons who have no legal Right.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be deemed to protect any Person by whom any such Warrant for the Delivery of Possession of Tenements shall be sued out as aforesaid from any Action which may be brought against him by any such Tenant or Occupier for or in respect of such Entry and taking possession, where such Person had not, at the Time of suing out the same as aforesaid, lawful Right to the Possession of the said Premises.

Master and Servant.

Justice may punish Servant,

XXXV. And be it enacted, That if any Servant, Artificer, or Labourer or other Person shall engage, by a Contract in Writing signed by both Parties, with any Person, to serve him at any Time and in any Manner, Manner, and shall not enter into or commence his Service according to such Contract, or having entered into any Service under any Contract, whether in Writing or not, shall absent himself from the same before the Term specified in such Contract shall be completed, or shall neglect to fulfil the same, or shall be guilty of any Misconduct or Misdemeanor in the Execution of the same or in any way respecting the same, it shall be lawful for any Justice or Justices, upon Complaint thereof on Oath, either to summon such Servant to Petty Sessions, or to issue his or their Warrant to apprehend such Servant, Artificer, or Labourer, and to hear and determine at Petty Sessions such Complaint made against him by his Employer, or by the Steward, Manager, or Agent of his Employer, and if it shall appear that he has not fulfilled his Contract, or has been guilty of any Misconduct in respect to the same, to impose upon him a Fine not exceeding the Sum of Five Pounds, and in default of Payment of such Fine at such Time as the Justice or Justices shall fix, to commit him to Gaol for any Term not exceeding Three Months, and to abate the whole or a Part of his Wages, and, if he shall see fit, to discharge him from his Contract or Service, by Writing under the Hand of such Justice.

&c. for not observing Contract.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice or Justices to hear and determine any Disputes and Differences which shall arise between any Master and his Apprentice, or any Employer and his Labourers or Servants, concerning any Wages, where the Demand, whether originally greater or not, shall not exceed Ten Pounds, and whether such Wages shall be due in respect to any Day's Work or to any Labour done or performed by Task, Job, or Contract, and to make such Order for Payment of so much Wages to any such Apprentice, Labourer, or Servant as, according to the Terms of his Apprenticeship or other Agreement, as the Case may be, shall appear, under all the Circumstances of the Case, to be justly due, and also of so much Compensation as is herein-after provided; and if such Sum, and such Costs and Compensation as may be awarded, shall not be paid by the Person ordered to pay the same, either immediately or within such Time as shall be directed by the Justice or Justices, it shall be lawful for him or them, and he or they are hereby required, to issue his or their Warrant to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Person refusing or omitting to pay the same, rendering the Overplus, if any, to such Person.

Justice may order Wages to be paid.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That in every Case where the Master or Employer shall entrust his Business to the Management and Superintendence of any Steward, Agent, Bailiff, Foreman, or Manager, it shall be lawful for any Justice or Justices, upon the Complaint of any such Servant, Artificer, Labourer, or Apprentice concerning the Nonpayment of his Wages, to summon such Steward, Agent, Bailiff, Foreman, or Manager to appear at Petty Sessions, and to hear and determine the Matter of the Complaint in such and the like Manner as Complaints of the like Nature against any Master or Employer are herein-before directed to be heard and determined, and thereupon to make an Order for the Payment by such Steward, Agent, Bailiff, Foreman, or Manager to such Servant, Artificer, Labourer, or Apprentice of so much Wages as to such Justice or Justices shall appear to be justly due, provided that the Sum claimed shall not exceed the Sum of Ten Pounds; and in case of Refusal or Nonpayment of any such Sum and Costs at such Time as shall be directed by such Justice or Justices such Justice or Justices shall and may issue his or their Warrant to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Master or Employer, rendering the Overplus to such Master or Employer, or to such Steward, Agent, Bailiff, Foreman, or Manager, for the Use of such Master or Employer, after Payment of the Charges of such Distress and Sale.

How Servants, &c. shall recover their Wages in Cases of Absence of Masters, &c.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That whenever it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the Justice or Justices that any Servant, Artificer, or Labourer has been or is likely to be detained from his Home or usual Place of Residence, or has suffered or is likely to suffer any additional Loss by reason of the Nonpayment of any Wages which such Justice shall so adjudge to be due, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices to order that there shall be paid to such Servant, Artificer, or Labourer, not only the Sum so due for Wages as aforesaid, but also such further Sum for the Time during which such Servant, Artificer, or Labourer shall have been so detained from his usual Place of Residence, or for the Loss suffered or likely to be suffered, as such Justice or Justices shall think and adjudge to be reasonable, having regard to the Length of such Detention, the Diligence or Remissness of either Party, the usual Wages of such Servant, Artificer, or Labourer, and the Wages which within the Time of such Detention such Servant, Artificer, or Labourer did earn, or under all the Circumstances of the Case might have earned: Provided always, that such additional Sums or Sum so ordered shall not exceed the Sum of Two Pounds.

Justices may award further Sum to Servants, &c. as Compensation for Loss of Time in recovering Wages.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That all Persons, whether Artificers or Servants, or otherwise, who shall be employed to do any Species of Work or Labour whatsoever for Hire, and whether they shall find Materials for the Performance of the Contract or not, shall be deemed and taken to be Labourers within the true Intent and Meaning of the Provisions of this Act, and shall be entitled to recover Wages as such, under and according to the Regulations aforesaid:

Labourers defined.

XL. And be it enacted, That all Sums which shall be due or payable for the Hire of any Horse, Ass, Mule, Bullock, or other Animal for Draught, or of any Cart, Dray, Car, Plough, Harrow, or Vehicle, drawn by any such Animal for the Purpose of any labouring Work, (not being for the Carriage of any Passenger or Passengers,) or for the Hire of any Boat for the Purpose of any labouring Work (not being for the Carriage of any Passenger or Passengers), where the Demand, whether originally of greater Amount or not, and whether such Hire shall be by the Day or by Contract or otherwise, shall not exceed Ten Pounds, shall be recoverable in the same Manner and subject to the same Conditions and Limitations as are herein-before contained in respect to Wages.

The Hire of Horses, Carts, &c. to be recoverable in like Manner.

XLI. And

Master and Servant.

Remuneration for Tuition to be recoverable in like Manner.

XLI. And be it enacted, That all Sums which shall be due or payable to any Schoolmaster or Teacher for the teaching of any Child in any School or otherwise, when the Demand, whether originally greater or not, shall not exceed Ten Pounds, and whether the Engagement shall be for a Payment by the Day or other Period, or in any other Manner, shall be recoverable from the Parent or Parents or from such other Person as shall have engaged such Teacher or Schoolmaster to teach such Child, in the same Manner and subject to the same Limitations and Conditions as are herein-before contained in respect to Wages.

Fairs and Markets.

Justices may make Awards as to Disputes at Sales in Fairs and Markets, where Value does not exceed 5*l.*

XLII. And be it enacted, That whenever any Dispute shall arise between any Buyer and Seller relating to the Terms of Sale, Delivery, Price, or Payment for any Article, Matter, or Thing which shall be exhibited for Sale in any Fair or Market, and which shall not be of a greater Value than Five Pounds, it shall be lawful for any Justice or Justices, within his or their Jurisdiction, to hear and determine such Dispute forthwith, upon the Complaint of either Party, and in Presence of both Parties, and, if necessary, to cause all Parties to be brought before him for that Purpose; and it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, having examined into the said Complaint upon the Oath of either of the Parties or of any Witness or Witnesses, to make an Award thereon according to the Merits of the Case, with Costs not exceeding Five Shillings, and such Award shall be in Writing, and shall have the like Force and Effect as any Order made by a Justice at Petty Sessions.

Justices may make Regulations as to Markets.

XLIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Town Commissioners acting under an Act of the Ninth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-two, and for the Commissioners acting under any other local or special Acts giving them like Powers in their respective Towns not being Corporate Towns, and for the Justices at Petty Sessions in other Market Towns, not being Corporate Towns, from Time to Time to make and vary from Time to Time such Regulations as they shall see fit for keeping or causing to be kept free and clear from Obstruction all Passages or Thoroughfares in and through the said Markets, and for keeping or causing to be kept all said Markets, and all Passages therein and thereto, clear and free from any Dirt or Nuisances of any Kind whatever, and for preventing all Indecencies being committed therein, provided that no such Regulations shall interfere with or impede the due Accommodation of Persons lawfully exposing Goods or Wares for Sale therein; and it shall be lawful for the said Town Commissioners or Justices to give due Notice of such Regulations, by causing the same to be painted on a Board, and affixed in some conspicuous Place in any such Market, in like Manner as Schedules of Tolls and Customs in Markets are now required by Law to be affixed; and if any Person shall offend against any of the said Regulations, by exhibiting Goods or Wares in any such Market in any Place other than that appointed for the Sale of the same, or by refusing to remove the same when required so to do, or by obstructing the Passages or Thoroughfares in and through such Market, by placing or leaving any Impediment of any Kind therein, or by leaving or causing to be left any Dirt or Nuisance of any Kind therein, or shall commit any Indecency in said Market or in the Passages thereto, he shall, on Conviction thereof before a Justice or Justices, pay a Fine for a First Offence not exceeding Five Shillings, and Costs not exceeding One Shilling, and for a Second Offence a Fine not exceeding Ten Shillings, and Costs not exceeding Two Shillings.

Persons obstructing with Hackney Cars, Carts, &c. liable to a Fine.

Justices may appoint Stands for Cars.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That any Person who shall, within any City, Borough, or Market Town in Ireland, or within a Quarter of a Mile from the Boundary thereof, cause any Cart, Dray, Waggon, or other such Carriage, or any public or Hackney Car or Carriage, to stand in any public Road or Street longer than may be reasonable or necessary for loading or unloading, or for taking up or setting down Passengers, (except any Cart, Dray, Waggon, or other such Carriage lawfully standing in any Place customarily used for such Purpose in any public Market or Fair, and except any public or Hackney Car or Carriage standing for Hire in any Place allowed for such Purpose by any Order in Writing to be made by the Justices at the Petty Sessions of the District, and which Order such Justices are hereby empowered to make,) or any Person who shall within any such Place or Limits as aforesaid, except as herein-before excepted, by means of any such Carriage, wilfully interrupt any public Crossing, or wilfully cause any Obstruction in any public Road or Street, shall, on Conviction thereof before a Justice or Justices, pay for every such Offence a Fine not exceeding Twenty Shillings.

Head Constable shall be Inspector of Weights and Measures.

XLV. And be it enacted, That such Head Constable or Constable in each Petty Sessions District as shall be selected by the County Inspector of Constabulary with the Approval of the Justices, shall henceforth be ex officio an Inspector of Weights and Measures within such District, and shall possess and exercise all the Powers and Authorities which any Inspector of Weights and Measures may possess or exercise under and by virtue of an Act passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, Chapter Sixty three, and shall perform such Duties, under the Direction of the Justices at Petty Sessions, without Fee or Reward, and notwithstanding any manorial Jurisdiction or Claim of Jurisdiction within such District.

Grand Jury may provide Sub-Standard Weights and Measures.

XLVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Grand Jury of each County from Time to Time to procure so many Copies, in Iron or other sufficient Material, of the County Copies of the Imperial Weights and Measures, as they shall see fit, and to direct that the same shall be duly stamped by any Inspector of Weights and Measures for such County, or by such Officer of the Constabulary as the said Grand Jury shall appoint for that Purpose, with the Approval of the said Inspector General, and that the same shall be deposited in the Custody of the said Head or other Constables, so as to enable them the more easily to discharge the Duties of Inspectors of Weights and Measures; and such Copies so to be procured shall be called the County Sub-Standard Weights and Measures, and shall, at least once in every Year, and also at any other Times when required by the County Inspector of Constabulary stabulary of the County or by the Justices at Petty Sessions, be compared with and corrected by the said County Standard Weights and Measures, by the said Inspector of Weights and Measures, or the said Officer of Constabulary so to be appointed as aforesaid, who shall adjust the same, and also affix the County Stamp thereto; and such Copies so adjusted and stamped shall, until the next Comparison of same, to be made in manner aforesaid, be considered to all Intents the same as the said County Standard Weights and Measures, for all Purposes of Comparison and Verification, and for all other Purposes for which such County Standard Weights and Measures are required, under the Provisions of the said recited Act, by any Inspector of Weights and Measures; and any Person who shall use said Copies for any other Purpose shall, upon Conviction thereof before any Justice or Justices of the County, be liable to a Fine not exceeding Five Pounds for every such Offence.

Fairs and Markets.

General Provisions.

Compensation awarded to be paid to Party aggrieved, except in certain Cases.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That in every Case where any Sum shall be awarded under the Provisions of this Act as Compensation for Damage, or as the Value of any Article, or as the Amount of any Injury done, such Sum shall in the Case of private Property be paid to the Party aggrieved, if known, and where the Party aggrieved is unknown, or in the Case of Property of a public Nature or wherein any public Right is concerned, such Sum shall be applied in such Manner as other Penalties imposed by a Justice shall by Law be applicable: Provided always, that where several Persons join in an Offence, and are severally punished each in the Amount of the Injury done, no more than One of such Sums shall be paid to the Party aggrieved, and the rest shall be applied as other Penalties imposed by a Justice shall be by Law applicable.

Application of Fines.

XLVIII. And be it enacted, That in every Case where a Fine for an Offence shall be imposed under the Provisions of this Act, and no Sum shall be awarded to the Prosecutor by way of Compensation for Damages, it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices before whom the Conviction shall take place, if he or they shall see fit, to award any Sum not exceeding One Third of such Fine to the Informer, and the Remainder of such Fine and all other Fines imposed under the Provisions of this Act shall be awarded to the Crown.

Persons aggrieved, Complainants in all Cases, and Defendants in Wages Cases, competent Witnesses.

XLIX. And be it enacted, That in all Cases of Prosecutions for Offences under this Act the Evidence of the Party aggrieved shall be admissible in proof of the Offence; and in all Cases of Complaints on which a Justice or Justices can make an Order for the Payment of Money under this Act the Evidence of the Complainant shall be admissible in proof of his Complaint; and in Cases of Wages it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices, and they are hereby empowered, to summon before him or them the Master or Employer as a Witness, and the Evidence of such Witness may, in the Discretion of the Justice or Justices, be admitted in proof against the Complaint.

The Justice may discharge the Offender in certain Cases.

L. And be it enacted, That where any Person shall be convicted before a Justice or Justices of the Peace of any Offence against this Act, and it shall be a First Conviction, it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices, if he or they shall so think fit, to discharge the Offender from his Conviction, upon his making such Satisfaction to the Party aggrieved, for Damages and Costs or either of them, as shall be ascertained by the Justice or Justices.

Pardon for Nonpayment of Money.

LI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland to extend the Royal Mercy to any Person imprisoned by virtue of this Act, although he shall be imprisoned for Nonpayment of Money to some Party other than the Crown.

Complaints to be made within Six Months, or for Wages, &c., within Twelve Months.

LII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases of summary Proceedings under the Provisions of this Act the Information may be laid or the Complaint may be made within Six Calendar Months from the Time when the Matter of such Information or Complaint arose, or, in case of Wages, Hire, or Tuition, within Twelve Months from the Termination of the Period when the Cause of Complaint shall have arisen, and not otherwise, any Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

In what Cases Appeals shall be permitted.

Appeal only to next Quarter Sessions of the Division.

LIII. And be it enacted, That in any Case of summary Proceedings under this Act where an Order shall be made by any Justice or Justices for any Penalty or other Sum exceeding Forty Shillings, or for any Term of Imprisonment exceeding Two Months, or for the doing of anything at a greater Expense than Forty Shillings, but not in any other Case, the Party against whom such Order shall be made shall be entitled to appeal to the next Quarter Sessions to be held in the same Division of the County wherein the Order shall have been made, unless when the same shall commence within Three Days from the Date of the Order, in which Case, if the Appellant sees fit, it may be made to the next succeeding Quarter Sessions of such Division; and it shall be lawful for such Court of Quarter Sessions to hear and determine such Appeal.

Proper Notices to be given within Three Days.

Recognizance to prosecute Appeal.

Amount of Recognizance.

LIV. And be it enacted, That in every such Case where a Party shall have a Right to appeal from any Order made under this Act he shall not exercise such Right unless he shall serve Notice of his Intention to appeal upon either the Clerk of the Petty Sessions or the Justice who shall have made such Order, and also upon the opposite Party, within Three Days from the Date of such Order, and unless he shall also enter into a Recognizance, with Two solvent Sureties, conditioned to prosecute such Appeal, and to pay such Sum and Costs, together with such other Costs as may be awarded against him upon such Appeal, if the same be not decided in his Favour; and the Amount of such Recognizance shall be double the Amount of the Sum and Costs ordered to be paid, or double the Amount of a Sum calculated at the Rate of Ten Shillings for every Week of the Imprisonment, where Imprisonment only is ordered.

On Appeal being duly made, the Justice to discharge the Defendant.

LV. And be it enacted, That in any Case where a Party shall be in Custody, or shall have been committed to Gaol, or any Warrant of Distress shall have been issued or executed, under any such Order of a Justice or Justices, and being entitled to appeal shall have served the proper Notice and entered into the proper Recognizance to prosecute his Appeal, the Justice by whom the Warrant of Committal

General Provisions.

Committal shall have been issued, or any other Justice of the same County, shall, upon an Application being made to him in that Behalf, forthwith order the Discharge of such Person from Custody or from Gaol, or that such Warrant of Distress shall not be executed, or that if executed the Distress shall be returned to the Owner, as the Case may be.

In case of Appeal the Period of Imprisonment to run from the Decision of the Appeal.

LVI. And be it enacted, That in any Case where any such Appeal as aforesaid against any Order to be made under the Provisions of this Act, by which any Person shall be adjudged to be imprisoned, shall be decided against such Person, he shall thereupon be liable to be imprisoned for the Period adjudged by the original Order, where he shall not have been apprehended and discharged in manner aforesaid, or where he shall have so been apprehended and discharged, then for such Period as, together with the Time during which he shall so have been in Custody, shall be equal to the Period adjudged by the original Order.

Offences may also be punished on Indictment.

LVII. And be it enacted, That any Person who shall commit any of the Offences herein-before mentioned, and now by Law punishable by Indictment, may, at the Discretion of the Justice or Justices, be proceeded against and punished for the same either upon Indictment or before a Justice or Justices upon summary Conviction; and in every Case where, under the Provisions of any other Act, the Commission of any of the said Offences a Second or subsequent Time shall be punishable upon Indictment for the same, such Second or subsequent Offence shall continue punishable in the same Manner as if this Act had not been passed.

No Order or Adjudication made on Appeal shall be quashed for Want of Form.

LVIII. And be it enacted, That no Order made under the Provisions of this Act, nor any Adjudication made on Appeal therefrom, shall be quashed for Want of Form, or be removed by Certiorari or otherwise into any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Record.

Interpretation Clause.

LIX. And be it enacted, That in the Interpretation of this Act, save where there is anything in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction, the Word "County" shall be deemed to include "County of a City" or "County of a Town;" the Word "Justice" shall mean "Justice of the Peace," and shall include a "Divisional Justice" of the Police District of Dublin Metropolis, or "Chief Magistrate" of any Corporate Town; the Word "Petty Sessions" shall include a "Divisional Police Office" of Dublin Metropolis; the Word "Gaol" shall include any "House of Correction" or "Bridewell" of the County to which any Person may be legally committed by any Justice; the Word "Oath" shall include "Affirmation" or "solemn Declaration," as the Case may be; the Word "Month" shall mean "Calendar Month;" the Word "Road" shall include "Highway" or other public Thoroughfare, and "Street" shall include any Lane or Passage in any Town; and the Word "Horse" shall include any other Animal of any Kind commonly used or employed in drawing any Kind of Carriage; Words denoting the Masculine Gender shall include Females as well as Males, and Words denoting the Singular Number shall include Two or more Persons or Things as well as One Person or Thing, and vice versâ.

CAP. CIII.

An Act to authorize further Charges on "The London Bridge Approaches Fund" for the Completion of certain Improvements in the Metropolis. [14th August 1850.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for improving the Approaches to London Bridge, a Fund was 10 G. 4. c. 136.
'created, called the Fund for improving the Approaches to London Bridge, consisting of certain Duties
'upon Coal imported into the Port of London forming Part of a Fund called the Orphans Fund, which 'Duties were thereby made payable for the Term of Twenty-one Years, to be computed from the Fifth
'Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, unless the Sums of Money charged thereon
'should be sooner paid off and discharged: And whereas by an Act passed in the Eleventh Year of the 'Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to make further Provision for 11 G. 4. c. 69.
'defraying the Expenses of making the Approaches to London Bridge and the Removal of Fleet Market,
'the Fund was increased by including therein certain Duties upon Wine imported into the Port of 'London or the Members thereof, by way of Merchandize, and also certain Fines on the Admission
'of Freemen and binding Apprentices, and also certain Aqueducts forming Part of the Property of the 'Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, and also the several annual Sums of Eight 'thousand Pounds, Two thousand Pounds, and One thousand five hundred Pounds charged on the Estates
'and Revenues of the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, and the Fund so increased as aforesaid
'was made chargeable with the Sums charged and to be charged thereon by virtue of the said Acts,
'and all such several and respective Funds as were not permanent were continued until the Sums
'charged and to be charged thereon by virtue of the same Acts respectively should be paid off; and
'the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons were empowered to borrow and raise the further Sum of Two 'hundred and fifty thousand Pounds upon the Credit of the Fund created as aforesaid: And whereas by 'an Act passed in the First and Second Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for 1 & 2 Vict.
'improving the Site of the Royal Exchange in the City of London, and the Avenues adjoining thereto, c. 100.
'the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons were empowered for the Purposes of the said Act to 'borrow and raise the further Sum of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds upon the Credit of the 'Fund created as aforesaid: And whereas by an Act passed in the Second and Third Year of the Reign

2 & 3 Vict. c. 80. 'of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to empower the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, 'Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings to raise a Sum of Money for making additional 'Thoroughfares in the Metropolis, the said Commissioners were empowered to charge the said Fund 'with the Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds for making additional Thoroughfares in the Metro-'polis, with Interest thereon from the Time of charging the same not exceeding Five Pounds per 'Centum per Annum; as therein mentioned, and such Parts of the said Fund as were not permanent 'were continued until the Sums charged and to be charged thereon by virtue of the Act now in 'recital should be paid off: And whereas by an Act passed in the Third and Fourth Year of the
3 & 4 Vict. c. 87. 'Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to enable Her Majesty's Commissioners of Woods, 'Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings to make additional Thoroughfares in the Metropolis, 'the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the 'Time being were empowered, for the Purposes of the Act now in recital and the said last-recited 'Act, to charge and raise the further Sum of One hundred thousand Pounds upon the Credit of the 'Funds by the said last-recited Act authorized to be charged, and all such Parts of the said Funds 'as were not permanent were continued until the further Sum to be charged thereon by virtue of 'the Act now in recital should be paid off: And whereas by another Act passed in the said Third and 4 Vict. c. 131. 'Fourth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to continue for Four Years from 'the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight the Duties now levied on Coal and 'Wines imported into the Port of London, the Duties on Coal and Wines forming Part of the Fund 'aforesaid were continued for a further Term of Four Years from the Fifth Day of July One thousand 'eight hundred and fifty-eight: And whereas by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of Her
4 & 5 Vict. c. 12. 'present Majesty, intituled An Act to enable Her Majesty's Commissioners of Woods to make a new 'Street from Coventry Street, Piccadilly, to Long Acre, and for other Improvements in the Metropolis, 'after reciting, among other things, an Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of Her present 'Majesty, intituled An Act for making a new Street from Holborn Bridge in the City of London towards 'Clerkenwell Green, and an Act passed in the Third and Fourth Year of the Reign of Her present 'Majesty, intituled An Act for opening a Street to Clerkenwell Green in the County of Middlesex, in 'continuation of the new Street from Farringdon Street in the City of London, and that it was expedient 'that the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings should 'be authorized, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to advance, out of the 'Monies to be borrowed and raised by them under the Provisions of the now reciting Act, any Sum not 'exceeding Twenty-five thousand Pounds towards the Expenses of making and completing the said 'Street from the Termination of the Street authorized to be made by the Mayor, Commonalty, and 'Citizens of the City of London, under the said recited Act of the Second Year of the Reign of Her 'present Majesty, to Clerkenwell Green, and any Sum not exceeding Thirty thousand Pounds towards 'the Expense of making and completing a Line of Street between Southwark and Westminster Bridge, 'and also any Sum not exceeding Thirty-nine thousand Pounds towards the Expense of making and 'completing a spacious and convenient Communication between the Houses of Parliament and Buckingham 'Palace, the said Commissioners were empowered to charge the several Funds, Duties, and Revenues 'herein-before mentioned with the Payment of the Sum of Two hundred and fourteen thousand Pounds, 'together with Interest on the Sum or Sums to be charged from the Time of charging the same, to be 'payable half-yearly, in addition to the Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds which the said Commis-'sioners were so as aforesaid authorized to charge for the Purposes herein-before mentioned: And 'whereas by an Act passed in the Fourth and Fifth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled
4 & 5 Vict. c. 40. 'An Act to empower the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods to raise Money for certain Improvements 'in the Metropolis on the Security of the Land Revenues of the Crown within the County of Middlesex 'and City of London, it was enacted, that it should be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's 'Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being, with the Consent of the 'Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to borrow and take up at Interest such Sum or Sums of 'Money as the said Commissioners, with such Consent as aforesaid, should judge necessary for the Pur-'pose of carrying into effect and completing the several Improvements and new Streets authorized and 'directed to be made by them by the several Acts herein-before recited, on Mortgage of all or any Part 'of the Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments of or belonging to Her Majesty, Her 'Heirs and Successors, within the County of Middlesex and City of London, or either of them, (other 'than Royal Palaces and Parks,) and to secure the Repayment of the Sum or Sums so to be borrowed or 'any Part thereof, with Interest for the same, in manner therein mentioned: And whereas by an Act 'passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her present Majesty, intituled
5 & 6 Vict. c. 101. 'An Act for further extending the Approaches to London Bridge and the Avenues adjoining to the Royal 'Exchange in the City of London; and for amending the Acts relating thereto respectively; and for 'raising a Sum of Money towards opening a Street to Clerkenwell Green in the County of Middlesex, in 'continuation of the new Street from Farringdon Street in the City of London, the Mayor, Aldermen, and 'Commons of the City of London in Common Council assembled were empowered to borrow the Sum of 'Forty thousand Pounds, and also the Sum of Twenty-five thousand Pounds, upon the Credit of the Fund 'created, increased, and continued by the several therein and herein-before in part recited Acts, at such 'Rate of Interest as therein is mentioned; and the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons in Common

'Council assembled were thereby authorized to pay to the Commissioners named in and appointed by the 'said Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for opening a 'Street to Clerkenwell Green in the County of Middlesex, in continuation of the new Street from 'Farringdon Street in the City of London, the Sum of Twenty-five thousand Pounds, as therein is 'mentioned: And whereas by another Act passed in the same Session of Parliament, intituled 'An Act for regulating the Priorities of Monies authorized to be charged on a Fund called "The 5 & 6 Vict. c. 64. 'London Bridge Approaches Fund," it was enacted that the said several Sums of Forty thousand 'Pounds and Twenty-five thousand Pounds, so authorized to be raised by the said Mayor, Aldermen, 'and Commons as aforesaid, and the Interest thereof, should have Priority over the said Sums of 'Two hundred thousand Pounds and One hundred thousand Pounds, so as aforesaid authorized to 'be charged, and the said Sum of One hundred and eighty-nine thousand Pounds by the Act now 'in recital authorized to be charged by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, 'Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, and the Interest thereon, and any Securities or Charges 'to be given or made in respect thereof: And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Par- 'liament held in the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for im- 8 & 9 Vict. 'proving Parts of the City of Westminster, it was enacted that the Sum of Thirty-nine thousand c. 178. 'Pounds, which by the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of Her Majesty's Reign the Commissioners 'of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, with the Consent of the 'Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, were empowered to appropriate and apply towards the 'Expenses of making, forming, and completing a Communication between the Neighbourhood of the 'Houses of Parliament and Buckingham Palace, should be appropriated and applied towards the Expenses 'of making, forming, and completing the new Street and Communication by the Act now in recital 'authorized to be made, provided such new Street and Communication were made and fully completed 'according to the Plan modified and approved by Her Majesty's Commissioners of Metropolitan Improve- 'ments within Five Years after the passing of that Act: And whereas by an Act passed in the Session 'of Parliament held in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to 10 & 11 Vict. 'amend and enlarge the Powers and Provisions of the Westminster Improvement Act, 1845, and to c. cxxxi. 'authorize the Application of certain Rates in aid of the Improvements, it was, among other things, 'enacted that the Proviso in the said last-recited Act contained, that no Part of the said Sum of Thirty- 'nine thousand Pounds, or the Interest thereof, should be paid to the Commissioners under the said Act until 'the new Street and Communication thereby authorized to be made should have been actually made and 'completed to the Satisfaction of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners for the Time being of 'Her Majesty's Treasury, should be and the same was thereby repealed: And whereas by an Act 'passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty's Reign, 'intituled An Act to vary the Priorities of the Charges made on the London Bridge Approaches Fund, 10 & 11 Vict. 'it was enacted, that when the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, c. 115. 'and Buildings were satisfied that the Sum of Seventy-five thousand Pounds had been expended towards 'purchasing the Area of and forming the said Street and Works to be made and performed by the 'Westminster Improvement Commissioners, if the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods should 'not have at their Disposal Monies sufficient to pay to the said Westminster Improvement Commis- 'sioners the said Sum of Thirty-nine thousand Pounds, and the Interest thereof, not exceeding in the 'whole the Sum of Fifty-thousand Pounds, so authorized to be paid to them as aforesaid, then and 'thenceforth Interest after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum should be paid by the said 'Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings to the West- 'minster Improvement Commissioners on the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, or on so much as 'should remain unpaid from the Time at which the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, 'Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings were satisfied that the said Sum of Seventy-five thou- 'sand Pounds had been expended as aforesaid up to the Time at which the said Sum of Fifty thousand 'Pounds, or the unpaid Part thereof, should be paid, but in case the said Westminster Improvement Com- 'missioners should borrow the Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, or any Part thereof, on the Security or 'Credit of the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds thereby directed to be paid to them, and should pay 'for the Monies borrowed a Rate of Interest lower than the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, 'then only the Rate of Interest which should be paid by the Westminster Improvement Commissioners 'in respect of the Principal Monies so borrowed should be paid by Her Majesty's said Commissioners in 'respect of the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, or so much thereof as should remain unpaid: And 'whereas an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of 'Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to amend an Act of the last Session, for varying the Priorities 11 & 12 Vict. 'of the Charges made on "The London Bridge Approaches Fund," and to facilitate the Completion of c. 124. 'certain Improvements in the City of Westminster: And whereas the several Sums of Money by the 'before-mentioned several Acts authorized to be charged upon the said Fund called "The London 'Bridge Approaches Fund," by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London and 'by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings 'respectively, have been from Time to Time charged thereon accordingly, and the growing annual 'Produce of the said Fund has been applied in Payment of the Interest and in part Payment 'of the Principal Monies secured by the Charges so made thereon by the said Mayor, Aldermen, 'and Commons, and since the said last-recited Act was passed the Interest of the said Sum of Fifty 'thousand Pounds appropriated to the said Westminster Improvements has also been paid out of

'such growing annual Produce, but no Part of the Principal Monies charged on the said Fund by 'the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, 'or of the Interest thereof, (except the Interest of the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds since 'the passing of the last-recited Act,) has yet been paid: And whereas the annual Produce of the 'said Fund, called The London Bridge Approaches Fund, has of late Years greatly increased, and 'it is estimated that all the Principal Monies and Interest now charged thereon will be wholly paid off 'and satisfied at a much earlier Period than was originally calculated, and that a further Sum of Money 'not exceeding the Sum of Two hundred and sixty-four thousand Pounds may be raised on the Credit 'of the Surplus of the said Fund without extending the Duties on Coal and Wines for any longer 'Term than they are now by Law payable; and the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City 'of London have consented and agreed that such Sum of Two hundred and sixty-four thousand Pounds 'shall be charged not only on the Coal and Wine Duties but also upon other the annual Sums and 'Duties forming Part of the said Fund for the Purposes herein-after mentioned: And whereas the said 'several Sums, amounting together to the said Sum of Four hundred and eighty-nine thousand Pounds 'which the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings 'have charged on the said Fund called the London Bridge Approaches Fund, and the Interest thereof, 'will not be sufficient, after paying thereout the several Sums of Fifty thousand Pounds and Thirty 'thousand Pounds, appropriated to Improvements in Westminster and Southwark, and the Interest of 'the same, to satisfy and discharge all the Sums of Money which the said Commissioners have raised 'by Mortgage of Land Revenues of the Crown, under the Authority of the Act herein-before recited, 'and it is reasonable that the Land Revenues of the Crown should be further indemnified out of the 'Surplus of the said Fund: And whereas it is expedient that further Sums of Money should be raised 'for the Completion and Continuation of the said Improvements in Clerkenwell and Westminster, and 'that further Provision should be made for the Formation and opening of a new Thoroughfare in South- 'wark:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, from Time to Time and at any Time after the passing of this Act, by any Instrument or Writing under their Common Seal (and which Instrument or Writing shall be exempt from any ad valorem or other Stamp Duty), with the Consent of the Lord High Treasurer or of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to charge all and singular the said Fund, called The London Bridge Approaches Fund, created, increased, and continued as aforesaid, and which, under the Authority of the before-recited Acts or some of them they have already charged with the several Sums amounting together to the Sum of Four hundred and eighty-nine thousand Pounds as aforesaid, with the Payment to them the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings of the further Sum of One hundred and seventy-six thousand Pounds, with Interest thereon after such Rate not exceeding Four Pounds per Centum per Annum as the said Lord High Treasurer or the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall direct, and such Interest to commence and be payable in respect of the Sum of One hundred and sixteen thousand Pounds, Part of the said Sum of One hundred and seventy-six thousand Pounds, from the passing of this Act, in respect of the Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds, further Part thereof, from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and in respect of the Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds, Residue thereof, from the Date when such last-mentioned Sum or any Part thereof shall be raised and applied under the Powers herein-after contained; and that all and singular the Fund so to be charged as aforesaid shall (after Satisfaction of Monies having Priority of the said Sum of One hundred and seventy-six thousand Pounds) be paid to the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being in and towards the Discharge of the said Sum of One hundred and seventy-six thousand Pounds and Interest so to be charged as aforesaid.

Commissioners of Woods empowered to make a further Charge upon the Fund.

Commissioners of Woods empowered to raise Monies on the Credit of the Charge.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said last-named Commissioners, with such Consent as aforesaid, from Time to Time or at any one Time, to borrow and raise any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum of One hundred and seventy-six thousand Pounds upon the Credit of the Monies so to be charged by them as aforesaid, or of any Part thereof, and thereupon to assign and dispose of the said Monies so to be charged or any Part thereof, and the Interest thereon, in such Shares, and by way of Debenture or otherwise, and with such Priorities, and in such Manner as the said Commissioners shall think fit, as a Security for the Monies so to be borrowed; and such Monies so to be raised shall be paid into the Bank of England to the Credit of the said Commissioners, to such Account, by such Instalments, in such Proportions, at such Times, and in such Manner as the said Commissioners shall direct.

Commissioners of Woods to continue incorporated.

III. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being shall continue and be incorporated for the Purposes of this Act, and that the Payment of the Monies so to be charged or raised by them as aforesaid, and the Interest thereon, either into the Bank of England, or otherwise as the said Commissioners shall direct, shall be a sufficient Discharge to the Person or Persons or Body paying the same.

Commissioners empowered to advance Monies

IV. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings shall and they are hereby authorized and empowered to reserve, and, with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from from Time to Time to appropriate and apply, out of the Monies to be borrowed and raised by them under the Powers and Provisions of this Act, any Sum not exceeding the Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds, with Interest thereon from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, towards the Expense of making, forming, and completing a Line of Street between Southwark and Westminster Bridge, and in addition to the like Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds, and the Interest thereof, which by the recited Act of the Fourth Year of Her Majesty's Reign the said Commissioners have been already authorized to appropriate and apply to the Purpose aforesaid; and also, with such Consent and Approbation as aforesaid, to advance and lend to the Westminster Improvement Commissioners, out of the Monies to be borrowed and raised as aforesaid, any Sum not exceeding the Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds towards the Expenses of making, forming, and completing the new Street intended to be called Victoria Street, and of opening the same as a public Thoroughfare, and for securing the Repayment of the Sum so to be advanced and lent as last aforesaid, with Interest thereon at such Rate, and to be payable at such Times, as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall approve of, to accept and take from the said Westminster Improvement Commissioners a Mortgage of or Charge upon the Monies by the "Westminster Improvement Act, 1847," authorized to be paid to them in respect of the increased Rates therein mentioned, or such other or additional Security as the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall direct or approve of.

for completing Improvements in Southwark and Westminster.

V. And be it enacted, That, subject to the Reservation and Payment of the Monies herein-before authorized to be reserved or appropriated and advanced and lent thereout, the said Sum of One hundred and seventy-six thousand Pounds and the Interest thereof so to be charged on the said Fund by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings as aforesaid, and all Monies to be raised and borrowed by the said Commissioners on the Credit of any such Charge as aforesaid, shall be paid and applied in the first place in and towards the Satisfaction and Discharge of all Principal Monies which the said Commissioners have raised or shall hereafter raise under the Authority of Parliament for Improvements in the Metropolis, by Mortgage of any Portion of the Land Revenues of the Crown, and the Interest thereof, or in satisfaction and discharge of such Part of the said Monies and Interest as the Funds already applicable to the Discharge thereof shall be insufficient to pay; and the Surplus, if any, of the said Sum of One hundred and seventy-six thousand Pounds so to be charged as aforesaid, and of any Monies to be borrowed on the Credit thereof, shall be applied by the said Commissioners in and towards the Execution of such further Improvements in the Metropolis as shall be sanctioned by any future Act of Parliament.

Application of Monies subject to such Advances.

VI. And be it enacted, That all Mortgages, Bonds, Deeds, and other Instruments to be given to or executed by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, under the Powers or Authorities of this Act, shall have the same Exemption from Stamp Duty, and be subject to the same Regulations as to Inrolment, and otherwise, as if the same had been given or executed under the Powers or Authorities of the recited Acts or any of them.

Exemptions from Stamp Duty under former Acts extended to this Act.

VII. And be it enacted, That for the Purposes of completing the Improvement from Farringdon Street to Coppice Row, Clerkenwell, it shall be lawful for the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons in Common Council assembled to borrow and raise any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Eighty-eight thousand Pounds, upon the Credit of the Fund created, increased, and continued by the several before-recited Acts and this Act, at any Rate of Interest not exceeding Four Pounds per Cent., and such Monies so to be raised shall be paid into the Chamber of the said City of London by such Instalments, in such Proportions, at such Times, and in such Manner as the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons in Common Council assembled shall direct.

VIII. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted, That the said Sum of One hundred and seventy-six thousand Pounds to be charged by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings on the said Fund as aforesaid shall have Priority over the said last-mentioned Sum of Eighty-eight thousand Pounds, and shall be paid off and discharged before any Part of the said Sum of Eighty-eight thousand Pounds is discharged.

Priority of 176,000*l.*

IX. And be it enacted, That for securing the Repayment of any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Eighty-eight thousand Pounds, which may be borrowed from any Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, Person or Persons, with Interest for the same, the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons in Common Council assembled shall and they are hereby required to cause One or more Bond or Bonds, Writing or Writings, or Obligations to be executed under the Common Seal of the said City for Payment of an Annuity or Annuities equal to the Amount of such Interest as aforesaid, no such Annuity being less than Four Pounds, to be payable half-yearly, and to continue until Redemption thereof by Payment of the Principal Sum or Sums in respect of which the said Annuities shall respectively have been granted; and the necessary Charges and Expenses of such Bond or Bonds or Securities shall be defrayed out of the Monies to be received by virtue of this Act.

Corporation to execute Bonds for securing Repayment of Money.

X. And be it enacted, That the said Bond or Bonds shall be assignable by Indorsement, and the Annuity or Annuities thereby respectively secured shall be made payable to the Chamberlain of the said City of London for the Time being, and he shall forthwith indorse and deliver the same to the Person or Persons who shall advance or contribute the Sum or Sums of Money in respect of which the same respectively shall be given, and the Receipts of such Persons respectively shall be valid Discharges for the same.

Bonds to be assignable by Indorsement.

XI And be it enacted, That the Fund created, increased, and continued as aforesaid by the said recited Acts and this Act shall be and the same is hereby charged and made chargeable with the Annuities which shall be secured by the Bond or Bonds to be executed as aforesaid.

Fund charged with the Annuities

XII. And

The Fund continued until the Sums charged thereon by this Act are paid.

XII. And be it enacted, That all such several and respective Funds constituting or forming Part of the said Fund created, increased, and continued as aforesaid as are not permanent, after all the Principal Sums and Interest charged or raised and borrowed, and all the Annuities charged upon the said Fund, and now due and owing, have been paid off and discharged, shall be and are hereby continued until the Annuities and Sums charged and to be charged thereon, or raised on the Credit thereof, by virtue of this Act, shall be paid off and discharged.

Surpluses of the Fund how to be applied.

XIII. And be it enacted, That out of the said Fund created, increased, and continued as aforesaid (but subject to the Payment of the several Annuities which are and shall be payable in respect of the several Principal Sums borrowed and raised upon the Credit of the said Fund by virtue of any Act or Acts already passed and now in force), the Interest and Annuities payable and to be paid in respect of the said Sums of One hundred and seventy-six thousand Pounds and Eighty-eight thousand Pounds authorized to be charged or raised by virtue of this Act shall be paid from Time to Time as the same shall grow due before any Part of the Surpluses shall be applied in Redemption of the Annuities and the Payment of the Principal Monies already charged on the said Fund, and the Residue of such Surpluses, after such Payments as by this Act or any Act or Acts of Parliament already passed and now in force are directed to be made out of the same, shall, at the End of every Quarter of a Year, or oftener, be applied, by Order of the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons in Common Council assembled (which Orders they are hereby authorized and directed to make), by the Chamberlain of the said City for the Time being, towards the Repayment of the Principal Monies and the Redemption of all and singular the Annuities payable in respect of the Sum or Sums of Money by this Act authorized to be charged on the said Fund, in such Order and Course as the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons in Common Council assembled shall think proper.

The Sums of 176,000*l.* and 88,000*l.* not to have Priority over Sums charged by former Acts.

XIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That, as far as regards the Fund created, increased, and continued as aforesaid, nothing in this Act contained shall give Priority of Charge to the Payment of the Principal of the before-mentioned several Sums of One hundred and seventy-six thousand Pounds and Eighty-eight thousand Pounds, herein-before authorized to be raised as aforesaid, or either of them, over any Sum or Sums of Money and Interest already charged or authorized to be charged on the said Fund by any Act or Acts of Parliament already passed and now in force.

Upon Notice of Redemption of the Annuities and Tender of the Monies Annuities to cease.

XV. And be it enacted, That the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons in Common Council assembled shall give or cause to be given Notice in the London Gazette, and also in Two or more daily Papers published in the City of London or Westminster, of their Intention to redeem such Annuities as shall by virtue of this Act be granted in respect of any Sum or Sums of Money to be advanced by virtue of this Act, and at the End of Six Calendar Months next after such Notice shall be given, upon Payment or Tender of the respective Sums for which such Annuities shall have been granted, together with a proportionate Part of the same Annuities respectively up to the Day of such Payment or Tender, to or for the Person or Persons then entitled thereto, at the Office of the Chamberlain of the said City for the Time being in the Guildhall of the same City, the Annuity or Annuities payable to such Person or Persons respectively shall cease and determine: Provided nevertheless, that such Person or Persons, at any Time after such Notice shall have been given as aforesaid, and before the End of the said Six Calendar Months, shall, at the Expiration of Fourteen Days next after a Declaration in Writing of his, her, or their Intention to receive the same shall have been delivered at the said Office (such Declaration being delivered between the Hours of Ten in the Morning and Two in the Afternoon), be paid at the said Office the Sum or Sums for which such Annuity or Annuities respectively shall have been granted, together with a proportionate Part of the same Annuity or Annuities respectively up to the Day expressed in such Declaration for receiving the same, and such Annuity or Annuities respectively shall on the Day specified in such Declaration for Payment cease and determine.

Deficiencies to be paid out of the Chamber of London.

XVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if the said Fund shall at any Time hereafter prove insufficient to pay the same Annuities which shall be payable by virtue of this Act, then and in every such Case, and so often as the same shall happen, the Sum which shall be wanting to complete the Payment of such Annuities shall be advanced and paid out of the Chamber of the said City, and be made good and supplied out of the future Surpluses of the said Fund.

Securities to be entered in Book.

XVII. And be it enacted, That the Chamberlain of the said City for the Time being shall enter in a Book or Books to be kept for that Purpose the Bond or Bonds and Annuity or Annuities to be granted in pursuance of this Act, and shall keep distinct Account of the Monies raised in respect of the said Sum of Eighty-eight thousand Pounds, and all Assignments and Transfers thereof, expressing in Words at Length the Names, Surnames, Additions, Places of Abode, and other Descriptions of such Person or Persons as shall from Time to Time be entitled to such Bond or Bonds, to which Book or Books all and every Person and Persons entitled to or interested in such Annuity or Annuities shall at all reasonable Times in the Daytime have Access, with free Liberty to inspect the same without Fee or Reward.

This Act not to affect any of the City's present Creditors.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to lessen or affect the Security of any of the present Creditors of the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens further or otherwise than is herein expressly directed.

Chamberlain to keep Account of Receipts and Disbursements.

XIX. And be it enacted, That from Time to Time there shall be provided and kept by the Chamberlain of the said City for the Time being One or more Book or Books in which all the Sum or Sums of Money which shall be raised or received by virtue of this Act shall from Time to Time, as the same shall be received, be entered and set down, and wherein also all the Monies to be paid and disbursed out of the Sum or Sums of Money to be raised or received as aforesaid shall from Time to Time be entered entered and set down; and such Entry shall express the Time when, the Occasion for which, and the Names of the Persons to whom the same respectively shall be paid.

Accounts to be yearly laid before Parliament.

XX. And be it enacted, That there shall be yearly laid before each House of Parliament a true Account of the Receipts and Application of the Sums of Money which shall be raised by virtue of this Act.

Application of ultimate Surplus of "The London Bridge Approaches Fund."

XXI. And be it enacted, That after full Payment and Satisfaction of all and singular the Principal Monies and Interest by the said recited Acts and this Act authorized to be charged thereon, or raised or borrowed on the Credit thereof, the Residue or Surplus of the said several Duties, annual Sums, Fees, and Revenues constituting the said Fund called "The London Bridge Approaches Fund," shall, during the Continuance thereof, be applied to the opening of an improved Line of Communication between Coventry Street and Covent Garden, according to a Plan to be hereafter approved and sanctioned by Parliament: Provided nevertheless, that nothing contained in this Act, or in the Charges to be made on the said Fund under the Authority of this Act, shall operate or enure to extend or continue the said Duties on Coal and Wines, annual Sums, Fees, and Revenues, or either of them, beyond the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

Public Act.

XXII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be deemed a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such.

CAP. CIV.

An Act to extend and amend the Acts relating to the Copyright of Designs.

[14th August 1850.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to extend and amend the Acts relating to the Copyright of Designs:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same:

Certain Designs may be registered provisionally for One Year.

I. That the Registrar of Designs, upon Application by or on behalf of the Proprietor of any Design not previously published within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland or elsewhere, and which may be registered under the Designs Act, 1842, or under the Designs Act, 1843, for the provisional Registration of such Design under this Act, and upon being furnished with such Copy, Drawing, Print, or Description in Writing or in Print as in the Judgment of the said Registrar shall be sufficient to identify the particular Design in respect of which such Registration is desired, and the Name of the Person claiming to be Proprietor, together with his Place of Abode or Business, or other Place of Address, or the Style or Title of the Firm under which he may be trading, shall register such Design in such Manner and Form as shall from Time to Time be prescribed or approved by the Board of Trade; and any Design so registered shall be deemed "provisionally registered," and the Registration thereof shall continue in force for the Term of One Year from the Time of the same being registered as aforesaid; and the said Registrar shall certify, under his Hand and Seal of Office, in such Form as the said Board shall direct or approve, that the Design has been provisionally registered, the Date of such Registration, and the Name of the registered Proprietor, together with his Place of Abode or Business, or other Place of Address.

Benefits conferred by provisional Registration.

II. That the Proprietor of any Design which shall have been provisionally registered shall, during the Continuance of such Registration, have the sole Right and Property in such Design; and the Penalties and Provisions of the said Designs Act, 1842, for preventing the Piracy of Designs, shall extend to the Acts, Matters, and Things next herein-after enumerated, as fully as if those Penalties and Provisions had been re-enacted in this Act, and expressly extended to such Acts, Matters, and Things respectively; that is to say,

1. To the Application of any provisionally registered Design or any fraudulent Imitation thereof, to any Article of Manufacture or to any Substance.
2. To the Publication, Sale, or Exposure for Sale of any Article of Manufacture or any Substance to which any provisionally registered Design shall have been applied.

The Exhibition of provisionally registered Design in certain Places not to defeat Copyright, &c.

III. That during the Continuance of such provisional Registration neither such Registration nor the Exhibition or Exposure of any Design provisionally registered, or of any Article to which any such Design may have been or be intended to be applied, in any Place, whether public or private, in which Articles are not sold or exposed or exhibited for Sale, and to which the Public are not admitted gratuitously, or in any Place which shall have been previously certified by the Board of Trade to be a Place of public Exhibition within the Meaning of this Act, nor the Publication of any Account or Description of any provisionally registered Design exhibited or exposed or intended to be exhibited or exposed in any such Place of Exhibition or Exposure in any Catalogue, Paper, Newspaper, Periodical, or otherwise, shall prevent the Proprietor thereof from registering any such Design under the said Designs Acts at any Time during the Continuance of the provisional Registration, in the same Manner and as fully and effectually as if no such Registration, Exhibition, Exposure, or Publication had been made; provided that every Article to which any such Design shall be applied, and which shall be exhibited or exposed by or with the Licence or Consent of the Proprietor of such Design, shall have thereon or attached thereto the Words "provisionally registered," with the Date of Registration.

Sale of Articles to which Design has been ap-

IV. That if during the Continuance of such provisional Registration the Proprietor of any Design provisionally registered shall sell, expose, or offer for Sale any Article, Substance, or Thing to which any such plied to defeat Copyright, but Design itself may be sold.

such Design has been applied, such provisional Registration shall be deemed to have been null and void immediately before any such Sale, Offer, or Exposure shall have been first made; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to hinder or prevent such Proprietor from selling or transferring the Right and Property in any such Design.

Extension of Period of provisional Registration by Board of Trade.

V. That the Board of Trade may by Order in Writing with respect to any particular Class of Designs, or any particular Design, extend the Period for which any Design may be provisionally registered under this Act, for such Term not exceeding the additional Term of Six Months as to the said Board may seem fit; and whenever any such Order shall be made the same shall be registered in the Office for the Registration of Designs, and during the extended Term the Protection and Benefits conferred by this Act in case of provisional Registration shall continue as fully as if the original Term of One Year had not expired.

Registration of Sculpture, Models, &c.

VI. That the Registrar of Designs, upon Application by or on behalf of the Proprietor of any Sculpture, Model, Copy, or Cast within the Protection of the Sculpture Copyright Acts, and upon being furnished with such Copy, Drawing, Print, or Description, in Writing or in Print, as in the Judgment of the said Registrar shall be sufficient to identify the particular Sculpture, Model, Copy, or Cast in respect of which Registration is desired, and the Name of the Person claiming to be Proprietor, together with his Place of Abode or Business or other Place of Address, or the Name, Style, or Title of the Firm under which he may be trading, shall register such Sculpture, Model, Copy, or Cast in such Manner and Form as shall from Time to Time be prescribed or approved by the Board of Trade for the whole or any Part of the Term during which Copyright in such Sculpture, Model, Copy, or Cast may or shall exist under the Sculpture Copyright Acts; and whenever any such Registration shall be made, the said Registrar shall certify under his Hand and Seal of Office, in such Form as the said Board shall direct or approve, the Fact of such Registration, and the Date of the same, and the Name of the registered Proprietor, or the Style or Title of the Firm under which such Proprietor may be trading, together with his Place of Abode or Business or other Place of Address.

Benefits conferred by Registration of Sculpture, &c.

VII. That if any Person shall, during the Continuance of the Copyright in any Sculpture, Model, Copy, or Cast which shall have been so registered as aforesaid, make, import, or cause to be made, imported, exposed for Sale, or otherwise disposed of, any pirated Copy or pirated Cast of any such Sculpture, Model, Copy, or Cast, in such Manner and under such Circumstances as would entitle the Proprietor to a special Action on the Case under the Sculpture Copyright Acts, the Person so offending shall forfeit for every such Offence a Sum not less than Five Pounds and not exceeding Thirty Pounds to the Proprietor of the Sculpture, Model, Copy, or Cast whereof the Copyright shall have been infringed; and for the Recovery of any such Penalty the Proprietor of the Sculpture, Model, Copy, or Cast which shall have been so pirated shall have and be entitled to the same Remedies as are provided for the Recovery of Penalties incurred under the Designs Act, 1842: Provided always, that the Proprietor of any Sculpture, Model, Copy, or Cast which shall be registered under this Act shall not be entitled to the Benefit of this Act, unless every Copy or Cast of such Sculpture, Model, Copy, or Cast which shall be published by him after such Registration shall be marked with the Word "registered," and with the Date of Registration.

Designs for ornamenting Ivory, &c. may be registered under Designs Act, 1842.

VIII. That Designs for the ornamenting of Ivory, Bone, Papier Maché, and other solid Substances not already comprised in the Classes numbered 1, 2, or 3 in the Designs Act, 1842, shall be deemed and taken to be comprised within the Class numbered 4 in that Act, and such Designs shall be so registered accordingly.

Board of Trade may extend Copyright in ornamental Designs.

IX. That the Board of Trade may from Time to Time order that the Copyright of any Class of Designs or any particular Design registered or which may be registered under the Designs Act, 1842, may be extended for such Term, not exceeding the additional Term of Three Years, as the said Board may think fit, and the said Board shall have Power to revoke or alter any such Order as may from Time to Time appear necessary; and whenever any Order shall be made by the said Board under this Provision, the same shall be registered in the Office for the Registration of Designs; and during the extended Term the Protection and Benefits conferred by the said Designs Acts shall continue as fully as if the original Term had not expired.

Regulations for the Registration of Designs may be made by Board of Trade.

X. That the Board of Trade may from Time to Time make, alter, and revoke Rules and Regulations with respect to the Mode of Registration, and the Documents and other Matters and Particulars to be furnished by Persons effecting Registration and provisional Registration under the said Acts and this Act: Provided always, that all such Rules and Regulations shall be published in the "London Gazette," and shall forthwith upon the issuing thereof be laid before Parliament, if Parliament be sitting, and if Parliament be not sitting, then within Fourteen Days after the Commencement of the then next Session; and such Rules and Regulations, or any of them, shall be published or notified by the Registrar of Designs in such other Manner as the Board of Trade shall think fit to direct.

Registrar of Designs may dispense with Drawings, &c. in certain Cases.

XI. That if in any Case in which the Registration of a Design is required to be made under either of the said Designs Acts it shall appear to the Registrar that Copies, Drawings, or Prints as required by those Acts cannot be furnished, or that it is unreasonable or unnecessary to require the same, the said Registrar may dispense with such Copies, Drawings, or Prints, and may allow in lieu thereof such Specification or Description in Writing or in Print as may be sufficient to identify and render intelligible the Design in respect of which Registration is desired; and whenever Registration shall be so made in the Absence of such Copies, Drawings, or Prints, the Registration shall be as valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes as if such Copies, Drawings, or Prints had been furnished.

XII. That

Public Books, &c. in Designs Office not to be removed without Judge's Order.

XII. That in order to prevent the frequent and unnecessary Removal of the public Books and Documents in the Office for the Registration of Designs, no Book or Document in the said Office shall be removed for the Purpose of being produced in any Court or before any Justice of the Peace, without a special Order of a Judge of the Court of Chancery, or of One of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Law, first had and obtained by the Party who shall desire the Production of the same.

Judges may order Copies of Documents to be furnished to be given in Evidence.

XIII. That if Application shall be made to a Judge of any of Her Majesty's Courts of Law at Westminster by any Person desiring to obtain a Copy of any Registration, Entry, Drawing, Print, or Document, of which such Person is not entitled as of Right to have a Copy, for the Purpose of being used in Evidence in any Cause, or otherwise howsoever, and if such Judge shall be satisfied that such Copy is bonâ fide intended for such Purpose as aforesaid, such Judge shall order the Registrar of Designs to deliver such Copy to the Party applying, and the Registrar of Designs shall, upon Payment for the same of such Fee or Fees as may be fixed according to the Provisions of the said Designs Act in this Behalf, deliver such Copy accordingly.

Copies of Documents delivered by the Registrar to be sealed, and to be Evidence.

XIV. That every Copy of any Registration, Entry, Drawing, Print, or Document delivered by the Registrar of Designs to any Person requiring the same shall be signed by the said Registrar, and sealed with his Seal of Office; and every Document sealed with the said Seal, purporting to be a Copy of any Registration, Entry, Drawing, Print, or Document, shall be deemed to be a true Copy of such Registration, Entry, Drawing, Print, or Document, and shall, without further Proof, be received in Evidence before all Courts in like Manner and to the same Extent and Effect as the original Book, Registration, Entry, Drawing, Print, or Document would or might be received if tendered in Evidence, as well for the Purpose of proving the Contents, Purport, and Effect of such Book, Registration, Entry, Drawing, Print, or Document, as also proving the same to be a Book, Registration, Entry, Drawing, Print, or Document of or belonging to the said Office, and in the Custody of the Registrar of Designs.

Certain Provisions of Designs Acts 1842 and 1843 extended to this Act.

XV. That the several Provisions contained in the said Designs Acts (so far as they are not repugnant to the Provisions of this Act) relating to the Transfer of Designs, to cancelling and amending Registration, to the Refusal of Registration in certain Cases, to the Mode of recovering Penalties, to the awarding and Recovery of Costs, to Actions for Damages, to the Limitation of Actions, to the Certificate of Registration, to Penalties for wrongfully using Marks, to the fixing and Application of Fees for Registration, and to the Penalty for Extortion, shall apply to the Registration, provisional Registration, and Transfer of Designs, Sculptures, Models, Copies, and Casts, and to the Designs, Sculptures, Models, Copies, and Casts entitled to Protection under this Act, and to Matters under this Act, as fully and effectually as if those Provisions had been re-enacted in this Act with respect to Designs, Sculptures, Models, Copies, and Casts registered and provisionally registered under this Act; and the Forms contained in the Designs Act, 1842, may for the Purposes of this Act be varied so as to meet the Circumstances of the Case.

Interpretation of Terms.

XVI. That in the Interpretation of this Act the following Terms and Expressions shall have the Meanings herein-after assigned to them, unless such Meanings shall be repugnant to or inconsistent with the Context or Subject Matter; that is to say,

The Expression "Designs Act, 1842," shall mean an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Copyright of Designs for ornamenting Articles of Manufacture:

The Expression "Designs Act, 1843," shall mean an Act passed in the Seventh Year of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Copyright of Designs:

The Expression "Sculpture Copyright Acts" shall mean Two Acts passed respectively in the Thirty-eighth and Fifty-fourth Years of the Reign of King George the Third, and intituled respectively An Act for encouraging the Art of making new Models and Casts of Busts and other Things herein mentioned, and An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act for encouraging the Art of making new Models and Casts of Busts and other Things therein mentioned:

The Expression "the Board of Trade" shall mean the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for the Consideration of all Matters of Trade and Plantations:

The Expression "Registrar of Designs" shall mean the Registrar or Assistant Registrar of Designs for Articles of Manufacture:

The Expression "Proprietor" shall be construed according to the Interpretation of that Word in the said Designs Act, 1842:

And Words in the Singular Number shall include the Plural, and Words applicable to Males shall include Females.

Short Title.

XVII. That in citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament, and in any Instrument, Document, or Proceeding, it shall be sufficient to use the Words and Figures following, that is to say, "The Designs Act, 1850."

CAP. CV.

An Act for facilitating the Union of Liberties with the Counties in which they are situate.

[14th August 1850.]

'WHEREAS divers Liberties (having separate Commissions of the Peace, and not being incorporated Boroughs,) have been constituted in England and Wales, and it is expedient to enable 'a Union of such Liberties to be made with the Counties in which they are situate:' Be it therefore enacted enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That where it shall seem expedient to the Justices of any Liberty, or to the Justices of the County in which any Liberty is situate, that the Union of the Liberty with the County in which the same is situated should be effected under this Act, it shall be lawful for such Justices, in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, to resolve that a Petition shall be presented to Her Majesty, praying that such Union take place, and thereupon to adjourn the further Consideration of such Petition until Notice thereof shall be given as herein-after provided.

Petition for Union of Liberty with County.

Preparation of Petition.

II. And be it enacted, That previously to the Consideration of any such Petition Notice of the Resolution of such Justices shall be advertised in a London Newspaper, and also in some Newspaper circulating in the County to which the Liberty is proposed to be united, for Three successive Weeks, and shall also (unless the Clerk of the Peace of the County and of the Liberty is the same Person) be given to the Clerk of the Peace of the County, in case the Resolution shall be the Resolution of the Justices of the Liberty, or, in case the Resolution shall be the Resolution of the Justices of the County, to the Clerk of the Peace of the Liberty, and such Notice shall be so advertised and given by the Clerk of the Peace of the County or Liberty the Justices of which shall come to the Resolution, and shall mention the Time and Place when the Petition for Union will be taken into consideration by the Justices of the County or Liberty coming to the Resolution; and the said Justices shall confer with any Person who shall attend the Meeting of the said Justices for that Purpose, and who shall appear to the said Justices to be interested in the Matter of the said Petition, touching the said Petition, and such other Circumstances as shall appear to the said Justices fit to be considered in effecting a Union of the Liberty with the County under the Provisions of this Act; and such Petition (which shall set forth the Reasons upon which the same is founded, and also the Terms and Conditions upon or under which it is desired that the Union shall take place, and particularly the Mode in which the Gaol and other Property of the Liberty, and the Debt, if any, charged on the Rates of such Liberty, is proposed to be dealt with, and the Nature and Amount of Compensation, if any, to be paid to any Custos Rotulorum, hereditary Sheriff, Clerk of the Peace, Coroner, Treasurer, or other Person holding or entitled to any permanent Franchise or Office in or belonging to the said Liberty, and in what Manner such Compensation is proposed to be raised and paid, and such other Matters and Things as are proper to be provided for, on the Union of the Liberty with the County,) shall be certified to Her Majesty under the Hand of the Chairman of the Justices present when such Petition shall be agreed to.

Union of Liberty with County.

III. And be it enacted, That where Petitions as aforesaid, as well of the Justices of the County as of any Liberty situate therein, shall be certified as aforesaid to Her Majesty, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if She shall think fit, with the Advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration such Petitions and also any other Petition which may be presented to Her by any Person concerning any proposed Union of the Liberty with the County, to order the Union of such Liberty with the County, from such Time, upon such Terms and Conditions, and subject to such Restrictions, and generally in such Manner, as to Her Majesty, with the Advice aforesaid, shall seem expedient; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the Advice aforesaid, to constitute such Liberty a separate Hundred, or to annex the same to any existing Hundred or in Parts to existing Hundreds of such County; and every such Order, herein-after referred to as the "Order of Union," shall be published in the London Gazette.

After Union no separate Commission of the Peace to issue for Liberty.

IV. And be it enacted, That from and after the Time mentioned in any such Order of Union for the Union of any Liberty with the County in which it is situate, under the Provisions of this Act, save so far as otherwise directed by such Order, and subject to the Provisions thereof, such Liberty shall be taken to be in all respects Part of the County to which the same is united under such Order, and shall be subject to the Jurisdiction of the Justices of such County, and the Jurisdiction and Powers of any Justices under any separate Commission of the Peace theretofore issued for such Liberty shall cease, and no separate Commission of the Peace shall be issued and no separate Sessions of the Peace shall be holden for any such Liberty, any Law, Statute, Letters Patent, Grant, or Charter whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding; and the Sessions to be holden in and for the County shall have full Jurisdiction over all Things cognizable by the Sessions for the Liberty, and the Caption and Venue in every Indictment or other Proceeding shall be in the County, without naming the Liberty; and the Inhabitants of the Liberty shall, being duly qualified to serve upon Juries under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws relating to Jurors and Juries, be returned and be liable to serve on Juries at the Sessions of the Peace for the County.

County Sessions to have Jurisdiction in Liberty.

Inhabitants of Liberty to serve on Juries for County.

Gaol of Liberty to become Gaol of County.

V. And be it enacted, That, unless otherwise directed by the Order of Union, and subject to the Provisions thereof, the Gaol belonging to the Liberty shall upon the Union of the Liberty with the County be a Common Gaol for the County, and shall be under the Control and Management of the Justices of such County; and all Laws and Enactments in force with respect to a County Gaol, or to Persons imprisoned in a County Gaol, shall be in force with respect to any and every Gaol at the Time of such Union belonging to the Liberty, and to the Persons imprisoned therein.

Prisoners to be tried at Sessions for united County and Liberty, and,

VI. And be it enacted, That, save where otherwise directed by the Order of Union, and subject to the Provisions and Directions thereof, every Person who shall at the Time of the Union stand committed to take his Trial at any Court of Gaol Delivery, General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, for the Liberty, charged with any Offence which the Justices of the Liberty would have had Jurisdiction to try, shall take his Trial at the next Court of Quarter Sessions for the County to which such Liberty is united, if the Offence is cognizable by a Court of Quarter Sessions, and if not, then before the Judges of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery at their next Circuit; and all Persons bound by Recognizance to prosecute and give Evidence against such Offenders shall be bound to appear to prosecute and give Evidence at the Court at which such Offenders shall be tried as aforesaid; and all such Recognizances, and all Depositions relating to such Charges, shall be transmitted to the proper Officer of the Court where such Offenders shall be tried; and the Sheriff, Under Sheriff, Gaolers, and other Officers of the County in which such Offenders shall be so tried are hereby authorized and required in every such Case to receive every Prisoner delivered into the Custody of the Sheriff or removed to the Gaol of the County, and him safely keep until delivered in due Course of Law; and the Judges of Assize and others named in Her Majesty's Commission of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, or the Justices of the County, as the Case may be, in which such Offenders shall be tried, are hereby authorized and required to hear and determine all such Cases, and to order the Payment of the usual and fit Expenses of the Prosecutors and Witnesses, and all other Costs and Expenses which in like Case may be directed to be paid by Order of Court. where necessary, at Assizes.

VII. And be it enacted, That the Custos Rotulorum of every County to which any Liberty shall be united under the Provisions of this Act shall, unless otherwise directed by the Order of Union, become the Keeper of Records of the Court of Sessions of the Peace of the said Liberty, and the Records of the said Court shall be delivered to such Custos Rotulorum accordingly. Records to be delivered to Custos Rotulorum of County.

VIII. And be it enacted, That, save where otherwise directed by the Order of Union, and subject to the Provisions of such Order, the Treasurer for the Liberty shall, upon the Union of the Liberty with the County, pay over to the Treasurer of the County all Monies in his Hands of or belonging to the Liberty; and the Treasurer of the County shall stand possessed of and shall apply all such Monies for such Purposes as the Order of Union shall direct, and, in default of such Direction, as Part of the County Stock; and, subject to the Provisions of the Order of Union, all such Sums as may be required to be raised and paid, for Compensation or otherwise, under such Order, and may not be paid out of the said Monies in the Hands of the Treasurer of the Liberty, shall be defrayed out of the County Stock, and shall be raised and paid at such Times and in such Manner as the Justices of the County in General or Quarter Sessions assembled shall direct. Treasurer of Liberty to pay over Monies to Treasurer of County.

IX. And be it enacted, That in this Act the Word "Liberty" shall be taken to mean also Division of a County, Town and County, and Soke; and the Word "Gaol" shall be taken to mean also Prison or House of Correction; and in describing any Person or Thing any Word importing the Singular Number shall be construed to mean also several Persons or Things respectively, unless there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction. Interpretation of Terms.

X. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where any Borough Corporate or other Corporate Place, or any Part thereof, is situate within any Liberty united with any County under this Act, such Borough or Place, or Part thereof, as aforesaid, from the Time of such Union (save as otherwise directed by the Order of Union) shall be deemed to be within and Part of such County for all Purposes for which before such Union it was within and Part of such Liberty; and such Borough or Place, or Part thereof, and such County respectively, in relation to each other and the Inhabitants and others in respect thereof, shall have and be subject to the like Rights, Privileges, Liabilities, and Jurisdiction which such Borough or Place, or Part thereof, and such Liberty respectively, had and were subject to before such Union; and, save as aforesaid, no Borough or other Corporate Place named in either of the Schedules to the Act of the Sixth Year of King William the Fourth, "to provide for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations "in England and Wales," or to which the Provisions of that Act have been extended by Charter or Act of Parliament, shall be subject to the Provisions of this Act. Boroughs within Liberties.

XI. And be it enacted, That this Act shall not extend to the Borough of Southwark, to Scotland, or Ireland. Limits of Act.

XII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament. Act may be amended, &c.

CAP. CIX.

An Act to enlarge and extend the Powers of an Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to enable the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods to construct a new Street from Spitalfields to Shoreditch. [15th August 1850.]

8 & 9 Vict. c. 101.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to continue until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two the Acts for regulating the Vend and Delivery of Coals in London and Westminster and in certain Parts of the adjacent Counties, and to alter and amend the said Acts, it was among other things enacted, that in order to provide a Fund for the opening of poor and densely populated Districts in the Metropolis, and for keeping open Spaces in the immediate Vicinity of the same, the Duty of One Penny per Ton on Coals, Culm, and Cinders brought near London by the Grand Junction or Paddington Canals or by the River Thames, imposed by an Act of the First and Second Years of King William the Fourth, and by the Act now in recital and other Acts extended to Coals, Culm, and Cinders brought near London by Railway, Inland Navigation, or other Mode of Conveyance, should after the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and forty-five be applied to the Creation of a Fund for the Execution of such Improvements in the Metropolis as Parliament might thereafter direct or sanction; and it was also enacted, that after the said Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and forty-five the said Duty of One Penny per Ton on Coals, Culm, and Cinders so imposed and extended as aforesaid should, from Time to Time when and as received, be invested in the Purchase of Stock in some of the Public Stocks or Funds, or upon Government or Real Securities, at Interest, in the Names of the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, to an Account to be intituled "The Metropolis Improvement Fund Account," and that the said Commissioners should from Time to Time invest the yearly Dividends or Interest of the Stocks, Funds, and Securities so to be purchased in their Names on the Account aforesaid in like Manner for the Purpose of Accumulation in the meantime and until the said Fund should be required for and appropriated by Parliament to the Execution of Improvements in the Metropolis: And whereas by another Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to enable the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods to construct a new Street from Spitalfields to

9 & 10 Vict. c. 34.

Shoreditch,

'Shoreditch, after reciting, among other things, that in pursuance of the said herein-before in part 'recited Act the Monies received from the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred 'and forty-five to the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in respect 'of the said Duty of One Penny per Ton on Coals, Cinders, and Culm so created, imposed, and 'extended as aforesaid, had been laid out and vested in the Names of the said Commissioners in the 'Purchase of Three thousand and thirty-one Pounds Seven Shillings and Eight-pence Three Pounds 'per Cent. Consolidated Bank Annuities, and such Annuities were then standing in the Names of the 'said Commissioners on the Account directed by the said Act, and reciting that by an Act passed in 'the Session held in the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to enable 3 & 4 Vict. c. 87. 'Her Majesty's Commissioners of Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings to make 'additional Thoroughfares in the Metropolis, the said Commissioners were empowered, out of certain 'Monies and Funds therein specified, to form several new Streets and Improvements therein particularly 'mentioned, and, among others, a new Street from the London Docks to Spitalfields Church, and reciting 'that the Commissioners appointed by Her Majesty to inquire into and consider the most effectual Means 'of improving the Metropolis, and of providing increased Facilities of Communication within the same, 'had by their Report, dated the Twenty-third Day of April One thousand eight hundred and forty-'five, (which had been laid before both Houses of Parliament by Her Majesty's Command,) humbly 'recommended to Her Majesty that, out of any Monies to be thereafter raised as a Fund for Metro-'politan Improvements, Provision should be made for the Completion of a Line of Street from Spital-'fields Church to the Station of the Eastern Counties Railway in Shoreditch, in continuation of the 'new Street and Improvement then in progress of Formation by the said Commissioners of Her 'Majesty's Woods under the Authority of the Act last therein-before recited, and that Her Majesty had 'been pleased to approve of the Recommendation of the said Commissioners, and that it was expedient 'in accordance therewith that the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, 'Works, and Buildings should be empowered to form and open (in continuation of the Street from 'the London Docks to Spitalfields Church therein-before mentioned) a new Street and Thorough-'fare from the North End of Commercial Street, Spitalfields, into Shoreditch, adjoining the Terminus 'of the Northern and Eastern Counties Railway, and for the Purpose of providing a Fund to enable the 'said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings to effect 'the Objects aforesaid it was expedient that the said Commissioners should be authorized to raise out of 'or to charge the said Funds and Duties by the said recited Act of the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her 'Majesty's Reign made applicable to the Improvement of the Metropolis as herein-before is mentioned 'with a Sum or Sums not exceeding in the whole the Sum of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds; 'it was by the said Act now in recital enacted, that it should be lawful for the Commissioners of Her 'Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being, and they were 'thereby authorized and empowered, to make, form, and complete the said intended new Street from the 'North End of Commercial Street, Spitalfields, into Shoreditch, and to carry the Purposes of the said 'Act into execution in manner therein-after mentioned, and according to a Plan which had been sub-'mitted to and approved by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the said Commissioners 'of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings were thereby incorporated for 'the Purposes of the said Act; and it was enacted, that for providing a Fund for the Purposes of the 'said Act it should be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord 'High Treasurer or of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer, from Time 'to Time or at any One Time, to levy and raise by the Sale of the whole or any Portion of the Stocks, 'Funds, and Securities from Time to Time constituting the said Fund called "The Metropolis Improve-'ment Fund," so created or appropriated by the said Act of the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her 'present Majesty as aforesaid, or by Charge upon all and singular the Duties and Revenue in and by 'the same Act made applicable to the Formation of such Fund, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceed-'ing in the whole the Sum of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, together with Interest on the 'Sum or Sums to be charged from the Time of charging the same not exceeding Five Pounds per Cent. 'per Annum; and it was enacted, that the Duties and Revenue so to be charged as aforesaid should be 'paid and applied in satisfaction and discharge of all Monies to be charged thereon by the said Commis-'sioners as aforesaid, and the Interest thereof, in such Manner and from Time to Time as the same 'should be received, and as the said Commissioners should direct; and it was further enacted, that for the 'Purposes of the said Act it should be lawful for the said Commissioners, with such Consent and Approba-'tion as aforesaid, to borrow and raise any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum 'of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds upon the Credit of the said Monies and Interest so made 'chargeable as aforesaid, and thereupon to assign and dispose of such Monies and Interest in such Shares, 'and by way of Debenture or otherwise, and with such Priorities, and in such Manner, as the same 'Commissioners should think fit, as a Security for the Monies so to be borrowed; and it was further 'enacted, that for the Purpose of laying down and constructing the said intended new Street the said 'Commissioners for executing the Act now in recital should have the same Powers, Authorities, 'Privileges, and Exemptions as in and by the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of Her present 'Majesty were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, 'and Buildings, for the Purpose of or with reference to the laying down and constructing the several 'new Streets and Improvements therein specified, so far as the same should be applicable to the said 'intended new Street, and also that all Powers authorizing incapacitated Persons to convey in the said

'Act contained should extend to all the Lands and Hereditaments to be taken under the Act now in recital, 'and that all and singular the Enactments, Exemptions from Stamp Duties, and Provisions in the said 'before-mentioned Act contained should be construed in all respects as if the said Act had been 'passed for the Purpose of authorizing the laying down and Construction of the new Street by the 'Act now in recital authorized to be laid down and constructed, and for the Purchase and taking 'of Hereditaments, and for the leasing, selling, managing, and disposing of the Hereditaments to 'be taken, and the Buildings to be erected thereon, and as if the Hereditaments comprised in the 'Schedule to the Act now in recital had been comprised in the Schedule to the said Act of the Third 'and Fourth Years of Her present Majesty, and as if the Monies authorized to be raised by the Act 'now in recital had been authorized to be raised by the said last before-mentioned Act, and as if 'the said Street by the Act now in recital authorized to be made had been by the said before-'mentioned Act authorized to be made, except that with respect to any Monies payable into the Bank 'of England the same should be paid to the Account of the Accountant General of the Court of 'Chancery, in like Manner as Monies were by the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of Her 'present Majesty directed to be paid to the Account of the Accountant General of the Court of 'Exchequer: And whereas the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, 'Works, and Buildings, so incorporated as aforesaid, have proceeded to carry the said Act into execu-'tion, and for the Purposes thereof have raised, partly by Sale of Stock invested in their Names on the 'said Metropolis Improvement Fund Account, and partly by Mortgage of the Duties and Revenue 'made applicable to the Formation of such Fund, divers Sums of Money amounting in the whole to the 'full Sum of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, which by the said last-recited Act they were 'empowered to raise as aforesaid, and they have expended the greater Part of the Monies so raised by 'them as aforesaid in the Purchase of Houses, Lands, and Hereditaments required for the said intended 'new Street, and otherwise in carrying the said Act into execution: And whereas the Monies remaining 'unexpended in the Hands of the said Commissioners will not suffice to purchase the Houses, Lands, and 'Hereditaments yet remaining to be purchased for the Formation of the said intended new Street, and 'to construct, open, and complete the same; and although it is estimated that the ultimate net Cost of 'the said new Street and Improvement will not exceed the before-mentioned Sum of One hundred and 'twenty thousand Pounds by the said last-recited Act appropriated to the Formation thereof, additional 'Sums of Money will be required to cover the first Outlay which must be incurred in acquiring and 'clearing the Ground required for the said Street, and in forming and paving the same, and construct-'ing Sewers and Drains in and over the same; and it is expedient that the said Commissioners should 'be empowered to raise such additional Sums of Money by Sale of a further Portion of the Stock now 'constituting the said Metropolis Improvement Fund, or by further Charge upon the said Duties or 'Revenue by the said recited Act of the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her present Majesty made appli-'cable to the Improvement of the Metropolis as aforesaid: And whereas by the said Act of the Third 'and Fourth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, recited or referred to in the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth 'Years of Her Majesty's Reign last herein-before recited, it was among other things enacted, that if 'the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings should 'not, within the Space of Seven Years to be computed from the passing of the same Act, purchase or 'take the Tenements and Hereditaments, or Parts thereof respectively, which they were empowered by 'the said Act to take, use, and purchase, then and from thenceforth the Powers thereby granted to 'them for such Purpose should cease, determine, and be utterly void; and Doubts have been entertained 'whether, by reason of the Powers, Provisions, and Enactments of the said last mentioned Act having 'been extended or transferred to the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, 'in manner herein before recited, the Time for Purchase of Tenements and Hereditaments required for 'the Purposes of the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign has not been 'limited to the Space of Seven Years to be computed from the passing of the said Act of the Third 'and Fourth Years of Her Majesty's Reign; and it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That for the Purpose of providing Monies for the Completion of the new Street and Improvement from the North End of Commercial Street, Spitalfields, to Shoreditch, by the said recited Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign authorized to be made, formed, and completed by them, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings so incorporated as aforesaid, and their Successors, with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer or of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer, from Time to Time, or at any One Time, to levy and raise, by the Sale of the whole or any Portion of the Stocks, Funds, or Securities from Time to Time constituting the said Fund called "The Metropolis Improvement Fund," so created or appropriated by the said recited Act of the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her Majesty's Reign as aforesaid, or by Charge upon the said Metropolis Improvement Fund, or any Part thereof, or upon the Interest, Dividends, and annual Proceeds of the said Fund or any Part thereof, or by Charge upon all or any Part of the Duties and Revenue in and by the same Act made applicable to the Formation of such Fund, or by all or any of the Ways and Means aforesaid, such further Sum and Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Sixty thousand Pounds, as the said Commissioners and their Successors, with such Consent and Approbation as aforesaid, shall judge necessary for completing the Commissioners of Woods, &c. empowered to raise further Sums of Money by Sale of or Charge upon the Metropolis Improvement Fund.

the said intended new Street and Improvement herein-before mentioned, and for carrying into execution the Purposes of the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, together with Interest on the Sum or Sums to be charged, from the Time of charging the same, not exceeding the Rate of Five Pounds per Cent. per Annum.

Fund to be applied in satisfaction of Charges, subject to prior Charges.

II. And be it enacted, That, subject to any prior existing Charges thereon, the said Fund and the Income thereof, and the said Duties and Revenue, or such Portion or Portions thereof respectively as shall be so charged as aforesaid, shall be paid and applied in the Satisfaction and Discharge of all such further Sum and Sums of Money as shall be charged thereon respectively by the said Commissioners and their Successors under the Authority of this Act as aforesaid, and the Interest thereof, in such Manner as the said Commissioners or their Successors shall from Time to Time direct.

Commissioners of Woods, &c. may borrow Monies on the Credit of the Fund authorized to be charged.

III. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners and their Successors, with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, to borrow and raise any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding the Sum of Sixty thousand Pounds, which they may be able to borrow and raise upon the Credit of the said Metropolis Improvement Fund and the Income thereof, and the said Duties and Revenue so authorized to be charged as aforesaid, and thereupon to assign and dispose of such Fund, Income, Duties, and Revenue, or any Portion thereof, (subject to any prior existing Charges thereon,) in such Shares, and by way of Debenture or otherwise, and with such Priorities, and in such Manner, as the same Commissioners shall think fit, as a Security for the Monies so to be borrowed.

Application of Monies raised.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Sum and Sums of Money which the said Commissioners and their Successors are hereby authorized to raise or charge, or which may be borrowed by the same Commissioners in pursuance of the Powers of this Act, shall be applied in the first place in paying all the Charges and Expenses of or incident to the obtaining and passing this Act, and afterwards in paying and discharging the necessary Expenses of making and completing the said intended new Street, and otherwise in carrying into execution the Purposes of the said recited Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign.

Provisions with respect to Monies raised under recited Act extended to this Act.

V. And be it enacted, That the several Powers, Provisions, Exemptions, and Directions in the said last-mentioned Act contained with respect to Monies to be raised by the said Commissioners under the Authority or for the Purposes of the said Act, and the Application thereof, and the Receipts and Discharges to be given for the same, and the Accounts to be rendered thereof, shall, so far as the same are applicable and not otherwise provided for by this Act, be extended to this Act and the Monies to be raised under the Authority of this Act, as fully and effectually as if the same Powers, Provisions, Exemptions, and Directions were herein repeated and re-enacted in reference to such last-mentioned Monies.

Removing Doubts as to Time for Purchases.

VI. And for removing all Doubts be it enacted and declared, That the Time by the said recited Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign limited for the Purchase of Lands and Hereditaments, and for authorizing Parties and Bodies to sell and convey, shall be deemed and construed to be the Space of Seven Years from the passing of the said last-mentioned Act; and all and singular the Powers and Authorities by the said last-mentioned Act granted to or vested in the said Commissioners and their Successors to purchase, take, or use any Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, or Parts thereof, or Rights or Interests therein, required for the Purposes of the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, and the new Street and Improvement thereby authorized to be made, shall remain in force, and shall and may be exercised by the said Commissioners and their Successors or otherwise, for the Space of Seven Years from the passing of the said last-mentioned Act; and the said last-mentioned Act shall be taken and construed as if the Powers and Authorities hereby given or confirmed had been given in express Terms by the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign.

Surplus Monies to be invested in augmentation of the Metropolis Improvement Fund.

VII. And be it enacted, That all Sum and Sums of Money received or to be received by the said Commissioners from any Sales or Leases or otherwise in respect of any Hereditaments or Property acquired or to be acquired by them under the Powers or for the Purposes of the said recited Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign or this Act, and which shall remain in the Hands of the said Commissioners or their Successors after the new Street and Improvement by the said Act authorized to be made shall have been made and completed, and the Purposes of the same Act and of this Act shall have been fully executed, shall (subject to the Payment thereout of any Monies which may remain due upon Loans made to the said Commissioners under the Authority of the said recited Act or this Act, and the Interest thereof,) be applied in augmentation of the Fund for the Execution of Improvements in the Metropolis, and be invested in the Names of the said Commissioners or their Successors in some of the Public Stocks or Funds, or upon Government or Real Securities, at Interest, on the said Account intituled "The Metropolis Improvement Fund Account;" and the said Commissioners and their Successors shall from Time to Time invest the Dividends, Interest, and Income of the said Stocks, Funds, and Securities in like Manner for the Purpose of Accumulation in the meanwhile and until the said Fund shall be required for and appropriated by Parliament to the Execution of Improvements in the Metropolis.

Public Act.

VIII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be deemed to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and others.

CAP. CX.

An Act to continue the Act for amending the Laws relating to Savings Banks in Ireland. [15th August 1850.]

[11 & 12 Vict. c. 133. continued to 1st of August 1852.]

CAP. CXI.

An Act to relieve the Chester and Holyhead Railway Company from contributing towards the Expense of the proposed new Harbour at Holyhead, and to take away the Powers of the said Company in relation to such Harbour. [15th August 1850.]

10 & 11 Vict. c. ccxxxviii. ss. 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, & 17.

'WHEREAS in "The Chester and Holyhead Railway, Holyhead Extension and Amendment, Act, 1847," are contained Provisions requiring the Chester and Holyhead Railway Company to contribute towards the Expense of constructing the Harbour of Safety and Inner Pier and Inner Harbour at Holyhead, proposed to be formed as therein mentioned, the Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds, and to pay the same to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and for the Payment and Recovery of such Sum; and also Provisions authorizing the said Company, upon acquiring the Rights and Interests therein mentioned, to construct a Wharf or Quay upon a Portion of the Sea Shore for the Purposes therein mentioned, and vesting in the said Company the free Use of the said Inner Pier for the Purposes therein mentioned, and empowering the said Company to lay down upon the said Inner Pier a Railway or Railways, and to erect Sheds or Conveniences for the Protection of Passengers landing or embarking from the said Inner Pier: And whereas it is expedient that the said Provisions of the said Act should be repealed:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all the Provisions of the said Act concerning the Contribution, Payment, and Recovery of the said Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds, and all the Powers and Provisions of such Act for and in relation to the Construction by the said Company of such Wharf or Quay as aforesaid, and the free Use by the said Company of the said Inner Pier, and the laying down thereupon of a Railway or Railways, and the Erection of such Sheds and Conveniences as aforesaid, and all other Powers vested or to be vested in the said Company under such Act in relation to the said Harbour of Safety, Inner Harbour, and Inner Pier respectively, and the Provisions in relation to such Powers, shall be repealed.

Recited Provisions repealed.

The Treasury may authorize the Company to make Works in connexion with the Harbour.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may from Time to Time, as they may deem expedient, authorize the said Company to construct any Quay, Wharf, or other Works in or in connexion with the said Harbours and Pier, or to have Access to or make Communications with the said Harbours and Pier, or to lay down a Railway or Railways on the said Pier, or to make other Arrangements for facilitating the landing or embarking in and from such Harbours and Pier of Passengers, Goods, Cattle, or Merchandize, upon such Terms and subject to such Conditions as the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may think fit.

CAP. CXII.

An Act to vest in the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland certain Works and Rights of the Lough Corrib Improvement Company, and to compensate such Company for the same. [15th August 1850.]

1 & 2 W. 4. c. 57.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Second Year of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to empower Landed Proprietors in Ireland to sink, embank, and remove Obstructions in Rivers, it was enacted, that when any Persons should be desirous of undertaking the Execution of the Works provided for by that Act, and should, in manner and upon and after the Observance and Performance of the Preliminaries therein-after directed, make Application to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, it should be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, if he or they should so think fit, to issue a Commission authorizing and constituting such Persons Undertakers for the Execution of such of the Works provided for by that Act as might be included in such Application, or any of them; and in the said Act are contained Provisions forming such Persons, and their several and respective Successors, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, into a Joint Stock Company, by such Name as therein mentioned: And whereas by a Commission issued by their Excellencies the Lords Justices of Ireland, bearing Date on or about the Twenty-fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, after reciting, amongst other things, that it had been represented to the said Lords Justices that the several Persons therein-after named had agreed to form themselves into a Company for the Improvement of Lough Corrib in the Counties of Galway and Mayo, and the Lands contiguous thereto, the said Lords Justices did, by virtue of the said recited Act, authorize and constitute certain Persons therein named Undertakers for the Execution of the Works therein mentioned and referred to: And whereas an Act was passed in the Sixth Year of Her present Majesty, to amend the said Act of the Second Year of King William the Fourth: And whereas the Company of Undertakers formed under the said Commission have been since called and known by the Name of "The Company of Undertakers for the Improvement

'of Lough Corrib," in the Province of Connaught: And whereas the said Company proceeded to execute 'certain Works in and by the said first-recited Act and the said Commission authorized, but failed to 'comply with the Provisions of the said recited Acts, and have long since discontinued and are unable to 'complete the said Works: And whereas the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, acting under 'the Authority of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to promote the 5 & 6 Vict. c. 89. 'Drainage of Lands, and Improvement of Navigation and Water Power in connexion with such 'Drainage, in Ireland, and of the Acts amending the same, have taken the necessary Steps, and have now 'made considerable Progress in the necessary Works, for the Drainage, not only of the Lands included 'in the said Commission, but of other Lands contiguous thereto, and also for the Improvement of the 'Navigation from the Sea at Galway Harbour in the County of the Town of Galway, through the 'County of Galway, to Lough Carra in the County of Mayo, and also for the Improvement of Mill 'Power of the several Mills deriving their Supply of Water from Lough Corrib, and all denominated by 'the said Commissioners "The District of Loughs Corrib, Mask, and Carra," in the County of the Town 'of Galway, and Counties of Galway and Mayo: And whereas a free Grant has been made by Parlia- 'ment of a Moiety of the estimated Expense of completing the said Navigation, the other Moiety of such 'last-mentioned Expenses being charged on the County of the Town of Galway and certain Portions of 'the Counties of Galway and Mayo respectively: And whereas the several Works which have been 'heretofore executed by the said Company under the Provisions of the said first-recited Act, and the 'Commission issued in pursuance thereof, and which may be made available for the Purpose of the Works 'of the said Commissioners of Public Works in the District of Loughs Corrib, Mask, and Carra, have 'been estimated at the Value of Three thousand two hundred Pounds: And whereas certain Lands and 'Rights in Land within the said District of Lough Corrib have been purchased by the said Company, 'and it has been represented by the said Company that they paid for such Lands and Rights Sums 'exceeding the Sum of One thousand eight hundred Pounds, and the Value of such Lands and Rights for 'the Purposes of the Works of the said Commissioners of Public Works has been estimated at the Sum 'of One thousand eight hundred Pounds: And whereas the said Company of Undertakers have agreed to 'transfer to the said Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland the Works which have been executed 'by the said Company, and also the said Lands and Rights, upon the Payment as herein-after mentioned 'of the Sum of Five thousand Pounds, being the Amount of the said Sums of Three thousand two hundred 'Pounds and One thousand eight hundred Pounds:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for the said Company of Undertakers for the Improvement of Lough Corrib to proceed further in the Execution of any of the Works authorized in and by the said Acts, or either of them, or the said Commission under the said first-recited Act, or in any Manner whatsoever to interfere with or interrupt the Works heretofore executed or hereafter to be executed by the said Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland under the Provisions of the said thirdly-recited Act, or any of the Acts amending the same.

Lough Corrib Company not to proceed with their Works.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Public Works, by and with the Sanction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, out of any Monies at the Disposal of the said Commissioners of Public Works for the Purposes of the Works to be by them executed in the said District of Loughs Corrib, Mask, and Carra, to pay into the Bank of Ireland, in the Name and with the Privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, the Sum of Five thousand Pounds, being the Amount of the said Sums of Three thousand two hundred Pounds and One thousand eight hundred Pounds, such Sum to be placed to Account of the said Accountant General there, "to the Credit of the Company of Undertakers for the Improvement of Lough Corrib;" and out of such Sum of Five thousand Pounds there shall be paid, in the first instance, all the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of the said Company, or of the Persons holding Debentures heretofore issued by the said Company, in respect of or incident to the Preparation, Introduction, and Prosecution of a Bill during the Two last Sessions of Parliament, for the Purpose of procuring the Grant of extended Powers to the said Company, but which Bill did not pass into an Act, and in respect of or incident to the Negotiation between the said Company and such Debenture Holders and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury and the said Commissioners of Public Works, for the Transfer by the said Company to the said Commissioners of Public Works of the said Works and Lands and Rights in Land, the Amount of such Costs, Charges, and Expenses to be ascertained and certified by One of the Masters of the said Court, and to be paid by the said Company and to such Debenture Holders respectively, or to their respective Solicitors or Agents, in such Manner as may be directed by the Lord High Chancellor of Ireland upon any Petition to be presented in a summary Way; and after Payment of all such Costs, Charges, and Expenses the Surplus of the said Sum of Five thousand Pounds shall be applied, under the Direction and with the Approbation of One of the Masters of the said Court, in the first place, amongst the Persons holding Debentures heretofore issued by the said Company, and, in the next place, amongst the Members of the said Company, in such Shares and Proportions as may be directed by the said Lord Chancellor upon Petition as aforesaid: Provided always, that in case it be not shown to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury that the Purchase Monies bonâ fide paid by the said Company for such Lands and Rights in Land as aforesaid amount to the Sum of One thousand eight hundred Pounds, it shall be lawful for such Commissioners to authorize the said Commissioners of Public Works to pay to the said Company, in lieu of the Sum of One thousand eight hundred Pounds, such less Sum only as shall have Commissioners of Public Works, with Consent of Treasury, to pay into Bank, to the Credit of the Company, 3,200*l.* and 1,800*l.*

Application of the Money so paid in.

have been shown to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to have been paid by the said Company for the said Lands and Rights: Provided also, that any Person or Persons having any Claim against the said Company (in respect of any Debt or Liability heretofore incurred) may apply to the said Lord Chancellor, by Petition to be presented as aforesaid, and it shall be lawful for the said Lord Chancellor to make such Order for inquiring into such Claim, and for the Payment of the Amount of any Money due in respect thereof, and of any Costs in relation to such Application, out of the said Sum of Five thousand Pounds, as he shall think just.

Upon Payment into the Bank the Works, &c. of the Company to vest in Commissioners of Public Works.

III. And be it enacted, That upon Payment into the Bank of Ireland in manner aforesaid of the said Sum of Three thousand two hundred Pounds and the said Sum of One thousand eight hundred Pounds, or so much of such last-mentioned Sum as shall be payable by the said Commissioners of Public Works under this Act, all the Works heretofore executed by or on behalf of the said Company, and other the Lands, Works, Property, Undertaking, and Rights of the said Company, of every Nature or Kind soever, within the District of their Commission under the Provisions of the said Two first-recited Acts or the said Commission, shall respectively become the Property of and be vested in the said Commissioners of Public Works, and their Successors, for the Purposes of and according to the Intent of the said thirdly-recited Act and the several Acts amending the same, freed and absolutely discharged of and from all Estates, Rights, Interests, Debts, and Incumbrances whatsoever of or occasioned by the said Company of Undertakers: Provided always, that upon Payment as aforesaid of the said Sum of Three thousand two hundred Pounds it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Public Works to take possession of and enjoy all the said Lands, Works, Property, Undertaking, and Rights, without Prejudice to the Right of the said Company to the said Sum of One thousand eight hundred Pounds, or so much thereof as may become payable.

Money not to be liable to Ushers Poundage.

IV. And be it enacted, That no Money so paid into the Bank of Ireland as aforesaid, or paid out, under any Order made by the said High Chancellor of Ireland under the Powers of this Act, shall be liable to Ushers Poundage.

Said Sums of 3,200*l.* and 1,800*l.* to form Part of Expenses of Navigation and Drainage in the Lough Corrib District.

V. And be it enacted, That the said Sum of Three thousand two hundred Pounds and the said Sum of One thousand eight hundred Pounds, or so much of such last-mentioned Sum as shall be paid under this Act, shall be considered as and form Part of the general Expenses incident to the Works of the said Commissioners of Public Works within the said District of Loughs Corrib, Mask, and Carra, and be charged to the said District accordingly, in such Manner and in such Proportions to the Account of the said Navigation, Drainage of Lands, and Improvement of Mill Power in the said District, as the said Commissioners shall think fit; and the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to include the said Sum of Three thousand two hundred Pounds and the said Sum of One thousand eight hundred Pounds, or so much of such last-mentioned Sum as shall be paid as aforesaid, in the Award to be made by the said Commissioners under the Provisions of the said thirdly-recited Act and the Acts amending the same.

Act may be amended, &c.

VI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

CAP. CXIII.

An Act to authorize the Transfer of Loans for the Improvement of Land in Ireland to other Land. [15th August 1850.]

13 & 14 Vict. c. 31.

'WHEREAS by the Act of the present Session of Parliament, "to authorize further Advances of '"Money for Drainage and the Improvement of Landed Property in the United Kingdom, and to '"amend the Acts relating to such Advances," it is enacted, that the Commissioners of Public Works in 'Ireland shall not make any Order for any Loan under the Acts therein referred to and that Act, or any 'of them, to the same Owner, to a larger Amount than Five thousand Pounds, or if any previous Order 'or Orders have been made under such Acts or any of them for a Loan or Loans to the same Owner in 'respect to the same or any other Land, or to any previous Owner of the same Land, in respect of such 'Land, the said Commissioners shall not make such Order for a Loan to a larger Amount than will with 'the Sum which has been or may be issued under such previous Order or Orders make up Five thousand 'Pounds: And whereas it may happen, where Orders for Loans for the Improvement of Land in Ireland 'have been made, that the Money authorized to be advanced thereunder may be more advantageously 'expended in the Improvement of other Land of the same Owner:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That where an Order for a Loan for Works for the Improvement of Land in Ireland has been made by the said Commissioners under the Acts in the said recited Enactment referred to or any of them, or under this Provision, and no Advance has been made under such Order, or the whole of the Sum in such Order mentioned has not been issued, the said recited Enactment shall not prevent the said Commissioners, on the Relinquishment by the Owner for the Time being of the Lands mentioned in such Order of the Loan of the Sum in such Order mentioned, either wholly or in part, from making a new Order for a Loan for any Works on other Lands in Ireland of the same Owner, to any Amount not exceeding the Amount so relinquished, notwithstanding such Amount shall exceed Five thousand Pounds, or will, with the Sum which has been or may be issued under the said first-mentioned Order, or any other Order or Orders, exceed Five thousand Pounds.

Recited Enactment not to prevent new Orders for Loans upon Relinquishment of Advances under previous Order.

II. And

II. And be it enacted, That this Act and the said Act of the present Session shall be construed together as One Act, and the Provision herein contained shall be deemed to extend to all Orders, Proceedings, and Matters already made, taken, and done, in the same Manner as if such Provision had been originally inserted in the said Act of the present Session. This Act to be deemed Part of recited Act.

CAP. CXIV.

An Act to repeal the Stamp Duties on Proceedings in the Courts of Law in Ireland, and to grant certain other Stamp Duties in lieu thereof. [15th August 1850.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to grant for the Term of Five Years additional Stamp Duties on certain Proceedings in the Courts of Law, and to repeal certain other Stamp Duties in Ireland, certain Duties of Stamps distinguished as Law Fund Duties were granted as the Means of creating a Fund to meet certain Charges which had become annually payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom for Salaries, Allowances, and Compensations to the Judges of the Superior Courts of Common Law in Ireland, and to divers Officers of and in the said Courts, in lieu of certain Fees theretofore payable to such Judges and Officers respectively, and of the Profits of certain Offices which were abolished: And whereas by an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled An Act to continue an Act of the First and Second Years of His present Majesty, for granting for the Term of Five Years additional Stamp Duties on certain Proceedings in the Courts of Law in Ireland, it was enacted, that the said recited Act, and the Duties thereby granted, should be continued in full Force and Effect until other Provision should be made by Parliament in respect thereof: And whereas it is expedient to repeal the said Duties, and grant other Duties of the same Nature in lieu thereof, to meet the Charge upon the Consolidated Fund for the Salaries so payable to the Judges and their Registrars in lieu of Fees, and the Salaries, Compensations, Allowances, and other Expenses payable in respect of the Offices of the said Courts:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty all and every of the Stamp Duties granted in and by the said Act of the First and Second Years of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Fourth, and continued by the said Act of the Seventh Year of the same Reign until Parliament should make other Provision in respect thereof, shall cease and be discontinued, and that in lieu thereof there shall be granted, raised, levied, collected, and paid in Ireland, unto Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, for and in respect of the several Instruments, Articles, Matters, and Things mentioned, enumerated, and described in the Schedule to this Act annexed, the several Sums of Money and Duties as they are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Words and Figures in the said Schedule and in every Part thereof; and that the said Schedule, and every Clause, Regulation, Matter, and Thing therein contained, shall be and be deemed, taken, and considered as Part of this Act. 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 112. 7 G. 4. c. 20. Law Fund Stamp Duties to be repealed, and other Duties of the same Nature granted in lieu thereof. Schedule to be Part of Act.

II. And be it enacted, That the said Duties shall be under the Care and Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and shall be denoted and distinguished as Law Fund Duties, and shall be deemed and construed to be Stamp Duties; and that the several Rules, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties, Clauses, and Matters contained in the said Act of the First and Second Years of His said Majesty King George the Fourth with reference to Law Fund Duties shall continue to be of full Force and Effect, and be applicable to the Duties hereby granted, save as herein otherwise provided, or as the same may have been repealed, varied, or affected by an Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to regulate and reduce the Expenses of the Officers attached to the Superior Courts of Common Law in Ireland payable out of the Consolidated Fund, or by any Act passed subsequently to the said Act of the First and Second Years of the Reign of King George the Fourth, and now in force. Duties to be construed as Stamp Duties. 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 112. to be applicable to Duties hereby granted, except, &c., 7 & 8 Vict. c. 107.

III. 'And whereas Doubts have arisen whether the Provisions of the said Act of the First and Second Years of the Reign of King George the Fourth, for the Relief of Persons having spoiled Stamps, are applicable to certain Cases wherein Stamps on Transcripts of Records are rendered useless, and it is expedient to make further Provision in that Behalf:' Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, in any and every Case in which it shall be shown to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue that any Transcript of a Record for Trial at Nisi Prius which has been duly stamped has not answered the Purpose for which it was intended, and that a fresh Transcript has been made out, and the Stamp Duty thereon a Second Time paid, the said Commissioners, or any Officer by them in that Behalf appointed, shall cancel the Stamp or Stamps upon the Transcript which has become useless, and, upon being furnished by the Party producing the same with the necessary Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, cause such Vellum, Parchment, or Paper to be stamped or marked with any of the Duties granted by this Act, as may be desired, to the same Amount in the whole as the Stamps so cancelled, and shall deliver the said Parchment, Vellum, or Paper when so stamped or marked to the said Party, in exchange for the Stamp or Stamps so cancelled: Provided always, that the Application to have such Stamp or Stamps cancelled and exchanged shall be made to the said Commissioners within Six Calendar Months next after the Time of sealing the Transcript stamped or marked therewith. Stamps on Transcripts of Records may be cancelled when the Duty has been again paid.

IV. And

No Bill of Costs to be taxed by any Law Taxing Officer, except on Requisition duly stamped.

IV. And be it enacted, That from and after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty no Bill of Costs for Business in any of the said Courts of Common Law shall be taxed by any Taxing Officer unless and until the Party requiring such Taxation shall lodge with such Officer a Requisition duly stamped or marked with the Duty provided in that Behalf in the Schedule to this Act annexed, which Requisition shall set forth the Title or Titles of the Cause or Causes or Matter or Matters in which such Costs have been incurred, and the gross Amount of such Costs as furnished or made out and submitted for Taxation, and shall be signed by the Attorney requiring such Taxation.

CAP. CXV.

An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Friendly Societies. [15th August 1850.]

'WHEREAS many Societies have been established in Great Britain and Ireland for the Purpose of affording Relief and Maintenance to the Members thereof in Sickness, old Age, or Infirmity, and for other Purposes of a provident and benevolent Nature; and it is expedient to amend the Laws relating to such Friendly Societies, and to make further Provision for Protection of the Members against Fraud and Misapplication of their Funds, and to consolidate the same in One Act:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act passed in the Tenth Year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Friendly Societies; and also an Act passed in the Second Year of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend an Act of the Tenth Year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, by extending the Time within which pre-existing Societies must conform to the Provisions of that Act; and also an Act passed in the Fourth and Fifth Years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend an Act of the Tenth Year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Friendly Societies; and also an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Third and Fourth Years of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to explain and amend the Acts relating to Friendly Societies; and also an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Laws relating to Friendly Societies, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, except so far as any of the said Acts repeal the whole or any Part of any other Acts, and except so far as the same may be applicable to any Benefit Building Society established under an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth: Provided nevertheless, that such Repeal shall not invalidate or affect anything which has been done before the passing of this Act in pursuance of any of the said Acts: Provided also, that the Provisions of the said Acts, except as herein-after provided, shall continue in force as to all Societies established under any or either of them before the passing of this Act.

Repeal of 10 G. 4. c. 56. 2 & 3 W. 4. c. 37. 4 & 5 W. 4. c. 40. 3 & 4 Vict. c. 73. 9 & 10 Vict. c. 27.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Number of Persons to establish a Society or Branch of the same under the Provisions of this Act, for the Purpose of raising by voluntary Subscriptions of the Members thereof, with or without the Aid of Donations, a Fund for any of the following Objects; that is to say, Objects for which Friendly Societies may be established.

1. For insuring a Sum of Money to be paid, on the Death of a Member, to the Widower or Widow of a Member, as the Case may be, or to the Child, or to the Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, of such Member, or for defraying the Expense of the Burial of a Member, or of the Husband, Wife, Child, or Kindred of a Member; subject always to the Restrictions herein-after enacted in that Behalf:

2. For the Relief, Maintenance, or Endowment of the Members, their Husbands, Wives, Children, or Kindred, in Infancy, old Age, Sickness, Widowhood, or any other natural State of which the Probability may be calculated by way of Average:

3. For insuring or making good any Loss or Damage of live or dead Stock, Goods or Stock in Trade, Implements and Tools, sustained by any Member by Fire, Flood, Shipwreck, or any Contingency of which the Probability may be calculated by way of Average:

4. For the frugal Investment of the Savings of the Members for better enabling them to purchase Food, Firing, Clothes, or other Necessaries, or the Tools, Implements, or Materials of their Trade or Calling, or to provide for the Education of their Children or Kindred: Provided, that the Shares in any such Investment Society shall not be transferable, and that the Investment of each Member shall accumulate or be employed for the sole Benefit of the Member investing, or of the Husband, Wife, Children, or Kindred of such Member, and that no Part thereof shall be appropriated to the Relief, Maintenance, or Endowment of any other Person whomsoever; and that the whole Amount of the Balance due, according to the Rules of such Society, to such Member, shall be paid to him or her on withdrawing from such Society:

5. For the Purpose of enabling any Member, or the Husband, Wife, or Children, or Nominee, of such Member, to emigrate; provided that, in case of any Society for that Purpose, One of the Trustees shall be a Justice of the Peace residing in and acting for the County, Borough, or Place in which such Society shall be established:

6. For any Purpose which shall be certified to be legal in England or Ireland by Her Majesty's Attorney General, or in Scotland by the Lord Advocate, as a Purpose to which the Powers and Facilities of this Act ought to be extended:

Act limited to Societies not assuring above 100*l.*, or Annuity of 30*l.*, or 20*s.* per Week in Sickness.

Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for any Society or Branch established under this Act to assure the Payment to or on the Death of any Member, or on any Contingency, or for any of the Purposes for which the Payment of Sums may be assured under this Act, of any Sum exceeding One hundred Pounds, nor any Annuity exceeding Thirty Pounds per Annum, nor a Sum in Sickness exceeding Twenty Shillings per Week.

III. And be it enacted, That in all Societies established under the Provisions of this Act, or of any Act relating to Friendly Societies, it shall not be lawful for the Trustees or other Officers of such Societies to assure a Sum of Money to be paid on the Death of a Child, whether a Member of such Society or not, under under the Age of Ten Years, except the actual Funeral Expenses, not exceeding Three Pounds in case of such Child, to be paid to the Undertaker or Person by whom the Burial is conducted, and whose Receipt alone shall be sufficient Discharge to the Society, nor to pay any Sum of Money which may have been insured and become payable on the Death of any Member thereof, or of the Husband, Wife, or Child of any Member, unless the Party applying for the same shall produce and deliver to the Officer a Certificate, signed by a Physician, Surgeon, Apothecary, or Coroner, in the Form (D.) set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed, except in Cases where from the Nature of the Circumstances it is impossible to procure such Certificate; and if any Officer of such Society shall pay or cause to be paid such Sum of Money as aforesaid without such Certificate as aforesaid, such Officer shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds, to be recoverable before any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate of any Borough where such Society is established; and, upon Conviction thereof, one Half of the said Penalty shall be paid to the Informer, and he is hereby declared to be competent to give Evidence in this Case, and the other Half shall be paid to the Overseer of the Parish in which the Place of Business of such Society or Branch is situated, to be applied to the Relief of the Poor therein.

Certificate of Surgeon or Coroner required before Money is paid on Death of a Member.

Power to repeal or alter Rules, and appoint Committee and Officers.

IV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Persons intending to establish under the Provisions of this Act a Friendly Society or Branch thereof to make or adopt Rules for the Government and Guidance of the same, and to make such Provision in the Rules as they shall think fit, for ordaining, repealing, altering, or amending any Rules, and to impose reasonable Fines and Forfeitures on any Member offending against the Regulations of the same, and to form a General Committee or Board of Management, and to delegate to the same all or any of the Powers given by this Act, to be executed either with respect to the Management of the Society or Branch, or the Enactment, Amendment, Repeal, or Alteration of the Rules thereof; and in such Rules there shall distinctly be set forth,

1. The Name and Designation of such Society or Branch, and Place where the Business thereof is carried on, the whole of the Objects and Intentions for which it is founded, the whole of the Purposes to which the Funds thereof are applicable according to the Rules and Tables thereof, and the Conditions under which any Member, or Party claiming under or by a Member, may become entitled to any Benefit assured thereby:

2. The Manner of making, repealing, or altering Rules, of appointing Trustees, a Treasurer, and an Officer who shall keep the Books and Accounts, and prepare the Returns required by this Act, a General Board or Committee of Management, and the Duties and Powers of each:

3. The Mode in which the Funds shall be invested:

4. The Manner in which Disputes between the Society or Branch, and any Member thereof, or Person claiming on account or through any Member, shall be settled.

Separate Accounts to be kept as to each Fund or Benefit.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Rules of every such Society or Branch shall provide that all Monies received or paid on account of each and every particular Fund or Benefit assured to the Members thereof, their Husbands, Wives, Children, or Kindred, for which a separate Table of Contributions payable shall have been adopted, shall be entered in a separate Account distinct from the Monies received and paid on account of any other Benefit or Fund Society or Branch not legally established till Rules certified.

VI. And be it enacted, That such Society or Branch shall not be deemed to be legally established under this Act, nor be entitled to any of the Provisions of the same, unless the Rules and every Amendment of Rules or Tables made from Time to Time thereof shall have been duly certified by the Registrar as herein-after provided.

Registrar to give Certificate.

VII. And be it enacted, That Two printed or written Copies of all Rules and Tables adopted by such Society or Branch, together with the Name and Residence of every Trustee thereof, signed by Three Members, and countersigned by the Clerk or Steward or other Officer, with all convenient Speed after the same shall be made, altered, or amended, and so from Time to Time after every making, altering, or amending thereof, shall be transmitted to the Registrar of Friendly Societies in England, Scotland, or Ireland, as the Case may be; and so soon as the said Registrar shall find the said Rules to be framed in conformity with Law, and that no Rule or Part thereof is repugnant to another, and that the same are reasonable and proper, he shall register the same; and if such Rules and Tables have been certified under the Hand of the Actuary to the Commissioners for Reduction of the National Debt, or by some other Actuary who shall have been for more than Five Years an Actuary of some Life Assurance Company established in London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, in the Form set forth in Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, and signed by him at the Foot both of the Rules and Tables, or shall have been furnished to such Society or Branch by the Registrar, the Registrar shall give a Certificate in the Form set forth in Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed, and such Society or Branch shall be denominated Certified Friendly Society; but if such Rules and Tables shall not have been so certified by an Actuary as above mentioned, in such Case the Registrar shall give a Certificate in the Form set forth in Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed, and such Society or Branch shall be denominated Registered Friendly Society; and the Registrar shall return one of the Copies to the Society or Branch, and shall keep the other in such Manner as shall be from Time to Time directed by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and all Rules, Alterations or Amendments thereof, when certified as aforesaid, shall be binding on the several Members, and all Persons claiming by or under them.

Certified Friendly Societies.

Registered Societies.

Societies granting Annuities to have Annuity Tables certified by Actuary.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the Registrar to grant any Certificate to any Society assuring to any Member thereof a certain Annuity, deferred or immediate, unless the Tables of Contributions payable for such Kind of Assurance shall have been certified by an Actuary as aforesaid or furnished by the Registrar.

IX. And

IX. And be it enacted, That for every such Certificate of Rules of any Friendly Society a Fee of One Guinea shall be paid to the Registrar, and for every Certificate of Rules of any Branch of such Society a Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence; and for every Certificate of Amendment, Repeal, or Alteration of Rules of any Society or Branch a Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence shall be paid to the Registrar. Fees to be paid to Registrar for Certificates.

X. And be it enacted, That the future Registrars of Friendly Societies in England, Scotland, and Ireland respectively shall be appointed by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and shall hold Office during the Pleasure of the said Commissioners; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to grant to the Registrar in England already appointed a Salary not exceeding One thousand Pounds by the Year, and to every Registrar in England hereafter to be appointed a Salary not exceeding Eight hundred Pounds by the Year, and to every Registrar in Ireland and Scotland respectively already or to be hereafter appointed such a Salary as to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall seem meet, and every such Salary shall be paid by Four equal quarterly Payments; and any Registrar who shall be appointed, or shall die, resign, or be removed from his Office, in the Interval between Two quarterly Days of Payment, shall be entitled to a Part of his Salary proportional to that Part of such Quarter of a Year during which he shall hold his Appointment. Appointment and Salary of Registrar.

XI. And be it enacted, That every Treasurer of any Society or Branch established under the Provisions of this Act, before he shall be admitted to take upon him the Execution of any such Office, shall become bound in a Bond according to the Form set forth in Schedule (E.) to this Act annexed, with Two sufficient Sureties, for the just and faithful Execution of such Office, and for rendering a just and true Account according to the Rules of such Society or Branch, in such penal Sum of Money as by the Trustees or Board of Management shall be deemed expedient; and every such Bond to be given by or on behalf of such Officer shall be given to the Trustees of the said Society or Branch for the Time being; and in case of Forfeiture it shall be lawful to sue upon such Bond in the Name of the Trustees for the Time being, for the Use of the said Society or Branch; provided that such Bond shall have in Scotland the same Force and Effect as a Bond in the Form in use in Scotland containing a Clause of Registration. Treasurer to give Bond.

XII. And be it enacted, That the Trustees or Treasurer for the Time being of any such Society or Branch, or of any Society already established under any of the Acts relating to Friendly Societies, shall and they are hereby required, from Time to Time, by and with the Consent of such Society or Branch, to be had and testified in such Manner as the Rules shall direct, to lay out and invest such Part of all Sums of Money as shall at any Time be collected, given, or paid to and for the Purposes of such Society, as may not be wanted for the immediate Use thereof, or to meet the usual accruing Liabilities of such Society or Branch, in the Names of such Trustees, in any Savings Banks, subject to the Provisions of Acts in force relating to the same, or in any of the Parliamentary Stocks or Public Funds of Great Britain or Ireland, or at Interest upon Government Securities, or in Bank of England Stock, or in the Stock or Securities of the Honourable East India Company, or on Mortgage of Freehold, Leasehold, or Copyhold Property, such Leasehold being for a Term of Years absolute of which not less than Thirty Years shall be unexpired, and such Copyhold being Copyhold of Inheritance, in Great Britain or Ireland, or on Security of any Heritable Property, or in any chartered or other public Joint Stock Bank in Scotland, or in or upon the Security of any County or Borough Rates authorized to be levied and mortgaged by any Act of Parliament, or on Loan to any Member of any such Society on the Security of any Policy of Assurance effected on his own Life, provided that the Amount of such Loan shall not exceed the actual estimated Value of such Policy at the Time such Loan be made; and from Time to Time, with such Consent as aforesaid, to alter and transfer such Securities and Funds, and to make Sale thereof respectively; and all Dividends, Interests, and Proceeds which shall from Time to Time arise from the Monies so laid out or invested as aforesaid shall be brought to account by such Trustees, and shall be applied to and for the Use of such Society or Branch, according to the Rules thereof: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Trustees or Treasurer as aforesaid, with the Consent of such Society or Branch as aforesaid, to purchase, hire, or take upon Lease any Room or Premises for the Purpose of holding therein the Meetings of such Society or Branch, or for the Transaction of Business relating thereto, and to hold the same in trust in and for the Use of such Society or Branch, and to sell, exchange, let, and demise the same in whole or in part with the Consent as aforesaid. Trustees, &c. to invest Funds.

XIII. And be it enacted, That all Hereditaments, Monies, Goods, Chattels, and Effects whatever, and all Titles, Securities for Money, or other obligatory Instruments and Evidences or Muniments, and all Rights or Claims, belonging to or had by such Society or Branch, shall be vested in the Trustees or Trustee for the Time being of the same, for the Use and Benefit of such Society or Branch, and the respective Members thereof, their respective Executors or Administrators, according to their respective Claims and Interests, and after the Death or Removal of any Trustees or Trustee shall vest in the succeeding Trustees or Trustee for the same Estate and Interest as the former Trustees or Trustee had therein, and subject to the same Trusts, without any Conveyance or Assignment whatever, except the Transfer of Stocks and Securities in the Public Funds of Great Britain and Ireland; and also shall, for all Purposes of Action or Suit, as well criminal as civil, in Law or in Equity, in anywise touching or concerning the same, be deemed and taken to be, and shall in every such Proceeding (where necessary) be stated to be, the Property of the Person or Persons appointed to the Office of Trustee of such Society for the Time being, in his or their proper Name or Names, without further Description; and such Persons or Person shall and they are hereby respectively authorized to bring or defend, or cause to be brought Property vested in Trustees.

or defended, any Action, Suit, or Prosecution, criminal as well as civil, in any Court of Law or Equity, touching or concerning the Property, Right, or Claim aforesaid of or belonging to or had by such Society or Branch; and such Persons shall and may in all Cases concerning the Property, Right, or Claim aforesaid of such Society, sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, in any Court of Law or Equity, in their or his proper Names or Name, as Trustees or Trustee of such Society or Branch, without other Description; and no such Suit, Action, or Prosecution shall be discontinued or abate by the Death of such Person or his Removal from the Office of Trustee, but the same shall and may be proceeded in by the succeeding Trustees or Trustee in the proper Name of the Person commencing the same, and such succeeding Trustees or Trustee shall pay or receive like Costs as if the Action or Suit had been commenced in his or her Name, for the Benefit of or to be reimbursed from the Funds of such Society or Branch: Provided always, that no Person shall be deemed to be a Trustee under the Meaning of this Act until the Resolution of the Society or Branch appointing him Trustee shall have been transmitted, under the Hand of Three Members of the Society or Branch, and signed by such Trustee, countersigned by the Clerk or other principal Officer, to the Registrar, to be by him deposited with the Rules of the Society or Branch in his Custody as aforesaid.

XIV. And be it enacted, That no Treasurer or Trustee or other Officer of any Society or Branch established under the Authority of this Act shall be liable to make good any Deficiency which may arise in the Funds thereof unless he shall have declared, by Writing under his Hand, to be deposited with the Registrar, that he is willing so to be answerable; and it shall be lawful for each of such Persons to limit his Responsibility to such Sum as shall be specified in such Writing: Provided always, that every Treasurer, Trustee, and other Officer shall be personally responsible and liable for all Monies actually received by him on account of or for the Use of such Society or Branch.

Trustees to transmit annual Return to Registrar.

XV. And be it enacted, That the Trustees or other Officer of every such Society or Branch in whose Charge the Accounts of the said Society are kept shall once in every Year prepare or cause to be prepared a General Statement of the Funds and Effects of such Society or Branch during the past Twelve Months, in such Form as shall enable the Registrar to make a Return under the several Heads set forth in Schedule (F.) to this Act annexed, as accurately as such Officer may be able to furnish the Information required, and shall transmit the same to the Registrar on some Day before the First of September in each Year; and every such Statement shall be attested by Two Trustees of such Society, and by the Auditor, if any such shall have been appointed, and shall be countersigned by the Officer who keeps the Accounts of such Society; and every Member shall be entitled to receive from the said Society a Copy of such Statement on Payment of Sixpence.

In default of such Return Trustees to be incapable of bringing Action.

XVI. And be it enacted, That if in any Year such Statement shall not have been transmitted as aforesaid on or before the last Day of September, the Registrar shall give Notice to the Trustees of such Society or Branch; and if the said Statement shall not have been transmitted on or before the last Day of December following, or if any fraudulent or wilfully false Return shall have been transmitted, such Trustees are hereby declared to be incapable of prosecuting any Action in any Court of Law or Equity on behalf of such Society or Branch until they shall have duly furnished to the Registrar such Statement as aforesaid.

Quinquennial Returns to be sent to Registrar.

XVII. 'And whereas it is desirable, for the better Security of Friendly Societies, that correct Calcu-'lations of Tables of Payment and Allowances dependent on the Duration of Sickness and the Pro-'babilities of Human Life should be constructed for their Assistance; and it is expedient to collect 'Data and Facts resulting from the Experience of such Societies from Time to Time, for the Purpose 'of correcting such Calculations:' Be it enacted, That the Trustees or other Officers as aforesaid of every Society or Branch established under the Provisions of this Act, in which any Benefits are assured for an Allowance in Sickness, an Annuity, deferred or immediate, or a Sum to be paid on Death, shall, within Three Months after the Expiration of the Month of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and so again within Three Months after the Expiration of every Five Years succeeding, transmit to the Registrar a Return of the Rate of Sickness and Mortality experienced by the Society or Branch within the preceding Five Years, in such Form as shall be prepared for that Purpose, and furnished to the Trustees of every such Society or Branch, by the said Registrar, under the Direction of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Registrar to prepare Abstract of Returns for Parliament, &c.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That the Registrar shall cause to be made an Abstract and Report of all such annual and quinquennial Returns, and shall lay the same before One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and before both Houses of Parliament.

When Trustees shall be absent, &c. Registrar may order Stock to be transferred and Dividends paid.

XIX. And be it enacted, That whenever it shall happen that any Person in whose Name any Part of the several Stocks, Annuities, and Funds transferable at the Bank of England, or in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, is or shall be standing as a Trustee of any such Society or Branch, shall be out of England, Ireland, or Scotland respectively, or shall have been removed from his Office of Trustee, or shall be a Bankrupt, Insolvent, or Lunatic, or it shall be unknown whether such Trustee is living or dead, it shall be lawful for the Registrar to direct that the Accountant General, Secretary, or Deputy Secretary, or other proper Officer for the Time being of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, do transfer in the Books of the said Company such Stock, Annuities, or Funds standing as aforesaid to and into the Name of the newly appointed Trustee or Trustees, and also pay over to such Person or Persons as aforesaid the Dividends of such Stock, Annuities, or Funds; and whenever it shall happen that One or more only, and not all or both of such Trustees as aforesaid, shall be so absent, or have been removed, or be a Bankrupt, Insolvent, or Lunatic, or it be unknown whether any One or more of such Trustees be living or dead, it shall be lawful for the said Registrar to direct that the other and others of such Trustees do transfer such Stock, Annuities, or Funds to or into the Name of such Person so appointed Trustee as aforesaid, jointly with the continuing Trustees, if any, and also receive and pay over the Dividends of such Stock, Annuities, or Funds, as such Society shall direct.

Act to be an Indemnity to the Bank.

XX. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be a full and complete Indemnity and Discharge to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Officers and Servants, for all Acts and Things done pursuant hereto; and such Acts and Things shall not be questioned or impeached in any Court of Law or Equity to their Prejudice or Detriment.

Provisions of 39 G. 3. c. 79. and of 57 G. 3. c. 19. not to extend to Friendly Societies under this Act.

XXI. And be it enacted, That the Provisions of an Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act for the more effectual Suppression of Societies established for seditious and treasonable Purposes, and for better preventing treasonable and seditious Practices, and also of another Act passed in the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act for the more effectual preventing seditious Meetings and Assemblies, shall not extend to any Society or Branch established under this Act in which Benefits are assured to the Members depending on the Laws of Sickness and Mortality, or to any Meeting of the Members or Officers thereof, in which Society or Branch or at which Meeting no Business whatever is transacted other than that which directly and immediately relates to the Objects of the Society or Branch as declared in the Rules thereof, as they are set forth in the certified Copy thereof: Provided always, that the Trustees or other Officers of such Society or Branch, when required under the Hand of Two of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, shall give full Information to such Justices of the Nature, Objects, Proceedings, and Practices of such Society or Branch, and in default thereof the Provisions of the said recited Acts shall be in force with regard to such Society or Branch.

Disputes to be settled according to Rules of Society.

Questions of Equity to be settled by County Court, or Sheriff Court of Scotland.

XXII. And be it enacted, That if any Dispute shall arise between the Members, or Person claiming under or on account of any Member, of any Society or Branch established under this Act, and the Trustees, Treasurer, or other Officer or Committee thereof, it shall be settled in such Manner as the Rules of such Society or Branch shall direct, and the Decision so made shall be binding and conclusive; but if such Dispute be of such Kind that for the Settlement of it, according to the Laws now in force, recourse must be had to One of Her Majesty's Courts of Equity, or to the Court of Session, it may be referred, at the Option of either Party, to the Judge of the County Court or of the Sheriff Court in Scotland, who shall proceed ex parte, on Notice in Writing to the other of the said Parties being left at his usual Place of Residence or Abode Ten Days previously; and he is hereby authorized to require of all Parties who are or may have been Members, Trustees, or Officers of such Society to produce before him all Books or other Documents relating to the Concerns of such Society; and thereupon, if he shall so think fit, it shall be lawful for him to determine the said Dispute, and to displace any such Trustee or Officer, or to make such Award as the Justice of the Case, in his Opinion, may require, and such Decision or Award shall be binding and conclusive.

Rules for Arbitration, where such is appointed by Rules.

Justices may enforce the Award.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That if it shall be provided by the Rules of such Society or Branch that Disputes which may arise between any Member thereof and the Trustees, Committee, or Officers on the Part of the Society shall be settled by Arbitration, the Number of Arbitrators and Mode of Election shall be stated in the Rules; and in case any of such Arbitrators shall at any Time neglect or refuse to act, the Members of such Society or Branch at a General Meeting, or General Committee thereof, are hereby required forthwith to elect and appoint some other Person to be an Arbitrator in his Place; and the Rules shall direct in what Manner such Arbitrators, or any of them, shall proceed to determine such Disputes; and the Award so made by them, or so many as may be appointed for the Purpose, according to the Rules, shall be final and binding on all Parties without Appeal, and shall not be removed to any Court of Law or Equity; and if either of the said Parties shall refuse or neglect to comply with or conform to the Decision of the said Arbitrators, or the major Part of them, it shall and may be lawful for any One Justice of the Peace for the County within which such Society shall be established, upon good and sufficient Proof being adduced before him of such Award having been made, and of the Refusal of the Party to comply therewith, upon Complaint made by or on behalf of the Party aggrieved, to summon the Person against whom such Complaint shall be made to appear at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons, and upon his or her Appearance, or in default thereof upon due Proof upon Oath of the Service of such Summons, to make such Order thereupon as may to him seem just; and if the Sum of Money awarded, together with the Sum for Costs, not exceeding the Sum of Ten Shillings, as to such Justice shall seem meet, shall not be immediately paid, then such Justice shall, by Warrant under his Hand, cause such Sum and Costs as aforesaid to be levied by Distress, or by Distress and Sale of the Monies, Goods, Chattels, Securities, and Effects belonging to the said Party or to the said Society, together with all further Costs and Charges attending such Distress and Sale or other legal Proceedings, returning the Overplus (if any) to the said Party, or to the said Society, or to One of the Trustees thereof; and in default of such Distress being found, or in case of such other legal Proceeding being ineffectual, then to be levied by Distress and Sale of the proper Goods of the said Party or of the Officer of the said Society so neglecting or refusing as aforesaid, together with such further Costs and Charges as aforesaid, returning the Overplus (if any) to the Owner: Provided always, that whatever Sums shall be paid by any such Officer so levied on his or her Property or Goods in pursuance of the Award of Arbitrators, or Order of any Justice, shall be repaid, with all Damages accruing to him or her, by and out of the Monies Monies belonging to such Society, or out of the first Monies which shall be thereafter received by such Society.

If no Arbitrators appointed, or no Award given, Justices may decide.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That if the Rules of any such Friendly Society or Branch shall have provided for the Settlement of Disputes by Arbitration, but no Arbitrator shall have been appointed, or no Award shall have been made within Forty Days after such Complaint has been made to the Officers of such Society or Branch, or if the Rules shall have directed that any Dispute between the Members and the Trustees or other Officer on the Committee of Management shall be settled by Justices of the Peace, then it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace acting in the County or Borough in which the principal Business of the Society or Branch is carried on, on Complaint being made to him by any Member, or Person claiming under a Member thereof, of any Matter in dispute between him and such Society or Branch, to summon the Person against whom such Complaint shall be made to appear at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons; and upon his Appearance, or in default thereof upon due Proof on Oath of the Service of such Summons, it shall be lawful for any Two Justices to proceed to hear and determine the said Complaint; and in case the said Justices shall order any Sum of Money to be paid by such Person against whom such Complaint shall be made, and such Person shall not pay the same to the Person and at the Time specified by such Justices, they shall proceed to enforce their Order in the Manner herein-before directed to be used in case of any Neglect to comply with the Decision of the Arbitrators appointed under the Authority of this Act.

Arbitrators or Justices may direct expelled Member to be reinstated, and may award a Compensation in default.

XXV. And be it enacted, That in case any Member of any such Society or Branch shall have been expelled from such Society, and the Award of the Arbitrators or the Order of the Justices shall direct that he or she shall be reinstated, it shall be lawful for such Arbitrators to award or Justices to order, in default of such Reinstatement, such a Sum of Money to be paid to such Member by the Trustees of such Society as to such Arbitrators or Justices may seem just and reasonable, which said Sum of Money, if not paid, shall be recoverable from the said Society or Branch, or the Treasurer, Trustee, or other Officer, in the same Way as any Money awarded by Arbitrators is recoverable under this Act.

In case of Fraud or Imposition on the Funds, Justices may summon the Parties, and hear the Complaint.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That for the more effectually preventing Fraud and Imposition on the Funds of such Societies, if any Officer, Member, or any other Person, being or representing himself to be a Member of such Society or Branch, or the Nominee, Executor, Administrator, or Assignee of any Member thereof, or any other Person whatever, shall in or by any false Representation or Imposition obtain Possession of the Monies, Securities, Books, Papers, or other Effects of such Society or Branch, or any Part thereof, or having the same in his or her Possession shall withhold or misapply the same, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace acting in the County or Borough in which the principal Place of Business of such Society is situated, upon Complaint made on Oath or Affirmation by an Officer of such Society or Branch appointed for that Purpose, to summon such Person against whom such Complaint shall be made to appear at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons; and upon his or her Appearance, or in default thereof upon due Proof upon Oath or Affirmation of the Service of such Summons, it shall be lawful for any Two Justices acting in the County or Borough aforesaid to hear and determine the said Complaint; and upon due Proof of such Fraud the said Justices shall convict the said Party, and award double the Amount of the Money so obtained or withheld to be paid to the Treasurer, to be applied by him to the Purposes of the Society or Branch, or order the said Securities, Books, Papers, or other Effects to be delivered to the Society or Branch, together with such Costs as shall be awarded by the said Justices, not exceeding the Sum of Twenty Shillings; and in case such Person against whom such Complaint shall be made shall not pay the Sum of Money so awarded, to the Person and at the Time specified in the said Order to deliver the said Effects as aforesaid, such Justices are hereby required, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of such Person on whom such Order shall have been made, or by other legal Proceeding, together with such Costs as shall be awarded by the said Justices, not exceeding the Sum of Ten Shillings, and also the Costs and Charges attending such Distress and Sale or other legal Proceeding, returning the Overplus (if any) to the Owner; and in default of such Distress being found, or of such Effects as aforesaid being returned, the said Justices of the Peace shall commit such Person so proved to have offended to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for such a Period not exceeding Three Calendar Months as to them shall seem fit: Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the said Society or Branch from proceeding by Indictment or Complaint against the Party complained of; and provided also, that no Party shall be proceeded against by Indictment or Complaint if a previous Conviction has been obtained for the same Offence under the Provisions of this Act.

Upon Proof of Fraud, Justices may award double the Amount obtained, &c.

If Money awarded is not paid, the same may be levied by Distress.

In default of Distress, Offender may be committed to Prison.

Orders of Justices to be final, and not removable into Court of Law, &c.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That every Sentence, Order, and Adjudication of Justices under this Act shall be final and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes, and shall not be subject to Appeal, and shall not be removed or removable into any Court of Law, or restrained or restrainable by the Injunction of any Court of Equity; and that no Suspension, Advocation, or Reduction shall be competent: Provided always, that in Scotland the Sheriff, within his County, shall have such and the like Power, Authority, and Jurisdiction which is in this Act conferred upon any Justice or Justices of the Peace, and shall exercise the same in such and the like Form and Manner as is used in Cases of a summary Nature, and in the Recovery of Small Debts in the County Court.

Treasurers, &c. to render Ac-

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall have or receive any Part of the Monies, Effects, or Funds of or belonging to any such Society or Branch, or shall in any Manner have been or shall shall be intrusted with the Disposal, Management, or Custody thereof, or of any Securities, Books, Papers, or Property relating to the same, his or her Executors, Administrators, and Assigns respectively, shall, upon Demand made, or Notice in Writing given or left at the last or usual Place of Residence of such Persons, in pursuance of any Order of not less than Two Trustees or Three Members of the Committee or Board of Management, give in his Account at the usual Meeting of such Society or Branch, or to such Committee or Board of Management, to be examined and allowed or disallowed; and shall, on the like Demand or Notice, pay over all the Monies remaining in his Hands, and assign and transfer or deliver all Securities and Effects, Books, Papers, and Property, in his Hands or Custody, to the Treasurer or Trustee for the Time being, or to such other Person as such Committee or Board of Management shall appoint; and in case of any Neglect or Refusal to deliver such Account, or to pay over such Monies, or to assign, transfer, or deliver such Securities and Effects, Books, Papers, and Property, in manner aforesaid, it shall be lawful to and for the Members of every such Society, or Committee or Board of Management thereof, in the Name of the Treasurer or Trustee or other Officer thereof, to apply by Petition to the Registrar, who shall and may proceed thereupon in a summary Way, and make such Order therein as to such Registrar, in his Discretion, shall seem just.

counts, and upon Demand pay over Monies, &c. to Party appointed by Society, &c.;

and in case of Neglect, Application to be made to Registrar, who shall proceed summarily.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That on any Proceedings before the said Registrar he shall be authorized to inspect and to require the Production before him of all Books or other Documents relating to the Matter in dispute, and to administer an Oath to any Witness appearing before him; and every Person who upon such Oath shall wilfully and corruptly give any false Evidence before such Registrar shall be deemed to be guilty of Perjury.

Registrar may inspect Books and administer Oaths.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That all Orders made by the Registrar under the Provisions of this Act shall be final and binding on all Parties, without Appeal; and all Assignments, Orders, Transfers, or Sales made in pursuance of such Order shall be valid and effectual in Law; and if any Person shall refuse or neglect to obey such Order, and shall be convicted thereof, he shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Orders, &c. to be binding without Appeal.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State from Time to Time to fix reasonable Fees to be paid on any such Proceedings before the Registrar, and all such Fees shall be paid in the first instance by the Trustees of the Society or Branch; and the Registrar shall determine in and by his Award or Order by which of the Parties and in what Proportion the Expense of such Fees shall be finally borne; and the Trustees of such Society or Branch, having paid such Fees, shall be entitled to recover them from the Party or Parties against whom they shall be so awarded.

Secretary of State to fix Amount of Fees payable on Reference, and Registrar to determine who shall pay them.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That on the Trial of any Action, Indictment, or other Proceeding respecting the Property of any Society established under the Provisions of this Act, or in any Proceedings before any Justice of the Peace, Judge of the County Court, or the Registrar, any Member of such Society shall be a competent Witness, and shall not be objected to on account of any Interest he may have as such Member in the Result of such Action, Indictment, or other Proceeding.

Member of Friendly Society may be a Witness.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That a Minor may become a Member of any such Society or Branch, and he is hereby empowered to execute all Instruments, and give all necessary Acquittances; provided always, that such Minor shall not be competent during his Minority to hold any Office as Director, Trustee, Treasurer, or Manager in such Society or Branch.

Minors may be Members, and act, but not hold Office.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the Members of any such Society or Branch, by any Rule or Order or Resolution, to dissolve or determine such Society or Branch, so long as the Intents or Purposes declared by the Rules of such Society, or any of them, remain to be carried into effect, without obtaining the Votes of Consent of Five Sixths in Value of the then existing Members, to be ascertained in manner herein-after mentioned, and also the Consent of all Persons then receiving or then entitled to receive Relief either on account of Sickness, Age, or Infirmity, to be testified under their Hands individually and respectively; and for the Purpose of ascertaining the Votes of such Five Sixths in Value every Member shall be entitled to One Vote, and an additional Vote for every Five Years that he may have been a Member; provided also, that no One Member shall have more than Five Votes in the whole; and in all Cases of Dissolution the intended Appropriation or Division of the Funds or other Property shall be fairly and distinctly stated in the proposed Plan of Dissolution prior to such Consent being given; and it shall not be lawful for such Society or Branch by any Rule to direct the Division or Distribution of such Stock or Fund, or any Part thereof, to or amongst the several Members of such Society, other than for carrying into effect the general Intents and Purposes declared by the Rules originally certified; and all such Rules for the Dissolution or Determination thereof without such Consent as aforesaid, or for the Distribution or Division of the Stock or Funds contrary to the Rules, shall be void and of none Effect; and in the event of such Division or Misappropriation of the Funds without the Consent hereby declared to be requisite, any Trustee or other Officer or Person aiding or abetting therein shall be liable to the like Penalties as are in this Act provided in Cases of Fraud: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any Two or more Societies or Branches to become united or incorporated in One Society or Branch, upon such Terms as shall be approved by the major Part of the Trustees and Board of Management of both Societies or Branches.

Consent necessary for Dissolution of Society.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That all Rules, Alteration of Rules, Transcript or Copy of or Extracts from all Rules and Alteration of Rules, and all Awards, Writings, and Documents, of what Nature or Kind soever, relating to any Society or Branch, directed by any Act or Acts of Parliament to be certified by the Registrar, and purporting to be signed by him, shall, in the Absence of any Evidence to the contrary, Rules, &c. under Hand of Registrar to be received without Proof of Signature.

contrary, be received in all Courts of Law and Equity and elsewhere, without Proof of the Signature thereto.

Executors, &c. of Officers of certified Friendly Societies to pay Money due to Society before any other Debts, within Forty Days after Demand in Writing.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That if any Person appointed to any Office in any Friendly Society or Branch thereof established under this Act, and being intrusted with the keeping of the Accounts, or having in his Hands or Possession, by virtue of his said Office or Employment, any Monies or Effects belonging thereto, or any Deeds or Securities relating to the same, shall die, or become a Bankrupt or Insolvent, or have any Execution or Attachment or other Process issued, or Action or Diligence raised, against his Lands, Goods, Chattels, or Effects, or Property or Estate, heritable or moveable, or make any Assignment, Disposition, Assignation, or other Conveyance thereof, for the Benefit of his Creditors, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assignees, or other Persons having legal Right, or the Sheriff or other Officer executing such Process, or the Party using such Action or Diligence, shall, within Forty Days after Demand made in Writing by the Order of any such Society or Branch, or of not less than Three of the Committee of Management assembled at any Meeting thereof, deliver and pay over all Monies and other Things belonging to such Society or Branch to such Person as such Society or Committee shall appoint, and shall pay out of the Estates, Assets, or Effects, heritable or moveable, of such Person, all Sums of Money remaining due which such Person received by virtue of his said Office or Employment, before any other of his Debts are paid or satisfied, or before the Money directed to be levied by such Process as aforesaid, or which may be recovered or recoverable under such Diligence, is paid over to the Party issuing such Process or using such Diligence; and all such Assets, Lands, Goods, Chattels, Property, Estates, and Effects shall be bound to the Payment and Discharge thereof accordingly.

Member belonging to more than One Society not to be entitled to Benefits exceeding 100*l.*, or 30*l.* Annuity, or 20*s.* Sickness.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That if any Person after the passing of this Act shall become a Member of more than One Society or Branch, and thereby be entitled to certain Benefits on account of the same Kind of Assurance from more than One Society or Branch, it shall not be lawful for him to claim or receive such Benefit from any or either Society or Branch without signing a Declaration that the joint Value or Amount of all the Benefits in any One Kind of Assurance to which he may be entitled from any Society or Societies, Branch or Branches, of which he may be a Member, does not in the aggregate exceed the Amount of One hundred Pounds in One Sum, or an Annuity of Thirty Pounds per Annum, or a Sum in Sickness of Twenty Shillings per Week; and in case such Declaration shall not be true, such Member shall be liable to the Penalties herein-before enacted in case of Fraud.

Certified Societies may invest Monies with National Debt Commissioners, upon Declaration of exclusive Property.

In case Declaration not true, Money to be forfeited, and applied in manner directed by 9 G. 4. c. 92.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any certified Society, or certified Branch thereof, established under this Act, to pay directly into the Bank of England any Sum of Money not less than Fifty Pounds to the Account of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, upon the Declaration of the Treasurer or Trustees of such Society or Branch, or any Two or more of them, that such Monies belonging exclusively to the Society or Branch for which such Payment is intended to be made; and the Cashier of the Bank of England is hereby required to receive all such Monies, and to place the same to the Account raised in the Names of the said Commissioners for the Time being in the Books of the Bank, denominated "The Fund for Friendly Societies;" and in case such Declaration shall not be true, then and in every such Case the Sum of Money paid in on such Declaration shall be forfeited to the said Commissioners, and applied by them in the Manner directed by an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Savings Banks; and all the Clauses and Provisions of the Acts for the Time being in force relating to Savings Banks, with respect to the Account of such Banks, and the Regulation of Receipts, Certificates, or Orders concerning the same, shall be applicable to the Monies so paid in as aforesaid under the Authority of this Act, as if the same had been repeated herein; and every such Society or Branch shall, on paying Money directly into the Bank as aforesaid, be entitled to receive Receipts bearing Interest at the Rate of Two-pence per Centum per Diem: Provided always, that no fractional Part less than One Penny shall be allowed or paid as Interest upon the Principal Sum contained in such Receipt.

Powers of Attorney, &c. not liable to Stamp Duty.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That, except as herein-after provided, no Order of the Registrar, or Copy of Rules, Power, Warrant, or Letter of Attorney granted by any Person as Trustee of any Society or Branch established under this Act, for the Transfer of any Share in the Public Funds standing in the Name of such Trustee, nor any Receipt for Money contributed to the Funds of any such Society or Branch, or received by any Member, his Executors, Administrators, Assigns, or Attornies, from the Funds of such Society, nor any Bond to be given to or on account of any such Society or Branch, or by the Treasurer or Trustee or any Officer thereof, nor any Draft or Order, nor any Form of Policy, nor any Appointment of any Agent, nor any Certificate or other Instrument for the Revocation of any such Appointment, nor any other Document whatever required or authorized by or in pursuance of this Act, shall be subject or liable to or charged with any Stamp Duty.

For Payment of Sums not exceeding 50*l.* when Members die intestate.

XL. And be it enacted, That when on the Death of any Member of any such certified Friendly Society, or any certified Branch, or of any Friendly Society already established, any Sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds shall become payable, it shall be lawful for the Trustees for the Time being of such Society, if they shall be satisfied that no Will was made and left by such deceased Member, and that no Letters of Administration or Confirmation will be taken out of the Funds, Goods, and Chattels of such Depositor, to pay the same to the Widower or Widow of such Member, as the Case may be, or to the Child of such Member, if so directed by any Rule of such Society or Branch, and in case there shall be no such Direction, then to pay and divide the same to and amongst the Person or Persons entitled to the Effects of the deceased Intestate, without taking out Letters of Administration in England and Ireland, and without Confirmation in Scotland.

Payments to Persons who appear to Trustees to be entitled to Effects of deceased Members valid; but next of Kin, &c. to have Remedy against the Receiver.

XLI. And be it enacted, That whenever the Trustees of any certified Friendly Society or Branch, at any Time after the Decease of any Member, shall have paid and divided any Sum of Money to or amongst any Person or Persons who shall at the Time of such Payment appear to such Trustees to be entitled to the Effects of any deceased intestate Member, the Payment of any such Sum or Sums of Money shall be valid and effectual with respect to any Demand of any other Person or Persons as next of Kin of such deceased intestate Member, or as the lawful Representative or Representatives of such Member, against the Funds of such Society or Branch or against the Trustees thereof; but nevertheless such next of Kin or Representatives shall have Remedy for such Money so paid as aforesaid against the Person or Persons who shall have received the same.

Payment on Death of Members to be made to Executors, &c., and not to Nominees.

XLII. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for any Society established under any Act hereby repealed to grant any Assurance whereby the Sum assured on the Death of the Member shall be payable to any Nominee or to any other Person than the Widower or Widow of a Member, as the Case may be, or the Child, or the Executors, Administrators, or Assigns of such Member, or in case the Member shall die intestate, and the Sum payable on his Death shall not exceed Fifty Pounds, to the Person whom the Trustees shall consider entitled to the Goods and Effects of the Member so dying intestate: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall affect any Power, Privilege, or Exemption in respect of any Assurance legally made or granted before the passing of this Act under the Provisions of any of the Acts hereby repealed: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for any such Society to add to its Rules a Rule or Rules whereby any Sum payable on the Death of a Member may be made payable to the Executors, Administrators, or Assigns of such Member.

Existing Friendly Societies not to invest with National Debt Commissioners except for Assurances made before passing of this Act.

XLIII. And be it enacted, That no Friendly Society or Branch established under any Act now in force relating to Friendly Societies shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be entitled or authorized to pay directly into the Bank of England any Sum of Money to the Account of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, except so much as may be paid on account of Assurances made previous to the passing of this Act by any Society which has already invested its Funds or any Part thereof with the said Commissioners: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall affect the Right of any Society established under any of the Acts hereby repealed, and which shall have invested its Funds with the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt before the passing of this Act, to Receipts bearing Interest at such Rate as such Society were entitled to receive under the Provisions of the said Acts, for any Monies invested or hereafter to be invested with the said Commissioners on account of Assurances made before the passing of this Act.

Declaration to be made by Trustees on Investment; but if not true, Money to be forfeited and applied as directed by 9 G. 4. c. 92.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act a Declaration shall be made by the Trustees of every Friendly Society established as aforesaid, on the Payment into the Bank of England of any Sum of Money to the Account of the said Commissioners, that such Payment is on account of Assurances made previous to the passing of this Act, in such Form as the said Commissioners shall from Time to Time direct; and in case such Declaration shall not be true, then and in every such Case the Sum of Money paid on such Declaration shall be forfeited to the said Commissioners, to be applied by them in the Manner directed by an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Savings Banks.

Exemption from Stamp Duty not applicable to Assurances above Limits of this Act.

XLV. And be it enacted, That nothing in the said Acts now in force relating to Friendly Societies shall be construed to extend to grant any Exemption from Stamp Duty to any Friendly Society enrolled or certified under the said Acts which shall after the passing of this Act assure the Payment to or on the Death of any Member, or on any Contingency or for any Purpose to which the Payment of Sums may be assured under this Act, of a Sum exceeding One hundred Pounds, or of any Annuity exceeding Thirty Pounds per Annum, or of a Sum in Sickness not exceeding Twenty Shillings per Week.

Societies established under repealed Acts to be entitled to Privileges of this Act, &c.

XLVI. And be it enacted, That every Society duly enrolled or certified under any Act hereby repealed which shall not after the passing of this Act assure the Payment to or on the Death of any Member, or on any Contingency or for any Purpose for which the Payment of Sums may be assured under this Act, exceeding One hundred Pounds, or an Annuity exceeding Thirty Pounds per Annum, or any Sum in Sickness exceeding Twenty Shillings per Week, shall enjoy all the Exemptions and Privileges in this Act conferred upon any Society established under the Provisions of this Act.

Societies not to re-deposit with Commissioners without Consent of Comptroller General.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That no Friendly Society already established, nor any certified Society or certified Branch thereof, which has already invested or may hereafter invest any Money with the Commissioners for Reduction of the National Debt, shall be entitled to re-deposit any Monies with them, without the Consent of the said Commissioners, or of the Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller in their Behalf.

Provisions of this Act may be applied to benevolent and charitable Societies formed by voluntary Subscription, &c., if Rules are registered in pursuance of this Act.

XLVIII. 'And whereas several benevolent and charitable Institutions and Societies are formed by 'voluntary Subscriptions and Benefactions for the Purpose of relieving the physical Wants and 'Necessities of Persons in distressed Circumstances, and it is expedient to afford some Protection to 'the Funds thereof:' Be it therefore enacted, That if the Rules of any such Institution or Society, and all Alterations and Amendments thereof, shall be registered under the Provisions of this Act, then and in that Case the Clauses and Provisions herein contained, so far as the same relate to the giving of Security from any Treasurer or other Officer or Person, and to the vesting of the Effects in the Trustees for the Time being, and to their suing and being sued, and as to the Liability of the Treasurer or Trustee or other Officer, and to the protecting, securing, or recovering the Funds vested or being in such such Treasurer or Trustees, and for enforcing the rendering of Accounts by him or them, shall be extended to all and every such Institution or Society, which shall have and enjoy and be entitled to the Benefits of this Act, with respect to the several Matters as aforesaid, as fully and effectually as any Friendly Society or Branch registered under this Act can or may have or enjoy the same.

Construction of Terms.

XLIX. And be it enacted, That in the Construction of this Act, unless there shall be something in the Subject Matter or Context repugnant thereto, the Word "Society" shall include every Branch thereof; the Word "County" shall include County, Riding, Division, Borough, or Place; the Word "Justice" shall include Mayor, High Bailiff, Sheriff in Scotland, or other Magistrate; the Word "Registrar" shall signify the Registrar of Friendly Societies in England, Scotland, or Ireland, as the Case may be; Words importing the Singular Number shall include the Plural Number; and Words importing the Masculine Gender shall include Females.

CAP. CXVI.

An Act to amend an Act passed in the Tenth Year of Her present Majesty's Reign, for empowering the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods to purchase Land for a Harbour of Refuge and Breakwater in the Isle of Portland; and to make further Provisions for the Division and Application of the Purchase Money. [15th August 1850.]

10 & 11 Vict. c. 24.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Tenth Year of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to empower the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods to purchase Land for the Purposes of a Harbour of Refuge and Breakwater in the Isle of Portland in the County of Dorset, and thereby the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings were empowered out of any Monies granted by Parliament for Harbours of Refuge, to purchase and to extinguish the Estates, Rights, and Interests claimed by the Tenants and Inhabitants of the Manor of Portland in, upon, and over the Common and Commonable Lands of the said Manor mentioned in the Schedule to the said Act, and to pay the Price for the same into the Bank of England to the Account of the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales; and by the said Act it was enacted, that as soon as the said Monies should have been paid into the Bank as aforesaid the said Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales, or any Assistant Commissioner appointed by them for that Purpose, should proceed to ascertain, determine, and award the Names of the Parties who were entitled to such Estates, Rights, and Interests in the said Common and Commonable Lands, and the Amount or Value of their respective Shares, Rights, and Interests therein, and the proportionate Amount of the Price to be paid for such Estates, Rights, and Interests to which each Party so entitled as aforesaid was entitled in respect of his Share, Right, or Interest as aforesaid; and the Award of the said last-mentioned Commissioners, under their Common Seal, or Assistant Commissioner, in Writing under his Hand and Seal, should be binding on all Parties claiming such Estates, Rights, and Interests as aforesaid; and it was also enacted, that all Costs and Expenses of the said Inclosure Commissioners and Assistant Commissioner should in the first place be paid out of the Monies so to be paid into the Bank of England, and that the Residue of the said Monies should be paid and divided between and amongst the said several Parties to be named in the said Award, and in the Shares and Proportions to be ascertained and set forth in such Award: And whereas the said Estates, Rights, and Interests were some Time since, in pursuance of the Provisions of the said recited Act in that Behalf, purchased for the Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds Sterling, the whole of which Sum was paid into the Bank of England to the Account of the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales: And whereas Nathan Wetherell Esquire was duly appointed by the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales an Assistant Commissioner for the Purpose of the said recited Act, and as such Assistant Commissioner the said Nathan Wetherell held Meetings in the said Isle of Portland for the Purpose of ascertaining and deciding upon the Claims of the several Parties interested in the said Purchase Money so paid for the said Common and Commonable Lands: And whereas at such Meetings the said Nathan Wetherell was attended by the Counsel and Solicitors of the said Tenants and Inhabitants respectively; and at One of such Meetings held on the Seventh Day of April One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight the said Tenants and Inhabitants, by their respective Counsel and Solicitors, came to an Arrangement or Agreement in Writing in relation to the said Sum of Twenty-thousand Pounds, which was signed on their respective Behalves by the said Counsel, and was to the Effect that Half the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, should be divided between the said Tenants according to the Rents paid by them respectively and that the Sum of Five thousand Pounds, further Part of the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds should be applied for the general Benefit of the Inhabitants of the said Isle, as the Board of Woods should decide, and that out of the remaining Five thousand Pounds of the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, and the Dividends and Interest upon the whole Fund until applied, the Claims of the Lessees of the Crown (if any) in the said Common and Commonable Land should be satisfied, and the Costs of all Parties properly incurred should be paid, and that the Surplus or Residue of the said last-mentioned Sum of Five thousand Pounds, and the Dividends and Interest, should be applied for the Benefit of the said Inhabitants, as the Board might further decide, and that the said Board should decide all Questions as to the Propriety and Amount of the Costs in relation to the Premises, in case

'the

'the Parties should differ about the same, and that an Act, or Clauses in a Government Act, should be 'obtained for carrying out the said Arrangement, if requisite: And whereas, after the said Arrange- 'ment or Agreement was come to, the said Nathan Wetherell, by an Award in Writing under his Hand 'and Seal, bearing Date the Twenty-fifth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, 'awarded that the Persons named in the First Schedule thereto were entitled, as Tenants of the said Manor, 'to Estates, Rights, and Interests in the said Common and Commonable Lands taken by the said Com- 'missioners of Her Majesty's Woods, and that the Sums written opposite the Name and Names of the 'Person or Persons so named was the proportionate Amount of the Price to be paid to such Person or 'Persons as aforesaid for their respective Estates, Rights, and Interests in the said Common and Com- 'monable Lands, and that the Persons named in the Second Schedule to his said Award were entitled, 'as Lessees of the Crown, to certain Rights and Interests upon and over the said Common and Com- 'monable Lands, and that the total Price payable to such Lessees should be Five hundred and fifty-two 'Pounds Eleven Shillings, and that the Sums set opposite their respective Names were the proportionate 'Amounts of the said Price to be paid to them respectively for and in respect of the said Rights and 'Interests: And whereas the total Sum so awarded by the said Nathan Wetherell as aforesaid, exclusive 'of the said Sum of Five hundred and fifty-two Pounds Eleven Shillings, was the Sum of Ten thousand 'Pounds, and the whole of the said Sums of Ten thousand Pounds and of Five hundred and fifty-two 'Pounds Eleven Shillings have actually been paid, in accordance with the aforesaid Award of the said 'Nathan Wetherell: And whereas the said Lands are now in the Possession of the Crown, and used and 'occupied for the Public Service: And whereas Disputes and Differences have arisen amongst the Parties 'interested or claiming to be interested as regards the said recited Agreement, and the Appropriation 'of the Monies in pursuance thereof, and it is expedient that such Disputes and Differences should be set 'at rest, and that Provision should be made for the Application of the Residue of such Purchase Money 'for the Benefit of the Parties interested therein who have not hitherto received Compensation for their 'Rights and Interests, and that all Acts and Payments already done and made under the said recited Act 'and Award should be confirmed, and that the said recited Act should be amended:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Award of the said Nathan Wetherell, and all Acts and Payments already done and made thereunder, or under the said Arrangement or Agreement, shall be and the same are hereby sanctioned and confirmed.

Acts and Payments done and made under Award confirmed.

II. And be it enacted, That out of so much of the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds as remains after Payment of the Monies which have already been paid or applied under or in pursuance of the aforesaid Arrangement or Agreement, or the said Award, or the said recited Act, or any of them, and out of the Interest and Dividends which have accrued and shall accrue in respect of the whole of the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, or of such Portion thereof as shall for the Time being have been actually unpaid, shall be paid all Costs, Charges, and Expenses incidental to the future carrying out of the said Arrangement or Agreement and Award, and to the obtaining of this Act, and carrying into effect all Acts, Matters, and Things by this Act or by the said recited Act (except in so far as the same is hereby repealed) sanctioned and authorized or directed, together also with the Costs, Charges, and Expenses properly incurred up to and inclusive of the Twenty-ninth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty by or on behalf of the Petitioners to Parliament against this Act, and in the event of any Difference as to any of the said Costs, Charges, and Expenses the same shall be ascertained and taxed by the proper Officer.

Application of the 20,000*l.* and Interest.

III. And be it enacted, That the ultimate Residue of the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, Interest and Dividends, shall be appropriated and paid, or applied, laid out, or invested, in manner following; (that is to say,) the Sum of One thousand Pounds, Part of the said ultimate Residue, shall be applied in or towards providing and constructing Wells, Pumps, Tanks, Reservoirs, and other Works for the better Supply of Water to or for the several Villages in the said Island for the Use of the Inhabitants at large of the said Island, one Half of the said Sum of One thousand Pounds to be paid over for that Purpose by the said Inclosure Commissioners to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said Island for the Time being, upon the Production by them to the said Commissioners of a Contract or Contracts with the said Churchwardens and Overseers by some competent and responsible Person or Persons for the Execution of such Works to the Satisfaction of such Commissioners, and the other Half thereof to be paid over to the same Parties on the Production to the said Commissioners of a Certificate of a practical Engineer, or other competent Person, of the due and proper Execution of such Works, according to such Contract or Contracts; the Sum of One thousand Pounds, other Part of the said ultimate Residue, shall be forthwith invested by the said Inclosure Commissioners in the Purchase of Three Pounds per Centum Reduced Bank Annuities in the Names of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being as Trustees thereof; and the Dividends and Income of such Investment (after deducting any Expenses attending the Transfers and Management thereof) shall from Time to Time be paid over half-yearly by the said last-mentioned Commissioners to the local Committee for the Time being having the Management of the Royal Portland Dispensary, to be by them applied, in such Manner as the said local Committee shall think fit and proper, in aid and for the Benefit of such Institution, and the Receipt of the Chairman for the Time being of such Committee shall be a good and sufficient Discharge to the said Commissioners for such Dividends and Income; the Sum of Four thousand Pounds, further Part of such ultimate Residue, shall be forthwith invested by the said Inclosure Commissioners in the Names of the said Commissioners for the Time being of

of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, who shall invest the clear Dividends and Income thereof, from Time to Time as they arise, in the Purchase in their Names of Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, and accumulate the same in the way of Compound Interest until the last Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and that thenceforth the clear Dividends and Income of the accumulated Principal Fund in such Annuities as the same shall arise, and also the whole or such Part of the Principal Fund itself as the said last-mentioned Commissioners shall in their Discretion from Time to Time by Writing under their Hands and Seal award and direct, shall be paid over by the same Commissioners to a Committee to be called "The Portland Ferry Bridge Committee," to consist of the Persons herein-after mentioned; and the Remainder of such ultimate Residue shall be invested and applied in or towards the providing and Endowment of Schools and School Buildings, and Teachers, in the said Island for the Education of the Children of the Inhabitants thereof for the Time being, at such Time or Times, in such Proportions, on such Terms and Conditions, and in such Manner, in all respects, as the Chief Commissioner of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being shall by any Writing under his Hand and Seal direct and appoint.

Constitution of the Bridge Committee, and Application of Monies paid to them.

IV. And be it enacted, That the said Portland Ferry Bridge Committee shall consist of the following Persons; that is to say, the Trustees, not exceeding Three in Number, named and appointed in and by the present or any future Royal Grant of Tonnage Money to or for the Use of the Inhabitants of the said Island for the Time being, the Steward of Her Majesty's Manor of Portland for the Time being, and Five other Persons Inhabitants of the said Island to be from Time to Time chosen and elected in the Manner herein-after mentioned; and that such Committee shall from Time to Time pay, apply, and expend all Dividends, Income, and Monies which shall be so paid to them by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings as aforesaid (after deducting and retaining all Costs and Expenses), in and for or towards procuring and obtaining the Reduction from Time to Time as far as may be, or the ultimate Extinction if found practicable and thought desirable by the said Committee, of the Tolls payable for passing over the Bridge erected over the River or Water called The Portland Ferry under or by virtue of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for making and maintaining a Bridge over the River called The Portland Ferry in the County of Dorset, with proper Approaches thereto, and thereupon acquiring such Right and Title to and obtaining such Conveyance or Assurance of the said Bridge and the Approaches thereto, and the ancient Ferry over which it passes, and the Messuage or Toll House, Lands and Hereditaments belonging thereto, and the Benefit and Exercise of the Powers and Provisions of the said Act for making and maintaining the same, upon such Terms and Conditions as shall by the said Committee be made and agreed upon with the Commissioners under the said last-mentioned Act, and according to such Rules and Regulations, and in such Manner in all respects, as the said Committee shall think most for the Relief, Benefit, and Advantage of the Inhabitants at large of the said Island of Portland for the Time being: Provided always, and it is hereby declared, that the Reduction or Extinction of the Tolls charged and chargeable in respect of Foot Passengers passing over the said Bridge shall be the primary Object of the Application of the said Sum of Four thousand Pounds, and the Dividends and Income thereof.

5 & 6 W. 4. c. 70.

Mode of Election of the Inhabitants who are to be Members of the Bridge Committee.

V. And be it enacted, That the Five Inhabitants of the said Island who are to be Members of the said Committee shall be from Time to Time elected and chosen, and their full Number kept up by new Elections as often as Occasion by Death, Incapacity, or Resignation shall require, by the Majority of the rated Inhabitants of the said Island for the Time being present at a public Meeting to be convened in the said Island by and held before the Steward of the said Manor for the Time being by at least Ten Days previous Notice in Writing under his Hand affixed at the principal outer Doors of the several Churches and licensed Dissenting Chapels in the said Island, and that the Meeting for the Election of such first Five Persons shall be held within Twenty-one Days after the said last Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

Regulating Proceeding of Bridge Committee.

VI. And be it enacted, That the said Committee shall hold their First Meeting in the said Island on the First Thursday in the Month of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and by Adjournment once at least in every Six Months thereafter, and shall at such First Meeting, and on the same Day annually afterwards, select One of the Members thereof to act as Chairman and One of them to act as Secretary, and the Secretary shall keep Minutes of all the Proceedings at the Meetings thereof in a Book which shall be furnished for that Purpose, and shall give Notice of all Extraordinary Meetings to each Member of the said Committee by Post at least Three clear Days before the same shall be held, and shall therein express the Object of every such Extraordinary Meeting, at which nothing shall be done or transacted but what shall be so expressed, and any such Extraordinary Meeting may at any Time be convened and held either by a Resolution for that Purpose at a previous adjourned Meeting, or by a Requisition in Writing to the Secretary from any Two Members of the said Committee; and that all Matters which shall be brought before any of the said Meetings shall be decided by the Majority of Votes of the Members attending the same, and at any Meeting whereat the Chairman so elected as aforesaid shall not be present the Members attending the same shall appoint One of their Number to be Chairman thereof, and if upon any Matter there shall be an Equality of Votes the Chairman shall have a second or casting Vote: Provided always, that no Order, Act, Resolution, or Proceeding made or done by the said Committee shall be revoked, altered, or suspended unless at some subsequent Extraordinary Meeting to be called as aforesaid, nor unless there shall be at such subsequent Extraordinary Meeting a Number of the Members of the Committee equal to or greater than the Number present at the Meeting when such

Order,

Order, Act, Resolution, or Proceeding was made, done, or passed; provided further, that no Member of the said Committee or the Secretary thereof shall be entitled to any Payment for the Discharge of their Duties as Members of the said Committee, or as Secretary, without Prejudice to their being reimbursed Money out of Pocket attending to such Duties as aforesaid.

Accounts to be kept by Bridge Committee.

VII. And be it enacted, That the said Committee shall from Time to Time cause to be provided and kept by their Secretary for the Time being One or more Book or Books in which all Monies to be received and paid by virtue of this Act shall from Time to Time be fairly set down and entered, expressing the Time when and the Name of the Person or Persons to or from whom the same were so received or paid, and that every Year at the General Quarter Sessions of the Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel at Dorchester in and for the County of Dorset the said Book or Books shall be produced and shown to the Justices at such Sessions, together with proper Vouchers for any Payments made, which said Justices shall state, settle, and balance the Accounts from the said Books, and finally pass and allow the same: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any One or more Inhabitants of the said Island to appear before the said Justices to be heard in the Matter of the said Accounts.

Receipts of Bridge Committee to be sufficient Discharges.

VIII. And be it enacted, That all Receipts in Writing signed at any Meeting of the said Committee by the Chairman and any Two of the Members present thereat, and countersigned by the Secretary, shall be full Discharges for all Monies to be payable to the said Committee under this Act, and that the said Committee shall have and exercise all requisite Powers and Authorities for effecting and carrying out the Objects and Purposes for which the said Sum of Four thousand Pounds and the Accumulation and Increase thereof is and are hereby made applicable, and especially the Power to hold to them and their Successors the said Bridge, Ferry, Messuage and Toll House, Lands and Hereditaments, and Real Estate.

Indemnity for Commissioners.

IX. And be it enacted, That, notwithstanding anything in the said recited Act and Agreement or Arrangement, or either of them, contained to the contrary, the said Inclosure Commissioners may and they are hereby required to pay and apply so much of the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds and the Interest and Dividends and the Accumulations thereof as has not been yet applied under the Provisions of the said Act or the said Arrangement or Agreement in the Manner and for the Purposes in this Act directed, and that the said last-mentioned Commissioners or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, or any or either of them, shall not be bound to see to the Application or be answerable for the Misapplication or Nonapplication of any Monies to be paid by them under the Directions in this Act contained.

Indemnity to Persons acting under this Act.

X. And be it enacted, That every Commissioner, Trustee, or Person acting under this Act shall be charged only for such Monies as he shall actually receive by virtue of this Act, notwithstanding his giving or signing or joining in giving or signing any Receipt for the sake of Conformity or Compliance with this Act, and no One or more of such Commissioners, Trustees, or Persons shall be answerable or accountable for the other or others of them or for any involuntary Losses; and all such Commissioners, Trustees, or Persons may, out of the Monies which shall come to their Hands by virtue of this Act, retain to and reimburse themselves or himself respectively all Costs and Expenses which he, they, or any of them may pay or be put unto in or about the Discharge of the Duties by this Act reposed on him or them.

For Purposes of this Act Commissioners of Woods, &c. to be a Body Corporate.

XI. And be it enacted, That for the Purposes of this Act, and of all Matters and Things hereby authorized to be done under the Authority of this Act by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, they the said Commissioners for the Time being shall be and they are hereby constituted a Corporation by the Name and Style of "The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings," and by that Name, for the Purposes of this Act, they the said Commissioners shall and may have perpetual Succession, and use a Common Seal to be by them from Time to Time provided and altered as they shall think fit, and shall and may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, and take Lands and Hereditaments to them and their Successors for ever for the Purposes of this Act.

Provision in recited Act as to any Estate or Interest in common to extend to this Act.

XII. And be it enacted, That the Provision contained in the said recited Act relating to Cases where Parties entitled to Rights or Interests in the said Common or Commonable Lands are so entitled for limited Interests only shall be applicable to all Cases under this Act and the said recited Act, Agreement, and Award, or either of them, where the Sum payable in respect of any Estate or Interest shall exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and shall extend to all Cases where any such Sum shall be payable in respect of any Estate, Right, or Interest belonging to Parties under any Disability or Incapacity.

XIII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where the Sum payable by virtue of this Act, or the said recited Act, Agreement, and Award, or either of them, in respect of any Estate, Right, or Interest, shall not exceed Twenty Pounds, and the Person entitled to such Estate, Right, or Interest shall be under any Disability or Incapacity, such Sum shall and may be paid to the Guardian, Committee, or Husband of such Person; and where any such Person shall have a limited Interest only in such Estate, Right, or Interest the whole of such Sum shall and may nevertheless be paid to the Person having such limited Interest, to his or her Guardian, Committee, or Husband, as the Case may be.

'WHEREAS for some Time past Arrangements have subsisted between several Railway Companies 'for the Transmission without Interruption of the through Traffic in Passengers, Animals, 'Minerals, and Goods passing over different Lines of Railway, for the Purpose of affording, in respect to 'such Passengers, Animals, Minerals, and Goods, the same or the like Facilities as if such Lines had 'belonged to One Company, which Arrangements are commonly known as and in this Act are designated 'as "the Clearing System," and which Arrangements are conducted under the Superintendence of a 'Committee appointed by the Boards of Directors of such several Railway Companies, which Committee 'is in this Act designated "the Committee," and the Business of such Committee has heretofore been 'and is now carried on at a Building appropriated for the Purpose in Seymour Street, adjoining the 'Euston Station of the London and North-western Railway Company: And whereas the Clearing 'System has been productive of great Convenience to the Public, and of a considerable Saving of 'Expense in the Transmission of Passengers, Animals, Minerals, and Goods over the Lines of the several 'Railway Companies Parties to such Association; but considerable Difficulty has been experienced in 'carrying into effect the Objects of the Association, in consequence of the Committee not possessing the 'Power of prosecuting or defending Actions or Suits, or taking other legal Proceedings: And whereas 'George Carr Glyn Esquire is the present Chairman, and Kenneth Morison is the present Secretary 'of the Committee: And whereas the Purposes aforesaid cannot be effected without the Authority of 'Parliament:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Companies which at the Time of the passing of this Act are Parties to the Clearing System, and every other Company which shall in manner hereafter mentioned become Party to the same, shall be subject to the Provisions of this Act.

Companies Parties to the Clearing System to be subject to the Provisions of this Act.

II. And be it enacted, That if any Company which may not be a Party to the Clearing System shall, by Writing sealed with the Common Seal of such Company, request the Committee to admit such Company to be a Party to the Clearing System, and the Committee shall assent to such Request, such Company shall from the Time of such Assent being given, or at such other Time as may be specified in the said Request, become a Party to the Clearing System.

Other Companies may join, with Assent of Committee.

III. And be it enacted, That if any Company shall, by Writing sealed with the Common Seal of such Company, give Notice to the Committee of the Desire of such Company to cease to be a Party to the Clearing System, such Company shall, at the Expiration of One Calendar Month from the Time when such such Notice shall be given, or if a more distant Time shall be stated in such Notice then at the Time so stated, cease to be a Party to the Clearing System.

Companies may retire, on giving Notice.

Committee may give Company Notice to retire.

IV. And be it enacted, That if not less than Two Thirds of the Committee present at a Meeting specially summoned shall, by Writing signed by their Secretary, or by Two Members of the Committee, give Notice to any Company that such Company shall cease to be a Party to the Clearing System at a Time named in such Notice, not being less than One Calendar Month from the Time of giving such Notice, such Company shall at the Time so named cease to be a Party to the Clearing System.

Each Company to appoint a Member of the Committee.

V. And be it enacted, That each Company Party to the Clearing System shall at all Times be entitled to be represented on the Committee by One Delegate appointed by the Board of Directors of such Company from Time to Time, such Appointment to be certified in Writing by the Secretary or any Two Directors of such Company: Provided always, that, notwithstanding any Company may happen to be unrepresented by a Delegate at any Meeting, the Acts of the Committee shall be valid.

Meetings of the Committee, Quorum, &c.

VI. And be it enacted, That the Committee shall meet at One of the Clock in the Afternoon of the Second Wednesday in the Months of March, June, September, and December in every Year, or so soon thereafter as a Quorum shall be assembled, and at any other Times whereof the Secretary shall, at the written Request of the Chairman for the Time being, or any Two Members of the Committee, give at least Ten Days Notice in Writing to every Company Party to the Clearing System, or the Secretary of every such Company; and every such Meeting may be adjourned from Time to Time and from Place to Place as the Committee shall think proper; and Meetings and adjourned Meetings of the Committee shall be held at the said Building in Seymour Street, except when the Committee shall have appointed some other Place, and then at such other Place; and in order to constitute a Meeting of the Committee there shall be present at least Ten Members; and, except where otherwise provided, all Questions at every Meeting shall be determined by the Majority of Votes of the Committee present, and in case of an equal Division of Votes the Chairman of the Meeting shall have a casting Vote, in addition to his Vote as One of the Committee; and Notice of the Business to be brought before any Meeting shall, at least Six Days before the Day of such Meeting, be given to every Company Party to the Clearing System, or the Secretary of every such Company.

Appointment of the Chairman.

VII. And be it enacted, That until the First Meeting of the Committee which shall be held after the passing of this Act the said George Carr Glyn, or other the Chairman of the Committee for the Time being, shall continue in Office; and at the First Meeting of the Committee which shall be held after the passing of this Act, and in the Month of March in each succeeding Year, the Committee present at the Meeting shall, if they think fit, either continue in Office the Chairman for the Time being, or choose another Chairman; and a General Meeting of the Committee specially summoned shall have Power to remove any Chairman; and if any Chairman shall die, or resign, or be removed, the Committee shall have Power, as soon as may be, to choose some other Person to fill the Vacancy thereby occasioned; but every Chairman elected to supply a Vacancy other than at a General Meeting in the Month of March in any Year shall continue in Office so long only as the Person in whose Place he shall be so elected would have been entitled to continue if such Death, Resignation, or Removal had not happened: Provided always, that it shall not be necessary that the Person chosen as Chairman be a Delegate of any of the Companies Parties to the Clearing System; but in case he shall not be a Delegate he shall not be entitled to vote on any Question unless in the Case of an Equality of Votes, when he shall be entitled to give the casting Vote.

Election of Chairman.

VIII. And be it enacted, That if at any Meeting of the Committee the Chairman shall not be present the Committee present shall choose One of their Members to be Chairman of such Meeting.

Appointment of Secretary.

IX. And be it enacted, That the said Kenneth Morison shall be the Secretary to the Committee until he die, or resign, or be removed; and that the Committee shall have the Power to remove him and all future Secretaries; and that in the event of the Resignation, or Death, or such Removal as aforesaid of any Secretary, the Committee shall appoint a Secretary to the Committee.

Appointment of Treasurer.

X. And be it enacted, That the Committee may from Time to Time appoint a Treasurer, and remove such Treasurer from his Appointment, and prescribe and alter the Duties of the Office of Treasurer, and take from the Treasurer such Security as they shall think fit, which Security may be taken in the Name or Names of such Person or Persons as the Committee approve of.

As to Monies received by Committee.

XI. And be it enacted, That any Money which shall be received by the Committee shall be held by the Committee as Trustees for the Company or Companies to whom the Committee shall decide such Money to be payable; but no Member of the said Committee shall be answerable for any such Money as may be lost or withheld by reason of the Misconduct, Default, or Insolvency of the Treasurer, or of any Banker or Agent in whose Hands the same may be, or by reason of any Cause other than the personal Misconduct of such Member.

Accounts to be settled, and Balance ascertained and declared by the Committee.

XII. And be it enacted, That the Accounts of the Clearing System, and the Balances due to and from the several Companies Parties thereto, shall be settled and adjusted by the Secretary of the Committee for the Time being, which Secretary shall also settle and determine the Amount to be from Time to Time contributed to the Funds of the Clearing System by the Companies Parties thereto; and in case of any Difference respecting such Accounts the Decision of the Committee, to the Effect that any Balance or Sum is payable by any Company then or theretofore Party to the Clearing System, shall be final and conclusive, and such Sum or Balance shall be a Debt due to the said Committee.

Expenses to be paid out of the Funds of the Clearing System.

XIII. And be it enacted, That the Committee shall, out of the Funds of the Clearing System, pay all the Expenses of the Clearing System, and all Costs, Charges, Damages, and Expenses which the Members of the Committee, or any or either of them, shall as such Members or Member, or which the Secretary as nominal nominal Plaintiff or Defendant, or other Party, on behalf of the Committee, bear, sustain, or be put to, and that the Members of the Committee and Secretary shall be completely indemnified and saved harmless out of the Funds of the Clearing System, and by the Companies Parties to the Clearing System, of, from, and against all Action and Actions, Suit and Suits, Proceeding and Proceedings, of any Sort, Costs, Charges, Damages, and Expenses, to which they or any or either of them may in any way be subjected, as Members or Member of the Committee, by reason of anything which they or he may bonâ fide do or omit to do, whether such Deed or Omission be within their Powers or not.

Committee may sue for Balances or Sums due.

XIV. And be it enacted, That the Committee may, by Action of Debt in the Name of their Secretary, recover from any Company any Balance or Sum which such Committee shall decide to be payable by such Company, whether to any other Company or on account of the Clearing System, and whether such Company be still at the Time of such Decision or has then ceased to be a Party to the Clearing System, and whether such Sum or Balance shall or shall not have been previously ascertained by the Secretary to be payable.

Form of Action for Recovery of Balances, &c.

XV. And be it enacted, That the Declaration for the Recovery of such Sum or Balance may be in the Form or to the Effect of the Form given in the Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed, and that the Directions contained in the said Schedule for the Use of the same shall be taken as Part of this Act.

Evidence.

XVI. And be it enacted, That if the Defendants in such Action shall plead that they never were indebted, then, on Proof that the Committee decided the Sum in question to be payable by the Defendants, and that the Defendants were either at the Time of such Decision or at some previous Time a Party to the Clearing System, and in the latter Case upon further Proof that such Sum was decided to be payable in respect of some Transactions, Matters, or Expenses which happened or were sustained whilst the Defendants were Parties to the Clearing System, the Plaintiff shall be entitled to a Verdict on that Plea.

Plea.

XVII. And be it enacted, That the Defendants in such Action may plead any Matter showing that they have since the Time of the Decision discharged the Sum or Balance so decided to be payable, and shall not plead any Plea with a Plea denying the Plaintiff to be Secretary.

Entries in Books.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That the Committee shall cause Notes, Minutes, or Copies, as the Case may require, of all Appointments made or Contracts entered into by them, and of the Orders and Proceedings of all their Meetings, to be duly entered in Books to be kept by them for that Purpose; and every such Entry shall be signed by the Chairman of the Meeting at which such Appointments, Contracts, Orders, or Proceedings respectively took place, who shall add the Word "Chairman" to his Signature, and which Entries may be made and signed either at or after the Meetings to which they respectively relate; and every Entry purporting to be so signed shall be received as Evidence in all Courts, and before all Judges, Justices, and others, without Proof of such respective Meetings having been duly convened or held, or of the Persons making or entering such Orders or Proceedings being Members of the Committee, or of the Signature of such Chairman, or of the Fact of his having been Chairman, all which last-mentioned Matters shall be presumed, till the contrary be proved.

Books of Committee to be Evidence, and Committee, &c. competent Witnesses.

XIX. And be it enacted, That on the Trial of any such Action, after it is proved to the Satisfaction of the Court or Judge trying the Cause that such Company is or had once been such a Party, the Books kept by the Committee shall be primâ facie Evidence of the Truth of the Matters therein stated and contained; and the Secretary, although the nominal Plaintiff, and the Members of the Committee, shall be competent Witnesses, either for the Plaintiff or for the Defendants.

Committee may sue or be sued in the Name of their Secretary.

XX. And be it enacted, That the Committee may in all Cases sue and be sued in the Name of the Secretary to the Committee; and that in all Proceedings at Law and in Equity, and in Bankruptcy, or of any other Sort, whether civil or criminal, the Name of the Secretary may be used instead of the Names of the Members of the Committee; and Proofs, in Cases of Bankruptcy, Insolvency, or in Winding-up Affairs, may be made by the Secretary for the Committee.

In Criminal Proceedings Property of Committee to be deemed the Property of Secretary.

XXI. And be it enacted, That in any Indictment or Information for any Felony or Misdemeanor wherein it shall be necessary to state the Ownership of any Property whatsoever, whether Real or Personal, and the same shall either belong to the Committee or be in their Custody, or in the Custody or Possession of any Officer, Clerk, or Servant of the Committee, or of any Person employed for the Purpose or in the Capacity of Clerk or Servant by the Committee, or in or on any Building or Land used for the Purposes of the Clearing System, or shall be used or intended to be used for the Purposes of the Clearing System, it shall be sufficient to state such Property to belong to the Secretary of the Committee.

Criminal Proceedings to be prosecuted in Name of Secretary.

XXII. And be it enacted, That in any Indictment for Embezzlement, wherein it shall be necessary to state the Party charged with the Embezzlement to have been the Clerk or Servant of some Master or Masters, or to have been employed for the Purpose or in the Capacity of Clerk or Servant by some Master or Masters, and such Masters shall have been the Committee, it shall be sufficient in such Indictment to name the Secretary of the Committee in every Place in such Indictment where the Names of the Members of the Committee would but for this Enactment be required to be inserted.

Service of Notices.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That every Notice or Requisition on the Business of the Clearing System, or given pursuant to this Act, shall be sufficient if it be in Writing signed by the Secretary of the Committee, or Secretary or other Officer of the Company giving the same, and if it be sent by the General Post addressed to the Secretary of the Company for whom the same is intended, in case such Notice or Requisition be intended for any Company, or to the Secretary at the principal Office of the Clearing System, in case such Notice or Requisition be intended for the Committee; and Proof of such Notice or

Requisition

Requisition being deposited in any public Letter Box or Receiving House for Letters, intended to be forwarded by the General Post, shall be deemed Proof of the due Service of such Notice or Requisition; and Notices or Requisitions for each Member of the Committee shall be sufficient if sent in manner aforesaid, addressed to him at the principal Office of the Company whom he represents.

Description of Companies and Committee in legal Proceedings.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That in all Pleadings or Proceedings, civil or criminal, when it shall be required to mention all the Companies Parties to the Clearing System, or the Committee, it shall be sufficient to mention the Companies by the Description of "The Companies Parties to the Clearing System mentioned in the Railway Clearing Act, 1850," and to describe the Committee by the Description of "The Clearing Committee mentioned in the Railway Clearing Act, 1850," without stating the Names of the individual Companies and Members.

Description of the Secretary.

XXV. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where the Name of the Secretary to the Committee shall be used under the Authority of this Act it shall be sufficient to name and describe him, and to state the Authority for using his Name, as in the Form of Declaration in Schedule (A.)

Actions, &c. not to abate on Death or Removal of Secretary.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That upon the Death or Removal of any Secretary no Action or Suit or other Proceeding pending in his Name, as Plaintiff or Defendant or otherwise, either on behalf of or against the Committee, shall abate or be stayed, but as soon as another Secretary shall be appointed the Name of such new Secretary shall be therein-after used; and in an Action at Law such Name shall, whether it be before or after Judgment, be introduced by Suggestion, to which no Plea or Demurrer shall be allowed; and the Omission to make such Suggestion, and an erroneous Suggestion, shall be mere Irregularities, and shall, on the Application of the Committee or of the Party opposed to the Committee, be rectified, but shall not otherwise be taken advantage of.

Expenses of Act.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That all the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of obtaining and passing this Act or incident thereto shall be paid by the said Committee out of the first Monies which shall come to their Hands after the passing of this Act.

Short Title and Public Act.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be called "The Railway Clearing Act, 1850," and shall be deemed to be a Public Act, and as such shall be judicially noticed.

STATUTES at Large, &c.

Anno Regni VICTORIÆ, Britanniarum Reginæ, Decimo Quarto & Decimo Quinto.

'AT the Parliament begun and holden at Westminster, the Eighteenth Day of November, Anno Domini 1847, in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lady VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith: And from thence continued, by several Prorogations, to the Fourth Day of February 1851; being the Fourth Session of the Fifteenth Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.'

CAP. I.

An Act to amend the Passengers Act, 1849. [1st April 1851.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Passengers Act, 1849, as herein-after mentioned:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, Commissioners may fix different Lengths of Voyage for Steam and Sailing Vessels.

I. The Power given by the Twentieth Section of the said Act to the Colonial Land and Emigration Commissioners, acting by and under the Authority of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Time to Time to declare what shall be deemed the Length of Voyage from the United Kingdom to any of the therein-mentioned Places, or to any other Port or Place whatsoever, shall be extended so as to authorize the said Commissioners, acting by and under the Authority aforesaid, from Time to Time, by such Notice and to be published in such Manner as in the same Section mentioned, to declare such a Number of Weeks or Days to be deemed to be the Length of Voyage of a Steam Vessel, different from the Number of Weeks or Days to be deemed to be the Length of Voyage of a Sailing Vessel, and to distinguish, where they think fit, between Vessels having Steam Engines to be used occasionally, or in aid of their Sails, and Vessels having Engines of full Power for constant Use, and to fix such different Lengths of Voyage as they may think reasonable for such different Descriptions of Vessels.

Power to substitute different Dietary extended.

II. The Power given by the Twenty-fifth Section of the said Act to the said Commissioners, acting under the Authority of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Time to Time to substitute for any of the Articles of Food mentioned in the said Act any other Articles of Food, as to the said Commissioners shall seem meet, shall be extended so as to authorize the said Commissioners, by such Notice and to be published in such Manner as in the said Twenty-fifth Section mentioned, from Time to Time to determine and specify such Quantity or Quantities of One or more Articles of Food to be substituted for a given Quantity of any Article of Food specified in the said Act as the Commissioners may think necessary to secure to each Passenger an equivalent Amount of wholesome Nutriment, and the said Commissioners may in such Notice authorize the Supply by the Master of any Passenger Ship of the substituted Articles or any of them in the Quantities specified in this Behalf, or of the Articles of Food mentioned in the said Act in the Quantities therein mentioned, at his Option, during all or any Part of a Voyage.

Notices may be amended or revoked.

III. Any Notice issued and published under either of the Powers herein-before referred to of the said Act, or under either of such Powers as extended by this Act, may be altered, amended, or revoked as Occasion may require by the said Commissioners, acting under the Authority aforesaid, by Notice to be issued and published in like Manner.

Passenger Ships putting into Port damaged not to proceed without a Cer-

IV. No Passenger Ship putting into or touching at any Port of the United Kingdom after having sustained any Damage shall again put to Sea until such Damage has been effectually repaired, nor until the Master of such Ship has obtained from the Emigration Officer or his Assistant, or where there is no such Officer, or in his Absence, from the Officer of Customs at such Port or Place, a Certificate that such Ship tificate of Fitness.

Ship is fit in all respects to proceed on her Voyage; and in case of any Default herein the Master of such Ship shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding One hundred Pounds, to be sued for and recovered, with Costs, and applied as a Penalty imposed by the said Act.

Powers of Governors of Colonies and Governor General of India in Council, as to Length of Voyage and Dietary, extended.

V. The Powers given by the Sixty-second and Sixty-fourth Sections of the said Act to the Governor of any of Her Majesty's Possessions abroad and to the Governor General of India in Council respectively to declare the Rule of Computation of the Length of any Voyage, or to substitute or authorize the Substitution for the Articles of Food and Provisions specified in the said Act other Articles of Food, shall be extended so as to enable such Governor and Governor General in Council respectively by Proclamation or Act (as the Case may require), subject to the Provisions of the said Passengers Act concerning Confirmation or Disallowance and Disallowance and Repeal respectively, to make, do, and authorize all such Declarations, Acts, and Matters with respect to any Voyage to which such Powers respectively extend as the Land and Emigration Commissioners, acting under the Authority aforesaid, may, under the Powers given by the Twenty-first and Twenty-fifth Sections of the said Act as extended by this Act, make, do, and authorize with respect to any Voyage to which their Powers extend.

Bond to be given by Masters of British and Foreign Passenger Ships.

VI. Before any "Passenger Ship" shall clear out or proceed on any Voyage to which the said Act shall extend, the Owner or Charterer, or, in the event of the Absence of such Owner or Charterer, One good and sufficient Person on his Behalf, to be approved by the Chief Officer of Customs at the Port of Clearance, shall, with the Master of the said Ship, in lieu of the Bond required by the Forty-third Section of the said Act, enter into a joint and several Bond, in the Sum of One thousand Pounds, to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, according to the Form contained in Schedule (A.) hereto annexed, the Condition of which Bond shall be, that the said Ship is in all respects seaworthy, and that all and every the Requirements of the said Act and of this Act, and of the said Commissioners acting in the Manner prescribed by the said Act, and of any Order which may at the Date of such Bond have been passed by Her Majesty in Council in virtue of the said Act, shall in all respects be well and truly fulfilled and performed, and, in the Case of any Foreign Passenger Ship which shall proceed to any of Her Majesty's Possessions abroad, that the Master thereof shall submit himself in like Manner as a British Subject, being the Master of a British Passenger Ship, to the Jurisdiction of such Courts and Magistrates in Her Majesty's Possessions abroad as are by the said Act empowered to adjudicate on Offences committed against the said Act, and moreover that the Master, whether of a British or Foreign Passenger Ship, shall well and truly pay all Penalties, Fines, and Forfeitures which he may be adjudged to pay, either in the United Kingdom or by any such Tribunal abroad, for or in respect of the Breach or Non-performance of any of the Requirements of the said Act: Provided always, that such Bond shall not be liable to Stamp Duty, and shall be executed in duplicate.

Counterpart of Bond to be certified, and sent to the Colony to which Ship bound, and to be received in Evidence without further Proof of Execution.

VII. It shall be the Duty of the Chief Officer of Customs at the Port of Clearance of any such Passenger Ship to certify on One Part of such Bond that it has been duly executed by the said Master and the other Obligor, and to forward the same by Post to the Colonial Secretary of the Colony to which such Foreign Passenger Ship may be bound; such Certificate shall, in any Colonial Court of Judicature in which the Bond may be put in suit, be deemed conclusive Evidence of the due Execution of the Bond by the said Master and the other Obligor, and it shall not be necessary to prove the Handwriting of the Officer of Customs who may have signed such Certificate, nor that he was at the Time of signing it Chief Officer of Customs at the Port of Clearance; provided, that no such Bond shall be put in suit in any of Her Majesty's Possessions abroad after the Expiration of Three Calendar Months next after the Arrival therein of the said Ship, nor in the United Kingdom after the Expiration of Twelve Calendar Months next after the Return of the said Ship or of the said Master to the United Kingdom.

This and recited Act One.

VIII. The said Act and this Act shall be construed together as One Act.

CAP. III.

An Act to apply the Sum of Eight Millions out of the Consolidated Fund to the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one. [1st April 1851.]

CAP. IV.

An Act to enable Her Majesty to appoint a Vice Chancellor in the Room of Sir James Wigram, resigned. [1st April 1851.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Session One, Chapter the Fifth, Her Majesty was by Section Nineteen empowered to appoint by Letters Patent under the Great Seal Two fit Persons to be additional Judges Assistant to the Lord Chancellor in the Discharge of the Judicial Functions of his Office, each of such additional Judges to be called Vice Chancellor; and by Section Twenty-one it was provided that nothing therein contained should authorize the Appointment of a Successor to the Vice Chancellor secondly appointed under the Authority of the said Act: And whereas the Right Honourable Sir James Wigram Knight was the Vice Chancellor secondly appointed under the said Act: And whereas the said Sir James Wigram has, by reason of ill Health, resigned the Office of Vice Chancellor to which he had been so appointed: And whereas the State of Business in the Court of Chancery renders it expedient that a Vice Chancellor should be appointed in the Place of the said Sir James Wigram:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Appointment of additional Vice Chancellor.

I. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty to appoint, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, a fit Person, being or having been a Barrister-at-Law of Fifteen Years standing at the least, to be an additional Judge Assistant to the Lord Chancellor in the Discharge of the Judicial Functions of his Office, in the Place of the said Sir James Wigram, and to be called Vice Chancellor.

Rank, &c. of additional Vice Chancellor.

II. The Vice Chancellor to be appointed under this Act shall have all the same Powers and Privileges, and the same Rank, and shall be subject to the same Provisions, Duties, and Observances, as the said Sir James Wigram had or was subject to under the said Act of the Fifth Year of Her present Majesty, Session One, Chapter the Fifth, excepting that he shall have Rank and Precedence next after the Vice Chancellors that now are.

To have a Secretary, Usher, and Trainbearer.

III. He shall have a Secretary, Usher, and Trainbearer, to be from Time to Time appointed and removed by him at his Pleasure; and the Secretaries, Registrars, and other Officers appointed to attend the Lord Chancellor shall attend such Vice Chancellor when sitting for the Lord Chancellor, and also when sitting in his separate Court, as Circumstances shall require, and as the Lord Chancellor shall order or direct.

Salaries.

IV. The Salary of such Vice Chancellor, and the Salaries of his Secretary, Usher, and Trainbearer, shall be of the same Amounts, and paid out of the same Funds, and in like Manner as the Salaries of the said Sir James Wigram, his Secretary, Usher, and Trainbearer, were and were directed to be paid under the said Act of the Fifth Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter the Fifth.

Retiring Pension.

V. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, to grant to such Vice Chancellor, on his Resignation of or ceasing to execute his Office, an Annuity of the same Amount, after the same Period of Service, under the same Circumstances, subject to the same Conditions, and payable out of the same Fund as the Annuity authorized to be granted to each of the Vice Chancellors appointed under the said Act of the Fifth Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter the Fifth.

Lord Chancellor may appoint Persons to keep Order in Court.

VI. It shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor to appoint One or more Person or Persons, removable at Pleasure, for the Purpose of keeping Order in the Court of the Vice Chancellor to be appointed under the Authority of this Act; and the Salaries of the Persons appointed or to be appointed under this Act, or under any Act or Acts now in force, to keep Order in the Court of the Vice Chancellor to be appointed under the Authority of this Act, shall be of such Amount, not exceeding the yearly Sum of Eighty Pounds, Pounds, as the Lord Chancellor may think reasonable, and such Salaries shall be paid to each such Person so to be appointed out of the same Funds, and at the same Time, and in like Manner as the Salaries of such Persons have heretofore been paid.

VII. Nothing herein contained shall authorize the Appointment of a Successor to the Vice Chancellor appointed under the Authority of this Act. Successor not to be appointed.

CAP. V.

An Act for the Regulation of Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces while on shore.

[11th April 1851.]

[This Act is the same, except as to the Preamble and the Sections here inserted, as 13 & 14 Vict. c. 6.]

'WHEREAS it is judged necessary for the Safety of the United Kingdom, and the Defence of the Possessions of this Realm, that a Body of Royal Marine Forces should be employed in Her Majesty's Fleet and Naval Service, under the Direction of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid: And whereas the said Forces may frequently be quartered or be on shore, or sent to do Duty or be on board Transport Ships or Merchant Ships or Vessels, or Ships or Vessels of Her Majesty, or other Ships or Vessels, or they may be under other Circumstances in which they will not be subject to the Laws relating to the Government of Her Majesty's Forces by Sea: And whereas no Man can be forejudged of Life or Limb, or subjected in Time of Peace to any kind of Punishment within this Realm by Martial Law, or in any other Manner than by the Judgment of his Peers, and according to the known and established Laws of this Realm; yet nevertheless it being requisite for the retaining of such Forces in their Duty that an exact Discipline be observed, and that Marines who shall mutiny or stir up Sedition, or shall desert Her Majesty's Service, or be guilty of any other Crime in breach of good Order and Discipline, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy Punishment than the usual Forms of the Law will allow, or be guilty of Crimes and Offences to the Prejudice of good Order and Military Discipline:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

III. This Act shall extend to the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, and the Islands thereto belonging, as to the Provisions therein for enlisting of Recruits, whether Minors, or of full Age, and swearing and attesting such Recruits, and for mustering and paying, and to the Provisions for Trial and Punishment of Officers and Marines who shall be charged with Mutiny and Desertion or any other of the Offences which are by this Act declared to be punishable by the Sentence of a Court-martial, and also to the Provisions which relate to the Punishment of Persons who shall fraudulently confess themselves to be Deserters, or who shall conceal Deserters, or shall knowingly buy, exchange, or otherwise receive any Arms, Clothes, Military Furniture, or Regimental Necessaries from any Marine or Deserter, or who shall cause the Colour of any such Clothes to be changed; and also to the Provisions for exempting Marines from being taken out of Her Majesty's Service for not supporting or for leaving chargeable to any Parish any Wife or Child or Children, or on account of any Breach of Contract to serve or work for any Employer, or on account of any Debts under Thirty Pounds in the said Islands. Act to extend to Jersey, &c.

IV. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to extend to exempt any Officer or Marine from being proceeded against by the ordinary Course of Law when accused of Felony or of Misdemeanor committed with Violence to the Person, Estate, or Property of any of Her Majesty's Subjects punishable by the well-known Laws of the Land; and any Commanding Officer who shall neglect or refuse, when due Application shall be made to him for that Purpose, to deliver over to the Civil Magistrate any Officer or Marine, or who shall wilfully obstruct, neglect, or refuse to assist any Peace Officer in apprehending any such Offender, shall, upon Conviction thereof in any of Her Majesty's Courts at Westminster, Dublin, or Edinburgh, be deemed to be thereupon cashiered, and shall be utterly disabled to hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment in Her Majesty's Service; and a Certificate of such Conviction shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the Admiralty. The ordinary Course of Law not to be interfered with.

VI. All of Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces shall, during the Time they shall be respectively borne on the Books of any of Her Majesty's Ships or Vessels in Commission, either as Part of the Complement or as Supernumeraries, or otherwise, be subject and liable in every respect to the Laws for the Government of Her Majesty's Forces by Sea, and to the Rules and Discipline of the Royal Navy, and shall and may be proceeded against and punished for Offences committed by them whilst so borne, in the same Manner as the Officers and Seamen employed in the Royal Navy may be tried or punished; except when and so long as any Marine Officers or Marines shall be landed from any of Her Majesty's Ships, and be employed in Military Operations on shore, and when on such Occasions the senior Naval Officer present shall deem it expedient to issue an Order declaring that such Marine Officers and Marines shall during such Employment on shore be subject to the Regulations of this Act, in which Cases, and while such Order shall remain in force, they shall be subject to such Regulations, and be tried and punished under this Act accordingly, for any Offences to be committed by them while so on shore: Provided always, that if any Marine Officer or Marine so borne on the Books of any of Her Majesty's Ships or otherwise shall commit any Offence for which he shall not be amenable to a Naval Marines to be subject to the Discipline of the Navy while on board Ship.

Naval Court-martial or to Naval Discipline, he shall be tried and punished for the same in the same Manner as other Marines may be tried and punished for the like Offences under the Authority of this Act.

Lord High Admiral, &c. may grant Commissions for holding General Courts-martial, &c.

VII. It shall be lawful for the said Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid, from Time to Time to grant Commissions or Warrants under the Hand of the said Lord High Admiral, or under the Hands of any Two or more of the said Commissioners, for the holding of General and other Courts-martial within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and elsewhere out of the same, in like Manner as has been heretofore used, and for bringing Offenders against this Act and the Articles of War to Justice, and to erect and constitute Courts-martial, as well within the said United Kingdom and the British Isles as in any of Her Majesty's Garrisons or Dominions or elsewhere beyond the Seas, and to grant Commissions or Warrants to the Officer or Officers commanding in chief or commanding for the Time being any of Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, as well within the said United Kingdom as Her Majesty's other Dominions, and in any Foreign Parts out of the same Dominions, for convening, as well as for authorizing any Officer to convene, Courts-martial, as Occasion may require, for the Trial of Offences committed by any of the Royal Marine Forces, whether the same shall have been committed before or after such Officer shall have taken upon himself such Command, the Officer so authorized not being however below the Degree of a Field Officer, except in the Settlements on the Western Coast of Africa, where a Captain may be authorized to convene District or Garrison Courts-martial; and any Person subject to this Act who shall, in any of Her Majesty's Dominions or elsewhere, commit any of the Offences for which he may be liable to be tried by Court-martial by virtue of this Act or of the Articles of War, may be tried and punished for the same in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions, or other Place where he may have come or be after the Commission of the Offence, as if the Offence had been committed where such Trial shall take place.

General Courts-martial.

VIII. A General Court-martial convened in Saint Helena, the Settlements on the Western Coast of Africa, Honduras, New Zealand, the Australian Colonies, Hong Kong, Prince of Wales Island, Singapore, and Malacca, and the Settlements on the Coast of China, shall consist of not less than Five Commissioned Officers; if convened in Jamaica, Newfoundland, Bermuda, or the Bahamas, or in any Part out of the Queen's Dominions, excepting the Ionian Islands and the Parts before mentioned, it shall consist of not less than Seven, and if convened in any other Part of the Queen's Dominions, or in the Ionian Islands, or in the Settlements of the East India Company, it shall consist of not less than Thirteen Commissioned Officers; and shall have Power to sentence any Officer or Soldier to suffer Death, Transportation, or any other Punishment which shall accord with the Provisions of this Act.

District or Garrison Courts-martial.

IX. A District or Garrison Court-martial shall consist of not less than Seven Commissioned Officers, except in Bermuda, the Bahamas, Saint Helena, Jamaica, Honduras, Newfoundland, New Zealand, the Australian Colonies, the Windward and Leeward Islands, British Guiana, Hong Kong, and the Settlements on the Coast of China, where it may consist of not less than Five Commissioned Officers, and in the Settlements on the Western Coast of Africa, where it may consist of not less than Three Commissioned Officers; and such Court-martial shall have the same Power as a General Court-martial to sentence any Marine to such Punishments as shall accord with the Provisions of this Act; provided that the Sentence of a District or Garrison Court-martial shall be confirmed by the General Officer, Governor, or Senior Officer in Command of the District, Garrison, Island, or Colony, and that such Court-martial shall not have Power to try a Commissioned Officer, nor to pass any Sentence of Death or Transportation.

Courts-martial in special Cases out of the Queen's Dominions.

XII. It shall be lawful for any Officer commanding any Detachment or Portion of Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces which may at any Time be serving out of Her Majesty's Dominions, upon Complaint made to him of any Offence committed against the Property or Person of any Inhabitant of or Resident in any such Countries by any Person under the immediate Command of any such Officer, to summon and cause to be assembled a Detachment General Court-martial, which shall consist of not less than Three Officers, for the Trial of any such Person, notwithstanding such Officer shall not have received any Warrant empowering him to assemble Courts-martial; and every such Court-martial shall have the same Powers in regard to summoning and examining Witnesses, Trial of and Sentence upon Offenders, as are granted by this Act to General Courts-martial: Provided always, that no Sentence of any such Detachment Court-martial shall be executed until the Officer commanding the Army to which the Division, Brigade, Detachment, or Party to which any Person so tried shall belong shall have approved and confirmed the same.

If no Superior Officer of Land Forces is present in Command of a District, &c. an Officer of Marines may convene a Court-martial.

XIV. Provided there be no Superior Officer of Her Majesty's Land Forces present in Command of a District, Garrison, Station, or Place where Marines may be serving, it shall be lawful for any Officer of the Royal Marine Corps, of the Degree of a Field Officer, and holding a Commission from the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, for that Purpose, but not otherwise, to convene or assemble a District or Garrison Court-martial, to be composed as afore stated, and for such Court to proceed to try any Marine or Marines below the Rank of a Commissioned Officer for any of the Offences cognizable by a District or Garrison Court-martial; but the Sentence so awarded by any such Court shall not be carried into effect until the Senior Officer of the Royal Marines in the District, Garrison, Station, or Place, not being a Member of the Court, shall have confirmed the same: Provided always, that if there be any such Superior Officer of Her Majesty's Land Forces present in Command of the District, Garrison, Station, or Place where Marines may be, in such Case it shall be lawful lawful for him to convene or assemble such District or Garrison Court-martial for the Trial of any Marine or Marines below the Rank of a Commissioned Officer, and for such Court-martial to try any such Marine or Marines in conformity with the Provisions of this Act and the Articles of War to be made in pursuance hereof; but the Sentence which may be awarded by any such Court which may be convened or assembled by any such Superior Officer shall not be carried into effect until such Superior Officer shall have confirmed the same.

Swearing and summoning Witnesses.

XVII. All General and other Courts-martial shall have Power and Authority and are hereby required to administer an Oath to every Witness or other Person who shall be examined before such Court in any Matter relating to any Proceeding before the same; and every Person, as well Civil as Military, who may be required to give or produce Evidence before a Court-martial, shall, in the Case of General Courts-martial, be summoned by the Judge Advocate, or the Person officiating as such, and in the Case of all other Courts-martial by the President of the Court; and all Persons so summoned and attending as Witnesses before any Court-martial shall, during their necessary Attendance in or on such Courts, and in going to and returning from the same, be privileged from Arrest, and shall, if unduly arrested, be discharged by the Court out of which the Writ or Process issued by which such Witness was arrested, or if such Court be not sitting, then by any Judge of the Superior Courts of Westminster or Dublin, or of the Court of Session in Scotland, or of the Courts of Law in the East or West Indies, or elsewhere, according as the Case shall require, upon its being made to appear to such Court or Judge by any Affidavit in a summary Way that such Witness was arrested in going to, attending upon, or returning from or attending upon such Court-martial; and all Witnesses so duly summoned as aforesaid who shall not attend on such Courts, or attending shall refuse to be sworn, or not produce the Documents being under their Power or Control required to be produced by them, or, being sworn, shall refuse to give Evidence or to answer all such Questions as the Court may legally demand of them, shall be liable to be attached in the Court of Queen's Bench in London or Dublin, or in the Court of Session, or Sheriff Depute or Stewarts Depute or their respective Substitutes within their several Shires and Stewartries, in Scotland, or in the Courts of Law in the East or West Indies, or in any of Her Majesty's Colonies, Garrisons, or Dominions in Europe or elsewhere, respectively, upon Complaint made, in like Manner as if such Witness had, after being duly summoned or subpœnaed, neglected to attend on a Trial in any Proceeding in the Court in which such Complaint shall be made.

Crimes punishable with Death.

XXI. If any Person who is or shall be commissioned or in Pay as an Officer of Royal Marines, or who is or shall be listed or in Pay as a Non-commissioned Officer, Drummer, or Private Man in Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, shall at any Time during the Continuance of this Act, while on shore in any Place within the said Kingdom, or in any other of Her Majesty's Dominions, or in any Foreign Parts out of such Dominions, or on board any Transport Ship, or Merchant Ship or Vessel, or any Ship or Vessel of Her Majesty, or on board any Convict Hulk or Ship, or any other Ship or Vessel, or in any Place whatever, where or while being in any Circumstances in which he shall not be subject to, or not be liable to or punishable by, the Laws relating to the Government of Her Majesty's Forces by Sea, begin, excite, cause, or join in any Mutiny or Sedition in Her Majesty's Marine or other Forces, or shall not use his utmost Endeavours to suppress any such Mutiny or Sedition, or coming to the Knowledge of any Mutiny or intended Mutiny shall not without Delay give Information thereof to his Commanding Officer; or shall misbehave himself before the Enemy; or shall shamefully abandon or deliver up any Garrison, Fortress, Post, or Guard committed to his Charge, or which he shall have been commanded to defend; or shall compel the Governor or Commanding Officer of any Garrison, Fortress, or Post to deliver up to the Enemy or to abandon the same; or shall speak Words or use any other Means to induce such Governor or Commanding Officer or any other to misbehave before the Enemy, or shamefully to abandon or deliver up any Garrison, Fortress, Post, or Guard committed to their respective Charge, or which he or they shall be commanded to defend; or shall leave his Post before being relieved, or shall be found sleeping on his Post; or shall hold Correspondence with or give Advice or Intelligence to any Rebel, Pirate, or Enemy of Her Majesty, either by Letters, Messages, Signs, Tokens, or any other Ways or Means whatever; or shall treat or enter into any Terms with any such Rebel, Pirate, or Enemy, without the Licence of the Lord High Admiral of the said United Kingdom, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid, for the Time being; or shall strike or use or offer any Violence against his Superior Officer being in the Execution of his Office, or shall disobey any lawful Command of his Superior Officer; or who being confined in a Military Prison shall offer any Violence against a Visitor or other Officer being in the Execution of his Office, or shall violate any Law or Regulation of or relating to any Military Prison; or shall desert Her Majesty's Service; every Person so offending in any of the Matters before mentioned shall suffer Death, or such other Punishment as by a Court-martial shall be awarded.

Judgment of Death.

XXII. No Judgment of Death by Court-martial shall pass unless Two Thirds at least of the Officers present, being Members of the Court, shall concur therein.

Commutation of Death for Transportation.

XXIII. Whensoever any General Court-martial by which any Marine shall have been tried and convicted of any Offence punishable with Death shall not think the Offence deserving of Capital Punishment, such Court-martial may adjudge the Offender, according to the Degree of the Offence, to be transported as a Felon for Life or for a certain Term of Years, or may sentence him to general Service as a Marine or as a Soldier in any Corps and in any Country or Place which Her Majesty shall thereupon direct, or may, if such Offender shall have enlisted for a limited Term of Years, sentence him him to serve for Life as a Marine or as a Soldier in any Corps which Her Majesty shall please to direct: Provided always, that in all Cases where a Capital Punishment shall have been awarded by a General Court-martial it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, or, if in the East Indies, for the Officer commanding in chief the Forces in India, instead of causing such Sentence to be carried into execution, to order the Offender to be transported as a Felon, either for Life or for a certain Term of Years, or to suffer such Term of Imprisonment, either with or without Hard Labour, as shall seem meet to Her Majesty, or, if in the East Indies, to the Officer commanding as aforesaid.

Embezzlement punishable by Transportation.

XXIV. Every Officer and other Person employed in any Manner in the Care or Distribution of any Money, Provisions, Forage, or Stores belonging to Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces or for their Use who shall embezzle or fraudulently misapply, damage, or be concerned in or connive at the Embezzlement, fraudulent Misapplication, or Damage of any Money, Provisions, Forage, Arms, Clothing, Ammunition, or other Military or Royal Marine Stores, may be tried for the same by a General Court-martial, which may adjudge any such Offender to be transported as a Felon for Life or for any certain Term of Years, or to suffer such Punishment of Fine, Imprisonment, Dismissal from Her Majesty's Service, and Incapacity of serving Her Majesty in any Office, Civil or Military, as such Court shall think fit, according to the Nature and Degree of the Offence; and every such Offender shall, in addition to any other Punishment, make good at his own Expense the Loss and Damage sustained, which shall have been ascertained by such Court-martial; and in every such Case the Court is required to ascertain by Evidence the Amount of the Loss or Damage incurred, and to declare by their Sentence that such Amount shall be made good by such Offender; and the Loss and Damage so ascertained as aforesaid shall be a Debt to Her Majesty, and may be recovered in any of Her Majesty's Courts at Westminster or in Dublin, or the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, or in any Court in Her Majesty's Colonies where the Person sentenced by such Court-martial shall be resident after the said Judgment shall be confirmed and made known; and every Commissioned Officer sentenced to be transported as a Felon, when such Sentence shall be duly confirmed, shall thereupon cease to belong to Her Majesty's Service, and for ever be incapable of serving Her Majesty in any Military Capacity.

Power to inflict Corporal Punishment.

XXVIII. Any Court-martial may sentence any Marine to Corporal Punishment, not extending to Life or Limb, for disgraceful Conduct as herein-after mentioned, Misbehaviour, or Neglect of Duty, provided that no such Sentence of Corporal Punishment exceed Fifty Lashes.

Forfeiture of Pay and Pension by Sentence of Court-martial.

XXXI. Any General Court-martial may, in addition to any other Punishment which it may be competent to award, sentence any Offender to Forfeiture of all Advantage as to additional Pay, Good-conduct Pay, and Pension on Discharge, which might have otherwise accrued from the Length of his former Service, or to Forfeiture of such Advantage absolutely, whether it might have accrued from past Service, or might accrue from future Service, according to the Nature of the Case; and any District or Garrison Court-martial may also, in addition to any Sentence which such Court may award, sentence any Offender to such Forfeiture for Desertion, or for disgraceful Conduct,

In wilfully maiming or injuring himself, or any other Marine, whether at the Instance of such other Marine or not, with Intent thereby to render himself or such other Marine unfit for Service:

In tampering with his Eyes, with Intent thereby to render himself unfit for Service:

In wilfully doing any Act, or wilfully disobeying any Orders, whether in Hospital or otherwise, thereby producing or aggravating Disease or Infirmity, or delaying his Cure:

In malingering or feigning Disease:

In stealing or embezzling Government Property or Stores, or in receiving the same knowing the same to have been stolen:

In stealing any Money or Goods the Property of a Comrade, of a Marine Officer, or of any Marine Mess or Band, or in receiving any such Money or Goods knowing the same to have been stolen:

In making any false or fraudulent Accounts, Returns, Matters, or Entries, or assisting or conniving at the same being made, or producing the same as true, knowing the same to be false or fraudulent:

In stealing or embezzling or fraudulently misapplying Public Money intrusted to him:

Or in committing any Offence of a felonious or fraudulent Nature, to the Injury of, or with Intent to injure, any Person, Civil, Marine, or Military:

Or for any other disgraceful Conduct, being of a cruel, indecent, or unnatural Kind.

Forfeiture of Pay on Conviction of Desertion or Felony.

XXXII. Every Marine who shall be found guilty of Desertion by a Court-martial, such Finding having been confirmed, or of Felony in any Court of ordinary Criminal Jurisdiction in England or Ireland, or of any Crime or Offence in any Court of Criminal Judicature in any Part of the United Kingdom, or in any Dominion, Territory, Colony, Settlement, or Island belonging to or occupied by Her Majesty out of the United Kingdom, which would, if committed therein, amount to Felony, shall thereupon forfeit all Advantage as to additional Pay, Good-conduct Pay, and to Pension on Discharge, which might have otherwise accrued from the Length of his former Service, in addition to any Punishment which such Court may award.

Forfeiture of Pay when in Confinement;

XXXIII. If any Non-commissioned Officer or Marine, by reason of his Imprisonment, whether under Sentence of a Court-martial or of any other Court duly authorized to pass such Sentence, or by reason of his Confinement for Debt, or by reason of his Desertion, or, being an Apprentice, by reason of his being allowed to serve out his Time with his Master, shall have been absent from his Duty during any Portion of the Time limited by his Enlistment or Re-engagement, or Prolongation of Service, as herein-after provided, such Portion of his Time shall not be reckoned as a Part of the limited Service for which such Non-commissioned Officer or Marine was enlisted or re-engaged, or for which his Time of Service may have been prolonged; and no Marine shall be entitled to Pay, or to reckon Service towards Pay or Pension, when in Confinement under a Sentence of any Court, or during any Absence from Duty by Commitment or Confinement under any Charge of which he shall be afterwards convicted, either by Court-martial or by any Court of ordinary Criminal Jurisdiction, or whilst in arrest for Debt; and when any Marine shall be absent as a Prisoner of War he shall not be entitled to Pay, or to reckon Service towards Pay or Pension, for the Period of such Absence, but upon rejoining Her Majesty's Service due Inquiry shall be made by a Court-martial, and unless it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of such Court that the said Marine was taken Prisoner through wilful Neglect of Duty on his Part, or that he had served with or under, or in some Manner aided, the Enemy, or that he had not returned as soon as possible to Her Majesty's Service, he may thereupon be recommended by such Court to receive either the whole of such Arrears of Pay, or a Proportion thereof, and to reckon Service during his Absence; and any Marine who shall be convicted of Desertion, or of Absence without Leave, shall, in addition to any Punishment awarded by the Court, forfeit his Pay for the Day or Days during which he was in a State of Desertion, or during his Absence without Leave; and if any Marine shall absent himself without Leave for any Period not exceeding Five Days, and shall not account for the same to the Satisfaction of the Commanding Officer, or if any Marine shall be guilty of any other Offence which the Commanding Officer may not think necessary to bring before a Court-martial, the Commanding Officer may, in addition to any minor Punishment he is authorized to award, order that such Marine shall be imprisoned for any Period not exceeding One hundred and sixty-eight Hours, with or without Hard Labour, or with or without Solitary Confinement, as the said Commanding Officer may think fit, and such Marine shall forfeit his Pay for any Day or Days on which he may be so imprisoned; and the said Commanding Officer may moreover order that in addition to or instead of such Imprisonment and Forfeiture, or any other Punishment which he has Authority to inflict, any Marine who shall have so absented himself as aforesaid shall forfeit his Pay for the Day or Days on which he shall have so absented himself; and, in pursuance of any such Order as aforesaid, the Pay of the Marine shall be accordingly forfeited: Provided always, that such Marine shall not be liable to be afterwards tried by a Court-martial for any Offence for which he shall have been so punished, ordered to suffer Imprisonment, Punishment, or Forfeiture as aforesaid: Provided also, that any Marine who shall be so ordered to suffer Imprisonment or Forfeiture of Pay shall, if he so request, have a Right to be tried by a Court-martial for his Offence, instead of submitting to such Imprisonment or Forfeiture: Provided also, that when any Sentence shall have been wholly remitted, and the Offence pardoned by competent Authority, the Marine shall be entitled to receive his Pay for the Days he may have been in Confinement or Arrest previous to his Trial, and until such Decision has been pronounced: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Admiral or the said Commissioners to order or withhold the Payment of the whole or any Part of the Pay of any Officer or Marine during the Period of Absence by any of the Causes aforesaid.

or during Absence on Commitment under a Charge, or in arrest for Debt; or when Prisoner of War; or when convicted of Desertion or Absence without Leave; or when absent without Leave not exceeding Five Days.

Forfeiture of Pay for Drunkenness on Duty.

XXXV. A General, District, or Garrison Court-martial may sentence any Marine for being drunk on Duty, and any Court-martial may sentence any Marine for being drunk when on or for Duty or on Parade, or on the Line of March, to be deprived of a Penny a Day of his Pay for any Period not exceeding Thirty Days, in addition to any other Punishment which such Court may award.

Stoppages.

XXXVI. In addition to any other Punishment which the Court may award, a Court-martial may further direct that any Offender may be put under Stoppages until he shall have made good —

Any Loss, Disposal of, or Damage occasioned by him in any of the Instances of disgraceful Conduct herein specified:

Any Loss, Disposal of, or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, any Property whatsoever, occasioned by his wilful or negligent Misconduct:

Any Loss, Disposal of, or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, his Arms, Clothing, Instruments, Equipments, Accoutrements, or Necessaries, or any extra Article of Clothing or Equipment that he may have been put in possession of and ordered to wear on the Recommendation of the Surgeon for the Benefit of his Health, or any Loss, Disposal of, or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, the Arms, Clothing, Instruments, Equipments, Accoutrements, or Necessaries of any Officer or Marine, occasioned by his wilful or negligent Misconduct:

Any Expense necessarily incurred by his Drunkenness or other Misconduct:

Provided always, that, except in the Case of the Loss, Disposal of, or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, Accoutrements and Necessaries, in which Case the Court may by its Sentence direct that the said Stoppages shall continue till the Cost of replacing or repairing the same be made good, the Amount of any Loss, Disposal, Destruction, Damage or Injury, or Expense, shall be ascertained by Evidence, and the Offender shall be placed under Stoppages for such an Amount only as shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Court: Provided also, that after satisfying the Charges for his messing and washing, so much only of the Pay of the Marine may be stopped and applied as shall leave him a Residue at the least of One Penny a Day.

Power of Imprisonment by different Kinds of Courts-martial.

XXXIX. A General or District or Garrison Court-martial may sentence any Marine to Imprisonment, with or without Hard Labour, and may also direct that such Offender shall be kept in Solitary Confinement for any Portion or Portions of such Imprisonment not exceeding Fourteen Days at a Time, nor Eighty-four Days in any One Year, with Intervals between the Periods of Solitary Confinement of not less Duration than such Periods; and when the Imprisonment awarded shall extend beyond Three Months the Court-martial shall imperatively order that the proper Proportion only of the Sentence of Solitary Confinement shall be inflicted within the first Three Months, and a similar Proportion only within each of the succeeding Three Months, of the Imprisonment awarded; and any Divisional or Detachment Court-martial may sentence any Marine to Imprisonment, with or without Hard Labour, for any Period not exceeding Forty-two Days, and may also direct that such Marine may be kept in Solitary Confinement for any Portion or Portions of such Imprisonment, not exceeding Fourteen Days at a Time, with an Interval between them of not less Duration than such Periods of Solitary Confinement: Provided always, that when any Court-martial, whether General, Garrison, or District, or Divisional, shall direct that the Imprisonment shall be solitary only, the Period shall in no Case exceed Fourteen Days.

Imprisonment of Offenders already under Sentence for previous Offence.

XL. Whenever Sentence shall be passed by a Court-martial on an Offender already under Sentence of a Court-martial for any former Offence, it shall be lawful for the Court to award Imprisonment for the subsequent Offence, to commence at the Expiration of the Imprisonment to which such Offender shall have been previously sentenced; and where such Offender shall be already under Sentence, either of Imprisonment or Transportation, the Court, if empowered to pass Sentence of Transportation, may award such Sentence for the subsequent Offence, to commence at the Expiration of the Imprisonment or Transportation to which such Offender shall have been previously sentenced, although the aggregate of the Terms of Imprisonment or Transportation respectively may exceed the Term for which either of those Punishments would be otherwise awarded.

Term and Place of Imprisonment.

XLI. Save as herein specially provided, every Term of Transportation or Imprisonment under the Sentence of a Court-martial, whether original or revised, shall be reckoned as commencing on the Day on which the original Sentence and Proceedings shall have been signed by the President; and the Place of Imprisonment under the Sentences of Courts-martial shall be appointed by the Court or the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or the Commanding Officer of the Division to which the Offender belongs or is attached, or the Officer commanding the District, Garrison, Island, or Colony.

Apprehension of Deserters.

L. Upon reasonable Suspicion that a Person is a Deserter, it shall be lawful for any Constable, or if no Constable can be immediately met with, then it shall be lawful for any Officer or Marine in Her Majesty's Service, to apprehend or cause such suspected Person to be apprehended, and to bring or cause him to be brought before any Justice living in or near such Place, and acting for the County or Borough wherein such Place is situate, or for the County adjoining such first-mentioned County or such Borough; and such Justice is hereby authorized and required to inquire whether such suspected Person is a Deserter, and if it shall appear by the Testimony of One or more Witnesses taken upon Oath, or by the Confession of such suspected Person, confirmed by some corroborative Evidence, or by the Knowledge of such Justice, or by Evidence sufficient to satisfy such Justice, that there are reasonable Grounds for believing that such suspected Person is a Deserter, such Justice shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed in Civil Custody to the Head Quarters or Depôt of the Division to which he belongs, if stationed within Five Miles of the Place of Apprehension, or if such Head Quarters or Depôt shall not be stationed within Five Miles, then to the nearest or most convenient public Prison (other than a Military Prison) or Police Station legally provided as the Lock-up House for temporary Confinement of Persons taken into Custody, whether such Prison or Police Station be in the County or Borough in which such suspected Person was apprehended or in which he was committed or not; or if the Deserter shall have been apprehended by a Party of Marines in charge of a Commissioned Officer, such Justice may deliver him up to such Party, unless the Officer shall deem it necessary to have the Deserter committed to Prison for safe Custody; and such Justice shall transmit an Account thereof, in the Form prescribed in the Schedule annexed to this Act, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, specifying thereon whether such Deserter was delivered to a Party of Marines in order for his being taken to the Head Quarters or Depôt of his Division, or whether such Deserter was committed to Prison, to the end that the Person so committed may be removed by an Order from the said Lord High Admiral, or the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, and proceeded against according to Law; and such Justice shall also send to the Secretary of the Admiralty a Report stating the Names of the Persons by whom the Deserter was apprehended and secured, and the Secretary of the Admiralty shall transmit to such Justice an Order upon the proper Department for the Payment of the Sum of Twenty Shillings as a Reward to the Person so certified to be entitled thereto; and for such Information, Commitment, and Report as aforesaid the Clerk of the said Justice shall be entitled to a Fee of Two Shillings and no more; and every Gaoler and other Person into whose Custody any Person charged with Desertion is committed shall, immediately upon the Receipt of the Person so charged into his Custody, pay such Fee of Two Shillings, and also, upon the Production of a Receipt from the Medical Practitioner who may have been required to examine such suspected Person, a Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence, and shall notify the Fact to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and transmit also to the Secretary of the Admiralty a Copy of the Commitment, to the end that the Secretary of the Admiralty may order Repayment of the same; and that when any Person shall be apprehended and committed as a Deserter in any of Her Majesty's Colonies, the Justice shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed to some public Prison, if the Detachment to which he is suspected to belong shall not be in the Colony, or if the Detachment be in the Colony, the Justice may, if within reasonable Distance, deliver him into Custody at the nearest Military Post, although the Detachment to which such Person is suspected to belong may not be stationed at such Military Post; and such Justice shall in every Case transmit to the Officer commanding in the Colony a Descriptive Return in the Form prescribed, to the end that such Person may be removed by the Order of such Officer, and proceeded against according to Law.

LVI. Any

LVI. Any Person enlisted into Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces as a Marine shall be liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service only by Process or Execution on account of any Charge of Felony, or on account of Misdemeanor committed with Violence to the Person, Property, or Effects of any of Her Majesty's Subjects, or on account of an original Debt proved by Affidavit of the Plaintiff or of some one on his Behalf to amount to the Value of Thirty Pounds at the least over and above all Costs of Suit in the Action or Actions, such Affidavit to be sworn, without Payment of any Fee, before some Judge of the Court out of which Process or Execution shall issue, or before some Person authorized to take Affidavits in such Court, of which Affidavit, when duly filed in such Court, a Memorandum shall, without Fee, be endorsed upon the Back of such Process, stating the Facts sworn to, and the Day of filing such Affidavit; but no Marine or other Person as aforesaid shall be liable to be summoned before any Justice of the Peace or other Authority whatsoever, or to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service by any Capias, Writ, Summons, Order, Judgment, Process, or Execution issued by or by the Authority of any Court or Inferior Court for any original Debt not amounting to Thirty Pounds, or for not supporting or maintaining, or for not having supported or maintained, or for deserting or having deserted, or for leaving or having left chargeable to any Parish, Township, or Union, any Wife, or any Child or Children, legitimate or illegitimate, or other Relation which such Marine would, if not in Her Majesty's Service, be liable by Law to support or maintain, or for the Breach of any Contract, Covenant, Agreement, or other Engagement whatever, by Parol or in Writing, or for having left or deserted his Employer or Master, or his Contract, Work, or Labour; and all Summonses, Warrants, Commitments, Indictments, Convictions, Judgments, and Sentences, on account of any of the Matters for which it is herein declared that a Marine is not liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service, shall be utterly illegal, and null and void to all Intents and Purposes; and any Judge of any such Court may examine into any Complaints made by a Marine or by his Superior Officer, and by Warrant under his Hand discharge such Marine, without Fee, he being shown to have been arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, and shall award reasonable Costs to such Complainant, who shall have for the Recovery thereof the like Remedy as would have been applicable to the Recovery of any Costs which might have been awarded against the Complainant in any Judgment or Execution as aforesaid, or a Writ of Habeas corpus ad subjiciendum shall be awarded or issued, and the Discharge of any such Marine out of Custody shall be ordered thereupon; provided that any Plaintiff, upon Notice of the Cause of Action first given in Writing to any Marine or left at his last Quarters, may proceed in any Action or Suit to Judgment, and have Execution other than against the Body: Provided also, that nothing herein contained relating to the leaving or deserting a Master or Employer, or to the Breach of any Contract, Agreement, or Engagement, shall apply to Persons who shall be really and bonâ fide Apprentices, duly bound, under the Age of Twenty-one Years, as herein prescribed.

Marines liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service only for Felony and certain Misdemeanors, or for Debts amounting to 30*l.* and upwards:

but not liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service for not maintaining their Families or for Breach of Contract.

LVIII. No Person who shall be commissioned and in Full Pay as an Officer in the Royal Marine Forces, or who shall be employed in enlisting for such Forces, shall be capable of being nominated or elected to be Sheriff of any County or other Place, or to be Mayor, Portreeve, Alderman, or shall be capable of holding any Office in any Municipal Corporation in any City, Borough, or Place in Great Britain or Ireland, or be summoned or shall serve as a Grand or Petit Juror or upon any Inquest, and any Summons for him to attend to serve as a Grand or Petit Juror or upon an Inquest shall be null and void; and every such Person is hereby exempted from Attendance and Service in accordance with any such Summons, and from all Fines, Pains, and Penalties for or in consequence of not attending or serving as aforesaid.

Officers not to be Sheriffs or Mayors.

LIX. Every Person who shall receive Enlisting Money (knowing it to be such) to serve in the Royal Marines from any Person employed in the Recruiting Service, and being an Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, or attested Marine, shall be deemed to be enlisted as a Marine in Her Majesty's Service, and while he shall remain with the Recruiting Party shall be entitled to be billeted; and every Person who shall enlist any Recruit shall first ask the Person offering to enlist whether he does or does not belong to the Militia, and shall, within Twelve Hours after the Receipt of the Enlisting Money, cause to be taken down in Writing the Name and Place of Abode of such Recruit, and, if such Recruit shall not reside in or in the Vicinity of the Town or Place where he offered to enlist, the Place also at which he shall declare that he intends to sleep, in order that within Forty-eight Hours, but not sooner than Twenty-four Hours, (any intervening Sunday not included,) after his having received the Enlisting Money, Notice of his having so enlisted be given to the Recruit in the Form prescribed in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or left at his usual Place of Abode, or at the Place where he stated that it was his Intention to sleep; and when any Person shall be enlisted as a Marine he shall within Ninety-six Hours, (any intervening Sunday not included,) but not sooner than Twenty-four Hours, after such Enlisting, unless he shall voluntarily have absented himself or absconded, appear, together with some Person employed in the Recruiting Service of the Party with which he shall have enlisted, before a Justice, not being an Officer in the Marines, residing in the Vicinity of the Place or acting for the Division or District or Place where such Recruit shall have enlisted, or where the Head Quarters of the Recruiting Party shall be stationed, and if such Recruit shall declare his having voluntarily enlisted, the said Justice shall put to him the several Questions contained in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and shall then and there in the Presence of the said Recruit record or cause to be recorded in Writing his Answers thereunto; and the said Justice is hereby required forthwith to read over, or cause his Clerk in his Presence to read over, to such Recruit, the several Articles of War against Mutiny and Desertion, and to administer to such Recruit the Oath in the Schedule to this Act annexed applicable to the Case of a Recruit, and no other Oaths, anything in any Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and the Fee for administering such Oath shall be One Shilling and no more; and the said Justice is hereby required to give, under his Hand, the Certificate in the Schedule to this Act annexed; and if any such Recruit so to be certified shall refuse to take the Oath in the Schedule to this Act annexed before the said Justice, it shall be lawful for the Justice, at the Request of the Officer or Non-commissioned Officer with whom he enlisted, to detain and confine such Person until he shall take the said Oath of Fidelity.

Dissent and Relief from Enlistment.

LX. Any Recruit appearing as aforesaid before such Justice shall be at liberty to declare his Dissent to such Enlisting, and upon such Declaration, and repaying the Enlisting Money, and the full Amount of any Pay he may have received as a Recruit, and also paying the Sum of Twenty Shillings as Smart-Money, shall be forthwith discharged in the Presence of such Justice; but if such Person shall refuse or neglect, within the Space of Twenty-four Hours after so declaring his Dissent, to return and pay all such Money and Pay as aforesaid, he shall be deemed and taken to be enlisted as if he had given his Assent thereto before the said Justice: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any Justice to discharge any Person who shall have hastily enlisted, and who shall apply to him to declare his Dissent within such Ninety-six Hours as aforesaid, upon Payment of the Sum of Money required to be paid by any Recruit declaring his Dissent under this Act, notwithstanding no Person belonging to the Recruiting Party shall be with the Recruit, if it shall appear to such Justice upon Proof to his Satisfaction that the Recruiting Party has left the Place where such Recruit was enlisted, or that the Recruit could not procure any Person belonging to such Party to go with him before the Justice; and the Sum paid by such Recruit upon his Discharge shall be kept by the Justice, and, after deducting One Shilling as the Fee to his Clerk for reporting the Payment to the Secretary of the Admiralty, shall be paid to any Person belonging to the Recruiting Party entitled thereto, and demanding the same: Provided also, that no Recruit who has actually, though erroneously, been discharged by the Justice before the Expiration of Twenty-four Hours after the Time of his Enlistment, shall be liable on that account to be proceeded against as having deserted from Her Majesty's Service; and the Justice who shall discharge any Recruit shall in every Case give to him a Certificate under his Hand specifying the Cause thereof.

Offences connected with Enlistment.

LXI. If any Recruit shall receive the Enlisting Money from any Person employed in the Recruiting Service (knowing it to be such), and shall abscond or refuse to go before a Justice, or shall absent himself from the Recruiting Party or Person with whom he enlisted, and shall not voluntarily return to go before some Justice within such Period of Ninety-six Hours as aforesaid, such Recruit shall be deemed to be enlisted and a Private in Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces as fully to all Intents and Purposes as if he had been duly attested, and may be apprehended and punished as a Deserter, or for being absent without Leave, under any Articles of War made for the Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion; and such Recruit shall not be discharged by any Justice of the Peace after the Expiration of such Ninety-six Hours as aforesaid, unless it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of such Justice that the true Name and Residence of the Recruit were disclosed and known to the Recruiting Party, and that no Notice was given to the Recruit, or left at his usual Place of Abode, of his having so enlisted: Provided always, that in every Case wherein any Recruit shall have received Enlisting Money, and shall have absconded from the Party, so that it shall not be possible immediately to apprehend and bring him before a Justice, the Officer or Non-commissioned Officer commanding the Party shall produce to the Justice before whom the Recruit ought regularly to have been brought for Attestation a Certificate of the Name and Place of Residence of such Recruit; and the Justice to whom such Certificate shall be produced shall, after satisfying himself that the Recruit who had absconded cannot be found and apprehended, transmit a Duplicate thereof to the Secretary of the Admiralty, in order that, in the event of such Recruit being afterwards apprehended and reported as a Deserter, the Facts of his having received Enlisting Money, and having absconded after having been enlisted, may be ascertained, before he shall be finally adjudged to be a Deserter; and it shall be lawful for any Two Justices acting for the County, Division, District, or Place where any such Recruit shall at any Time happen to be when any such Recruit shall be brought, and shall be proved upon Oath before them to have concealed his belonging or having belonged to the Militia, or any Regiment, or to the Marines, Ordnance, or Navy, or the Forces of the East India Company, and discharged, or to have deserted therefrom, or to have concealed his having been discharged on any prior Enlistment, or to have wilfully concealed any Infirmity, or designedly made any false Representation at or previously to the Time of receiving Enlisting Money or upon being attested, to adjudge such Recruit, if in England, to be a Rogue and Vagabond, and to sentence him to such Punishment as by any Law may be inflicted on Rogues and Vagabonds, and to adjudge such Person, if in Scotland or Ireland, to be imprisoned with Hard Labour in any Prison or House of Correction for any Period not exceeding Three Months; and any Recruit who shall designedly make any false Representation of any Particular contained in the Oaths and Certificates in the Schedule to this Act annexed before the Justice at the Time of his Attestation, and shall obtain any Enlisting Money, or any Bounty for entering into Her Majesty's Service, or any other Money, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining Money under false Pretences, within the true Intent and Meaning, if in England, of an Act passed in the Session holden in the Seventh and Eighth Years of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in England relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith, and if in Ireland, of an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in Ireland relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith, and such Recruit, if in Scotland, shall be deemed guilty of Falsehood, Fraud, and wilful Imposition; and any Recruit who shall in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions or elsewhere have committed any of the before-mentioned Offences regarding Enlistment may be summarily punished, or prosecuted, tried, and convicted, for any such Offence,

7 & 8 G. 4. c. 29.

9 G. 4. c. 55.

Offence, at any Time during the Continuance of the Service for which he shall have enlisted, and in any County or Place where he may happen to be when such summary Proceeding or Prosecution shall be instituted; and the Production of the Oath in the Schedule to this Act annexed taken by the Recruit on his Attestation, and the Certificate signed by the Justice before whom the Recruit was attested, certifying that the Questions and Answers contained in the Attestation were in his Presence put to and given by such Recruit, shall, in the Absence of Proof to the contrary, be deemed and taken to be sufficient Evidence of such Recruit having represented the several Particulars as in the Oath sworn by him; and Proof by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses that the Person so prosecuted hath voluntarily acknowledged that at the Time of his Enlistment he belonged to the Militia, or to any Regiment in Her Majesty's Service, or to Her Majesty's Navy or Marine or Ordnance, or to the Forces of the East India Company, or that he designedly made any false Representation of any Particular contained in the said Oaths and Certificates or either of them before the Justice at the Time of the Attestation of the Person being prosecuted, shall be deemed and taken as Evidence of the Fact so by him acknowledged, without Production of any Roll or other Document to prove the same; and such Proof of such Acknowledgment shall be certified to the Secretary of the Admiralty by the Justice before whom such Proof shall have been given; and any Man having been enrolled to serve in the Militia at the Time of offering to enlist into the Marines who shall deny that he is a Militia Man then actually enrolled and engaged to serve, or shall deny to the Justice before whom he shall be attested that he belongs to the Militia, shall, on Conviction thereof before any One Justice in the United Kingdom, either upon the Oath of One Witness or upon his own Confession, or upon the Production of the Attestation and the before-mentioned Acknowledgment of such Person, certified by the Secretary of the Admiralty, be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to remain without Bail or Mainprise for and during any Time not exceeding Six Calendar Months, over and above any Penalty or Punishment to which such Person so offending may be otherwise liable, and shall from the Day on which his Engagement to serve in the Militia shall end, and not sooner, belong as a Marine to the Division of Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces into which he has so enlisted: Provided also, that every such Person shall be liable to serve in Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces in which he has so enlisted during all the Time the Militia to which he shall belong shall remain disembodied, or shall not be called out for Training or Exercise, and shall during all such Time be subject to all the Provisions of this Act, and be liable to be apprehended and dealt with and punished as a Deserter from the Marines if he shall neglect or refuse to join and serve therein.

Rates for Carriages.

LXXII. In every Case in which the whole Distance for which any Carriage shall be impressed shall be under One Mile the Rate of a full Mile shall be paid; and the Rates to be paid for Carriages impressed shall be, in England, for every Mile which a Waggon with Four or more Horses, or a Wain with Six Oxen or Four Oxen and Two Horses, shall travel, One Shilling; and for every Mile any Waggon with narrow Wheels, or any Cart with Four Horses carrying not less than Fifteen Hundredweight, shall travel, Ninepence; and for every Mile every other Cart or Carriage with less than Four Horses, and not carrying Fifteen Hundredweight, shall travel, Sixpence; and in Ireland, for every Hundredweight loaded on any Wheel Carriage One Halfpenny per Mile; and in England such further Rates may be added, not exceeding a total additional Sum per Mile of Fourpence, Threepence, or Twopence, to the respective Rates of One Shilling, Ninepence, and Sixpence, as may seem reasonable to the Justices assembled at General Sessions in England for their respective Districts, or to the Recorder of any Municipal City, Borough, or Town, Corporate or not Corporate; and the Order of such Justices at Sessions or Recorder shall specify the average Price of Hay and Oats at the nearest Market Town at the Time of fixing such additional Rates, and the Period for which the Order shall be enforced, not exceeding Ten Days beyond the next General Sessions; and no such Order shall be valid unless a Copy thereof, signed by the presiding Magistrate and One other Justice, or by the Recorder, shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the Admiralty within Three Days after the making thereof; and also in England, when the Day's March shall exceed Fifteen Miles, the Justice granting his Warrant may fix a further reasonable Compensation not exceeding the usual Rate of Hire fixed by this Act; and when additional Rates or Compensation shall be granted, the Justice shall insert in his own Hand in the Warrant the Amount thereof, and the Date of the Order of Sessions, if fixed by Sessions, and the Warrant shall be given to the Officer commanding, as his Voucher; and the Officer or Non-commissioned Officer demanding Carriages by virtue of the Warrant of a Justice shall, in England, pay down the proper Sums into the Hands of the Constable providing Carriages, who shall give Receipts for the same on unstamped Paper; and, in Ireland, the Officers or Non-commissioned Officers as aforesaid shall pay the proper Sums to the Owners or Drivers of the Carriages, and One Third Part of such Payment shall be made before the Carriage be loaded, and all the said Payments in Ireland shall be made, if required, in Presence of a Justice or Constable; and no Carriage shall be liable to carry more than Thirty Hundredweight in England, and in Ireland no Car shall be liable to carry more than Six Hundredweight, and no Dray more than Twelve Hundredweight; but the Owner of such Carriages in Ireland consenting to carry a greater Weight shall be paid at the same Rate for every Hundredweight of the said Excess; and the Owners of such Carriages in Ireland shall not be compelled to proceed, though with any less Weight, under the Sum of Threepence a Mile for each Car and Sixpence a Mile for each Dray; and the Loading of such Carriages in Ireland shall be first weighed, if required, at the Expense of the Owner of the Carriage, if the same can be done in a reasonable Time, without Hindrance of Her Majesty's Service; and the providing and paying for Carriages in Scotland shall be regulated by the Law in force at the Time of the Union with England: Provided also, that a Cart with One or more Horses, for which the Furnisher shall receive Ninepence a Mile, shall be required to carry Fifteen Hundredweight at the least; and that no Penalties or Forfeitures in any Act relating to Highways or Turnpike Roads in the United Kingdom shall apply to the Number of Horses or Oxen or Weight of Loading of the aforesaid Carriages, nor shall any such Carriages on that account be stopped or detained; and whenever it shall be necessary to impress Carriages for the March of Marines from Dublin, at least Twenty-four Hours Notice of such March, and in case of Emergency as long Notice as the Case will admit, shall be given to the Lord Mayor of Dublin, who shall summon a proportional Number of Cars and Drays, at his Discretion, out of the licensed Cars and Drays and other Cars and Drays within the County of the said City, and they shall by Turns be employed on this Duty at the Prices and under the Regulations herein-before mentioned; and no Country Cars, Drays, or other Carriages coming to Markets in Ireland shall be detained or employed against the Will of the Owners in carrying the Baggage of Marines on any Pretence whatever.

Exemption from Tolls.

LXXVI. All Officers and Marines, being in proper Uniform, Dress or Undress, and their Horses, (but not when passing in any private or hired Vehicle,) and all Recruits marching by Route, and all Prisoners under Military Escort, and all Carriages and Horses belonging to Her Majesty, or employed in Her Service, under the Provisions of this Act, or in any of Her Majesty's Colonies, when employed in conveying Persons or Baggage, or returning therefrom, shall be exempted from the Payment of any Duties and Tolls on embarking or disembarking from or upon any Pier, Wharf, Quay, or Landing Place, or passing Turnpike Roads or Bridges, otherwise demandable by virtue of any Act already passed or hereafter to be passed, or by virtue of any Act or Ordinance, Order or Direction of any Colonial Legislature or other Authority in any of Her Majesty's Colonies; and if any Toll Collector shall demand or receive Toll from any Marine Officer or Marine who shall be in proper Uniform, Dress or Undress, or for their Horses, and who by this Act is exempted from Payment thereof, or from any Recruits marching by Route, or from any Prisoners under Military Escort, or for any Carriages or Horses belonging to Her Majesty, or employed in Her Service, under the Provisions of this Act, when conveying Persons or Baggage, or returning therefrom, every such Collector shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds; provided that nothing herein contained shall exempt any Boats, Barges, or other Vessels employed in conveying the said Persons, Horses, Baggage, or Stores along any Canal from Payment of Tolls in like Manner as other Boats, Barges, and Vessels are liable thereto, except when employed in Cases of Emergency as herein mentioned; and that when any Officers or Marines on Service shall have Occasion in the March by Route to pass regular Ferries in Scotland, the Officer commanding shall be at liberty to pass over with his Marines as Passengers, paying for himself and each Marine One Half only of the ordinary Rate payable by Passengers, or he shall be at liberty to hire the Ferry Boat for himself and his Party, debarring all others for that Time, and shall in such Case pay only Half the ordinary Rate for such Boat.

Penalty on unlawful recruiting.

LXXXIII. All the Persons (except such Recruiting Parties as may be stationed under Military Command) who shall cause to be advertised, posted, or dispersed Bills for the Purpose of procuring Recruits or Substitutes for the Royal Marines, or shall open or keep any House or Place of Rendezvous or Office, or receive any Person therein under such Bill or Advertisement as connected with the Marine Recruiting Service, or shall directly or indirectly interfere therewith, without Permission in Writing from the Lord High Admiral, or the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, shall forfeit for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Duration of Act.

XCII. This Act shall be in force within Great Britain from the Twenty-fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one until the Twenty-fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two inclusive; and within Ireland, and in Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and the Isle of Man, and the Islands thereto belonging, from the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one until the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two inclusive; and within the Garrison of Gibraltar, and in Spain and Portugal, from the Twenty-fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one until the Twenty-fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two inclusive; and in all other Parts of Europe where Royal Marine Forces may be serving, and the West Indies and North America, and Cape of Good Hope, from the Twenty-fifth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one until the Twenty-fifth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two inclusive; and in all other Places from the Twenty-fifth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one until the Twenty-fifth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two inclusive.

CAP. VI.

An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters. [11th April 1851.]

[This Act is the same, except as to the Preamble, and the Sections here inserted, as 13 & 14 Vict. c. 5.]

'WHEREAS the raising or keeping a Standing Army within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Time of Peace, unless it be with the Consent of Parliament, is against Law: 'And whereas it is adjudged necessary by Her Majesty, and this present Parliament, that a Body of 'Forces should be continued, for the Safety of the United Kingdom, the Defence of the Possessions 'of Her Majesty's Crown, and the Preservation of the Balance of Power in Europe, and that the whole 'Number of such Forces should consist of Ninety-eight thousand seven hundred and fourteen Men, Numbers. 'exclusive of the Officers and Men belonging to the Regiments employed in the Territorial Possessions 'of the East India Company, but including the Officers and Men of the Troops and Companies 'recruiting for those Regiments: And whereas no Man can be forejudged of Life or Limb, or 'subjected in Time of Peace to any kind of Punishment within this Realm, by Martial Law, or in any 'other Manner than by Judgment of his Peers and according to the known and established Laws of 'this

'this Realm; yet nevertheless it being requisite, for the retaining all the before-mentioned Forces in 'their Duty, that an exact Discipline be observed, and that Soldiers who shall mutiny or stir up 'Sedition, or shall desert Her Majesty's Service, or be guilty of Crimes and Offences to the Prejudice 'of good Order and Military Discipline, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy Punishment than 'the usual Forms of the Law will allow:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That—

Act to extend to Jersey, Guernsey, &c.

III. This Act shall extend to the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, and the Islands thereto belonging, as to the Provisions therein for enlisting of Recruits, whether Minors or of full Age, and swearing and attesting such Recruits, and for mustering and paying, and to the Provisions for the Trial and Punishment of Officers and Soldiers who shall be charged with Mutiny and Desertion, or any other of the Offences which are by this Act declared to be punishable by the Sentence of a Court-martial, and also to the Provisions which relate to the Punishment of Persons who shall fraudulently confess themselves to be Deserters, or who shall conceal Deserters, or shall knowingly buy, exchange, or otherwise receive any Arms, Clothes, Military Furniture, or Regimental Necessaries from any Soldier or Deserter, or who shall cause the Colour of any such Clothes to be changed, or who shall aid in the Escape of a Prisoner from a Military Prison, or who shall introduce forbidden Articles into such Prison, or shall carry out any such Articles, or who shall assault any Officer of such Prison, and also to the Provisions for exempting Soldiers from being taken out of Her Majesty's Service for not supporting or for leaving chargeable to any Parish any Wife or Child or Children, or on account of any Breach of Contract to serve or work for any Employer, or on account of any Debts under Thirty Pounds, in the said Islands.

Power to constitute Courts-martial.

VI. For the Purpose of bringing Offenders against this Act and the Articles of War to Justice Her Majesty may from Time to Time, in like Manner as has been heretofore used, grant Commissions under the Royal Sign Manual for the holding Courts-martial within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and may grant Commissions or Warrants under the said Royal Sign Manual to the Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, the Commander of the Forces, or the Person or Persons commanding in chief, or commanding for the Time being, any Body of Her Majesty's Forces, as well within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the British Isles as in any of Her Majesty's Garrisons and Dominions or elsewhere beyond Seas, for convening Courts-martial, and for authorizing any Officer under their respective Commands to convene Courts-martial, as Occasion may require, for the Trial of Offences committed by any of the Forces under the Command of any such last-mentioned Officer, whether the same shall have been committed before or after such Officer shall have taken upon him such Command; the Officer so authorized not being, however, below the Degree of a Field Officer, except in the Settlements on the Western Coast of Africa, where a Captain may be authorized to convene District or Garrison Courts-martial; and any Person subject to this Act who shall, in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions or elsewhere, commit any of the Offences for which he may be liable to be tried by Court-martial by virtue of this Act or of the Articles of War, may be tried and punished for the same in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions where he may have come or be after the Commission of the Offence, as if the Offence had been committed where such Trial shall take place.

General Courts-martial.

VII. A General Court-martial convened in Saint Helena, the Settlements on the Western Coast of Africa, Honduras, New Zealand, the Australian Colonies, Hong Kong, and the Settlements on the Coast of China, and Prince of Wales Island, Singapore, and Malacca, shall consist of not less than Five Commissioned Officers; if convened in Jamaica, Newfoundland, Bermuda, or the Bahamas, or in any Part out of the Queen's Dominions, excepting the Ionian Islands and the Parts before mentioned, it shall consist of not less than Seven, and if convened in any other Part of the Queen's Dominions, or in the Ionian Islands, or in the Settlements of the East India Company, it shall consist of not less than Thirteen Commissioned Officers; and shall have Power to sentence any Officer or Soldier to suffer Death, Transportation, or any other Punishment which shall accord with the Provisions of this Act.

District or Garrison Courts-martial.

VIII. A District or Garrison Court-martial shall consist of not less than Seven Commissioned Officers, except in Bermuda, the Bahamas, Saint Helena, Jamaica, Honduras, Newfoundland, New Zealand, the Australian Colonies, the Windward and Leeward Islands, British Guiana, Hong Kong, and the Settlements on the Coast of China, where it may consist of not less than Five Commissioned Officers, and in the Settlements on the Western Coast of Africa, where it may consist of not less than Three Commissioned Officers; and such Court-martial shall have the same Power as a General Court-martial to sentence any Soldier to such Punishment as shall accord with the Provisions of this Act: Provided always, that such Court-martial shall not have Power to try a Commissioned Officer, nor to pass any Sentence of Death or Transportation.

Courts-martial in special Cases out of the Queen's Dominions.

XI. It shall be lawful for any Officer commanding any Detachment or Portion of Her Majesty's Troops which may at any Time be serving out of Her Majesty's Dominions, upon Complaint made to him of any Offence committed against the Property or Person of any Inhabitant of or Resident in any such Countries, by any Person serving with or belonging to Her Majesty's Armies, being under the immediate Command of any such Officer, to convene a Detachment General Court-martial, which shall consist of not less than Three Officers, for the Purpose of trying any such Person; and every such Court-martial shall have the same Powers in regard to Sentence upon Offenders as are granted by this Act to General Courts-martial: Provided always, that no Sentence of any such Court-martial shall be executed until the General commanding manding the Army to which the Division, Brigade, Detachment, or Party to which any Person so tried, convicted, and adjudged to suffer Punishment shall belong shall have approved and confirmed the same.

Mixed Courts-martial in case of Marines and East India Company.

XII. Where necessary or expedient, Officers of Her Majesty's Royal Marines, or Officers in the Service of the East India Company, or Officers of both such Services, may sit on Courts-martial, together with Officers of Her Majesty's Land Forces, whether the Commanding Officer by whose Order such Court-martial is assembled belongs to the Land or to the Marine Forces; and when the Person to be tried shall belong to the Land Forces, then the Proceedings of such Court shall be regulated, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the Court was composed of Officers of Her Majesty's Land Forces only, and the Provisions of this Act, and the Oaths hereby prescribed, shall be applicable to the Proceedings of such Court; but where the Person to be tried shall belong to Her Majesty's Royal Marines, then the Provisions of an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, for the Regulation of Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces while on shore, and the Oaths therein prescribed shall be applicable; and where the Person to be tried shall be in the Service of the East India Company, the Provisions of an Act passed in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her present Majesty, to amend the Laws for punishing Mutiny and Desertion of Officers and Soldiers in the Service of the East India Company, and the Oaths thereby prescribed, shall be applicable, notwithstanding any Officer, though in the actual Service of the said Company, may hold a Commission from Her Majesty or from His late Majesty King William the Fourth.

Swearing and summoning Witnesses.

XV. All General and other Courts-martial shall have Power and Authority, and are hereby required, to administer an Oath to every Witness or other Person who shall be examined before such Court in any Matter relating to any Proceeding before the same; and every Person, as well Civil as Military, who may be required to give or produce Evidence before a Court-martial, shall, in the Case of General Courts-martial, be summoned by the Judge Advocate General, or his Deputy, or the Person officiating as such, and in the Case of all other Courts-martial, by the President of the Court; and all Persons so summoned and attending as Witnesses before any Court-martial shall, during their necessary Attendance in or on such Courts, and in going to and returning from the same, be privileged from Arrest, and shall, if unduly arrested, be discharged by the Court out of which the Writ or Process issued by which such Witness was arrested, or if such Court be not sitting, then by any Judge of the Superior Courts of Westminster or Dublin, or of the Court of Session in Scotland, or of the Courts of Law in the East or West Indies, or elsewhere, according as the Case shall require, upon its being made to appear to such Court or Judge, by any Affidavit in a summary Way, that such Witness was arrested in going to or attending upon or returning from such Court-martial; and all Witnesses so duly summoned as aforesaid who shall not attend on such Courts, or attending shall refuse to be sworn, or being sworn shall refuse to give Evidence or not produce the Documents under their Power or Control required to be produced by them, or to answer all such Questions as the Court may legally demand of them, shall be liable to be attached in the Court of Queen's Bench in London or Dublin, or in the Court of Session, or Sheriff Depute or Stewarts Depute, or their respective Substitutes, within their several Shires and Stewartries, in Scotland, or in Courts of Law in the East or West Indies, or in any of Her Majesty's Colonies, Garrisons, or Dominions in Europe or elsewhere respectively, upon Complaint made, in like Manner as if such Witness, after having been duly summoned or subpœnaed, had neglected to attend upon a Trial in any Proceeding in the Court in which such Complaint shall be made.

Crimes punishable with Death.

XIX. If any Person subject to this Act shall at any Time during the Continuance of this Act begin, excite, cause, or join in any Mutiny or Sedition in Her Majesty's Land or Marine Forces, or shall not use his utmost Endeavours to suppress the same, or coming to the Knowledge of any Mutiny or intended Mutiny shall not, without Delay, give Information thereof to his Commanding Officer; or shall hold Correspondence with or give Advice or Intelligence to any Rebel or Enemy of Her Majesty, either by Letters, Messages, Signs, or Tokens, in any Manner or Way whatsoever; or shall treat or enter into any Terms with such Rebel or Enemy without Her Majesty's Licence, or Licence of the General or Chief Commander; or shall misbehave himself before the Enemy; or shall shamefully abandon or deliver up any Garrison, Fortress, Post, or Guard committed to his Charge, or which he shall have been commanded to defend; or shall compel the Governor or Commanding Officer of any Garrison, Fortress, or Post to deliver up to the Enemy or to abandon the same; or shall speak Words or use any other Means to induce such Governor or Commanding Officer, or others, to misbehave before the Enemy, or shamefully to abandon or deliver up any Garrison, Fortress, Post, or Guard committed to their respective Charge, or which he or they shall be commanded to defend; or shall desert Her Majesty's Service; or shall leave his Post before being relieved; or shall be found sleeping on his Post; or shall strike or shall use or offer any Violence against his Superior Officer, being in the Execution of his Office, or shall disobey any lawful Command of his Superior Officer; or who being confined in a Military Prison shall offer any Violence against a Visitor or other his superior Military Officer, being in the Execution of his Office; all and every Person and Persons so offending in any of the Matters before mentioned, whether such Offence shall be committed within this Realm, or in any other of Her Majesty's Dominions, or in Foreign Parts, upon Land or upon the Sea, shall suffer Death or such other Punishment as by a Court-martial shall be awarded.

Commutation of Death for Transportation.

XXI. Whensoever any General Court-martial by which any Soldier shall have been tried and convicted of any Offence punishable with Death shall not think the Offence deserving of Capital Punishment, such Court-martial may adjudge the Offender, according to the Degree of the Offence, to be transported as a Felon for Life, or for a certain Term of Years, or may sentence him to general Service as a Soldier in any Corps and in any Country or Place which Her Majesty shall thereupon direct, or may, if such Offender shall have enlisted for a limited Term of Years, sentence him to serve for Life as a Soldier in any Corps which Her Majesty shall please to direct: Provided always, that in all Cases where a Capital Punishment shall have been awarded by a General Court-martial it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, or, if in the East Indies, for the Officer commanding in chief the Forces in India, instead of causing such Sentence to be carried into execution, to order the Offender to be transported as a Felon, either for Life or for a certain Term of Years, or to suffer such Term of Imprisonment, either with or without Hard Labour, as shall seem meet to Her Majesty, or, if in the East Indies, to the Officer commanding as aforesaid.

Execution of Sentences of Transportation in the United Kingdom.

XXIII. Whenever Her Majesty shall intend that any Sentence of Transportation heretofore or hereafter passed upon any Offender by any Court-martial shall be carried into execution for the Term specified in such Sentence or for any shorter Term, or shall be graciously pleased to commute as aforesaid to Transportation any Sentence of Death passed by any such Court, the Sentence, together with Her Majesty's Pleasure thereupon, shall be notified in Writing by the Officer commanding in chief Her Majesty's Forces in Great Britain and Ireland, or in the temporary Absence of such Officer by the Adjutant General, or when there shall not be any Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Forces in Great Britain and Ireland, then by the Secretary-at-War or his Deputy, to any Judge of the Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer in England or Ireland, and thereupon such Judge shall make an Order for the Transportation of such Offender, in conformity with such Notification, and shall also do all such other Acts consequent upon such Notification as such Judge is authorized to do by any Act in force touching the Transportation of other Offenders; and the Person in whose Custody such Offender shall at that Time be, and all other Persons whatsoever whom the said Order may concern, shall be bound to obey and shall be assistant in the Execution thereof, and shall be liable to the same Punishment for Disobedience, or for interrupting the Execution of such Order, as if the Order had been made under the Authority of any such Act as aforesaid; and every Person so ordered to be transported shall be subject to every Provision made by Law and in force concerning Persons convicted of any Crime and under Sentence of Transportation; and from the Time when such Order of Transportation shall be made every Act in force touching the Escape of Felons, or their afterwards returning or their being at large without Leave, shall apply to such Offender, and to all Persons aiding and abetting, contriving, or assisting in any Escape or intended Escape or returning without Leave of any such Offender; and the Judge who shall make any Order of Transportation as aforesaid shall direct the Notification of Her Majesty's Pleasure, and his own Order made thereupon, to be filed and kept of Record in the Office of the Clerk of the Crown of the Court of Queen's Bench; and the said Clerk shall have a Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence only for filing the same, and shall, on Application, deliver a Certificate in Writing (not taking more than Two Shillings and Sixpence for the same) to such Offender, or to any Person applying in his or Her Majesty's Behalf, showing the Christian and Surname of such Offender, his Offence, the Place where the Court was held before whom he was convicted, and the Conditions on which the Order of Transportation was given; which Certificate shall be sufficient Proof of the Conviction and Sentence of such Offender, and also of the Terms on which such Order for his Transportation was given, in any Court and in any Proceeding wherein it may be necessary to inquire into the same.

Power to inflict Corporal Punishment.

XXV. Any Court-martial may sentence any Soldier to Corporal Punishment not extending to Life or Limb for disgraceful Conduct, as herein-after mentioned, Misbehaviour, or Neglect of Duty; provided that no such Sentence of Corporal Punishment exceed Fifty Lashes.

Forfeiture of Pay and Pension by Sentence of Court-martial.

XXVIII. Any General Court-martial may, in addition to any other Punishment which it may be competent to award, sentence any Offender to Forfeiture of all Advantage as to additional Pay, Good-conduct Pay, and Pension on Discharge, which might have otherwise accrued from the Length of his former Service, or to Forfeiture of such Advantage absolutely, whether it might have accrued from past Service or might accrue from future Service, according to the Nature of the Case; and any District or Garrison Court-martial may also, in addition to any Sentence which such Court may award, sentence any Offender to such Forfeiture for Desertion or for disgraceful Conduct,

In wilfully maiming or injuring himself or any other Soldier, whether at the Instance of such other Soldier or not, with Intent thereby to render himself or such other Soldier unfit for Service:

In tampering with his Eyes, with Intent thereby to render himself unfit for Service:

In wilfully doing any Act, or wilfully disobeying any Orders, whether in Hospital or otherwise, thereby producing or aggravating Disease or Infirmity, or delaying his Cure:

In malingering or feigning Disease:

In stealing or embezzling Government Property or Stores, or in receiving the same knowing the same to have been stolen:

In stealing any Money or Goods, the Property of a Comrade, of a Military Officer, or of any Military or Regimental Mess or Band, or in receiving any such Money or Goods knowing the same to have been stolen:

In making any false or fraudulent Accounts, Returns, Matters, or Entries, or assisting or conniving at the same being made, or producing the same as true, knowing the same to be false or fraudulent:

In stealing or embezzling or fraudulently misapplying Public Money intrusted to him:

Or in committing any Offence of a felonious or fraudulent Nature, to the Injury of or with Intent to injure any Person, Civil or Military:

Or for any other disgraceful Conduct, being of a cruel, indecent, or unnatural Kind.

XXIX. Every

XXIX. Every Soldier who shall be found guilty of Desertion by a Court-martial, such Finding having been confirmed, or of Felony in any Court of ordinary Criminal Jurisdiction in England or Ireland, or of any Crime or Offence in any Court of Criminal Judicature in any Part of the United Kingdom, or in any Dominion, Territory, Colony, Settlement, or Island belonging to or occupied by Her Majesty out of the United Kingdom, which would, if committed therein, amount to Felony, shall thereupon forfeit all Advantage as to additional Pay, Good-conduct Pay, and to Pension on Discharge, which might have otherwise accrued from the Length of his former Service, in addition to any Punishment which such Court may award. Forfeiture of Pay on Conviction of Desertion or Felony.

XXX. If any Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier, by reason of his Imprisonment, whether under Sentence of a Court-martial or of any other Court duly authorized to pass such Sentence, or by reason of his Confinement for Debt, or by reason of his Desertion, or, being an Apprentice, by reason of his being allowed to serve out his Time with his Master, shall have been absent from his Duty during any Portion of the Time limited by his Enlistment or Re-engagement or Prolongation of Service as hereinafter provided, such Portion of his Time shall not be reckoned as a Part of the limited Service for which such Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier was enlisted or re-engaged, or for which his Term of Service may have been prolonged, and no Soldier shall be entitled to Pay, or to reckon Service towards Pay or Pension, when in Confinement under a Sentence of any Court, or during any Absence from Duty by Commitment or Confinement under any Charge of which he shall be afterwards convicted, either by Court-martial or by any Court of ordinary Criminal Jurisdiction, or whilst in arrest for Debt; and when any Soldier shall be absent as a Prisoner of War he shall not be entitled to Pay, or to reckon Service towards Pay or Pension, for the Period of such Absence; but upon rejoining Her Majesty's Service due Inquiry shall be made by a Court-martial, and unless it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of such Court that the said Soldier was taken Prisoner through wilful Neglect of Duty on his Part, or that he had served with or under, or in some Manner aided the Enemy, or that he had not returned as soon as possible to Her Majesty's Service, he may thereupon be recommended by such Court to receive either the whole of such Arrears of Pay or a Proportion thereof, and to reckon Service during his Absence; and any Soldier who shall be convicted of Desertion, or of Absence without Leave, shall, in addition to any Punishment awarded by the Court, forfeit his Pay for the Day or Days during which he was in a State of Desertion, or during his Absence without Leave; and if any Soldier shall absent himself without Leave for any Period not exceeding Five Days, and shall not account for the same to the Satisfaction of the Commanding Officer, or if any Soldier shall be guilty of any other Offence which the Commanding Officer may not think necessary to bring before a Court-martial, the Commanding Officer may, in addition to any minor Punishment he is authorized to award, order that such Soldier shall be imprisoned for any Period not exceeding One hundred and sixty-eight Hours, with or without Hard Labour, or with or without Solitary Confinement, as the said Commanding Officer may think fit, and such Soldier shall forfeit his Pay for any Day or Days on which he may be so imprisoned; and the said Commanding Officer may moreover order that, in addition to or instead of such Imprisonment and Forfeiture or any other Punishment which he has Authority to inflict, any Soldier who shall have so absented himself as aforesaid shall forfeit his Pay for the Day or Days on which he shall have so absented himself, and in pursuance of any such Order as aforesaid the Pay of the Soldier shall be accordingly forfeited: Provided always, that such Soldier shall not be liable to be afterwards tried by a Court-martial for any Offence for which he shall have been so punished, ordered to suffer Imprisonment, Punishment, or Forfeiture as aforesaid: Provided also, that any Soldier who shall be so ordered to suffer Imprisonment or Forfeiture of Pay shall, if he so request, have a Right to be tried by a Court-martial for his Offence, instead of submitting to such Imprisonment or Forfeiture: Provided also, that when any Sentence shall have been wholly remitted, and the Offence pardoned by competent Authority, the Soldier shall be entitled to receive his Pay for the Days he may have been in Confinement or Arrest previous to Trial, and until such Decision had been pronounced: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Secretary-at-War to order or withhold the Payment of the whole or any Part of the Pay of any Officer or Soldier during the Period of Absence by any of the Causes aforesaid.

Forfeiture of Pay when in Confinement under Sentence; or during Absence on Commitment under a Charge, or in arrest for Debt; or when Prisoner of War; or when convicted of Desertion, or of Absence without Leave; or when absent without Leave, not exceeding Five Days.

XXXI. A General, District, or Garrison Court-martial may sentence any Soldier for being drunk on Duty, and any Court-martial may sentence any Soldier for being drunk when for Duty or on Parade or on the Line of March, to be deprived of a Penny a Day of his Pay for any Period not exceeding Thirty Days, in addition to any other Punishment which such Court may award. Forfeiture of Pay for Drunkenness on Duty.

XXXIII. In addition to any other Punishment which the Court may award, a Court-martial may further direct that any Offender may be put under Stoppages until he shall have made good— Stoppages.

Any Loss or Damage occasioned by him in any of the Instances of disgraceful Conduct herein-before specified:

Any Loss or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, any Property whatsoever, occasioned by his wilful or negligent Misconduct:

Any Loss or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, his Horse, Arms, Clothing, Instruments, Equipments, Accoutrements, or Regimental Necessaries, or any extra Article of Clothing or Equipment that he may have been put in possession of and ordered to wear on the Recommendation of the Surgeon for the Benefit of his Health, or any Loss or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, the Arms, Horse, Clothing, Instruments, Accoutrements, or Regimental Necessaries of any Officer or Soldier, occasioned by his wilful or negligent Misconduct:

Any Expense necessarily incurred by his Drunkenness or other Misconduct:

Provided always, that, except in the Case of the Loss or Destruction of Accoutrements and Regimental Necessaries, in which Case the Court may by its Sentence direct that the said Stoppages shall continue till the Cost of replacing the same be made good, the Amount of any Loss, Destruction, Damage or Injury, or Expense, shall be ascertained by Evidence, and the Offender shall be placed under Stoppages for such an Amount only as shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Court: Provided also, that after satisfying the Charges for his Messing and Washing, so much only of the Pay of the Soldier may be stopped and applied as shall leave him a Residue at the least of One Penny a Day.

Power of Imprisonment by different Kinds of Courts-martial.

XXXVI. A General, Garrison, or District Court-martial may sentence any Soldier to Imprisonment, with or without Hard Labour, and may also direct that such Offender shall be kept in Solitary Confinement for any Portion or Portions of such Imprisonment not exceeding Fourteen Days at a Time, nor Eighty-four Days in any One Year, with Intervals between the Periods of Solitary Confinement of not less Duration than such Periods; and when the Imprisonment awarded shall extend beyond Three Months, the Court-martial shall imperatively order that the proper Proportion only of the Sentence of Solitary Confinement shall be inflicted within the first Three Months, and a similar Proportion only within each of the succeeding Three Months of the Imprisonment awarded; and any Regimental or Detachment Court-martial may sentence any Soldier to Imprisonment, with or without Hard Labour, for any Period not exceeding Forty-two Days, and may also direct that such Soldier may be kept in Solitary Confinement for any Portion or Portions of such Imprisonment, not exceeding Fourteen Days at a Time, with an Interval between them of not less Duration than such Periods of Solitary Confinement; provided that when any Court-martial, whether General, Garrison, or District, or Regimental, shall direct that the Imprisonment shall be solitary only, the Periods shall in no Case exceed Fourteen Days.

Imprisonment of Offenders already under Sentence for previous Offence.

XXXVII. Whenever Sentence shall be passed by a Court-martial on an Offender already imprisoned under Sentence of a Court-martial for any former Offence, it shall be lawful for the Court to award Imprisonment for the subsequent Offence to commence at the Expiration of the Imprisonment to which such Offender shall have been previously sentenced, and where such Offender shall be already under Sentence, either of Imprisonment or Transportation, the Court, if empowered to pass Sentence of Transportation may award such Sentence for the subsequent Offence to commence at the Expiration of the Imprisonment or Transportation to which such Offender shall have been previously sentenced, although the aggregate of the Terms of Imprisonment or Transportation respectively may exceed the Term for which either of those Punishments would be otherwise awarded.

Term and Place of Imprisonment.

XXXVIII. Save as herein-before specially provided, every Term of Transportation or of Imprisonment under the Sentence of a Court-martial, whether original or revised, shall be reckoned as commencing on the Day on which the original Sentence and Proceedings shall have been signed by the President; and the Place of Imprisonment under the Sentences of General Courts-martial shall be appointed by the Officer commanding the District, Garrison, Island, or Colony, and under the Sentence of any other Court-martial shall be appointed by the Officer confirming the Proceedings of such Court-martial, and in default of such Appointment then the Place of Imprisonment shall be appointed by the Officer commanding the Regiment or Corps to which the Offender belongs or is attached.

Apprehension of Deserters in the United Kingdom.

XLVI. Upon reasonable Suspicion that a Person is a Deserter it shall be lawful for any Constable, or if no Constable can be immediately met with then it shall be lawful for any Officer or Soldier in Her Majesty's Service, to apprehend or cause such suspected Person to be apprehended, and to bring or cause him to be brought before any Justice living in or near such Place, and acting for the County or Borough wherein such Place is situate, or for the County adjoining such first-mentioned County or such Borough; and such Justice is hereby authorized and required to inquire whether such suspected Person is a Deserter, and if it shall appear by the Testimony of One or more Witnesses, taken upon Oath, or by the Confession of such suspected Person, confirmed by some corroborative Evidence, or by the Knowledge of such Justice, or by Evidence sufficient to satisfy such Justice that there are reasonable Grounds for believing, that such suspected Person is a Deserter, such Justice shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed in Civil Custody to the Head Quarters or Depôt of the Regiment to which he belongs, if stationed within Five Miles of the Place of Apprehension, or if such Head Quarters or Depôt shall not be stationed within Five Miles, then to the nearest or most convenient public Prison (other than a Military Prison set apart under the Authority of this Act) or Police Station legally provided as a Lock-up House for temporary Confinement of Persons taken into Custody, whether such Prison or Police Station be in the County or Borough in which such suspected Person was apprehended or in which he was committed or not; or if the Deserter shall have been apprehended by a Party of Soldiers of his own Regiment in charge of a Commissioned Officer, such Justice may deliver him up to such Party, unless the Officer shall deem it necessary to have the Deserter committed to Prison for safe Custody; and such Justice shall transmit an Account thereof, in the Form prescribed in the Schedule annexed to this Act, to the Secretary-at-War, specifying therein whether such Deserter was delivered to his Regiment or to the Party of his Regiment in order for his being taken to the Head Quarters or Depôt of his Regiment, or whether such Deserter was committed to Prison, to the end that the Person so committed may be removed by an Order from the Office of the said Secretary-at-War, and proceeded against according to Law; and such Justice shall also send to the Secretary-at-War a Report, stating the Names of the Persons by whom the Deserter was apprehended and secured; and the Secretary-at-War shall transmit to such Justice an Order for the Payment to such Persons of such Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings as the Secretary-at-War shall be satisfied they are entitled to, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; and for such Information, Commitment, and Report as aforesaid the Clerk of the said Justice shall shall be entitled to a Fee of Two Shillings and no more; and every Gaoler and other Person into whose Custody any Person charged with Desertion is committed shall immediately upon the Receipt of the Person so charged into his Custody pay such Fee of Two Shillings, and also upon the Production of a Receipt from the Medical Practitioner, who, in the Absence of a Military Medical Officer, may have been required to examine such suspected Person, a Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence, and shall notify the Fact to the Secretary-at-War, and transmit also to the Secretary-at-War a Copy of the Commitment, to the end that such Secretary-at-War may order Repayment of the same; and when any Person shall be apprehended and committed as a Deserter in any of Her Majesty's Colonies the Justice shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed to some public Prison, if the Regiment to which he is suspected to belong shall not be in the Colony, or, if the Regiment be in the Colony, the Justice may, if within reasonable Distance, deliver him into Custody at the nearest Military Post, although the Regiment to which such Person is suspected to belong may not be stationed at such Military Post; and such Justice shall in every Case transmit to the General or other Officer commanding in the Colony a Description Return in the Form prescribed, to the end that such Person may be removed by Order of such Officer, and proceeded against according to Law.

In the Colonies.

LI. No Person subject to this Act, having been acquitted or convicted of any Crime or Offence by the Civil Magistrate, or by the Verdict of a Jury, shall be liable to be again tried for the same Crime or Offence by a Court-martial, or punished for the same, otherwise than by cashiering; and whenever any Officer or Soldier shall have been tried by any Court of ordinary Criminal Jurisdiction, the Clerk of such Court or other Officer having the Custody of the Records of such Court, or the Deputy of such Clerk, shall, if required by the Officer commanding the Regiment to which such Officer or Soldier shall belong, transmit to him a Certificate, containing the Substance and Effect only of the Indictment, omitting the formal Part, and containing also a Copy of the Entry of the Judgment of the Court thereon if such Officer or Soldier shall have been convicted, or of the Acquittal of such Officer or Soldier, and shall be allowed for such Certificate a Fee of Three Shillings.

No Person acquitted or convicted by the Civil Magistrate, or by a Jury, to be tried by Court-martial for the same Offence.

LII. Any Person enlisted into Her Majesty's Service as a Soldier, or serving as a Non-commissioned Officer or Drummer on the permanent Staff of the Disembodied Militia, shall be liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service only by Process or Execution on account of any Charge of Felony or of Misdemeanor committed with Violence to the Person, Property, or Effects of any of Her Majesty's Subjects, or on account of an original Debt proved by Affidavit of the Plaintiff or of some one on his Behalf to amount to the Value of Thirty Pounds at the least, over and above all Costs of Suit in the Action or Actions, such Affidavit to be sworn, without Payment of any Fee, before some Judge of the Court out of which Process or Execution shall issue, or before some Person authorized to take Affidavits in such Court, of which Affidavit when duly filed in such Court, a Memorandum shall, without Fee, be endorsed upon the Back of such Process, stating the Facts sworn to, and the Day of filing such Affidavit; but no Soldier or other Person as aforesaid shall be liable to be summoned before any Justice of the Peace or other Authority whatever, or to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service, by any Capias, Writ, Summons, Order, Judgment, Process, or Execution issued by or by the Authority of any Court or Inferior Court, for any original Debt not amounting to Thirty Pounds, or for not supporting or maintaining, or for not having supported or maintained, or for deserting or having deserted, or for leaving or having left chargeable to any Parish, Township, or Union, any Wife, or any Child or Children, legitimate or illegitimate, or other Relation, which such Soldier or Person would, if not in Her Majesty's Service, be liable by Law to support or maintain, or for the Breach of any Contract, Covenant, Agreement, or other Engagement whatever, by Parol or in Writing, or for having left or deserted his Employer or Master, or his Contract, Work, or Labour; and all Summonses, Warrants, Commitments, Indictments, Convictions, Judgments, and Sentences, on account of any of the Matters for which it is herein declared that a Soldier or other Person as aforesaid is not liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service, shall be utterly illegal, and null and void to all Intents and Purposes; and any Judge of any such Court may examine into any Complaints made by a Soldier or by his Superior Officer, and by Warrant under his Hand discharge such Soldier, without Fee, he being shown to have been arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, and shall award reasonable Costs to such Complainant, who shall have for the Recovery thereof the like Remedy as would have been applicable to the Recovery of any Costs which might have been awarded against the Complainant in any Judgment or Execution as aforesaid, or a Writ of Habeas corpus ad subjiciendum shall be awarded or issued, and the Discharge of any such Soldier out of Custody shall be ordered thereupon; provided, that any Plaintiff, upon Notice of the Cause of Action first given in Writing to any Soldier, or left at his last Quarters, may proceed in any Action or Suit to Judgment, and have Execution other than against the Body; provided also, that nothing herein contained relating to the leaving or deserting a Master or Employer, or to the Breach of any Contract, Agreement, or Engagement, shall apply to Persons who shall be really and bonâ fide Apprentices, duly bound, under the Age of Twenty-one Years, as herein-after prescribed.

Soldiers liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service only for Felony, Misdemeanor, or for Debts amounting to 30*l.* and upwards.

Soldiers not liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service for Debts under 30*l.*, or for not maintaining their Families, or for Breach of Contract.

LVI. Any Recruit appearing as aforesaid before such Justice shall be at liberty to declare his Dissent to such enlisting, and upon such Declaration, and returning the Enlisting Money, and also paying the Sum of Twenty Shillings as Smart Money, together with the full Amount of any Pay which shall have been paid to such Recruit subsequent to the Period of his having been enlisted, shall be forthwith discharged and set at liberty in the Presence of such Justice; but if such Person shall refuse or neglect, within the Space of Twenty-four Hours after so declaring his Dissent, to return and pay such Money as aforesaid, he shall be deemed and taken to be enlisted, as if he had given his Assent thereto before the said said Justice: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any Justice to discharge any Person who shall have hastily enlisted, and who shall apply to him to declare his Dissent within such Four Days as aforesaid, upon Payment of the Sum of Money required to be paid by any Recruit declaring his Dissent under this Act, notwithstanding no Person belonging to the Recruiting Party shall be with the Recruit, if it shall appear to such Justice, upon Proof to his Satisfaction, that the Recruiting Party has left the Place where such Recruit was enlisted, or that the Recruit could not procure any Person belonging to such Party to go with him before the Justice; and the Sum paid by such Recruit upon his Discharge shall be kept by the Justice, and after deducting One Shilling as the Fee to his Clerk for reporting the Payment to the Secretary-at-War shall be paid to any Person belonging to the Recruiting Party entitled thereto demanding the same; and no Recruit who has been actually, though erroneously, discharged by the Justice before the Expiration of Twenty-four Hours after the Time of his Enlistment, shall be liable on that account to be proceeded against as having deserted from Her Majesty's Service; and the Justice who shall discharge any Recruit shall in every Case give a Certificate thereof, signed with his Hand, to the Recruit, specifying the Cause thereof.

Offences connected with Enlistment.

LVII. If any Recruit shall receive the Enlisting Money from any Person employed in the Recruiting Service (knowing it to be such), and shall abscond or refuse to go before such Justice, or shall thereafter absent himself from the Recruiting Party or Person with whom he enlisted, and shall not voluntarily return to go before some Justice within such Period of Four Days as aforesaid, such Recruit shall be deemed to be enlisted and a Soldier in Her Majesty's Service, or in the Service of the East India Company, as fully to all Intents and Purposes as if he had been duly attested, and may be apprehended and punished as a Deserter, or for being absent without Leave, under any Articles of War made for Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion; and such Recruit shall not be discharged by any Justice of the Peace after the Expiration of such Four Days as aforesaid, unless it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of such Justice that the true Name and Residence of the Recruit were disclosed and known to the Recruiting Party, and that no Notice was given to the Recruit, or left at his usual Place of Abode, of his having so enlisted: Provided always, that in every Case wherein any Recruit shall have received Enlisting Money, and shall have absconded from the Party, so that it shall not be possible immediately to apprehend and bring him before a Justice, the Officer or Non-commissioned Officer commanding the Party shall produce to the Justice before whom the Recruit ought regularly to have been brought for Attestation a Certificate of the Name and Place of Residence of such Recruit; and the Justice to whom such Certificate shall be produced shall, after satisfying himself that the Recruit who had absconded cannot be found and apprehended, transmit a Duplicate thereof to Her Majesty's Secretary-at-War, in order that, in the event of such Recruit being afterwards apprehended and reported as a Deserter, the Facts of his having received Enlisting Money, and having absconded after having been enlisted, may be ascertained before he be finally adjudged to be a Deserter; and any Recruit who shall enlist into Her Majesty's Forces, and who shall be discovered to be incapable of active Service by reason of any Infirmity concealed or not declared by such Recruit before the Justice at the Time of his Attestation, may be transferred to any Garrison or Veteran or Invalid Battalion or Company, or into Her Majesty's Marine Forces, notwithstanding he shall have enlisted for any particular Regiment, and shall be entitled to receive such Proportion or Residue of Bounty only as Her Majesty may allow in that Behalf, instead of the Bounty upon which such Man shall have been enlisted, anything in any Act or Acts, or any Rules and Regulations relating to Soldiers, to the contrary notwithstanding; and it shall be lawful for any Two Justices acting for the County, District, City, Burgh, or Place where any such Recruit shall at any Time happen to be when any such Recruit shall be brought, and shall be proved upon Oath before them to have concealed his having been a Soldier and discharged, or to have concealed his having been discharged upon any prior Enlistment, or to have wilfully concealed any such Infirmity, or to have designedly made any false Representation upon being attested, to adjudge such Recruit, if in England, to be a Rogue and Vagabond, and to sentence him to such Punishment as by any Law in force may be inflicted upon Rogues and Vagabonds, and to adjudge such Person, if in Scotland or Ireland, to be imprisoned, with Hard Labour, in any Prison or House of Correction, for any Period not exceeding Three Months; and any Recruit who shall designedly make any false Representation of any Particular contained in the Oaths and Certificates in the Schedule to this Act annexed, before the Justice, at the Time of his Attestation, and shall obtain any Enlisting Money or Bounty for entering into Her Majesty's Service, or into the Service of the East India Company, or any other Money, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining Money under false Pretences, within the true Intent and Meaning, if in England, of an Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in England relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith, and if in Ireland, of an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in Ireland relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith, and such Recruit, if in Scotland, shall be deemed guilty of Falsehood, Fraud, and wilful Imposition; and any Recruit who shall in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions or elsewhere have committed any of the before-mentioned Offences regarding Enlistment may be summarily punished or prosecuted, tried and convicted, for any such Offence, at any Time during the Continuance of the Service for which he shall have enlisted, and in any County or Place where he may happen to be when such summary Proceeding or Prosecution shall be instituted; and the Production of the Oath in the Schedule to this Act annexed, taken by the Recruit on his Attestation, and the Certificate then signed by the Justice before whom the Recruit was attested, certifying that the Questions and Answers contained in the Attestation were in his Presence put to and given given by such Recruit, shall, in the Absence of Proof to the contrary, be deemed and taken to be sufficient Evidence of such Recruit having represented the several Particulars as in the Oath sworn by him; and Proof by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses that the Person so prosecuted hath voluntarily acknowledged that at the Time of his Enlistment he belonged to the Militia, or to any Regiment in Her Majesty's Service, or to Her Majesty's Ordnance, Navy, or Marines, or to the Forces of the East India Company, shall be deemed and taken as Evidence of the Fact so by him acknowledged, without Production of any Roll or other Document to prove the same; and such Proof of such Acknowledgment shall be certified to the Secretary-at-War by the Justice before whom such Proof shall have been given; and any Man having been enrolled to serve in the Militia at the Time of offering to enlist who shall deny that he is a Militia Man then actually enrolled and engaged to serve, or shall deny to the Justice before whom he shall be attested that he belongs to the Militia, shall, on Conviction thereof before any One Justice in the United Kingdom, either upon Oath of One Witness or upon his own Confession, or upon the Production of the Attestation, and the before-mentioned Acknowledgment of such Person, certified by the Secretary-at-War or Deputy Secretary-at-War, be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to remain without Bail or Mainprise for and during any Time not exceeding Six Calendar Months, over and above any Penalty or Punishment to which such Person so offending may be otherwise liable, and shall from the Day on which his Engagement to serve in the Militia shall end, and not sooner, belong as a Soldier to the Corps of Her Majesty's Regular Forces, or of the East India Company's Forces, into which he shall have so enlisted: Provided always, that every such Person shall be liable to serve within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Her Majesty's Regular Forces, or of the East India Company's Forces in which he has so enlisted, during all the Time the Militia to which he shall belong shall remain disembodied, or shall not be called out for Training or Exercise, and shall during all such Time be subject to all the Provisions of this Act, and liable to be apprehended and dealt with and punished as a Deserter from the Corps in which he shall have so enlisted, if he shall neglect or refuse to join and serve in such Corps as aforesaid.

Authorized Deductions only to be made from the Pay of the Army.

LXVI. No Secretary-at-War, Paymaster General of the Army, Paymaster, or any other Officer whatsoever, or their under Officers, shall receive any Fees or make any Deductions whatsoever out of the Pay of any Officer or Soldier in Her Majesty's Army, or from their Agents, which shall grow due from and after the Twenty-fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, other than the usual Deductions, or such other necessary Deductions as shall from Time to Time be required by Her Majesty's Regulations, or by Her Majesty's Order signified by the Secretary-at-War; and every Paymaster or other Officer having received any Officer's or Soldier's Pay who shall unlawfully detain the same for the Space of One Month, or refuse to pay the same when it shall become due, according to the several Rates and agreeably to the several Regulations established by Her Majesty's Orders, shall, upon Proof thereof before a Court-martial, be discharged from his Employment, and shall forfeit One hundred Pounds, and the Informer, if a Soldier, if he demand it, shall be discharged from any further Service; provided, as aforesaid, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Secretary-at-War to give Orders for withholding the Pay of any Officer or Soldier for any Period during which such Officer or Soldier shall be absent without Leave, or improperly absent from his Corps and from his Duty, or, in case of any Doubt as to the proper Issue of Pay, to withhold it from the Parties aforesaid until Her Majesty's Orders shall have been signified by the Secretary-at-War.

Rates to be paid for Carriages, and Regulations relating thereto.

LXXIV. In every Case in which the whole Distance for which any Carriage shall be impressed shall be under One Mile the Rate of a full Mile shall be paid; and the Rates to be paid for Carriages impressed shall be, in England, for every Mile which a Waggon with Four or more Horses, or a Wain with Six Oxen or Four Oxen and Two Horses, shall travel, One Shilling; and for every Mile any Waggon with narrow Wheels, or any Cart with Four Horses, carrying not less than Fifteen Hundredweight, shall travel, Ninepence; and for every Mile any other Cart or Carriage with less than Four Horses, and not carrying Fifteen Hundredweight, shall travel, Sixpence; and in Ireland, for every Hundredweight, loaded on any Wheel Carriage, One Halfpenny per Mile; and in England such further Rates may be added, not exceeding a total Addition per Mile of Fourpence, Threepence, or Twopence, to the respective Rates of One Shilling, Ninepence, or Sixpence, as may seem reasonable to the Justices assembled at General Sessions for their respective Districts, or to the Recorder of any Municipal City, Borough, or Town, Corporate or not Corporate; and the Order of such Justices or Recorder at Sessions shall specify the average Price of Hay and Oats at the nearest Market Town at the Time of fixing such additional Rates, the Period for which the Order shall be enforced not exceeding Ten Days beyond the next General Sessions; and no such Order shall be valid unless a Copy thereof, signed by the presiding Magistrate and One other Justice, or by the Recorder, shall be transmitted to the Secretary-at-War within Three Days after the making thereof; and also in England, when the Day's March shall exceed Fifteen Miles, the Justice granting his Warrant may fix a further reasonable Compensation, not exceeding the usual Rate of Hire fixed by this Act; and when any additional Rates or Compensation shall be granted, the Justice shall insert in his own Hand in the Warrant the Amount thereof, and the Date of the Order of Sessions if fixed by Sessions, and the Warrant shall be given to the Officer commanding as his Voucher; and the Officer or Non-commissioned Officer demanding Carriages by virtue of the Warrant of a Justice shall, in England, pay the proper Sums into the Hands of the Constables providing Carriages, who shall give Receipts for the same on unstamped Paper; and in Ireland, the Officers or Non-commissioned Officers as aforesaid shall pay the proper Sums to the Owners or Drivers of the Carriages, and One Third Part of such Payment shall be made before the Carriage be loaded, and all the said Payments in Ireland shall be made, made, if required, in the Presence of a Justice or Constable; and no Carriage shall be liable to carry more than Thirty Hundredweight in England, and in Ireland no Car shall be liable to carry more than Six Hundredweight, and no Dray more than Twelve Hundredweight; but the Owner of such Carriages in Ireland consenting to carry a greater Weight shall be paid at the same Rate for every Hundredweight of the said Excess; and the Owners of such Carriages in Ireland shall not be compelled to proceed, though with any less Weight, under the Sum of Threepence a Mile for each Car and Sixpence a Mile for each Dray; and the Loading of such Carriages in Ireland shall be first weighed, if required, at the Expense of the Owner of the Carriage, if the same can be done in a reasonable Time, without Hindrance to Her Majesty's Service; and the providing and paying for Carriages in Scotland shall be regulated by the Law in force at the Time of the Union with England; provided that a Cart with One or more Horses for which the Furnisher shall receive Ninepence a Mile shall be required to carry Fifteen Hundredweight at the least; and no Penalties or Forfeitures in any Act relating to Highways or Turnpike Roads in the United Kingdom shall apply to the Number of Horses and Oxen, or Weight of Loading of the aforesaid Carriages, which shall not on that account be stopped or detained; and whenever it shall be necessary to impress Carriages for the March of Soldiers from Dublin, at least Twenty-four Hours Notice of such March, and in case of Emergency as long Notice as the Case will admit, shall be given to the Lord Mayor of Dublin, who shall summon a proportional Number of Cars and Drays, at his Discretion, out of the licensed Cars and Drays and other Cars and Drays within the County of the said City, and they shall by Turns be employed on this Duty at the Prices and under the Regulations herein-before mentioned; and no Country Cars, Drays, or other Carriages coming to Markets in Ireland shall be detained or employed against the Will of the Owners in carrying the Baggage of the Army on any Pretence whatsoever.

Tolls.

LXXVIII. All Her Majesty's Officers and Soldiers, being in proper Staff or Regimental or Military Uniform, Dress or Undress, and their Horses, (but not when passing in any hired or private Vehicle,) and all Recruits, marching by Route, and all Prisoners under Military Escort, and all enrolled Pensioners in Uniform when called out for Training or in aid of the Civil Power, and all Carriages and Horses belonging to Her Majesty or employed in Her Service under the Provisions of this Act, or in any of Her Majesty's Colonies, when conveying Persons or Baggage or returning therefrom, shall be exempted from Payment of any Duties and Tolls on embarking or disembarking from or upon any Pier, Wharf, Quay, or Landing Place, or passing Turnpike Roads or Bridges, otherwise demandable by virtue of any Act already passed or hereafter to be passed, or by virtue of any Act or Ordinance, Order, or Direction of any Colonial Legislature or other Authority in any of Her Majesty's Colonies; provided that nothing herein contained shall exempt any Boats, Barges, or other Vessels employed in conveying the said Persons, Horses, Baggage, or Stores along any Canal from Payment of Tolls, in like Manner as other Boats, Barges, and Vessels are liable thereto, except when employed in Cases of Emergency as herein-before enacted.

Ordinary Course of Criminal Justice not to be interfered with.

Punishment of Officers obstructing Civil Justice.

LXXXII. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to extend to exempt any Officer or Soldier from being proceeded against by the ordinary Course of Law, when accused of Felony or of Misdemeanor committed with Violence to the Person, Estate, or Property of any of Her Majesty's Subjects, punishable by the well-known Laws of the Land, and if any Commanding Officer shall neglect or refuse, on Application being made to him for that Purpose, to deliver over to the Civil Magistrate any Officer or Soldier under his Command, or shall wilfully obstruct, neglect, or refuse to assist the Officers of Justice in apprehending any Officer or Soldier under his Command, so accused as aforesaid, such Officer shall, upon Conviction thereof in any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts at Westminster, Dublin, or Edinburgh, be deemed to be thereupon cashiered, and shall be thenceforth utterly disabled to have or hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in Her Majesty's Service; and a Certificate thereof, containing the Substance and Effect of the Indictment only, omitting the formal Part, with the Copy of the Entry of the Judgment of the Court thereon, shall be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General in London.

Penalty on unlawful recruiting.

LXXXVI. All the Persons (except such Recruiting Parties as may be stationed under Military Command) who shall cause to be advertised, posted, or dispersed Bills for the Purpose of procuring Recruits or Substitutes for the Line, Embodied Militia, or East India Company's Service, or shall open or keep any House, Place of Rendezvous, or Office, or receive any Person therein under such Bill or Advertisement, as connected with the Recruiting Service, or shall directly or indirectly interfere therewith, without Permission in Writing from the Adjutant General, or from the Directors of the East India Company, (as the Case may be,) shall forfeit for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Penalties on aiding Escape or Attempt to escape of Prisoners, and on Breach of Prison Regulations.

LXXXIX. If any Person shall convey or cause to be conveyed into any Military Prison appointed to be a public Prison under this Act any Arms, Tools, or Instruments, or any Mask or other Disguise, to facilitate the Escape of any Prisoner, or shall by any Means whatever aid and assist any Prisoner to escape or in attempting to escape from such Prison, whether an Escape be actually made or not, such Person shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and upon being convicted thereof shall be transported beyond the Seas for any Term not exceeding Fourteen Years; and if any Person shall bring or attempt to bring into such Prison, in contravention of the existing Rules, any spirituous or fermented Liquor, he shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds and not less than Ten Pounds, or to Imprisonment, with or without Hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding Three Calendar Months; and if any Person shall bring into such Prison to or for any Prisoner, without the Knowledge of the Governor, any Money, Clothing, Provisions, Tobacco, Letters, Papers, or other Articles not allowed by the Rules of the Prison to be in the Possession of a Prisoner, or shall throw into the said Prison any such Articles, or shall by Desire of any Prisoner, without the Sanction of the Governor, carry out of the Prison any of the Articles aforesaid, he shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, or to Imprisonment, either with or without Hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding One Calendar Month; and if any Person shall assault or violently resist any Officer of such Prison in the Execution of his Duty, or shall aid or excite any Person so to assault or resist any such Officer, he shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, or to Imprisonment, either with or without Hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding One Calendar Month, or, if the Offender be a Soldier already under Sentence of Imprisonment, he shall be liable to be sentenced for every such Offence to be imprisoned, either with or without Hard Labour, upon Conviction thereof by a Board of not less than Three of the Visitors of the Prison, for any Time not exceeding Six Calendar Months, or upon Conviction thereof by a single Visitor for any Time not exceeding Seventy-two Hours, in addition to so much of the Time for which he was originally sentenced as may then be unexpired; or if such Soldier shall, within Forty-eight Hours of the Expiration of his Sentence, be guilty of any Offence against the Rules of the Prison, he may, on Conviction thereof by a single Visitor, be imprisoned, either with or without Hard Labour or Solitary Confinement, for a Period not exceeding Seventy-two Hours, in addition to his original Sentences; and all the Provisions of any Act or Acts of Parliament for the Regulation or better ordering of Gaols, Houses of Correction, or Prisons in England and Wales shall be deemed to apply to all Military Prisons, so far as any Provision relates to such Offences; and it shall be lawful for the Governor, Provost Marshal, Officer, or Servant of any Military Prison to use and exercise all the Powers and Authorities given by any such Act to the Gaoler, Keeper, or Turnkey of any Prison, or to his or their Assistants, to apprehend, or to cause Offenders to be apprehended, in order to their being taken before a Justice or Justices of the Peace; and all the Powers and Authorities given by such Act to any Justice or Justices of the Peace to convict Offenders in any of the above Cases, together with the Forms of Convictions contained in any such Act, shall be applicable to the like Offences when committed in respect of Military Prisons; and all the Provisions contained in any such Act relating to Suits and Actions prosecuted against any Person for anything done in pursuance of such Act shall be deemed to apply to all Suits and Actions prosecuted against any Person acting in pursuance of such Act in respect of Military Prisons.

Certain Provisions of Gaol Acts to apply to Military Prisons.

XCII. If any Constable or other Person who by virtue of this Act shall be employed in billeting any Officers or Soldiers in any Part of the United Kingdom shall presume to billet any such Officer or Soldier in any House not within the Meaning of this Act, without the Consent of the Owner or Occupier thereof; or shall neglect or refuse to billet any Officer or Soldier on Duty, when thereunto required, in such Manner as is by this Act directed, provided sufficient Notice be given before the Arrival of such Troops; or shall receive, demand, or agree for any Money or Reward whatsoever, in order to excuse any Person from receiving such Officer or Soldier; or shall quarter any of the Wives, Children, Men or Maid Servants of any Officers or Soldiers, in any such Houses, against the Consent of the Occupiers; or shall neglect or refuse to execute such Warrants of the Justices as shall be directed to him for providing Carriages, Horses, or Vessels, or shall demand more than the legal Rates for the same; or if any Person ordered by any Constable in manner herein-before directed to provide Carriages, Horses, or Vessels shall refuse or neglect to provide the same according to the Orders of such Constable, or shall do any Act or Thing by which the Execution of any Warrants for providing Carriages, Horses, or Vessels shall be hindered; or if any Constable shall neglect to deliver in to the Justices at Quarter Sessions Lists of Officers and Soldiers of the Foot Guards quartered according to the Provisions of this Act, or shall cause to be delivered defective Lists of the same; or if any Person liable by this Act to have any Officer or Soldier quartered upon him shall refuse to receive and to afford proper Accommodation or Diet in the House in which such Officer or Soldier is quartered, and to furnish the several Things directed to be furnished to Officers and Soldiers, or shall neglect or refuse to furnish good and sufficient Stables, together with good and sufficient Hay and Straw, for each Horse, at the Rate established by this Act, and in such Quantities as shall be fixed by Her Majesty's Regulations, not exceeding Twelve Pounds of Hay and Six Pounds of Straw per Diem for each Horse; or if any Innkeeper or Victualler not having good and sufficient Stables shall refuse to pay over to the Person or Persons who may provide Stabling such Allowance by way of Compensation as shall be directed by any Justice of the Peace, or shall pay any Sum or Sums of Money to any Soldier on the March in lieu of furnishing in Kind the Diet and Small Beer to which such Soldier is entitled, or if any Toll Collector shall demand and receive Toll from any of Her Majesty's Officers or Soldiers, they being in proper Staff or Regimental or Military Uniform, Dress or Undress, or for their Horses, or from any Recruits marching by Route, or from any Prisoners under Military Escort, or from any enrolled Pensioners in Uniform, when called out for Training or in aid of the Civil Power, or for any Carriages or Horses belonging to Her Majesty, or employed in Her Service under the Provisions of this Act, or in any of Her Majesty's Colonies, when conveying Persons or Baggage or returning therefrom, every such Constable, Victualler, Toll Keeper, or other Person respectively shall forfeit for every such Offence, Neglect, or Refusal any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds nor less than Forty Shillings.

Penalties upon Civil Subjects offending against the Laws relating to Billets and Carriages.

CIV. This Act shall be and continue in force within Great Britain from the Twenty-fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one inclusive until the Twenty-fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two; and shall be and continue in force within Ireland, and in Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Isle of Man, and the Islands thereto belonging, from the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one inclusive until the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred

CAP. VII.

An Act to amend an Act of the Parliament of Ireland of the Twenty-fifth Year of King George the Third, for explaining and amending several Laws for the Encouragement of Agriculture, so far as relates to Leases for the Erection of Mills. [11th April 1851.]

'WHEREAS by an Act of the Parliament of Ireland of the Twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to explain and amend several Laws now in force for the Encouragement of Agriculture, it is amongst other things enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for every Archbishop and Bishop, and for every Dean, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, Dignitary, Prebendary, Rector, Vicar, and Ecclesiastical Person whatsoever, with the Consent of the Archbishop or Bishop of their respective Diocese, signified under the Hand and Seal of such Archbishop and Bishop respectively, and for the Master and Governors and Fellows of Colleges and Hospitals, and for every Person or Persons whatsoever, being seised in possession in Law or Equity of an Estate in Fee Tail or for his Life, with immediate Remainder over to or in trust for his Issue, to make One or more Lease or Leases for any Term or Number of Years, or for One, Two, or Three Lives, with Covenant of perpetual Renewal, of any Part or Parts of Land to them respectively belonging, not being any Part of the Demesne usually occupied with his or their Mansion House, and not exceeding Three Acres Plantation Measure in any One such Lease, to any Person or Persons, for the Purpose of building Corn Mills, making Mill Ponds or Mill Dams, and that all Grants or Leases so made shall be good and effectual against the Successors of every such Archbishop, Bishop, Dean, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, Dignitary, Prebendary, Rector, Vicar, and other Ecclesiastical Person respectively, and against the Successors of the Masters, Governors, and Fellows of Colleges and Hospitals respectively, subject to certain Provisoes, Restrictions, and Conditions in the said Act contained relating thereto; and it is by the said Act further enacted, that like Leases, with like Powers, Restrictions, Reservations, and Covenants, may be made respectively and be valid for the Purpose of erecting Mills and making Mill Dams or Ponds for any Machinery of Manufacture to be turned or employed by Water: And whereas it is expedient to extend the like Provisions to Mills or Factories with Machinery to be turned or employed by Steam or otherwise than by Water:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, 25 G. 3. (I.)

Like Leases of Lands may be made for erecting Mills with Steam Machinery, &c. as under recited Act may be made as to Mills turned by Water.

I. That like Leases of Lands, with like Powers, Restrictions, Reservations, and Covenants, may be made respectively, by like Persons, Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, Dignitaries, Ecclesiastical Persons, and other Bodies as aforesaid, and shall be valid for the Purpose of erecting Mills or Factories in Ireland for any Machinery of Manufacture to be turned or employed by Steam or otherwise than by Water, as under the Provisions of the said recited Act may be made and be valid for the Purpose of erecting Mills or making Mill Dams or Ponds for any Machinery of Manufacture to be turned or employed by Water.

CAP. VIII.

An Act to extend the Provisions of the Designs Act, 1850, and to give Protection from Piracy to Persons exhibiting new Inventions in the Exhibition of the Works of Industry of all Nations in One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one. [11th April 1851.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that such Protection as herein-after mentioned should be afforded to Persons desirous of exhibiting new Inventions in the Exhibition of the Works of Industry of all Nations in One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Inventions may be exhibited without Prejudice to Letters Patent to be thereafter granted.

Invention to be provisionally registered, and not to be used before granting of the Letters Patent.

I. Any new Invention for which Letters Patent might lawfully be granted may at any Time during the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, but not afterwards, be publicly exhibited in any Place previously certified by the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Foreign Plantations to be a Place of Exhibition within the Meaning of the Designs Act, 1850, without Prejudice to the Validity of any Letters Patent to be thereafter, during the Term of the provisional Registration herein-after mentioned, granted for such Invention to the true and first Inventor thereof: Provided always, that such Invention have previously to such public Exhibition thereof been provisionally registered in manner herein-after mentioned; and provided also, that the same be not otherwise publicly exhibited or used by or with the Consent of the Inventor prior to the granting of any such Letters Patent as aforesaid, except as herein-after mentioned: Provided also, that no Sale or Transfer, or Contract for Sale or Transfer, of the Right to or Benefit of any Invention so provisionally registered, or of the Rights acquired under this Act, or to be acquired under any Letters Patent to be granted for such Invention, shall be deemed a Use of such Invention; and the Publication of any Account or Description of such Invention, in any Catalogue, Paper, Newspaper, Periodical, or otherwise shall not affect the Validity of any Letters Patent to be during such Term granted as aforesaid.

Public Trial of agricultural or horticultural Implements not to prejudice Letters Patent.

II. The public Trial or Exhibition of any such Invention as aforesaid (being an Invention for Purposes of Agriculture or Horticulture), which shall be certified by the Lords of the said Committee to have taken place under the Direction of the Commissioners for the Exhibition of 1851 for Purposes connected with the Exhibition thereof, in such Place of public Exhibition as aforesaid, whether such Trial or Exhibition Exhibition take place before or after the passing of this Act, shall not prevent the provisional Registration of such Invention under this Act, nor prejudice or affect the Validity of any Letters Patent to be granted for such Invention during such Term as aforesaid.

Certificate of Invention to be granted for provisional Registration.

III. Her Majesty's Attorney General, or such Person or Persons as he may from Time to Time appoint to issue Certificates under this Act, on being furnished with a Description in Writing, signed by or on behalf of the Person claiming to be the true and first Inventor within this Realm of any new Invention intended to be exhibited in such Place of public Exhibition as aforesaid, and on being satisfied that such Invention is proper to be so exhibited, and that the Description in Writing so furnished describes the Nature of the said Invention so intended to be exhibited, and in what Manner the same is to be performed, shall give a Certificate in Writing, under the Hand or Hands of such Attorney General or the Person or Persons appointed as aforesaid, for the provisional Registration of such Invention.

Certificate of Invention to be registered.

IV. The Registrar of Designs acting under the Designs Act, 1850, upon receiving such Certificate, and being furnished with the Name and Place of Address of the Person by or on whose Behalf the Registration is desired, shall register such Certificate, Name, and Place of Address, and the Invention to which any Certificate so registered relates shall be deemed to be provisionally registered, and the Registration thereof shall continue in force for the Term of One Year from the Time of the same being so registered, and the Registrar shall certify, under his Hand and Seal, that such Invention has been provisionally registered, and the Date of such Registration, and the Name and Place of Address of the Person by or on whose Behalf the Registration was effected: Provided always, that if any Invention so provisionally registered be not actually exhibited in such Place of public Exhibition as aforesaid, or if the same Invention be in use by others at the Time of the said Registration, or if the Person by or on whose Behalf the said Registration has been effected be not the first and true Inventor thereof, such Registration shall be absolutely void.

Description to be preserved, and Invention to be marked.

V. The Description in Writing of any Invention so provisionally registered shall be preserved in such Manner and subject to such Regulations as the Attorney General shall direct, and any Invention so provisionally registered, and exhibited at such Place of public Exhibition as aforesaid, shall have the Words "Provisionally registered" marked thereon or attached thereto, with the Date of the said Registration.

Provisional Registration to confer same Benefits as under the Designs Act, 1850.

VI. Such provisional Registration as aforesaid shall during the Term thereof confer on the Inventor of such Invention, with respect thereto, all the Protection against Piracy and other Benefits which by the Designs Act, 1850, are conferred upon the Proprietors of Designs provisionally registered thereunder with respect to such Designs; and so long as such provisional Registration continues in force the Penalties and Provisions of the Designs Act, 1842, for preventing the Piracy of Designs shall extend to the Acts, Matters, and Things next herein-after mentioned, as fully and effectually as if those Penalties and Provisions had been re-enacted in this Act, and expressly extended to such Acts, Matters, and Things; that is to say, to the making, using, exercising, or vending the Invention so provisionally registered, to the practising the same or any Part thereof, to the counterfeiting, imitating, or resembling the same, to the making Additions thereto or Subtraction from the same, without the Consent in Writing of the Person by or on whose Behalf the said Invention was so provisionally registered.

Letters Patent thereafter granted to be as valid as if Inventions were not registered or exhibited.

VII. All Letters Patent to be during the Term of any such provisional Registration granted in respect of any Invention so provisionally registered shall, notwithstanding the Registration thereof, and notwithstanding the Exhibition thereof in such Place of public Exhibition or otherwise as aforesaid, be of the same Validity as if such Invention had not been so registered or exhibited; and it shall be lawful for the Lord High Chancellor, if he think fit, on the Grant of any Letters Patent to any Inventor in respect of any Invention provisionally registered under this Act, to cause such Letters Patent to be sealed as of the Day of such provisional Registration, and to bear Date the Day of such provisional Registration, the Act of the Eighteenth Year of King Henry the Sixth or any other Act notwithstanding.

Proprietors of new and original Designs exhibited to be entitled to Benefits of Designs Acts, although Designs have been previously published, &c.

VIII. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Designs Act, 1850, and the Two Acts therein referred to, and called the Designs Act, 1842, and the Designs Act, 1843, the Protection intended to be by those Acts extended to the Proprietors of new and original Designs shall be extended to the Proprietors of all new and original Designs which shall be provisionally registered and exhibited in such Place of public Exhibition as aforesaid, notwithstanding that such Designs may have been previously published or applied elsewhere than in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; provided that such Design or any Article to which the same has been applied have not been publicly sold or exposed for Sale previously to such Exhibition thereof as aforesaid.

The Designs Act, 1850, and this Act to be construed as One Act.

IX. All the Provisions of the Designs Act, 1850, and the Provisions incorporated therewith, relating or applicable to the Designs to be provisionally registered thereunder, or to the Proprietors of such Designs, except the Provision for extending the Term of any such provisional Registration, shall, so far as the same are not repugnant to or inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act, apply to the Inventions to be provisionally registered under this Act, and to the Inventors thereof; and the said Designs Act and this Act shall be construed together as One Act.

Short Title.

X. This Act may be cited as The Protection of Inventions Act, 1851.

CAP. IX.

An Act for raising the Sum of Seventeen millions seven hundred and fifty-six thousand six hundred Pounds by Exchequer Bills, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one. [20th May 1851.]

CAP. X.

An Act to indemnify such Persons in the United Kingdom as have omitted to qualify themselves for Offices and Employments, and to extend the Time limited for those Purposes respectively. [20th May 1851.]

[This Act is the same, except as to Dates, as 13 & 14 Vict. c. 12.]

CAP. XI.

An Act for the better Protection of Persons under the Care and Control of others as Apprentices or Servants; and to enable the Guardians and Overseers of the Poor to institute and conduct Prosecutions in certain Cases. [20th May 1851.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to make Provision for the better Protection of Persons who are under the Care and Control of others as Apprentices or Servants:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

Persons refusing or neglecting to supply necessary Food to Apprentices or Servants, or unlawfully assaulting them, guilty of a Misdemeanor.

I. That where the Master or Mistress of any Person shall be legally liable to provide for such Person, as an Apprentice or as a Servant, necessary Food, Clothing, or Lodging, and shall wilfully and without lawful Excuse refuse or neglect to provide the same, or where the Master or Mistress of any such Person shall unlawfully and maliciously assault such Person whereby the Life of such Person shall be endangered, or the Health of such Person shall have been or shall be likely to be permanently injured, such Master or Mistress shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof shall be liable to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for any Term not exceeding Three Years.

Costs of Prosecution.

II. That the Costs and Expenses of the Prosecution of any such Misdemeanor as aforesaid may be allowed and ordered by the Court before which the Indictment shall be tried, in like Manner as the Costs of the Prosecution in certain Cases of Misdemeanor under the Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-four, or may be allowed and ordered by the Court of Queen's Bench, in case the Indictment shall have been removed into that Court, to be paid by the Treasurer of the County or other Officer who would have been liable to pay under the Order of the Court in which, but for such Removal, the Indictment would have been tried.

Register to be kept of young Persons hired or taken as Servants from any Workhouse. Not to supersede Obligation to keep Register as required by 42 G. 3. c. 46. and 7 & 8 Vict. c. 101.

III. That the Guardians of every Union and of every separate Parish under the Management of a Board of Guardians, and the Overseers of every Parish not in Union or under the Management of a Board of Guardians, shall provide and keep a Book or Books, and shall cause to be registered therein the Name of every young Person under the Age of Sixteen who shall hereafter be hired or taken as a Servant from the Workhouse of such Union or Parish, together with the several other Particulars specified in the Schedule hereunto annexed; and every such Entry shall be signed by the presiding Chairman of such Board of Guardians at an Ordinary Meeting thereof, or by some One of such Overseers; provided that nothing herein contained shall be taken to supersede or affect the Obligation to keep such Register of poor Children apprenticed by Overseers or Guardians as is required by the Statute of the Forty-second Year of King George the Third, Chapter Forty-six, and the Statute of the Eighth Year of Queen Victoria, Chapter One hundred and one.

Young Persons hired from Workhouses or bound out as Pauper Apprentices to be visited periodically by Officer of Guardians or Overseers.

IV. That where any young Person under the Age of Sixteen shall have been or shall be hired or taken as a Servant from the Workhouse of any Union or Parish, or shall have been or shall be bound out as an Apprentice by the Guardians of any Union, or the Guardians or Overseers of any Parish, it shall be lawful for such Guardians or Overseers respectively, and they are hereby required, so long as such young Person shall be under the Age of Sixteen, and shall be known to them to reside as Servant or Apprentice in the same Service into which such young Person shall have so gone as a Servant from such Workhouse or as such Apprentice within such Union or Parish respectively, or within Five Miles of any Part of such Union or Parish, to cause the Relieving Officer, or, where there is no Relieving Officer, then some other Officer duly authorized for the Purpose, to visit such young Person at least twice in every Year, and to report to them in Writing whether he has found Reason to believe that such young Person is not supplied with necessary Food, or is subjected to cruel or illegal Treatment in any respect.

As to young Persons hired or bound to Masters residing at a Distance from Unions or Parishes.

V. That where any young Person under the Age of Sixteen shall hereafter be hired or taken as a Servant from the Workhouse of any Union or Parish, or shall be bound out as an Apprentice by the Guardians of any Union, or by the Guardians or Overseers of any Parish, and the Residence of the Master or Mistress shall be more than Five Miles from any Part of such Union or Parish, then a written Notice of such hiring, taking, or binding, specifying the Name and Age of the Apprentice or Servant, and the Name, Description, and Residence of such Master or Mistress, shall be forthwith sent from such Guardians or Overseers to the Guardians or Overseers of the Union or Parish in which such Master or Mistress shall reside; and thereupon it shall become the Duty of such last-mentioned Guardians or Overseers to cause the Particulars contained in such Notice to be registered in some Book or Books, to be provided by them for the Purpose, together with the Name of the Union or Parish from which such Notice shall have been received; and such last-mentioned Guardians or Overseers shall cause such young Person to be visited as frequently and in the same Manner in all respects as if such young Person had been hired or taken from their own Workhouse, or had been bound out as an Apprentice by themselves.

Guardians and Overseers authorized and required to prosecute in certain Cases.

VI. That where any Complaint shall be made of an Offence against this Act, or of any bodily Injury inflicted upon any poor Person under the Age of Sixteen Years, for which the Party committing it is liable to be indicted, and the Circumstances of which Offence amount in point of Law to a Felony or an Attempt to commit a Felony, or an Assault with Intent to commit a Felony, and Two Justices of the Peace before whom the Examination is taken shall certify under their Hands that they deem it necessary for the Purposes of public Justice that the Prosecution should be conducted by the Guardians of the Union or of the Parish, or where there are no Guardians by the Overseers of the Parish, in which the Offence shall have been committed, such Guardians or Overseers, as the Case may be, shall, upon personal Service of such Certificate or a Duplicate thereof upon the Clerk of such Guardians, or upon any One of such Overseers, conduct the Prosecution, and shall pay the Costs reasonably and properly incurred by them therein (so far as the same shall not be allowed to them under any Order of the Court trying the Indictment, or of the Court of Queen's Bench), out of the Common Fund of the Union, or out of the Funds in the Hands of the Guardians or Overseers (as the Case may be) of such Parish.

Costs of Prosecution.

Justice empowered to bind over Officer of Guardians, &c. to prosecute.

VII. That in the Case of a Union or Parish under a Board of Guardians the Clerk or some other Officer of such Union or Parish, and in the Case of a Parish not under a Board of Guardians One of the Overseers thereof, may, if such Two Justices of the Peace before whom the Examination is taken shall deem it necessary for the Purposes of public Justice, and shall certify as herein-before mentioned, be bound over to prosecute.

Interpretation of Terms.

VIII. That the Words "Guardians," "Union," "Overseers," "Justice of the Peace," "Officer," "Poor," "Parish," and "Workhouse," used in this Act, shall be construed in like Manner as in the Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-six.

Extent of Act.

IX. That this Act shall extend only to England and Wales.

CAP. XII.

An Act to continue the Duties on Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades, and Offices, and to amend the Act imposing the same. [5th June 1851.]

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of Your Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for granting to Her Majesty Duties on Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades, and Offices until the Sixth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, certain Rates and Duties arising from Property, Professions, Trades, and Offices were granted to Your Majesty for a Term therein limited and now expired; and by Two several Acts passed respectively in the Eighth and Eleventh Years of Your Majesty's Reign the same Rates and Duties were continued for Two several and successive Terms, the latter of such Terms expiring with the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one:' We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray Your Majesty's public Expenses, have freely and voluntarily resolved to continue the said Rates and Duties, and to grant the same to Your Majesty for the Period herein-after limited; and do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent

5 & 6 Vict. c. 35.

8 & 9 Vict. c. 4.
11 & 12 Vict. c. 8.

Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That—Rates and Duties granted by first-recited Act further continued for One Year.

I. The several Rates and Duties by the said first-recited Act granted shall be and the same are hereby continued, and shall be charged, raised, levied, collected, and paid unto and for the Use of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, from and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, for the Term of One Year thence next ensuing, and until the Assessments made or which ought to be made for the last Year of the said Term, or for any preceding Year, shall be completed, collected, levied, and paid.

First-recited Act and the several other Acts continued in force.

II. The said first-recited Act, and all and every other Act and Acts in force upon or immediately before the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, in relation to the Duties granted by the said first-recited Act, shall severally be continued and remain in full Force and Effect in relation to the Duties hereby continued and granted as aforesaid; and all and every the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Regulations, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things contained in the said Acts or any of them, and in force as aforesaid, shall (so far as the same shall be consistent with and shall not be superseded by the express Provisions of this Act) severally and respectively be duly observed, practised, applied, and put in execution in relation to the said Duties hereby continued and granted, as well during the Term herein limited as after the Expiration thereof respectively, for assessing, levying, recovering, paying, deducting, and accounting for the said Duties and all Arrears thereof, and for re-assessing the same in default of Payment, and for the suing for, adjudging, and recovering any Penalty which shall have been or may be incurred in relation to the said Duties, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same Powers, Authorities, Rules, Regulations, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act with reference to the said Duties hereby continued and granted as aforesaid.

Abatement to be made from Assessments on Tenant Farmers where Profits fall short of such Assessments.

III. That if at the End of the Year of Assessment of the said Duties under this Act any Person occupying Lands for the Purposes of Husbandry only, and obtaining his Livelihood principally from Husbandry, who shall have been assessed in the said Year to the Duties chargeable under Schedule (B.) of the said first-recited Act in respect of such Lands, shall find, and shall prove to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners by whom the Assessment was made, that his Profits and Gains arising from the Occupation of such Lands during the said Year fell short of the Sum on which the Assessment was made, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, upon Appeal made to them in that Behalf within Three Calendar Months after the Expiration of the said Year, and of which Notice in Writing shall be given to the Surveyor of Taxes for the District, to cause an Abatement to be made from the Amount of the said Duties charged on such Appellant proportionate to the Deficiency of his said Profits and Gains; and in case the whole Sum assessed shall have been paid, the Amount of the Sum overpaid shall be certified and repaid in like Manner as is provided by Section 133. of the said first-recited Act in the Case of any Overpayment of the Duties assessed under Schedule (D.) of the same Act.

CAP. XIII.

An Act to regulate the Sale of Arsenic. [5th June 1851.]

WHEREAS the unrestricted Sale of Arsenic facilitates the Commission of Crime: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

On every Sale of Arsenic, Particulars of Sale to be entered in a Book by the Seller in Form set forth in Schedule to this Act.

I. Every Person who shall sell any Arsenic shall forthwith, and before the Delivery of such Arsenic to the Purchaser, enter or cause to be entered in a fair and regular Manner, in a Book or Books to be kept by such Person for that Purpose, in the Form set forth in the Schedule to this Act, or to the like Effect, a Statement of such Sale, with the Quantity of Arsenic so sold, and the Purpose for which such Arsenic is required or stated to be required, and the Day of the Month and Year of the Sale, and the Name, Place of Abode, and Condition or Occupation of the Purchaser, into all which Circumstances the Person selling such Arsenic is hereby required and authorized to inquire of the Purchaser before the Delivery to such Purchaser of the Arsenic sold, and such Entries shall in every Case be signed by the Person making the same, and shall also be signed by the Purchaser, unless such Purchaser profess to be unable to write (in which Case the Person making the Entries hereby required shall add to the Particulars to be entered in relation to such Sale the Words "cannot write"), and, where a Witness is hereby required to the Sale, shall also be signed by such Witness, together with his Place of Abode.

Restrictions as to Sale of Arsenic.

II. No Person shall sell Arsenic to any Person who is unknown to the Person selling such Arsenic, unless the Sale be made in the Presence of a Witness who is known to the Person selling the Arsenic, and to whom the Purchaser is known, and who signs his Name, together with his Place of Abode, to such Entries, before the Delivery of the Arsenic to the Purchaser, and no Person shall sell Arsenic to any Person other than a Person of full Age.

Provision for colouring Arsenic.

III. No Person shall sell any Arsenic unless the same be before the Sale thereof mixed with Soot or Indigo in the Proportion of One Ounce of Soot or Half an Ounce of Indigo at the least to One Pound of the Arsenic, and so in proportion for any greater or less Quantity: Provided always, that where such Arsenic is stated by the Purchaser to be required, not for Use in Agriculture, but for some other Purpose for which such Admixture would, according to the Representation of the Purchaser, render it unfit, such such Arsenic may be sold without such Admixture in a Quantity of not less than Ten Pounds at any One Time.

Penalty for offending against this Act.

IV. If any Person shall sell any Arsenic, save as authorized by this Act, or on any Sale of Arsenic shall deliver the same without having made and signed the Entries hereby required on such Sale, or without having obtained such Signature or Signatures to such Entries as required by this Act, or if any Person purchasing any Arsenic shall give false Information to the Person selling the same in relation to the Particulars which such last-mentioned Person is hereby authorized to inquire into of such Purchaser, or if any Person shall sign his Name as aforesaid as a Witness to a Sale of Arsenic to a Person unknown to the Person so signing as Witness, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence, upon a summary Conviction for the same before Two Justices of the Peace in England or Ireland, or before Two Justices of the Peace or the Sheriff in Scotland, be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Not to prevent Sale of Arsenic in Medicine under a Medical Prescription.

V. Provided, That this Act shall not extend to the Sale of Arsenic when the same forms Part of the Ingredients of any Medicine required to be made up or compounded according to the Prescription of a legally qualified Medical Practitioner, or a Member of the Medical Profession, or to the Sale of Arsenic by Wholesale to Retail Dealers, upon Orders in Writing in the ordinary Course of Wholesale Dealing.

"Arsenic" to include Arsenious Compounds.

VI. In the Construction of this Act the Word "Arsenic" shall include Arsenious Acid and the Arsenites, Arsenic Acid and the Arseniates, and all other colourless poisonous Preparations of Arsenic.

An Act to amend the Law for the Registration of certain Persons commonly known as "Compound Householders," and to facilitate the Exercise by such Persons of their Right to vote in the Election of Borough Members to serve in Parliament. [3d July 1851.]

2 & 3 W. 4. c. 45.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend the Representation of the People of England and Wales, it is enacted, that no Person shall be registered to vote for Members to serve in Parliament in any Year in respect of the Occupation of Premises in any City or Borough unless such Person shall have been rated in respect of such Premises to all Rates for the Relief of the Poor in the Parish or Township where the same are situated made during the Time of such his Occupation, nor unless such Person shall have paid on or before the Twentieth of July in such Year all the Poor's Rates and Assessed Taxes which shall become payable from him in respect of such Premises previously to the Sixth Day of April then next preceding: And whereas the said Act was amended, in so far as relates to the Period when such Rates and Taxes shall be required to be paid, by an Act passed in the Session held in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to regulate the Times of Payment of Rates and Taxes by Parliamentary Electors: And whereas by the said firstly-recited Act it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for any Person occupying Premises in any City or Borough which shall return a Member or Members to serve in any future Parliament to claim to be rated to the Relief of the Poor in respect of such Premises, whether the Landlord shall or shall not be liable to be rated to the Relief of the Poor in respect thereof, and upon such Occupier so claiming, and actually paying or tendering the full Amount of the Rate or Rates, if any, then due in respect of such Premises, the Overseers of the Parish or Township in which such Premises are situated are thereby required to put the Name of such Occupier upon the Rate for the Time being, and in case such Overseer shall neglect or refuse so to do such Occupier shall nevertheless for the Purposes of the said Act be deemed to have been rated to the Relief of the Poor in respect of such Premises from the Period at which the Rate shall have been made in respect of which he shall have so claimed to be rated as aforesaid: And whereas it is often inconvenient or impracticable for such Persons to make continual Claim in respect of each Rate, and many Persons are consequently deprived of the Franchise:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act no Person so claiming to be rated, and paying or tendering on or before the Twentieth

11 & 12 Vict. c. 90.

Persons having once claimed to Twentieth Day of July in each Year the full Amount of the Rate or Rates (if any) due in respect of such Premises on the Fifth Day of January preceding, shall be required to make any further Claim in regard to any future Rate upon the Premises in respect whereof his Right to vote in any such Election as aforesaid shall arise, but shall be entitled to be put on the List and to be registered as a Voter, provided he shall have occupied the Premises in the Manner and for the Time required by the said firstly-recited Act, and provided the Poor's Rates and Assessed Taxes chargeable upon the same shall have been paid for the Period and up to the Time required by Law in respect of all Persons entitled to vote in the Election of Members of Parliament for any Borough under the Provisions of the said firstly-recited Act.

be rated, and paying or tendering on or before 20th July the Rates due 5th Jan. preceding, not required to renew such Claim.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That every Person so claiming as aforesaid who shall be registered as a Voter in respect of the Premises to which his Claim relates shall, in respect of every Rate for the Relief of the Poor made and published after such Claim as aforesaid, while he continues to occupy the same Premises and to be a registered Voter in respect thereof, be liable to the same Extent and in the same Manner as in respect of the Rate published next before the making of such Claim.

Liability of Claimant to Rates to continue so long as he occupies the Premises, &c.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in Cases where by any Composition with the Landlord a less Sum shall be payable than the full Amount of Rate which, except for such Composition, would be due in respect of the same Premises, the Occupier claiming to be rated shall not be bound to pay or tender more than the Amount then payable under such Composition.

Compositions with Landlord to determine Rate to which Tenant is liable.

CAP. XV.

An Act to amend the Court of Chancery (Ireland) Regulation Act, 1850. [3d July 1851.]

'WHEREAS by the Court of Chancery (Ireland) Regulation Act, 1850, certain Enactments are contained for the making of Regulations and general Orders by the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, with the Assistance of the Master of the Rolls, but it is doubtful whether by the said Act the Consent and Signature of the Master of the Rolls are necessary to the Validity of any such Regulations or Orders, and it is expedient to remove such Doubt:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

13 & 14 Vict. c. 89.

I. That all Regulations and general Orders to be made by the Lord Chancellor under and for the Purposes of the said Act, or under any other Act of Parliament enabling him to make Orders, by and with the Advice and Assistance of the Master of the Rolls, and which shall have been previously laid before the Master of the Rolls for his Concurrence, but which shall not be consented to or signed by him, shall be of the same Force and Effect as general Regulations and Orders of the said Court as if the same had been consented to and signed by the Master of the Rolls, but subject in every such Case to all such Directions as are in the said Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her present Majesty contained for having such Regulations and Orders laid before both Houses of Parliament, and for the Resolution of either House of Parliament thereon.

Regulations, &c. by Lord Chancellor, but which have not been consented to by Master of the Rolls, to be of same Force as if they had such Consent.

CAP. XVI.

An Act for the better Management and Control of the Highways in South Wales. [3d July 1851.]

'WHEREAS under an Act passed in the Eighth Year of Her present Majesty, to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Turnpike Trusts in South Wales, a Board is constituted in each of the Counties of South Wales for the Superintendence, Control, and Management of the Turnpike Roads in such Counties, and styled the County Roads Board: And whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for the more effective Control and Management of the Highways in South Wales which are not under the Superintendence of the said Boards:' Be it enacted, therefore, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the County Roads Board of each County in South Wales shall, at their First General Annual Meeting after the passing of this Act, or at some Adjournment thereof, proceed, with such Advice and Assistance as they may deem necessary, to divide the County into so many Districts, for the separate Management of the several Highways situated therein respectively as shall in their Judgment be most convenient; and in order to enable the said Board the better to determine respecting the Boundaries and Arrangements of such Districts, the said Board is hereby authorized to require, and all Surveyors of Highways in every County respectively are hereby directed to afford and furnish to the County Roads Board thereof, all such Information and Evidence, and to transmit to them all such Books, Accounts, Returns, Documents, and other Papers in their Possession or Power, as the Chairman of such Board, by any Order under his Hand, and addressed to any of such Parties respectively, may require; and the said County Roads Board shall make an Order for the Formation of such Districts, and shall cause such Order, together with a Description or Statement of the Boundaries of such Districts, or of the Parishes comprised therein respectively, to be published by Advertisement in One or more of the Newspapers circulating in their County One Month at least before the Twenty-fifth of March next: Provided always, that any One Parish now maintaining its own Highways may constitute any One of such Districts: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the said County Roads Board from Time to Time, if they shall see Occasion, to alter the Limits of any County Roads Board to divide County into Districts for separate Management of the Highways situated therein.

Power to County Roads Board to alter

Limits of Districts from Time to Time.

any such District, and thereafter to make such Orders, according to the Powers vested in them by this Act, as may be found necessary in consequence of such Alterations; and every Order by which such Alteration is made shall, within One Month after such Order is made, be published in like Manner as the Order for the Formation of the District.

Power to place Highways under the Care, &c. of local Boards, to be styled Highway Boards.

II. That the Maintenance and Repairs of the several Highways situate and being within the several Districts which shall be formed according to the Provisions herein-before contained shall, subject to the Authority of the said County Roads Board, be placed under the Care and Management of local Boards, to be styled Highway Boards, which shall be constituted in manner following; that is to say, all Persons who are now elected or who shall hereafter be elected Guardians of the Poor for the Parish or Parishes contained in such District during the Period they are such Guardians, and all Her Majesty's Justices residing within or acting at any Petty Sessions within the District, shall constitute the Highway Board for such District; and such Justices shall not by reason of being Members of such Highway Board be incapable of acting as Justices of the Peace in the Execution of this Act, or in any Matters relating to the Highways under the Care or Management of such Board.

First Meeting of Highway Board.

Quorum.

III. That the First Meeting of every Highway Board under this Act shall be held on such Day and at such Place as the County Roads Board for the County shall appoint; and Meetings of the said Highway Board shall after such First Meeting be held at such Periods as such Highway Board shall at their First Meeting and afterwards from Time to Time fix and appoint; and all Acts, Matters, and Things executed or done by the Highway Board in pursuance of this Act at any such Meeting, the whole Number present at the Time being not less than Three, shall be valid and effectual; and the Highway Board shall at their First Meeting in the first place elect and appoint Two fit and proper Persons, being Members of such Board, to be the Chairman and Vice Chairman respectively of such Board; and the said Chairman, or in case of his Absence at the Commencement of any Meeting the said Vice Chairman, shall preside at all Meetings of such Board, and shall have a Casting Vote in addition to his own Vote; and in case at the Commencement of any Meeting such Chairman and Vice Chairman shall both be absent, then such other Member as shall be chosen by the major Part of the Members present for the Time being shall preside as Chairman of such Meeting, with the like Casting Vote; and whenever any Chairman or Vice Chairman shall die or resign, or shall refuse or become incapable to act, such Board shall, at their regular Meeting to be held next after such Death, Resignation, Refusal, or Incapacity, elect and appoint some other Member of the Board in his Stead.

Appointment of Chairman and Vice Chairman.

Powers and Duties of Highway Board.

IV. That the Highway Board for each District respectively shall, subject to the Provisions, Restrictions, and Exceptions in this Act contained, and to the Authorities and Powers of the County Roads Board, superintend the Expenditure of all Monies that shall be raised and collected for the Purposes of such Highways, or for the other Purposes of this Act, as herein-after provided; and the Acts, Orders, Regulations, and Proceedings of every such Highway Board as to all the Matters and Things aforesaid shall be valid, binding, and effectual; and such Board shall cause Accounts to be kept of the Expenditure and Application of all Monies and Materials for the Purposes aforesaid; and the Highway Board for each District respectively shall once in every Quarter examine, check, and verify all the Charges and Items of Expenditure, and when they shall have so audited the several Accounts submitted to them the presiding Chairman shall write a Certificate of such Audit at the Foot of every such Account; and every such Board shall have full Power to disallow any illegal or excessive Item or Charge in such Account, and the presiding Chairman shall report every such Disallowance to the County Roads Board; and the Clerk of the Highway Board, being duly authorized to do so by any Order of the County Roads Board, certified to him by the Clerk of the aforesaid Board, shall recover every Sum so disallowed from the accounting Party, by Application to Two Justices, who shall be authorized to enforce the Payment of the same in like Manner as Penalties under the Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter 50.

Highway Board of each District to hold an Annual General Meeting for examining Accounts, &c.

V. That the Highway Board for each of the said Districts respectively shall and they are hereby required to hold One General Annual Meeting for receiving and examining the Accounts relating to the several Highways within their District on some Day to be appointed by the County Roads Board of each County in which the aforesaid Districts are respectively situated, and to transmit a Copy of the Accounts, so examined, and signed by the Chairman or Vice Chairman of the said Board, to the Clerk of the County Roads Board, together with any Report or Observations which they may think fit to make.

Power to County Roads Board to appoint District Surveyors.

VI. That every County Roads Board acting in and for each of the said Counties respectively shall, at their Meeting to be held next after the Division of such County into Districts for the Management of the Highways shall have been determined and declared, by Writing, upon which no Stamp or other Duty shall be payable, appoint One Surveyor for each District declared as aforesaid, to overlook the Management and Repairs of the several Highway Districts in their County, and shall also determine the Salaries to be paid to such Surveyors respectively; and the Board may from Time to Time remove the said Surveyors, and, so often as the said Offices or any of them shall become vacant, shall appoint other fit and proper Persons for the same; and the Salaries of all such Surveyors shall be paid out of the Highway Rate, and shall be, by an Order made by the County Roads Board, apportioned amongst and charged upon the Parishes within each respective District, in the same Manner and in the same Proportions as the County Rate is now chargeable.

Duties of the District Surveyor.

VII. That it shall be the Duty of the Surveyor of every District, subject to the Direction and Control of the Highway Board, to provide for the keeping of the said Highways in a good and sound State of Repair, and to cause all Works necessary for that Purpose to be executed in a competent and efficient Manner, Manner, and to receive, and hold to the Account of such Board, all Monies paid to him by the Surveyors of the Highways of the several Parishes, and to pay and disburse such Monies from Time to Time according to the Directions which shall be prescribed by the Highway Board, and to keep a true and exact Account of all Receipts and Disbursements received or made in respect to the Highways within his District, to be produced before the said Board at the regular Meetings thereof, or at such other Times as the said Board may direct, and to transmit Copies of all Entries in such Account to the Clerk of the said Highway Board at such periodical or other Times as the said Board shall direct, and to attend the Meetings of such Board, and to prepare from Time to Time such Estimates, Surveys, Reports, and Accounts as may be required by this Act or by any Order of such Board or of the said County Roads Board; and every such District Surveyor when so appointed shall, for all the Purposes of this Act, except the making, assessing, and levying the Rate, have, as far as the same are applicable, the same Powers, and be liable to the same Duties, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as any Surveyor appointed under the Act of the Sixth Year of King William the Fourth, "to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Highways in that Part of Great Britain called England," and shall have the laying out of all Monies levied and received by the Surveyors of the several Parishes within his District, and such Penalties and Forfeitures shall be recovered in manner provided by such Act in relation to Penalties and Forfeitures thereby authorized to be imposed: Provided nevertheless, that such District Surveyor shall not expend any Monies levied in any One of the Parishes within his District, except for the Use and Benefit of the Parish in which it is so levied, unless with the Consent of the Inhabitants of such Parish in Vestry assembled, for the Purpose of carrying on Repairs or beneficial Improvements for the common Benefit of the Parishes aforesaid, and shall keep separate and distinct Accounts for each Parish within his District, and such Accounts shall specify the different Sums, and the Persons to whom and by whom the same shall have been paid.

5 & 6 W. 4. c. 50.

District Surveyors to contract for Materials, &c.

VIII. That every District Surveyor may and is hereby authorized to contract for the purchasing, getting, and carrying the Materials required for the Repair of the Highways within his District; and no Member of any County Roads Board or Highway Board, and no Parochial or District Surveyor, shall, except as herein-after excepted, on his own Account, directly or indirectly, be interested or concerned in any Contract or Bargain for Work or Materials, Tools or other Things, for making or repairing or in any way relating to the Highways for which they respectively act; and if any such Member of any County Roads Board or Highway Board, or any Parochial or District Surveyor, be so interested or concerned in any Contract or Bargain as aforesaid, he shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds; and any Person may sue for the same by Action of Debt on the Case in any of the Superior Courts, and shall on Recovery thereof be entitled to full Costs of Suit, and shall, from and after the Conviction of any such Offence, be incapable of acting as a Member of any County Roads Board or Highway Board, or as a Surveyor of the Highways of any Parish, or of any District created by this Act; and every such Contract and Bargain shall be void: Provided always, that no Act done by any such Member of any County Roads Board, Highway Board, or Surveyor, previously to his being convicted of any such Offence, shall be thereby rendered invalid: Provided also, that nothing in this Enactment contained shall be construed to extend to any Purchase Money, Damages, Rent, Recompence, or Satisfaction agreed upon or awarded to such Member of any County Roads Board or Highways Board, or to any such Surveyor, for Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments purchased or taken for the Purpose of diverting or altering or for the Use of any Highway, or for a Repository for Materials to be used thereon, or for the Damage done to any inclosed or private Grounds of any such Member of any County Board or of any Highways Board, or Surveyor, in taking Materials therefrom, or in carrying or conveying them over the same, nor to prevent any such Member of any Roads Board or Surveyor from selling or disposing of, for the Use of any Highway, any Materials dug or gotten in or from or any Timber grown or growing on the Land of such Member of any Roads Board or Surveyor, nor shall any such Member of any Roads Board or Surveyor be liable to or incur any such Forfeiture or Incapacity as aforesaid by reason only of his being Proprietor or Holder of any Share in any Canal or Railway Company which shall contract with the District Surveyor for the Carriage or Conveyance of any Materials for the Repair of the Highway.

Existing Surveyors of Highways to continue.

IX. That nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to repeal any of the Provisions of the said Act of the Sixth Year of King William the Fourth with regard to the Appointment of a Surveyor of Highways in each Parish as heretofore, and such Surveyor shall make, assess, and levy the Rate for the Repair of the Highways as heretofore, and shall, from Time to Time as the Highway Board shall direct, pay over all Monies arising therefrom to the District Surveyor of the District in which such Parish is situate, and all Money so payable to the District Surveyor may be recovered from the Parochial Surveyor in like Manner as Balances due from a Surveyor are recoverable under the said Act of the Sixth Year of King William the Fourth.

Power to Highway Board to appoint a Clerk, and, with Consent of County Roads Board, fix Salary.

X. That every Highway Board shall at their First Meeting, by Writing, upon which nevertheless no Stamp or other Duty shall be payable, appoint a fit and competent Person to be Clerk to such Board, and shall also, with the Consent of the County Roads Board, determine the Amount of Salary to be paid to such Clerk, and the Portion to be paid by each Parish within the District of such Highway Board of such Salary; and such Salary shall be paid by an Order of the Highway Board upon the District Surveyor out of the Highway Rate; and the said Board may at any Time, with the Consent of the County Roads Board, but not otherwise, dismiss any Person so appointed; and so often as the said Office shall become vacant by such Dismissal, or by Death, Resignation, or otherwise, the said Highway Board shall at their next regular Meeting, or as soon after as conveniently may be, appoint some other fit and proper Person to the same.

XI. That

Duties of Clerk.

XI. That the Clerk to such Board shall attend all Meetings thereof, and shall conduct all Correspondence of such Board, and shall keep all Papers and Documents committed to his Care, and shall give such Notices and perform such other Duties as he may be required to perform by the Orders of such Board.

District Surveyor to give Security.

XII. That every County Roads Board shall and they are hereby required to take sufficient Security from every District Surveyor to be appointed by them under the Powers of this Act for the due and faithful Execution of his Office before such Surveyor shall enter upon his Office.

Highway Board to cause Orders, &c. to be entered in Books, which shall be Evidence, and be open to Inspection.

XIII. That every Highway Board shall cause Notes, Minutes, or Copies, as the Case may require, of all the Orders and Proceedings of such Board at the several Meetings thereof to be duly entered in Books to be from Time to Time provided for that Purpose; and such Books shall be Evidence, in all Proceedings in Law or in Equity, of the Orders and Proceedings therein entered, without further Proof; and such Books, and also the Copies of the District Surveyors Accounts which shall be transmitted to the said Clerk, shall at all seasonable Times be open to the Inspection of all Members of such Boards, and of every Person rated or liable to be rated to the Highway Rate in any Parish of the District, without Fee for such Inspection; and all such Members and Persons respectively shall be entitled at seasonable Times to take Copies or Extracts from the said Books, without paying any Fee for the same; and if, on Request made for that Purpose, the Clerk of any Highway Board shall not permit any of such Members or Persons respectively to inspect any such Books or Copies of Accounts, or to take Copies or Extracts therefrom as aforesaid, such Clerk shall for every such Offence, upon a summary Conviction for the same before Two Justices of the Peace, forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Penalty for refusing to allow Inspection, &c.

Secretary of State to cause Forms of Accounts to be prepared.

XIV. That One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may cause to be prepared such Forms of Accounts and Estimates, and of such Statement or Abstract as herein-after mentioned, as he may deem proper, for the Use of the several Highway Boards and District Surveyors and Clerks; and an annual Statement or Abstract of the Accounts of every such Highway Board and of their Surveyor shall be framed by the Clerk to such Board, and transmitted to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Regulations as to the Adoption of new Roads to be maintained as public Roads under this Act.

XV. And with respect to the Adoption of new Roads to be maintained as public Roads under this Act, be it enacted, That no Road or Occupation Way made or hereafter to be made by or at the Expense of any Individual or private Person, Body Politic or Corporate, shall be deemed or taken to be a public Road, to be repaired and maintained according to the Provisions of this Act, unless the Person, Body Politic or Corporate, proposing to dedicate such Road to the Use of the Public, shall give Three Calendar Months previous Notice in Writing to the District Surveyor of the District of his Intention to dedicate such Road to the Use of the Public, describing its Situation and Extent; and the said District Surveyor, upon receiving such Notice, shall view the same, and shall report to the Highways Board of the District whether such Road is well and properly laid out and made, and whether the same is of sufficient public Utility to justify its being kept in repair and maintained as One of the Highways of such District; and if the said Board shall be satisfied, upon such Report or otherwise, that the said Road ought to be so kept in repair and maintained, they shall certify in Writing accordingly; and such Certificate, signed by the Chairman of the Highway Board for the Time being, shall be transmitted by him to the County Roads Board of such County; and thereupon, after the said Road shall have been used by the Public, and duly repaired and kept in repair by the said Person, Body Politic or Corporate, for the Space of Twelve Calendar Months, the same shall thenceforth become One of the Highways of such County, and shall thereafter be repaired and maintained according to the Provisions of this Act.

Proceedings in case Highways are not kept in repair.

XVI. That from and after the passing of this Act, if any Highway is out of repair, or is not well and sufficiently repaired and amended, and Information thereof on the Oath of One credible Witness is given to any Justice of the Peace, it shall and may be lawful for such Justice and he is hereby authorized and required to issue a Summons requiring the Surveyor of the District in which such Highway is situated, or other Person or Body Politic or Corporate chargeable with such Repairs, to appear before the Justices at some Special Sessions for the Highways in the said Summons mentioned to be held within the Division in which the said Highway may be situate, and the said Justices shall either appoint some competent Person to view the same, and report thereon to the Justices in Special Sessions assembled on a certain Day and Place then and there to be fixed, at which the said District Surveyor or other Party as aforesaid shall be directed to attend, or the said Justices shall fix a Day whereon they or any Two of them shall attend to view the said Highway; and if to the Justices at such Special Sessions, on the Day and at the Place so fixed as aforesaid, it shall appear, either on the Report of the Person so appointed by them to view, or on the View of the said Justices, that the said Highway is not in a State of thorough and effectual Repair, they the said Justices at such last-mentioned Special Sessions shall make an Order or Orders on the Parochial Surveyor or Surveyors within whose Parish or Parishes the aforesaid Highway is situate, or other Person or Bodies Politic or Corporate liable to the Repair of such Highways, by which Order they shall limit and appoint a Time for the repairing of the same, and shall make an Order requiring the Parochial Surveyor or Surveyors aforesaid, or other Party or Body Politic or Corporate liable to the Repair of the said Highway, to pay to the District Surveyor, at such Time as they shall direct, a Sum of Money to be therein stated, which shall be equal in Amount to the Sum which the said Justices shall on the Evidence produced before them judge requisite for the repairing such Highway; and in default of such Money being paid within the Time so limited the paid Parochial Surveyor or Surveyors shall forfeit and pay to the District Surveyor a Sum of Money, to be stated in a Second Order, which shall be equal in Amount to the Amount stated in the First Order as requisite for repairing such Highway, which Money shall be recoverable in the same Manner as any Forfeiture is recoverable under the Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth, for consolidating and amending the Laws relating to Highways in England, and Power to Justices to order Highways to be repaired at the Expense of the Parties liable.

Money for repairing Highways recoverable under 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 50.

and such Money, when recovered, shall be applied to the Repair of such Highway; and in case more Parties than One are bound to repair any such Highway, the said Justices shall direct in their Order what Proportion shall be paid by each of the said Parties: Provided nevertheless, that the said Justices shall not have Power to make such Orders as aforesaid in any Case where the Duty or Obligation of repairing the said Highway comes in question.

5 & 6 W. 4. c. 50. in force, except, &c.

XVII. That, except as herein otherwise provided, all the Provisions of the said Act of the Sixth Year of King William the Fourth shall remain in force, and be applicable to the Highways to be managed under this Act, and the said Act and this Act shall be construed together as One Act.

South Wales to include Six Counties.

XVIII. That in the Construction of this Act South Wales shall include and comprise the Six Counties following, and no others; viz., the Counties of Glamorgan, Brecknock, Radnor, Carmarthen, Pembroke, and Cardigan.

Interpretation of Terms.

XIX. That in construing this Act the Words and Expressions following shall have the several Meanings herein assigned to them, unless such Meaning shall be inconsistent with the Context; that is to say, Words importing the Singular Number shall include the Plural Number, and Words importing the Plural Number shall include the Singular Number; the Word "Person" shall include Corporation, whether sole or aggregate; Words importing the Masculine Gender shall include the Feminine; the Word "Lands" shall include all Messuages, Tenements, and Hereditaments; the Word "Parish" shall include any Township, Tithing, Vill, or other Place or District maintaining its own Highway; the Word "Highways" shall mean all public or common Roads, Bridges (not being County Bridges), Carriageways, Cartways, Horseways, Bridleways, Footways, Causeways, Churchways, and Pavements; the Word "Justices" shall mean Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Borough, Liberty, or Place in which the Highway may be situate (or in which the Offence may be committed); the Words "Quarter Sessions" shall include General or Quarter Sessions, or any Adjournment thereof; the Words "Petty Sessions" shall mean the Petty Sessions held for the Division or Place in which the Highway may be situate, or in which the Offence may be committed; the Word "Month" shall mean Calendar Month; and where any Number of Days is specified, the same shall be reckoned exclusively of the Days to and from which Computation is directed to be made.

CAP. XVII.

An Act further to explain and amend an Act for the Regulation of Process and Practice in the Superior Courts of Common Law in Ireland. [3d July 1851.]

13 & 14 Vict. c. 18. s. 25.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for the Regulation of Process and Practice in the Superior Courts of Common Law in Ireland, it is, amongst other 'things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the said Judges of the Superior Courts of Common 'Law, and they are thereby required, to cause a Revision to be made and continued from Term to Term 'of the Practice and Pleading of the said Courts, and on or before the First Day of January next following the passing of the said Act to make such General Orders, as to them shall seem fit, so that 'thenceforth there shall be Uniformity of Practice and Pleading in the said Courts and the Offices thereof; 'and any Code of Practice and Pleading consistent with the Provisions of the said Act which shall be 'agreed upon and adopted by the said Judges, or by any Seven or more of them, of whom Two shall 'be Chief Judges, and notified by General Order under their Hands, shall thenceforth be the uniform 'Practice and Pleading to be observed in each of the said Courts and the Offices thereof, any Law or 'Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the said Judges or 'any Seven or more of them, of whom Two shall be Chief Judges, from Time to Time and at all Times, 'in like Manner, to vary, alter, and amend the said Code of Practice and Pleading as to them shall seem 'fit: And whereas under the Provisions of the said Act certain General Orders have been made by the 'Judges of the Superior Courts of Common Law in Ireland, regulating the Practice and Pleading in the 'Courts of Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer, and the Court of Exchequer Chamber in 'Ireland; but Doubts have arisen whether the said recited Provision of the said Act extends to the said 'Court of Exchequer Chamber; and it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed:' Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

The recited Provision to extend to the Court of Exchequer Chamber in Ireland.

I. That the said recited Provision shall extend and shall be construed to extend and to have extended to the said Court of Exchequer Chamber in Ireland; and that any General Rules and Orders heretofore made, or which shall hereafter be made, by the Judges of the Superior Courts of Common Law in Ireland, relating to the said Court of Exchequer Chamber, and purporting to be made under and pursuant to the said Provisions of the said Act, shall be, and be deemed to be and to have been, as good and valid to all Intents and Purposes as if the same related to any other of the said Superior Courts of Common Law, subject nevertheless to the Power of Revision or Alteration of the same, as by the said recited Act provided.

Recited Act extended to Exchequer Chamber, and Time for Claims for Compensation to Officers of

II. 'And whereas by the Thirty-seventh Section of the said recited Act it is provided, that every Person 'holding any Office or Employment in the said several Courts who shall by the Operation of the said Act 'be deprived of such Office or Employment, or any Emolument arising therefrom, shall be entitled to make 'a Claim for Compensation to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury within Six Calendar Months 'from the passing of the said recited Act, and the said Commissioners are empowered to award to such the Exchequer Chamber extended to Six Months after the passing of this Act.

'Persons such Compensation as they shall think just, and Provision is made for the Payment of such Com-'pensation in the Manner therein mentioned:' Be it declared and enacted, That the said Provision shall extend and be deemed and construed to extend and to have extended to any Person holding any Office or Employment in the said Court of Exchequer Chamber in Ireland who by the Operation of the said Act and this Act, or either of them, has been or shall be deprived of such Office or Employment, or any Emolument arising therefrom: Provided always, that such Person shall be entitled to make a Claim for Compensation to the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act.

CAP. XVIII.

An Act to continue the Stamp Duties granted by an Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her present Majesty to assimilate the Stamp Duties in Great Britain and Ireland, and to make Regulations for collecting and managing the same. [3d July 1851.]

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

5 & 6 Vict. c. 82.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of Your Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to assimilate the Stamp Duties in Great Britain and Ireland, and to make Regulations for collecting and managing the same until the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-five, certain Rates and Duties denominated Stamp Duties were granted to Your Majesty for a Term therein limited and now expired; and by Two Acts, passed respectively in the Eighth and Eleventh Years of Your Majesty's Reign, the same Rates and Duties were continued for Two several and succes-sive Terms, the latter of which will expire on the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one:' We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray Your Majesty's Public Expenses, have freely and voluntarily resolved to continue the said Rates and Duties, and to grant the same to Your Majesty for the Period herein-after mentioned; and do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That—

8 & 9 Vict. c. 2. 11 & 12 Vict. c. 9.

Duties continued for One Year.

I. All the several Sums of Money and Duties and Composition for Duties granted by the said first-recited Act, and not repealed by any subsequent Act, and also all Duties now payable in lieu or instead of any of the said Duties which may have been so repealed, shall be and the same are hereby continued, and shall be charged, raised, levied, collected, and paid unto and for the Use of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, for the Term of One Year, to commence on and to be computed from the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

Recited Acts and other Acts continued in force.

II. The said first-recited Act, and all and every other Act and Acts now in force in relation to the Duties and Composition for Duties which are continued by this Act, shall severally be continued and remain in full Force in all respects in relation to the said Duties and Composition for Duties hereby continued and granted, and all and every the Powers and Authorities, Rules, Regulations, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, contained in the said Acts or any of them, and in force as aforesaid, shall severally and respectively be duly observed, practised, applied, and put in execution in relation to the said Duties and Composition for Duties hereby continued and granted, as well during the Term herein limited as after the Expiration thereof, for the charging, raising, levying, paying, accounting for, and securing of the said Duties and Composition for Duties, and all Arrears thereof, and for the preventing, detecting, and punishing of all Frauds, Forgeries, and other Offences relating thereto, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same Powers, Authorities, Rules, Regulations, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act with reference to the said Duties and Composition for Duties hereby granted.

CAP. XIX.

An Act for the better Prevention of Offences. [3d July 1851.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to make further Provision for the Prevention of Burglary and other Offences in the Night:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows: That—

Any Person found by Night armed, &c. with Intent to break into any House and commit Felony, or having Housebreaking Implements, or being disguised, &c. guilty of a Misdemeanor.

I. If any Person shall be found by Night armed with any dangerous or offensive Weapon or Instrument whatsoever with Intent to break or enter into any Dwelling House or other Building whatsoever and to commit any Felony therein, or if any Person shall be found by Night having in his Possession without lawful Excuse (the Proof of which Excuse shall lie on such Person) any Picklock Key, Crow, Jack, Bit, or other Implement of Housebreaking, or if any Person shall be found by Night having his Face blackened or otherwise disguised, with Intent to commit any Felony, or if any Person shall be found by Night in any Dwelling House or other Building whatsoever with Intent to commit any Felony therein, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof shall be liable at the Discretion of the Court to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Term not exceeding Three Years.

II. If

Any Person convicted of such Misdemeanor after a previous Conviction, &c. guilty of Misdemeanor, &c.

II. If any Person shall be convicted of any such Misdemeanor as aforesaid committed after a previous Conviction, either for Felony or such Misdemeanor as aforesaid, such Person shall on such subsequent Conviction be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for any Term not less than Seven Years and not exceeding Ten Years, or imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Term not exceeding Three Years; and in any Indictment for such Misdemeanor committed after a previous Conviction as aforesaid it shall be sufficient to state that the Offender was at a certain Time and Place convicted of Felony or Misdemeanor against "The Act for the better Prevention of Offences, 1851," (as the Case may be,) without otherwise describing the previous Felony or Misdemeanor; and a Certificate containing the Substance and Effect only (omitting the formal Part) of the Indictment and Conviction for the previous Felony or Misdemeanor, purporting to be signed by the Clerk of the Court or other Officer, having the Custody of the Records of the Court where the Offender was first convicted, or by the Deputy of such Clerk or Officer, (for which Certificate a Fee of Five Shillings and no more shall be demanded or taken,) shall, upon Proof of the Identity of the Person of the Offender, be sufficient Evidence of the First Conviction, without Proof of the Signature or official Character of the Person appearing to have signed the same.

Form of Indictment.

Certificate of previous Conviction.

Persons using Chloroform, &c. in order to commit a Felony, guilty of Felony.

III. 'And whereas it is expedient to make further Provision for the Punishment of Persons using Chloroform or other stupifying Things in order the better to enable them to commit Felonies:' Be it enacted, That if any Person shall unlawfully apply or administer, or attempt to apply or administer, to any other Person any Chloroform, Laudanum, or other stupifying or overpowering Drug, Matter, or Thing, with Intent thereby to enable such Offender or any other Person to commit, or with Intent to assist such Offender or other Person in committing, any Felony, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported for Life or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Term not exceeding Three Years.

Persons inflicting grievous bodily Harm guilty of a Misdemeanor, &c.

IV. 'And whereas it is expedient to make further Provision for the Punishment of aggravated Assaults:' Be it enacted, That if any Person shall unlawfully and maliciously inflict upon any other Person, either with or without any Weapon or Instrument, any grievous bodily Harm, or unlawfully and maliciously cut, stab, or wound any other Person, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Term not exceeding Three Years: Provided however, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or taken to repeal the Provisions of the Twenty-ninth Section of the Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, Chapter Thirty-four.

Not to repeal s. 29. of 10 G. 4. c. 34.

On any Trial for feloniously cutting, &c. the Jury may acquit of the Felony, and convict of unlawfully cutting, &c.

V. If upon the Trial of any Indictment for any Felony, except Murder or Manslaughter, where the Indictment shall allege that the Defendant did cut, stab, or wound any Person, the Jury shall be satisfied that the Defendant is guilty of the cutting, stabbing, or wounding charged in such Indictment, but are not satisfied that the Defendant is guilty of the Felony charged in such Indictment, then and in every such Case the Jury may acquit the Defendant of such Felony, and find him guilty of unlawfully cutting, stabbing, or wounding, and thereupon such Defendant shall be liable to be punished in the same Manner as if he had been convicted upon an Indictment for the Misdemeanor of cutting, stabbing, or wounding.

Persons wilfully placing Wood, &c. on Railways, taking up Rails, &c., turning Machinery, or showing Signals, &c., with Intent to injure Railway or to endanger Passengers, guilty of Felony.

VI. If any Person shall wilfully and maliciously put, place, cast, or throw upon or across any Railway any Wood, Stone, or other Matter or Thing, or shall wilfully and maliciously take up, remove, or displace any Rail, Sleeper, or other Matter or Thing belonging to any Railway, or shall wilfully and maliciously turn, move, or divert any Points or other Machinery belonging to any Railway, or shall wilfully and maliciously make or show, hide or remove, any Signal or Light upon or near to any Railway, or shall wilfully and maliciously do or cause to be done any other Matter or Thing, with Intent, in any of the Cases aforesaid, to obstruct, upset, overthrow, injure, or destroy any Engine, Tender, Carriage, or Truck using such Railway, or to endanger the Safety of any Person travelling or being upon such Railway, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of his natural Life or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Term not exceeding Three Years.

Persons casting Wood, &c. on Railway Carriage with Intent to endanger the Safety of any one therein, guilty of Felony.

VII. If any Person shall wilfully and maliciously cast, throw, or cause to fall or strike against, into, or upon any Engine, Tender, Carriage, or Truck used upon any Railway, any Wood, Stone, or other Matter or Thing, with Intent to endanger the Safety of any Person being in or upon such Engine, Tender, Carriage, or Truck, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of his natural Life or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Term not exceeding Three Years.

Any Person wilfully setting fire to any Railway Station, &c. guilty of Felony.

VIII. If any Person shall wilfully and maliciously set fire to any Station, Engine House, Warehouse, or other Building belonging or appertaining to any Railway, Dock, Canal, or other Navigation, every such Person shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of his natural Life, or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Term not exceeding Three Years; and if any Person shall wilfully and maliciously set fire to any Goods or Chattels being in any Building, the setting fire to which is made Felony by this or any other Act of Parliament, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for any Term not exceeding Ten Years nor less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Term not exceeding Three Years.

On Trial of Persons for subsequent Offences under 12 & 13 Vict. c. 11. and this Act the previous Conviction not to be stated to the Jury or given in Evidence until after a Verdict of Guilty of the subsequent Offence, unless Defendant gives Evidence of Character.

IX. 'And whereas Provision is made in a certain Act of Parliament passed in the Twelfth Year of the 'Reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled An Act to amend the Laws in England and 'Ireland relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith, and also in this Act, for the more 'exemplary Punishment of Persons who shall commit certain Offences after One or more previous 'Conviction or Convictions for the like or other Offences, and it is expedient to define the Time of charging 'the Jury to inquire as to such previous Conviction or Convictions:' Be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful on the Trial of any Person for any subsequent Offence, where a Plea of Not Guilty shall have been entered on his Behalf, to charge the Jury to inquire concerning any previous Conviction until they shall have inquired concerning such subsequent Offence, and shall have found such Person guilty of the same; and whenever in any Indictment any previous Conviction shall be stated the reading of such Statement shall be deferred until after such Finding as aforesaid: Provided, that if upon the Trial of any Person for any such subsequent Offence as aforesaid such Person shall give Evidence of his good Character, it shall be lawful for the Prosecutor, in answer thereto, to give Evidence of the Conviction of such Person for the previous Offence or Offences, before such Verdict of Guilty shall have been returned, and the Jury shall inquire concerning such previous Conviction or Convictions at the same Time that they inquire concerning such subsequent Offence.

Any one may apprehend Persons offending against this Act, &c.; also Persons committing indictable Offences in the Night.

X. It shall be lawful for any Person whatsoever to apprehend any Person who shall be found committing any Offence against the Provisions of this Act, and to convey him or deliver him to some Constable or other Peace Officer, in order to his being conveyed, as soon as conveniently may be, before a Justice of the Peace, to be dealt with according to Law.

XI. 'And whereas Doubts have been entertained as to the Authority to apprehend Persons found 'committing indictable Offences in the Night:' For Remedy thereof be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person whatsoever to apprehend any Person who shall be found committing any indictable Offence in the Night, and to convey him or deliver him to some Constable or other Peace Officer, in order to his being conveyed, as soon as conveniently may be, before a Justice of the Peace, to be dealt with according to Law.

Persons assaulting others, &c. guilty of a Misdemeanor.

XII. If any Person liable to be apprehended under the Provisions of this Act shall assault or offer any Violence to any Person by Law authorized to apprehend or detain him, or to any Person acting in his Aid and Assistance, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof shall be liable to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Term not exceeding Three Years.

What shall be deemed Night.

XIII. The Time at which the Night shall commence and conclude in any Offence against the Provisions of this Act shall be the same as in Cases of Burglary.

Costs of Prosecutions.

XIV. In all Prosecutions for any Offence against the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Court before which any such Offence shall be prosecuted or tried to allow the Expenses of the Prosecution in all respects as in Cases of Felony.

Nothing in this Act to repeal 5 G. 4. c. 83.

XV. Nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed to repeal wholly or in part the Fifth of George the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-three, intituled An Act for the Punishment of idle and disorderly Persons and Rogues and Vagabonds, in that Part of Great Britain called England, but no Person shall be liable to be punished for the same Offence both under the said last-mentioned Act and under this Act.

Extent of Act.

XVI. Nothing in this Act shall extend to Scotland.

CAP. XX.

An Act to extend the Remedies provided by the Renewable Leasehold Conversion Act, for the Recovery of Fee-farm Rents under that Act, to all other Fee-farm Rents, and to other Rents in Ireland reserved upon Grants of Land in which the Grantors have no Reversion.

[3d July 1851.]

12 & 13 Vict. c. 105. ss. 20, 21.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and five, Sections Twenty and Twenty-one, certain Remedies were provided for the 'Recovery of Fee-farm Rents made payable by Grants under the Provisions of that Act; and it is 'expedient to extend such Remedies and Powers to all Fee-farm Rents, and also to all other Rents payable 'under Grants or written Instruments granting or containing Agreements for granting Land, and 'reserving or purporting to reserve thereout upon such Grants or Agreements Rent payable to the Grantor 'where the Person to whom such Rent is payable has no Reversion in such Land:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same.

Recited Act extended to Fee-farm and other Rents under Leases for Lives or for Years, save as excepted.

I. That all the Powers, Remedies, Provisions, and Enactments referred to and contained in the said herein-before mentioned Sections of the said recited Act shall henceforth extend and be applicable to all Fee-farm Rents, and also to other Rents reserved and payable under any Grants, Conveyances, or written Instruments granting or containing Agreements for granting any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in Fee Simple, or for a Life or Lives, or for Years, or for a Life or Lives and a Term of Years, or for a Life or Lives concurrent with a Term of Years, and reserving or purporting to reserve thereout Rent payable to the Grantor or Party agreeing to make such Grant, or to his or their respective Representatives tives, where the Person to whom such Rent is or shall be payable has or shall have no Reversion in such Land; save and except that nothing in this Act contained shall give or confer or be deemed to give or confer any Remedy by Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent, in the Case of any Fee-farm Rent or Rent reserved upon any Grant or Agreement for a Grant in Fee (other than a Fee-farm Rent under the said recited Act); and save and except that nothing herein contained shall extend or refer to or include the Provisions contained in the said Twenty-first Section of the said recited Act relating to the Lien or Charge in the said Section mentioned: Provided always, that in any Avowry or Cognizance in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act for any Rent it shall not be necessary to describe any such Grant or Instrument as aforesaid as a Grant or Instrument made under or after the passing of the said recited Act.

CAP. XXI.

An Act to amend an Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of Her Majesty, to amend an Act of the Nineteenth and Twentieth Years of King George the Third for empowering Grand Juries in Ireland to present Bridges, and Tolls to be paid for passing the same, in certain Cases.

[3d July 1851.]

'WHEREAS by an Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend an Act of the Nineteenth and Twentieth Years of King George the Third, for empowering Grand Juries in Ireland to present Bridges, and Tolls to be paid for passing the same, in certain Cases, it is amongst other things enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury or the Grand Juries of any County and County of a City or Town in Ireland, and they are thereby authorized and empowered, to agree with the Companies, Commissioners, Corporations, or Persons possessed of and interested in and having any Lien or Incumbrance on the Tolls payable on any Bridge upon which Toll is charged, situate in such Counties or Cities or Towns, or within Five Miles thereof, for the Purchase thereof, and the said Companies, Commissioners, Corporations, and Persons are hereby authorized to agree with the said Grand Jury or Grand Juries for the Sale thereof, subject to the Regulations and Provisions in the said Act contained: And whereas it is expedient to extend the Provisions of said recited Act by enabling Persons having limited Estates or Interests in such Tolls, and Persons having Estates or Interests in the same, being under legal Disability, to agree with the Grand Jury or Grand Juries of any County, County of a City, or County of a Town as aforesaid, for the Sale of the absolute and entire Interest in such Tolls:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, 6 & 7 Vict. c. 42.

Parties having limited Interests, or being under Disability, enabled to sell and convey to Grand Juries in Ireland the Tolls of Bridges.

I. That it shall and may be lawful for all or any of the Parties herein-after enumerated, having Estates or Interests in such Tolls upon any Bridge as aforesaid, to agree with the Grand Jury or Grand Juries of the County, County of a City, or County of a Town in which or within Five Miles of which such Bridge is situated, or if such Bridge is situated in Two Counties, with the Grand Juries of the said Counties, for the Sale of the entire and absolute Estate and Interest in such Tolls, that is to say, all Tenants in Tail or for Life, or other partial or qualified Estates or Interests, married Women seised in their own Right, Guardians, Committees of Lunatics and Idiots, Trustees, or any Feoffees in Trust for Charitable or other Purposes, Executors, or Administrators, for the Time being entitled to the Receipt of such Tolls; and the Power so to agree for such Sale may lawfully be exercised by all such Parties, not only on behalf of themselves, and their respective Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Successors, but also for and on behalf of every Person entitled in reversion, remainder, or expectancy after them, or in defeasance of the Estates of such Parties, and as to such married Women, whether they be of full Age or not, as if they were sole and of full Age, and as to such Guardians, on behalf of their Wards, and as to such Committees, on behalf of the Lunatics and Idiots of whom they are the Committees respectively, and that to the same Extent as such Wives, Wards, Lunatics, and Idiots respectively could have exercised the same Power if they had respectively been under no Disability, and as to such Trustees, Executors, and Administrators, on behalf of their Cestuique Trusts, whether Infants, Issue unborn, Lunatics, Femes Covert, or other Persons, and that to the same Extent as such Cestuique Trusts respectively could have exercised the same Power if they had respectively been under no Disability.

Purchase Money of such Parties to be deposited in Bank, subject to the Order of the Court of Chancery.

II. It shall be lawful for such Grand Jury or Juries, and they are respectively hereby authorized and empowered, to enter into such Agreements with such Person or Persons as if he, she, or they were entitled to an absolute Estate or Estates in the said Tolls, and were legally competent to contract for the Sale of the same; subject nevertheless to the Proviso contained in said recited Act in relation to the Manner and Conditions of Presentments to be made in pursuance thereof; and the Amount of the Purchase for such Tolls, upon Agreements made under this Act, shall be ascertained by a Notary Public, to be chosen and appointed for that Purpose by the said contracting Parties to such Agreements, and such Amount shall be estimated upon an Average of the Sum received for Tolls upon such Bridge for Three Years immediately preceding such Agreement; and the Purchase Money which shall be payable in respect of the said Tolls, or any Interest therein, purchased by the Grand Jury or Grand Juries of any such County or Counties, County of a City or Town, as aforesaid, from any Tenant for Life or in Tail, married Woman seised in her own Right, Guardian, Committee of Lunatic or Idiot, Trustee, Executor, or Administrator, or Persons having a partial or qualified Interest only in such Tolls, and not entitled to sell the same except under the Provisions of this Act, shall be paid into the Bank of Ireland in the Name and with the Privity of of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery in Ireland (but free from any Charge for Ushers Poundage), to be placed to the Account there of such Accountant General, ex parte such Grand Jury or Grand Juries of any County, Counties or County of a City or Town, purchasing as aforesaid, pursuant to the Provisions prescribed by any Act for the Time being in force for regulating Monies paid in as aforesaid; and such Monies shall remain so deposited until the same be applied to some One or more of the following Purposes; (that is to say,)

Application of Monies deposited.

In the Discharge of any Debt or Incumbrance affecting the Tolls in respect of which such Money shall have been paid;

In the Purchase of Lands to be conveyed, limited, and settled upon the like Uses, Trusts, and Purposes and in the same Manner as the Tolls in respect of which such Money shall have been paid stood settled;

Or in Payment to any Party becoming absolutely entitled to such Money:

Provided always, that in every Case where any Person having an Estate or Interest in such Tolls shall only be entitled for an Estate for Life in the same, it shall and may be lawful for such Court (if it shall so think fit) to allocate the said Purchase Money to and amongst the several Persons entitled thereto, whether in possession, remainder, or reversion, and to order Payment to such Tenant for Life of the Principal of such Share of the Purchase Money as may be so allocated to him or her as aforesaid, or to make such other Order in the Premises as to such Court shall seem meet and just and reasonable.

Order for Application and Investment of such Monies.

III. Such Money may be so applied as aforesaid upon an Order of the Court of Chancery in Ireland made upon the Petition of any Party who would have been entitled to the Tolls in respect of which such Money shall have been deposited, or any Part thereof, and until the Money can be so applied it may, upon the like Order, be invested by the said Accountant General in the Purchase of Government Stock, and the annual Proceeds thereof paid to the Party who would for the Time being have been entitled to the Receipt of the said Tolls.

The Tolls to cease from Time of such Payment into Bank.

IV. From and after the Payment of the said Purchase Money into the Bank of Ireland as aforesaid the said Tolls in respect of which such Purchase shall have been made shall cease, and the Passage of such Bridge in respect of which such Toll shall have been payable shall be open and free to all Cattle, Carriages, and Persons whatsoever.

Certain Presentments already made for the Purchase of Tolls of Bridges may be proceeded in and executed under this Act.

V. 'And whereas under and by virtue of the Provisions of the said recited Act certain Grand Juries of 'Counties have, before the passing of this Act, entered into Agreements for the Purchase of certain of such 'Tolls of Bridges as aforesaid from the Parties possessed of and interested in the same, and Presentments 'have been already made by such Grand Juries for the Purchase of such Tolls, and for raising and levying 'the Amount of the Purchase Money thereof under the Provisions of the said Act; and it is expedient that 'such Proceedings should be rendered effectual and capable of being carried into execution under the Pro-'visions of this Act:' Be it therefore enacted, That in any Case where any Agreement has been already made by any such Grand Jury or Grand Juries of a County or Counties for the Purchase of any such Tolls of a Bridge as aforesaid, from the Party or Parties possessed of or interested in the same, and where any Presentment has been made by any such Grand Jury or Grand Juries for the Purchase of such Tolls, and for raising and levying the Purchase Money for the same, under the Provisions of the said recited Act, such Proceedings and Presentment or Presentments heretofore had and made for or relating to the Purchase and Sale of such Tolls shall be and be deemed valid and effectual for the Purposes of this Act; and it shall be lawful for the respective Grand Jury or Grand Juries of such County or Counties, and the respective Parties possessed of and interested in such Tolls, to complete such Purchase and Sale, and to cause the same to be carried into execution under the Provisions of the said recited Act and this Act, and the same shall and may be carried into execution accordingly, and shall be within and subject to the Provisions of the said recited Act and this Act as fully and effectually in all respects as if the said Proceedings and Presentment or Presentments had been had and made in pursuance of and after the passing of this Act.

Extent of Act.

VI. This Act shall extend only to that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland.

Powers, &c. of recited Acts to have the same Force as if re-enacted in this Act.

IX. That all and every the several Clauses, Powers, Authorities, Provisoes, Enactments, Directions, Regulations, Restrictions, Privileges, Priorities, Advantages, Penalties, and Forfeitures contained in the said recited Acts or any of them shall not be affected nor be deemed to have been affected by any Act or Acts of Parliament already passed or to be passed, except so far as the same may by any such Act, passed or to be passed, be altered, varied, or repealed by express Reference to the said recited Acts or this Act, and all and every the same several Clauses, Powers, Authorities, Provisoes, Enactments, Directions, Regulations, Restrictions, Privileges, Priorities, Advantages, Penalties, and Forfeitures, so far as the same can be made applicable, and are not varied by this Act, shall be taken to extend to this Act, and to every thing to be done in pursuance of this Act, and as if such Clauses, Powers, Authorities, Provisoes, Enactments, Directions, Regulations, Restrictions, Privileges, Priorities, Advantages, Penalties, and Forfeitures were herein repeated and set forth.

CAP. XXIV.

An Act to amend the Acts for the granting of Sites for Schools. [24th July 1851.]

'WHEREAS by the Statute Fourth and Fifth Victoria, Chapter Thirty-eight, Power is given to divers Persons therein mentioned to grant, convey, and enfranchise a certain Portion of Land for the Purpose of a Site for a School for the Education of poor Persons, or for the Residence of a Schoolmaster or Schoolmistress, or otherwise for the Education of poor Persons in religious and useful Knowledge, and Provisions are contained therein for facilitating the Conveyance of such Sites and perpetuating

'the Trusts of the Deeds: And whereas the Persons therein mentioned having been authorized to grant 'any Number of Sites for distinct and separate Schools, and Residences for the Master or Mistress 'thereof, it is provided that the Site of each School and Residence should not exceed the Extent of One 'Acre, and it is also provided that not more than One such Site should be in the same Parish: And 'whereas by the Twelfth and Thirteenth Victoria, Chapter Forty-nine, it is declared and enacted, that 'nothing in the last-recited Act contained should prevent any Person or Corporation from granting any 'Number of Sites for separate and distinct Schools in the same Parish, provided the aggregate Quantity 'of Land granted by such Person in the same Parish should not exceed the Extent of One Acre: And 'whereas by reason of the great Extent of some Parishes, wherein the Population is very large, this 'Limitation is found to be productive of Inconvenience, and to prevent the Extension of the Education 'of the Poor; and it is desirable to make further Provision in this Behalf:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

"Parish" in the 4 & 5 Vict. c. 38. s. 9. and 12 & 13 Vict. c. 49. s. 3. to signify Ecclesiastical District.

I. The Word Parish in the Sections of the Statutes herein referred to shall, in the Case of any Parish which has heretofore been or shall hereafter be divided by lawful Authority into Two or more Ecclesiastical Districts, whether confined to such Parish, or comprising also any Part of another Parish, be construed with reference to such Parish to signify each such Ecclesiastical District.

Incorporation of this Act with recited Acts.

II. This Act shall be construed as and be deemed to be a Part of the said recited Acts, except so far as it amends the same.

CAP. XXV.

An Act to improve the Law of Landlord and Tenant in relation to Emblements, to growing Crops seized in Execution, and to Agricultural Tenants Fixtures. [24th July 1851.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Law to prevent or lessen the Evils of the Right to Emblements, and the Loss and Injury arising therefrom, and also the Law relating to growing Crops 'seized under Executions, and to Agricultural Fixtures:' Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

On Determination of Leases or Tenancies under Tenant for Life, &c., instead of Emblements Tenant to hold until Expiration of current Year, &c.

I. That where the Lease or Tenancy of any Farm or Lands held by a Tenant at Rackrent shall determine by the Death or Cesser of the Estate of any Landlord entitled for his Life, or for any other uncertain Interest, instead of Claims to Emblements, the Tenant shall continue to hold and occupy such Farm or Lands until the Expiration of the then current Year of his Tenancy, and shall then quit, upon the Terms of his Lease or Holding, in the same Manner as if such Lease or Tenancy were then determined by Effluxion of Time or other lawful Means during the Continuance of his Landlord's Estate; and the succeeding Landlord or Owner shall be entitled to recover and receive of the Tenant, in the same Manner as his Predecessor or such Tenant's Lessor could have done if he had been living or had continued the Landlord or Lessor, a fair Proportion of the Rent for the Period which may have elapsed from the Day of the Death or Cesser of the Estate of such Predecessor or Lessor to the Time of the Tenant so quitting, and the succeeding Landlord or Owner and the Tenant respectively shall, as between themselves and as against each other, be entitled to all the Benefits and Advantages, and be subject to the Terms, Conditions, and Restrictions, to which the preceding Landlord or Lessor and such Tenant respectively would have been entitled and subject in case the Lease or Tenancy had determined in manner aforesaid at the Expiration of such current Year: Provided always, that no Notice to quit shall be necessary or required by or from either Party to determine any such Holding and Occupation as aforesaid.

Growing Crops seized and sold under Execution to be liable for accruing Rent.

II. That in case all or any Part of the growing Crops of the Tenant of any Farm or Lands shall be seized and sold by any Sheriff or other Officer by virtue of any Writ of Fieri facias or other Writ of Execution, such Crops, so long as the same shall remain on the Farms or Lands, shall, in default of sufficient Distress of the Goods and Chattels of the Tenant, be liable to the Rent which may accrue and become due to the Landlord after any such Seizure and Sale, and to the Remedies by Distress for Recovery of such Rent, and that notwithstanding any Bargain and Sale or Assignment which may have been made or executed of such growing Crops by any such Sheriff or other Officer.

Tenant may remove Buildings and Fixtures erected by him on Farms, unless Landlord elect to take to them.

III. That if any Tenant of a Farm or Lands shall, after the passing of this Act, with the Consent in Writing of the Landlord for the Time being, at his own Cost and Expense, erect any Farm-building, either detached or otherwise, or put up any other Building, Engine, or Machinery, either for Agricultural Purposes or for the Purposes of Trade and Agriculture, (which shall not have been erected or put up in pursuance of some Obligation in that Behalf,) then all such Buildings, Engines, and Machinery shall be the Property of the Tenant, and shall be removable by him, notwithstanding the same may consist of separate Buildings, or that the same or any Part thereof may be built in or permanently fixed to the Soil, so as the Tenant making any such Removal do not in anywise injure the Land or Buildings belonging to the Landlord, or otherwise do put the same in like Plight and Condition, or as good Plight and Condition, as the same were in before the Erection of anything so removed: Provided nevertheless, that no Tenant shall, under the Provision last aforesaid, be entitled to remove any such Matter or Thing as aforesaid without first giving to the Landlord or his Agent One Month's previous Notice in Writing of his Intention so to do; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the Landlord, or his Agent on his Authority, to elect to purchase the Matters and Things so proposed to be removed, or any of them, and the Right to remove the same shall thereby cease, and the same shall belong to the Landlord; and the Value thereof shall be ascertained and determined by Two Referees, One to be chosen by each Party, or by an Umpire to be named by such Referees, and shall be paid or allowed in account by the Landlord who shall have so elected to purchase the same.

Tenant leaving Tithe Rentcharge unpaid, Landlord, &c. may pay the same, and recover as if it were a simple Contract Debt.

IV. That if any occupying Tenant of Land shall quit, leaving unpaid any Tithe Rentcharge for or charged upon such Land which he was by the Terms of his Tenancy or Holding legally or equitably liable to pay, and the Tithe Owner shall give or have given Notice of proceeding by Distress upon the Land for Recovery thereof, it shall be lawful for the Landlord, or the succeeding Tenant or Occupier, to pay such Tithe Rentcharge, and any Expenses incident thereto, and to recover the Amount or Sum of Money which he may so pay over against such first-named Tenant or Occupier, or his legal Representatives, in the same Manner as if the same were a Debt by simple Contract due from such first-named Tenant or Occupier to the Landlord or Tenant making such Payment.

Act not to extend to Scotland.

V. Nothing in this Act shall extend to Scotland.

CAP. XXVI.

An Act to amend the Acts relating to the British White Herring Fishery. [24th July 1851.]

'WHEREAS the following Acts were passed for the Encouragement and Regulation of the British White Herring Fishery; viz., an Act of the Forty-eighth Year of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and ten; an Act of the Fifty-first Year of His said Majesty, Chapter One hundred and one; an Act of the Fifty-second Year of His said Majesty, Chapter One hundred and fifty-three; an Act of the Fifty-fourth Year of His said Majesty, Chapter One hundred and two; an Act of the Fifty-fifth Year of His said Majesty, Chapter Ninety-four; an Act of the First Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and three; an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the First and Second Years of His said Majesty, Chapter Seventy-nine; an Act of the Fifth Year of His said Majesty, Chapter Sixty-four; an Act of the Seventh Year of His said Majesty, Chapter Thirty-four; an Act of the First Year of His Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Fifty-four; an Act of the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Seventy-nine; and an Act of the Sesson of Parliament holden in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her said Majesty, Chapter Ninety-one: And whereas it is expedient that the said recited Acts should be altered and amended:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,—

Necessity of Fifteen Days between salting and branding White Herrings repealed.

I. That every Enactment or Provision contained in the said recited Acts or any of them whereby it is or may be held to be required that Fifteen clear Days should intervene between the Day of the salting White Herrings and the Day on which the Barrels containing such Herrings, whether Bung-packed or repacked, should be marked or branded, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Commissioners to regulate the Time (being not more than Fifteen Days) between salting and branding.

II. That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Herring Fishery, in virtue of the Powers conferred upon them by the said recited Acts or any of them and by this Act, from Time to Time to regulate and fix the Period which shall intervene between the Day on which White Herrings, whether Bung-packed or repacked, shall be salted, and the Day on which the Barrels containing such Herrings, whether Bung-packed or repacked, shall be entitled to be branded, such Period being not more than Fifteen clear Days after the salting of the same; and the said Commissioners shall, before any Regulations made by them for the Purposes aforesaid are to come into operation, cause Notice thereof to be given by Publication of the same once in the Edinburgh Gazette, and also by affixing printed Copies thereof on some conspicuous Place or Places at the various Herring Fishing Stations in Scotland; and nothing in the said recited Acts or any of them shall prevent the Exportation, subject to the other Provisions of the said recited Acts, to Ports or Places in Europe or out of Europe, of Herrings branded within the Periods to be authorized by the Regulations to be so made and published by the said Commissioners.

Penalty for fraudulently branding Barrels filled with Herrings applied to fraudulently branding empty Barrels or Casks.

III. That the Penalties and Forfeiture by the Fiftieth Section of the said recited Act of the Forty-eighth Year of King George the Third imposed upon any Person fraudulently burning or branding, or causing to be burnt or branded, any Barrel or Cask of Herrings, shall attach and apply to and be enforced against any Person who shall fraudulently, or without the Authority of an Officer of the Fishery, burn or brand, or cause to be burnt or branded, or illegally have in his Custody or Possession any Instrument for the Purpose of burning or branding, any empty Barrel or Cask, with any such Mark or Marks, Character or Characters as are referred to in the said Section, in such and the like Manner as if such Section as hereby extended were re-enacted herein.

Repealing the Necessity of repacking Herrings for Exportation with Great Salt.

IV. That so much of the said recited Acts or any of them as requires that Herrings repacked with Great Salt only shall be exported to any Place out of Europe shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and it shall hereafter be lawful to repack Herrings with Great Salt or other Salt, and, subject to the other Provisions of the said recited Acts, to export to any Place out of Europe such Herrings so repacked; and it shall in like Manner be lawful to ship Coastwise for Exportation unbranded Herrings, without the Production of any Notice or Certificate required by the said recited Acts.

Authorizing the Exportation of Barrels under

V. That the Prohibition and Forfeiture applicable under the Thirty-fifth Section of the said recited Act of the Fifty-fifth Year of King George the Third to Barrels of Herrings of the Description and containing containing less than the Quantity and Weight of Fish therein set forth, shipped or tendered for shipping to any Port or Place in Europe or out of Europe, shall not be applicable or apply to the Exportation to any Port or Place in Europe or out of Europe of Herrings shipped or intended to be shipped as aforesaid which shall not have lain Ten Days in Salt.

Weight when the Fish have not been Ten Days in Salt.

VI. That whenever the Herring Fishery is commenced or carried on it shall not be lawful for any Person to use for the Purpose of taking Herrings any Drag Net, or Sea Net mounted for trawling, or any Sweep, Circle, Ring Net, or Scringe Net, or any Net prohibited by the said recited Acts or any of them, or any Net of any Kind or Description whatsoever other than the usual Drift Net, or to use any Drift Net by dragging the same through the Water in the Manner of trawling; nor shall it be lawful to take or have on board of any Fishing Vessel or Boat, during the Time of the Herring Fishery, any Net of any Description other than Drift Nets; and every such Net other than Drift Nets, used as aforesaid, or found on board of any Fishing Vessel or Boat during the Herring Fishery, or found on shore, or in the Possession of any Person for the Purpose of being so used, shall be liable to be seized by any Superintendent of the Herring Fishery, or Person acting under his Order, or by any Officer of the Fishery; and any Person using or having on board any Fishing Vessel or Boat, or having on shore for the Purpose of being used as aforesaid, any Net contrary to the Provisions of the said recited Acts or any of them, or this Act, shall be subject and liable to the Penalties imposed in that Behalf by the said recited Acts or any of them, and any Net so seized shall be liable to Forfeiture in Terms of the said Acts.

As to Nets to be used when the regular Herring Fishery is commenced.

VII. That in order to secure the Delivery to the Purchaser or Curer of the Quantity of Herrings purported to be sold, in Situations where the Standard Measure of the Cran cannot be conveniently used, no Boat's Crew, while selling and delivering fresh Herrings by Measure, shall use or have on board any Herring Boat any Fish Basket or Measure of less Capacity than One Fourth Part of a Cran, that is to say, such as on being filled Four Times with Herrings shall make a complete Cran; and any Person selling or delivering Herrings by any Basket or Measure of less Capacity than aforesaid shall be liable in the Forfeiture and Penalty imposed by the said recited Act of the Fifty-fifth George Third upon Persons using any Cran or Measure not properly branded.

For securing the Use of Quarter Cran Basket or Measure.

VIII. That it shall be competent to enforce or sue for any Forfeiture or Penalty imposed by the said recited Acts or any of them or by this Act in the Manner provided by the said recited Acts or this Act, in the Name of the Secretary of the Board for the Time being, or the Procurator Fiscal of the County or of the Burgh or Town where the Offence is to be tried, or by the Superintendent of the Herring Fishery, or by any Officer of the said Fishery.

Forfeitures and Penalties by whom to be enforced and sued for.

IX. That it shall be lawful for any Judge trying any Offence under the said recited Acts or any of them or this Act, who in pronouncing Sentence shall decern against any Offender for Payment of any Penalty and Expenses, to grant Warrant also (failing Payment of such Penalty and Expenses, or failing Security being found to the Satisfaction of the Court for such Payment, within Forty-eight Hours after the same shall have been decerned for,) to imprison such Offender for any Period not exceeding Thirty Days, unless such Penalty and Expenses shall be sooner paid.

Sentence for Penalty may contain Decerniture for Imprisonment, failing Payment or Security.

CAP. XXVII.

An Act to amend certain Acts for the Improvement of Prisons and Prison Discipline in Scotland. [24th July 1851.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to improve Prisons and Prison Discipline in Scotland; and another Act was passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend and continue, until the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, the Law with respect to Prisons and Prison Discipline in Scotland: And whereas it was by the said Second Act enacted, that the said First Act as amended by the said Second Act should continue in force until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And whereas it is expedient that the said Acts should be altered and amended:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

2 & 3 Vict. c. 42. 7 & 8 Vict. c. 34

I. That the said recited Acts, as hereby amended, and this Act, shall continue and be in force during the Period granted by the said last-recited Act, and shall be held and construed as if the same formed One Act.

Recited Acts, as amended, and this Act, to be One Act.

II. That, seeing that Actions may be brought before the Court of Session in which the General Board may eventually be a Party, and it is inexpedient that any Judge of the said Court should be a Member of the General Board, so much of the said first-recited Act as appoints the Lord Justice General in Scotland and the Lord Justice Clerk for the Time being to be Members of the General Board of Directors of Prisons in Scotland shall be and the same is hereby repealed, and the Lord Justice General and Lord Justice Clerk respectively shall hereafter cease to be Members of the said General Board accordingly.

Lord Justice General and Lord Justice Clerk not to be Members of General Board.

III. That it shall be lawful for any County Prison Board, subject to the Provisions of the said recited Acts, to purchase, take, and acquire such Lands contiguous to any Prison as shall by such County Prison Board be deemed necessary for the Purposes of enlarging or rendering more commodious any such Prison; and to enable such County Prison Board to purchase, take and acquire such Lands, "The Lands Clauses Lands contiguous to Prisons may be acquired, and Act 8 & 9 Vict. c. 19. incorporated.

Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845," in so far as applicable to and not inconsistent with, or not otherwise provided for, or not altered and varied by, this or the said recited Acts, shall be incorporated with and form Part of this Act; and the Words "Promoters of the Undertaking" in the said Lands Clauses Consolidation Act shall apply to and include any County Prisons Board seeking to acquire Lands under this Act.

Accounts to be published.

IV. That the Prison Board of each County shall publish detailed Accounts of their Revenue and Expenditure under and for the Purposes of the said recited Acts and this Act within the First Week of September in every Year, which Accounts shall be printed, and a Copy thereof be furnished to the Commissioners of Supply of the County and to the Town Councils of the Burghs situated therein.

Magistrates of certain Burghs or Places may commit Prisoners to any Gaol within the County.

V. That where, within the Limits of any Burgh or Place being a "Burgh" in the Sense of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to make more effectual Provision for regulating the Police of Towns and populous Places in Scotland, and for paving, draining, cleansing, lighting, and improving the same, or where, within any Burgh which has adopted an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to enable Burghs in Scotland to establish a general System of Police, there shall be no legal Prison, or no Prison with adequate Accommodation, it shall be competent and lawful to the Police Magistrate or Magistrates of any Burgh acting under the said last-recited Acts or either of them to commit Prisoners to any Gaol within the County in which any such Burgh is situated, or is by the said recited Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her present Majesty held to be situated, in such and the like Manner as such Magistrate or Magistrates would have been entitled to commit Prisoners to the Gaol of such Burgh if there had been a Gaol therein, and under the like Rights and Liabilities as to the Maintenance of such Prisoners, and the Officers of such Magistrates shall have Power to carry the Prisoners to such Gaol.

Juvenile Male Offenders may be punished by private Whipping.

VI. That in every Case where it is at present competent for any Judge or Magistrate to award Sentence of Imprisonment or of Fine, with the Alternative of Imprisonment, it shall be lawful for such Judge or Magistrate in the Case of any Juvenile Offender, being a Male, whose Age, in the Opinion of such Judge or Magistrate, shall not exceed Fourteen Years, to adjudge such Offender, instead of Imprisonment, or of Imprisonment and Hard Labour, or in addition to Imprisonment, or Imprisonment and Hard Labour, to be punished by private Whipping in such Manner and according to such Regulations as shall be made by the Lord Advocate of Scotland in that Behalf, and sanctioned by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, anything in any Act of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sentence of Imprisonment may be accompanied with Hard Labour, and Rules in respect thereof to be made, and to be approved of by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

VII. That in all Cases in which a Sentence of Imprisonment may be awarded for any Crime or Offence by any Criminal Court in Scotland, it shall be competent for such Court to insert in such Sentence of Imprisonment an Order that such Imprisonment shall, during the whole or any Part of the Term thereof, be accompanied with Hard Labour, and such Imprisonment shall in every Case of such Order be so accompanied accordingly; and it shall be competent to the General Board, from Time to Time as they shall see Occasion, to make and submit to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State Rules as to the Mode of carrying out such Sentences of Hard Labour; and it shall be lawful for such Secretary of State, if he shall think fit, to alter such Rules, and to make additional Rules, and he shall grant a Certificate that such Rules as submitted to him, or altered or added to, are proper to be observed and enforced, and upon such Certificate being granted such Rules shall be by the Secretary of State transmitted to the General Board, and shall be effectual; and such Rules shall be entered in the Record of their Proceedings which by the said first-recited Act the General Board are directed to keep; and such Rules shall also be contained in the Annual Report made for the Year in which the same are certified and transmitted as aforesaid, which by the Provisions of the said first-recited Act the General Board are directed to make and transmit to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and whereof a Copy is by the said Act directed to be laid before both Houses of Parliament.

County Prison Boards may cause Imprisonment (subject to Rules of General Board, &c.) to be accompanied with Hard Labour.

VIII. That in all Cases in which a Sentence of Imprisonment for any Period not exceeding Two Months shall be awarded for any Crime or Offence by any Criminal Court in Scotland, and in all Cases in which the enforcing proper Discipline upon Criminals undergoing Imprisonment shall seem to them to require it, it shall be competent for each County Prison Board, subject to the Directions of the General Board, and subject also to any Rules which may be certified by the Secretary of State as aforesaid, to cause such Imprisonment, during the whole or any Part of the Term thereof, to be accompanied with Hard Labour.

CAP. XXVIII.

An Act for the well-ordering of Common Lodging Houses. [24th July 1851.]

'WHEREAS it would tend greatly to the Comfort and Welfare of many of Her Majesty's poorer Subjects if Provision were made for the well-ordering of Common Lodging Houses:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; to wit,

Short Title.

I. In citing this Act for any Purpose it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Common Lodging Houses Act, 1851."

Expenses of carrying this Act into execution in a Borough shall

V. That the Expenses of carrying this Act into execution in any such Borough in which the Council shall have resolved to adopt this Act for their Borough shall be chargeable upon and paid out of the Borough Fund, and for that Purpose the Council may levy with and as Part of the Borough Rate, or by a separate Rate to be assessed, levied, paid, and recovered in like Manner and with the like Powers and Remedies Remedies in all respects as the Borough Rate, such Sums of Money as shall be from Time to Time necessary for defraying such Expenses, and shall apply the same accordingly, as if the Expense of carrying this Act into execution were an Expense necessarily incurred in carrying into effect the Provisions of the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty; and the Income arising from the Lodging Houses in any Borough shall be paid to the Credit of the Borough Fund thereof; and the Council shall keep distinct Accounts of their Receipts, Payments, Credits, and Liabilities with reference to the Execution of this Act, to be called "The Lodging Houses Account." be charged upon the Borough Fund, and Income arising to be carried to the same.

VI. That the Board of any such District, being the District of a Local Board of Health, may, if they think fit, determine that this Act shall be adopted for such District, and then and in such Case such of the Provisions of this Act as are applicable in that Behalf shall thenceforth take effect and come into operation in such District, and this Act shall be carried into execution in such District, in accordance with such Provisions and the Laws for the Time being in force relating to such Board. Any Local Board of Health may adopt the Provisions of this Act if they think fit.

VII. Provided always, That the Board shall give not less than Twenty-eight nor more than Forty-two Days public Notice of their Intention to take into consideration the Propriety of adopting this Act, and of the Time and Place for holding the Meeting at which they will take it into consideration; and if there be presented to the Board at that Meeting a Memorial in Writing, signed by not less than One Tenth in Value of the Persons liable to be rated to a General District Rate made by the Board, and requesting the Board to postpone such Consideration until after the then next yearly Day for the Election of Members of the Board, then and in such Case such Consideration shall be postponed until after that Day, and shall be entered on as soon after that Day as the Board think fit. On Requisition of Ratepayers Board to postpone Proceedings till after next Day for Election of Members of Board.

VIII. That the Expenses of carrying this Act into execution in any such District, being the District of a Local Board of Health in which the Board shall have resolved to adopt this Act for their District, shall be chargeable upon and paid out of the Monies from Time to Time carried to the Credit of the District Fund Account of such District, and for that Purpose the Board may levy with and as Part of the General District Rate of such District, or by a separate Rate to be assessed, levied, paid, and recovered in like Manner and with the like Powers and Remedies in all respects as the General Rate of such District, such Sums of Money as shall be from Time to Time necessary for defraying such Expenses, and shall apply the same accordingly as if the Expense of carrying this Act into execution were an Expense necessarily incurred in carrying into effect the Provisions of the Public Health Act, 1848; and the Income arising from the Lodging Houses in any such District shall be paid to the Credit of the District Fund Account thereof; and the Board shall keep distinct Accounts of their Receipts, Payments, Credits, and Liabilities with reference to the Execution of this Act, to be called "The Lodging Houses Account." Expenses of carrying this Act into execution by Local Board of Health shall be charged on the District Fund, and Income arising to be carried to the same.

IX. That the Board of any such District, being the Place within the Limits of any Act for the paving, lighting, watching, draining, or otherwise improving of such Place, may, if they think fit, determine that this Act shall be adopted for such District, and then and in such Case such of the Provisions of this Act as are applicable in that Behalf shall thenceforth take effect and come into operation in such District, and this Act shall be carried into execution in such District in accordance with such Provisions and the Laws for the Time being in force relating to such Board. Any Improvement Board may adopt the Provisions of this Act if they think fit.

X. Provided always, That the Board shall give not less than Twenty-eight Days nor more than Forty-two Days public Notice of their Intention to take into consideration the Propriety of adopting this Act, and of the Time and Place for holding the Meeting at which they will take it into consideration; and if there be presented to the Board at that Meeting a Memorial in Writing, signed by not less than One Tenth in Value of the Persons liable to be rated to an Improvement Rate made by the Board, and requesting the Board to postpone such Consideration until after the then next yearly or other Day for the Election or Appointment of Members of the Board, then and in such Case such Consideration shall be postponed until after that Day, and shall be entered on as soon after that Day as the Board think fit. On Requisition of Ratepayers Board to postpone Proceedings till after next Day for Election of Members of Board.

XI. Provided always, That in any Case in which the major Part in Number of the Members of the Board of any such District are elected or appointed in any Manner other than by or with the Concurrence of the Persons liable to be rated to Improvement Rates made by the Board, the Board shall not determine that this Act shall be adopted for the District, except with the Sanction of the major Part in Value of the Persons so liable present at a Meeting specially convened for the Purpose by the Board, by not less than Twenty-eight Days nor more than Forty-two Days public Notice of the Intention of holding such Meeting, and of the Time and Place for holding the same; and such Meeting shall be held at such convenient Place within the District, and at such convenient Time, as the Board think fit; and the Procedure thereat shall be regulated by the Board. If Majority of Board not elected by Ratepayers, Consent of Ratepayers to be obtained.

XII. That the Expenses of carrying this Act into execution in any such District, being the Place within the Limits of any such Improvement Act in which the Board shall have resolved to adopt this Act for their District, shall be chargeable upon and paid out of the Improvement Rate of such District, and for that Purpose the Board may levy with and as Part of such Improvement Rate, or by a separate Rate to be assessed, levied, paid, and recovered in like Manner and with the like Powers and Remedies in all respects as such Improvement Rate, such Sums of Money as shall be from Time to Time necessary for defraying such Expenses, and shall apply the same accordingly as if the Expenses of carrying this Act into execution were an Expense necessarily incurred in carrying into effect the general Provisions of such Improvement Act; and the Income arising from the Lodging Houses in any such District shall be paid to the Credit of the Improvement Rate thereof; and the Board shall keep distinct Accounts of their Receipts, Payments, Credits, and Liabilities with reference to the Execution of this Act, to be called "The Lodging Houses Account." Expenses of carrying this Act into execution by Improvement Commissioners shall be charged on General Improvement Rate, and Income arising to be carried to the same.

XIII. That

Auditing Accounts of Improvement Commissioners with respect to Act.

XIII. That in every Case in which any such Improvement Act contains Provisions for the auditing of Accounts thereunder, the Accounts of the Board with respect to this Act shall be audited in accordance with those Provisions; and in every Case in which any such Improvement Act does not contain any such Provisions, the Accounts of the Board with respect to this Act shall be audited yearly by the Poor Law Auditor within whose District the District of the Board lies; and the Board shall produce to him their Accounts, with sufficient Vouchers for all Monies received and paid, and he shall examine such Accounts and Vouchers, and report thereon to the Board, and every such Report shall be open at all reasonable Times without Charge to the Inspection of every Person liable to be rated to an Improvement Rate made by the Board.

On Request of Ten Ratepayers Churchwardens &c. to convene Vestry Meeting with respect to this Act.

If Vestry resolve to adopt Act, Copy of Resolution to be sent to Secretary of State, &c.

Resolution void unless Two Thirds vote it.

XIV. That, upon the Requisition in Writing of Ten or more Ratepayers of any such Parish as aforesaid, the Churchwardens or other Persons to whom it belongs to convene Meetings of the Vestry in such Parish shall convene a Meeting of the Vestry for the special Purpose of determining whether this Act shall be adopted for the Parish, after public Notice of such Vestry, and the Place and Hour of holding the same, and the special Purpose thereof, given in the usual Manner in which Notice of the Meetings of the Vestry is given, in each of Three successive Weeks before the Day to be appointed for holding such Vestry; and if thereupon it shall be resolved by the Vestry that this Act ought to be adopted for the Parish, a Copy of such Resolution, extracted from the Minutes of the Vestry, and signed by the Chairman, shall be sent to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, for his Approval, and as soon as such Approval shall have been signified in Writing under the Hand of any such Secretary of State such of the Provisions of this Act as are applicable in that Behalf shall thenceforth take effect and come into operation in the Parish: Provided always, that such Resolution of the Vestry shall not be deemed to be carried unless at least Two Thirds in Value of the Votes given on the Question, according to the usual Manner of voting at such Vestry, shall have been given for such Resolution.

Where Act adopted, Vestry to appoint Commissioners for carrying into execution.

XV. That in such Case the Vestry shall appoint not less than Three nor more than Seven Persons, being Ratepayers of the Parish, Commissioners for carrying this Act into execution in the Parish, of whom One Third, or as nearly as may be One Third (to be determined among themselves), shall go out of Office yearly, (the Year being reckoned from and exclusive of the Day of the First Appointment of Commissioners,) but shall be eligible for immediate Re-appointment.

Resignation of Commissioners.

XVI. That any Commissioner may at any Time resign his Office as a Commissioner, on giving Seven Days Notice in Writing of his Intention to resign, to the Clerk, and also to the Churchwardens.

Vacancies to be filled up by Vestry.

XVII. That any Vacancies in the Commissionership may be filled up by the Vestry, when and as the Vestry shall think fit, but at the latest at the then next yearly Meeting for the Appointment of Commissioners.

Meetings of the Commissioners.

XVIII. That the Commissioners shall meet at least once in every Calendar Month, and at such other Times as they think fit, at their Office, or some other convenient Place, public Notice of the Times and Place of Meeting being previously given.

Special Meetings of Commissioners.

XIX. That it shall be at all Times competent for any One Commissioner, by Writing under his Hand, to summon, with at least Forty-eight Hours Notice, the Commissioners for any special Purpose therein named, and to meet at such Time as shall be therein named; and the Commissioners may meet accordingly without further Notice.

Quorum of Meetings of Commissioners.

XX. That at all Meetings of the Commissioners any Number, not less than One Third of the whole Number when more than Three Commissioners shall have been appointed, and when only Three Commissioners shall have been appointed, then any Number not less than Two Commissioners, shall be a sufficient Number for transacting Business, and for exercising all the Powers of the Commissioners.

Commissioners may appoint and remove Officers, &c.

XXI. That the Commissioners, with the Approval of the Vestry, may appoint reasonable Salaries, Wages, and Allowances for a Clerk and such other Officers and Servants as shall be necessary for the Purposes of this Act, and shall appoint and may remove at Pleasure such Clerk, Officers, and Servants, and, when necessary, may hire and rent a sufficient Office for holding their Meetings and transacting their Business, and may agree for and pay a reasonable Rent for such Office.

Minutes of Proceedings of Commissioners to be entered in Books.

XXII. That all Orders and Proceedings of the Commissioners shall be entered in Books to be kept by them for that Purpose, and shall be signed by the Commissioners or any Two of them; and all such Orders and Proceedings, so entered, and purporting to be so signed, shall be deemed to be original Orders and Proceedings, and such Books may be produced and read as Evidence of all such Orders and Proceedings upon any Appeal, Trial, Information, or other Proceeding, civil or criminal, and in any Court of Law or Equity whatsoever.

Commissioners to keep Accounts, which shall be open to Inspection, Penalty for refusing to allow Inspection.

XXIII. That the Commissioners shall provide and keep Books in which shall be entered true and regular Accounts of all Sums of Money received and paid for or on account of the Purposes of this Act in the Parish, and of all Liabilities incurred by them for such Purposes, and of the several Purposes for which such Sums of Money shall have been paid and such Liabilities shall have been incurred; and such Books shall at all reasonable Times be open to the Examination of every Commissioner, Churchwarden, Overseer, and Ratepayer, without Fee or Reward, and they respectively may take Copies of or Extracts from such Books or any Part thereof, without paying for the same; and in case the Commissioners or any of them, or any of their Officers or Servants, having the Custody of such Books, being thereunto reasonably requested, shall refuse to permit or shall not permit any Churchwarden, Overseer, or Ratepayer to examine the same, or take any such Copy or Extract, every Commissioner, Officer, or Servant so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

XXIV. That

Auditors to be appointed yearly, who shall examine the Accounts and report to Vestries.

XXIV. That the Vestry shall yearly appoint Two Persons, not being Commissioners, to be Auditors of the Accounts of the Commissioners; and at such Time in the Month of March in every Year after the Adoption of this Act for the Parish as the Vestry shall appoint the Commissioners shall produce to the Auditors their Accounts, with sufficient Vouchers for all Monies received and paid, and the Auditors shall examine such Accounts and Vouchers, and report thereon to the Vestry: Provided always, that if the general Accounts of the Parish be audited by a Poor Law Auditor, the Accounts of the Commissioners shall be audited by such Poor Law Auditor.

Expenses of executing Act in any Parish to be paid out of the Poor's Rate.

XXV. That the Expenses of carrying this Act into execution in any Parish to such Amount as shall be from Time to Time sanctioned by the Vestry shall be chargeable upon and paid out of the Monies to be raised or applicable for the Relief of the Poor of the Parish; provided always, that the Vestry shall be convened in the Manner usual in the Parish, and the Amount for the Time being proposed to be raised or applied for such Expenses shall be expressed in the Notice convening the Vestry.

Overseers to levy as Part of the Poor's Rate such Sums as Vestry shall deem necessary to pay Expenses.

XXVI. That for defraying the Expenses so sanctioned the Vestry may and shall from Time to Time order the Overseers to levy with and as Part of the Rate for the Relief of the Poor of the Parish such Sums as the Vestry shall deem necessary, and the Amount thereof shall accordingly be assessed, levied, paid, and recovered in like Manner, and with the like Powers and Remedies in all respects, as such Rate, and shall be paid by the Overseers, according to the Order of the Vestry, to such Person as shall be appointed by the Commissioners to receive the same, and his Receipt shall be a sufficient Discharge to the Overseers for the same, and shall be allowed accordingly in passing their Accounts: Provided always, that in the Notices requiring the Payment of the Rate the Proportion which the Amount to be thereby raised for the Purposes of this Act shall bear to the total Amount to be thereby raised shall be stated as accurately as Circumstances may admit.

Monies raised, and the Income arising from Lodging Houses in the Parish to be applied towards defraying Expenses.

XXVII. That the Money raised for defraying the Expenses of carrying this Act into execution, and the Income arising from the Lodging Houses in the Parish, shall be applied by the Commissioners in or towards defraying the Expenses of carrying this Act into execution in the Parish; and whenever, after Repayment of all Monies borrowed for the Purpose of carrying this Act into execution in the Parish, and the Interest thereof, and after satisfying all the Liabilities of the Commissioners with reference to the Execution of this Act in the Parish, and providing such a Balance as shall be deemed by the Commissioners sufficient to meet their probable Liabilities during the then next Year, there shall be at the Time of holding the Meeting of the Vestry at which the yearly Report of the Auditors shall be produced any surplus Money at the Disposal of the Commissioners, they shall pay the same to the Overseers, in aid of the Rate for the Relief of the Poor of the Parish.

Vestries of Two or more Parishes may concur in carrying this Act into execution, subject to the Approval of Secretary of State.

XXVIII. That the Vestries of any Two or more neighbouring Parishes having, according to the then last Census, an aggregate Population of not less than Ten thousand may, for the Purpose of concurring in carrying this Act into execution, respectively adopt this Act in like Manner as if the Population of each of those Parishes were, according to the then last Census, not less than Ten thousand; and the Vestries of any Two or more neighbouring Parishes which shall have respectively adopted this Act may concur in carrying this Act into execution in such Parishes, in such Manner, not inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act, and for such Time, as they shall mutually agree; and for that Purpose it may, with the Approval of such Secretary of State, be agreed on between such Vestries that any Lodging Houses shall be erected and made in any One of such Parishes, to be vested in the Commissioners thereof, and that the Expenses of carrying this Act into execution with reference to the same shall be borne by such Parishes in such Proportions as such Vestries shall mutually agree, and the Proportion for each of such Parishes of such Expenses shall be chargeable upon and paid out of the Monies to be raised for the Relief of the Poor of the same respective Parish accordingly; and, according and subject to the Terms which shall have been so agreed on, the Commissioners appointed for each of such Parishes shall in the Management of the said Lodging Houses form One Body of Commissioners, and shall act accordingly in the Execution of this Act; and the Accounts and Vouchers of such Commissioners shall be examined and reported on by the Auditors of each of such Parishes, and the surplus Money at the Disposal as aforesaid of such Commissioners shall be paid to the Overseers of such Parishes respectively, in the same Proportions as those in which such Parishes shall be liable to such Expenses.

Incorporation of Commissioners.

XXIX. That for the more easy Execution of the Purposes of this Act the Commissioners of every such Parish shall be a Body Corporate, with perpetual Succession, which shall not be deemed to be interrupted by any partial or total Vacancy from Time to Time in their Office, by the Name of "The Commissioners for Lodging Houses in the Parish of ( ) in the County of ( )," and by that Name may sue and be sued in all Courts, and before all Justices and others, and may have and use a Common Seal, and by that Name may take, hold, and convey any Lands vested in them for the Purposes of this Act.

Acts of Commissioners to be good notwithstanding Informalities.

XXX. That all Acts and Proceedings of any Person in possession of the Office of such Commissioner, and acting in good Faith as such Commissioner, shall, notwithstanding his Disqualification or Want of Qualification for, or any Defect or Irregularity in, or in any way concerning his Appointment to such Office, be as valid and effectual as if he were duly qualified, or there had not been any such Defect or Irregularity.

Councils, &c. may borrow Money for the Purposes of the Act, with the XXXI. That for carrying this Act into execution in any Borough, District, or Parish respectively, the Council, with the Approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and also with the Approval of the General Board of Health, and the Board, with the Approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and also with the Approval of the General Board of Health, and the Commissioners, Approval of the Treasury.

sioners, with the Sanction of the Vestry, and also with the Approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and also with the Approval of the General Board of Health, may from Time to Time borrow, at Interest, on the Security of a Mortgage, as the Case may be, of the Borough Fund, or of the General District Rates, or of the Improvement Rates, or of the Rates for the Relief of the Poor of the Parish, the Money which may be by them respectively required, and shall apply the Monies so borrowed accordingly.

The Public Works Loan Commissioners may advance Money for the Purposes of this Act.

XXXII. That the Commissioners for carrying into execution an Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to authorize the Advance of Money out of the Consolidated Fund for carrying on Public Works and Fisheries and Employment of the Poor, may from Time to Time make to the Council of any such Borough or to any Board or to the Commissioners of any such Parish respectively, for the Purposes of this Act, any Loan, under the Provisions of the recited Act, or the several Acts therein recited or referred to, upon Security of the Borough Fund, or the General District Rates, or the Improvement Rates, or the Rates for the Relief of the Poor of the Parish, as the Case may be.

Certain Provisions of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 16. incorporated with this Act.

XXXIII. That the Provisions of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to the borrowing of Money by any Company on Mortgage, and the Provisions of the same Act with respect to the Accountability of the Officers of the Company, and the Provisions of the same Act with respect to the making of Bylaws, subject to the Provision herein-after contained, and the Provisions of the same Act with respect to the Recovery of Damages not specially provided for, and Penalties, so far as such Provisions may respectively be applicable to the Purposes of this Act, shall be respectively incorporated with this Act; and the Expressions in such Provisions applicable to the Company and the Directors shall apply, as regards a Borough, to the Council, and as regards a Parish, to the Commissioners; and all Deeds and Writings which under such Provisions are required or directed to be made or executed under the Common Seal of the Company shall, in the Application of such Provisions to this Act, be deemed to be required or directed to be made or executed, as regards a Borough, under the Common Seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, and, as regards a Parish, under the Common Seal of the Commissioners; and so much of such Provisions as are applicable to the Secretary of the Company shall apply to the Clerk; and in such of the said Provisions as relate to the Inspection of Accounts, as regards a Borough, the Burgesses, and, as regards a Parish, the Ratepayers, shall have the Privileges of Shareholders.

8 & 9 Vict. c. 18. incorporated with this Act.

XXXIV. That the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, shall be incorporated with this Act: Provided always, that the Council, the Board, and the Commissioners respectively shall not purchase or take any Lands otherwise than by Agreement.

In Boroughs Council may appropriate, with Consent of the Treasury, Lands vested in the Mayor, &c.

XXXV. That in any such Borough the Council, with the Approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, may from Time to Time appropriate for the Purposes of this Act in the Borough any Lands vested in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses; and in any such District the Board, with the Approval of the General Board of Health, may from Time to Time appropriate for the Purposes of this Act in the District any Lands vested in the Board or at the Disposal of the Board; and in any such Parish the Commissioners appointed under this Act, with the Approval of the Vestry and of the Guardians of the Poor of the Parish (if any), and of the Poor Law Board, may from Time to Time appropriate for the Purposes of this Act in the Parish any Lands vested in such Guardians, or in the Churchwardens, or in the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Parish, or in any Feoffees, Trustees, or others, for the general Benefit of the Parish; and in any such Parish the Commissioners, and in any such Borough the Council, and in any such District the Board, may from Time to Time, with the like respective Approval, contract for the purchasing or renting of any Lands necessary for the Purposes of this Act; and the Property therein shall be vested in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses in the Case of a Borough, or in the Board in the Case of a District, or in the Commissioners in the Case of a Parish.

In Parishes the Commissioners may, with Vestry, &c. appropriate Lands belonging to Parish; or contract for the Purchase.

Councils and Commissioners may erect Lodging Houses.

XXXVI. That the Council and Board and Commissioners respectively may from Time to Time, on any Lands so appropriated, purchased, or rented, or contracted so to be, respectively, erect any Buildings suitable for Lodging Houses for the Labouring Classes, and convert any Buildings into Lodging Houses for the Labouring Classes, and may from Time to Time alter, enlarge, repair, and improve the same respectively, and fit up, furnish, and supply the same respectively with all requisite Furniture, Fittings, and Conveniences.

Councils and Commissioners may enter into Contracts for the Purposes of this Act.

XXXVII. That the Council and Board and Commissioners respectively may from Time to Time enter into any Contract with any Persons or Companies for building and making, and for altering, enlarging, repairing, and improving such Lodging Houses, and for supplying the same respectively with Water, and for lighting the same respectively, and for fitting up the same respectively, and for furnishing any Materials and Things, and for executing and doing any other Works and Things necessary for the Purpose of this Act, which Contracts respectively shall specify the several Works and Things to be executed, furnished, and done, and the Prices to be paid for the same, and the Times when the Works and Things are to be executed, furnished, and done, and the Penalties to be suffered in Cases of Nonperformance; and all such Contracts, or true Copies thereof, shall be entered in the Books to be kept for that Purpose: Provided always, that a Contract above the Value or Sum of One hundred Pounds shall not be entered into by the Council or the Board or the Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act unless previous to the making thereof Fourteen Days Notice shall be given in One or more of the public Newspapers published in the County in which the Borough or District or Parish shall be situated, expressing the Intention of entering into such Contract, in order that any Person willing to undertake the same may make Proposals for that Purpose, to be offered to the Council or Board or

No Contract above 100*l.* to be entered into without Notice.

Commis-

Commissioners at a certain Time and Place in such Notice to be mentioned; but it shall not be incumbent on the Council or Board or Commissioners to accept any of the Proposals so offered.

Council or Commissioners may purchase existing Lodging Houses.

XXXVIII. That the Council of any such Borough, and the Board of any such District, and the Commissioners, with such respective Approval as is by this Act required with respect to the purchasing or renting in any other Case of any Lands necessary for the Purposes of this Act, may, if they shall think fit, contract for the Purchase or Lease of any Lodging Houses for the Labouring Classes already or hereafter to be built and provided in any such Borough or District or Parish, and appropriate the same to the Purposes of this Act, with such Additions or Alterations as they shall respectively deem necessary; and the Trustees of any Lodging Houses for the Labouring Classes which have been already or may hereafter be provided in any such Borough or District or Parish, by private Subscriptions or otherwise, may, with the Consent of the Council of any such Borough, or with the Consent of the Board of any such District, or with the Consent of the Commissioners, and with the like respective Approval, and with the Consent of a Majority of the Committee or other Persons by whom they were appointed Trustees, sell or lease the said Lodging Houses to the said Council or Board or Commissioners respectively, or make over to them the Management of such Lodging Houses; and in all such Cases the Lodging Houses so purchased or leased, or of which the Management has been so made over, shall be deemed to be within the Provisions of this Act, as fully as if they had been built or provided by the Council or Board or Commissioners, and the Property therein shall be vested in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses in the Case of a Borough, or in the Board in the Case of a District, or in the Commissioners in the Case of a Parish.

Power to Water and Gas Companies to supply Lodging Houses.

XXXIX. That any Commissioners of Waterworks, Trustees of Waterworks, Water Companies, Gas Companies, and other Corporations, Bodies, and Persons having the Management of any Waterworks, Reservoirs, Wells, Springs, and Streams of Water, and Gasworks respectively, may, in their Discretion, grant and furnish Supplies of Water or Gas for such Lodging Houses, either without Charge or on such other favourable Terms as they shall think fit.

Councillors and Commissioners not to be personally liable.

XL. That anything in this Act contained shall not render any Member of the Council of any Borough, or any Member of any such Board, or any Commissioner, personally, or any of their Lands, Goods, Chattels, or Monies, (other than such Lands, Goods, Chattels, or Monies as may be vested in or under the Management or Control of the Council or Board or Commissioners respectively in pursuance of this Act,) liable to the Payment of any Sum of Money as or by way of Compensation or Satisfaction for or in respect of anything done or suffered in due pursuance of this Act.

Persons may appeal against Orders of Councils and Commissioners.

XLI. That every Person who shall feel aggrieved by any Byelaw, Order, Direction, or Appointment of or by the Council or Board or Commissioners shall have the like Power of Appeal to the General Quarter Sessions as under the Provisions of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, incorporated with this Act, he might have, if feeling aggrieved by any Determination of any Justice with respect to any Penalty.

Council, &c. empowered to make Sale and Exchange of Lands, with Consent.

XLII. That the Council, with the Approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Board, with the Approval of the General Board of Health, and the Commissioners appointed under this Act, with the Approval of the Vestry, and of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, respectively, may from Time to Time make sale and dispose of any Lands vested in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, or in the Board, or in the Commissioners, respectively, for the Purposes of this Act, and apply the Proceeds, or a sufficient Part thereof, in or towards the Purchase of other Lands better adapted for such Purposes, and may, with the like Approval, exchange any Lands so vested, and either with or without paying or receiving any Money for Equality of Exchange, for any other Lands better adapted for such Purposes, and the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, or the Board, or the Commissioners, may convey the Lands so sold or exchanged accordingly.

When Lodging Houses are considered too expensive, they may, with Approval of Treasury, be sold, and Proceeds of Sale carried to Borough Fund or Poor's Rate.

XLIII. That whenever any Lodging Houses which shall have been for Seven Years or upwards established under the Authority of this Act shall be determined by the Council, or by the Board, or by the Vestry, in accordance with a previous Recommendation of the Commissioners, to be unnecessary or too expensive to be kept up, the Council or Commissioners, with the Approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or the Board with the Approval of the General Board of Health, may sell the same for the best Price that can reasonably be obtained for the same, and the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, or the Board, or the Commissioners, shall convey the same accordingly, and the Purchase Money shall be paid to such Person as the Council or Board or Commissioners shall appoint, and his Receipt shall be a sufficient Discharge for the same, and the net Proceeds of such Sale shall be applied in the first instance in or towards Payment or Satisfaction of all the Debts, Liabilities, and Engagements whatsoever, with respect to the Purposes of this Act, of the Council, the Board, or the Commissioners, and the Surplus, if any, of such net Proceeds paid to the Credit of the Borough Fund, or of the General District Rate, or of the Improvement Rate, or of the Rate for the Relief of the Poor of the Parish.

Commissioners to cease to be a Corporation when their Duties have ceased.

XLIV. Provided always, That whenever, by reason of the Sale of all the Lodging Houses provided under this Act for a Parish, and the Application as by this Act required of the net Proceeds of such Sale, and the Performance of all other the Duties under this Act of the Commissioners for the Parish, or by any other Reason, it becomes needless for the Commissioners for a Parish to continue to be a Corporation, such Commissioners shall thereupon cease to be a Corporation, and their Office as Commissioners for the Parish shall thereupon cease, and this Act shall thereupon cease to be in force in the Parish, but nevertheless this Act may thereafter be adopted for the Parish.

Management to be vested in Council and Parish Commissioners.

XLV. That the general Management, Regulation, and Control of the Lodging Houses established under this Act shall, subject to the Provisions of this Act, be, as to any Borough, vested in and exercised by the Council, and as to any District vested in and exercised by the Board, and as to any Parish vested in and exercised by the Commissioners.

Council, &c. may make Byelaws for regulating the Lodging Houses.

XLVI. That the Byelaws which the Council and Board and Commissioners respectively may from Time to Time make, alter, repeal, and enforce shall include such Byelaws for the Management, Use, and Regulation of the Lodging Houses, and of the Tenants or Occupiers thereof, and for determining from Time to Time the Charges for the Tenancy or Occupation of the Lodging Houses, as the Council and Board and Commissioners respectively shall think fit, and they respectively may appoint any Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for any and every Breach, whether by their Officers or Servants or by other Persons, of any Byelaw made by them respectively, and such Byelaws shall make sufficient Provision for the several Purposes respectively expressed in the Schedule to this Act: Provided always, that a Byelaw made under the Authority of this Act shall not be of any legal Force until the same shall have received the Approval of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Byelaws to be approved by the Secretary of State; and hung up in Rooms in Lodging Houses.

XLVII. That a printed Copy or sufficient Abstract of the Byelaws relating to the Management, Use, and Regulation of the Lodging Houses shall be put up and at all Times kept in every Room therein.

Charges for Occupation, &c. how to be fixed.

XLVIII. That the Council and the Board and the Commissioners respectively may from Time to Time make such reasonable Charges for the Tenancy or Occupation of the Lodging Houses provided under this Act as they shall think fit.

As to Tenants of Lodging Houses receiving Parochial Relief.

XLIX. That any Person who, or whose Wife or Husband, at any Time while such Person is a Tenant or Occupier of any such Lodging House or any Part of such a Lodging House, receives any such Relief, other than such Relief granted on account only of Accident or temporary Illness, shall thereupon be disqualified for continuing to be such a Tenant or Occupier.

Inspection of Lodging Houses by Local Boards of Health.

L. That every Lodging House established under this Act which shall be within the District of a Local Board of Health shall at all Times be open to the Inspection of such Board, and the Officers thereof from Time to Time authorized by such Board to make such Inspection.

Penalty on Council, Commissioners, or Officers taking Fees beyond Salaries, or being interested in Contracts.

LI. That if any Clerk or other Officer or any Servant who shall be in anywise employed by any Council or Board or Commissioners in pursuance of this Act shall exact or accept any Fee or Reward whatsoever for or on account of anything done or forborne, or to be done or forborne, in pursuance of this Act, or on any account whatsoever relative to putting this Act into execution, other than such Salaries, Wages, or Allowances as shall have been appointed by the Council or Board or Commissioners, or shall in anywise be concerned or interested in any Bargain or Contract made by the Council or Board or Commissioners for or on account of anything done or forborne, or to be done or forborne, in pursuance of this Act, or on any account whatsoever relative to the putting of this Act into execution, or if any Person during the Time he holds the Office of Member of the Council, or Member of the Board, or Commissioner, shall exact or accept any such Fee or Reward, or shall accept or hold any Office or Place of Trust created by virtue of this Act, or be concerned directly or indirectly in any such Bargain or Contract, every such Person so offending shall be incapable of ever serving or being employed under this Act, and shall for every such Offence also forfeit not exceeding the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

Application of Penalties.

LII. That such Part of any Penalty recovered under this Act as shall not be awarded to the Informer shall be paid to the Credit, as regards a Borough, of the Borough Fund, and, as regards a District, of the General District Rate thereof or the Improvement Rate thereof, and, as regards a Parish, of the Rate for the Relief of the Poor thereof.

Not to extend to Scotland.

LIII. That nothing in this Act shall extend to Scotland.

CAP. XXXV.

An Act to extend the Benefits of certain Provisions of the General Merchant Seamen's Act relating to Apprentices bound to the Sea Service to Apprentices bound to the Sea Service by Boards of Guardians of the Poor in Ireland, and to enable such Guardians to place out Boys in the Naval Service. [24th July 1851.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend and consolidate the Laws relating to Merchant Seamen, and for keeping a 'Register of Seamen, Power was given to the Overseers of the Poor or other Persons having the Authority 7 & 8 Vict. c. 112. s. 32.
'of Overseers in any District, Union, Parish, Township, or Place in the United Kingdom, in the Manner
'and subject to the Conditions in the said Act mentioned, to bind and put out as an Apprentice in the Sea
'Service any Boy having attained the Age of Twelve Years, of sufficient Health and Strength, who or 'whose Parents was or were chargeable to such District, Union, Parish, Township, or Place, with his 'Consent, but not otherwise: And whereas it is expedient to confer upon the several Boards of Guardians
'in Ireland like Powers in this Behalf, (subject to the Provisions herein contained,) as are by the said
'recited Act given and conferred upon such Overseers of the Poor:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That—

Power to Guardians, &c. to apprentice Boys to the Sea Service.

I. The Guardians of the Poor of any Union in Ireland, or other Persons duly appointed to carry into execution the Provisions of the Acts for the Relief of the destitute Poor in Ireland, and having the Authority of Guardians in such Union, may and they are hereby empowered to bind and put out as an Apprentice in the Sea Service, for not less than Four Years, to any British Subject being the Master or Owner of any Ship registered or licensed in any Port of the United Kingdom, any Boy who has attained the Age of Twelve Years and not more than Seventeen Years, and is of sufficient Health and Strength, and who or whose Parent or Parents is or are receiving Relief in such Union, and who consents to be so bound, until such Boy attains the Age of Twenty-one Years or has served as Apprentice Seven Years, or such other shorter Period (not less than Four Years) as may be fixed and agreed on, whichever first happens, by Indentures to be made in the Form set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or as near thereto as the Circumstances of the Case will admit, or in such other Form as may be sanctioned by the Board of Trade in that Behalf, and to bear Date on the Day when the same are executed, and to be prepared in Triplicate, and each Part to be executed in the Presence of the Boy who is bound thereby, and of the Constable or other Person who is employed to conduct him as herein-after mentioned, and of Two Justices of the Peace, and to be signed by such Justices in testimony of their being satisfied that such Boy has consented so to be bound, and has attained the Age aforesaid, and is of sufficient Health and Strength, and to be attested by such Constable or other Person; and any such Justice may so act, although he be also a Member of, and acting at, such Board of Guardians; and such Indenture shall have affixed thereto the Official Seal of such Board, and the Signature of the Chairman presiding at some Meeting thereof, and of the Clerk or Person acting as Clerk thereat; and the Guardians or other Persons having the Authority aforesaid by whom any such Boy is so bound shall cause his Age to be truly inserted in the Indentures of Apprenticeship to the best of their Belief, and shall if possible procure a Certificate of the Baptism of such Boy, or a Copy of the Entry thereof in the Registry of such Baptism, in proof thereof; and every Certificate of Baptism or such Copy of Entry (if any there be) which is required for the Purpose of ascertaining the Age of any such Boy by any such Guardians or other Persons shall be given and attested by the Person authorized to give the same without Fee; and the Age of every such Boy inserted in any such Indenture shall, in relation to the Continuance of his Service, be taken to be his true Age, without any further Proof thereof: Provided always, that if the Cost of the Relief of such Boy in such Union as aforesaid be chargeable to an Electoral Division of such Union, the Consent in Writing of the Guardian or (where there are more than One) of a Majority of the Guardians of the Poor of such Electoral Division, under his or their Hand or Hands, shall be obtained previously to such Binding as aforesaid, or shall be written or endorsed upon such Indentures (save and except in Cases where paid Officers shall be acting in place of Guardians of the Poor).

Manner of binding such Apprentices.

Such Apprentices to be furnished with Outfit; and sent to the Seaport.

II. The Guardians or Persons having the Authority aforesaid by whom any such Boy is bound shall provide him with a sufficient Outfit of Sea Clothing, Bedding, and similar Necessaries, to the Value of Five Pounds, and shall cause him to be conducted by a Constable or other trustworthy Person to the Port where the Master or Owner of the Ship to whom he is bound is or resides, and shall, if the Master or Shipowner to whom such Apprentice is bound resides in the Port of London, transmit One of the Indentures aforesaid, duly executed and attested, to the Registrar of Seamen, and if he resides at any other Port, to the Collector or Controller of Customs at such Port, and shall transmit One other of the said Indentures to the Master or Owner to whom the Boy is bound, and shall retain the Third of the said Indentures; and the Expense incurred in the Provision of such Outfit, and the Binding and Conveyance of any such Apprentice, and the Transmission of such Indentures, shall be charged to the Union or Electoral Division, as the Case may be, to which the Boy or his Parent or Parents was or were chargeable at the Time of his being so apprenticed.

Expenses of Outfit, &c. to be borne by Union, &c.

Indentures may be sued on by Guardians,

III. The Indentures so entered into by the Guardians or other Persons having such Authority as aforesaid in any Union in Ireland may be sued upon in the Name of the Guardians of the Poor of such Union for the Time being, by their Name of Office; but no Action for the Breach of any Covenant contained in such by their Name of Office.

such Indentures shall be commenced by such Guardians or other Persons without the Consent of the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland; and no such Action commenced with such Consent shall abate by reason of Death or any Change of such Guardians or Persons pending the same, but shall be proceeded in by the Guardians or Persons having the Authority aforesaid for the Time being, who shall be entitled to charge the whole Amount of the Costs incurred in such Action, and not recovered from the Defendant therein, upon the Union or Electoral Division as aforesaid, as the Case may be, or as such Guardians or Persons aforesaid shall direct, although Part of such Costs may have been incurred by their Predecessors.

Indentures may be assigned on the Death, &c. of the Master.

IV. In the event of the Bankruptcy, Insolvency, or Death of the Master of any such Apprentice to the Sea Service, such Master, or his Executors or Administrators, or, if there are none such, his Widow, may assign the Indenture of such Apprentice for the Residue of the Term then unexpired therein to any other Master or Owner of any such Ship as aforesaid; and the Person to whom any such Assignment is made shall produce the same, if he resides in the Port of London, to the Registrar of Seamen, and if he resides in any other Port, to the Collector or Controller of Customs at such Port, there to be registered and indorsed by such Registrar or Collector or Controller of Customs, and in default shall be liable to a Penalty of Ten Pounds.

Assignments to be registered.

Penalty for Default.

Non-contribution of Apprentice to Hospital, &c. No Stamp Duty.

V. No Apprentice bound or assigned pursuant to this Act, and no Master or Owner in respect of any such Apprentice, shall be liable to any Payment or Contribution to or towards any Hospital or Institution; and all Agreements, Indentures, Assignments, Counterparts, or Tickets made under or in pursuance of and in compliance with the Provisions of this Act shall be exempt from Stamp Duty.

Termination of Apprenticeships generally.

VI. Every such Apprenticeship to the Sea Service shall terminate upon the Expiration of Seven Years from the Date of the Indentures of Apprenticeship, or upon the Apprentice attaining the Age of Twenty-one Years, or at any earlier Time fixed by the Indentures, whichever first happens; but if at the Termination of his Apprenticeship the Apprentice is on a Voyage, he shall continue to serve as an Apprentice until the Return of the Ship to her final Port of Destination in the United Kingdom, but shall after One Calendar Month from such Termination be entitled to the same Wages as an Ablebodied Seaman or Ordinary Seaman of the same Ship, engaged at the Commencement of the Voyage in the United Kingdom, according to his Ability and Qualification; and every Person to whom any Apprentice is bound, or to whom his Indenture of Apprenticeship shall have been assigned, shall at the Termination of his Apprenticeship give up to such Apprentice his Indenture of Apprenticeship, together with his Register Ticket, procured in pursuance of the Provisions of the said recited Act, and in default shall for each such Offence be liable to a Penalty of Twenty Pounds; and all Masters of Apprentices under this Act for whom no Register Tickets are already obtained shall, before carrying them to Sea, take them to the General Register Office, or to One of the Custom Houses in the Outports at which the Business of Registration is conducted and shall there produce the Indentures of Apprenticeship and the Assignments thereof (if any), and a Ticket shall thereupon be granted for each Apprentice, and shall be attached to the Part of Indenture of Apprenticeship retained by the Master, and shall be kept so attached until the Expiration of the Apprenticeship, and shall then be delivered to the Apprentice with his Indenture as aforesaid, under the Penalty aforesaid.

As to cancelling Indentures of Apprenticeship.

VII. No Indenture of Apprenticeship to the Sea Service as aforesaid under this Act shall be cancelled without the Consent of all the Parties thereto, nor without the Consent of the Registrar of Seamen in London or of the Collector or Controller of Customs of the Port in which such Cancellation takes place; and such Consent may be given by the Board of Guardians of the Union concerned, or other Persons having Authority as such, as herein-before is mentioned, for the Time being, to be testified by a Copy of a Minute of such Board of Guardians or Persons, signed by the Clerk of the Union for the Time being.

Justices to determine Complaints between Masters and Apprentices.

VIII. Any Justice of the Peace residing at or near to any Port at which any Ship having on board thereof any Apprentice to the Sea Service under this Act arrives, or at any Port at which the Apprentice and his Master may be, may inquire into, hear, and determine all Claims of any such Apprentice upon his Master under his Indentures, and all Complaints of hard or ill Usage exercised by his Master towards him, or of Misbehaviour on the Part of any such Apprentice, and may proceed thereupon as Justices of the Peace are empowered by Law to do between Masters and Apprentices in other Cases; and if the Master of any Ship do not send on shore, in the Charge of the Mate or some other trustworthy Person, any Apprentice desirous of complaining to a Justice of the Peace, so soon as the Service of the Ship will permit, he shall for every such Default be liable to a Penalty of Ten Pounds.

Certain Provisions of recited Act to apply as herein.

IX. The several Enactments and Provisions in the said recited Act contained for the Protection and Registration of Apprentices, or relating to the granting and cancelling of Registry Tickets, Registry and cancelling of Indentures or Assignments thereof, or to Desertion by Apprentices and Punishment of Offences, the Recovery and Application of Penalties, where not otherwise provided for, and the Recovery of Wages, in case any become due to any Apprentice under this Act, shall apply and extend, or shall be so construed that the same may be extended and applied, to Apprentices bound under this Act by Guardians of the Poor in Ireland, or by other Persons appointed to carry into execution the Provisions of the Acts for the Relief of the destitute Poor in Ireland, and having the Authority of such Guardians in any such Union, in like Manner, mutatis mutandis, as such Enactments and Provisions apply in the Case of Parish Apprentices bound under the Provisions of the said recited Act,

Boys in receipt of Relief, who are desirous of

X. If any Boy, not already an Apprentice in the Merchant Service, who, or whose Parent or Parents, shall be receiving Relief in any Union in Ireland, be desirous of serving in the Naval Service of Her Majesty, and be accepted or approved, and received by competent Authority in such Service, the Guardians [12] Or "our Hands," as the Case may require.

CAP. XXXVI.

An Act to repeal the Duties payable on Dwelling Houses according to the Number of Windows or Lights, and to grant in lieu thereof other Duties on Inhabited Houses according to their annual Value. [24th July 1851.]

48 G. 3. c. 55.

'WHEREAS under and by virtue of an Act of the Forty-eighth Year of King George the Third, Chapter Fifty-five, certain Duties are now payable in England, Wales, and Berwick-upon-Tweed and in Scotland respectively upon Dwelling Houses, and are assessed and levied according to the Number of Windows or Lights therein as set forth in the Schedule marked (A.) to the said Act annexed; and it is expedient that in lieu thereof the Duties on Inhabited Dwelling Houses set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed should be assessed and levied according to the annual Value of such Dwelling Houses:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Duties granted on inhabited Houses as specified in the Schedule annexed, in lieu of Duties hereinafter repealed.

I. From and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, in England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, and from and after the Term of Whitsunday One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one in Scotland, in lieu and instead of the said Duties so payable as aforesaid, and which are herein-after repealed, there shall be assessed, raised, levied, collected, and paid unto and for the Use of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, upon inhabited Dwelling Houses in and throughout Great Britain, the several Duties set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed, payable according to the annual Value of such Dwelling Houses, which said Schedule shall be deemed and taken to be Part of this Act.

Duties granted to be under Care of Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

Powers and Provisions of former Acts to be in force; except as herein provided.

II. The said Duties shall be denominated and deemed to be Duties of Assessed Taxes, and shall be under the Care and Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue for the Time being; and all Powers, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, and Directions, Fines, Forfeitures, Pains, and Penalties, now in force, contained in or enacted by any Act or Acts relating to the Duties of Assessed Taxes, and also all Powers, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Directions, and Exemptions, Fines, Forfeitures, Pains, and Penalties, contained in or enacted by any such Act or Acts as aforesaid, with reference to the Duties on inhabited Dwelling Houses according to the Value thereof, as set forth in the Schedule marked (B.) annexed to the said Act of the Forty-eighth Year of King George the Third, and which were in force in regard to the said last-mentioned Duties at the Time of the Repeal of such Duties by an Act of the Session holden in the Fourth and Fifth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Nineteen, except as herein-after excepted, shall severally and respectively be and become in full Force and Effect with respect to the Duties hereby granted, and shall be severally and respectively duly observed, applied, practised, and put in execution in the respective Parts of Great Britain, for assessing, raising, levying, collecting, receiving, accounting for, and securing the said Duties hereby granted, and otherwise in relation thereto, so far as the same are or shall be applicable, and are not repealed or superseded by and are consistent with the express Provisions of this Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Powers, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Directions, and Exemptions, Fines, Forfeitures, Pains, and Penalties, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in this Act with reference to the said Duties hereby granted: Excepting always out of this Enactment any Provisions for or in relation to Compositions for the said Duties set forth in the said Schedule marked (B.), the Exemption in Case II. of Exemptions contained in the same Schedule, and all the Provisions of an Act of the Session holden in the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Thirty-nine, and of an Act of the Session holden in the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventeen.

Market Gardens and Nursery Grounds not to be included in Valuation of Houses.

III. Provided always, That no Market Garden or Nursery Ground occupied by a Market Gardener or Nurseryman bonâ fide for the Sale of the Produce thereof, in the Way of his Trade or Business, shall be included in the Valuation of any Dwelling House and Premises in charging the Duties made payable by this Act.

Duties on Windows and Lights to cease on Commencement of the Duties granted by this Act; except those uncollected, and Penalties, &c.

IV. The Duties granted by the said Act of the Forty-eighth Year of King George the Third, and now payable in England, Wales, and Berwick-upon-Tweed and in Scotland respectively, upon Dwelling Houses, according to the Number of Windows or Lights therein, as set forth in the Schedule marked (A.) to the said Act annexed, shall, at and upon the respective Periods appointed for the Commencement of the Duties granted by this Act, severally cease and determine; save and except as to any of the said Duties hereby repealed which, having been assessed or charged, shall not have been collected, levied, recovered, and accounted for, and also as to all Arrears of any of the said Duties, and all Penalties and Forfeitures incurred at or before such respective Periods, all which said Duties and Arrears of Duties, and Penalties and Forfeitures, shall respectively be collected, levied, recovered, paid, and accounted for as if this Act had not been passed.

Persons to be liable to the same Duty for Armorial Bearings as if chargeable to Duties under 48 G. 3. c. 55.

V. 'And whereas a certain Rate of Duty is now payable in respect of Armorial Bearings or Ensigns used or worn by Persons chargeable to the Duties on Houses, Windows, or Lights made payable by the said Act of the Forty-eighth Year of King George the Third:'

All Persons who shall be chargeable to Duty under this Act shall in respect of Armorial Bearings or Ensigns used or worn by them be subject to the same Rate of Duty as they would have been liable to if they had been chargeable to the said Duties made payable by the said Act.

VI. And

VI. 'And whereas Assessors of the Duties of Assessed Taxes have in many Parishes and Places been 'already appointed for the present Year:' The Persons so appointed such Assessors shall, without any further or other Appointment or Authority, become and be Assessors of the Duties granted by this Act for the said Year in and for the same Parishes and Places respectively. Assessors already appointed to be Assessors for the current Year under this Act.

The SCHEDULE referred to;

CONTAINING

The DUTIES by this Act made payable upon INHABITED DWELLING HOUSES in and throughout Great Britain, according to the annual Value thereof; that is to say,

For every Inhabited Dwelling House which, with the Household and other Offices, Yards, and Gardens therewith occupied and charged, is or shall be worth the Rent of Twenty Pounds or upwards, by the Year,—

Where any such Dwelling House shall be occupied by any Person in Trade who shall expose to sale and sell any Goods, Wares, or Merchandise in any Shop or Warehouse, being Part of the same Dwelling House, and in the Front and on the Ground or Basement Story thereof:

And also where any such Dwelling House shall be occupied by any Person who shall be duly licensed by the Laws in force to sell therein by retail Beer, Ale, Wine, or other Liquors, although the Room or Rooms thereof in which any such Liquors shall be exposed to sale, sold, drunk, or consumed shall not be such Shop or Warehouse as aforesaid;

And also where any such Dwelling House shall be a Farmhouse occupied by a Tenant or Farm Servant, and bonâ fide used for the Purposes of Husbandry only,

There shall be charged for every Twenty Shillings of such annual Value of any such Dwelling House, the Sum of Sixpence;

And where any such Dwelling House shall not be occupied and used for any such Purpose and in manner aforesaid there shall be charged for every Twenty Shillings of such annual Value thereof the Sum of Ninepence.

CAP. XXXVII.

An Act to continue certain Turnpike Acts in Great Britain. [24th July 1851.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to continue for limited Times the Acts herein-after specified:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

An Act to facilitate Arrangements for the Relief of Turnpike Trusts, and to make certain Provisions respecting Exemptions from Tolls. [24th July 1851.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to facilitate Arrangements with the Creditors of Turnpike Trusts where the Revenues are insufficient to keep down the Interest on the Debts charged thereon:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Trustees of insolvent Turnpike Trusts, with Consent of Two Thirds in Value of the Creditors, may apply for a Provisional Order for Reduction of Rate of Interest, or Extinguishment of Arrears.

I. Where the Revenues of any Turnpike Road in England applicable to the Payment of the Interest upon the Principal Money for the Time being charged or secured on the Tolls or Revenues of such Road are insufficient for the Payment in full of such Interest, it shall be lawful for the Trustees or Commissioners of such Road, at any General Annual or other Meeting, Notice being given of such Meeting Twenty-one Days at the least before holding the same, and of the Purpose thereof (so far as the same relates to the Powers of this Act), in some Newspaper usually circulated in the County or Counties in which such Road is situate, to resolve that in case such Consents as herein-after mentioned of the Mortgagees be obtained, an Application be made to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for a Provisional Order to reduce the Rate of Interest on the Mortgage Debts charged or secured on the Tolls or Revenues of such Road, to such Amount as may be resolved on at such Meeting, and for extinguishing in whole or in part the Arrears of the Interest on such Debts, or for either of such Purposes; and where any such Resolution as aforesaid is made, such Trustees or Commissioners shall cause Notice to be given, by Advertisement or otherwise, of such Resolution, with such Information in relation to the Matter of the proposed Application, and the Consents required by this Act, as such Trustees or Commissioners may think fit; and in case it appear to such Trustees or Commissioners at any General Annual or other Meeting, that the Persons entitled to Two Thirds of the Money charged or secured on the Tolls or Revenues of such Road, and remaining unpaid, have signified in Writing under their Hands their Consent to the proposed Application, it shall be lawful for such Trustees or Commissioners to make an Application accordingly to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for a Provisional Order for such Reduction as aforesaid of the Rate of Interest on the said Debts, and for extinguishing in whole or in part the Arrears of Interest thereon, or for either of such Purposes; and such Application shall be signed by Three or more of such Trustees or Commissioners, who shall therein certify that the Consents required by this Act to such Application have been given.

Power to Executors, &c. to consent.

II. All Executors, Administrators, Guardians, Trustees, and all Committees of the Estates of Idiots and Lunatics, who, as such, are for the Time being entitled to any Money charged or secured on the Tolls or Revenues of any such Road, may consent to any such Application as aforesaid, as fully as if they respectively were so entitled in their own Right, discharged of all Trusts in respect thereof, and all Executors, Administrators, Guardians, Trustees, and Committees so consenting are hereby severally indemnified for so doing.

Secretary of State may make a Provisional Order, to be binding if confirmed by Parliament.

III. It shall be lawful for such Secretary of State, if he think fit, after Receipt of any such Application as aforesaid, to make a Provisional Order under his Hand in pursuance of such Application; and such Secretary of State shall cause such Provisional Order to be published in such Manner as he may think fit; and in case it be enacted by any Act of Parliament that such Provisional Order shall be confirmed and be absolute, such Provisional Order shall be as binding and of the like Force and Effect as if the Provisions thereof had been expressly enacted by Parliament; and every such Act shall be deemed a Public General Act.

Construction of Terms.

IV. The Words "Implements of Husbandry," in Section Thirty-six of Chapter One hundred and twenty-six of the Statute of the Third Year of King George the Fourth, shall be deemed to include Threshing Machines; and the Word "Constable," in Section One of Chapter Eighty-eight of the Statute of the Third and Fourth Years of Her present Majesty, shall be deemed to include Superintending Constables appointed under the Statute of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Twenty.

CAP. XXXIX.

An Act to exempt Burgesses and Freemen in certain Cases from the Operation of an Act for the better assessing and collecting the Poor Rates and Highway Rates in respect of Small Tenements. [24th July 1851.]

2&3 W. 4. c. 45. s. 32. 'WHEREAS by Section Thirty-two of the Act of the Session of Parliament holden in the Second and Third Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Forty-five, it is provided, that every Person who would have been entitled to vote in the Election of a Member or Members to serve in any future Parliament for any City or Borough not included in the Schedule marked (A.) to that Act annexed,

'annexed, either as a Burgess or Freeman, or, in the City of London, as a Freeman and Liveryman, if 'that Act had not been passed, should be entitled to vote in such Election, provided such Person should 'be duly registered according to the Provisions therein-after contained; but that no Person should be 'so registered in any Year unless he should on the last Day of July in that Year be qualified in such 'Manner as would entitle him then to vote if such Day was the Day of Election, and that Act had not 'been passed: And whereas by Section Thirty-three of the said Act it is provided that any Person then s. 33.
'having a Right to vote in the Election for any City or Borough, except as therein mentioned, in virtue 'of any other Qualification than as a Burgess or Freeman or as a Freeman and Liveryman, or in the 'Case of a City or Town being a County of itself as a Freeholder or Burgage Tenant as therein-before 'mentioned, should retain such Right of voting so long as he should be qualified as an Elector according 'to the Usage and Custom of such City or Borough, or any Law then in force subject as in the said Act 'mentioned; And whereas it is expedient to amend the Act of the last Session of Parliament, Chapter 13 & 14 Vict.
'Ninety-nine, so far as it may affect the Rights reserved by the said several Sections of the said Act of c. 99.
'the Second and Third Years of King William the Fourth:' Be it enacted, therefore, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Right of voting reserved by recited Provisions of 2 & 3 W. 4. c. 45. to Persons then entitled not to be affected by the Change of Rating under 13 & 14 Vict. c. 99.

I. Where any Person to whom a Right of voting was retained or reserved by the recited Provisions of the said Act of the Second and Third Years of King William the Fourth is or shall be the Occupier of any such Tenement as in the said Act of the last Session of Parliament mentioned, and the Owner of such Tenement has been or shall be rated to the Relief of the Poor instead of the Occupier thereof, and such Owner shall have paid all Money due on account of any Rate or Rates in respect of such Tenement, or such Occupier shall have tendered the Amount thereof in the Manner prescribed by such Act, such Occupier shall be entitled, not only to the Municipal Privileges and Franchises reserved to him by such Act, but also to all such Right of voting at Elections of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament for any City or Borough, and all other Rights and Privileges, as such Occupier would have been entitled to under the recited Provisions of the said Act of the Second and Third Years of King William the Fourth, and the other Provisions of such Act, and any Acts amending the same, relating to the Right of voting so retained or reserved, if such Occupier had been himself rated in respect of such Tenement, and had duly paid or tendered the Rate or Rates to which he was liable in consequence of such Rating.

Construction of the Words "Tenement," and "Rates for the Relief of the Poor."

II. That the Word "Tenement" in the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament shall be construed to mean any House, Cottage, Apartment, or Building, and Land in the same Parish held with the same or any of them, but shall not include any other Land or corporeal Hereditament.

III. That the Words "Rates for the Relief of the Poor" in the said recited Act of last Session of Parliament shall be construed to mean Rates for the Relief of the Poor and for other Purposes chargeable thereon according to Law; and that the Owners of any Tenements who shall be liable to be rated in respect of such Tenements to any such Rate by virtue of the same Act shall also be liable to be rated to any Rate or Rates authorized to be assessed and levied by the Second Section of the Act of the Session of Parliament holden in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Sixty-five.

CAP. XL.

An Act for Marriages in India. [24th July 1851.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Law of Marriages in India: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Marriage of Christians in India under this Act.

Notice of intended Marriage to be given to the Marriage Registrar for the District.

I. In every Case of Marriage intended to be solemnized in India after the Commencement of this Act, where One or both of the Parties is or are a Person or Persons professing the Christian Religion, such Marriage may be solemnized under the Provisions of this Act; and where such Marriage is intended to be so solemnized, One of the Parties shall give Notice in Writing to the Marriage Registrar to be appointed under the Provisions of this Act for the District within which the Parties shall have dwelt for such Period then next preceding as by such Laws or Regulations as herein-after mentioned may be required, or, if the Parties dwell in the Districts of different Marriage Registrars, shall give the like Notice to the Marriage Registrar for each District; and every such Notice shall be in such Form and contain such Particulars as may be prescribed by such Laws or Regulations, and shall be open for Inspection and published as by such Laws or Regulations may be provided.

Certificate of Notice to be issued on Request.

Proviso.

II. The Marriage Registrar, upon being requested so to do by or on behalf of the Party by whom the Notice was given, and One of the Parties intending Marriage having made Oath or Declaration as herein-after required, shall issue under his Hand a Certificate of such Notice having been given, and of such Oath or Declaration having been made; provided no lawful Impediment according to the Law of England be shown to the Satisfaction of the Marriage Registrar why such Certificate should not issue, and the Issue of such Certificate have not been sooner forbidden, in manner herein-after mentioned, by any Person or Persons by this Act authorized in that Behalf: Provided always, that where by such Oath or Declaration it appears that One of the Parties intending Marriage (not being a Widower or Widow) is under Twenty-one Years of Age, the Marriage Registrar shall not issue such Certificate until the Expiration of such Period after the giving of such Notice as may be in this Behalf provided by such Laws or Regulations as herein-after mentioned.

Who to give Consent if Parties under Age.

III. The Father, if living, of any Party under Twenty-one Years of Age, such Party not being a Widower or Widow, or, if the Father be dead, the Guardian or Guardians of the Person of the Party so under Age lawfully appointed, or One of them, and in case there be no such Guardian, then the Mother of such Party, if unmarried, shall have Authority to give Consent to the Marriage of such Party; and such Consent is hereby required for the Marriage of such Party so under Age, unless there be no Person authorized to give such Consent resident in India.

Issue of Registrar's Certificate may be forbidden.

IV. Every Person whose Consent to a Marriage is required as aforesaid is hereby authorized to forbid, in such Manner as may be provided by such Laws or Regulations as herein-after mentioned, the Issue of the Marriage Registrar's Certificate; and in case the Issue of any such Certificate be so forbidden the Notice and all Proceedings thereupon shall be utterly void: Provided always, that (subject to such Laws and Regulations) if either of the Parties intending Marriage allege that the Person forbidding the Issue of such Certificate is not authorized by Law so to do, the Marriage Registrar shall examine into such Allegation, and if he be satisfied that such Person is not authorized as aforesaid shall act in like Manner, and the like Proceedings may be had under this Act in relation to such Marriage, as if the Issue of such Certificate had not been forbidden by such Person.

Supreme Court or Judge of the Zillah or District may relieve where Consent improperly withheld.

V. If any Person whose Consent is necessary to any Marriage under this Act shall be non compos mentis, or if any such Person (other than the Father) shall, without just Cause, withhold his or her Consent to a Marriage, the Parties intending Marriage may apply by Petition, where the Person whose Consent is necessary is resident within any of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, to the Supreme Court of Judicature established by Royal Charter in the Presidency or Place in which such Person is resident, or if such Person be not resident within any of the said Towns, then to the Judge of the Zillah or like District within which such Person is resident, or to such other Person as may for this Purpose be appointed under the Laws or Regulations herein-after mentioned; and the said Supreme Court or any Judge thereof, or such Judge of the Zillah or District, or such other Person, shall be empowered to examine the Allegations of the Petition in a summary Way; and if upon such Examination such Marriage appear proper, such Supreme Court or any Judge thereof, or such Judge of the Zillah or District, or such other Person, shall declare the same to be so, and such Declaration shall be as good and effectual as if the Person whose Consent was needed had consented to the Marriage; and in case such Person has forbidden the Issue of the Marriage Registrar's Certificate, such Certificate shall be issued, and the like Proceedings may be had under this Act in relation to the Marriage, as if the Issue of such Certificate had not been forbidden by such Person, anything herein-before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Oath or Declaration to be made before Issue of Certificate.

VI. Before any such Certificate as aforesaid shall be issued by any Marriage Registrar, One of the Parties intending Marriage shall appear personally before such Marriage Registrar, and shall make Oath, or shall make his or her solemn Declaration instead of an Oath, that he or she believeth that there is not any Impediment of Kindred or Affinity or other lawful Hindrance to the said Marriage, and that both the Parties to the intended Marriage have, or (where the Parties have dwelt in the Districts of different Marriage Registrars) that the Party making such Oath or Declaration hath, for the Period required by such Laws or Regulations as are herein-after mentioned, had their, his, or her usual Place of Abode within the District of such Marriage Registrar, and where either or each of the Parties, not being a Widower or Widow, is under the Age of Twenty-one Years, that the Consent of the Person or Persons whose Consent to such Marriage is required by Law has been obtained thereto, or that there is no Person resident within the Territories under the Government of the East India Company having Authority to give such Consent, as the Case may be: Provided always, that where under the foregoing Provision the said Supreme Court or a Judge thereof, or such Judge of the Zillah or like District, or such other Person as aforesaid, declares the Marriage to be proper, it shall not be necessary to make Oath or declare that such Consent has been obtained to such Marriage.

Protest against Issue of Certificate may be entered.

VII. Any Person may, in manner provided by such Laws or Regulations, enter a Protest with the Marriage Registrar against the Issue of a Certificate for the Marriage of any Person named therein; and if any Protest be so entered, no Certificate shall issue until the Marriage Registrar shall have examined into the Matter of the Protest, and is satisfied that it ought not to obstruct the Issue of the Certificate for the said Marriage, or until the Protest be withdrawn by the Party who entered the same.

Appeal where Registrar refuses Certificate.

VIII. In all Cases whatsoever where the Marriage Registrar has refused such Certificate as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for either of the Parties intending Marriage to apply by Petition, where the District of such Registrar is within any of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, to the Supreme Court of Judicature established by Royal Charter in the Presidency or Place within which such District is comprised, or if such District be not within any of the said Towns then to the Judge of the Zillah or like District within which the same is comprised, or to such other Person as may for this Purpose be appointed by the Laws or Regulations herein-after mentioned; and the said Supreme Court or any Judge thereof, or such Judge of the Zillah or like District, or such other Person, shall be empowered to examine the Allegations of the Petition in a summary Way, and shall decide thereon; and the Decision of such Supreme Court or a Judge thereof, or of such Judge of the Zillah or like District, or of such other Person, shall be final, and the Marriage Registrar to whom the Application was originally made shall proceed in accordance therewith, anything herein-before contained notwithstanding.

After Issue of Certificate, Marriage may

IX. After the Issue of the Certificate of the Marriage Registrar, or, where Notice is required to be given under this Act to the Marriage Registrars for different Districts, after the Issue of the Certificates of the Marriage Registrars for such Districts, Marriage may be solemnized between and by the Parties described described in such Certificate or Certificates, according to such Form and Ceremony as they may see fit to adopt; provided nevertheless, that every such Marriage shall be solemnized between such Hours as shall be fixed by the Laws or Regulations herein-after mentioned, in the Presence of some Marriage Registrar, to whom shall be delivered such Certificate or Certificates as aforesaid, and of Two or more Witnesses; provided also, that in some Part of the Ceremony each of the Parties shall declare, be solemnized in the Presence of Marriage Registrar and Two Witnesses

'I do solemnly declare, That I know not of any lawful Impediment why I, A.B., may not be 'joined in Matrimony to C.D.;' or shall declare to the like Effect.

And each of the Parties shall say to the other,

'I call upon these Persons here present to witness, That I, A.B., do take thee, C.D., to be my 'lawful wedded Wife [or Husband];' or Words to the like Effect.

Provided also, that there be no lawful Impediment to the Marriage of such Parties.

X. Whenever a Marriage is not had within Three Calendar Months after the Notice shall have been so entered by the Marriage Registrar, the Notice and the Certificate which may have been issued thereupon, and all other Proceedings thereupon, shall be utterly void; and no Person shall proceed to solemnize the Marriage, nor shall any Marriage Registrar register the same, until new Notice shall have been given, and Entry made, and Certificate thereof given, at the Time and in the Manner aforesaid.

When Marriage is not had within Three Months after Notice, a new Notice required.

XI. After the Solemnization of any Marriage under this Act the Marriage Registrar present at the Solemnization thereof shall forthwith register such Marriage in duplicate, that is to say, in a Marriage Register Book according to the Form of Schedule to this Act annexed, and also in a Certificate attached to the Marriage Register Book, as a Counterfoil; and the Entry of such Marriage in both the Certificate and the Marriage Register Book shall be signed by the Person by or before whom the Marriage has been solemnized, if there be any such Person, and by the Marriage Registrar present at such Marriage, whether or not the Marriage is solemnized by him, and also by the Parties married, and attested by Two Witnesses; and every such Entry shall be made in Order from the Beginning to the End of the Book, and the Number of the Certificate shall correspond with that of the Entry in the Marriage Register Book.

Marriages to be registered.

XII. The Marriage Registrar shall forthwith separate the Certificate from the Marriage Register Book, and transmit it, at the End of every Month, to the Secretary to the Government of the Presidency or Place within which he resides, or to such other Officer as may for this Purpose be appointed under the Laws or Regulations herein-after mentioned; and if no Marriage have been registered during such Month, the Marriage Registrar shall certify such Fact under his Hand, and such Certificate shall be transmitted as aforesaid; and the Marriage Registrar shall keep safely the said Register Book until it be filled, and shall then transmit the same to the Secretary to the Government, or to such other Officer as aforesaid, to be kept by him with the Records of his Office; provided that with regard to those Marriages so certified, of which it may appear to the Governor General in Council desirable that Evidence should be transmitted to England, the Secretary to the Government, or such other Officer as aforesaid, shall, at the End of every Three Calendar Months in each Year, send all the Certificates of Marriage sent to him as aforesaid during such Three Months, signed by him, to the Secretary of the East India Company, for the Purpose of being delivered to the Registrar General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England.

Certificates of Marriages to be transmitted periodically to the Secretary of the Government, &c.

XIII. After any Marriage has been solemnized under this Act, it shall not be necessary, in support of such Marriage, to give any Proof in respect of the Dwelling of the Parties, or of the Consent of any Person whose Consent thereunto is required by Law, nor shall any Evidence be given to prove the contrary, in any Suit touching the Validity of such Marriage.

Proof of Residence or Consent not necessary to establish Marriage.

XIV. It shall be lawful for the Marriage Registrar before whom any Marriage is solemnized according to the Provisions of this Act to ask of the Parties to be married the several Particulars required to be registered touching such Marriage.

Registrar may ask certain Particulars of Parties.

XV. Every Person who shall enter a Protest with the Marriage Registrar, against the Issue of any Certificate on Grounds which such Marriage Registrar, or the Supreme Court of the Presidency or Place, or any Judge thereof, or the Judge of the Zillah or like District, or other Person, to whom upon the Refusal of such Certificate an Application is authorized by this Act, declares to be frivolous, and such as ought not to obstruct the Issue of the Certificate, shall be liable for the Costs of all Proceedings in relation thereto, and for Damages, to be recovered by Suit by the Party against whose Marriage such Protest was entered.

Persons vexatiously entering Protests liable to Costs and Dam ges.

XVI. Every Person who shall knowingly and wilfully make any false Oath or false Declaration, or sign any false Notice or Certificate, required by this Act, or by any such Laws or Regulations as herein-after mentioned, for the Purpose of procuring any Marriage, and every Person who shall forbid the Issue of any Marriage Registrar's Certificate by falsely representing himself or herself to be a Person whose Consent to such Marriage is required by Law, knowing such Representation to be false, shall, on Conviction, be liable to be punished in such Manner as by such Laws or Regulations may be provided.

Punishment of Persons making false Oath or Declaration.

XVII. Every Prosecution under this Act shall be commenced within such Time after the Offence committed as by such Laws or Regulations may be provided.

Limitation of Prosecution.

XVIII. The Government of each Presidency or Place in India may appoint Marriage Registrars for the Purposes of this Act, and may assign Districts to the Registrars so to be appointed; and in respect of Government of each Presidency may appoint Marriage Registrars, &c.

of any Places within the Territories of any Native Prince or State in alliance with the East India Company, the Governor General of India in Council may appoint such Marriage Registrars and assign to them Districts.

Government of each Presidency may appoint Fees to be taken under this Act, &c.

XIX. The Government of each such Presidency and Place may from Time to Time appoint reasonable Fees to be taken of the Parties intending Marriage, for receiving and publishing Notices of Marriage, and for issuing Certificates, entering Protests, and registering Marriages under this Act; and all such Fees shall be accounted for and paid over by the Marriage Registrars to the Government Treasury, and the Government shall provide all necessary Books and Papers for giving Effect to the Provisions of this Act.

Governor General in Council empowered to make Laws and Regulations for the Purposes of this Act.

XX. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council from Time to Time, by Laws and Regulations (not inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act) to be made in the Manner and subject to the Provisions by Law required in respect of Laws and Regulations made by the said Governor General in Council, to provide for the Inspection and Publication of Notices of Marriage given under this Act, for the Custody and Protection from Injury of Marriage Register Books, for Appeals from and References in Cases of Doubt by the Marriage Registrars in relation to Marriages forbidden or Protests entered under this Act, for fixing the Hours between which Marriages may be solemnized under this Act, for appointing the Officers to whom Certificates are to be transmitted by the Marriage Registrars, and generally for giving Effect to the Provisions of this Act.

Marriages may continue to be solemnized as heretofore.

XXI. Nothing herein contained shall invalidate or affect any Marriage which may be solemnized in India by Persons in Holy Orders, or any Marriages which may be solemnized under the Provisions of the Act of the Fifty-eighth Year of King George the Third, Chapter Eighty-four, or any other Marriages which under the Laws for the Time being in force in India might have been there solemnized in case this Act had not been passed: Provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council, from Time to Time by Laws and Regulations to be made as aforesaid, to provide for the Registration of any Marriages solemnized in India by Persons in Holy Orders, or of any Marriages there solemnized under the Provisions of the said Act of the Fifty-eighth Year of King George the Third, Chapter Eighty-four, or of any other Marriages there solemnized, of which it may appear to the said Governor General in Council desirable that Evidence should be transmitted to England, and to provide for the Care and Custody of the Registers of such Marriages, and for the Transmission of Certificates thereof to the Secretaries of the Governments of the respective Presidencies, or to other Officers, and for their sending the same to the Secretary of the East India Company, for the Purpose of being delivered to the Registrar General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England, and also to provide for the Authentication of such Certificates.

Power to Governor General in Council to make Laws for the Registration of Marriages not solemnized under this Act.

Certificates delivered to Registrar General under this Act, or under any Laws or Regulations made thereunder, to be subject to the Provisions of 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 86.

XXII. The Certificates which shall be delivered to the Registrar General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England, under this Act, or under any Laws or Regulations to be made thereunder, shall be kept in the General Register Office, in the same Manner, and Indexes thereof shall be made and Searches permitted, and Copies thereof, sealed or stamped with the Seal of the General Register Office, shall be given, in the like Manner as by the Act of the Session holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-six, is provided concerning the certified Copies (kept in such Office under the said Act) of the Registers of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England; and every certified Copy, purporting to be sealed or stamped with the Seal of the said General Register Office, of any such Certificate delivered to the said Registrar General under this Act, or under such Laws or Regulations, shall be received as Evidence of the Marriage to which the same relates, without further Proof of such Certificate, or of any Entry therein.

Marriages under Act valid.

XXIII. All Marriages solemnized under this Act shall be good and valid in Law to all Intents and Purposes.

Certain Marriages in India confirmed.

XXIV. 'And whereas it is expedient to remove all Doubt concerning the Validity of Marriages 'heretofore solemnized in India by Persons not in Holy Orders:' All such Marriages, if not otherwise invalid, shall be deemed and held to be valid in Law to all Intents and Purposes.

Interpretation of "India."

XXV. In the Construction of this Act the Word "India" shall include all Territories for the Time being under the Government of the East India Company, and all Territories of any Native Princes or States in alliance with the said Company.

Commencement of Act.

XXVI. This Act shall, so far as respects the Authority to make such Appointments, Laws, and Regulations as are herein authorized to be made, commence and take effect from and after the passing thereof, and as to all other Matters and Things commence and take effect from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, or such other Day as the Governor General of India shall direct.

Publication of Act.

XXVII. The Governor General of India, and the Governors of the several Presidencies in India, shall cause this Act to be published Three Times in each of the Government Gazettes of the several Presidencies, the first of such Publications to be made within Six Weeks after this Act shall have been received in such respective Presidencies.

of their Successors, to be from Time to Time appointed as therein mentioned: And whereas by an Act of the Session of Parliament holden in the Second and Third Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter One, it was enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, from Time to Time, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal, to appoint, in the Place of the Commissioners of Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and of the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, any Persons, not exceeding Three in Number, to be Commissioners for performing the Duties and exercising the Powers then performed and exerciseable by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and the Duties and Powers then performed and exerciseable by the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Works and Public Buildings; the Persons so appointed to be called "The Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings:" And whereas under and by virtue of another Act of the same Session, Chapter One hundred and twelve, and an Act of the Session holden in the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-nine, the Land Revenues of the Crown in Scotland (except as by the said Acts excepted) were placed under the Management of the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings: And whereas the Powers of such Commissioners in relation to the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown have been altered and extended by other Acts of Parliament: And whereas by the several Acts mentioned in the Schedule to this Act certain Duties and Powers have been imposed on and vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, for and in relation to the Improvement of the Metropolis, and the other Purposes in such Acts mentioned: And whereas it is expedient that the Direction of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, and such of the Duties imposed on the said Commissioners appointed under the said Act of the Second and Third Years of King William the Fourth as do not concern the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, should be separated from the Management of such Possessions and Land Revenues:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

2 & 3 W. 4. c. 112.
3 & 4 W. 4. c. 69.

Style of First Commissioner of Works, &c. and Commissioners of Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues.

I. From and after the Commencement of this Act the Person who may then be the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings shall be First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings under this Act, and the Persons who at the Time of the Commencement of this Act may be Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, except such First Commissioner, shall be Commissioners under this Act, by the Style of "The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues," and the Persons so to become respectively on the passing of this Act First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, and Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, shall continue to hold their respective Offices during Her Majesty's Pleasure, and no longer, and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, upon the Death of such Persons respectively, or on their Resignation or Removal of or from such respective Offices, and from Time to Time thereafter, by Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual, to appoint some other Persons to such respective Offices during Her Majesty's Pleasure.

Commissioners of Woods, &c. under this Act to perform the Duties of the present Commissioners of Woods, &c., except as otherwise provided by this Act.

II. Except as otherwise herein provided, all Duties and Powers which if this Act had not been passed would have been performed and exercised, and all Rights, Privileges, Hereditaments, Properties, and Exemptions whatsoever enjoyed by or vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, or the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being, shall be performed and exercised, enjoyed or vested, by and in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues for the Time being under this Act; and, except as otherwise provided by this Act, all Acts of Parliament, Deeds, Bonds, Contracts, Agreements, and other Instruments in which the Commissioners or First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, or the Commissioners or First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, are or is named or mentioned, shall apply to the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues under this Act, as if such last-mentioned Commissioners had been originally named or mentioned in such Acts of Parliament, and named or mentioned in or made Parties to such Deeds, Bonds, Contracts, Agreements, and other Instruments respectively, instead of the Commissioners or Commissioner named or mentioned therein, or made Parties or Party thereto.

Powers of borrowing on Mortgage under 4 & 5 Vict. c. 40. and 7 & 8 Vict. c. 1. to be vested in Commissioners under this Act, and to be exercised only for discharging existing Charges.

III. All such Powers of borrowing Money on Mortgage and other Powers as are vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings by the Act of the Session of Parliament holden in the Fourth and Fifth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Forty, and the Act of the Session of Parliament holden in the Seventh and Eighth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One, shall be vested in and may be exercised by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues under this Act, with such Consent and Approbation and in such Manner as by the said Acts provided in relation to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings; and for the Purposes of such Acts the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall be a Corporation, in the Place of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings: Provided always, that so much of the said Acts as relates to the Purposes for which Money is to be borrowed under the said Acts, and the Application thereof, shall be repealed, and such Money shall and may be borrowed under the said Acts as amended by this Act for the Purpose of discharging any Mortgage Debt or Charge for the Time being affecting the Land Revenues of the Crown, and for no other Purpose, and such Money shall be applied accordingly: Provided also, that the Receipts in Writing of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall be sufficient Discharges for any Money so borrowed to the Persons or Bodies advancing the same, and such Persons or Bodies shall not be bound to see to the Application thereof.

Salaries of Commissioners of Woods, &c.

IV. So much of the said Acts of the Tenth Year of King George the Fourth and of the Second and Third Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter One, as relates to the Salary of the First Commissioner, and so much of the said Acts as makes the Salaries of the Commissioners of Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues chargeable on the annual Income thereof, shall be repealed, and the Salaries of such Commissioners, and of the Officers, Clerks, and Messengers in the Office of the Commissioners of Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, shall be defrayed out of such Monies as shall be from Time to Time provided by Parliament.

Treasury may assign separate Duties to each Commissioner.

V. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from Time to Time, as they may see fit, by Order under their Hands, to assign to each of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues the Management or Direction of or in relation to any separate Part or Parts of the Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues under the Management of such Commissioners, and to assign to each of such Commissioners any of the Duties or Powers which but for such Assignment should or might be performed or exercised by such Commissioners jointly, and all Acts in relation to the Management or Direction, Duties or Powers, assigned as aforesaid to each of such Commissioners, may be done by the Commissioner to whom the same is or are assigned, and shall be as valid and effectual as if done by both such Commissioners; and neither of such Commissioners shall be responsible in respect of the Acts done by the other of them alone under this Provision, but each shall be responsible for his own Acts; and no Person, or Body Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, claiming under any Deed or Instrument made or purporting to be made by One of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, under the Authority of this Act, and duly enrolled, shall be bound to inquire whether such Commissioner was authorized by any such Order as aforesaid or otherwise to make the same, but every Deed or Instrument which purports to be made by One of such Commissioners under the Authority of this Act shall, after the same has been duly enrolled, be good, valid, and effectual as against Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, for the Purposes for which the same has been executed.

Deeds to be enrolled.

VI. So much of the firstly-recited Act of the Second and Third Years of King William the Fourth, or of any other Act of Parliament, as provides that in Cases of Sales of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, where the Purchase Money shall not amount to the Sum of One hundred Pounds, it shall not be necessary to enrol the Conveyances by which such Sales shall be carried into effect, shall be repealed; and all Deeds or Instruments whereby any Estates, Manors, Lordships, Messuages, Lands,

Tenements, or Hereditaments, in England or Wales, shall be hereafter purchased, sold, leased, charged, or exchanged, under the Authority of this Act, or of any Act now in force relating to the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, shall, without reference to the Amount of the Purchase Money or other Consideration for the same, be enrolled in the Office of Land Revenue Records or Enrolments within the same Time and subject to the same Regulations and Provisions in all respects as by the said Acts or any of them is required or provided with respect to such Deeds or Instruments in Cases where the Purchase Money or other Consideration for the same amounts to or exceeds the Sum of One hundred Pounds: Provided nevertheless, that in all or any Cases in which the Purchase Money or other Consideration shall not amount in Value to the Sum of One hundred Pounds it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to direct by whom the Fees payable for the Enrolment of any such Deeds or Instruments as aforesaid shall be paid; and in all Cases in which the Purchase or other Consideration shall not amount in Value to the Sum of One hundred Pounds, the Deposit in the said Office, and the filing by the Keeper of the Records and Enrolments, of a Duplicate of the Deed or Instrument (either wholly written, or partly written and partly printed,) shall be deemed a sufficient and complete Enrolment.

Officers in Office of Woods, &c. to continue.

As to Appointment and Removal of Officers in future.

VII. Subject to the Powers herein given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury in relation to such Officers, the Officers who at the Commencement of this Act are in the Department or under the Control and Direction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings shall be in the Department or under the Control and Direction of and shall be removable by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues; and all Officers hereafter to be appointed for such Department shall be appointed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and may be removed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues.

Treasury may abolish any Offices in the Department of Woods, &c.

VIII. Provided always, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury at any Time to abolish or reduce any Office or Offices in the Department or under the Control and Direction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, or of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues under this Act, or any Office or Offices connected with the Management of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, or the Collection and Receipt of the Income thereof, which to the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may appear useless, and to make such Compensation as they may deem reasonable to the Holders of any Offices to be abolished or reduced, or to make any Arrangement in relation to any Office, or the Performance of the Duties thereof, which may appear to them expedient, reference being always had in respect to the Grant of such Compensation to the Provisions and Enactments of the Act 4 & 5 William 4th, Cap. 24., in so far as relates to the Rates of Grants and Periods of Service.

Monies in Banks, and Stock, to be transferred to new Commissioners of Woods, &c.

IX. Except as otherwise provided by this Act, and subject to the Powers vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury under this Act, all Monies which at the Time of the Commencement of this Act shall be in the Bank of England, in the Bank of Ireland, in the Royal Bank of Scotland, or in any other Bank, placed to the Credit of any Account or Accounts under the Control of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, shall forthwith be transferred, and the Governors and Managers of such Banks respectively are hereby authorized and required to transfer the same Monies respectively, to the Credit of a like Account under the Control of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues; and all Government Annuities, Stocks, Funds, and Securities which at the Time aforesaid shall be standing in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, in the Names of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, shall forthwith be transferred, and the Governor and Company of the Bank of England are hereby required and authorized to transfer the same, into the Names of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues.

Commissioners of Woods, &c. not to sit in the House of Commons.

X. 'And whereas by the said Act of the Second and Third Years of King William the Fourth it is 'enacted, that any One of the Commissioners of Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for 'the Time being, and no more, shall be capable of sitting and voting as a Member of the House of Commons;'

The said recited Enactment shall be repealed; and neither of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues for the Time being under this Act shall be capable of being elected or of sitting or voting as a Member of the House of Commons.

Power to place Woods, &c. under Management of Surveyor General.

XI. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty at any Time hereafter, by and with the Advice of Her Privy Council, in case Her Majesty so think fit, to order that Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall be under the Management of a Surveyor General, as herein provided.

Power to appoint Surveyor General.

XII. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from Time to Time, after the making of such Order, by Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual, to appoint a Person to be during Her Majesty's Pleasure "The "Surveyor General of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues;" and there shall be paid to such Surveyor General for the Time being such Salary not exceeding One thousand five hundred Pounds per Annum, as shall be from Time to Time appointed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Surveyor General to have all the Duties and Powers of the Commissioners of Woods, &c.

XIII. From and after the First Appointment of the Surveyor General of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues as aforesaid, the Appointment of Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall cease; and all Duties, Powers, Rights, Privileges, Hereditaments, Properties, and Exemptions whatsoever which if such Appointment of a Surveyor General had not been made would or might have been performed, exercised, or enjoyed by or vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues for the Time being, shall be performed, exercised, and enjoyed by and vested in the said Surveyor General for the Time being; and all Acts of Parliament, Deeds, Bonds, Contracts, Agreements, and other Instruments in which the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods,

Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues are named or mentioned, or which under the Provisions of this Act are applicable to such Commissioners, shall apply to such Surveyor General for the Time being, in like Manner as they would have been applicable to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues under this Act, and in the Stead of such Commissioners.

A professional Land Surveyor may be appointed as an Itinerant Surveyor.

XIV. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, after the Appointment of such Surveyor General as aforesaid, to appoint a Person, being by Education and Profession a Land Surveyor, to be an Itinerant Surveyor of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, and to assign to such Itinerant Surveyor such Duties and Powers, to be exercised under the Control and Direction of the Surveyor General, in relation to the Management of the said Possessions and Land Revenues, as such Commissioners may think fit; and such Salary shall be paid to such Itinerant Surveyor as may be from Time to Time appointed by the said Commissioners, and he shall be removable from such Office by the said Commissioners if they see fit.

Appointment of ex-officio Commissioners of Works and Public Buildings.

XV. Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the Time being, and the President and Vice President for the Time being of the Committee of Council appointed for the Consideration of Matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations, shall by virtue of their respective Offices be Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings in conjunction with the Person who for the Time being shall be First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings under this Act, and shall with such Person be styled "The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings."

Appointment of Architects, Surveyors, &c.

XVI. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, from Time to Time, with the Approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to appoint or employ such Architects, Surveyors, and other Officers of a similar Character, as the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings may deem necessary; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to appoint a Secretary, and such Clerks, Messengers, and Officers (except such Officers as aforesaid) as they may deem necessary for the Business of the said Department; and the Officers for the Time being of the said Department, or any of them, may be removed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Public Works and Buildings.

Salaries.

XVII. There shall be paid to the First Commissioner of "Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings" such Salary, not exceeding Two thousand Pounds per Annum, and to the said Secretary, Clerks, Messengers, and Officers such Salaries as shall be from Time to Time appointed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury; but no Commissioner of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, other than such First Commissioner, shall have any Salary for acting in the Execution of this Act.

Treasury may transfer the Officers from the Office of Woods, &c. to the Office of the Commissioners of Works, &c.

XVIII. Provided always, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to direct that all or any of the Surveyors, Clerks, or Officers employed at the Commencement of this Act by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, wholly or in part, in relation to the Duties to be performed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, be transferred to and employed by such last-mentioned Commissioners: Provided also, that such Transfer, or the Employment or Appointment to Office under the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, of any Person now employed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, shall be deemed to be a continuing Employment, and shall not prejudice any Claims which such Person might have been held to possess in respect of Continuity or Length of public Service if no such Transfer or Appointment had been made.

Salaries of Officers transferred.

XIX. The Salaries of the Surveyors, Clerks, and Officers transferred as aforesaid, and all Charges in relation thereto, shall cease to be chargeable on the annual Income of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, and shall be paid as herein provided concerning the other Expenses of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings.

First Commissioner of Works may sit in the House of Commons.

XX. The First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings for the Time being shall be capable of being elected and of sitting and voting as a Member of the House of Commons; and no Person who shall first be appointed or become such First Commissioner upon the Commencement of this Act, and shall be at the Time of such Commencement First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, having at the Time of such Appointment a Seat in the Commons House of Parliament, shall, by reason of such Appointment, thereby vacate his Seat in Parliament.

Commissioners of Works, &c. to perform the Duties formerly performed by Surveyor General.

XXI. After the Commencement of this Act all the Duties and Powers which would have been performed and exercised by the Surveyor General of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings if the said Act of the said Second and Third Years of King William the Fourth had not been passed, and the Exemptions and Privileges which would have been enjoyed by the said Surveyor General if such Act had not been passed, so far as such Duties and Powers, Exemptions and Privileges, are not inconsistent with the Enactments of this Act, shall be performed, exercised, and enjoyed by such Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings for the Time being; and all Acts of Parliament, Deeds, and other Instruments, in which the Surveyor General of Works and Public Buildings is mentioned, so far as the said Deeds and Instruments are now in force, and so far as the Enactments of the said Acts are not inconsistent with the Enactments of this Act, shall apply to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings for the Time being, as if such Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings had been originally named or mentioned in such Acts of Parliament, or named or mentioned in or made Parties to such Deeds and Instruments respectively, instead of such Surveyor General.

Duties of Commissioners of Woods, &c. in

XXII. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings for the Time being shall perform and exercise the Duties and Powers of Management and all other Duties and Powers which if this relation to Royal Parks, &c., and under the Acts in Schedule, vested in Commissioners of Works.

this Act had not been passed would have been performed and exercised by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings of and in relation to the Royal Parks, Gardens, and Possessions herein-after mentioned; (that is to say,)

Saint James's, Hyde, and Green Parks,
Kensington Gardens,
Chelsea Gardens,
The Treasury Garden,

Hampton Court Gardens, Green, and Road,
Hampton Court Park,
Richmond Park and Green,
Bushy Park,
The Phœnix Park, and Holyrood Park;

And the Commissioners or First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings for the Time being shall also perform and exercise all the Duties and Powers under the several Acts mentioned in the Schedule to this Act which would have been performed and exercised by the Commissioners or First Commissioner for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings if this Act had not been passed, except as herein-after provided; and all such Acts shall, except as herein-after provided, be construed to apply to the Commissioners or First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings for the Time being, as if such Commissioners or First Commissioner had been originally named or mentioned therein instead of the Commissioners or First Commissioner of Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or of Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings (as the Case may be); and every such Act whereby the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings have been constituted a Corporation for the Purposes of such Act shall after the Commencement of this Act be read and construed as if the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings had been thereby incorporated by the Name of "The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings," and the perpetual Succession, Use of Common Seal, and other Rights and Privileges and Powers whatsoever, thereby given to or vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, shall be deemed and construed to have been thereby given to and vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings.

Powers as to Parts of the Parks preserved to Commissioners of Woods, &c. under this Act.

XXIII. Provided always, That all such Houses, Gardens, and Portions of Ground within any of the Royal Parks herein-before mentioned as are now leased or agreed to be leased shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues; and all the Powers of leasing such Parts of Victoria Park and Regent's Park respectively as if this Act had not been passed might from Time to Time be leased by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, and all Powers in relation to the Parts so to be leased which would have been vested in or might have been exercised by such last-mentioned Commissioners, shall be vested in and may be exercised by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues.

Certain ex-officio Commissionerships vested in First Commissioner of Works.

XXIV. After the Commencement of this Act the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings for the Time being shall come in the Place and be the Successor of the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings as an Inclosure Commissioner for England and Wales, a Commissioner of Greenwich Hospital, a Commissioner for carrying into execution the Acts relating to Highland Roads and Bridges, One of Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new Churches, and a Member and the President of the General Board of Health.

Salaries and Expenses of the Department of Works, &c. to be provided for by Parliament.

XXV. The Salaries of the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, and the Salaries, Superannuations, and Retired Allowances of the Officers in the Department of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, and the incidental Expenses of such Department, and all the Expenses to be incurred by the Commissioners of Public Works, or any of them, in the Performance and Exercise of the Duties and Powers vested in such Commissioners under this Act, save such Expenses as shall be defrayed out of Monies provided by or under the Acts mentioned in the Schedule to this Act, or out of Monies to be transferred to the Credit of or to be payable to or applicable by such Commissioners under the Provisions herein-after contained, shall be defrayed out of such Monies as shall be from Time to Time provided by Parliament; provided always, that the Profits of the Herbage, and like Profits during the natural Life of Her Majesty of the Parks, Gardens, and Possessions placed placed under the Management of such Commissioners by this Act, after Payment thereout of any Tithe Rent charges or other like Charges for the Time being issuing out of or charged on such Parks, Gardens, and Possessions, shall be carried to and form Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom.

Two Commissioners or First Commissioner of Works may act.

XXVI. Anything by this Act authorized to be done by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, and anything which by any future Act may be authorized to be done by such Commissioners, unless express Provision to the contrary be made by such future Act, may be done by any Two of such Commissioners or by the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Works, and Public Buildings.

Property vested in Commissioners of Woods, &c. under Acts in Schedule to vest in Commissioners of Works, &c.

XXVII. All the Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, and Property whatsoever which at the Commencement of this Act shall be vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, in a corporate Capacity or otherwise, and whether so vested in such Commissioners alone or jointly with others, under or for the Purposes of any of the Acts mentioned in the Schedule to this Act, shall upon the Commencement of this Act be vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, and their Successors, in the like corporate Capacity or otherwise, as the Case may require, alone or jointly as aforesaid, for the Estate or Interest and Purposes and subject to the Rights and Equities for and subject to which the same respectively were vested in the Commissioners of Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings.

Monies in Banks, and Stock, to be transferred to Commissioners of Works, &c.

XXVIII. Subject to the Powers vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury under this Act, all Monies which at the Time of the Commencement of this Act shall be in the Bank of England, in the Bank of Ireland, in the Royal Bank of Scotland, or in any other Bank, placed to the Credit of any Account or Accounts under the Control of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, under or for the Purposes of any of the Acts mentioned in the Schedule to this Act, or for the Purposes of any Duties or Powers vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings under this Act, shall forthwith after the Commencement of this Act be transferred, and the Governors and Managers of such Banks respectively are hereby authorized and required to transfer the same Monies respectively, to the Credit of a like Account under the Control of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, and all Monies which would have been payable to or applicable by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, under or for the Purposes of any of such last-mentioned Acts, or for the Purposes of any of the Duties or Powers vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings under this Act, shall be payable to and applicable by such last-mentioned Commissioners; and all Government Annuities, Stocks, Funds, and Securities which at the Time of the Commencement of this Act shall be standing in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, in the Names of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, under or for the Purposes of any of the Acts mentioned in the Schedule to this Act, shall forthwith after the Commencement of this Act be transferred, and the Governor and Company of the Bank of England are hereby required and authorized to transfer the same, to Accounts to be opened in the Name of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings for the like Purposes; and the Order of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Transfer to the Credit or into the Names of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings of any Monies, Annuities, Stocks, Funds, or Securities mentioned in such Order, standing to the Credit or in the Names of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, shall be a sufficient Authority for such Transfer.

Matters done or commenced by former Commissioners not to be prejudiced.

Suits pending to be carried on in the Name of the new Commissioners of Woods.

XXIX. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall annul or prejudice any Sale, Purchase, Exchange, Contract, Mortgage, Security, Charge, or other Act, Matter, or Thing which shall have been made, done, created, entered into, or commenced by, or any Action, Suit, or Proceeding whatsoever which shall have been commenced or instituted by or against the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings; and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, under this Act, for the Purpose of prosecuting or defending and carrying on all Actions, Suits, or Proceedings which shall be pending at the Time of the Commencement of this Act, (and that without the Necessity of substituting the Names of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues in lieu of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, and whether such Actions, Suits, or Proceedings be or be not in relation to Duties or Powers which are to remain within their Cognizance, or may have been commenced or instituted under the Acts mentioned in the Schedule to this Act, or otherwise,) shall come into the Place of and be deemed to be the Successors of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings.

Expenses incurred by new Commissioners in completing Proceedings relating to Duties of Commissioners of Works to be Expenses of such last-named Commissioners.

XXX. Provided also, That where any Action, Suit, or Proceeding instituted or commenced before the Commencement of this Act, by or against the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, in respect of any Duties or Powers vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings under this Act, shall be then pending, and shall be prosecuted, defended, or carried on, by or in the Name of the Attorney General or of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues for the Time being under this Act, all the Expenses incident to such Actions, Suits, and Proceedings, after the Commencement of this Act, shall be deemed Expenses of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, unless the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being shall otherwise direct.

XXXI. Where

Transfer of Contracts in respect of Works.

XXXI. Where any Contract has been entered into by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings in respect of any Duties or Powers vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings under this Act, and such Contract has not been fully performed and completed before the Commencement of this Act, the same may be enforced and shall be performed and completed in like Manner as if the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings had been named therein or made Parties thereto instead of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings; and where any Contract has been entered into as aforesaid, as well in respect of other Duties or Matters as in respect of Duties and Powers vested in the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings under this Act, or where it appears to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury that Doubts may arise whether the Rights and Obligations upon and under any Contract which has been entered into by the said Commissioners of Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings are or are not transferred to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to direct that such Contract may be enforced and shall be performed and completed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may see fit; and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may direct by which Department the Expenses to be incurred in relation to such Contract shall be borne, and may apportion any such Expenses between the respective Departments; and the Benefit and Obligation of such Contract shall be deemed to be vested in Her Majesty or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, (as the Case may be,) according to such Direction, as if the Commissioners by whom the same is directed to be enforced, performed, and completed had been named therein or made Parties thereto instead of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings: Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be taken to prejudice or affect the Prerogative or Rights of Her Majesty, or the Right, Power, or Duty of Her Majesty's Attorney General, to sue or defend, or other Rights, Powers, or Duties of such Attorney General in regard to any Contract, or any Action, Suit or Proceeding, whether such Contract, or such Action, Suit, or Proceeding, shall affect or concern the Department of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or the Department of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings.

Commissioners of Works and Commissioners of Woods, &c. to observe the Directions of the Treasury.

XXXII. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings and Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues respectively shall for the Time being observe, perform, fulfil, and keep all and singular the Orders, Instructions, and Directions, not inconsistent with the Acts for the Time being in force in relation to their respective Offices, which from Time to Time shall be made or given to them by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, touching or concerning the Execution and Discharge of the Duties of such Offices, and for the effectual Division, Distribution, and Arrangement of the Duties and Powers which are to be performed and exercised by such Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings and of Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues respectively.

Regulations at present applicable to Commissioners of Woods, &c. to be observed by the Commissioners of Works, &c. and the Commissioners of Woods, &c.

XXXIII. All Instructions, Orders, and Directions which, in pursuance of and conformably to the Directions of any Act or Acts of Parliament, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have heretofore prepared, and transmitted to the Surveyor General, for the Conduct of the Business of the Office of Works, or for the Regulation or Control of the Expenditure thereof in any of its Branches or Departments, or concerning the Duties of the Office of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, shall be binding upon, observed, and kept by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues respectively, in relation to their respective Departments, in like Manner as the same Instructions, Orders, and Directions respectively are now binding upon and are or ought to be observed and performed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, until such Instructions, Orders, and Directions respectively shall be revoked or varied under the Power herein contained.

Power to the Treasury to transfer Duties vested in Commissioners of Woods, &c. under Local or Personal Acts to Commissioners of Works, &c.
Proviso.

XXXIV. In case it appear to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being that it is expedient that any Duties or Powers which under the Provisions of any Local or Personal Act are vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forest, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, and are under the Provisions of this Act transferred to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, should be transferred to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Order under their Hands, to transfer such Duties or Powers accordingly; and from and after the Time in such Order mentioned, and subject to the Provisions of such Order such Duties or Powers shall be vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings: Provided always, that no such Order shall be made for the Transfer as aforesaid of any Duties or Powers vested under this Act in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues without Her Majesty's Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual for that Purpose obtained.

Powers of the Treasury under 11 & 12 Vict. c. 102. to regulate the Ac-

XXXV. All the Powers and Authorities which under an Act of the Session holden in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and two, mentioned in the Schedule to this Act, are vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, for making from Time to Time Rules and Regulations and General and Special Orders with respect to the Receipt and Payment of Monies by or

or on behalf of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works and Buildings, the Persons to be employed in conducting such Receipts and Payments, and the Manner, Form, and Place in which the Accounts of such Receipts and Payments shall be kept, and with respect to the Payment and Transfer of Monies from and into any general or special, particular or separate Account of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, and with respect to the Form in which such Cheques, or Orders for the Payment of Monies placed to any Account of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings shall be drawn, and with respect to the Appointment of Persons to draw such Cheques or Orders in the Names of such Commissioners, and to countersign such Cheques, shall extend and be applicable and be exercised concerning the like Matters in relation to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings respectively under this Act, in the same Manner as if the Provisions of the said Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty, concerning such Powers and Authorities, were repeated and re-enacted in this Act, and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings respectively were in every Case substituted for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings.

counts of the present Commissioners of Woods, &c. to be applied to the Accounts of the Commissioners under this Act.

XXXVI. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall also have Power to make from Time to Time such further or other Rules and Regulations as they may deem necessary, in relation to the Collection and Receipt of such Land Revenues, and to the Payments thereout to Her Majesty's Exchequer or otherwise, and to appoint such Officer or Officers as shall be required for that Purpose, and for keeping the Accounts of the said Revenues, and for rendering such Accounts by such Officer or Officers to the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, for the Audit of the said Commissioners under the Powers vested in them by Law.

Treasury to make Rules for Collection and Receipt of Land Revenues.

XXXVII. The Commissioners of Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall prepare and transmit to the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, on or before the Thirtieth Day of November in each Year, Abstract Accounts, classed under distinctive Headings, of the Receipt and Expenditure of the Capital and of the Income, derived from the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, and of any other Funds under their Control and Management, in the Year ended the Thirty-first Day of March preceding; and the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts shall examine the said Accounts, and certify their Conformity or otherwise with the Provisions of the Acts of Parliament by which the Receipt and Expenditure of the Funds under the Control and Management of the Commissioners of Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues are regulated, with the like Powers, and under the like Authorities, Regulations, and Restrictions, as those which are in force with respect to the annual Accounts of the Sums granted and expended for Naval and Military Services under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Tenth Year of Her present Majesty Victoria, intituled An Act to provide for the Preparation, Audit, and Presentation to Parliament of annual Accounts of the Receipt and Expenditure of the Naval and Military Departments: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to supersede or in any Manner affect the detailed Examination and Audit of the Accounts of the Commissioners of Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or of those of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, established by an Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for auditing the Accounts of the Commissioners of Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, or of the Regulations under which such Accounts are rendered.

Abstract Accounts of Receipt and Expenditure of Capital and Income of Land Revenues to be transmitted to Commissioners for auditing Public Accounts.

9 & 10 Vict. c. 92.

7 & 8 Vict. c. 89.

XXXVIII. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings shall in like Manner prepare and transmit to the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, on or before the Thirtieth Day of November in each Year, Abstract Accounts, classed under distinctive Headings, of the Receipt and Expenditure of the Monies granted or otherwise received and appropriated in the Department under their Control and Management, in the Year ended the Thirty-first Day of March preceding; and the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts shall examine and certify the same, in like Manner as those of the Commissioners of Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues aforesaid.

Abstract Accounts of Receipt and Expenditure to be transmitted to Commissioners for auditing Public Accounts.

XXXIX. The Commissioners for auditing Public Accounts shall transmit Copies of the said Accounts of the Commissioners of Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, examined and certified as herein provided, together with their Reports thereon, on or before the Thirty-first Day of January following the Thirtieth Day of November aforesaid, to the Commissioners of the Treasury, who shall lay the same before the House of Commons on or before the Thirty-first Day of March following, if Parliament be then sitting, and if not then within One Fortnight after Parliament shall be next assembled.

Commissioners for auditing Public Accounts to transmit Copies of Abstract Accounts to the Treasury.

XL. Nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to abridge or interfere with any Rights of Her Majesty, or of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the Time being, or any Grantee of the Crown, in respect of any Appointment usually made by Her Majesty, or the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners, or the Chancellor of the Exchequer, or such Grantee, or with the Right of Appointment of Master Keepers, Under Keepers, or other Officers of or in any Royal Forest, so long as such last-mentioned Right shall be vested in any Warden or Ranger of any such Forest, or with any Privileges or Advantages which may be rightfully enjoyed or claimed under any Letters Patent granted by Her Majesty or Her Predecessors of any Office, Bailiwick, Walk, or Lodge within any of the Royal Forests to which this Act relates.

Saving of Rights.

CAP. XLIII.

An Act for disafforesting the Forest of Hainault in the County of Essex. [1st August 1851.]

'WHEREAS the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, in right of Her Crown, is or claims to be seised to Herself, Her Heirs and Successors, of and in Waltham Forest, formerly called the Forest of Essex, in the County of Essex, one Portion of which is usually called or known by the Name of Hainault Forest: And whereas Her Majesty, in right of Her Crown, is or claims to be seised to Herself, Her Heirs and Successors, of the Soil of that Portion of the said Forest of Hainault which is commonly called the King's Forest or King's Woods, and of the Timber and other Trees, Bushes, and Underwood standing and growing thereon: And whereas the said Forest of Hainault is subject to divers Claims of Rights of Common and other Rights and Interests of Her Majesty and of divers of Her Majesty's Subjects in and over the same: And whereas the Right Honourable the Earl of Mornington, and the Honourable William Wellesley commonly called Viscount Wellesley, his eldest Son, jointly or severally claim to be entitled to the Office of Warden of the said Forest: And whereas every poor Widow in those Parts of the Parishes of Barking and Dagenham which lie within the said Forest of Hainault who does not receive Parochial Relief, and whose Husband has been dead a Year, has been usually allowed to have One Load of Wood yearly on Easter Monday from and out of the said King's Forest or King's Woods, or in lieu of it Eight Shillings in Money to those who cannot procure a Team to carry the Wood on that Day: And whereas Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to signify Her Consent that the said Forest of Hainault should be disafforested, and the Royal Deer therein removed or destroyed, with all convenient Speed, and that the Officers of Her Majesty of or for the said Forest should be discharged, and that such Allotment should be made to Her Majesty, in respect of Her Forestal Estate, Rights, and Interests in and over the said Forest of Hainault, in manner herein-after provided, and that such Compensation should be made to the Officers of the said Forest, and to the said poor Widows, as is also herein-after provided:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

I. That

Power to appoint Three Commissioners to carry this Act into execution.

I. That the Provisions of this Act shall be carried into execution by Commissioners to be appointed as after mentioned; andt he Commissioners for carrying this Act into execution shall be Three in Number, One of whom shall be appointed in Writing by the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, One other of whom shall be appointed by the Two junior Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales for the Time being, and the Third of whom shall be appointed by the Two Commissioners so to be appointed as aforesaid; and that so often as any Vacancy shall occur by Death, Resignation, or Incapacity, a new Commissioner shall be appointed in like Manner as the Commissioner whose Vacancy is to be supplied was appointed; and that all such Commissioners, when appointed, and herein-after designated as "the Commissioners of this Act," shall be the Commissioners for carrying this Act into execution; and that all Acts and Powers to be performed by or given to the Commissioners of this Act under the Provisions herein contained may be performed or exercised by any Two of such Commissioners.

Commissioners to appoint Clerk and employ Land Surveyor.

II. That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of this Act from Time to Time to appoint a Clerk, and, if they shall think fit, to remove such Clerk, and on any Vacancy to appoint another Clerk, and also to employ a Land Surveyor and Valuer, in such Manner as they shall think necessary.

Remuneration of Commissioners and Clerk.

III. That the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, herein-after designated as "the Commissioners of Woods," with the Consent of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall, out of the Land Revenues of the Crown, subject to Repayment as after mentioned, pay and allow to the Commissioners of this Act any Sum not exceeding the Sum of One thousand Pounds as shall be thought sufficient, and in proportion to the Time and Labour which may be bestowed by them respectively in carrying this Act into execution, such Proportion, in the event of any Difference of Opinion with regard thereto, to be conclusively determined by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and to the Clerk of the Commissioners of this Act such Salary not exceeding Two hundred Pounds a Year as shall be considered sufficient, and also to allow to the Commissioners of this Act, and Clerk, all Costs and Expenses of employing any such Land Surveyor and Valuer as aforesaid, and all other reasonable Expenses incurred by them in the Performance of their Duties under this Act.

Commissioners to ascertain Boundaries.

IV. That the Commissioners of this Act shall forthwith proceed to ascertain the Boundaries of the said Forest of Hainault, and also of that Portion of the said Forest called the King's Forest or King's Woods, and for that Purpose shall or may make use of any existing Maps, Plans, or Surveys, or cause to be made any new Maps, Plans, or Surveys, as they shall think fit.

Boundaries as ascertained to be held to be true.

V. That the said Boundaries as ascertained by the Commissioners of this Act shall be held to be the true Boundaries of the said Forest, and of the said King's Forest or King's Woods, for all the Purposes of this Act, as between Her Majesty and all Persons whose Estates or Rights therein are to be or shall be in anywise dealt with or affected under the Provisions of this Act, but not further or otherwise.

Power to Commissioners to allot a Part of the King's Woods as a Compensation for the Forestal and other Rights of the Crown.

On the making of the Award the Forest of Hainault to be disafforested.

VI. That the Commissioners of this Act, so soon as they shall have ascertained the aforesaid Boundaries, shall proceed to set out and allot to Her Majesty such Part or Parts of the said King's Forest or King's Woods as they shall think a sufficient Compensation to Her Majesty for all Her Forestal Rights in and over the said Forest of Hainault, for Her Rights of Soil in the said King's Forest or King's Woods and in other the uninclosed Portions of the said Forest of Hainault (if any), for Her Rights of Timber and other Trees, Bushes, and Underwoods in the said Woods or elsewhere in the said Forest; and that such Allotment or Allotments, when made, shall be vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, as Part and Parcel of the Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of Her Crown, freed and discharged from all Rights or Claims of Common of Pasture, Estovers, or Assignments of Fuel Wood, and all other Rights or Claims whatsoever; and that on the making of such Award the said Forest of Hainault shall be for ever disafforested; and the Residue of the said King's Forest or King's Woods, and all other Parts of the said Forest of Hainault (not now inclosed), shall become the Property of the Queen's Majesty and the several Persons entitled to Rights of Common in and over the said Forest or any Part thereof, as they are now entitled to the same, freed and discharged from all Right of Soil, Rights of Timber, and all Forestal Rights of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors.

Commissioners of Woods, &c. to produce Evidence in support of Rights of Crown, to enable Commissioners of this Act to make the Award.

VII. That for the enabling the Commissioners of this Act to make the Award by this Act directed to be made the said Commissioners of Woods, on behalf of Her Majesty, shall produce to the Commissioners of this Act such Evidence in support of Her Majesty's aforesaid Rights or any of them as in the Opinion of the Commissioners of this Act shall be necessary to support the Claim to such Rights; and the Judgment of the Commissioners of this Act in the Premises shall be final: Provided nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons who in the Opinion of the Commissioners of this Act shall be interested in the Premises to appear before the said Commissioners, and to adduce such Evidence as in the Opinion of the said Commissioners shall be admissible, for the Purpose of controverting any Statement or Evidence made or offered to the said Commissioners in support of the Claims or Rights of Her Majesty.

Commissioners to ascertain the Value of certain Rights of poor Widows, and report Amount to Commissioners of Woods, &c., who shall invest the same.

VIII. And with respect to the Customary Rights or alleged Customary Rights of every poor Widow in those Parts of the said Parishes of Barking and Dagenham aforesaid who does not receive Parochial Relief, and whose Husband has been dead a Year, to have One Load of Wood yearly on Easter Monday out of the said King's Forest or King's Woods, or in lieu of it Eight Shillings in Money to those who cannot procure a Team to carry the Wood on that Day, be it enacted, That the Commissioners of this Act shall inquire and ascertain what is the Money Value of such Right in respect of such poor Widows, and shall report the Amount to the Commissioners of Woods; and upon receiving such Report the said Commissioners of Woods shall forthwith, out of the Land Revenues of the Crown, advance and pay the Sums Sums so found and reported as being the Amount of such Value as aforesaid, and shall invest the same in the Names of the Vicar and Churchwardens of the said Parish of Dagenham and of the Vicar and Churchwardens of the Parish of Barking respectively, or otherwise as shall be agreed on, in the Purchase of Three per Cent. Consolidated Bank Annuities, to be held by them for ever, in trust to pay and apply the Dividends thereof in the Purchase of Coals or other Fuel, to be by them distributed yearly at Christmas among the poor Widows of the aforesaid Parts of their respective Parishes not receiving Parochial Relief, and whose Husbands have been dead a Year, and shall cause a proper Declaration of Trust to be executed by the Trustees in whose Names the said Monies shall be invested, and a Memorial thereof enrolled with the Clerk of the Peace for the said County of Essex.

On Investment Claims to cease.

IX. That on the Investment of such Sums as aforesaid all the aforesaid Customary Rights or Claims of poor Widows shall absolutely cease.

Commissioners to consider the Value of the Widows Claims, and to allot an Equivalent. Commissioners, if required, to apportion the Crown's Allotment in respect of each distinct Right.

X. That in setting out and making such Allotment to Her Majesty as aforesaid the Commissioners of this Act shall take into consideration the Amount of the Money Value of such Rights or Claims of the said poor Widows, and shall give to Her Majesty an Allotment on or from the said Woods as aforesaid which in their Opinion shall be an Equivalent for the Amount of such Monies so to be paid for such Rights and Claims as aforesaid: Provided nevertheless, that the Commissioners of this Act shall, if so required by or on behalf of, Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, set out, distinguish, and apportion in their said Award a particular Part or Parts of the general Allotment to be made to Her Majesty as aforesaid which in their Opinion may be the Value of any One or more of the specific Rights of Her Majesty, and in respect of which the aforesaid Allotment may have been made, and such specific Apportionments of such general Allotment shall be taken to be the Allotments in respect of such specific Rights in respect of which they shall be ascertained and declared as aforesaid to have been made.

Award to be made in Two Years, and to be executed in Duplicate.

XI. That the Commissioners of this Act shall make their Award in Writing within Two Years from the passing of this Act, and such Award shall be executed in Duplicate, and One Part thereof shall be deposited at the Office of Land Revenue Records and Enrolments, and the other Part thereof shall be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said County of Essex, there to remain, and to be examined by all Persons, at all reasonable Times, on Payment of a Fee of One Shilling for each Examination.

Power to Commissioners of Woods, &c. to remove or destroy the Deer within the Forest. When Deer removed, &c. Right to keep Deer to cease.

XII. That the said Commissioners of Woods or other the proper Officer or Officers of Her Majesty of and for the said Forest of Hainault shall with all convenient Speed, and within One Year from the passing of this Act, under the Direction of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, remove or destroy, or cause to be removed or destroyed, all the Deer within the said Forest, and apply and dispose of the same as Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, shall direct; and that when such Deer shall have been so removed or destroyed the Right of Her Majesty to keep Deer and other Beasts of Forest in the said Forest of Hainault shall absolutely cease, and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods to exercise all the same Powers over and in respect of the Lands to be allotted to Her Majesty as aforesaid as they are or at any Time hereafter shall be by Law enabled to exercise over and in respect of other Lands of Her Majesty in right of Her Crown, not being Royal Forests, Parks, or Chases.

The Crown to maintain Boundary Fences, and if it appear convenient, to set out Roads, which shall become public Highways.

XIII. That Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, shall make and at all Times hereafter maintain sufficient Boundary Fences round all the Parts so to be set out and allotted or awarded to and to become the Property of Her Majesty as aforesaid; and further, that in case in making the Allotment hereby directed it shall appear convenient to the Commissioners of this Act to set out any Roads over the Parts to be allotted to Her Majesty, for the Convenience of the Enjoyment of the remaining Parts of the said Forest of Hainault, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to set out such Roads accordingly, and the same shall be made by the said Commissioners of Woods, and shall when made become and be public Highways.

After Award is made, Forestal Offices to cease.

XIV. That, immediately after the Award of the Commissioners of this Act shall have been made, as herein-before directed, all and every Letters Patent, Grants, Appointments, and Warrants of any Offices, Bailiwicks, Walks, or Lodges in or for the said Forest of Hainault, and all Salaries, Gratuities, and Fees lawfully payable or allowed in respect of the same, shall thenceforth cease, end, and determine; and Compensation shall be made by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, out of the Land Revenues of the Crown, to the Lord Warden, in respect of his Wardenship of that Portion of the said Forest of Waltham called Hainault Forest, and to the several Officers of the said Forest of Hainault, (whether holding Lodges and Land within the said Forest by virtue of their several Offices, or not), in consideration of the Cessation of their said several Offices, and on their relinquishing and giving up the Possession of the said Lodges and Land respectively, and all Claim and Interest therein or thereto under any Grant, Letters Patent, or Appointment or Warrant as aforesaid, which Compensation shall in every distinct and separate Case be referred to and ascertained by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or by such Person or Persons as they shall for that Purpose appoint on the Part of Her Majesty, and by such indifferent Person as shall be appointed on the Part of each and every Officer of the said Forest of Hainault interested or concerned in the Premises, and which said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or other the Person or Persons so to be appointed as aforesaid, are hereby empowered to send for Persons and Papers, and to examine the Parties and Witnesses upon Oath, if necessary (which Oath any One of the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or the Person or Persons so to be appointed as aforesaid, is hereby authorized and empowered to administer); provided, that in case any Difference of Opinion shall arise on any Matter or Question touching or concerning such Compensation, then the said Referees shall from Time to Time forthwith appoint any proper and competent Person or Persons to act as an Umpire or Umpires concerning cerning the Premises, to whom all and every such Differences shall be referred, and whose Judgment and Determination shall be binding to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Expenses to be defrayed out of Produce of Timber and Underwood standing on Parts of Forest not allotted to the Crown.

XV. That all the Payments, Charges, and Expenses hereby directed to be defrayed out of the Land Revenues of the Crown shall be paid and discharged or replaced by and out of the Produce of the Timber and Underwood belonging to Her Majesty, now standing on such Part of the uninclosed Parts of the said Forest of Hainault as shall not be allotted to Her Majesty, and that for that Purpose it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Woods, at any Time before or after the said Award, to enter on any Parts of the said Forest, and to cut down, carry away, sell, and dispose of so much of the said Timber and Underwood as shall be sufficient to pay such Costs, Charges, and Expenses.

Power to Sir Charles Hulse, as Lord of the Manor of Barking, to proceed to a Trial at Law, in a feigned Action, to try his Rights to the Soil of certain Portions of the Forest of Hainault.

XVI. 'And whereas Sir Charles Hulse Baronet makes claim, as Lord of the Manor of Barking, to the 'Soil of that Portion of the said Forest of Hainault called the King's Forest or King's Woods, or some 'Part thereof, and claims Title to the same through and under certain Grants thereof made to the 'Ancestors of the said Sir Charles Hulse by Her Majesty's Royal Predecessor King Charles the First, 'and therefore insists that he is entitled to a Portion of the Allotment hereby intended to be set out to 'Her Majesty, as a Compensation for the Right of Soil so claimed:' Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Sir Charles Hulse to proceed to a Trial at Law, within Twenty-two Months from the passing of this Act, at the Assizes for the County of Essex, in a feigned Action or Actions to be for that Purpose commenced in Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, against Her Majesty's Attorney General and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, and the Defendants in such Action shall appear, and accept One or more Issue or Issues whereby the Matter in question may be properly tried and determined (such Issue or Issues to be settled by the proper Officer or Officers of the Court of Exchequer, if the Parties shall differ about the same); and if at the Trial of any such Issue or Issues it shall appear that the said Sir Charles Hulse is not entitled to the Soil of that Portion of the said Forest called the King's Forest or King's Woods so claimed by him, then the Jury or Juries by whom such Issue or Issues shall be tried shall find for the Defendants; but if it shall appear to such Jury or Juries that the said Sir Charles Hulse is so entitled as Lord of the said Manor of Barking according to the Claim made by him, then such Jury or Juries shall find for the Plaintiff; and the Verdict or Verdicts which shall be given in such Action or Actions shall be binding, as well upon Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, as the said Sir Charles Hulse, his Heirs and Assigns, and all and every Person and Persons claiming through or under him or them, unless the Court shall set aside such Verdict or Verdicts, and order a new Trial or Trials to be had thereupon, which it shall be lawful for the Court to do, as is usual in other Cases; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the said Court, upon sufficient Cause shown, to put off the Trial of the same, although the Time hereby limited for such Trial may be thereby exceeded; provided also, that if either of the Parties in any Action or Actions to be brought in pursuance of this Act shall die, or if any of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods shall resign, or be removed from being a Commissioner or Commissioners, pending such Action or Actions, the same shall not abate by reason thereof, but shall be proceeded in as if no such Event had happened; provided also, that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, for and behalf of Her Majesty, at any Time before the Trial of such Action or Actions, to make or accept Proposals to or from the said Sir Charles Hulse, his Heirs or Assigns, for compromising the Matter or Matters in dispute, and to compromise the same accordingly, if they and Her Majesty's Attorney General for the Time being shall see just Cause so to do, and all such Compromises shall be binding and conclusive; provided also, that if no such Action shall be brought, or if the same shall not be proceeded in to Trial or Trials as aforesaid, unless such Trial or Trials shall be put off with such Leave of the Court as aforesaid, then and in such Case the said Sir Charles Hulse, his Heirs and Assigns, and all Persons claiming through or under him or them, shall be barred and precluded from such Claim as aforesaid.

If Verdict be in favour of Sir C. Hulse, Commissioners to allot to him such Part of Crown Allotment as they shall deem an Equivalent for his Rights.

XVII. That if the Verdict in any such Trial or Trials shall be given in favour of the said Sir Charles Hulse, his Heirs or Assigns, and shall not be set aside by the Court, then the Commissioners of this Act shall set out and allot to the said Sir Charles Hulse, his Heirs and Assigns, so much and such Part of the Allotment herein-before directed to be set out to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, as the said Commissioners shall by Writing under their Hands award to be a just Equivalent and Compensation for and in lieu of the Right of Soil claimed by the said Sir Charles Hulse, his Heirs or Assigns, and to which he or they shall appear entitled by such Verdict, the said Allotment, when set out to the said Sir Charles Hulse, his Heirs and Assigns, to be inclosed and fenced by him or them, and to be held and enjoyed freed and exonerated from all Rights of Common and other Rights from which the said Allotment to Her Majesty is hereby freed and exonerated.

Trial not to impede the Commissioners in the Execution of the Act.

XVIII. That no such Action being brought, or during the Continuance thereof, shall impede the Commissioners in the Execution of this Act, but the Allotment hereby directed to be made shall be made, notwithstanding any such Action shall be pending; and the Commissioners of this Act shall by proper Marks and Bounds set out the Lands and Grounds which ought to be allotted to the said Sir Charles Hulse, his Heirs or Assigns, in case of his or their succeeding in such Trial or Trials.

Act not to extend to Epping Forest.

XIX. That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to that Portion of Waltham Forest usually called Epping Forest.

General Saving of Rights.

XX. That nothing in this Act contained shall in anywise extend to or prejudice the Title, Right, or Claim of Her Majesty to any Right of Common appendant or appurtenant to any anciently inclosed Lands of Her Majesty, or the Title, Right, or Claim of Her Majesty or any Person or Persons to the inclosed Parts of the said Forest of Hainault, or to Chapel Lodge Farm, otherwise the Lawn Farm, or

Fence

Fence Piece Farm, or either of them, or to any other inclosed Lands, Lodges, or Lodge Grounds within the said Forest of Hainault, held or claimed to be held in Severalty by Her Majesty, the Lord Warden of the said Forest, or any other Forestal Officer or Officers of Her Majesty, nor the Claim of the Vicar of Dagenham to Tithes or to a Rentcharge in lieu of Tithes in respect of such Portion of the said Forest of Hainault as is situate within the Parish of Dagenham.

CAP. XLIV.

An Act to continue certain Acts for regulating Turnpike Roads in Ireland. [1st August 1851.]

'WHEREAS certain Acts for making, amending, and repairing the Turnpike Roads in Ireland were, by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, amended and continued for a Time therein limited: And whereas the said Acts were further continued from Time to Time, save as specially excepted: And whereas, under the Provisions of an Act of the last Session of Parliament, the said Acts, save as therein excepted, are further continued, and will remain in force until the Thirty-first Day of July in the present Year, or, if Parliament be then sitting, until the End of the then Session of Parliament: And whereas it is expedient that the several Acts for making, amending, or repairing Turnpike Roads in Ireland should be further continued:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, 4 & 5 Vict. c. 6. 13 & 14 Vict. c. 84.

Acts for making, &c. Turnpike Roads in Ireland, which will expire on 31st July 1851, &c., further continued.

I. That any Act for making, amending, or repairing any Turnpike Road or Roads in Ireland which will expire on the said Thirty-first Day of July in the present Year, or at or before the End of the present or next ensuing Session of Parliament, shall be and the same is hereby continued, as amended by the said recited Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, until the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, or, if Parliament be then sitting, until the End of the then Session of Parliament.

7 G. 4. c. xxvi. to continue till 1st Oct. 1852, and no longer, &c.

II. Provided always, That an Act of the Seventh Year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for more effectually repairing the Road leading from the Bounds of the Counties of Limerick and Cork, between the Towns of Kilmallock and Charleville, to the City of Cork, shall be continued until the First Day of October in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and no longer, unless Parliament shall in the meantime further continue the said Act.

CAP. XLV.

An Act to continue an Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her present Majesty for amending the Law relative to Private Lunatic Asylums in Ireland. [1st August 1851.]

[5 & 6 Vict. c. 123. continued until 31*st July* 1855, and to the End of the then next Session.]

CAP. XLVI.

An Act to amend Two several Acts of Her Majesty's Reign enabling the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods to purchase Lands for and to form Victoria Park; and to indemnify the Trustees of Copyhold Lands held in trust for Her Majesty. [1st August 1851.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fourth and Fifth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to enable Her Majesty's Commissioners of Woods to complete the Contract for the Sale of York House, and to purchase certain Lands for a Royal Park, the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings were empowered to purchase certain Lands and Hereditaments, containing about Two hundred and ninety Acres, in the Parishes of Saint John Hackney, Saint Matthew Bethnal Green, and Saint Mary Stratford-le-Bow, in the County of Middlesex, which Lands and Hereditaments, when purchased, were to be conveyed and assured to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and when so conveyed were for ever thereafter to be a Royal Park by the Name of Victoria Park, and Part and Parcel of the Possessions and Land Revenues of Her Majesty in right of the Crown, and all Laws, Provisions, and Regulations then or thereafter to be in force with respect to Royal Parks were to extend and apply to such Park, except that Her Majesty's said Commissioners might, in such Manner as by Law provided with regard to the Hereditary Revenues of the Crown (not being Royal Parks), lease any Part of the said Royal Park, not exceeding in the whole One Fourth Part, for Sites for Dwelling Houses or ornamental Buildings, and Offices and Gardens thereto to be annexed: And whereas an Act was passed in the Second Session of Parliament held in the Fifth Year of Her Majesty's Reign, to extend the Powers of the first-recited Act, and thereby it was enacted, among other things, that certain Maps or Plans then already made, showing the Site and intended Boundaries of Victoria Park, when authenticated in Duplicate by the Signature of the Right Honourable the Speaker of the House of Commons, should be deposited in the Office of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, and in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Enrolments respectively, and Powers were given to the said Commissioners, on behalf of Her Majesty, to purchase the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments mentioned and described in the Schedule to the said Act, some of such Lands being 4 & 5 Vict. c. 27. 5 Vict. Sess. 2. c. 20.

'of Copyhold Tenure: And whereas the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land 'Revenues, Works, and Buildings, in execution of the said recited Acts, have purchased, on behalf of 'Her Majesty, all the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments mentioned and described in the Schedule to 'the secondly-recited Act, and have partly laid out, formed, and planted the said Park: And whereas it is 'expedient that the particular Portions of the said Park which it is intended to lease under the Authority 'of the first-recited Act should be defined, and that the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's 'Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings should be empowered to sell or exchange 'such last-mentioned Portions of the said Park, in the like Manner as they are by Law empowered to 'sell or exchange any Parts or Parcels of the Hereditary Land Revenues of the Crown, not being Royal 'Forests, Parks, or Chases, in England: And whereas the said Commissioners have caused a new Map 'or Plan to be made in Duplicate of the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments acquired under the Powers 'and for the Purposes of the said recited Acts, as the same are now laid out or designed to be laid out, 'and have therein distinguished the particular Portions of the same which it is proposed to lease, and to 'which it is proposed that the Powers of Sale and Exchange vested in the said Commissioners with 'respect to Land Revenues of the Crown, not being Royal Forests, Parks, or Chases, should be extended:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Maps or Plans, when authenticated, to be deposited, and to be open to Inspection.

I. That the said Duplicate Maps or Plans shall be authenticated by the Signature of the Right Honourable the Speaker of the House of Commons, and when so authenticated One of them shall be deposited in the Office of the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, or in case the Department of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall be separated from the Department of Her Majesty's Works and Buildings, then in the Office of the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and the other of them shall be deposited in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Enrolments, and the Maps or Plans so deposited shall remain in such Offices respectively to the end that all Persons may at all seasonable Times have Liberty to inspect the same, at their Will and Pleasure, on paying the Sum of One Shilling for every such Inspection.

Defining Portions of the Park to be leased, and extending thereto Powers of Sale and Exchange.

II. That the Portions of the said Royal Park called Victoria Park (not exceeding in the whole One Fourth Part thereof) which the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings are by the first-recited Act empowered to lease shall be such Parts and Parcels of the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments delineated in the Maps or Plans so to be deposited as aforesaid as are therein distinguished by being coloured Red; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, or, in the event of such Separation of Departments as aforesaid, for the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, to lease, sell, and exchange all or any Part of the said last-mentioned Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and any Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments to be by them taken in exchange, under the Powers herein contained or referred to, in such and the like Manner in all respects as they are by Law empowered to lease, sell, or exchange any Part or Parcel of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, not being Royal Forests, Parks, and Chases, in England; and all and singular the Powers, Provisions, Regulations, Exemptions from Stamp Duty, and Enactments whatsoever, contained in an Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, Chapter Fifty, an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter One, and in any other Act of Parliament now in force, with respect to the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, not being Royal Forests, Parks, and Chases, shall, so far as the same are applicable, be taken to extend and apply to all and every the Parts and Parcels of the said Royal Park called Victoria Park which are in the aforesaid Maps or Plans distinguished and coloured Red, and to all Leases, Deeds, Agreements, and Contracts whatsoever which may be made in pursuance of the recited Acts and this Act, or any or either of them.

Trustees of Copyholds in trust for Her Majesty to be indemnified.

III. 'And whereas the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land 'Revenues, Works, and Buildings are by Law empowered to purchase, on behalf of Her Majesty, Her 'Heirs and Successors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments of Copyhold or Customary 'Tenure, and on every such Purchase to cause such Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments to 'be surrendered to or well and effectually vested in a Trustee or Trustees for and on behalf of Her Majesty, 'Her Heirs or Successors; and it is reasonable that every such Trustee should be indemnified as after 'mentioned:' Be it enacted, That in all Cases where any Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments of Copyhold or Customary Tenure have been at any Time heretofore or shall at any Time or Times hereafter be purchased or taken in exchange by the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, or, in case of such Separation of Departments as aforesaid, by the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, under any Powers vested or to be vested in them, and such Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments have been or shall be surrendered to or vested in any Trustee for and on behalf of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, all Sums of Money, Fines, Fees, Rents, Services, and Heriots, Costs, Charges, Damages, and Expenses whatsoever, which shall become due or payable by or be recovered from or against any such Trustee, his Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, by reason of the Surrender or Conveyance to him of any such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments of Copyhold or Customary Tenure, or by reason of his Admission thereto as Trustee for Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, or of any subsequent Surrender thereof by him, be wholly borne, satisfied, and discharged by the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, or, in the event of such Separation of Departments as aforesaid, by the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, by and out of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, and every such Trustee, his Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, Lands, Tenements, Goods, and Chattels, shall be wholly and fully indemnified by the said Commissioners from and against all such Sums of Money, Fines, Heriots, Rents, and Services as aforesaid, and from and against all Costs, Charges, Damages, and Expenses whatsoever in relation to the Premises.

CAP. XLVII.

An Act to continue the Exemption of Inhabitants from Liability to be rated as such in respect of Stock in Trade or other Property to the Relief of the Poor. [1st August 1851.]

[3 & 4 Vict. c. 89. continued until the 1st Oct. 1852, and until the End of the then next Session.]

CAP. XLVIII.

An Act to continue an Act of the Second and Third Years of Her present Majesty, "to extend "and render more effectual for Five Years an Act passed in the Fourth Year of His late "Majesty George the Fourth, to amend an Act passed in the Fiftieth Year of His Majesty "George the Third, for preventing the administering and taking unlawful Oaths in Ireland," as the same is amended by an Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty's Reign. [1st August 1851.]

[2 & 3 Vict. c. 74., as amended by 8 & 9 Vict. c. 55., and 11 & 12 Vict. c. 89., to continue in force, from the passing of this Act, for the further Period of Five Years, and until the End of the then next Session.]

CAP. XLIX.

An Act to repeal an Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her present Majesty, for making preliminary Inquiries in certain Cases of Applications for Local Acts, and to make other Provisions in lieu thereof. [1st August 1851.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twenty-nine: And 'whereas it is expedient to repeal the said Act, and to make other Provisions in lieu thereof:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, 11 & 12 Vict. c. 129.

I. That in respect of all future Applications to Parliament for Local Acts the said recited Act shall be and the same is hereby repealed. Recited Act repealed.

II. Whenever Application shall be made to Parliament for a Bill whereby Power is sought to construct any Works on the Shore of the Sea, or of any Creek, Bay, Arm of the Sea, or navigable River communicating therewith, or to construct any Bridge, Viaduct, or other Work across any Creek, Bay, Arm of the Sea, or navigable River, or to construct any Work affecting the Navigation of any Harbour, Port, tidal Water, or navigable River, it shall be lawful for the Lord High Admiral, or for the Lords Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, to require the Promoters of such Bill to deposit at the Office of the Admiralty, in addition to the Plans, Sections, or other Documents which may have been deposited at such Office in compliance with the Standing Orders of either House of Parliament, all such Statements and other Documents as the said Lord High Admiral or Lords Commissioners shall deem necessary to explain the Objects of the intended Application to Parliament, and the proposed Interference with such tidal Lands or Navigation, as the Case may be. Where Works proposed on tidal Lands, Admiralty may require Statements, &c.

III. It shall be lawful for the said Lord High Admiral or Lords Commissioners, if they shall consider the same necessary or expedient, but not otherwise, to appoint a competent Person or Persons to be an Inspector or Inspectors, for the Purpose of inquiring, in such Manner and at such Time and Place as they shall direct, into all such Matters as they shall deem necessary to enable them to report to Parliament their Opinion upon every such Bill touching the Jurisdiction or Authority of the Lord High Admiral. Admiralty may appoint Inspectors.

IV. For the Purposes of such Inquiry the said Inspector or Inspectors may, by Summons under his or their Hands, summon before him or them any Person having the Custody of any Map, Survey, or Book made or kept in pursuance of any Act of Parliament, to produce such Map, Survey, or Book for his or their Inspection, and the said Inspector or Inspectors may summon, in manner aforesaid, any other Person whose Evidence shall, in the Judgment of the said Inspector or Inspectors, be material to his or their Inquiries, and pay or allow to every such Person so summoned by him or them the reasonable Charges of his Attendance; and the said Inspector or Inspectors shall also have Power to administer an Oath to all Persons who may be examined by him or them touching the Premises. Inspectors may summon Witnesses and examine them upon Oath.

V. Any

Penalty for Non-attendance or refusing to answer Questions.

V. Any Person, being summoned by such Inspector or Inspectors, who, after the Delivery to him of such Summons as aforesaid, or of a Copy thereof, shall wilfully neglect or refuse to attend in pursuance of such Summons, or to produce such Maps, Surveys, Books, or other Documents as he may be required to produce under the Provisions herein-before contained, or to answer upon Oath or otherwise such Questions as may be put to him by such Inspector or Inspectors under the Powers herein contained, shall be liable to forfeit and pay a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, which may be recovered before any Two or more Justices having Jurisdiction within the Town, District, or Place wherein such Inquiry shall be held; and on Conviction of the Offender, and in default of Payment of any such Penalty, such Justices shall be empowered and required to cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals; and such Penalty shall be paid to the Treasurer of the County within which such Conviction shall take place in aid of the County Rate; provided that no Person, other than the Promoters of the proposed Act, or their Agents, shall be required to attend in obedience to any Summons, unless the reasonable Charges of his Attendance be paid or tendered to him, nor to travel in obedience thereto more than Ten Miles from his usual Place of Abode.

Admiralty may take Security for Payment of Expenses of Inquiry.

VI. Before instituting any such Inquiry the said Lord High Admiral or Lords Commissioners may, if they think fit, require and take such Security for the Payment of the whole or any Part of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses to be incurred by them in respect of such Inquiry (including the Remuneration of the Inspectors) as to them shall seem fit; and whenever any such Security is given, the Costs, Charges, and Expenses in respect whereof it is given shall, to such Amount as shall be certified by the said Lord High Admiral or Lords Commissioners (not exceeding the Extent or Amount of such Security), be a Debt due to Her Majesty from the Person or Persons respectively by whom the same is entered into.

Petitioners for Private Bill to be deemed the Promoters.

VII. The Persons whose Names shall be subscribed to the Petition for any Private Bill shall be deemed to be Promoters of such Bill for all the Purposes of this Act, notwithstanding the Persons subscribing such Petition shall have signed for or on behalf of any other Party.

Form of citing the Act.

VIII. In citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament, and in legal and other Instruments, it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Preliminary Inquiries Act, 1851."

CAP. L.

An Act to amend the Public Health Act, and an Act of the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth, in respect of the Assessment of Tithe and Tithe Rentcharges for certain Rates. [1st August 1851.]

3 & 4 W. 4. c. 90.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament of the Third and Fourth Year of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to repeal an Act of the Eleventh Year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, for the lighting and watching of Parishes in England and Wales, and to make other Provisions in lieu thereof, it is provided, that in levying any Rate necessary for the Purposes of the said Act the Owners and Occupiers of Houses, Buildings, and Property (other than Land) rateable to the Relief of the Poor in any Parish shall be rated at and pay a Rate in the Pound Three Times greater than that at which the Owners and Occupiers of Land shall be rated at and pay for the Purposes of said Act: And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament of the Eleventh and Twelfth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for promoting the Public Health, it is, among other things, provided, for the Purposes of the said last-mentioned Act, that the Occupier of any Land used as Arable, Meadow, or Pasture Ground only shall be assessed in respect of the same in the Proportion of One Fourth Part only of the net annual Value thereof: And whereas it is just that Tithes, Tithe Rentcharges, and other like Payments issuing out of Land should be assessed for the Purposes of the said Acts in the same Proportion of their net annual Value as such Land itself:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That Tithes, Tithe Rentcharges, Moduses, Compositions Real, and other Payments in lieu of Tithe, shall be assessed under the firstly-recited Act as and in the same Proportion of their annual Value as Land, and under the secondly-recited Act as and in the same Proportion of their annual Value as Land used as Arable, Meadow, or Pasture Ground only.

11 & 12 Vict. c. 63.

Tithes and Tithe Rentcharges, &c. to be assessed as Land.

'Instalment thereof to become due and payable on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred 'and fifty-two: And whereas sundry Advances or Loans have been made by the Commissioners of Public 'Works in Ireland under the said first-recited Act, and the several Acts since passed for amending and 'extending the same, for the Purposes in the same Acts specified; and great Benefits have been derived 'therefrom, and further Advances or Loans are required for the like Objects:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

Appointment of Commissioners.

I. That the Commissioners of Public Works for the Time being shall be Commissioners for the Execution of this Act.

Treasury may, out of the 360,000*l.* per Annum granted by 14 & 15 Vict. c. 23., apply a Sum not exceeding 15,000*l.* per Quarter for Public Works in Ireland.

II. That the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant under the Hands of any Two or more of them, may direct, from Time to Time, that out of the Sum not exceeding Three hundred and sixty thousand Pounds per Annum which by the said Act of this present Session of Parliament they are authorized to charge on the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and which they are authorized to direct to be paid to the Account of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, during the Term of Five Years next ensuing the Fourth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, by quarterly Instalments or Issues not exceeding Ninety thousand Pounds per Quarter as aforesaid, there shall issue and be paid unto the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, during the said Term of Five Years, a Sum not exceeding Fifteen thousand Pounds per Quarter, to be at the Disposal of the said Commissioners of Public Works, as herein-after mentioned, such quarterly Instalments or Issues to become due on the Fifth Day of January, the Fifth Day of April, the Fifth Day of July, and the Tenth Day of October in each Year, the First Instalment thereof to become due and payable on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

The separate Account already opened to be continued at the Bank of England.

III. That for the Purpose of receiving the said quarterly Instalments the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall continue or cause to be continued the separate Account already opened with them at the Bank of England under the Title of "The Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt on account of the Public Works Loan Fund for Ireland," which Account the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall and they are hereby required to continue in their Books accordingly; and the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall continue and keep, or cause to be continued and kept, in their Office, a Book or Books, in which all Monies transferred to the said last-mentioned Account by virtue of this Act and the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty shall be kept, apart from all other Monies, and such Monies shall be by the same Commissioners held subject to the Disposal of the said Commissioners of Public Works for the several Purposes of the said first-recited Act and the other Acts amending the same, and of this Act.

When Loans are sanctioned, Commissioners of Public Works to certify Issue to Commissioners for Reduction of National Debt.

Upon Certificate being produced Payment to be made.

IV. That when the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall have sanctioned any Loan under this Act or any of the above-recited Acts, and the said Commissioners of Public Works shall have ascertained that any Sum of Money is required to be issued on account of such Loan, they shall forthwith certify the Amount of such Issue to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt for the Time being, and in every such Certificate the Loan in Payment of which such Issue is required, and the Party or Parties to whom such Issue is intended to be made, shall be stated; and upon every such Certificate being produced to the Officer of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt the Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller, or Chief Clerk acting under the last-named Commissioners, shall upon the Back of such Certificate endorse and sign an Order for the Payment of the Sum mentioned in such Certificate to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to be by them placed to the Account of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, for the separate Account and Credit of the Paymaster of Civil Services in Ireland, on account of the Public Works Loan Fund for Ireland, to be by him paid over, on the Warrants of the said Commissioners of Public Works: Provided always, that Approval of such Issue by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall appear on such Certificate under the Hand of One of their Secretaries, and that the Amount of such Issue shall not exceed the Sum for the Time being standing in the Names of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt subject to the Disposal of the said Commissioners of Public Works.

Approval of Treasury to appear on Certificate.

Order to be entered by the proper Officer, &c., and addressed to the

V. That every such Order of the Officer of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, before the issuing thereof, shall be entered by the Clerk or other proper Officer, and shall be countersigned by the Actuary or other Check Officer acting under the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and shall be addressed to the Cashiers of the Governor and Company of Cashiers of the Bank of England, who shall pay the same.

of the Bank of England; and such Cashiers, or One of them, shall, upon the Production of every such Order, pay the Sum mentioned therein to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England; and the Signature of One of the Cashiers of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall be a sufficient Discharge to the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt.

Commissioners for Reduction of National Debt to furnish annual Account.

VI. That the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall cause to be made up for Examination and Audit an annual Account to the Thirty-first Day of December in each Year of the Receipts, Payments, and Balances on the said Account so directed to be kept by them in respect of the said Public Works Loan Fund for Ireland as aforesaid, and shall deliver the same to the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts.

Bank of Ireland to continue Account with Paymaster of Civil Services.

VII. That the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland shall continue the Account already opened in their Books with the Paymaster of the Civil Services of Ireland under the Title of "The Paymaster of the Civil Services, on account of the Repayment of Loans for Public Works," and Monies which shall from Time to Time be repaid in respect of Loans made under this Act, or in respect of the Interest thereof, shall be carried to the Credit of the same Account.

Appropriation and Entry of Repayments.

VIII. That as soon as any Sum of Money shall have been so lodged to the Credit of the said Account of the Paymaster of Civil Services, on account of the Repayment of Loans for Public Works, the said Commissioners of Public Works shall, upon a Notification thereof, cause to be made out and delivered to the said Paymaster of Civil Services a Statement of the proper Appropriation of such Payment, whether for Account of Interest or Principal, or how much for each respectively, upon which the said Paymaster of Civil Services shall cause to be prepared accordingly the proper Receipt or Voucher, and send the same to the said Commissioners of Public Works, who shall thereupon cause the Sum or Sums therein mentioned to be entered on the Books of the said Commissioners to the Credit of the Loan on account of which such Payment shall have been made, and such Receipt, when so entered, shall be delivered to the Party or Person on whose Account such Payment shall have been so made, and such Receipt shall be a sufficient Discharge to the Party or Person paying the same.

All Sums paid into the Bank of Ireland to be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund.

IX. That every Sum of Money which shall be paid into the Bank of Ireland to the Account of the Paymaster of Civil Services, on account of the Repayment of Loans for Public Works, under this Act, shall from Time to Time, immediately on such Payments being made, be transferred to the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, to the Account kept by the Bank of England with Her Majesty's Exchequer, and, when so transferred, shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Powers of recited Acts as to Advances to have the same Force as if re-enacted in this Act.

X. That all the Enactments contained in the said recited Acts relating to Public Works in Ireland, or any of them, shall, except as is herein otherwise provided, extend to this Act, and to all Things done or directed to be done by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or the said Commissioners of Public Works, or their Secretary for the Time being, or any other Persons or Bodies Corporate, under the Authority of the said recited Acts or this Act, or any of them, in such or the like Manner as if they had been particularly and severally re-enacted in the Body of this Act, or as near thereto as the Difference of the Circumstances will admit, except so far only as the same are amended or altered by any of the said Acts or by this Act.

CAP. LII.

An Act to facilitate the more speedy Arrest of absconding Debtors. [1st August 1851.]

'WHEREAS the Laws now in force for the Arrest of Debtors absconding from England are 'insufficient and inadequate for that Purpose, by reason of the Delay which is occasioned in 'obtaining the necessary Process: And whereas Frauds are perpetrated upon Creditors residing at a 'Distance from London by Debtors embarking for distant Countries from various Towns and Seaports 'in England: And whereas it is expedient to provide a more expeditious and efficacious Mode of 'obtaining Process for the Arrest of Debtors about to quit England in all Cases where such Debtors are 'now liable by Law to be arrested:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Authority to Commissioners of Bankruptcy and Judges of County Courts to grant Warrants for the Arrest of absconding Debtors.

I. That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for any Commissioner of the Court of Bankruptcy acting for any District in the Country, or the Judge of any District County Court, except the County Court Judges acting in the Counties of Middlesex and Surrey, on Application by or on behalf of any Creditor, upon due Proof by Affidavit, intituled in One of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Common Law, of the Creditor applying, or of some other Person, or by solemn Affirmation in Cases in which solemn Affirmation is allowed by Law, to the Satisfaction of such Commissioner or Judge, that a Debt of Twenty Pounds or upwards is owing to such Creditor, and is then payable from the Person or Persons against whom such Application shall be made, and that there is probable Cause for believing that such Debtor or Debtors, unless he or they be forthwith apprehended, is or are about to quit England with Intent to avoid or delay the said Creditor, or with Intent to remain out of the Jurisdiction of the Courts of Law in England so long that thereby the said Creditor will or may be delayed in the Recovery of the said Debt, to grant a Warrant, such Warrant being in the Form and endorsed in the Manner specified in the Schedule A. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, to the Messenger of the said Court of Bankruptcy, or to the High Bailiff of the said County Court, whereby the said Messenger or High Bailiff shall have Authority, at any Time within Seven Days after the Date of the said Warrant, including the

Day

Day of such Date, to arrest the Person or Persons named in such Warrant, and him or them safely keep until he or they shall have given Bail to such Messenger or High Bailiff, or made Deposit with him, according to the Practice observed in the Superior Courts of Law, or until he shall have paid the Debt and Costs endorsed on the said Warrant, or be otherwise discharged from Arrest under such Warrant by due Course of Law, and that such Warrant shall bear Date the Day of the issuing thereof, and may be executed in any Part of England, and that a Copy of such Warrant or Warrants shall at the Time of the Arrest be served upon the Party arrested: Provided always, that every Creditor who shall cause such Warrant to issue shall forthwith cause to be issued a Writ of Capias, and also, in Cases where no Action shall be pending, shall, before the issuing of such Writ of Capias, cause a Writ of Summons to be issued out of some One of the Superior Courts of Law against such Debtor or Debtors, and that upon such Capias all Mandates and Warrants shall issue according to the Practice now in use, notwithstanding that the Defendant shall have been arrested by virtue of any Warrant or Warrants granted by such Commissioner or Judge, and such Debtor or Debtors shall, if in Custody, be served with such Writ of Capias, within Seven Days from the Date of such Warrant, including the Day of such Date; and thereupon such Debtor or Debtors shall be considered and deemed to have been arrested by virtue of the said Writ of Capias, and all Proceedings shall be had upon such Writ of Capias as if the same had been issued prior to the issuing of such Warrant, and the Arrest made on such Writ of Capias, and according to the Practice now observed in the said Superior Courts of Law.

Writ of Capias to issue thereupon.

II. The Affidavit or Affirmation required by this Act may be sworn or made before such Commissioner or Judge, or before any Person having Authority to administer Oaths in any of the Courts of Law aforesaid.

Before whom Affidavits to be sworn.

III. The Warrant or Warrants which shall be issued by virtue of this Act shall be auxiliary only to the Processes now in use, and shall be wholly void and of none Effect whatsoever, as a Protection to the Person on whose Behalf such Warrant shall have issued, unless such Writ of Capias shall be issued and served in manner aforesaid.

Warrants to be auxiliary to such Writ of Capias.

IV. The Person to whom the Warrant hereby authorized to be issued shall be directed shall, immediately on the same being executed, endorse a Certificate thereupon of the Time and Place where the Debtor was arrested; and the Production of such Warrant and Certificate to the Sheriff of the County where such Warrants shall have issued, or to the Keeper of the Gaol of such County, shall be a sufficient Authority to such Sheriff or Keeper to detain such Debtor or Debtors until he or they shall be discharged by due Course of Law.

Time and Place of Arrest to be endorsed upon Warrant, and upon Production, Debtor to be detained.

V. It shall be lawful for any Person arrested upon any such Warrant forthwith before the issuing of the said Writ of Capias to pay the Debt and Costs which shall be endorsed on such Warrant to the said Messenger or High Bailiff as aforesaid, or to enter into a Bail Bond to such Messenger or High Bailiff, with Two sufficient Sureties, for the Amount which shall be endorsed on such Warrant, conditioned to put in Special Bail as required by the said Warrant, or to make Deposit of the Sum endorsed on such Warrant, together with Ten Pounds for Costs, and thereupon he shall be entitled to be discharged from Custody, and such Messenger or High Bailiff is hereby authorized to discharge such Person accordingly.

Persons arrested entitled to Discharge in certain Cases.

VI. As soon as the Person so arrested as aforesaid has been taken into Custody, or detained, under the Writ of Capias herein-before mentioned, the Force and Effect of the said Warrant so granted as aforesaid shall immediately cease and determine, and the said Sheriff shall hold the said Person under or by virtue of the said Writ of Capias, in like Manner as if the said Person had been first arrested under and by virtue of the same, or in case the Person so arrested shall have made Deposit with the said Messenger or High Bailiff as aforesaid, or entered into such Bail Bond as aforesaid, then, upon Delivery to the Messenger or High Bailiff respectively by whom such Person was arrested of a Copy of the Warrant granted by the Sheriff upon such Writ of Capias as aforesaid, the said Messenger or High Bailiff shall pay over to such Sheriff as aforesaid the said Deposit, or assign to the said Sheriff such Bail Bond as aforesaid, and the said Sheriff shall then hold the said Deposit or Bail Bond, and shall be entitled to enforce the said Bail Bond in his own Name, or to assign the same in the same Manner as if the said Person had been first arrested on the said Writ of Capias, and the said Deposit had been made, or Bail Bond entered into with the said Sheriff; provided always, that the said Sheriff shall not be in any Manner liable or answerable for any Default, Misbehaviour, or Miscarriage of the Person to whom such Warrant was addressed, or of the Person or Persons making the Arrest under and by virtue of the said Warrant: Provided also, that if no Writ of Capias be issued and served within Seven Days from the Date of the said Warrant, including the Day of such Date, the Person arrested under such Warrant shall be entitled to be discharged from Custody, or in case the Deposit has been made with, or Bail Bond given to, the said Messenger or High Bailiff, then the said Deposit shall be returned, and the said Bail Bond given up to be cancelled.

Effect of Writs of Capias on previous Proceedings.

VII. Such Warrant shall be endorsed with the Amount of Debt and Costs claimed by the Plaintiff in such Manner as Writs of Capias are now directed to be endorsed, and on Payment of the Amount so endorsed all Proceedings shall be stayed, and the Person so arrested be discharged from Custody, and he shall be at liberty afterwards to tax the Costs so endorsed as if he had been arrested under a Writ of Capias.

Endorsement on Warrant.

VIII. It shall be lawful for any Person for whose Arrest a Warrant shall have been granted to make Application, either before or after Arrest shall have been made by virtue of the said Warrant, and before a Writ of Capias shall have been issued as aforesaid to any Commissioner of Bankrupt, or County Court Judge

Persons arrested may apply to a Commissioner of Bankrupt, a Judge, or the Court named in the Warrant, for their Discharge.

Judge as aforesaid, or to any Judge of the said Superior Courts, or to the Court mentioned in the Affidavit of Debt or Warrant for the Arrest, for a Summons or Rule calling upon the Creditor who shall have obtained such Warrant to show Cause why the Warrant should not be set aside and vacated, if such Application shall be made before Arrest, or why the Debtor should not be discharged out of Custody, if the Application should be made after Arrest, and that it shall be lawful for such Commissioner or Judge or Court to make absolute or discharge such Summons or Rule, and direct the Costs of the Application to be paid by either Party, or to make such other Order therein as to such Commissioner, Judge, or Court shall seem fit; provided that any such Order made by a Judge may be discharged or varied by the Court, on Application made thereto by either Party dissatisfied with such Order.

Officer responsible for the due Execution of Warrant.

IX. The Officer to whom such Warrant shall be directed or addressed as aforesaid shall be subject to the Jurisdiction of the Court in which the Action shall be brought, or of any Judge thereof, and shall be responsible to such Court or Judge, and to the Person at whose Suit such Warrant shall issue, for the due Execution of the said Warrant, in the same Manner exactly as Sheriffs are now responsible for the due Execution of all Writs of Capias directed or addressed to them, and shall be entitled to the same Protection as Sheriffs now are entitled to on executing such Writs.

Costs of such Warrant to be Costs in the Cause, except as herein provided to the contrary.

X. The Costs of and attending the Warrant hereby authorized to be issued, and the Arrest thereon, shall be deemed to be Costs in the Cause: Provided always, that no such Costs shall be allowed to a Plaintiff unless the Court or the proper Officer thereof is satisfied, by Affidavit or otherwise, that the Plaintiff had good Reason to believe that he would probably have failed in causing the Defendant to be arrested if he had proceeded in the first instance by Application to a Judge of One of the Superior Courts for a Writ of Capias, without first applying to a Judge of a County Court or a Commissioner of the Court of Bankruptcy, as the Case may be, under the Provisions of this Act.

Fees to be taken in respect of Warrant to be issued.

XI. The Fees mentioned in Schedule B. to this Act annexed shall be paid to the Parties in the said Schedule named, and that no other Fees shall be allowed or taken in respect of the Warrant to be issued by virtue of this Act, and that the Costs of the Writs of Capias and Summons shall be the same as if this Act had not passed; and the said Fees shall be deemed subject to be regulated, varied, increased, or lessened, either by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, as regards such Fees as are receivable by any Officer of the County Court, or by the Lord Chancellor, with the like Consent as regards such Fees as are receivable by any Officer of the Court of Bankruptcy; and a Table of such Fees as are hereby receivable by any Officer of either Court respectively shall be put up in some conspicuous Place in the County Court and the Bankruptcy Court respectively.

Short Title of Act.

XII. In citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament, or in any Instrument, Document, or Proceeding, it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Absconding Debtors Arrest Act, 1851."

CAP. LIII.

An Act to consolidate and continue the Copyhold and Inclosure Commissions, and to provide for the Completion of Proceedings under the Tithe Commutation Acts. [1st August 1851.]

'WHEREAS the Appointments of the Tithe Commissioners for England and Wales, and the other Appointments and Powers of Appointment under the Act of the Session holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-one, and the Acts continuing and amending the same, will expire at the End of the present Session of Parliament; but certain Proceedings for the Commutation of Tithes under the said Acts have not been completed, and other Powers and Duties under such Acts have not been fully executed and performed: And whereas by the Act of the Session holden in the Fourth and Fifth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five, the said Tithe Commissioners for the Time being were appointed to be "the Copyhold Commissioners" for carrying that Act into execution, and should the same not be fully carried into effect before the Duties of the said Tithe Commissioners should cease One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State was empowered to appoint any Number of fit Persons, not exceeding Three, to be such Copyhold Commissioners: And whereas by the Act of the Session holden in the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and eighteen, Provision was made for the Appointment of Two Persons, who, with the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, were to be the Commissioners for carrying that Act into execution, and were to be styled "The Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales:" And whereas the said Acts relating to the said Copyhold and Inclosure Commissioners have been amended by other Acts: And whereas under an Act of the Session holden in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and one, and other Acts relating to the Drainage of Lands in Great Britain, certain Powers and Duties are vested in the said Inclosure Commissioners in relation to such Drainage: And whereas the Appointments and Powers of Appointment of the said Copyhold Commissioners and Inclosure Commissioners, and of their Assistant Commissioners, Secretaries, and other Officers, will expire at the End of the present Session of Parliament: And whereas it is expedient to continue for the Period herein-after mentioned, and subject as herein provided, the Powers of Appointment contained in the said Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of Her Majesty, and to transfer to the Commissioners to be appointed thereunder the Duties and Powers of the said Inclosure Commissioners, and to provide for the Completion of the Proceedings for the Commutation of Tithes which have not been completed, and for the Exercise and Performance of such of the Powers and Duties of the said Tithe Commissioners as remain to be exercised or performed:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

6 & 7 W. 4. c. 71.

4 & 5 Vict. c. 35.

8 & 9 Vict. c. 118.

9 & 10 Vict. c. 101.

So much of 4 & 5 Vict. c. 35. as appoints Commissioners, &c. continued for Two Years. Salary of a Commissioner not to exceed 1,500*l*.

I. So much of the said Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of Her Majesty as authorizes the Appointment of Commissioners and other Officers as therein mentioned shall be continued for Two Years next after the Day of the passing of this Act, and thenceforth until the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and the Powers of Appointment so continued shall be construed as authorizing such Appointments as aforesaid, for all the Purposes of this Act: Provided always, that the Salary of any Commissioner to be appointed under the Power hereby continued shall not exceed Fifteen hundred Pounds.

Commissioners to come in the Place of Copyhold and Inclosure Commissioners, and to complete Proceedings vested

II. The Commissioners to be appointed as aforesaid shall be Commissioners for executing the said Acts of the Fourth and Fifth and the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her Majesty, and the Acts amending, explaining, and extending the same, and the Acts relating to the Drainage of Lands in Great Britain, in the Place of the said Copyhold Commissioners and Inclosure Commissioners respectively, and all the Powers and Duties of the said Tithe Commissioners which at the End of the present Session of Parliament are not fully exercised and performed shall by virtue of this Act be transferred to and become vested ceedings under Tithe Acts, and to exercise all other Powers now vested in Copyhold, &c. Commissioners.

vested in the Commissioners appointed under this Act, and where under any Act of Parliament any Powers or Duties are or may be vested in or to be performed by the said Copyhold Commissioners, Inclosure Commissioners, or Tithe Commissioners, or any or either of such Commissioners, all such Powers and Duties shall be vested in and performed by the said Commissioners to be appointed as aforesaid; and the Commissioners appointed under this Act shall, in all Proceedings in the Exercise and Performance of the Powers and Duties to be exercised and performed by them under this Act, in the Place of the said Copyhold Commissioners, Inclosure Commissioners, or Tithe Commissioners, adopt and use the Style and Seal of the Commissioners in whose Place they come under this Act in respect of such Powers and Duties.

As to Continuance of Secretary and Officers.

III. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to direct that such of the Secretaries, Assistant Secretaries, Clerks, and Officers employed under the said Tithe Commissioners, Copyhold Commissioners, and Inclosure Commissioners respectively as the said Commissioners of the Treasury shall think necessary be continued so long as such Commissioners may think fit, under and for the Purposes of this Act; and all such Officers may be removed as if they had been appointed under the Powers hereby continued; and no Assistant Commissioner, Secretary, or other Officer shall be appointed by the Commissioners appointed under this Act without the Consent of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

IV. All Appointments and Powers of Assistant Commissioners under the said Acts or any of them which may be in force immediately before the End of the present Session of Parliament shall respectively continue in force until revoked by the Commissioners appointed under this Act, subject nevertheless to the Provision next herein-after contained.

Appointments under this Act limited to Two Years.

V. No Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner, Secretary, or other Officer or Person appointed or continued under this Act, shall hold his Office for a longer Period than Two Years next after the Day of the passing of this Act, and thenceforth until the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and after the Expiration of the said Period of Two Years and of the then next Session of Parliament so much of this Act as authorizes any such Appointment shall cease.

Provisions as to Copyhold, &c. Commissioners applicable to this Act.

VI. Save as herein provided all Provisions of any Acts applicable to the said Copyhold Commissioners, Inclosure Commissioners, and Tithe Commissioners respectively shall be applicable in like Manner to the Commissioners under this Act.

Powers of Assistant Commissioners appointed by Tithe, &c. Commissioners vested in Assistant Commissioners appointed under this Act.

VII. Where, under the said Acts of the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth, and the Fourth and Fifth and the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her Majesty, and the Acts amending, explaining, and extending the same respectively, or any of such Acts, or any other Acts of Parliament, Powers and Duties are vested in or to be performed by an Assistant Commissioner appointed by or under the said Tithe Commissioners, Copyhold Commissioners, or Inclosure Commissioners, such Powers and Duties shall and may be exercised and performed by an Assistant Commissioner appointed or continued under this Act; and all Provisions having reference to any Assistant Commissioner appointed by the said Tithe Commissioners, Copyhold Commissioners, or Inclosure Commissioners shall be construed as having reference to an Assistant Commissioner appointed or continued under this Act.

Matters commenced by Tithe Commissioners, &c., to be completed by Commissioners under this Act.

VIII. All Acts, Matters, and Things commenced by or under the Authority of the said Copyhold Commissioners, Inclosure Commissioners, or Tithe Commissioners shall and may be carried on and completed by or under the Authority of the said Commissioners appointed under this Act; and such Commissioners, for the Purpose of prosecuting or defending and carrying on all Actions, Suits, or Proceedings pending at the Time of the First Appointment of Commissioners under this Act, shall come into the Place of such Copyhold Commissioners, Inclosure Commissioners, or Tithe Commissioners respectively.

Extending Powers of third-recited Act to authorizing Reservation of Easements for working Mines.

IX. 'And whereas it is expedient that the Powers of the said Act of the Eighth and Ninth Years of 'Her Majesty, and the Acts amending the same, should be extended to authorize the Reservation of 'Easements for working Mines of the Lord of a Manor (whose Consent may be required to an Inclosure), 'although such Mines may not be under the Lands to be inclosed:' Be it therefore enacted, That in the Provisional Order of the Commissioners concerning the Inclosure under the Provisions of the said Acts of any Waste Lands of any Manor it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to require, and in their Provisional Order to specify, as One of the Terms and Conditions of such Inclosure, the Reservation to the Lord of the Manor, his Heirs, Successors, and Assigns, of Rights of Way and other Easements over the Lands intended to be inclosed, for working and carrying away any Mines, Minerals, Stone, and other Substrata the Property of the Lord of the Manor, not under the Lands proposed to be inclosed, and whether within the Manor or not within the Manor, and also for working and carrying away any Mines, Minerals, Stone, and other Substrata which may be intended to be reserved to or remain the Property of the Lord of the Manor under the Lands proposed to be inclosed, or for any of the Purposes aforesaid; and in case it shall have been so declared in such Provisional Order, then the Valuer shall and may reserve and award to the Lord of the Manor, his Heirs, Successors, and Assigns, such Liberty to construct Railways, Waggon-ways, and Roads, and such Rights of Way and other Easements over the Lands intended to be inclosed, for working and carrying away any such Mines, Minerals, Stone, or other Substrata, the Property of the Lord of the Manor as aforesaid, as by the Valuer, with the Approbation of the Commissioners, shall be thought reasonable, and as shall not be inconsistent with the Terms of such Provisional Order; subject to such Provisions for Compensation for Damage to be done to the Surface in the Exercise and Enjoyment of such Rights and Easements as to the Valuer, with such Approbation as aforesaid, shall be thought reasonable.

CAP. LIV.

An Act to authorize the Inclosure of certain Lands in pursuance of a Special Report of the Inclosure Commissioners. [1st August 1851.]

'WHEREAS the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to facilitate the Inclosure and Improvement of Commons and Lands held in Common, the Exchange of Lands, and the Division of intermixed Lands, to provide Remedies for defective or incomplete Executions, and for the Non-execution of the Powers of General and Local Inclosure Acts, and to provide for the Revival of such Powers in certain Cases, issued their Provisional Orders for and concerning the proposed Inclosures mentioned in the Schedule to this Act, and the requisite Consents have been duly given: And whereas the said Commissioners have by a Special Report certified their Opinion that such Inclosures would be expedient; but the same cannot be proceeded with without the previous Authority of Parliament:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said several proposed Inclosures mentioned in the Schedule to this Act be proceeded with. 8 & 9 Vict. c. 118. CAP. LV.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Expenses of Prosecutions, and to make further Provision for the Apprehension and Trial of Offenders, in certain Cases. [1st August 1851.]

'WHEREAS by the Act of the Seventh Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-four, certain Provisions were made relating to the Allowance of Costs, Expenses, and Compensations to Prosecutors and Witnesses in Cases of Prosecutions for Felonies and certain Misdemeanors therein mentioned, and the Regulation and ascertaining of such Costs and Expenses, and relating to the Allowance of Compensation to Persons who may have been active in the Apprehension of Offenders or Persons charged with Offences; and Provisions have been made by other Acts relating to Costs, Expenses, and Compensations in Cases of Prosecutions in respect of the Offences therein mentioned: And whereas it is expedient to amend the Law relating to Costs, Expenses, and Compensations in Cases of Criminal Prosecutions:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That— 7 G. 4. c. 64.

I. So much of Section Twenty-three of the said Act of the Seventh Year of King George the Fourth as provides that in Cases of Misdemeanor the Power of ordering the Payment of Expenses and Compensation shall not extend to the Attendance before the examining Magistrate, shall be repealed. Part of 7 G. 4. c. 64. s. 23. as to Expenses before Magistrate, &c. repealed.

II. All the Provisions of the said Act of the Seventh Year of King George the Fourth, as amended by this Act, authorizing and empowering Courts to order Payment of Costs and Expenses, and Compensation for Trouble and Loss of Time, in Cases of the several Misdemeanors enumerated in Section Twenty-three of the said Act of King George the Fourth, and concerning Orders for Payment of such Costs, Expenses, and Compensation, and the Payment thereof, and all the Provisions of any other Act for, concerning, or applicable to the Payment of such Costs, Expenses, and Compensation in Cases of the said Misdemeanors, shall extend and be applicable in the Case of any of the Misdemeanors herein-after mentioned; namely, unlawfully and carnally knowing and abusing any Girl being above the Age of Ten Years and under the Age of Twelve Years; unlawfully taking or causing to be taken any unmarried Girl, being under the Age of Power of Courts to allow Expenses in Prosecutions for certain Misdemeanors extended to other Misdemeanors.

of Sixteen Years, out of the Possession and against the Will of her Father or Mother, or of any other Person having the lawful Care or Charge of her; conspiring to charge any Person with any Felony, or to indict any Person of any Felony; conspiring to commit any Felony.

Parties bound by Recognizance to prosecute or give Evidence on Bills of Indictment for common Assaults to be allowed Costs as in Cases of Felony.

III. 'And whereas by an Act of the Ninth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Thirty-one, it is 'enacted, that where any Person shall unlawfully assault or beat any other Person, it shall be lawful for 'Two Justices of the Peace, upon Complaint of the Party aggrieved, to hear and determine such Offence; 'and it is by the said Act provided, that in case the Justices shall find the Assault or Battery complained 'of to have been accompanied by any Attempt to commit Felony, or shall be of opinion that the same is 'from any other Circumstance a fit Subject for a Prosecution by Indictment, they shall abstain from any 'Adjudication thereupon, and shall deal with the Case in all respects in the same Manner as they would 'have done before the passing of the said Act: And whereas it is expedient that Courts before whom 'such Indictments shall be tried shall have Power to order Payment of Costs to Parties so bound by "Recognizance to prosecute or give Evidence:' Be it enacted, That in every Case of Assault so brought before such Justices for summary Decision in which the Justices shall be of opinion that the same is a fit Subject for Prosecution by Indictment, and shall thereupon bind the Complainant and Witnesses in Recognizance to prosecute and give Evidence at the Assizes or Sessions of the Peace, every such Court is hereby authorized and empowered at its Discretion to order Payment of the Costs and Expenses of the Prosecutor and Witnesses so appearing before such Court under such Recognizance, together with Compensation for their Trouble and Loss of Time, in the same Manner as Courts are authorized and empowered to order the same in Cases of Felony.

So much of 7 G. 4. c. 64. as empowers Quarter Sessions to make Regulations as to Costs and Expenses repealed.

IV. So much of the said Act of the Seventh Year of King George the Fourth as empowers the Justices of the Peace of any County, Riding, or Division, or of any Liberty, Franchise, City, Town, or Place chargeable with Costs and Expenses as therein mentioned, in Quarter Sessions assembled, to establish and alter Regulations as to the Rate of any Costs and Expenses to be allowed by virtue of that Act, shall be repealed: Provided always, that all such Regulations in force at the Time of the passing of this Act shall continue in force until revoked, or until Regulations in relation to the Matter thereof are made under the Powers of this Act.

Secretary of State may make Regulations as to Costs, Expenses, and Compensations, and Certificates to be granted by examining Magistrates.

V. It shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to revoke any Regulations made under the Provision herein-before repealed, and to make Regulations as to the Rates or Scales of Payment of all or any Costs, Expenses, and Compensations to be allowed or ordered to be paid under the said Act or any other Act or this Act to Prosecutors and Witnesses, and to Persons attending the Court in obedience to any Recognizance or Subpœna, in Cases of Criminal Prosecutions, and (except as hereinafter mentioned) to Persons who may have been active in or towards the Apprehension of Persons charged with Offences, and also Regulations as to the Rates or Scales of Payment according to which Certificates may be granted by the examining Magistrate or Magistrates in respect of the Expenses of any Prosecutor, or Witness or Witnesses for the Prosecution, or other Person, of attending before such Magistrate or Magistrates, and of any Compensation for Trouble and Loss of Time therein, in any Case where any Court or Judge is empowered under the said Act of the Seventh Year of King George the Fourth or any other Act or this Act to order Payment of such Expenses or Compensation, and concerning the Forms of such Certificates and the Details or Particulars to be inserted therein of the Expenses, Trouble, and Loss of Time to which such Certificates relate, and it shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State from Time to Time to alter any such Regulations, or make new Regulations in relation to any of the Matters aforesaid, and such Regulations for the Time being shall be binding on all Courts and Persons whomsoever.

Expenses and Compensations to be ascertained according to such Regulations, and Magistrates Certificate not to be conclusive.

VI. Where any Court or Judge empowered under the said Act of the Seventh Year of King George the Fourth, or under any other Act or this Act, in this Behalf, shall order Payment to any Prosecutor, or Witness or Witnesses for the Prosecution, or to any Person attending the Court in obedience to any Recognizance or Subpœna, in the Case of any Prosecution for Felony or any Misdemeanor or Offence, of any Costs or Expenses incurred, or of any Compensation for Trouble or Loss of Time, or order Payment (except as herein-after mentioned) to any Person who may appear to have been active in or towards the Apprehension of any Person charged with any Offence of Compensation for Expenses, Exertions, and Loss of Time in or towards such Apprehension, the Amount of such Costs, Expenses, or Compensation shall be ascertained by the proper Officer of the Court according to the Regulations made under this Act; and where the Expenses and Compensation in respect of attending before any examining Magistrate or Magistrates are so ordered to be paid, such Expenses and Compensation shall also be ascertained by the proper Officer of the Court according to such Regulations, but the Amount thereof as so ascertained shall not exceed the Amount mentioned in the Certificate of the examining Magistrate or Magistrates, and, save as aforesaid, the Certificate of any examining Magistrate or Magistrates shall not be conclusive as to the Amount to be allowed for Expenses of Attendance before him or them, or for Compensation for Trouble or Loss of Time therein.

Act not to interfere with Payments in respect of extraordinary Courage, &c.

VII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act or in any Regulations under this Act shall interfere with or affect the Power of any Court to order Payment to any Person who may appear to such Court to have shown extraordinary Courage, Diligence, or Exertion in or towards any such Apprehension as hereinbefore mentioned of such Sum as such Court shall think reasonable and adjudge to be paid in respect of such extraordinary Courage, Diligence, or Exertion.

Powers given to Judges by

VIII. 'And whereas by the said Act of the Seventh Year of King George the Fourth any Court of 'Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, and other Courts therein mentioned, are empowered to order

'Compen-

'Compensation to be paid to Persons who shall appear to the Court to have been active in or towards the 'Apprehension of any Person charged with Murder or with any other of the Crimes therein mentioned: 'And whereas it is expedient to extend such Power to Courts of Sessions of the Peace:' Be it enacted, That when any Person appears to any Court of Sessions of the Peace to have been active in or towards the Apprehension of any Party charged with any of the Offences in the said Enactment mentioned which such Sessions may have Power to try, such Court of Sessions shall have Power to order Compensation to be paid to such Person in the same Manner as the other Courts in the said Enactment mentioned; provided that such Compensation to any One Person shall not exceed the Sum of Five Pounds, and that every Order for Payment to any Person of such Compensation be made out and delivered by the proper Officer of the Court unto such Person without Fee or Payment for the same.

7 G. 4. c. 64. to order Payments in respect of the Apprehension of certain Offenders extended to Courts of Sessions of the Peace.

IX. 'And whereas it may be expedient to authorize the Payment of Clerks of the Peace and such 'other Clerks as herein-after mentioned by Salaries instead of Fees:' Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace at their General or Quarter Sessions for the several Counties, Ridings, Divisions of Counties, and Liberties throughout England and Wales, Notice being given at the preceding Quarter Sessions that a Motion will be made for such Purpose, and the Council or other governing Body in every Borough in England and Wales, from Time to Time, if they see fit so to do, to recommend to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State that the Clerks of the Peace, the Clerks of Special and Petty Sessions, and the Clerks of the Justices of the Peace within their several Jurisdictions, or any of such Clerks as aforesaid, be paid by Salaries in lieu of Fees and other Payments, or where any such Clerks are for the Time being paid by Salaries, by virtue of any Order made under this Act or otherwise, to recommend that the Amounts of all or any of the Salaries for the Time being payable be reconsidered, or that all or any of such Clerks for the Time being paid by Salaries be paid by Fees in lieu of Salary, and where Payment by Salary in lieu of Fees or the Reconsideration of the Amounts of any Salaries is recommended, to state the Amount of Salary which in the Opinion of such Justices, Council, or governing Body should in each Case be paid; and every such Recommendation being signed by the Chairman of the Court of General or Quarter Sessions, or the Mayor or other Head Officer of the Borough, shall be transmitted to the Secretary of State; and it shall be lawful for such Secretary of State, when any such Recommendation is so made to him, by Order under his Hand, if he so think fit, to direct that all or any of the Clerks to which such Recommendation refers be paid by Salary, and to fix the Amount of Salary to be so paid, or vary the Amount of Salary for the Time being payable to any such Clerk, or to direct that any such Clerk for the Time being paid by Salary be paid by Fees in lieu of Salary; and such Secretary of State shall cause Copies of every Order made under this Enactment affecting any Clerk of the Peace, or any Clerks of Special Sessions or Petty Sessions, or Clerks to the Justices within the District of any Clerk of the Peace, to be transmitted to such Clerk of the Peace, to be by him distributed, where Occasion shall require, to such other Clerks as aforesaid; and the Salary for the Time being payable to any such Clerk under any such Order shall be paid out of any County Rate or Rate in the Nature of a County Rate made in the County, Riding, Division, or Liberty, or out of the Borough Fund of the Borough, as the Case may be, for or in which such Clerk of the Peace or other Clerk to whom the same is payable is appointed or acts: Provided always, that in fixing the Amount of any Salary to be paid to any Clerk of the Peace or other Clerk appointed before the passing of this Act regard shall be had to the Tenure of his Office and to his Rights in respect thereof, but no Clerk of the Peace or other such Clerk as aforesaid appointed after the passing of this Act shall be entitled to any Compensation on account of any Reduction of his Emoluments occasioned by any Order made under this Enactment: Provided also, that no Order shall be made in pursuance of any Recommendation of the Council or governing Body of any Borough in relation to the Mode of Payment or the Amount of Salary of any such Clerk other than the Clerk of the Peace for such Borough, unless the Justices of such Borough at a Meeting of such Justices approve of such Recommendation, and such Approval be certified to such Secretary of State, under the Hand of the Chairman of such Meeting.

Clerks of the Peace, &c. may be paid by Salaries in lieu of Fees.

X. Provided that any such Court of Sessions, or Council or governing Body, may, where they see fit, recommend that any Description (to be specified in the Recommendation) of the Business of any Clerk whom they may recommend to be paid by Salary should not be included in fixing the Amount of such Salary, but that such Clerk should be remunerated for the same by such Fees or other Payments as may be payable to him in respect thereof; and where any Order is made by the Secretary of State in pursuance of such Recommendation as last aforesaid, such Clerk shall be entitled to receive, for his own Use, the like Fees or Payments in respect of the Business in such Recommendation specified in this Behalf as he would be so entitled to receive if not paid by Salary; and, save as aforesaid, where any Clerk is paid by Salary under any Order made by virtue of this Act, such Salary shall include and be deemed the Remuneration for all Business which such Clerk may, by reason of his Office, be called on to perform; and no other Payment shall be made for any such Business, or for or to a Deputy of any such Clerk.

Certain Business may be excepted in fixing the Salaries.

XI. Save as herein-before provided, all the Fees which any such Clerk as aforesaid would have been for the Time being entitled to receive to his own Use if such Order had not been made shall, so long as any Order for Payment of such Clerk by Salary in lieu of Fees is in force, be by him received and paid in any County, Riding, Division, or Liberty to the Treasurer in aid of the County Rate or Rate in the Nature of a County Rate of such County, Riding, Division, or Liberty, and in any Borough to the Treasurer in aid of the Borough Fund, and such Fees shall be accounted for from Time to Time in such Manner and under such Regulations as the Justices at Quarter Sessions, or in any Borough the Council or other governing Body, may direct.

Clerks paid by Salaries to account for Fees.

Fees may be remitted by Justices.

XII. Where any Clerk is paid by Salary by virtue of any Order made under this Act, any Justices or Justice before whom any Proceeding is had, whereon a Fee is payable which should be accounted for by such Clerk under this Act, or before whom any Person is summoned for Nonpayment of any such Fee, may remit such Fee in whole or in part for Poverty or other reasonable Cause, in their or his Discretion, and in every such Case the Justices or Justice by whom any Fee is wholly or in part remitted shall cause an Entry to be made, in a Book or Books to be kept for that Purpose by such Clerk, of the Nature and Amount of the several Fees so remitted, and of the Reason for the Remission in such Case, which Entry shall be signed by the Justice, or Two or more of the Justices authorizing such Remission, and shall be a sufficient Voucher to discharge the Clerk therefrom.

So much of 4 & 5 W. 4. c. 36. as restrains Justices of London, &c. from trying certain Offences, &c., repealed.

Proviso.

XIII. 'And whereas by the Act of the Session holden in the Fourth and Fifth Years of King William 'the Fourth, Chapter Thirty-six, it was enacted, that the Justices of the Peace acting in and for the 'Cities of London and Westminster, the Liberty of the Tower of London, the Borough of Southwark, 'and the Counties of Middlesex, Essex, Kent, and Surrey, should not, at their respective General or 'Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, try any Person or Persons charged with 'any of the Offences therein mentioned committed or alleged to be committed within the Limits of that 'Act:' Be it enacted, That the said recited Enactment shall be repealed: Provided always, that such Repeal shall not be construed to give Authority to the said Justices of the Peace to try any Person or Persons for any Offence which the Justices of the Peace acting in and for any County, Riding, Division, or Liberty are restrained from trying under the Act of the Session holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-eight.

Deputy to Assistant Judge of the Middlesex Session need not be in the Commission of the Peace.

XIV. So much of the Act of the Session holden in the Seventh and Eighth Year of Her Majesty as requires that any Person to be appointed a Deputy to the Assistant Judge of the Court of the Sessions of the Peace for the County of Middlesex should be in the Commission of the Peace for the said County, and qualified by Law to act as a Justice of the Peace, shall be repealed, but any Person, being a Serjeant or Barrister at Law of not less than Ten Years standing, may, in the Cases and with the Allowance and in the Manner therein mentioned, be appointed such Deputy.

As to Powers of dividing Court of Quarter, &c. Sessions for Middlesex.

XV. The Court of Quarter or General Sessions or Adjourned Session of the Peace for the County of Middlesex shall possess the same Powers for dividing such Court of Quarter or General or Adjourned Sessions as are now possessed by the Courts of Quarter and General and Adjourned Sessions of the Peace in Counties in which there is an Order in force for the Appointment of a permanent Chairman and Deputy Chairman; and whensoever such Court shall exercise such Power the Assistant Judge shall appoint a Person qualified to act as Deputy Assistant Judge to preside as Chairman with the Justices who shall be appointed to sit apart: Provided always, that the Name of the Person who shall be so appointed shall at some previous Time have been transmitted to and approved of by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as a fit and proper Person to be from Time to Time appointed as such Deputy Assistant Judge.

Assistant Judge to appoint a Deputy to preside as Chairman with Justices appointed to sit apart.

When Presence of One of such Justices not essential.

XVI. The Presence of One of the Justices so as aforesaid set apart shall not be essential to the Formation of the Court in which such Deputy Assistant Judge shall preside, but the Jurisdiction of such Justices shall not be in any way lessened by such Appointment.

So much of 9 G. 4. c. 43. and 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 12. as exempts Middlesex repealed.

XVII. So much of an act of the Ninth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Forty-three, and of an Act of the Session holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Twelve, as enacts that nothing therein contained shall extend to the County of Middlesex, shall be repealed, and the said Acts shall be construed and take effect as if the County of Middlesex had not been excepted from the Operation thereof.

11 & 12 Vict. cc. 42. & 43.

XVIII. 'And whereas by Section Thirteen of the Act of the Session holden in the Eleventh and 'Twelfth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Forty-two, Provision is made for indorsing such Warrants 'as therein mentioned by any Officer within any of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, and Sark, 'who shall have Jurisdiction to issue any Warrant or Process in the Nature of a Warrant for the Appre-'hension of Offenders, and other Provisions are made in the same Act, and in the Act of the same Year 'of Her Majesty, Chapter Forty-three, by reference to the Enactment of the said Section, and Doubts 'have arisen by whom Warrants should be indorsed in the said Isles pursuant to the said Provisions:' Be it enacted, That the Bailiffs of Jersey and Guernsey respectively, or in their respective Absence the Lieutenant Bailiffs of such Islands respectively, within their respective Bailiwicks or Jurisdictions, the Judge of Alderney, or in his Absence any Jurat of such Island within such Island, and the Seneschal of Sark, or in his Absence his Deputy within such Island, shall have all such Power and Authority to indorse Warrants as by the said Acts respectively is given or expressed or intended to be given to any Officer within any of such Isles having Jurisdiction to issue any Warrant or Process in the Nature of a Warrant for the Apprehension of Offenders, and for such Purpose shall have Authority to administer an Oath, and all the Provisions of the said Acts shall be construed as if the Officers authorized to indorse Warrants by this Enactment had been so authorized by the said Section of the first-mentioned Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty.

By whom Warrants to be backed in the Channel Islands.

In certain Counties of Cities and Towns Prisoners may be committed and tried at Assizes held

XIX. Whenever any Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Coroner, acting for any County of a City or County of a Town Corporate within which Her Majesty has not been pleased for Five Years next before the passing of this Act to direct a Commission of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery to be executed, and until Her Majesty shall be pleased to direct a Commission of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery to be executed within the same, shall commit for safe Custody to the Gaol or House of Correction of such County of a City or Town any Person charged with any Offence committed within the Limits of such

County

County of a City or Town not triable at the Court of Quarter Sessions of the said County of a City or County of a Town, the Commitment shall specify that such Person is committed pursuant to this Act, and the Recognizances to appear to prosecute and give Evidence taken by such Justice, Justices, or Coroner shall in all such Cases be conditioned for Appearance, Prosecution, and giving Evidence at the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery for the next adjoining County; and whenever any such Person shall be so committed, the Keeper of such Gaol or House of Correction shall deliver to the Judges of Assize for such next adjoining County a Calendar of all Prisoners in his Custody so committed, in the same Way that the Sheriff of the County would be by Law required to do if such Prisoners had been committed to the Common Gaol of such adjoining County; and the Justice, Justices, or Coroner by whom Persons charged as aforesaid may be committed shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the proper Officer of the Court the several Examinations, Informations, Evidence, Recognizances, and Inquisitions relative to such Persons at the Time and in the Manner that would be required in case such Persons had been committed to the Gaol of such adjoining County by a Justice or Justices, or Coroner, having Authority so to commit, and the same Proceedings shall and may be had thereupon at the Sessions of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery for such adjoining County as in the Case of Persons charged with Offences of the like Nature committed within such County. for adjoining County.

XX. It shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace, at their General or Quarter Sessions for any County, Riding, or Division, by Order made for that Purpose, to declare that any Gaol or House of Correction for such County, Riding, or Division is a fit Prison for Persons committed for Trial at the Assizes for such County, or for the County of such Riding or Division; and every such Order shall be signed by the Chairman of such Sessions, and transmitted to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and in case such Secretary of State see fit to approve such Order, then, after the Approval thereof under the Hand of such Secretary of State, it shall be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Coroner, acting for such County, Riding, or Division, to commit for safe Custody for Trial at the next Assizes, to such Gaol or House of Correction, any Person charged with any Offence triable at the Assizes for such County, or for the County of such Riding or Division; and the Commitment shall specify that such Person is committed under the Authority of this Act; and the Recognizances to appear to prosecute and give Evidence taken by such Justice, Justices, or Coroner shall in all such Cases be conditioned for Appearance, Prosecution, and giving Evidence at the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery for the County; and the Keeper of such Gaol or House of Correction shall deliver to the Judges of Assize a Calendar of all Prisoners in Custody for Trial at such Assizes, in the same Way that the Sheriff of the County would be by Law required to do if such Prisoners had been committed to the Common Gaol of such County; and the Justice, Justices, or Coroner by whom Persons charged as aforesaid may be committed shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the proper Officer of the Court of Assize the several Examinations, Informations, Evidence, Recognizances, and Inquisitions relative to such Persons at the Time and in the Manner that would be required in case such Persons had been committed for Trial as aforesaid to such Common Gaol, and the same Proceedings shall and may be had thereupon at the Sessions of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery for such County as in the Case of Persons so committed to such Common Gaol. Justices to declare when Gaols or Houses of Correction are fit Prisons for Persons committed for Trial.

XXI. All Persons who may under the Authority of this Act be committed to the Gaol or House of Correction of any County of a City or County of a Town Corporate for Trial at the Assizes to be holden for the next adjoining County, or to any Gaol (other than the Common Gaol of the County) or House of Correction for any County, Riding, or Division for Trial at the Assizes for such County, or for the County of such Riding or Division, shall in due Time, without Writ of Habeas corpus or other Writ for that Purpose, be removed by the Gaoler or Keeper of such Gaol or House of Correction, with their Commitments and Detainers, to the Common Gaol of such County, in order that they may be tried at the Assizes to be holden for such County, and such Removal shall not be deemed or taken to be an Escape. Prisoners so committed to be removed to County Gaol previous to Trial.

XXII. Every Prisoner so removed shall, for and during the Time of such Removal, and for and during the Time of his being removed back to the Gaol or House of Correction from which he may have been brought, when and as often as he shall for any Reason be so removed back, and also for and during such Time as he may be detained in the County Gaol, and until he shall be delivered by due Course of Law, be to all Intents and Purposes deemed and considered to be in the proper legal Custody, notwithstanding he may in effecting such Removal have been taken or detained out of the Jurisdiction of the County of a City or Town, or out of the Jurisdiction of the County, Riding, or Division, to the Gaol or House of Correction of which he may have been originally committed, into any other Jurisdiction, or out of the County to the Common Gaol of which he is removed into or through any other County or Division of a County; and no Action or other Proceeding shall or may be maintained by such Prisoner, or by any other Person, against the Gaoler or Keeper of the Gaol or House of Correction from which such Prisoner is removed, or against the Gaoler or Keeper of the Common Gaol of the County, by reason or in consequence of such Prisoner having been taken out of the Jurisdiction of such County of a City or Town, County, Riding, or Division, from the Gaol or House of Correction of which such Prisoner is removed, into any other Jurisdiction, or out of such County to the Common Gaol of which he is removed into or through any other County or Division of a County. Prisoners while under Removal to be deemed in proper legal Custody.

XXIII. All the Provisions of the Act of the Fifty-first Year of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred, applicable to Convictions in pursuance of the Provisions of the Act of the Thirty-eighth Year of King George the Third, Chapter Fifty-two, and to the Execution of the Sentences passed upon any Convicts on such Convictions, and all the Provisions of the said Acts respectively concerning the Payment of The Provisions of 38 G. 3. c. 52. and 51 G. 3. c. 100. as to Execution of of Expenses, shall be applicable in all Cases of Persons who may be tried in or removed for Trial to any adjoining County in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act, in like Manner as in Cases of Persons tried in or removed for Trial to any adjoining County in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Act of the Thirty-eighth Year of King George the Third.

What to be deemed the next adjoining County.

XXIV. For the Purposes of this Act the Counties named in the Second Column of Schedule (C.) to the Act of the Session holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-six, shall be considered next adjoining the Counties of Cities and Towns Corporate in the First Column of the same Schedule in conjunction with which they are respectively named.

Extent of Act.

XXV. This Act shall not extend to Ireland or to Scotland.

CAP. LVI.

An Act to sanction the Service by Post of Notices relative to the Proceedings of certain charitable Institutions, and to make further Provision as to the Service of such Notices in future. [8th August 1851.]

'WHEREAS great Inconvenience has been occasioned, and may be occasioned, to incorporated and other charitable Institutions in England, by reason of Courts, Boards, and Meetings of Governors, Members, or Subscribers, and Elections of Presidents, Patrons, Treasurers, Hospitallers, Masters, Physicians, Surgeons, and other Officers of or to, and Recipients of the Benefits conferred by, such Institutions respectively, having from Time to Time taken place, of which the Notices or some of them have been issued through the Post, by the extreme Difficulty of proving the Service of such Notices, and by the Want of sufficient Provisions in the Charters, Statutes, Laws, or Rules of such Institutions as to the Service of Notices thereby required to be given; And whereas it is expedient immediately to provide a Remedy for the Inconvenience and Defects before mentioned:' Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Courts, &c. already held and not avoided, &c. to be considered as having taken place after proper Notices served.

I. That every such Court, Board, or Meeting, the Acts whereof have not already been avoided or annulled by some Court of Law or Equity, nor are now the Subject of some Action, Suit, or other Proceeding for the Avoidance or Annulling thereof now pending in some Court of Law or Equity, nor have been avoided or annulled by some subsequent regular Court, Board, or Meeting (as the Case may be) of any such Institution as aforesaid, and every such Election as aforesaid which hath not already been avoided or annulled nor brought into Litigation as aforesaid, nor avoided or annulled by some subsequent regular Election to the same Office or Benefit, shall be considered to have taken place respectively after sufficient Notice duly served on all Persons who ought to have had Notice thereof.

After passing of this Act all Notices may be sent by Post, &c.

II. That from and after the passing of this Act all Notices to the Governors or Members of or Subscribers to any present or future charitable Institution in England, whether incorporated or not, which by the Charter, Statutes, Laws, or Rules (as the Case may be) of such Institution for the Time being are or shall be required to be given, may be served by the same being transmitted through the Post, directed according to the Address given in the List of the Governors or Members of or Subscribers to such Institution for the Time being in use at the chief Establishment thereof, in such Time as to admit of their Delivery in the due Course of Delivery by Post at or before such Period (if any) as is or shall be prescribed by the Charter, Statutes, Laws, or Rules (as the Case may be) for the Time being of such Institution for the giving of such Notices; and in proving such Service it shall be sufficient to prove that such Notice was so directed as aforesaid, and put into a General Post Office in such Time as aforesaid; but so nevertheless that nothing in this Act contained shall be held to render invalid any personal Service of any Notice, or to render necessary to the effectual Service of any Notice any further Act, Matter, or Thing than would have been required for the Service thereof by the Charter, Statutes, Laws, or Rules for the Time being of the Institution which the same shall concern if this Act had not passed; and that no Notice of any intended Court, Board, Meeting, or Election shall be required to be served, either by Post or otherwise, on any Governor or Member of or Subscriber to any such Institution who shall not for the Time being be within the United Kingdom, anything in any such Charter, Statutes, Laws, or Rules to the contrary notwithstanding.

CAP. LVII.

An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Civil Bills and the Courts of Quarter Sessions in Ireland, and to transfer to the Assistant Barristers certain Jurisdiction as to Insolvent Debtors. [1st August 1851.]

'WHEREAS the Recovery of Small Debts by Civil Bill has been found beneficial to the Queen's Subjects in Ireland: And whereas it would conduce to the Improvement of the Administration of Justice there if the several Statutes and Parts of Statutes relating to the Recovery of Small Debts by Civil Bill, and of Tenements by Civil Bill Ejectments, and relating in other respects to the Jurisdiction of the Civil Bill Courts, were consolidated, with such Additions and Alterations as herein-after contained, and that the existing Acts relating to the said Matters should be repealed:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual ritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Certain Acts and Parts of Acts repealed.

I. From and after the Commencement of this Act the several Acts and Parts of Acts set forth in the Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed, to the Extent to which such Acts or Parts of Acts are by such Schedule expressed to be repealed, and every other Act or Acts and such Parts of every other Act or Acts as shall be inconsistent with this Act, shall be and they are hereby repealed, except as to anything heretofore done, and except so far as any of the said Acts or Parts of Acts, whether mentioned or included in the said Schedule or not, repeal any former Act or Part of an Act, and except also so far as may be necessary for the Purpose of supporting and continuing any Proceeding heretofore taken or to be taken after the Commencement of this Act upon any Proceeding by Civil Bill before the Commencement of this Act, and except as to the Recovery and Application of any Penalty for any Offence which shall have been committed before the Commencement of this Act.

Chairman of the County of Dublin.

The present Chairman to continue in Office.

II. The Person now holding the Office of Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace for the County of Dublin shall continue to hold the said Office as he heretofore has held the same; and that every Assistant Barrister already appointed for any County or Riding shall continue to hold his Office under and by force of this Act, and shall hold the same during good Behaviour, and no longer; and it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, on the Death, Resignation, or Removal of the Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace for the County of Dublin, or of any Assistant Barrister already appointed or hereafter to be appointed, to nominate and appoint to the Office of Assistant Barrister for the said County of Dublin (in the Place and Stead of a Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace for the said County), and for each and every other County and Riding, a practising Barrister-at Law of Ten Years standing at the least, who shall have actually practised Ten Years in Her Majesty's Superior Courts in Dublin, and shall not at the Time of his Appointment to such Office have retired from such Practice; and that every Assistant Barrister hereafter to be appointed, including every Assistant Barrister to be appointed for the said County of Dublin, shall also hold his Office during good Behaviour, and no longer: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, to remove any such Assistant Barrister from his Office upon the Address of both Houses of Parliament; and the said Chairman and every Assistant Barrister shall be sole Judge of the Civil Bill Court to be holden under this Act, and shall be ipso facto in the Commission of the Peace, and a Justice of the Peace for the County for which or for any Riding of which he shall be so appointed, even though no Commission should be issued for the Purpose, and shall duly attend at every Session of the Peace and Adjournment thereof holden in such County or Riding, and shall continue such Attendance during the whole of every Session and every Adjournment thereof, save and except such Sessions or Adjournments as shall be held for any other Purpose than the Administration of Justice in Criminal Cases, and the hearing of Causes in manner herein mentioned by Civil Bill, and shall by virtue of his Office be and preside as Chairman of the Justices at General or Quarter Sessions, and it shall and may be lawful for such Chairman and Assistant Barrister to proceed in the criminal or other Business at such Sessions, although no other Justice of the Peace for the County, Riding, or Place shall be in attendance: Provided also, that no Person holding the said Office of Assistant Barrister shall be capable of being a Member of the House of Commons in the present or any future Parliament.

Assistant Barristers.

Appointment of Assistant Barristers, including an Assistant Barrister (in future) for the County of Dublin.

Oath of Chairman, &c.

Assistant Barristers to take an Oath before Lord Chancellor

Oath.

III. No Assistant Barrister already appointed, if removed to any other County or Riding, nor any Assistant Barrister hereafter to be appointed, shall proceed to act as Assistant Barrister, until he shall have first taken the following Oath before the Lord High Chancellor or Keeper or any Commissioner of the Great Seal of Ireland for the Time being; which Oath the said Chancellor, Keeper, or Commissioner is hereby empowered to administer; that is to say,

'I A. B. do swear, That I will execute the Office of Assistant Barrister for the County of '[or Riding of the County of], and for any other County or Riding to which I 'may be hereafter appointed, diligently, justly, and impartially, and without Favour, Affection, or 'Malice, do equal Right to all the Queen's Subjects that shall come within my Jurisdiction, and that I 'will in all Things, to the best of my Skill and Power, faithfully execute all the Duties imposed or that 'shall hereafter be imposed on me in virtue of such Office. So help me GOD.'

Provided always, that any Assistant Barrister who shall have once taken the said Oath shall not be obliged to repeat the same on any subsequent Removal to any County or Riding.

Salaries and Pensions.

Salaries to Chairman of Sessions of the Peace for County of Dublin and Assistant Barristers.

IV. From and after the Commencement of this Act the Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace for the County of Dublin, and the several Assistant Barristers already appointed, and hereafter to be appointed, as aforesaid, shall (over and above the annual Sums payable to him and them in respect of the Registration or Revision of the Lists of Parliamentary Voters) severally and respectively receive the annual Salaries mentioned and specified, relating to them respectively, in the Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed, in lieu of his and their former Salaries and Fees, the said several Salaries to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland by Four quarterly Payments on the Twenty-fifth Day of March, Twenty-fourth Day of June, Twenty-ninth Day of September, and Twenty-fifth Day of December in each and every Year, the First Payment thereof to be made on the quarterly Day of Payment which shall next ensue after the Commencement of this Act.

Provision for granting an Annuity to Chairman of County of Dublin of 500l.

V. It shall and may be lawful for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, by any Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Ireland, to give and grant to the Person who now executes the Office of Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace of the County of Dublin, if he shall resign the same, an Annuity or yearly Sum not exceeding the Sum of Five hundred Pounds Sterling, and to any Person who shall have executed executed the Office of Assistant Barrister, and who shall have resigned the same, an Annuity or yearly Sum not exceeding the Sum of Four hundred Pounds Sterling, the said several Annuities or yearly Sums to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland: Provided always, that no such Annuity or yearly Sum of Money granted to the Person who now executes the Office of Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace of the County of Dublin, or to any Assistant Barrister, shall be valid, unless he shall have continued in Office Twenty Years, or be afflicted with some permanent Infirmity disabling him from the due Execution of his Office, the same to be distinctly recited in such Grant: Provided also, that the said Annuity to the Person now holding the Office of Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace of the County of Dublin may be granted to such Chairman when the Period of his Service as such Chairman, together with the Period of his Service as Assistant Barrister, previous to his Appointment as such Chairman, shall together amount to a Period of Twenty Years or upwards.

Salaries and Pensions.

To Assistant Barrister, 400*l.* a Year. Conditions on which such Grant shall be valid.

Power to Lord Lieutenant to remove Assistant Barristers to other Counties with Assent.

VI. It shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, by and with the Consent of the Privy Council in Ireland, to remove any Assistant Barrister from any County or Riding to any other County or Riding, to act therein as Assistant Barrister: Provided always, that no such Removal shall take place without the Assent of such Assistant Barrister.

Deputy Chairman or Assistant Barristers during Absence.

When it appears to Lord Chancellor, upon Oath, that the Chairman or any Assistant Barrister is unable to attend, he may appoint another of Ten Years standing to do his Duty, who shall take the Oath before required, and shall be invested with all Powers of Chairman or Assistant Barrister during his Absence.

VII. 'And whereas it may sometimes happen that the Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace for the 'County of Dublin, or an Assistant Barrister, may, by reason of Sickness or other necessary Cause of 'Absence, be unable to attend at the Session of the Peace or Adjournment thereof, and to hold the said 'Court for hearing and determining Causes by Civil Bill as aforesaid, or to continue such Attendance 'thereat:' Be it therefore enacted, That when it shall appear to the Lord High Chancellor, Keeper or Commissioners of the Great Seal of Ireland, for the Time being, upon Oath before any Justice of the Peace, that the said Chairman or any Assistant Barrister is unable to attend at the Time appointed for any Session of the Peace in any County or Riding, or at any Adjournment thereof, or to continue his Attendance thereat as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, Keeper or any Commissioner of the Great Seal, for the Time being, to nominate or appoint some other Barrister of Ten Years standing at the least, and who shall not have retired from Practice, to do and execute the Duty of such Chairman or Assistant Barrister for such Time as such Illness or Absence shall continue; and every Person appointed under this Act to do and execute the Duty of Chairman or Assistant Barrister during the Absence or Non-attendance of such Chairman or Assistant Barrister shall, before he shall enter on the Duties of the said Office, take the Oath herein-before required to be taken by such Chairman or Assistant Barrister respectively, mutatis mutandis, either before such Chancellor, Keeper or Commissioner, or publicly in open Court at the Sessions of the Peace or Adjournment thereof on the First Day on which he shall attend at any Session or Adjournment thereof, (and which Oath the Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy is hereby authorized and required in such Case to administer,) to execute such Duty, and shall have all and every the Powers and Authorities given to such Chairman or Assistant Barrister by this and any other Act or Acts of Parliament, and be authorized in every respect to do and execute, during the Continuance of such Absence, and no longer, every Matter and Thing which such Chairman or Assistant Barrister might himself lawfully do if personally present.

In case of Absence of Chairman or Assistant Barrister, Sessions may be adjourned by One Justice, or by Registrar or Clerk of Peace, until Deputy arrives.

VIII. 'And whereas it may happen that such Illness or Cause of Absence may occur so suddenly as 'that there may not be sufficient Time to give Notice thereof to the Chancellor, Keeper or Commissioner 'of the Great Seal, and to have a Person appointed to do the Duty of the said Chairman or Assistant 'Barrister at such Sessions, or after having opened the Sessions the Chairman or Assistant Barrister 'may be prevented by Illness or other Cause from continuing his Attendance thereat:' Be it enacted, That in case it shall so happen that the Chairman or any Assistant Barrister shall not be in attendance to open such Sessions on the Day appointed for opening the same, or after having opened the same shall not continue his Attendance until the Business of such Sessions shall be completed, it shall and may be lawful for any One Justice of the Peace for the County, or for the Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy, or in the County of Dublin for the Registrar of the Chairman, so long as the said Chairman shall continue to hold Office, in the Absence of any Justice at the Hour of Five o'Clock in the Afternoon, and not before that Hour, to open and adjourn, or to adjourn only, as the Case may be, such Sessions, and so from Time to Time and for such reasonable Time as shall be sufficient for such Chancellor, Keeper or Commissioner, to be informed of such Illness or Absence, and to appoint some Person to do the said Duty, and for such Person to repair to the Place where such Sessions should be held, and take upon himself the Execution of such Duty.

Persons appointed during Absence to be paid so much as Lord Chancellor shall think fit, out of Salary.

IX. Every Person appointed under this Act during the Illness or Absence of the said Chairman or of any Assistant Barrister to do and execute the Duty of such Chairman or Assistant Barrister for him shall receive and be paid such Compensation for his Labour and Trouble therein as the Lord Chancellor, Keeper or Commissioners of the Great Seal of Ireland, for the Time being, shall think fit to direct and appoint, the same to be paid out of the Salary hereby provided for such Chairman or Assistant Barrister who shall so be absent.

Clerks of the Peace.

Clerks of the Peace to act as Clerks to Assistant Barristers and as Registrars;

X. The Clerks of the Peace for the several Counties respectively, or their sufficient Deputies, shall be and are hereby required to act as Clerks to the said Assistant Barristers respectively in the Execution of the Duty imposed on them by this Act, and as Registrars respectively of the said Court, and shall be obedient to the said Assistant Barristers respectively in all lawful Commands which they shall respectively receive from the said respective Assistant Barristers relative to the Business of the said Court, and the Duty imposed by this Act on the said Assistant Barristers and Clerks of the Peace respectively; and the Clerks of the Peace.

the said several Clerks of the Peace and their respective Deputies shall and they are hereby required to keep Books for the entering and registering of all Civil Bill Causes, and shall enter and register the same, and such Books shall be Records of the respective Counties to which they shall belong; and no Clerk of the Peace, or any Deputy or Clerk of his, or any Person for his Use or Benefit, shall act as an Attorney in any Cause which such Assistant Barristers are by this Act empowered to hear and determine; and if he, they, or any of them shall so act as an Attorney in any such Cause, by himself or any other for his Use or Benefit, he shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds to any Person who shall, within One Year after such Offence committed, sue for the same by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record in Dublin, and shall, moreover, in case of Judgment being had against him, be incapable of ever holding such Office of Clerk of the Peace, or Deputy Clerk of the Peace, as the Case may be.

To keep Registry Books as Records.

Penalty on Clerk of the Peace acting as an Attorney in Causes before Assistant Barristers, 50*l.*

XI. Every Clerk of the Peace, and every Deputy Clerk of the Peace, already appointed, at the First Sessions after the Commencement of this Act at which they shall respectively attend, and every Clerk of the Peace, and Deputy Clerk of the Peace, hereafter to be appointed, at the First Sessions at which they shall respectively attend after their respective Appointments, and at the Commencement of such Sessions, shall and they are hereby respectively required to make and sign an Affidavit in Writing, to be attested by the Assistant Barrister of such respective County, and to be deposited in the Office of the Clerk of the Peace amongst the Records of the Court of such County, in the Form following; (that is to say,)

Clerk of the Peace to make Affidavit.

'I A. B., Clerk of the Peace [or Deputy], do swear, That I have not already, directly or indirectly, taken, and will not, directly or indirectly, take, so long as I shall continue to hold the Office of Clerk of the Peace [or Deputy], any greater or other Fee, or Sum or Sums of Money, or other Thing, for or on account of any Matter or Thing done or to be done in any Cause to be heard and determined before the Assistant Barrister of this County [or Riding of the County of] by Civil Bill, than is or shall be allowed by Law.'

Form of Affidavit.

XII. In case of the Death, Disability, or Absence of any Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, during Sessions, the Assistant Barrister shall appoint a fit and proper Person to act as Clerk of the Peace until a Clerk of the Peace, or sufficient Deputy, be duly appointed, and shall allocate a due Proportion of the Fees or Salary in remuneration of the Person so acting; and such Person so appointed shall make and sign such Affidavit as is herein-before directed to be made by the Clerk of the Peace and his Deputy.

In case of Death of Clerk of the Peace during Sessions.

Attorneys.

XIII. No Person shall be admitted to practise as an Attorney before the Chairman of the County of Dublin, or before any Assistant Barrister, or the Recorder of Dublin, in any Civil Bill Court, or at the Court of General Quarter Sessions, but such Person only who is or shall be admitted an Attorney in One of Her Majesty's Superior Courts in Dublin; and that no Attorney shall be suffered to practise as aforesaid in any County wherein he is or shall be a Justice of the Peace.

No one to act as Attorney unless admitted in the Superior Courts.

XIV. It shall and may be lawful for the Chairman of the County of Dublin, the Recorder of Dublin, or any Assistant Barrister, if any Attorney practising in Causes by Civil Bill shall appear to him, either upon such Chairman, Recorder, or Assistant Barrister's own View in open Court, or by Examination of others upon Oath, to have acted in any such Cause corruptly, or knowingly and wilfully against his Duty as an Attorney, to make an Order, to remain of Record with the Clerk of the Peace, suspending such Attorney from practising on Civil Bills, for a given Time, in such County or Riding, which Order shall be binding: Provided nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for any Attorney against whom such Order shall be made to appeal, if such Order shall have been made in the County or County of the City of Dublin, to any of the Chief Judges or other Judge or Baron at Nisi Prius in Dublin, and if in any other County to the Judge of Assize at the Sittings or Assizes to be holden within Twelve Months after such Order made, which Judge may, by Examination on Oath, examine into the Ground of such Order, and reverse, vary, or affirm the same as he shall see Reason.

Power to Assistant Barristers to suspend Attorneys acting corruptly, &c. from practising on Civil Bills.

Attorneys may appeal to Judges of Assize.

Process Officers.

XV. The several Persons now holding the Office of Process Officer or Process Server in the several Counties and Ridings shall continue to hold the same as heretofore, until removed by the Chairman or Assistant Barrister of their respective Counties or Ridings; and that at the several Sessions of the Peace in and for the several Counties or Ridings which shall be holden after the passing of this Act, or at such other Times as Occasion may require, the Chairman and each and every of the Assistant Barristers shall and may, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, from Time to Time, appoint such Number of fit and proper Persons, being Householders, residing in the principal Market Towns or in other convenient Places within the said Counties or Ridings, as to the said Chairman or Assistant Barrister shall from Time to Time appear to be necessary, to be Officers for the Service of Civil Bill Processes within such County or Riding, or within such Division of such County or Riding as shall be specified in any such Warrant, and it shall be lawful for each and every such Officer heretofore or hereafter so appointed, and he and they is and are hereby authorized and required, to serve such Process accordingly, within such County or Riding, or within such Division of such County or Riding as aforesaid; and it shall not be lawful for any Person whomsoever, other than One of such Officers so heretofore appointed or hereafter to be appointed, to serve any such Process; and that any Service or pretended Service of any Process by any other Person whomsoever (save as herein-after provided) shall be wholly null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and that any such Officer already appointed or who shall be hereafter appointed for the Service of Process shall be removable and shall and may be removed at the Will and Pleasure of the Chairman or Assistant Barrister of the County or Riding for the Time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the Service of any Process in any Proceeding by Ejectment or Replevin by any Person other than such Process Officer.

Power to Assistant Barristers to appoint Officers to serve Civil Bill Processes in the several Counties and Ridings.

After such Appointments, no other Persons to serve Process.

Service by unauthorized Persons declared void.

XXII. The Recorder of the City of Dublin and the Recorder of the Borough of Cork shall continue to hold Courts for the hearing of Civil Bills in the Manner and at the Times that they have respectively heretofore held the same, and that nothing herein contained shall extend to affect the Power of such Recorders respectively to appoint the Time or Times for the holding of such Courts respectively; and the Recorder of the City of Dublin shall, in lieu of all Fees heretofore payable to him on Civil Bill Proceedings, receive the annual Sum of Two hundred and fifty Pounds, to be paid to him out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, by Four quarterly Payments, on the Days heretofore appointed for Payment of the Salaries of Assistant Barristers; and the Recorder of the Borough of Cork shall, in lieu of all Fees heretofore payable to him on Civil Bill Proceedings, receive the annual Sum of One hundred Pounds, to be paid to him out of said Consolidated Fund by like quarterly Payments.

Recorder of Dublin and of Cork to hold Civil Court as heretofore.

Annual Payment to him in lieu of Fees.

XXIII. ‘ And whereas an Act was passed in the Fourth Year of His late Majesty King George the ‘ Fourth, intituled An Act to divide the County of Cork for the Purpose of holding additional General ‘ Sessions therein, whereby, after reciting that the County of Cork is very extensive and populous, and ‘ that it is requisite, for the due Administration of Justice within the said County, and the Preservation ‘ of the Peace therein, that General Sessions of the Peace should be holden frequently therein, it was ‘ enacted, that from and after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, ‘ for the Purpose of holding the General Sessions of the Peace in the said County of Cork, and for and in ‘ respect of all Matters relating to such General Sessions, but not for any other Purpose or in any other ‘ respect, the said County of Cork should be and the same was thereby declared to be divided into Two ‘ Ridings, to be called the East Riding and the West Riding of the County of Cork; and that the East ‘ Riding of the said County of Cork should comprise and contain the Baronies and the Liberties following, ‘ that is to say, the Barony of Duhallow, the Barony or united Baronies of Orrery and Kilmore, the ‘ Barony or united Baronies of Condons and Clongibbons, the Barony of Fermoy, the Barony of Kinnatalloon, the Barony of Imokilly, the Barony of Kerry-Currihy, the Barony of Kinnalea, the Barony of ‘ Barrymore, the Barony of Barretts, the Barony of East Muskerry (except only the Parishes of Aheena ‘ and Ahabullog within the said Barony), the Liberties of the City of Cork, the Liberties of Youghal, ‘ and the Liberties of Kinsale, and the West Riding of the said County of Cork, should comprise and ‘ contain the Baronies and Parts and Divisions of the Baronies following, that is to say, the Barony of ‘ Beer or Bear, the Barony of Bantry, the Barony of West Muskerry, the Parishes of Aheena and ‘ Ahabullog in the Barony of East Muskerry, the Barony of Kinalmeaky, the Barony of Courcies, the ‘ Barony or united Baronies of Ibanne and Barryroe otherwise called Barryroe and Ibanne, and the ‘ Baronies of East Carberry and West Carberry, consisting of the Eastern and Western Divisions of ‘ East Carberry and the Eastern and Western Divisions of West Carberry; and from and after the said ‘ First Day of September the said County was thereby declared to be divided accordingly for the Purposes ‘ aforesaid, and no other; provided that such Division of the said County of Cork for the Purposes aforesaid should not be extended nor construed to extend to change or alter, or to limit or abridge, or abolish, ‘ any Power, Authority, Jurisdiction, Right, Duty, or Privilege of any High Sheriff, Sub-Sheriff, or Under ‘ Sheriff, Justice of the Peace, or other Magistrate, Clerk of the Crown, Clerk of the Peace, or other ‘ Officer whatsoever, of or in the said County, who should at the passing of the said Act, or at any Time ‘ after the passing of the said Act, hold, exercise, or enjoy any such Office, or any other Civil Office ‘ whatever within the said County of Cork, but that all the Powers, Authorities, Jurisdictions, Rights, ‘ Duties, and Privileges of such Officers should continue in force and be exercised and carried into effect ‘ throughout the said County of Cork in like Manner, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the ‘ said Act had not been had or made, except only so far as it was expressly provided and directed by ‘ the said Act:’ Now be it enacted, That the said County of Cork shall be deemed to have been from the said First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and shall from and after the passing of this Act continue to be, until altered as herein-after provided, for the Purposes aforesaid, and none other, divided in such Manner and Form, and under such Regulations, Conditions, and Provisions, as hereby above recited and herein set forth as aforesaid: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, at any Time, and so from Time to Time, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Privy Council, to alter the Boundaries or Divisions of the said Two Ridings now existing or hereafter to exist, and to direct that such Ridings shall comprise and contain such Baronies, or Parts or Divisions of Baronies, as to him, with such Advice, shall seem fit, and to direct that such new Boundaries or Divisions shall become and be the Boundaries of the said Two Ridings; and from thenceforth the Boundaries herein-before provided of the said Two Ridings shall cease, and the said Two Ridings shall thenceforth contain and comprise the several Baronies and Parts and Divisions of Baronies so ordered and directed as aforesaid, subject to the several Regulations, Conditions, and Provisions herein-before set forth.

Cork County.

The County of Cork to continue to be divided for the Purpose and in the Manner herein recited.

Lord Lieutenant may alter Boundaries.

XXIV. Five General Sessions of the Peace shall be holden in the course of every Year in each of the said Ridings of the County of Cork so constituted and hereby continued, so that One General Session shall Five General Sessions shall be holden in every

shall be holden in every Month, excepting in the Two Months in which the General Assizes shall be holden for the County of Cork at large; and that such General Sessions shall be holden alternately in the East Riding and in the West Riding of the said County, and at such Times that there shall, if possible, be One Week between the End of the Session in One of the said Ridings and the Beginning of the ensuing Session in the other of the said Ridings; and that a General Sessions for the said East Riding shall be held as soon as may be in the Month of September in each Year, and that a General Sessions for the said West Riding shall be held in the Month of October in each Year, and that the subsequent General Sessions of the Peace shall be holden alternately in the said East and West Ridings, and so from Year to Year in the like Order: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, at any Time, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Privy Council, to order and direct that Four General Sessions of the Peace, and no more, shall thenceforth be holden in each of the said Ridings of the said County of Cork in each Year, for the Discharge of all such Criminal and other Business as may be determinable at General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or in a Civil Bill Court, in place and stead of the said Five General Sessions of the Peace so herein-before appointed, and to order and direct that the same shall be holden at such Times and Places and in such Manner, in each of the said Ridings, as to the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors, with such Advice as aforesaid, shall seem fit, and also to direct and appoint the Manner of making known the Periods at which the same shall be holden; and from thenceforth the several Provisions herein-before contained for holding Five General Sessions of the Peace in and for the said County, and for regulating the Times of holding the same, shall cease and determine, and all the Criminal and other Business of the General Sessions of the Peace and of the Civil Bill Courts in and for the said several Ridings of the said County shall thenceforth be heard and determined at the said Four General Sessions of the Peace so to be appointed as aforesaid.

Lord Lieutenant may order that Four General Sessions, and no more, in each Year, shall be held in each of the Divisions of the County of Cork.

Power to Lord Lieutenant and Council to divide Counties into Ridings.

XXV. 'And whereas, from the Extent and Population of certain Counties, it may be expedient that 'they should be hereafter divided into Two Ridings or Districts for the Purpose of holding Sessions 'therein:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Privy Council, on an Application made by the Magistrates of the County, at a Meeting of such Magistrates duly convened by the Lieutenant of such County, to order and direct that any County in Ireland shall be divided into Two Ridings or Districts, for the Purpose of holding Sessions therein, and to direct and appoint what Baronies or Half Baronies or other Portions of Land shall be contained in each of such Ridings, and to order and direct that General Quarter Sessions shall be holden in and for such Ridings respectively, and at such Time and Times and in such Towns or Places as shall be deemed most expedient for that Purpose.

Power to appoint Assistant Barrister for such Ridings, and providing for Payment of Salaries.

XXVI. It shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being from Time to Time to nominate and appoint a practising Barrister at Law, of Ten Years standing at the least, and who shall have actually practised Ten Years, and shall not at the Time of his Appointment have retired from Practice in Her Majesty's Courts of Law in Dublin, to act as an Assistant to the Justices at the several Sessions of the Peace and Adjournments thereof to be holden under this Act for each of the Ridings of the Counties so divided as aforesaid, and that the said respective Assistant Barristers shall have all such Powers, Jurisdiction, and Authority in and for such respective Ridings for which they shall be respectively appointed as any Assistant Barrister can or may have in and for any County in Ireland; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland to order and declare that each of such Assistant Barristers so appointed for such Ridings as aforesaid shall receive and be paid such One of the several yearly Salaries as are herein provided for Assistant Barristers mentioned in the Class 2. or Class 3. in the Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed, as to the said Lord Lieutenant shall seem meet.

In all Processes County shall be distinguished by Cork County, East Riding, and Cork County, West Riding.

XXVII. For the Purpose of holding the said General Sessions of the Peace, and of all Matters connected with or relating to such General Sessions, the said Two Ridings of the County of Cork, and the Two Ridings of any other County which shall be hereafter divided under this Act, shall be distinct and separate Counties, and shall be deemed and considered and shall be distinguished as such (as regards the County of Cork) by the Names and Descriptions of Cork County, East Riding, and Cork County, West Riding, and so in every other County which shall be hereafter divided, by the Names of the respective Ridings, in all Warrants, Processes, and Proceedings relative to any Matters determinable at any such General Sessions respectively; and that all such Matters and Causes shall be heard, tried, and determined, and all such Proceedings shall be had and done, at such General Sessions, for each of such Ridings respectively, for and in respect of Matters arising within the said Ridings respectively, as might have been heard, tried, determined, had, or done at any General or Quarter Session of the Peace for the County of Cork, or such other Counties as shall be hereafter divided, under any Act or Acts, or Law or Laws in force immediately before the passing of this Act, for and in respect of Matters arising within the said respective County at large; and that no Process, Plea, or Proceeding, nor any Cause, Matter, or Thing whatever, shall be removed or removable, or transferred or transferrable, from any General Session to be holden in any One of such Ridings to any General Session holden in any other of such Ridings; and no Decree or other Order or Proceeding at any General Session to be holden in any of such Ridings shall be of any Validity, Force, or Effect, nor shall or may be executed or be enforced or put in execution, in any other of such Ridings, otherwise than if the said respective Ridings were Two distinct and separate Counties; and any and every Person who shall be charged in any of such respective Ridings with any

No Process removable from One Riding to the other.

Offence

Cork County.

Offence cognizable at the General Sessions shall be held to Bail, and shall be arraigned and tried, in that Riding only in which the Offence shall be charged or alleged or supposed to have been committed; and all Justices of the Peace and Magistrates shall and they are hereby authorized and required to return any Informations for Offences taken before them, and returnable to the General Sessions, to such Sessions to be holden within the Riding in which such Offence shall be charged or alleged or supposed to have been committed.

The Two Assistant Barristers to settle the Time of holding the several alternate Sessions, &c.

XXVIII. The several Days to be from Time to Time appointed for commencing and holding the several alternate General Sessions of the Peace in the East and West Ridings of the said County of Cork, pursuant to the Directions of this Act, shall be from Time to Time ascertained and settled by the Two Assistant Barristers for the said Ridings, in concert with each other, but so as to provide as far as possible that the said Sessions shall not be holden at the same Times as the Assizes for the County; and so in every other County that shall be hereafter divided under this Act; and due Notice of the Times for holding such Sessions shall be posted by the Clerk of the Peace on or before the last Day of the preceding Sessions for each of the said respective Ridings.

Grand Jury of County of Cork to provide for Salaries of Criers at Sessions.

XXIX. It shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury of the County of Cork, and for the respective Grand Juries of the several Counties which shall be hereafter divided under this Act, and such Grand Juries are hereby respectively required to present, to be raised (as regards the County of Cork) off the respective Portions of the said County of Cork constituting the East Riding and West Riding of the said County, and so in any other County which shall be so divided, Two several Sums not exceeding Twenty-five Pounds yearly, as regards the County of Cork, and not exceeding Twenty Pounds yearly, as regards any other County, to be paid by half-yearly Payments, as and for the Salary of each of the Criers at Sessions in such Two Ridings.

Divisions and Sessional Towns.

Existing Divisions and Sessional Towns to be continued until altered.

XXX. From and after the Commencement of this Act the several Districts or Divisions of the several Counties and Ridings, and the several Towns and Places within such Districts or Divisions respectively, appointed under and by virtue of the Provisions of the several Acts heretofore in force and relating to the Jurisdiction of the Civil Bill Courts, for the Purpose of holding Sessions therein, and wherein such Sessions respectively have been heretofore held, shall be and shall continue to be the Districts or Divisions, and the Towns and Places respectively within such Districts or Divisions, for holding of Sessions for hearing and determining Causes by Civil Bill, and for transacting all such criminal and all such other Business as may be determinable at any General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, until the same or any of them are or shall be altered in the Manner herein-after provided.

Powers to alter Divisions.

Power to alter existing Divisions, and appoint additional Places for holding Sessions.

XXXI. It shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, from Time to Time, by and with the Consent and Advice of the Privy Council, to alter the Divisions and Districts for the holding of Sessions in any County or Riding now existing or hereafter to exist, and to divide the several Counties or any of them, or any Riding or Division of a County, including all Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns, Boroughs, Towns, and Places, into as many Divisions or Districts as shall be thought proper or expedient for the Purpose of more conveniently hearing and determining Causes by Civil Bill, and of transacting all such criminal or all such other Business as may be cognizable or determinable at any General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and to appoint One or more convenient Town or Place, Towns or Places, in any such Division or District, in which a Civil Bill Court, and a Court for transacting such criminal and other Business as aforesaid, or a Civil Bill Court only for hearing and determining Causes by Civil Bill, shall be held, and from Time to Time to alter any such Division or District, or any Town and Place, Towns or Places, within such Division or District, or to discontinue any such Town or Place, as to the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, with the Advice aforesaid, shall seem fit; and every such Division or District shall be distinguished by the Name of such Town or Place; and every such Sessions, and Adjournment thereof, shall be good and effectual for the Administration of criminal Business and Civil Bill Cases, and doing all other Business that may by Law be done at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or for hearing and determining Causes by Civil Bill only, as the Case may be; and in case of any Town or Place being so discontinued as aforesaid the same shall thereupon cease to be a Town or Place for the holding of Sessions therein for any Purpose whatsoever.

Lord Lieutenant may direct Sessions to be held Four Times in every Year in any Town.

XXXII. From and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, by and with the Advice of the Privy Council, to direct that a General Session of the Peace and Civil Bill Court, or a Civil Bill Court only, shall be held any Number of Times not exceeding Four Times in every Year in all or any of the Towns or Places now appointed or which may hereafter be appointed for holding Sessions, and the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being shall nominate and appoint the Baronies or Half Baronies or Parishes for which respectively such Sessions shall be held.

Jurisdiction in Counties of Cities and Towns.

Assistant Barrister for the East Riding of the County of Cork shall try Causes in the City of Cork.

XXXIII. The Assistant Barrister now appointed or hereafter to be appointed for the East Riding of the County of Cork shall hear and determine Causes by Civil Bill in and for the County of the City of Cork, in Cases where the Defendant or One of the Defendants in the Cause shall reside within the County of the said City, at the several Sessions of the Peace, or Adjournments thereof, for the County of Cork, to be held at Cork; and that such Assistant Barrister shall at the same Time hold such Court as aforesaid for the hearing of such Causes by Civil Bill for One Division of the County of Cork; and that the City of Cork shall be deemed and taken, for the Purposes of this Act only, as a Town within One Division of the said East Riding of the County of Cork.

XXXIV. The

Assistant Barristers of certain Counties to have Jurisdiction in certain Cities and Towns.

XXXIV. The respective Assistant Barristers for the Time being of the Counties herein-after mentioned shall have Jurisdiction by Civil Bill in and for the respective Counties of Cities, Counties of Towns, Cities, and Towns herein-after named, as fully as they respectively have in and for their respective Counties; that is to say, the Assistant Barrister of the County of Waterford, in and for the County of the City of Waterford; the Assistant Barrister for the County of Limerick, in and for the County of the City of Limerick; the Assistant Barrister for the County of Kilkenny, in and for the County of the City of Kilkenny; the Assistant Barrister for the County of Antrim, in and for the County of the Town of Carrickfergus; the Assistant Barrister for the County of Galway, in and for the County of the Town of Galway; the Assistant Barrister for the County of Louth, in and for the County of the Town of Drogheda; and each and every of the said several Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns shall be deemed and taken, for the Purposes of this Act only, as a Town within One Division of the said several and respective Counties at large.

Jurisdiction in ordinary Cases.

What Actions Assistant Barristers may hear and determine to the Amount of 40*l.*

XXXV. From and after the Commencement of this Act it shall and may be lawful for each and every Assistant Barrister to hear and determine by Civil Bill all Disputes and Differences between Party and Party for any Sum, Damages, or Penalty, not exceeding Forty Pounds Sterling, in all Cases whatsoever (Slander, Libel, Breach of Promise of Marriage, and Criminal Conversation with a Man's Wife, only excepted), and for any ascertained and unpaid Balance, not exceeding Forty Pounds, of a Partnership Account, and also in all Actions by Civil Bill under any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force in Ireland, and not hereby repealed, giving a Remedy by Civil Bill in any particular Cases, to the Extent and pursuant to the Provisions of the said Act or Acts respectively: Provided always, that the several Assistant Barristers may award Interest in all Cases where in Equity Interest ought to be decreed, so that the Debt or Damages and Interest shall not together exceed the Amount of the Jurisdiction, according to the Nature of the Case.

Cause of Action not to be divided.

Costs of Dismissal when Causes are split.

Proviso if Sum does not exceed Jurisdiction of this Act.

XXXVI. No Cause of Action in the whole amounting to a Sum beyond such Sum as is made recoverable by force of this Act shall be split or divided so as to be made the Ground of Two or more different Actions, in order to bring such Cases within the Jurisdiction of this Act, but if any of the said Assistant Barristers shall find that the Plaintiff in such Cause shall have split his Cause of Action as aforesaid, he shall dismiss every such Action, with the ordinary Costs of a Dismiss, without Prejudice however to the Plaintiff's proceeding to sue upon such Cause of Action in any other Court, and in such other Manner as he lawfully may: Provided also, that if such Plaintiff shall be satisfied to recover such Sum as the Jurisdiction hereby conferred is made to extend to, in full of the whole of such his Demand, then such Assistant Barrister shall and may, if such Plaintiff shall satisfactorily prove his Case, make and pronounce One Decree for such Plaintiff for such Sum as shall in such Case be demanded by the Process, so as such Sum does not exceed the Jurisdiction under this Act, and the same shall be expressed in such Decree to be and shall be in full Discharge of the whole of such Demand.

Provisions as to Civil Bill in 15 G. 2. c. 8. s. 4. (Irish), 2 G. 3. c. 17. s. 18. (Irish), extended to Civil Bill before Barristers, and original Jurisdiction of Judges abolished.

XXXVII. 'And whereas Doubts are entertained whether the Provisions as to Proceedings by Civil Bill 'contained in a certain Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of 'King George the Second, and intituled An Act for the more effectual securing the Payment of Rents 'and preventing Frauds by Tenants, (and which Act is continued and made perpetual by an Act passed 'in the Parliament of Ireland in the Second Year of the Reign of King George the Third,) have by the 'several subsequent Acts of Parliament, or any of them, relating to Civil Bills before Assistant Barristers, 'been extended and applied to Proceedings by Civil Bill before such Assistant Barristers:' Be it declared and enacted, That the Provisions relating to Proceedings by Civil Bill contained in the said Act of the Fifteenth Year of King George the Second, and continued as aforesaid, shall extend and apply to Proceedings by Civil Bill before such Assistant Barristers, subject to the Provisions and Regulations of this Act; and that from and after the Commencement of this Act all original Proceedings by Civil Bill provided by the said Act passed in the Fifteenth Year of King George the Second, and continued by the Act aforesaid, shall be brought in the respective Courts of the several Assistant Barristers, and shall not be brought before any Judge or Judges of Assize on their respective Circuits, or in their respective Courts at Dublin, save by way of Appeal, as herein-after provided in relation to Appeals.

How Tenant shall proceed in Cases of Distress by the head Landlord, where Rent shall have been paid to his immediate Landlord, and how and what Damages shall be recovered.

XXXVIII. 'And whereas it is fit and just that Provision should be made for securing the occupying 'Tenant as far as may be against being called upon for Payment more than once of the Rent reserved 'and made payable to his immediate Landlord or Lessor out of the Land which he occupies, in conse- 'quence of superior Landlords distraining for the Rents due to them respectively:' For Remedy thereof be it enacted, That in all Cases where the entire Rent due and payable from the occupying Tenant to his immediate Landlord or Landlords shall have been paid or in any Manner satisfied, if, in consequence of the Fraud, Malfeasance, or Neglect of such Landlord or Landlords to pay and satisfy the Rent due and owing by him or them to any superior Landlord or Landlords, the Lands in the Hands of such occupying Tenant shall be distrained for any such Rent, or such occupying Tenant shall have been compelled to pay any Sum of Money to any such superior Landlord, to avoid a Distress for Rent due to such superior Landlord, then and in every such Case it shall be lawful for such occupying Tenant to proceed against such his immediate Landlord through whose Default or Neglect to make such Payment the Lands in the Possession of such occupying Tenant shall have been distrained or threatened to be distrained, to recover the Amount of Costs and Damages by him sustained thereby, by Civil Bill before the Assistant Barrister of any County or Riding where such Lands shall be; and that the Amount of such Costs and Damages, when ascertained by the Decree of such Assistant Barrister, and the Amount of any Costs and Damages which may be ascertained by the Judgment of any Superior Court, upon any Action which may be brought for for that Purpose, may be tendered by the occupying Tenant, or his or their Representatives, in Payment of so much of the subsequently growing and accruing Rent as shall thereafter become due and payable to such his immediate Landlord, and shall be accepted by such Landlord in Payment of the same, or shall be recovered by Process of Execution as the said occupying Tenant so aggrieved shall deem most advisable.

Jurisdiction in ordinary Cases.

XXXIX. If on such Trial by Civil Bill before the Assistant Barrister the Complainant shall prove the Facts of Payment of Rent by Distress or otherwise to his immediate Landlord, and of the subsequent Seizure of his Goods or Stock under Distress by a superior Landlord, or his being compelled to pay any Sum of Money in or towards Satisfaction of Rent due to such superior Landlord, to avoid any such Distress, he shall be entitled to recover in Damages, and shall so recover, upon such Proof made of the Facts hereinbefore mentioned, without any other or further Proof of Damages sustained, Ten Pounds in the Hundred of the Rent reserved and distrained for, in addition to the whole Sum he shall have paid under such Distress to the superior Landlord, but shall not be precluded from entering upon Proof of other more aggravated or special Damage sustained, if he shall prefer such Mode of proceeding for Recovery of due and adequate Compensation on such Account.

If Complainant prove Facts of Payment of Rent by Distress, he may recover Damages.

XL. If in any Action brought after the Commencement of this Act in any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Record in Dublin, in Debt, Covenant, Detinue, or Assumpsit, (save for Breach of Promise of Marriage,) where the Parties to the Proceedings reside within the Jurisdiction of the Civil Bill Court of the County in which the Cause of Action has arisen, the Plaintiff shall recover, for Debt or Damages, exclusive of Costs, a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, or in any Action of Trespass, Trover, or Trespass on the Case (not being in Replevin, or for Slander, Libel, Malicious Prosecution, Breach of Promise of Marriage, Seduction, or Criminal Conversation with a Man's Wife,) a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, the Plaintiff in any such Action shall not be entitled to any Costs, unless at the Trial of such Cause the Judge shall certify on the Back of the Record, either that the Case was one which could not have been tried in the Civil Bill Court, or that, although within the Jurisdiction of the Civil Bill Court, it nevertheless was a fit Case to be tried in One of such Superior Courts, or (in case there shall be no Trial) unless the Court or a Judge shall on Motion make an Order to the like Effect; and in case there shall be no such Certificate or Order, it shall not be necessary to enter any Suggestion on the Record to deprive such Plaintiff of Costs, nor shall any such Plaintiff be entitled to Costs by reason of any Privilege in consequence of either the Plaintiff or Defendant being an Attorney or Officer of such Court or otherwise.

As to Costs in case of Actions in Superior Courts, where the Proceedings might have been by Civil Bill.

Replevin.

XLI. The respective Assistant Barristers shall and they are hereby authorized and empowered to hear and determine within their respective Jurisdictions all Actions of Replevin relating to Distresses for Rent made by any Landlord, or Person claiming as such, where the annual Rent reserved for or in respect of which any Distress shall have been made shall not exceed Fifty Pounds, whether a greater annual Rent may have been claimed by the Landlord or not.

Jurisdiction in Replevin Cases.

XLII. The Sheriff for the Time being for every County, County of a City, or County of a Town in Ireland shall, within Ten Days after he shall be sworn in as Sheriff, depute a sufficient Number of Persons in such County, County of a City, or County of a Town to act as Replevinger or Replevingers in Cases of Distresses for Rent, so that there shall be at least One such Replevinger in every Town wherein General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace are held; and for every Refusal or Neglect to appoint within Ten Days a Replevinger, or a sufficient Number of Persons to act as Replevingers, as aforesaid, and also for every Month during which there shall not be One such Replevinger in each such Sessions Town, every such Sheriff shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds, to be recoverable by Civil Bill by any Person who will sue for the same; and such Replevinger or Replevingers so to be appointed as aforesaid shall have Authority in the Sheriff's Name to grant Replevins and make Deliverance of all Distresses in such Manner or Form as the Sheriff may and ought to do, and shall be entitled to receive the Fees in that Behalf mentioned in the Schedule (D.) hereunto annexed, and no more.

Appointment of Replevingers.

XLIII. Where any Party whose Goods or Chattels shall have been distrained for Rent shall dispute the Validity of the Distress, and the annual Amount of the Rent in respect of which such Distress shall or ought to have been made shall not exceed Fifty Pounds, it shall be lawful for such Party to lodge with the Clerk of the Peace for the County wherein such Distress shall have been made a Civil Bill in the Form (1.) in the Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, stating the Particulars of the Property distrained, and the Place where, and the Person or Persons by whom or on whose Behalf such Distress was made, and requiring such Person or Persons to appear and answer such Bill at the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the Division or District in which such Distress was made, in case there shall be Ten clear Days between the Day of lodging such Civil Bill and the First Day of holding such Sessions, and if not, then at the Sessions for such Division or District next after the Expiration of Ten Days from the Day of lodging such Civil Bill, and thereupon the said Clerk of the Peace shall issue an Order in the Form (2.) of the said Schedule (C.), requiring the Sheriff of the County to replevy the Goods and Chattels so distrained; and the Sheriff to whom any such Order shall be directed, or his Replevinger, shall and he is hereby required, upon good Security being given to him by the Bond of the Person obtaining such Order, and Two or more responsible Persons, not exceeding Four in Number, as Sureties, in double the Amount of the Value of the Property distrained, to execute such Order, and make a correct and proper Return in Writing of the Manner in which the same shall have been executed, or to signify the Cause why the same has not been executed, to the Court of the Assistant Barrister for the County or Riding, within Seven Days next after such Order shall have been delivered to him; provided that the Value of the Property distrained shall be ascertained by the said Sheriff or Replevinger in like Manner as the Value of Goods distrained is now ascertained by Law by the said Sheriff on taking Security in Replevins Mode of proceeding in Replevin Cases.

Form of Bond.

Replevins returnable to any of the Superior Courts at Dublin; and the Bond so to be given to the said Sheriff shall be in the Form (3.) of the said Schedule (C.), or as near thereto as the Circumstances of the Case will admit.

If proposed Sureties be objected to, the Reason of Refusal to be stated in Writing.

XLIV. In every Case where any of the Persons who shall be proposed as Sureties on behalf of any Party whose Goods or Chattels shall have been distrained shall be rejected, the Reason or Ground of such Rejection shall be stated in Writing by the Sheriff or Replevinger so rejecting: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or taken to exonerate any Sheriff from any Liability by reason that he, or his Replevingers, or any of them, shall have taken insufficient Sureties in any such Replevin.

Copy of Civil Bill to be served on Defendant.

XLV. In every Case where any Goods distrained shall be replevied as aforesaid a Copy of the Civil Bill which shall have been lodged with the Clerk of the Peace as aforesaid shall be served, on the Part of the Plaintiff in such Civil Bill, upon every Person named as Defendant therein, in the same Manner as Civil Bills for Recovery of Debts are hereby required to be served: Provided always, that in case the Party on whose Behalf such Distress was made shall not reside within the Jurisdiction of such Assistant Barrister, Service of such Civil Bill on the Person who made the Distress for him, or on any Bailiff who shall be in charge of the Goods so distrained, shall be deemed good Service on such Party; and such Party, although not residing within the County or Riding, shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be deemed and taken to be within the Jurisdiction of the Assistant Barrister of the County or Riding in which the Distress was made.

Assistant Barrister to hear and determine such Civil Bill.

XLVI. The Assistant Barrister shall in every such Case of Replevin hear and determine the Civil Bill, and if it shall appear to him that such Distress was legally made, and that the annual Rent in respect of which such Distress was made did not exceed Fifty Pounds, shall ascertain whether any and what Rent was due to the Defendant at the Time of making such Distress; and if it shall appear that any Sum was due for Rent, and that no Tender of the Sum so due was made before the said Civil Bill was lodged, it shall be lawful for such Assistant Barrister and he is hereby required to ascertain the Sum due for Rent, and to make a Decree for Payment of the same, and the Costs for defending such Civil Bill, and of such Distress; and such Sum and Costs shall and may be levied by virtue of such Decree, and such Decree shall be in the Form (4.) in the Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed; and in case it shall appear that no Rent was due at the Time of such Distress, or that a Tender was made of the Amount due, together with reasonable Costs of Distress, previous to the lodging of such Civil Bill, or that such Distress was illegally made, it shall be lawful for the Assistant Barrister to direct the Bond which shall have been so given as aforesaid to be delivered up to the Party complaining of the Distress, and also to make a Decree in the Form (5.) of the said Schedule, for Payment by the Defendant to such Party of such Damages as the Court may think fit, and, if necessary, to direct that such Damages and Costs shall be set off against or deducted from any Rent then due or thereafter to accrue due by the Party complaining, and to make a Decree accordingly.

Bailiff a competent Witness in Replevin.

XLVII. In all Cases of any Proceedings in Replevin under this Act it shall and may be lawful, on the hearing of the Civil Bill, for the Bailiff or other Person who may have made the Distress on the Part of the Landlord claiming the Rent to be examined as a Witness on behalf of such Landlord, and he is hereby declared to be a competent Witness, notwithstanding that he may be a Party Defendant in such Action or Proceeding.

Bond to be assigned if Plaintiff do not prosecute Suit.

XLVIII. In case the Plaintiff in Replevin shall not cause said Civil Bill to be served as herein-before mentioned, or shall not duly appear at the Sessions, and there prosecute his Civil Bill, or, having appeared, his Civil Bill shall be dismissed because the annual Rent in respect of which the Distress was made exceeded Fifty Pounds, or by reason of his disputing that the Person by or on whose Behalf the Distress was made was Landlord as aforesaid, and in every Case where he shall not obtain a Decree therein, the Assistant Barrister shall, at the Request of any Party named as a Defendant in such Civil Bill, make an Order that the Bond so directed to be given to the Sheriff as aforesaid shall be assigned to the Defendant, or, if more than One, to such of the Defendants as he shall think fit; and such Bond shall be assigned by the Sheriff or his Representative to such Person or Persons as the Assistant Barrister shall direct; and such Assignment shall be by an Indorsement, signed by the Sheriff or his Representative, on the Bond, to the Effect following; that is to say, Mode of Assignment of Bond.

'I A.B., Sheriff of do hereby assign the within Bond to his 'Executors or Administrators, this Day of

Which Indorsement shall not require any Stamp; and such Bond shall be and stand as a Security for the full Amount of the Value of the Goods distrained, and the Costs of the Proceedings in relation to the Distress, and of the Proceedings on such Civil Bill and on such Bond; and the Assignee of such Bond shall be at liberty to sue in his own Name, upon such Bond, all or any One or more of the Obligors thereof in the Court of the Assistant Barrister within whose Jurisdiction any One of such Obligors shall reside, without regard to the Amount of the Penalty of such Bond; and it shall be lawful for the Assistant Barrister to order that the Goods distrained shall be returned to the Party who distrained the same; and in every such Case where the Goods distrained shall be actually returned to the Party who distrained the same, and the Costs of the Proceedings paid, no further Proceeding shall be had on the Bond which shall have been given as aforesaid; and all such Goods, if returned or recovered under any such Decree as aforesaid, may be be sold, for the Recovery of the Rent due, and Expenses, not sooner than after the Expiration of the Second Day after the Day of the Return thereof.

If Goods returned no Proceedings to be had on Bond, and Goods may be sold.

XLIX. Where

Legacies.

Legacies and distributive Shares payable out of Assets of any deceased Person (when Assets shall not exceed 200*l.*) recoverable by Civil Bill.

XLIX. Where the Amount of the Assets of any deceased Person shall not exceed in Value the Sum of Two hundred Pounds it shall and may be lawful for any Legatee of any specific Chattel, or for any Legatee of any pecuniary Legacy payable out of the Assets of any such deceased Person, or for any Residuary Legatee, or for any Person or Persons entitled as next of Kin of any such deceased Person, or the Executors, Administrators, or Assigns of such Legatee or next of Kin, and they and each of them are and is hereby authorized and empowered, to proceed by Civil Bill against the Executor or Administrator of such deceased Person in the County or Riding in which such Executor or Administrator, or One of such Executors or Administrators, in case there shall be more than One, shall be resident, for the Recovery of such Legacies or distributive Shares, at any Time after the Expiration of One Year from the Decease of the Testator or Intestate, but not sooner; and such Civil Bill shall be in the Form (6.) in the Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed; and it shall and may be lawful for such Assistant Barrister, upon due Proof that the Defendant had received, or without wilful Default might have received, Assets of the Testator or Intestate sufficient, and liable, after Payment of all just Debts, for the Satisfaction in a due Course of Administration, either in the whole or in part, of the Plaintiff's Demand, to make a Decree for Payment of such Legacy in the Form (7.) in the said Schedule, or to make a Decree for Payment of the distributive Portion rateably and proportionably with other Legatees standing in the same Situation, or other next of Kin respectively, as the Case may be, in the Form (8.) in the said Schedule; and in case the Plaintiff shall establish his Right to any specific Chattel, it shall and may be lawful for such Assistant Barrister to make an Order for Delivery of the same to the Party entitled thereto, or to make a Decree for Payment of the Value thereof, and Costs of Suit; and in case the Plaintiff shall establish his Right as Residuary Legatee, it shall and may be lawful for such Assistant Barrister to make an Order for the Delivery, Transfer, or Payment of such Residuary Estate and Effects to the Party decreed entitled thereto.

Executors and Administrators to lodge Accounts, if required.

L. Where the Property or Assets of any deceased Person shall not exceed in Value the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, every Executor or Administrator shall, if thereunto required by Notice in Writing by any Legatee, next of Kin, Creditor, or other Person interested therein, at any Time after Twelve Months from the Decease of the Testator or Intestate, lodge with the Clerk of the Peace of the County wherein such Testator or Intestate resided at the Time of his Death, and if he shall reside in a County different from that in which such Testator or Intestate resided, also in the County wherein such Executor or Administrator resides, a Schedule or Account, setting forth the Particulars of the Property or Assets which the Testator or Intestate died possessed of or entitled to, and the Amount, Produce, and Value of the same respectively, and the Amounts and Particulars of the Debts due by the said Testator or Intestate, and the Amounts and Particulars of the Debts, Legacies, and Funeral and Testamentary Expenses of the Testator or Intestate paid by or on account of any such Executor or Administrator, and showing the Balance applicable to the Purposes of the Will of the said Testator, or distributable amongst the next of Kin of the said Intestate, or the Property or Chattels then undisposed of; and every such Schedule or Account shall be signed by such Executor or Administrator, and verified by the Oath or Affirmation (as the Case may be) of the Executor or Administrator, to be sworn or made before the Clerk of the Peace for the County wherein such Executor or Administrator resides, and which Oath or Affirmation the said Clerk of the Peace is hereby authorized and required to administer; and such Schedules or Accounts shall be preserved and kept by the Clerks of the Peace amongst the Records of their respective Counties or Ridings, and shall be deemed and taken as Evidence against the said Executor or Administrator of the several Matters therein contained; and in case any such Executor or Administrator shall neglect to lodge such Schedule or Schedules as aforesaid within the Time herein-before specified, he shall forfeit any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, to be recoverable by Civil Bill before the Assistant Barrister of the County wherein such Executor shall reside, by any Person so requiring such Account.

Penalty on Executors or Administrators neglecting to lodge such Account.

Examination of Executor or Administrator.

LI. In all Proceedings by Civil Bill by any Legatee or next of Kin for Recovery of any Legacy or distributive Share as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the Plaintiff, as such Legatee or next of Kin in such Civil Bill as aforesaid, to examine such Executor or Administrator on Oath in open Court, if the Court shall deem it necessary, in order to obtain a Discovery of the Estate and Effects of the Testator or Intestate at the Time of his or her Decease, and the Value thereof, and of his or her Debts, Funeral and Testamentary Expenses, and to obtain an Admission that the Defendant is the Executor or Administrator (as the Case may be), and to ascertain all such Facts of which a Party suing as Legatee or as next of Kin in a Court of Equity is entitled to a Discovery.

Executors or Administrators to produce Copy of Will and Letters of Administration, and to submit to be examined on Oath on Trial of Civil Bill.

LII. Every Executor or Administrator may be compelled by Summons, to be issued and signed in the Manner herein-after prescribed for Witnesses summoned to give Evidence in Civil Bill Courts, to attend and produe the Probate (if any) of the Will of the Testator or the Letters of Administration of the Testator or Intestate (as the Case may be), and submit to be examined on Oath in open Court touching the Matters aforesaid on the Trial of any such Civil Bill in any Division where such Cause shall be heard; and every Executor or Administrator who shall disobey any such Summons shall forfeit and pay, to the Party at whose Request such Summons was issued, the Sum of Ten Pounds, as a Penalty, but such Fine or Penalty may be reduced or wholly remitted, if the Assistant Barrister before whom he shall have been required to attend shall, upon good and sufficient Cause being shown, think fit to reduce or remit the same.

Assistant Barrister may advertise for Claims or Assets.

LIII. It shall be lawful for any Assistant Barrister, in any Civil Bill Proceeding for a Legacy or a distributive Share of the Property or Assets of a Testator or an Intestate, to order the Party suing to give Notice, either by Advertisement or otherwise, requiring Persons having Claims on the Property or Assets

Legacies.

Assets of the Deceased to produce and verify such Claims; and no such Advertisement shall be charged with or liable to any Duty; and all Costs relating to such Notice shall be borne and paid in such Manner and by such Parties as such Assistant Barrister shall order or direct; and the Assistant Barrister may, if he shall think fit to direct such Notice to be given, adjourn the Hearing of the Civil Bill to some future Sessions, and from Time to Time as Occasion may require, so as to allow sufficient Time for publishing or giving such Notice.

Money may be ordered by Assistant Barrister to be paid into the Bank.

LIV. In any such Action or Proceeding the Assistant Barrister may, if he shall think fit, order Money to be paid into the Bank of Ireland, or such Branch Bank of the Bank of Ireland as he shall direct, in the Name of such Clerk of the Peace, to the Credit of the Cause in question, and such Money shall be applied and disposed of according to the Order and Directions of the Assistant Barrister, and all Payments of such Monies shall vest in the Clerk of the Peace for the Time being, and shall be made upon an Order in Writing under the Hand of the Clerk of the Peace, countersigned by the Assistant Barrister, which Order shall be a good and sufficient Warrant to all Intents and Purposes.

Legacies not exceeding 20*l.* charged on Real Estate to be recoverable by Civil Bill.

LV. It shall and may be lawful for any Legatee of any pecuniary Legacy not exceeding Twenty Pounds charged upon or payable out of any Real Estate or any Chattel Real, or for any Person to whom Arrears not exceeding Twenty Pounds are due in respect of any Rentcharge or Annuity charged upon or payable out of any Real Estate or Chattel Real, to proceed by Civil Bill against the Person who shall be entitled to the Real Estate or Chattel Real charged with such Legacy or Arrears; and it shall and may be lawful for the Assistant Barrister, upon due Proof by the Plaintiff that such Real Estate or Chattel Real is liable to such Legacy or Arrears, unless the Owner thereof shall satisfy the said Assistant Barrister that he has not received therefrom, for his own Use and Benefit, a Sum equal to the Amount of the Legacy or Sum sought to be recovered, and which was properly applicable to the Payment thereof, or that there is Personal Property liable to the Payment thereof available for that Purpose, to decree the Payment of such Legacy or Arrears by the Owner of such Real Estate or Chattel Real.

Legacies and Annuities not exceeding 20*l.* charged on Personal Estate to be recoverable by Civil Bill.

LVI. It shall and may be lawful for any Legatee of any pecuniary Legacy not exceeding Twenty Pounds, payable out of any Personal Estate, or for any Person to whom Arrears not exceeding Twenty Pounds are due in respect of any Annuity payable out of any Personal Estate, (whatever may be the Amount of such Personal Estate,) to proceed by Civil Bill against the Executor or Administrator of such Personal Estate; and it shall and may be lawful for the Assistant Barrister, upon due Proof by the Plaintiff that such Personal Estate is liable to such Legacy or Arrears, and that the Executor or Administrator thereof has received therefrom sufficient Assets applicable to the Payment thereof, and available for that Purpose, to decree the Payment by such Executor or Administrator of such Legacy or Arrears, or of such Part thereof as such available Assets will extend to pay.

Executors de son tort to be liable.

LVII. Any Person rendering himself an Executor de son tort shall be liable to be sued by Civil Bill, as if he were a rightful Executor, in the Manner and to the Extent herein mentioned respecting rightful Executors, provided that such Executor de son tort shall not be liable beyond the Amount of the Assets actually received by him.

Parties.

One or more of several Persons liable may be sued by Civil Bill.

LVIII. Where any Person shall have any Demand recoverable under this Act against Two or more Persons jointly liable, it shall and may be lawful for him to sue by Civil Bill all such Persons so jointly liable who shall reside within the County or Riding in which such Civil Bill shall be brought, and a Decree may be made and Execution issued against the Person or Persons so sued, notwithstanding that any other or others jointly liable may reside out of the Jurisdiction of such Assistant Barrister.

Where Assistant Barrister is Plaintiff or Defendant in any Suit, or resides within his County, Civil Bill may be brought to next adjoining County.

LIX. If any Assistant Barrister shall have any Cause of Action, in Replevin or otherwise, against any Person residing within the County or Riding in which he shall act as such Assistant Barrister, or if any Person shall have any Cause of Action, in Replevin or otherwise, against an Assistant Barrister who shall reside within the County or Riding in which he shall act as such Assistant Barrister, then and in every such Case such Assistant Barrister shall sue or may be sued in the Civil Bill Court of any of the next adjoining Counties, and nearest to the Residence of the Defendant, or any of the Defendants if more than One; and Service of the Process in the County or Riding in which the Defendant shall reside, made by any Process Officer of such County, or by any Process Officer of the County in which the Process is intended to be heard, shall be deemed good Service on such Defendant to appear before the Assistant Barrister at the Sessions of such adjoining County, who shall have Jurisdiction to hear and determine such Civil Bill; and the Decree or Dismiss of such last-mentioned Assistant Barrister shall have full Force and Effect in and shall be executed by the Sheriff or Sheriff's Bailiff of the County in which the Party against whom the said Decree or Dismiss has been made shall reside: Provided always, that in every such Case the Reason for bringing such Civil Bill in such next adjoining County shall be stated upon the Civil Bill Process: Provided also, that if the Service of such Process shall be made by any Process Officer of the County in which the Defendant resides, such Service may be verified by an Affidavit of Service by him made before any Justice of the Peace of the County in which such Service was effected, who is hereby authorized and required to take the same; and for every such Service and Affidavit such Process Officer shall be entitled to a Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence, and no more.

Process.

Civil Bill need not be signed by Attorney, but by the Plaintiff, or

LX. The Civil Bill Process to be served upon the Defendant in all Cases not otherwise provided for, requiring him to appear before the Assistant Barrister, shall be in the Form (9.) in the Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, or as near thereto as the Nature of the Case will permit, always preserving the Substance of the same; and it shall not be necessary that any such Civil Bill Process shall be signed by any Attorney, or by the Clerk of the Peace, or by the Assistant Barrister, or any other Officer, but it shall be sufficient if the same be signed by the Plaintiff or any One or more of the Plaintiffs therein mentioned, or by any other Person on behalf of the said Plaintiff or Plaintiffs: Provided always, that in all Ejectment Cases the Civil Bill Process shall be signed by an Attorney, who shall set forth his Place of Residence thereon. some one on his Behalf, save in Ejectment.

LXI. Every Civil Bill Process, and Decree or Dismiss had thereon, under this Act, shall contain the Addition and last known Place of Residence of the Parties, Plaintiffs and Defendants; and that in case of the Omission thereof any such Civil Bill, unless amended under the Provisions of this Act, or Decree or Dismiss, shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever: Provided always, that it shall be sufficient to describe Corporate Bodies or Joint Stock Companies, whether Plaintiffs or Defendants, by the proper and respective Titles in which they are entitled to sue or to be sued, without inserting any Addition or Place of Residence, and where the Attorney General shall be a Party on behalf of the Crown, it shall not be necessary to set forth his Addition or Residence. All Civil Bills, Decrees, and Dismisses to contain Addition and Residence of Parties.

LXII. 'And whereas under the Provisions of this Act divers Sums of Money will become annually 'charged upon and payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and 'Ireland for additional Salaries to the Assistant Barristers, in lieu of the Fees heretofore payable to 'them by the Suitors upon certain Civil Bill Proceedings, which Fees henceforth will cease to be pay-'able, and it is reasonable, in order to meet the said Charges, that certain Duties of Stamps herein-after 'specified should be granted and be made payable upon certain of the Civil Bill Forms and Proceedings 'herein specified:' Be it therefore enacted, That the Forms next herein-after mentioned hereby provided to be used shall be severally subject to the following Stamp Duties payable to Her Majesty; that is to say, Stamps on Civil Bill Forms of Process and Copies.

And in the event of the Plaintiff's obtaining a Decree the Amount of such Stamps shall be charged against the Defendant or Defendants as Part of the Costs of his Proceeding; and printed Forms, with such Stamp on each as aforesaid, shall be issued from the Office of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue to the several Distributors of Stamps in Ireland, under such Regulations as the said Commissioners shall make for the Sale of the same by the several Sub-Distributors of Stamps, or by any other Persons; and any such Sub-Distributor of Stamps, or other Person, who shall, without express Authority from the said Commissioners for such Purpose, demand or receive for any One of such Forms, from any Person whatever, any greater Sum of Money than the Amount of the Stamp Duty on such Form, or who shall in any other Way offend against such Regulations as aforesaid, or against any other Regulations made or to be made by the said Commissioners, and which shall be from Time to Time in force as to any other Stamps, shall be liable to the same Forfeitures and Punishments as are by any Act or Acts provided for any like Offence in respect to any other Stamps issued by the said Commissioners: Provided always, that if it shall appear to the Court upon the Hearing of any Civil Bill that any original Civil Bill Process or Notice of Renewal, or any Copy thereof served upon any Defendant, shall not have been duly stamped, or had been previously used as a Process, Notice, or Copy thereof in any other Suit, the several and respective Assistant Barristers are hereby required forthwith to dismiss the said Civil Bill, and to order and direct that the original Process, Notice, or Copy thereof so wanting the said Stamp required by this Act shall be held and impounded by the Clerk of the Peace. Commissioners of Inland Revenue to issue stamped Forms. Penalty on taking more than Amount of Stamp Duty.

LXIII. If any Sub-Distributor of Stamps or other Person whatsoever shall (without express Authority for such Purpose from the said Commissioners), by himself, or any other for his Use or Profit, ask, demand, receive, or take any greater Sum of Money or other Thing for any One such printed Form than the Sum which is hereby made chargeable thereon to Her Majesty as and for the Stamp Duty on such printed Form, and so in proportion for any greater Number of such printed Forms, such Person so asking, demanding, receiving, or taking, or the Person for whose Use and Benefit such greater Sum of Money or other Thing shall be asked, demanded, received or taken, by the Authority of, or Consent, Direction, or Approbation of, such Person for whose Use and Benefit the same shall be asked, demanded, received, or taken, shall forfeit and pay to the Person injured the Sum of Five Pounds, to be recovered by Civil Bill to be brought by such Person within Twelve Months from the Time of such Offence committed; provided that the Plaintiff in such Civil Bill may, at his Election, sue either the Person who shall have so asked, demanded, received, or taken such greater Sum or other Thing, or the Person for whose Use or Benefit such greater Sum or other Thing was so as aforesaid asked, demanded, received, or taken, but not both of them. Distributors or others taking more than Stamp Duty chargeable on printed Forms to forfeit Five Pounds to Person injured. Plaintiff may sue either the Person who takes such greater Sum or the Person for whose Use taken.

LXIV. The said Stamp Duties by this Act imposed and granted shall be denominated and deemed to be Stamp Duties, and shall be under the Care and Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue for the Time being; and all the Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Regulations, and Directions, Fines, Forfeitures, Pains, and Penalties, contained in or imposed by the several Acts of Parliament relating to any Duties Powers and Provisions of former Acts to be applied to the Stamp Duties imposed by this Act.

Duties of the same Kind or Description in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, and in force at the Time of the passing of this Act, shall respectively be of full Force and Effect with respect to the Stamp Duties by this Act granted or imposed, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same had been herein repeated and specially enacted with reference to the said Stamp Duties by this Act granted or imposed.

Service of Process.

How Process is to be served.

No Decree to be made unless satisfactory Proof of Service.

LXV. Service of any Civil Bill Process on the Defendant shall be effected, either by personal Service of the Civil Bill Process, or by leaving a Copy thereof at the Defendant's House or Place of Residence, or at his Office, Warehouse, Counting-house, Shop, Factory, or Place of Business, with the Wife, Child, Father, Mother, Brother, Sister, or any other Relation of the Defendant, or of his Wife, or with any Servant or Clerk of the Defendant, (the Person with whom such Copy shall be left being of the Age of Sixteen Years or upwards,) and showing to such Person the Original of such Civil Bill Process; and that no Decree, other than a Decree in Ejectment or Replevin, shall be made by any Assistant Barrister unless the Process in such Cause shall, by the Oath of the Process Officer in open Court before the said Assistant Barrister, or by the Production of the Books of the Process Officer in the Cases herein-before provided, be satisfactorily proved to have been duly served, and unless it shall be proved that the House or Place of Residence in which the Defendant, or, in the Case of more than One Defendant, in which One of the Defendants, shall at the Time of such Service have usually resided, or that the Office, Warehouse, Counting-house, Shop, Factory, or Place of Business of the Defendant or One of the Defendants is situate within such Division of the County where the said Court is held at which the said Defendant or the said Defendants shall be required to appear.

As to Service of Process on Lodgers.

LXVI. Where any Defendant in any Civil Bill shall be a Lodger in any House in which his Landlord shall also reside, Service of any Civil Bill Process within such Dwelling House upon such Landlord so residing, or upon the Wife, Child, or Servant, being of the Age of Sixteen Years or upwards, of such Landlord, and posting a Copy of such Process on the usual Place for posting Notices on the nearest Police Barrack to the House in which the said Defendant shall so lodge, shall be deemed good Service of such Civil Bill Process upon the said Defendant; provided that it shall appear to the Satisfaction of such Assistant Barrister that due Diligence had been used to effect personal Service upon the Defendant, or Service upon his Wife.

As to Service of Process outside Dwelling House.

LXVII. If the Wife, Child, Father, Mother, Brother, Sister, or other Relative of the Defendant in any Civil Bill Process, or of his Wife, or any Servant of the Defendant who respectively usually resides with the said Defendant, shall be outside the Dwelling House or Place of Residence of the Defendant, but within reasonable Distance, it shall and may be lawful for the Process Officer to deliver to the said Wife, Child, Father, Mother, Brother, Sister, or other Relative of the said Defendant, or of his Wife, being of the Age of Sixteen Years or upwards, so usually residing with the said Defendant, or to such Servant of the said Defendant, a Copy of the said Process for the said Defendant, outside the Dwelling House or Place of Residence of the said Defendant, and within such Distance as aforesaid from the same, and such Service of Process shall be deemed as good and effectual to all Intents and Purposes as if Service on any of said Parties of said Copy of said Process had been effected within the said Dwelling House or Place of Residence: Provided always, that at the Time of such Service personal Service on the Defendant, or Service on any Person within such Dwelling House, Lodging, or Place of Residence, could not have been effected.

As to Time when Processes are to be served.

LXVIII. The Civil Bill Process shall, in all Cases of Ejectment, and in all Cases for the Recovery of Legacies, and distributive Shares of Assets, and in all Cases where the Demand shall exceed Twenty Pounds, be served Fifteen clear Days before the First Day of the Sessions, and that in all other Cases every Civil Bill Process shall be served Six clear Days before the First Day of the Sessions, unless otherwise provided by any Act or Acts giving the Jurisdiction in the particular Case, and not hereby repealed, and then so as required by such Act or Acts; and that in no Case whatsoever shall any Civil Bill Process be served on Sunday, Good Friday, or Christmas Day, and Service upon any of said Days shall be absolutely null and void.

Defendant not to be sued out of Division in which he lives, unless as herein specified.

What shall be deemed a Residence within County.

LXIX. No Defendant shall be liable to be sued or proceeded against by Civil Bill under this Act or obliged to appear in any Cause to be heard and determined at any Session or Adjournment thereof to be held out of the Division in which he usually resides, unless there shall be more than One Defendant in such Cause, in which Case the Plaintiff shall be at liberty to bring his Civil Bill in such Division of the County where any One of the Defendants shall so reside: Provided always, that if any Person shall have and occupy any House, Warehouse, Counting-house, Shop, Factory, or Office for the Sale of Goods, or for carrying on any Business, in any County, he shall be deemed to have a Residence within such County for the Purposes of this Act.

In case of forcible Resistance to serving the Process, a Copy thereof may be posted on the Court House and on the posting Place in the nearest Market Town.

LXX. In any Case where it shall appear to the Assistant Barrister, by Examination on Oath in open Court, that any Officer appointed to serve the Process of the said Civil Bill Court has been prevented by forcible Resistance, or by reasonable Apprehension of personal Injury, from effecting Service of any Process of the said Court, it shall and may be lawful for such Assistant Barrister in every such Case to direct, by an Order to be signed by him, and entered in the Book of the Clerk of the Peace, that posting a Copy of a Civil Bill Process on the Court House in which the Court may be then sitting, and on the usual Place for posting Notices in the nearest Market Town to the Residence of the Defendant named in such Process, or of One of the Defendants if there be more than One, at least Twenty-one Days before the First Day of the next Sessions to be holden for the same Division of the County or Riding, shall be deemed good Service of such Process, and at Foot of every such Copy shall be affixed a Notice that the same is so posted by Order of the said Assistant Barrister, and that such Process will be held good Service thereof; and upon its being proved on Oath to the Satisfaction of the Assistant Barrister at the next Sessions holden for the same Division that such Copy and Notice have been so duly posted, it shall be lawful for such Assistant Barrister and he is hereby authorized and required to proceed to hear and determine such Civil Bill, in all respects as if the Process thereon had been personally served on the Defendant or Defendants named therein.

Service of Process.

Assistant Barrister empowered to put Landlords in possession of deserted Tenements in arrear for Half a Year's Rent.

LXXI. The respective Assistant Barristers shall and they are hereby authorized and empowered to hear and determine, within their respective Jurisdictions, all Disputes and Differences between Party and Party respecting or relating to Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any Part thereof, situate within their respective Jurisdictions, to the Extent and in manner following; that is to say, that if any Tenant holding any Tenement who shall be in arrear for One Half Year's Rent shall desert the Tenement demised to him, whether by Deed, Contract, or Minute in Writing, or by Parole, or from Year to Year, or leave the same uncultivated, or carry off the Stock and Crop, or otherwise abandon the same, so that no sufficient Distress may be had to countervail the Arrears of Rent due for the same at the Time of such Desertion, it shall be lawful for the Landlord or Lessor of the Tenement so deserted, or left unoccupied or uncultivated, to proceed by way of Civil Bill before the Assistant Barrister of any County or Riding in which the Tenement or any Part thereof shall be situate, to obtain Possession of the Tenement so deserted or left unoccupied or uncultivated, and thereupon it shall and may be lawful for Two or more Justices of the Peace of the County or Riding in which such Tenement or any Part thereof shall be, having no Interest in the demised Premises, at the Request of such Landlord or Lessor, his Bailiff or Receiver, to go upon and view the same between the Hours of Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon and Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, and, having fully ascertained to their Satisfaction, by Examination of Witnesses or by their own View, that the Premises are so deserted by the Tenant, or left so unoccupied or uncultivated as aforesaid, and without sufficient Distress to countervail the Arrears of Rent due at the Time of such Desertion, to certify to the Assistant Barrister before whom such Proceedings by Civil Bill shall be, under the Hands and Seals of such Justices, that they have together viewed the Tenement in question (fully describing the same), and that the same appeared to them deserted and unoccupied or uncultivated, and without any Distress thereon sufficient to countervail the Arrear of Rent ascertained by Affidavit of the Landlord or Lessor, his Agent, Bailiff, or Receiver, to be due thereon, after all just and fair Allowances; which Certificate, when proved to have been duly executed, shall be Evidence of the Facts therein contained, unless the same shall be disproved by contrary Evidence to the Satisfaction of the Assistant Barrister before whom the Case shall come, upon such Civil Bill as aforesaid, or to the Satisfaction of a Judge upon Appeal from such Civil Bill; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Landlord, after obtaining from the said Justices the said Certificate, to serve a Civil Bill Process, together with a Copy of such Certificate, on the Tenant against whom such Proceeding shall be had, if such Tenant can be found, and if not, to affix such Process and a Copy of such Certificate upon some conspicuous Part of the said Tenement, and also upon the Door or Gate or one of the Piers of the Door or Gate of the Parish Church (if any within the Parish), and also upon the Door or Gate or One of the Piers of the Door or Gate of the Roman Catholic Chapel (if any within the Parish), summoning the Tenant or Tenants who may have so deserted the Premises personally to appear before the Assistant Barrister on the First Day of the Quarter Sessions to be held for the Division of the County in which the Premises or any Part of them shall be, or, in Cases where the Premises shall be situate within the County of the City of Dublin, at a Court to be held before the Recorder, to answer the said Bill of the Landlord or Lessor; and that it shall be lawful for the said Assistant Barrister, Chairman of the County of Dublin, or Recorder, as the Case may be, upon such Civil Bill, and upon Proof of such Certificate by any Person who may have witnessed the Execution of the same, and upon Proof that at least One Half Year's Rent was due to such Landlord or Lessor for the Premises when such Certificate was made, and that the Civil Bill Process and a Copy of such Certificate were served as aforesaid, or that the Tenant could not be found so that the same could be served, then, upon Proof that such Process and a Copy of such Certificate had been duly affixed as herein-before mentioned, and upon hearing the Tenant, in case such Tenant shall appear, and such Evidence as shall be offered on behalf of such Tenant, if any shall be offered, and duly considering the same, to decree the said Landlord or Lessor to be put into possession of the Premises.

Ejectment for Premises held by Tenant at a Rent not exceeding 50*l.* per Annum, withheld after legal Notice, where Tenant's Interest is determined, and Possession has been demanded.

LXXII. In all Cases where any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments shall have been held by any Tenant at a Rent not exceeding Fifty Pounds per Annum, and the Tenant's Interest in the same shall have determined, and after Demand made by the Landlord or Lessor, his Agent, Bailiff, or Receiver, and Delivery of Possession of the same shall be withheld, it shall and may be lawful for the said Landlord or Lessor to proceed by Civil Bill against such Tenant, and such other Person, if any, as shall be in the actual Possession of the Premises, and thereupon to serve such Tenant and such other Persons as aforesaid with a Civil Bill Process, if such Service can be effected, and if it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Assistant Barrister or Judge on Appeal that such Service cannot be effected, or in case there be not any Person in actual Possession of the Premises, to affix such Process upon some conspicuous Part of the Premises, and also upon the Door or Gate or One of the Piers of the Door or Gate of the Parish Church (if any within the Parish), and also upon the Door or Gate or One of the Piers of the Door or Gate of the Roman Catholic Chapel (if there shall be any within the Parish), by which Process all Persons claiming to have any Interest in the Premises shall be required to appear before the Assistant Barrister, Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace, or Recorder, as the Case may be, on the First Day of the Quarter Sessions for the Division of the County or Riding in which the Premises or any Part thereof shall be situate, or at a Court to be held before the Recorder for the hearing and determining of Civil Bills, in Cases where the Premises are situate within the County of the City of Dublin, to answer the Bill of the said Landlord or Lessor, praying to be put into possession thereof; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Assistant Barrister, Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace, or Recorder, as the Case may be, upon such Civil Bill, and upon Proof of such Service as aforesaid, or in case of Impossibility or unreasonable Difficulty of Service, to be ascertained in manner herein-before provided, or in case there shall be no Person in actual Possession of the Premises, upon Proof of affixing the said Process as herein-before required, and that the Premises had been held by the Tenant against whom such Proceedings shall be at a Rate not exceeding Fifty Pounds per Annum, and that the Interest of the Tenant had determined, and that Notice to quit (in Cases where such Notice is by Law necessary) had been duly served, and the Time for the Delivery of the Possession thereof expired, to decree the said Landlord or Lessor to be put in possession of the Premises.

How Landlord shall proceed in Cases where a Year's Rent shall be due.

LXXIII. In all Cases where any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments shall have been held by any Tenant under any Lease, Article, Minute, or Contract in Writing, or by Parol Demise, or under a Tenancy from Year to Year, at a Rent not exceeding Fifty Pounds per Annum, and that a full Year's Rent shall be due thereout, it shall and may be lawful for the Lessor or Landlord to proceed by Civil Bill Ejectment against such Tenant, and also against such Persons (if any) as shall be in actual Possession of the said Premises, and also against Persons having any Interest for valuable Consideration, in Cases where the Deeds or Instruments, if any, creating such Interests shall have been duly registered, and thereupon to serve such Tenant and such other Persons as aforesaid with Civil Bill Process (if such Service can be effected), and if it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Assistant Barrister or Judge on Appeal that such Service cannot be effected, or in case there be not any Person in actual Possession of the Premises, to affix such Process upon some conspicuous Part of the said Premises, and also upon the Door or Gate or One of the Piers of the Door or Gate of the Parish Church (if there shall be any in the Parish), and also upon the Door or Gate or One of the Piers of the Door or Gate of the Roman Catholic Chapel (if there shall be any in the Parish), by which Process all Persons claiming to have Interest in the Premises shall be required to appear before the said Assistant Barrister, Chairman of the County of Dublin, or Recorder of any City or Borough, as the Case may be, on the First Day of the Quarter Sessions for the Division of the County or Riding in which the Premises or any Part of them shall be situate, or at a Court to be held before such Recorder for the hearing or determining of Civil Bills, in Cases where the Premises shall be situate within the Jurisdiction of such Recorder, to answer the Bill of the said Lessor or Landlord praying to be put in possession thereof; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Assistant Barrister, Chairman, or Recorder, as the Case may be, upon Proof of such Service as aforesaid, or, in case of Impossibility or unreasonable Difficulty of Service, to be ascertained as herein-before provided, upon Proof of such affixing of the said Process, and that the Premises were then held by the Tenant at a Rent not exceeding Fifty Pounds per Annum, and that a Sum equal to One full Year's Rent at such Rent was due when such Proceeding by Civil Bill was commenced, and still remained due, to decree the said Lessor or Landlord to be put into possession of the said Premises; and in case the Tenant or Tenants, his or their Assignee or Assignees, or other Person or Persons claiming or deriving under him or them, shall suffer the Decree to be executed putting the Lessor or Landlord into possession of the Premises, without paying the Rent and Arrear thereon, with full Costs, or without preferring a Civil Bill for Relief to the Assistant Barrister, Chairman, or Recorder, as the Case may be, or filing any Bill or Bills for Relief in Equity within the Time now limited by the several Statutes which regulate the Action of Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent after such Execution executed, then and in such Case the said Tenant or Tenants, his or their Assignee or Assignees, and all other Persons deriving under him or them, shall be barred and foreclosed from all Relief or Remedy in Law or Equity, other than by Appeal from the Decree, the said Appeal to be brought within the Time by this Act limited for bringing of Appeals on Civil Bills: Provided always, that the Tenant or other Person so evicted under the Provisions of this Act for or by reason of Nonpayment of Rent may, at any Time within Six Calendar Months after Execution executed, tender the Rent and Costs, for the Purpose of redeeming the said Premises; and that in all Cases where he or they shall have made such Tender, he and they may be restored to the Possession of such Premises by a Decree of the Assistant Barrister, Chairman, or the Recorder, as the Case may be, on a Civil Bill for Redemption preferred for that Purpose, and due Proof made of their being respectively entitled thereto, anything in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Tenant, after Execution of Decree, may appeal therefrom; and may tender Rent and Costs to redeem Possession.

In Civil Bill Ejectments for Nonpayment of Rent the Amount claimed shall be stated.

LXXIV. In all Cases of Ejectment by Civil Bill for Nonpayment of Rent the Amount claimed to be due for Rent, and the Times at which the same accrued, shall be stated upon the Civil Bill, which Statement shall be written or printed thereon in the following Form, or as near thereto as the Nature of the Case will admit; (that is to say,)

'THE Plaintiff claims being for .. Years Rent up to the 'Day of and if the Amount thereof be paid to the Plaintiff or his Attorney, or 'his known Agent or Receiver, together with the Sum of Shillings, the Amount of the 'Stamp Duty paid on the original Ejectment and Copies served, and Five Shillings for Service and filling
'the Ejectment, the said Sums, making together the Sum of in full of all Costs of such 'Ejectment Proceedings, before the Day of (being the Day next but One 'before the First Day of the next Sessions), further Proceedings will be stayed.'

And

And upon Payment or Tender within the Time so mentioned of the Rent so specified, together with such Sum as aforesaid for Costs, to the Plaintiff, or his Attorney, known Agent, or Receiver, all further Proceedings in such Ejectment shall cease and be stayed accordingly.

Defendant may deposit Rent and Costs Five Days before the First Day of the Sessions.

LXXV. It shall be lawful for any Defendant in any Civil Bill Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent, Five Days previous to the Day on which by such Civil Bill he is required to appear, to deposit with the Clerk of the Peace a Sum of Money for Rent, together with the Sum mentioned on said Civil Bill for Costs, for which Deposit the Clerk of the Peace, upon Payment of a Fee of One Shilling and Sixpence, shall give to the Defendant a Certificate according to the Form (10.) in the Schedule (C.) hereto annexed, and also a Duplicate of such Certificate, which Certificate and Duplicate shall be free from the Payment of Stamp Duty, and of which Certificate a Copy shall be entered by the Clerk of the Peace in the Book kept by him for entering Decrees in Civil Bill Ejectments; and the Defendant shall, Three Days previous to the Day on which he is required to appear as aforesaid, deliver to or leave at the Place of Abode of the Plaintiff, his Agent, Receiver, or Attorney in such Cause, such Duplicate Certificate; and in case the Plaintiff or his Attorney in such Cause shall receive from the Clerk of the Peace the Sum so deposited, which the said Clerk of the Peace is hereby required to pay over to the Plaintiff or his Attorney on Demand, such Receipt and Payment shall be deemed to be in full Discharge of the Rent claimed by such Civil Bill and of Costs; but in case the Plaintiff or his Attorney, after such Certificate shall have been delivered or left as aforesaid, shall not accept the Sum so deposited, on or before the Day next previous, or (in case of Sunday intervening) on or before the Day next but one previous to the Day on which the Defendant is required to appear as aforesaid, and if upon the Hearing of such Civil Bill it shall appear that no greater Sum than the Sum so deposited for Rent was due to the Plaintiff for Rent at the Time of the Service of such Civil Bill Ejectment, and that such Duplicate Certificate has been delivered or left as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Assistant Barrister to dismiss such Civil Bill, with the Costs of the Proceedings subsequent to the Time of the making of such Deposit, as in other Cases of Dismisses of Civil Bill Ejectments; or if it shall appear that any greater Sum than the Sum so deposited for Rent was due to the Plaintiff for Rent, then it shall be lawful for the Assistant Barrister to make a Decree for the Plaintiff, with Costs, and thereupon the Amount of the Deposit shall be returned to the Defendant.

In such Civil Bill Ejectments, if the Defendant, before a Decree, pay or tender the Rent and Costs, the Proceedings shall be stayed.

LXXVI. If the Tenant or the Defendant in any such Civil Bill Ejectment shall at any Time after the Period herein-before limited for making such Deposit for Rent and Costs, and before the signing and issuing of a Decree upon such Civil Bill, pay or tender to the Lessor or Landlord, his Executors or Administrators, or his or their Agent, or the Attorney in such Civil Bill Ejectment, all Rent and Arrears then due, together with the Costs, it shall be lawful for the Assistant Barrister to order all further Proceedings on such Civil Bill to be stayed and discontinued, upon Payment of such Costs as he shall deem reasonable to be paid by the Defendant, not exceeding such Costs as would be properly payable at the Time of such Tender: Provided always, that in case of such Tender as last aforesaid, and Refusal to receive the Sum so tendered, such Money shall be lodged in the Hands of the Clerk of the Peace, and shall be paid over to such Landlord or Lessor on Demand: Provided also, that the Decision of the Assistant Barrister in any of the Cases aforesaid shall be subject to such Appeal as herein-after provided in other Cases of Civil Bill Ejectments for Nonpayment of Rent.

The Warrant for Execution in Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent shall state the Amount due, and upon Payment, Execution to be stayed.

LXXVII. Upon every Sheriff's Warrant under a Decree in any Civil Bill Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent there shall be a Statement of the Amount of the Rent then due, according to the Affidavit of the Landlord or his Agent verifying the Ejectment, and of the Plaintiff's Costs; and if at any Time before Execution executed the Defendant or Tenant shall pay to the Sheriff the said Sums for Rent and Costs, together with One Moiety of such Sheriff's Fees for such Execution as would be legally payable if such Execution had been executed, such Sheriff shall stay such Execution, subject nevertheless to any Order which may be made by the Court from which such Execution shall have issued, and the Sheriff shall endorse on such Civil Bill as a Return thereto the Receipt by him of such Rent, Costs, and Fees.

Remedy for obtaining Arrears of Rent.

LXXVIII. Every Lessor or Landlord recovering Possession by such Decree as aforesaid shall and may have the same and like Remedy for all Arrears of Rent to the Time of the Execution of the said Decree as such Lessor or Landlord might have had if Possession had not been obtained under such Decree.

As to Ejectment on Title.

LXXIX. The Chairman of the County of Dublin, and the several Assistant Barristers, and the Recorder of the County of the City of Dublin, and the several Recorders herein mentioned, shall and they are hereby authorized and empowered to hear and determine within their respective Jurisdictions all Disputes and Differences respecting the Possession of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments held under any Grant, Lease, or other Instrument for any Term or Interest the Duration or Extent whereof when originally granted or created did not or shall not exceed Three Lives, without any Provision for the Renewal thereof, or a Term of Sixty-one Years determinable on Three Lives, or Three Lives with a concurrent Term of Years not exceeding Sixty-one Years, or a Term of Sixty-one Years absolute, and the yearly Rent reserved or payable in respect whereof under such Grant, Lease, or other Instrument shall not exceed Twenty Pounds, and in respect of which no Fine exceeding Twenty Pounds shall appear on the Face of such Grant, Lease, or other Instrument to have been paid on the granting or Execution of such Grant, Lease, or other Instrument, or held under a Parole Demise for a Term not exceeding Three Years at a Rent not exceeding Twenty Pounds, whether any Fine was paid upon the Creation of the same or not, or held for any Term or Tenancy from Year to Year at a Rent not exceeding such Amount as aforesaid; and every Person claiming such Possession may proceed by Civil Bill in the Court for for the Division of the County or Riding wherein such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments or any Part thereof shall be situate, for Recovery of such Possession.

As to Ejectment on Acknowledgments.

LXXX. The said Chairman, and the several Assistant Barristers, and the said Recorders, shall and they are hereby respectively authorized and empowered to hear and determine within their respective Jurisdictions all Disputes and Differences respecting the Possession of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments held under an Acknowledgment in or substantially according to the Form (11.) in the Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, between the Plaintiff in the Civil Bill Decree, to which such Acknowledgment shall refer, or on which the same shall be founded, or any Person claiming or deriving under him, and any Occupier who shall have signed as aforesaid such Acknowledgment, or any Person claiming or deriving under him.

As to Service of Bill in such Cases.

LXXXI. Every Civil Bill Process brought for the Recovery of the Possession of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments held in the Manner specified in either of the Two immediately preceding Provisions shall be duly served upon all and every Person or Persons who shall be in the actual Possession of the Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments specified in and claimed by any such Civil Bill, and also such other Person or Persons (if any) as shall be interested in the same or in any Part thereof, under any registered Conveyance; and if there be not any Person in the actual Possession of such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, then the affixing of such Civil Bill to or upon some conspicuous Part of the Premises so claimed, and upon the Door or Gate or One of the Piers of the Door or Gate of the Parish Church (if there shall be any in the Parish), and also upon the Door or Gate or upon One of the Piers of the Door or Gate of the Roman Catholic Chapel (if there shall be any in the Parish wherein the said Premises shall be situated), shall be and be deemed to be good and sufficient Service of such Civil Bill; and it shall be lawful for the Assistant Barrister to make an Order or Decree for the delivering up of Possession of such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments to the Party entitled thereto.

As to Ejectments against Tenants at Will or permissive Occupants.

LXXXII. 'And whereas Owners of Land in Ireland are often Sufferers by Caretakers, Servants, 'Herdsmen, and other Persons holding over the Possession of Lands and Premises which they do not 'hold under any Lease or Parole Demise, but strictly at Will or by Sufferance, or merely by Permission:' Be it enacted, That if any Person who shall have been heretofore, or shall hereafter be, by the Owner of any Land, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or by his Agent, Receiver, or Bailiff, put or let into occupation or possession thereof by Permission, or as Servant or Caretaker, or as Tenant strictly at Will or by Sufferance, shall refuse or omit to quit and deliver up Possession of the said Premises, on Demand made by the Owner thereof, or his known Agent or Bailiff, it shall and may be lawful for such Owner, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, (after such Demand and Refusal or Omission to deliver up the same,) to proceed by Civil Bill Ejectment Process for the Recovery of the Possession thereof against such Person or Persons so in occupation or possession, or any Person or Persons being or claiming to be in occupation or possession by, through, or under such Person or Persons; and it shall and may be lawful for the respective Assistant Barrister, Chairman, or Recorder to hear and determine such Civil Bill in the same or like Manner as he is hereby empowered in Cases of Ejectment against over-holding Tenants, and to make a Decree or Dismiss thereon: Provided always, that nothing in this Provision contained shall be deemed to affect or prejudice any Right or Remedy which any such Owner of Land, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, might have used or exercised in such Case for taking or obtaining the actual Possession of such Premises, if this Act had not been passed.

What the Civil Bill in Ejectment Cases shall specify.

LXXXIII. That in every Ejectment by Civil Bill, the Civil Bill in Cases between Landlord and Tenant shall specify the Names of the Landlord or Lessor and Tenant or Tenants respectively, the Nature of the Tenancy, the Description of the Premises, and the Baronies or Parishes wherein the same shall be respectively situated, and the Rent at which the same shall be then or had been last holden; and also, in Cases where the Proceeding shall be grounded on Desertion, the Fact of Desertion by the Tenant, and the Amount of Rent due, after all fair and just Allowances, and the Insufficiency of Distress to countervail the same; and in Cases where the Proceedings shall be grounded on the Tenancy having determined, the Fact of the Determination of such Tenancy, and the Means by which the same shall have been determined, and Refusal to deliver up Possession; and in Cases where the Proceedings shall be grounded on Nonpayment of Rent, the Amount of the Rent due after all fair and just Allowances, and up to what Gale Day due; and in Cases where the Proceedings shall be grounded on a Claim respecting the Possession of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments held under any Grant, Lease, or other Instrument, or by Parole Demise, or as Tenant from Year to Year, the Name and Residence of the Claimant, the Description of the Property sought to be recovered, and the Barony or Parish where situate, and how the said Lands and Tenements were held, whether for Lives or Years, or by Parole Demise, or from Year to Year; and in Cases where the Proceedings shall be grounded on the Tenancy having determined, and when such Tenancy was created by Agreement after a Decree for Delivery of Possession obtained by an Ejectment, the Fact of the Determination of such Tenancy, and the Means by which the same shall have been determined, and the Refusal to deliver the Possession, and where the Occupation was permissive the Fact of its having been so, and of a Demand and Refusal of Possession, and the Truth of the Contents of the said Civil Bill, shall be verified by the Affidavit of the Landlord or Lessor or Owner, his known Agent or Receiver, such Affidavit to remain in the Custody of the Clerk of the Peace of the County in which such Bill shall be filed.

Where Tenement in question shall be situate in Two Counties, Pro-

LXXXIV. If any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments touching which any Proceeding by Civil Bill shall be had in pursuance of this Act shall be situate in Two or more Counties, such Proceeding shall be in any One of such Counties; and the Sheriffs of the respective Counties in which any Part of such

Tenement

Tenement or Premises shall be, and in which such Proceedings shall not be had, shall, so far as relates to the Portion of such Tenement or Premises within their respective Bailiwicks, execute such Decree as shall be made on such Civil Bill, upon Delivery to him or them of a Copy thereof, signed by the Chairman, Assistant Barrister, or Recorder who shall have made such Decree: Provided always, that if any Tenement shall be situate in the whole or in part within the County of any City or Town which is a County of itself, except the County of the City of Dublin, the Assistant Barrister of the County at large having Jurisdiction for other Purposes within such County of a City or Town, and the Justices of the Peace for such County at large, shall have the same Jurisdiction and exercise the same Powers with respect to such Tenement as if the same had been situate in the County at large, anything in this Act or any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided also, that in all Cases where it may happen that the Assistant Barrister, or the said Chairman or Recorder, as the Case may be, shall be the Landlord, Lessor, or Owner, or shall claim to be entitled to the Possession of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments situate in Two or more Counties, and where any Part of the same shall be situate within his respective Jurisdiction, and that he shall be desirous to institute Proceedings in respect of the said Tenements or Premises under or by virtue of this Act, such Proceedings shall be in the County or Place without the Jurisdiction of such Assistant Barrister, Chairman, or Recorder where the other Part of such Lands, Tenements, or Premises may still be situate.

ceedings to be in either of them, &c.

Assistant Barrister to have Jurisdiction in any City or Town being a County of itself.

In case Assistant Barrister sues for Lands situate in his own Jurisdiction, Proceedings to be had in a Place without his Jurisdiction.

LXXXV. 'And whereas it is reasonable, in Cases where it may happen that the Chairman, or any 'Assistant Barrister, or the Recorder, is the Landlord or Lessor of or claims to be entitled to the 'Possession of any Lands or Tenement, within his own Jurisdiction, that Provision should be made for 'extending to such Chairman, Assistant Barrister, or Recorder the Benefits of this Act:' Be it therefore enacted, That in every such Case it shall and may be lawful for such Chairman, Assistant Barrister, or Recorder to proceed by way of Civil Bill respecting such Lands or Tenements before the Chairman or any Assistant Barrister of any of the Counties next adjoining to that wherein such Lands or Tenements shall be so situate, in the same Manner as any other Landlord or Claimant might proceed respecting any other Tenement before such Chairman or Assistant Barrister; and an Appeal shall lie from any Decree of such Chairman or Assistant Barrister upon such Civil Bill to the Judge at Nisi Prius, or the next going Judge of Assize, as the Case may be, in the same Manner, and subject to the same Restrictions, Conditions, and Limitations, as are applicable to other Civil Bill Decrees and Dismisses, as herein provided.

Assistant Barrister, being a Landlord in his own Jurisdiction, may proceed by Civil Bill before Assistant Barrister of any adjoining County.

Appeal.

LXXXVI. Whenever it shall happen that the Defendant in any Ejectment Proceeding brought for the Recovery of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments under the Provisions of this Act shall not be resident on such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, the Delivery of any Notice or Process to such Defendant in Person, or, at the Dwelling House or Place of Residence of such Defendant, to his Wife, or to any Child or Servant of such Defendant, or to the Father, Mother, Brother, Sister, or other Relation of the said Defendant or of his Wife residing with the said Defendant, and being of the Age of Sixteen Years or upwards, shall in all Cases be deemed good and sufficient Service of any such Notice or Process, although such Defendant or Defendants shall not be resident, or his or their Dwelling House or Houses or Place of Residence shall not be situate, on the Lands or Tenements comprised in such Ejectment, or to which such Notice or Process shall relate, any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding: Provided always, that if a Defendant shall have gone out of Ireland, and shall have left his Wife and Family residing in the Dwelling House usually occupied by him while in Ireland, Service of the Process in Ejectment upon his Wife or any Member of his Family, being of the Age aforesaid, at such Dwelling House, shall be deemed and taken as good Service of the Process upon the Defendant, so as to enable the Landlord or Owner to obtain a Decree for the Possession of said Lands.

Service of Ejectment off the Premises on the Wife, Child, or Servant of the Defendant at Dwelling House deemed good Service.

LXXXVII. If any Lands or Tenements, or any Part of any Lands or Tenements, for which any Proceeding by Civil Bill Ejectment shall be had under the Authority of this Act, shall be in any extra-parochial Place, and there shall be any Chapel or Place of Public Worship in such extra-parochial Place, all Processes and Copies of Certificates before required to be fixed on the Door or Gate or on the Pier of the Door or Gate of a Parish Church or Roman Catholic Chapel in Places not extra-parochial shall be fixed on the Door or Gate or on One of the Piers of the Door or Gate of such Church, Chapel, or Place of Public Worship in such extra-parochial Place; and if there shall be more than One such Church, Chapel, or Place of Worship, then such affixing upon any One, in manner aforesaid, shall be sufficient.

How Ejectment Process shall be fixed in extra-parochial Places.

LXXXVIII. In all Proceedings under this Act by Civil Bill Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent the Affidavit of the Landlord or Lessor, or his Agent or Receiver, for ascertaining the Amount of the Rent due, shall be admissible.

Affidavits of Landlords admissible in Ejectments.

LXXXIX. In all Cases of Ejectment by Civil Bill, as between Landlord and Tenant, except where the Proceedings shall be grounded on Nonpayment of Rent, the Chairman, Assistant Barrister, or Recorder shall, if required, sign Two Copies of every Decree which shall be made, and also a Memorial thereof, for the Purpose of Registry in manner herein-after mentioned, and that his affixing his Signature to One of the said Copies shall be witnessed by some Person present at the Time of such Signature; and that it shall and may be lawful for the Landlord or Lessor, if he thinks proper, at any Time between the Termination of the Assizes for the County then next ensuing and the Commencement of the Assizes thereafter next following, to register One Copy of the said Decree in the Office for the Registry of Deeds and Wills in Ireland, by lodging a Memorial, and proving the Perfection of the same, in like Manner as is now provided by Law for the registering of Deeds; and that from and after the Registry of the said Decree

Assistant Barrister to sign Two Copies of Ejectment Decrees for Registry.

Ejectments.

Decree it shall have the further Effect of a Conveyance to the said Landlord or Lessor of any Interest which the Tenant, or any Person claiming under him, may or might have in and to the said Lands and Premises, freed and discharged from all Leases, Contracts, Mortgages, Debts, Charges, or Incumbrances which the said Tenant, or any Person claiming under him, may have charged, made, or created thereon.

No greater Fee to be demanded for the Registry of a Decree than for Deed. Penalty.

XC. If any Person in the said Office for the Registry of Deeds in Ireland shall demand or take any greater Fee, Gratuity, or Sum of Money, for or on occasion of the Registry of any of the said Decrees, than he is now by Law entitled to for the Registry of a Deed, he shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds for every such Offence, to be recovered in an Action of Debt by any Person suing for the same.

Clerk of Peace to keep Books in which Ejectments are to be entered.

XCI. The Clerk of the Peace of each County, and the respective Registrars of the County and County of the City of Dublin, shall enter in a Book to be kept for that Purpose all Decrees in Ejectment which shall be made at any Sessions of the Peace of such County or County of a City, and which Entries shall specify the Names of the Plaintiffs and Defendants, and the Tenements recovered, as the same shall be specified in the Civil Bills concerning the same, which Book every Person shall have Liberty to inspect and examine, paying to the Clerk of the Peace or Registrar for such Inspection and Examination the Fee of One Shilling and Eightpence; and that the said Clerk of the Peace or Registrar, within Three Days next after the Close of each Session of the Peace, shall post on the Outside of the Door of the Court House where such Sessions were held a correct List of such Causes in which any Tenements shall have been recovered at such Sessions under this Act, which List shall specify the Parties Names and the Description of the Tenements as set forth in the Civil Bill upon which the same shall have been recovered, upon pain of forfeiting for every such Omission the Sum of Ten Pounds, to be recovered by Civil Bill by any Person suing for the same: Provided always, that the Omission to make such Entry or posting shall not invalidate or in any way affect any Decree, or the Recovery of the Possession of any Lands or Premises.

Assistant Barrister, &c. to tax Costs of Ejectments.

XCII. It shall and may be lawful for the Chairman, Assistant Barrister, or Recorder, and they are hereby respectively required, in Cases of Civil Bill Ejectment, on the Request of either Party or his Attorney, to tax the Costs between Party and Party, and to include the same in the Decree or Dismiss, as the Case may be, and further, on the like Request, to tax Costs between Attorney and Client upon any Proceedings that shall have been taken or may hereafter be taken for the Recovery of the Possession of Lands or Tenements under the Provisions of this Act, and no Clerk of the Peace shall have any Power to tax the same, and no Fee shall be payable for such Taxation; and no Attorney shall be entitled to recover any Sum against any Client for or by reason of any Proceedings in Ejectment under this Act, or any Preparation for such Proceedings, unless the same shall have been previously taxed in manner herein provided; and it shall and may be lawful for the Chairman, Assistant Barrister, or Recorder, and they are hereby respectively required, to examine upon Oath (which Oath they are hereby respectively authorized to administer) the Attorney seeking to charge such Client, as to all Matters and Things which it may appear to the said Chairman, Assistant Barrister, or Recorder necessary to ascertain for the due Taxation of the said Costs: Provided always, that no Sum shall be allowed to the Plaintiff's Attorney for any Searches for Incumbrances affecting the Lands and Tenements, unless he shall have received Directions in Writing from the Plaintiff or his Land Agent authorizing him to make the same.

No Attorney entitled to recover until such Costs are taxed.

Assistant Barrister to examine Attorney on Oath as to Costs.

Forms to be used in proceeding by Ejectment under this Act.

XCIII. The Forms in the Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed (marked 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, and 17), or any other Forms to the like Effect, may be used in the respective Cases in the said Schedule mentioned, as and for the Process in such Cases; and the Forms in the said Schedule (marked 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, and 23), or any other Forms to the like Effect, may be used in the respective Cases in the said Schedule mentioned, as and for the Decrees in Ejectment; and the Form (marked 24) in the said Schedule, or any other Form to the like Effect, may be used by the Magistrates in the said Act mentioned, as and for a Certificate for Desertion; and the Form (marked 25) in the said Schedule, or any other Form to the like Effect, may be used for the Affidavit ascertaining the Rent due, to enable the Magistrates to grant such Certificate.

Costs to be paid by One Defendant in Ejectment only.

XCIV. It shall and may be lawful for the Chairman, Assistant Barrister, or Recorder, upon the Hearing of any Ejectment, where there shall be more than One Defendant, upon his pronouncing a Decree, to order and direct that the Costs of such Ejectment Proceedings shall be paid by and recovered from One or more of such Defendants by Name, and not from the other or others of them.

Sheriff to execute all Decrees for Possession within One Fortnight. Fee for the same. Sheriff may grant Warrant to Special Bailiff for Execution of Decree. Fee for such Warrant.

XCV. It shall be lawful for every Sheriff or Under Sheriff, and he is hereby required, in every Case in which no Special Bailiff shall have been appointed at the Nomination of the Plaintiff, as herein-after provided, to execute all Decrees for delivering the Possession of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments within One Fortnight after the same shall be so delivered to him; and every such Sheriff or Under Sheriff shall be entitled to and be paid a Sum of One Pound One Shilling, and no more, in every Case where he shall so execute the same: Provided nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for the Sheriff or Under Sheriff, and he is hereby required, if called on by the Plaintiff so to do, to grant his Warrant to a Special Bailiff, at the Plaintiff's Nomination, in like Manner as for the Execution of any other Civil Bill Decree; and that it shall and may be lawful for such Special Bailiff to whom such Warrant shall be granted, together with his Assistants, to execute the same by delivering the Possession of the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments therein named to the Plaintiff to whom the same shall have been decreed, or to any Person appointed by the said Plaintiff to receive the Possession on his Behalf; and in every Case where the said Sheriff or Under Sheriff shall grant his Warrant to a Special Bailiff for executing any such Decree for delivering Possession as aforesaid he shall be entitled to and be paid the Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence, and no more.

XCVI. The

Title to Lands, &c. not to be drawn into question.

XCVI. The Title to Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments (except in the Cases herein-before mentioned) shall not be drawn into question in any Proceeding by Civil Bill under this Act; and every Defendant in every Civil Bill shall be entitled, on the Hearing of such Civil Bill, to every Defence which he may have at Law or in Equity.

Regulation of the Courts.

As to Courts of Record.

XCVII. The Courts held by the said Chairman, Recorder of Dublin, or Assistant Barristers, and every of them, for hearing and determining Causes by Civil Bill as aforesaid, shall be respectively Courts of Record.

Time for sitting at Sessions.

XCVIII. The Court for the Hearing of Civil Bills, and of Quarter Sessions, shall, after the First Day of every Sessions, commence its Sittings, in the Months of December and January, not earlier than Nine nor later than Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, and in other Months not later than Nine of the Clock in the Forenoon, save when prevented by the Illness or unavoidable Absence of the Assistant Barrister, or other Fatality, and shall at once proceed with the criminal or civil Business, after the Assistant Barrister shall be in attendance; but no Decree or Proceeding shall be in any Manner impeached or questioned in consequence of any Trial or Civil Bill having been commenced or heard at any Time before or after any of those Hours; and that no Trial or Case, criminal or civil, or other Business, shall be entered upon after the Hour of Six of the Clock of the Afternoon of any Day, nor shall any Civil Bill be called on after that Hour, except at the Request of both Parties.

Civil Bills to be heard at every Sessions in alphabetical Order, except, &c.

May be heard in Baronial or other Divisions.

XCIX. All Civil Bills, save Ejectments and Replevins, shall be heard and determined at every Sessions in alphabetical Order according to the Surnames of the Plaintiffs, and be entered accordingly in the Book of the Clerk of the Peace, save and except in any Case or Cases where the Assistant Barrister shall see Reason to vary the same: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any Assistant Barrister from hearing and determining such Civil Bills in such Baronial or other Divisions as to him shall seem meet; provided that within such Divisions they shall be heard and determined in alphabetical Order as aforesaid, and provided that such Assistant Barrister shall give Three Months Notice of his Intention to hear and determine such Civil Bills in such Baronial or other Divisions.

Jury may be summoned for Trial of all Actions except in Ejectment and Replevin.

C. That in all Actions other than in Ejectment and Replevin when the Amount claimed shall exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff or Defendant to require a Jury to be summoned to try the said Action, and such Jury shall be summoned in the Manner herein-after mentioned; provided always, that the Party requiring a Jury to be summoned shall, Eight Days previous to the First Day of the Sessions at which said Jury may be so required, give to the Sheriff or leave at his Office a Notice in Writing setting forth that a Jury was demanded by such Party for the Trial of such Action; and such Notice shall contain the Names of the Parties to the said Action, and the Sessions to which said Process is returnable; and the said Jurors so to be summoned by the Sheriff shall be taken from the List of Persons now or at any Time hereafter liable to serve as Jurors at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions of the respective Counties; and the Sheriff shall cause so many of the Jurors of the said Court as in his Opinion he shall deem sufficient (but not less than Twelve) to be summoned to attend the said Court at a Time and Place to be mentioned in the said Summons, and the Persons so summoned shall attend at the Court at the Time mentioned in the Summons, and in default of Attendance shall forfeit such Sum of Money as the Assistant Barrister shall direct, not being more than Five Pounds for each Default, same to be recovered as Fines imposed on defaulting Jurors are now recoverable; and the Delivery of such Summons to the Person whose Attendance is required on such Jury, or Delivery thereof to the Wife or Servant or any Inmate at his usual Place of Abode, not less than Three Days before the Day mentioned in said Summons for his Attendance, shall be deemed good Service: Provided also, that no Person shall be summoned or compelled to serve on such Jury more than twice within One Year, or who shall have been summoned and shall have attended any Jury at the Assizes, or any Court of Nisi Prius, or at the Quarter Sessions, within Six Calendar Months next before the Delivery of such Summons: Provided also, it shall be lawful for the said Sheriff to summon any Person to act on such Jury for the Trial of such Actions as aforesaid who may be summoned to serve on Juries for the Trial of Criminal Cases at the same Sessions: Provided also, that whenever there are any Jury Trials Six Jurymen shall be empannelled and sworn as Occasion shall require to give their Verdicts in the Causes which shall be brought before them in the said Court, and being once sworn shall not need to be re-sworn at each Trial; and either of the Parties to any such Cause shall be entitled to his lawful Challenge against all or any of the said Jurors, in the like Manner as he would be entitled in any of the Superior Courts; and the Jurymen so sworn shall be unanimous in their Verdict: Provided also, that all Civil Bill Cases which shall be tried by any such Jury shall be tried and heard on such Day of the Sessions to which such Civil Bill Process shall be returnable as to the Assistant Barrister shall seem fit: Provided always, that in case any Assistant Barrister upon any Hearing, or any Judge of Assize upon any Appeal, shall think it proper to have any Fact or Facts controverted in any Cause at Hearing before him tried by a Jury, in such Case a Jury, consisting of not less than Three nor more than Twelve Persons, shall be returned instantly by the proper Officer to try such Fact or Facts as shall seem doubtful to such Assistant Barrister or Judge, and the Assistant Barrister or Judge shall proceed to make his Decree or Dismiss on the Verdict of such Jury, or as he shall deem fit.

Power to issue Summonses to Witnesses.

CI. For the Purpose of procuring the Attendance of Witnesses in the Civil Bill Courts it shall and may be lawful for the respective Clerks of the Peace of or acting for the several Counties and Counties of Cities and Towns in Ireland, upon the Request of any Person, a Party to any Proceeding by Civil Bill, whether Ejectment or other, to issue a Summons in the Nature of a Subpœna ad testificandum or Duces tecum, directed to any Person in Ireland, requiring him personally to appear and give Evidence before the Assistant Barrister, or before the Judge on Appeal, by whom the Matter in dispute is to be heard and determined; determined; and in case any Person so served with any such Summons, without sufficient Cause shall not attend pursuant thereto, and produce any Deeds, Documents, Papers, or Writings required by such Summons to be produced, it shall and may be lawful for the said Assistant Barrister, or Judge on Appeal, upon Proof that proper Service thereof had been duly made in sufficient Time before the Day for Appearance named therein, of the Sufficiency whereof the Assistant Barrister or Judge on Appeal is to determine, and that the reasonable and suitable Expenses of such Person had been paid or tendered to him at the Time of such Service, to award such Fine against any such Person who shall not attend, not exceeding Ten Pounds, as the said Assistant Barrister or Judge on Appeal shall deem fit and proper, he the said Assistant Barrister or Judge on Appeal causing to be filed of Record in his Court an Affidavit of the Time, Place, and Manner of the Service of such Summons, and of the Payment or Tender of such Expenses, to be made by the Person proving the same, which said Fine shall be paid or payable to the Party or Parties at whose Instance and Request the said Summons shall have been issued: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the Assistant Barrister or Judge on Appeal to tax and award against the unsuccessful Party in any Proceeding by Civil Bill such Sum or Sums of Money as and for the Expenses of Witnesses residing out of the District or Division in which such Civil Bill shall be heard not exceeding Five Pounds in the Case of any One Witness, and not exceeding Two Pounds in the Case of any One Witness residing within the Jurisdiction of the Assistant Barrister; or if the Assistant Barrister or Judge on Appeal shall think fit, it shall be lawful for him to award a certain limited Sum to be paid for or in lieu of all the Costs of all Witnesses, but not in any Case exceeding the Rate aforesaid; and the Costs so awarded, when payable by a Defendant, shall be recoverable in like Manner as and with and in addition to the Sum ordered to be paid by him in the Decree or Order of the Assistant Barrister or Judge of Assize on Appeal, and when payable by a Plaintiff shall be recoverable in like Manner as herein provided as to the Costs of a Dismiss: Provided also, that upon the Hearing of any Ejectment or other Civil Bill it shall be lawful for the Assistant Barrister or Judge on Appeal, in his Discretion, to receive in Evidence Proof of the Handwriting of any Party or of any subscribing Witness to any Instrument whatsoever, upon satisfactory Proof being given before him that such Party or Witness resides out of the County where such Civil Bill shall be so heard.

Regulation of the Courts.

Fine for Non-attendance.

Expenses of Witnesses summoned from another County to be taxed against the unsuccessful Party.

Handwriting of Party or subscribing Witness may be proved when out of Jurisdiction.

Parties may appeal to the Oath of each other.

CII. The Parties, Plaintiff and Defendant, shall in all Ejectment and other Cases be mutually at liberty to appeal each to the Oath of the other, provided that a Notice in Writing be served on the Party so intended to be examined at least Three Days previous to the Commencement of the Sessions; but the Assistant Barrister or Judge on Appeal may dispense with the Examination of any Party in any Case in which he may think it expedient so to do; and if he shall deem it to be a Case in which he ought not to dispense with the Oath of such Party, it shall be lawful for such Assistant Barrister or Judge on Appeal, in case of the Non-attendance of any Plaintiff, either to dismiss the Process without Prejudice, or to nil the same, or in case of the Non-attendance of any Defendant, and the Plaintiff thereby failing to prove his Case, to impose on such Defendant a Fine not exceeding Five Pounds, to be recovered by Civil Bill: Provided always, that in case a Defendant shall by such Notice require the Attendance at the Hearing of the Civil Bill of any Plaintiff therein who shall reside out of the Jurisdiction wherein such Civil Bill is to be heard, he shall at the Time of the Service of such Notice pay or tender to such Plaintiff his reasonable Expenses (the Reasonableness thereof to be determined by the Assistant Barrister or Judge upon Appeal); and in the event of the Defendant's omitting so to do such Plaintiff so residing out of the Jurisdiction shall be excused from Attendance in compliance with such Notice, and the Cause shall proceed and be determined as if no such Notice had been served; but in the event of such Expenses having been paid or tendered, and of the Non-attendance of the Plaintiff, or of his Attendance and of the Plaintiff's Case being dismissed, the Sum paid to the Plaintiff shall be added to the ordinary Costs of such Dismiss: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Assistant Barrister to examine on Oath any Party who shall be in Court, although no Notice may have been served upon such Party.

Civil Bill for Fines for Non-attendance.

CIII. It shall and may be lawful for any Party at whose Instance any Summons or Notice shall have issued, requiring the Attendance of any Person as a Witness, or of the opposite Party to be examined, when the Person so summoned as a Witness, or the Party noticed to attend, shall not have attended in pursuance of said Summons or Notice, as the Case may be, and shall have been fined for such Non-attendance, to proceed by Civil Bill against such Person or Party for Recovery of the Amount of the Fine so awarded, together with such Expenses as may have been paid to such Witness in the Civil Bill Court of the Division of the County or Riding in which such Person or Party shall reside, and the Certificate, signed by the Clerk of the Peace of the County in which such Fine had been imposed, or by his Deputy, upon Proof of the Handwriting of such Clerk of the Peace or Deputy, shall be conclusive Evidence that the Person so fined for Non-attendance had been duly called in Court, and did not attend, and had been fined for Non-attendance in the Amount stated in such Certificate: Provided always, that on the Hearing of such Civil Bill it shall and may be lawful for the Assistant Barrister to receive Evidence on the Part of the Defendant in such Civil Bill to satisfy him the said Assistant Barrister that the said Defendant had not been served with the Summons or Notice, or had not been served in sufficient Time to enable him to have attended, or that there was a reasonable and just Excuse for the Non-attendance of the said Defendant; and the Assistant Barrister shall be at liberty to pronounce a Decree, either for the full Amount of such Fine or for any smaller Sum, or a Dismiss, and with or without Costs, as he may under the Circumstances think fit.

Decree pro confesso.

CIV. In case any Plaintiff in any Civil Bill shall be desirous to appeal to the Oath of the Defendant in such Civil Bill, it shall be lawful for such Plaintiff to cause a Notice in Writing annexed to the Civil Bill

Regulation of the Courts.

Bill Process to be served upon such Defendant at the Time of the Service of the Civil Bill, or upon his Wife, Child, Clerk, or Servant, or Relative of the Defendant or of the Defendant's Wife, aged Sixteen Years and upwards, residing in his Dwelling House, setting forth that the Plaintiff in such Civil Bill requires the personal Attendance of the said Defendant upon the Hearing of such Civil Bill, to be examined on Oath touching the Matters therein contained, and that in default of his Appearance for that Purpose an Application would be made to the Assistant Barrister for a Decree founded upon the Affidavit of the Plaintiff; and in such Case, if the Defendant shall not appear upon the said Civil Bill being called on for Hearing, the Assistant Barrister shall postpone the same, so as to enable the Plaintiff to make an Affidavit setting forth the Facts of the Case, and such Circumstances, if any, as in his Judgment would justify the Court in making a Decree, and also the Amount then justly due to him by the Defendant in such Civil Bill, over and above all just and fair Credits and Allowances; and such Affidavit shall be filed and kept with the Records of the County or Riding where the same shall have been sworn, and the Party so swearing such Affidavit shall be liable to be prosecuted for Perjury in case any false Statement shall be contained in the same; and it shall be lawful for the Assistant Barrister, upon due Proof of the Service of the said Process, and such Notice annexed thereto as aforesaid, and upon being satisfied that the said Defendant was resident at the Time of the Service other than personal at such Dwelling House where such Service was made, and was not at the Time of the Hearing of the said Civil Bill disabled by Sickness or other sufficient Cause from attending thereat, and upon Consideration of the Matter of such Affidavit, and upon Examination on Oath of the Plaintiff, in case he shall think fit to examine him, and if he shall be satisfied of the Justice of the Claim of the Plaintiff, to make a Decree for such Sum as to him shall seem just, or to decline making any Decree: Provided also, that in case any Decree shall be made it shall appear on every such Decree so made as last aforesaid that the same was made upon the Affidavit of the Plaintiff filed in the said Court, specifying the Date thereof.

Process not to be void for technical Errors.

CV. No Action or Proceeding under or by virtue of this Act shall be treated or considered as invalid on account of any verbal or technical Error in the same; and it shall be lawful for every Assistant Barrister, or Judge on Appeal, to decide and determine what is a verbal or technical Error or Mistake in any Action or Proceeding, but all Errors or Mistakes which have not a Tendency to mislead the opposite Party shall in all Cases be deemed merely verbal or technical.

Variances.

Assistant Barristers may amend Variances and correct Misjoinders.

CVI. It shall and may be lawful for the several Assistant Barristers, and Judges on Appeal, and they are hereby respectively empowered, in all Cases, to amend all Variances between the Statement of the Cause of Action in any Civil Bill or other Process or Proceeding in their respective Civil Bill Courts, and the Evidence in support of such Cause of Action, and also to amend all Variances, Omissions, and Misdescriptions in the Descriptions, Additions, and Residence of the Parties or any of them, or otherwise howsoever of or in any such Process, or between the Original and any Copy or Copies thereof, provided such last-mentioned Variances, Omissions, or Misdescriptions shall not, in the Opinion of the Assistant Barrister, be calculated to mislead the Defendant or Defendants therein; and in every Case of any Misjoinder of Parties or Causes of Action it shall and may be lawful for every Assistant Barrister to strike out of the Process the Name or Names of any One or more Plaintiffs or Defendants, or any Count or Counts in such Process, by reason of whom or which such Misjoinder shall arise, and thereupon to proceed therein as to Justice shall appertain.

Evidence.

Official Copy of Judgment to be Evidence.

CVII. In every Proceeding before the Court of the Assistant Barrister or of the Judge of Assize upon Appeal an Office Copy of any Judgment, Decree, or Order made by or before any Court of Law or Equity in Ireland, certified to be a true Copy by the proper Officer of such Court of Law or Equity, as the Case may be, shall, upon Proof of such Officer's Handwriting, be deemed and taken as primâ facie Evidence of such Judgment, Decree, or Order of such Courts respectively: Provided always, that in every Civil Bill Proceeding under this Act, where it may become necessary to prove the Appointment of any Person to be a Receiver in any Cause in any of the Superior Courts of Equity in Dublin, an Office Copy of the Order appointing such Person such Receiver, duly proved as aforesaid, shall be sufficient Evidence of the Appointment of such Person as such Receiver; and it shall not be necessary to produce in proof of such Appointment the Bill and Answer or any other Proceeding in the Cause in which said Person shall have been so appointed such Receiver.

Office Copies of Wills to be Evidence of the Contents thereof in Civil Bill Courts.

CVIII. In every Proceeding before any Assistant Barrister in any Civil Bill Court, or before a Judge of Assize on Appeal, an Office Copy of any original Will or other testamentary Document lodged in any Ecclesiastical Court in Ireland, or in the Registry thereof, and which shall appear by such Copy to have been duly proved, and Probate or Letters of Administration thereof granted, shall, upon due Proof of the Signature of the proper Officer of such Ecclesiastical Court, certifying the same to be a true Copy of such original Will or other testamentary Document, be admitted as primâ facie Evidence of the Contents of such original Will or testamentary Document of which it purports to be an Office Copy, without the Production of the original Will or testamentary Document; and the proper Officer of any such Ecclesiastical Court is hereby required to make a Memorandum in Writing upon such Office Copy of the Time at which and the Person or Persons to whom such Probate or Letters of Administration shall have been granted.

Assistant Barrister may grant Time or adjourn the Hearing of a Cause.

CIX. The Assistant Barrister may in any Case make Orders for granting Time to the Plaintiff or Defendant to proceed in the Prosecution or Defence of any Civil Bill, and also may from Time to Time, and to the next subsequent Sessions for the same Division, but not longer, adjourn the Hearing or the further Hearing of any Civil Bill, as to the said Assistant Barrister may seem fit.

CX. Every

Decrees.

To be in Form in Schedule.

Execution.

Provision as to Costs.

CX. Every Decree and Dismiss made and signed by an Assistant Barrister, and not otherwise provided for, shall respectively be according to the Forms (26, 27.) in the Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, or as near thereto as the Nature of the Case will permit; and every such Decree may direct Execution against the Body or Goods of the Defendant, save when by Law it is otherwise provided.

CXI. Wheresoever any Assistant Barrister shall, in any Civil Bill brought under and by virtue of this Act, grant a Decree, the same shall be with such Costs as are provided by this Act; but in case the Plaintiff in any Civil Bill shall not proceed with the same, or shall fail to establish his Case to the Satisfaction of the Assistant Barrister, such Assistant Barrister shall and he is hereby authorized and empowered to dismiss such Civil Bill, with such Costs as are by this Act provided (save as herein-after mentioned), and either without Prejudice to the Plaintiff's proceeding by a new Civil Bill, or on the Merits, as he shall think just.

Decrees may be ordered to be paid by Instalments.

CXII. The Assistant Barrister, upon pronouncing any Decree for any Sum of Money, may order the Time or Times when and by what Instalments the Debt or Damages and Costs for which such Decree shall be obtained shall be paid, and such Decree shall be in the Form (28.) in the Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed; provided, that if the Assistant Barrister shall have made such Order for the Payment of such Sum of Money and Costs by Instalments the said Decree shall not issue against the Defendant until after Default in Payment of some Instalment according to such Order, and immediately upon such Default being made, and Affidavit thereof lodged with the Clerk of the Peace (and which Affidavit any Justice of the Peace is hereby authorized and required to take), the said Decree may issue for the whole, or for such Balance as may then remain due after deducting such Instalment or Instalments as were previously paid.

Dismiss may be given in favour of One Defendant and Decree against another.

CXIII. It shall and may be lawful for the Assistant Barrister, upon the Hearing of any Civil Bill where there shall be more than One Defendant, to grant a Decree, with Costs, against One or more of such Defendants, and to grant a Dismiss as to the other or others of the Defendants, either with or without Costs, as he shall think fit.

Decrees of Assistant Barrister may be signed by his Successor.

CXIV. In case of the Death, Removal, or Incapacity of any Assistant Barrister, it shall and may be lawful for his Successor, or the Barrister for the Time being acting for him, to sign any Order or Decree pronounced by the Barrister so dying or removed, or becoming incapable as aforesaid, and to act in all respects in reference to the Orders made as the Barrister so dying or removed, or being incapable as aforesaid, might have done; and the Order and Decree so signed shall be as valid and effectual as if the same had been signed by the Assistant Barrister who pronounced the same.

All previous Decrees, Orders, &c. to remain in full Force.

CXV. All Decrees and other Proceedings, of every Nature and Kind soever, obtained in any Civil Bill Court in Ireland, and in force at the Time of the Commencement of this Act, shall, notwithstanding this Act, remain and be in full Force as long as the same would have been in force and effect if this Act had not been passed, and may be renewed and enforced under this Act.

Process of Arrest.

Defendant exempted from Arrest by 11 & 12 Vict. c. 28. may, by Civil Bill Process, (in Form 29.) be required to show Cause why Process of Arrest, &c. should not issue.

CXVI. In all Cases in which any Decree or Order for any Sum in respect of which the Power of Arrest without special Order is taken away under the Provisions of an Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, Chapter Twenty-eight, and the Plaintiff having obtained such Decree or Order shall not have recovered his Demand out of the Goods and Chattels of such Defendant, it shall be lawful for such Plaintiff to cause a Civil Bill Process to be issued against the Defendant in such Decree or Order, thereby requiring him personally to appear before the Assistant Barrister for the County or Riding at the General or Quarter Sessions for the Division or Place in which such Defendant shall reside, and to show Cause why a Decree should not issue against his Person in respect of such Decree or Order; and such Civil Bill Process shall be according to the Form (29.) in the Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, or as near thereto as the Nature of the Case will admit; and the respective Assistant Barristers within their respective Jurisdictions shall have Power to hear and determine any such Civil Bill; and the Service, and the several Proceedings of, in, or relating to such Civil Bill, and the Costs of or relating to the same, shall be subject to the like Provisions and Regulations, so far as the same are applicable, as any Civil Bill in other Cases, save as herein otherwise provided.

If Assistant Barrister shall find that Defendant has Property fit to be administered under the Insolvent Act, he may direct Process of Arrest to issue, or if Debt contracted fraudulently may commit him.

CXVII. At the Hearing of such Civil Bill it shall be lawful for the Assistant Barrister to investigate the Amount of the Debts or Demands due or owing by or claimable against the Defendant, and the Nature and Amount and Circumstances of any Property, of whatsoever kind, he, or any one in trust for him, is, was, or may be possessed of or entitled to, and the Manner and Circumstances under which the Debt due to the Plaintiff or other Liability was incurred, and the Means and Expectation of Payment thereof; and if it shall appear that the Defendant, or any one in trust for him, is possessed of or entitled to Property of any kind, which, regard being had to the Nature, Amount, and Circumstances of such Property, and to the several Debts and Demands due by and claimable against the Defendant and to the Security of his several Creditors, ought, in the Opinion of the Assistant Barrister, to be administered under the Provisions of the Acts relating to Insolvent Debtors in Ireland, or that the Defendant is of sufficient Ability to discharge the Plaintiff's Debt or Demand, or that he is in receipt of any Income, Pension, Wages, or Salary, or Monies, which, in the Opinion of the Assistant Barrister, would enable the said Defendant to pay the Demands of the Plaintiff, by Instalments or otherwise, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for the Assistant Barrister to issue a Decree, in like Manner as in other Cases of Civil Bill, to take in Execution the Body of the Defendant to satisfy the Plaintiff's Demands and Costs, or to issue such Decree, with Stay of Execution for a Period thereby limited, which Decree may be according to the Form (30.) in the Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, or as the Circumstances of the Case may require; and under any such Decree the said Defendant may be arrested and detained in Custody accordingly, as in other Cases of Execution against the Body under a Civil Bill Decree; but if at such Hearing

Process of Arrest.

Hearing it shall appear to such Assistant Barrister that there is not Property of the Defendant which ought, in the Opinion of such Barrister, to be administered under the said Acts relating to Insolvent Debtors, or that the Defendant is not of sufficient Ability to discharge the Plaintiff's Debt or Demand, in any such Manner as aforesaid, or otherwise, but that such Defendant in incurring the Debt due to the Plaintiff or other Liability has obtained Credit from the Plaintiff under false Pretences, or by means of Fraud or Breach of Trust, or has wilfully contracted such Debt or Liability without having had at the same Time a reasonable Expectation of being able to pay or discharge the same, or shall have made or caused to be made any Gift, Delivery, or Transfer of any Property, Income, Pension, Salary, or Wages, or shall have charged, removed, pledged, incumbered, or concealed the same, with Intent to defraud his Creditors or any of them, it shall be lawful for the Assistant Barrister, if he shall think fit, by a Decree according to the Form (30.) in the Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, or as the Circumstances of the Case may require, to order that any such Defendant may be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction of the County, District, or Place in which the Defendant is resident, for any Period not exceeding Three Calendar Months, unless the Demand of the Plaintiff be sooner paid, without Prejudice to any Remedies for the Recovery of the Plaintiff's Demand out of the Property or Effects of the Defendant: Provided also, that there shall be no Appeal from any such Decision of the Assistant Barrister, and such Assistant Barrister may dismiss such Civil Bill, either with or without Costs, as he may think fit; and in case of a Dismiss with Costs, the Costs thereof shall be paid by the Plaintiff, or set off against his Demand, as the Assistant Barrister shall direct: Provided also, that if the Defendant in such Civil Bill shall not personally appear as thereby required at such Hearing, it shall be lawful for such Assistant Barrister to proceed to the Hearing of such Case in his Absence, and to make such Decree or Order as might be made on his Appearance, or as the Assistant Barrister shall think fit.

In default of Defendant's Appearance, Decree may be made.

Power to examine or commit at the original Hearing of a Civil Bill in certain Cases.

CXVIII. In any Action brought in any Civil Bill Court in any Case where the Power of Arrest without special Order is taken away under the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act, the Assistant Barrister, at the original Hearing of the Cause, shall have the same Power and Authority of granting a Decree against the Person of the Defendant, or of committing him to Prison, as he might have and exercise under the said last preceding Provision in case the Plaintiff had (after a Decree obtained) proceeded specially by a Civil Bill for such Purpose, as in the said last preceding Provision mentioned, anything herein-before contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding: Provided always, that in any Case in which a Plaintiff shall seek for a Decree against the Person of a Defendant, or for an Order for his Committal at the original Hearing of a Cause, when the Sum demanded shall not exceed Ten Pounds, he shall cause a Notice to be annexed to or endorsed upon the Civil Bill of such his Intention to seek for such Decree or Order: Provided also, that the Committal of a Defendant under an Order, and under any of the Circumstances in the last preceding Provision mentioned, shall not operate as an Extinguishment or Satisfaction of the Plaintiff's Debt or Demand.

Jurisdiction of the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors on Circuit transferred to the Assistant Barristers.

CXIX. From and after the First Day of January in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, the Circuits of the Commissioners of the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in Ireland shall be abolished; and that if thereafter any Insolvent Debtor in Custody in any of Her Majesty's Gaols in Ireland situated elsewhere than within the County of Dublin or the County of the City of Dublin, or any detaining Creditor of such Insolvent Debtor so in Custody as aforesaid, shall petition such Court under any Act or Acts relating to Insolvent Debtors in Ireland, or if any such Prisoner or detaining Creditor shall have so petitioned prior to the before-mentioned First Day of January, and such Petition shall not have been heard, or if the same shall have been heard, and the Consideration thereof shall have been adjourned, such Court or a Commissioner thereof shall, after the Schedule of such Prisoner shall have been duly filed, in the Case of any new Petition, and at any Time which to such Court or Commissioner shall seem fit in the Case of any such Petition which shall not have come on for Hearing, or the Hearing of which shall have been adjourned, make an Order referring such Petition for Hearing to the Assistant Barrister within whose Jurisdiction such Insolvent Debtor is in Custody, and shall transmit such Petition and Schedule to the Clerk of the Peace of the respective County for Hearing accordingly, and shall appoint a Time and Place at any Court of Quarter Sessions held within the Jurisdiction of such Assistant Barrister for such Prisoner to be brought up before such Assistant Barrister, and shall cause the usual Notices to be given; and any Assistant Barrister to whom any such Petition shall be so referred shall have and possess the same Power and Authority with respect to every such Petition, and shall make all such Orders, give all such Directions, and do all such Matters and Things requisite for the discharging or remanding of such Prisoner, and otherwise respecting such Prisoner, his Schedule, Creditors, and Assignees, as the said Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, or a Commissioner thereof, might make, give, or do in the Matters of Petitions heard before such Court or Commissioner under such Acts relating to Insolvent Debtors, and if he shall deem fit shall be at liberty to adjourn the Hearing from One Session to another, and to extend the Order for the Protection of the said Insolvent from Arrest during such Adjournment; and that every such Petition and Schedule, and all Judgments, Rules, Orders, Directions, and Proceedings pronounced, made, and done thereon in all and every the Matters aforesaid by such Assistant Barrister, shall be forthwith, as soon as conveniently may be after such Hearing or Adjournment thereof, as the Case may be, returned by the Clerk of the Peace to the said Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, signed by such Assistant Barrister and Clerk of the Peace respectively, to be a Record of the said Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, and to be kept as such among the Records thereof; and the said Clerk of the Peace is hereby required to return the same accordingly; and the said Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, or a Commissioner thereof, shall have Assistant Barrister to whom the Petition as to Insolvents is referred to have the same Powers as the Insolvent Court, or a Commissioner, for discharging or remanding Insolvent, &c.

Order for bringing the

have Power to issue his Warrant or Order, directed to the Governor, Keeper, or Gaoler of any Gaol wherein the Insolvent Debtor shall be in Custody, directing him to bring the Insolvent before such Assistant Barrister on the Day appointed for the Hearing of such Petition, or at any adjourned Sitting held in the Matter of such Petition; and every such Governor, Keeper, or Gaoler shall obey such Warrant; and the Expense of conveying such Prisoner to any such Quarter Sessions Town where the Gaol in which such Prisoner shall be confined shall not be situate in such Quarter Sessions Town, or of conveying such Prisoner (when necessary) from such Quarter Sessions Town to the said Gaol, not exceeding Threepence per Mile, shall be paid to the Keeper, Gaoler, or other Officer who shall bring such Prisoner to or from any such Quarter Sessions Town in obedience to any Rule or Order of the said Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, or a Commissioner thereof, out of the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner, if the same shall be sufficient to pay such Expense, and if not, then such Expense shall be paid by the Treasurer of the County, County of a City, or County of a Town in the Gaol of which such Prisoner shall be imprisoned, as the same shall be directed or ordered by such Assistant Barrister before whom such Prisoner shall be brought, and the Grand Jury of such County, County of a City, or County of a Town is hereby empowered and required to present the Amount thereof at the Assizes next ensuing the Day mentioned in such Rule or Order, to be levied off such County, County of a City, or County of a Town: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to deprive the said Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, or a Commissioner thereof, of the Power of discharging such Prisoner upon Recognizance of Sureties for the due Appearance of such Prisoner at the Time and Place appointed, or which shall thereafter be appointed, for the Hearing of such Prisoner before such Assistant Barrister as aforesaid, or of the Power of doing, prior to such Hearing before such Assistant Barrister, or pending the Adjournment of such Hearing, any Matter or Thing relative to such Prisoner, his Petition and Schedule, Estate and Effects, Creditors or Assignees, which can now be lawfully done by the said Court or a Commissioner thereof prior to or pending the Hearing of any such Prisoner before a Commissioner of said Court upon his Circuit: Provided also, that after the Discharge or Remand of such Prisoner by such Assistant Barrister as aforesaid the Jurisdiction of such Assistant Barrister shall cease, save as to any Rehearing of such Petition pursuant to any Order that may be made by the said Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, or a Commissioner thereof; and all Things necessary to be thereafter done in the Matter of the Petition and Schedule of such Prisoner, his Estate and Effects, Creditors or Assignees, shall be done by the said Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, or a Commissioner thereof, as if this Act had not been passed: Provided also, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend to the Case of any Prisoner of unsound Mind.

The Expense of his Removal to be paid out of the Estate of Insolvent, or (on Failure of such Estate) then by Grand Jury Presentment.

Insolvent Court to have Jurisdiction before and pending an Adjournment.

Exception as to Prisoners of unsound Mind.

Recognizances of Sureties entered into for enforcing Attendance of Insolvents to bind Persons to appear before Assistant Barrister.

CXX. 'And whereas divers Persons as Sureties have entered into Recognizances to the Provisional 'Assignee of the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in Ireland, with Conditions that the 'Insolvents therein named should duly appear as therein mentioned, and it may be necessary that some 'of such Insolvents should appear before Assistant Barristers under this Act:' Be it therefore enacted, That every such Recognizance shall extend to bind the Persons who may have entered into the same, in case the Insolvent Debtor therein mentioned shall not at the Time and Place appointed by any Order made pursuant to this Act duly appear before the Assistant Barrister to whom the Matter of the Petition of such Insolvent shall be referred, and on every adjourned Hearing thereof, or shall not abide by the final Judgment of such Assistant Barrister.

Indemnity to Sheriffs, Gaolers, &c. for anything done under the Act.

CXXI. Every Sheriff, Gaoler, Keeper, or other Officer of any Prison who shall do anything in obedience to any Order of the said Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, or a Commissioner thereof, or of any Assistant Barrister, or of any Officer of the said Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, or of such Assistant Barrister, by virtue of the Provisions of this Act as to Insolvent Debtors, shall be and is hereby indemnified for whatsoever shall be done by them respectively in obedience thereto; and that if any Action of Escape, or any Suit or Action, be brought against any such Commissioner or Assistant Barrister, Sheriff, Gaoler, Keeper of any Prison, or any Person, for performing the Duty of his Office in pursuance of the said Provisions of this Act, such Commissioner, Assistant Barrister, Sheriff, Gaoler, Keeper of Prison, and other Person may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff be nonsuited, or discontinue his Action, or a Verdict shall pass against him, or Judgment shall be had for the Defendant upon Demurrer, the Defendant shall have Treble Costs.

Retiring Salary to senior Commissioner of the Insolvent Court on his Resignation, &c., and One Commissioner to perform the Duties thereafter.

CXXII. 'And whereas by reason of the Provisions in this Act contained relating to the Discharge of 'Insolvent Debtors One Commissioner of the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in Ireland will 'be sufficient for the Discharge of all the Duties relating to the Office of the Commissioners of the said 'Court:' Be it enacted, That upon the Death, Resignation, or Removal of the senior of the present Commissioners of the said Court at any Time after the passing of this Act the surviving or remaining Commissioner of the said Court shall alone discharge all the Duties of Commissioner of the said Court; and upon the Death, Resignation, or Removal of such surviving or remaining Commissioner it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, to appoint in his Place and Stead a Commissioner of the said Court, in such Manner as he or they are now by Law empowered to appoint a Commissioner thereof, and who shall be the sole Commissioner of the said Court; and upon the Resignation or Removal as aforesaid of the said senior of the present Commissioners of the said Court it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to order and direct such Superannuation or annual Compensation to be paid to the said Commissioner as they shall think fit; and such Superannuation or Compensation shall be paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland annually, by Four quarterly Payments at the Periods at which any Commissioner of the said Court is now by Law entitled to receive his Salary.

Process of Arrest.

CXXIII. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend to take away the Power of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland of appointing a Deputy, in the Case of Illness of a Commissioner of the said Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, or other reasonable Cause, according to the Provisions of the Act of the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter 107, or of appointing a Commissioner for taking Bail under an Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter 47.

Proviso as to appointing a Deputy in case of Illness.

CXXIV. From the Time when the Duties of Commissioner of the said Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors shall be performed by a sole Commissioner as aforesaid, the Office of the Registrar of the Commissioner so dying, resigning, or being removed as aforesaid shall be abolished, and such Office shall not be again filled up; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to order and appoint to be paid to such Person, whose Office shall be so abolished, such annual Compensation as they shall think fit, and the same shall be paid annually out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland by Four quarterly Payments.

Office of One of the Registrars of the Insolvent Court to be thenceforth abolished, &c.

CXXV. 'And whereas it is expedient to protect, to the Extent herein-after mentioned, the Tools and 'actual Necessaries of or belonging to Debtors from being seized in Execution under any Civil Bill, 'Decree, Dismiss, or Order:' Be it enacted, That the Wearing Apparel and Bedding of any Debtor in Ireland, and the Tools and Implements of his Trade or Business, the Value of such Apparel, Bedding, Tools, and Implements not exceeding in the whole the Value of Five Pounds, shall not be liable to Seizure under any Decree, Dismiss, or Order of any Civil Bill Court against his Goods and Chattels: Provided always, that whether the Value of such Apparel, Bedding, Tools, and Implements shall or shall not exceed the Value of Five Pounds, they shall, to an Extent not exceeding Five Pounds in Value, be protected from such Seizure as aforesaid.

Tools and actual Necessaries of Debtors not to be seized in Execution under Civil Bill.

CXXVI. It shall and may be lawful for every Assistant Barrister in Ireland, although he shall not be at the Time within the County of which he shall be such Assistant Barrister, to take any such Affidavit or Affidavits as he is now by Law entitled to take, or as in any way relates to any Action or Proceeding in his Court of Civil Bill Jurisdiction, and to administer the necessary Oath or Oaths for that Purpose; and every such Affidavit shall be of the same Force and Effect, and the Penalty for any false swearing therein shall be the same, to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Affidavit was taken by or before such Assistant Barrister in the Civil Bill Court within his County: Provided always, that every Affidavit relating to or concerning any Action or other Proceeding in his Court of Civil Bill Jurisdiction shall, within Six Days after the Day on which such Affidavit shall be made, be delivered to the Clerk of the Peace of such County, or at the Office of such Clerk of the Peace within such County, to be filed amongst the Records of such Court, otherwise such Affidavit shall be null and void.

Affidavits as to Civil Bill Proceedings may be taken by Assistant Barristers out of their Counties.

Appeals.

CXXVII. It shall and may be lawful for any Person who shall think himself aggrieved by any Decree or Dismiss made or pronounced by any Assistant Barrister to appeal therefrom to the Judge of Assize for the respective Counties in which such Decree or Dismiss shall have been made, at the Assizes next after such Decree or Dismiss shall have been so made or pronounced, and not after such Assizes; and such Judge of Assize is hereby empowered and required to hear the said Cause, and to issue a Decree and Execution thereon, in like Manner as Decrees and Executions are by the said Assistant Barristers to be awarded and issued upon the Hearing of Civil Bills under this Act, and with like Powers relating to the same, and with the like Costs; which Appeal the Assistant Barrister is hereby required to receive, and stop all Proceedings on the Decree or Dismiss pronounced, the Party appealing, if a Defendant, first paying to the Plaintiff the Costs allowed by this Act, or depositing the same with the acting Clerk of the Peace, and in all Cases, except in Proceedings by Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent, entering before the said Assistant Barrister into a Recognizance of double the Sum decreed, with sufficient Bail to pay the Sum decreed against him, with Costs, in case no Relief shall be had upon the Hearing of such Appeal; and such Recognizance shall be in the Form (31.) in the Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed; and in case the Party appealing be a Plaintiff, then paying the Defendant, or depositing with the acting Clerk of the Peace, the Costs allowed by this Act, and entering before the Assistant Barrister into a Recognizance in the Sum of Forty Shillings, or if the Sum awarded against him by the said Assistant Barrister for Costs shall exceed Forty Shillings, in a Sum equal to the Amount of such Costs, conditioned to pay such Costs as shall be awarded against him on such Appeal, if the same shall be determined against him: Provided always, that in Cases of Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent Execution shall not be stayed by reason of any such Appeal, unless the Defendant shall deposit with the Clerk of the Peace the Amount of the Rent proved to be due on the Hearing of the Civil Bill Ejectment; and provided also, that, except in Ejectment Cases, no Appeal shall lie against a Dismiss without Prejudice.

Appeals may be made to Judge at next Assizes.

Judges of Assize empowered to hear and issue Decree and Execution as herein.

Assistant Barristers to receive Appeal and stop Proceedings, Appellant, if Defendant, first paying, &c. as herein.

If Plaintiff, then to pay, as herein.

CXXVIII. Any Person who shall think himself aggrieved by such Decree of such Assistant Barrister, and who did not appear by Attorney at the Hearing of the Cause, and shall not have entered into such Recognizance as aforesaid, may deposit the Money decreed against him, and the Costs thereof, in the Hands of the Sheriff, and enter into a Bond of Five Pounds to the adverse Party (such Bond to be free from any Stamp Duty), conditioned to perform and abide the Decree of the next-coming Judge of Assize for such County, and on his so doing the said Sheriff shall stop and forbear further Proceedings on the said Decree until the next Assizes, and give the Party appealing a Certificate that such Party has appealed and made such Deposit with the said Sheriff; and the Party appealing shall give Notice to the other Party in the Cause, Six Days at the least before the then next Assizes, that he has made such Deposit

If Appearance by Attorney not made, or Recognizance not entered into, Money decreed, &c. may be deposited with Sheriff, upon which Proceedings shall be stopped, &c.

Appellant to give Notice of Deposit Six Days before next Assizes, if possible.

If Notice insufficient, Appeal to be dismissed.

Deposit with the Sheriff, and intends to appeal to the next-going Judge of Assize, if there shall be sufficient Time to give such Notice after such Deposit so made; and if there shall not be sufficient Time to give Six Days Notice thereof, then the said Party so making such Deposit with the Sheriff shall give as long Notice of such his Deposit made, and Intent to appeal, as he reasonably can, on the Reasonableness of which Notice the said Judge of Assize shall determine; and if he or they shall think the same, on the Circumstances of the Case, insufficient, he or they shall dismiss the said Appeal, and affirm the said Decree or Dismiss, without requiring the Party who obtained the same to prove his Case, if he is unprepared so to do.

Attorney to make Affidavit that Appeal is not made for the Purpose of Delay.

If Appearance not made, &c., Deposit not to be received by Sheriff, &c. unless Affidavit is made.

Affidavits to be kept with Records.

CXXIX. No Assistant Barrister shall receive any Appeal from any Decree or Dismiss by him made or pronounced, unless the Attorney who appeared at the Hearing of the Cause in which the same was made or pronounced for the Party desiring to appeal, if any such Attorney did appear, shall first make an Affidavit in Writing according to the Form (32.) in the Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, before such Assistant Barrister, that such Appeal is not, as he believes, made or to be made for the Purpose of Delay, but that he believes that there is probable Cause of reversing the Decree or Dismiss made in the said Cause, which Affidavit so made shall be kept among the Records of the County by the Clerk of the Peace; and in case the Party intending to appeal shall not have appeared by Attorney at the Hearing of the Cause, and shall not have entered into such Recognizance as aforesaid, but shall offer to deposit the Sum decreed against him in the Hands of the Sheriff, the same shall not be received by the Sheriff, nor the Proceedings therein stopped, unless the Party appealing shall produce to the Sheriff, and deposit with him, an Affidavit made by such Party before some Justice of Peace of the respective County, to the same Effect and of the same Substance as herein-before required to be made before such Assistant Barrister in case of an Appeal lodged before him; which said Affidavits the several Justices of the Peace are hereby empowered and required to take in and for their respective Counties; and such Sheriff is hereby required to transmit such Affidavit to the Clerk of the Peace, to be by him kept among the Records of the Court.

Appeal in Cases when Parties appear by Attorney, but are not present to enter into Recognizance.

CXXX. 'And whereas Plaintiffs and Defendants appearing by Attorney, and not attending in Person 'at the Quarter Sessions, might be deprived of their Right of Appeal, by reason of their being necessary 'Parties to the Recognizance to prosecute such Appeal:' Be it therefore enacted, That in case of the Absence of any such Plaintiff it shall and may be lawful for him to enter an Appeal, without entering into such Recognizance, upon paying the Defendant, or depositing with the Clerk of the Peace, double the Costs of such Dismiss, and performing the other Requisites herein-before specified in Cases of Appeal (save as to such Recognizance); and it shall and may be lawful for any such Defendant to enter an Appeal on a like Payment to the Plaintiff, or depositing with the Clerk of the Peace, double the Costs of such Decree, and performing the other Requisites as to Appeals herein-before specified (save as to such Recognizance); but a Recognizance in double the Sum decreed, in case of the Absence of the Defendant, shall in every Case be entered into on his Behalf by Two solvent Sureties, to prosecute the Appeal, and to pay the Amount to be decreed against the Defendant, and Costs.

Sheriffs neglecting to pay over Deposit or Sums levied under Decrees liable to pay double to Party aggrieved.

CXXXI. Where any Person shall be entitled to bring an Appeal under the Provisions of this Act, and shall for the Purposes of such Appeal deposit with the Sheriff the Money decreed against him, or any Sum of Money directed by this Act to be deposited with the Sheriff, if the said Sheriff shall neglect to pay over the Sum so deposited with him, or shall refuse or neglect to pay over any Sum levied by virtue of any Execution of such Decree or Dismiss to the Person or Persons entitled thereto, or to such Person or Persons as by him or them shall be lawfully authorized to receive the same, upon Demand made for that Purpose, such Sheriff so offending shall forfeit to the Party aggrieved double the Sum so deposited with or received by such Sheriff, together with legal Interest for the same from the Time of such Demand, to be recovered by Civil Bill before the Assistant Barrister for the County for which such Sheriff so acted, with like Power of Appeal as in the Case of any ordinary Civil Bill.

Appeals from Civil Bill Decrees, &c. in Dublin to be heard by the Courts provided by the 13 Vict. c. 18. s. 30.

CXXXII. Every Appeal from any Decree, Dismiss, or Order on any Civil Bill of the Recorder of Dublin, or of the Chairman of the County of Dublin, shall be made to and heard by such Court as is in that Behalf provided by an Act passed in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the Regulation of Process and Practice in the Superior Courts of Common Law in Ireland; and the Party appealing shall give to the Party who shall have obtained such Decree, Dismiss, or Order, or to his Attorney, Four Days Notice of the Time appointed by the Court for the Hearing of the same; and such Appeal, and the several Matters relating thereto, shall in other respects be subject to the like Provisions and with like Powers as in Cases of Appeals to Judges of Assize.

If no Appeal, Decrees and Dismisses final.

If Appeal made, the Decree of Judge of Assize final.

CXXXIII. Such Decrees and Dismisses as shall be made and pronounced by such Chairman, Recorder, and Assistant Barristers respectively shall, in case there shall be no Appeal therefrom, be absolutely final to all Intents and Purposes, and shall not be subject to be removed, by any Writ of Error or otherwise, to any other of Her Majesty's Courts, or capable of being reversed; and that in case of an Appeal from any such Decree or Dismiss to the next-going Judge of Assize, or in the County or County of the City of Dublin to the Court herein-before provided, the Order or Decree of such Courts shall in like Manner be absolutely final to all Intents and Purposes, and shall not be removed to any of Her Majesty's Courts, by Writs of Error or otherwise, and shall not be capable of being reversed.

Where several Defendants, and Assistant Barrister dismisses as to One and decrees as CXXXIV. In all Cases where it shall happen that there are Two or more Defendants, and that the Chairman, Recorder, or Assistant Barrister shall decide that One or more of said Defendants is or are liable to the Plaintiff's Demand, and that the other or others of said Defendants is not or are not liable to same, and shall accordingly direct a Decree to issue against One or more of the said Defendants, and at the same Time a Dismiss against another or others of them, it shall and may be lawful in all such Cases Cases for the Defendant or Defendants against whom such Decree has been made to appeal in the same Manner and under the same Restrictions and Provisions as if there was but One Defendant in the Cause. to the other or others.

CXXXV. In all Cases where there shall be several Plaintiffs or several Defendants it shall be lawful for any One or more of such Plaintiffs to appeal against a Dismiss, and for any One or more of such Defendants to appeal against a Decree, pronounced by the Assistant Barrister, although the other or others of said Parties, Plaintiffs or Defendants, shall refuse or decline to join the said Plaintiff or Defendant so desirous of appealing: Provided always, that such Decree or Dismiss so appealed against shall not, pending such Appeal, be executed against the Party or Parties not appealing. One of several Plaintiffs or Defendants may appeal without the others.

CXXXVI. Where in any Civil Bill there shall be several Plaintiffs and several Defendants, and all or more than One of such Plaintiffs, or all or more than One of such Defendants, as the Case may be, shall appeal from the Decree or Dismiss of the Chairman, Recorder, or Assistant Barrister, and after the lodging of such Appeal any of such Parties, Plaintiffs or Defendants, shall die (in case of a Plaintiff or Plaintiffs) leaving another Plaintiff or other Plaintiffs surviving, and (in case of a Defendant or Defendants) leaving another Defendant or other Defendants surviving, such Appeal shall not abate by such Death or Deaths, but the same may be proceeded with at the Suit of the surviving Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or against the surviving Defendant or Defendants, or vice versâ, as the Case may be. Death of Parties not to abate Suit where several Plaintiffs or Defendants, but may be prosecuted by Survivor.

CXXXVII. In all Cases where any Party to any Civil Bill shall have given Notice in Writing to the opposite Party to produce, upon the Hearing of said Civil Bill before the Chairman, Recorder, or Assistant Barrister, any Document, or any Notice of Set-off, or any Notice of any other Kind or Description whatsoever, it shall not be necessary for such Party or Parties so having given such Notice to renew the same upon or for the Hearing of any Appeal that may be brought in such Case, but any such Notice so given for the original Hearing of the Civil Bill shall be effectual in like Manner upon the Appeal. Notices on Parties below to be good in Cases of Appeal.

CXXXVIII. In all Cases of Appeal from any Civil Bill Decree or Dismiss it shall be lawful for the Chairman, Recorder, or Assistant Barrister, in case he shall be of opinion that a Question of Law only is involved in such Proceeding, by Consent of the Parties respectively, to state a special Case under his Hand for the Opinion of the Judge on Appeal upon such Question of Law, and thereupon like Proceedings shall be had, and a like Decision given upon such Appeal and Special Case, and subject to like Provisions as in other Cases of Appeal, save that, without further Proof of the Facts of the Case, the Decision of the Court of Appeal shall be given upon such Special Case. Opinion of the Court of Appeal on the Question of Law.

Renewals of Decrees.

CXXXIX. Every Decree and Dismiss made and signed by any Assistant Barrister shall be in full Force and Effect for One Year from the Date of the same, and that the same, if not before executed, may be renewed from Time to Time once in every Six Months, or as near thereto as the Time for holding the several Sessions will permit: Provided always, that no Civil Bill Decree for Possession of any Lands or Tenements, or any Affirmance of such Decree, (except in the Case of a Renewal under the Eighth Section of an Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and eleven,) shall be renewed, save for the Costs thereby decreed. Decrees and Dismisses in force for a Year, and renewable. No Renewal of Decree for Possession, except for Costs.

CXL. No Decree shall be at any Time renewed until the Plaintiff in such Decree, or One of the Plaintiffs, if there be more than One, or in case of the Death of a sole Plaintiff, then his or her personal Representatives, or One of them, and in case of more than One Plaintiff, the surviving Plaintiff, or One of the Representatives of a deceased Plaintiff, shall have made Affidavit, or an Affirmation in Cases where an Affirmation is by Law allowed, before the said Assistant Barrister for the County in which such Decree was made or pronounced in open Court held as aforesaid for such Division, which Affidavit or Affirmation shall be in the Form 33. in the Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, or as near thereto as the Nature of the Case will admit, and shall state the Names of the Parties in the original Cause, the Sum for which such Decree was made, and the Sum then remaining due or unpaid to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or their personal Representatives, on the Foot of the said Decree, after all just Allowances; provided that if the Person swearing such Affidavit or making such Affirmation was a Party in the original Cause as personal Representative to some other Person, or if such Person so swearing or affirming shall seek to renew any Decree or Dismiss as Executor or Administrator of One of the Parties in the original Cause, it shall be sufficient for such Person to swear or affirm that such Sum still remains due, after all just Allowances, as he or she verily believes: Provided also, that in the Absence of the Party to the original Decree it shall be lawful for the known Agent or Receiver of such original Party to make such Affidavit, in which Case the Words "One of the Parties," in the Form of the Affidavit specified, shall be omitted, and instead thereof shall be substituted (known Agent or Receiver (as the Case may be) to C.D., Plaintiff or Defendant (as the Case may be), and that such Person so making the said Affidavit may add at the End thereof these Words, "as he doth verily believe." Decree not renewed till Affidavit in Schedule made. Provision as to Representatives. Affidavits for Renewal of Decrees, &c. may be made by Agent or Receiver, with Alterations herein directed.

CXLI. No Dismiss shall be at any Time renewed until the Defendant who shall have obtained the same, or One of the Defendants, if there shall be more than One Defendant, or in case of the Death of a sole Defendant then his or her personal Representatives, or One of them, and in case of more than One Defendant the surviving Defendant, or One of the Representatives of a deceased Defendant, shall have made Affidavit, or an Affirmation in Cases where an Affirmation is by Law allowed, in like Manner and Form, mutatis mutandis, as is herein-before provided in the Case of renewing a Decree; which Affidavit so sworn or Affirmation made, and signed by and with the Name or Mark of the Person so swearing or affirming it, as well where the Party shall seek to renew a Decree as a Dismiss, shall be written or printed on the same Piece of Paper with the Renewal of the said Decree or Dismiss, filled and prepared for Dismiss not renewed till Affidavit made. Affidavit on Renewal of Decree or Dismiss to be written on same Paper with Renewal, prepared for Assistant Barrister to sign; and may renew Decree or Dismiss, as herein. Affidavit to be kept with Records of County.

for the said Assistant Barrister to sign; and when such Affidavit or Affirmation shall have been sworn or affirmed the said Assistant Barrister shall sign his Name thereto, testifying that the same was sworn before him in open Court; and the said Assistant Barrister shall and may then renew such Decree or Dismiss (by signing such Renewal) for the whole original Sum and Costs, if the whole shall be due, or for such Sum as shall be sworn or affirmed to remain due, as the Case shall happen, together with the Costs of such Renewal; and thereupon the said Affidavit or Affirmation shall be separated from the said Renewal, and shall be delivered to the Clerk of the Peace for the County or his Deputy, and shall be kept among the Records of the County.

Decrees or Dismisses may be renewed by Plaintiff or Defendant, or their Executors, &c.

CXLII. It shall be lawful for any Plaintiff or Defendant, or surviving Plaintiff or Defendant, or the Executor or Administrator or Assignee of any Plaintiff or Defendant, who shall have become bankrupt or insolvent, or the Husband of any Plaintiff or Defendant, by whom any Decree or Dismiss was obtained, to renew any Decree or Dismiss, or any Affirmance or Reversal of any Decree or Dismiss of the Assistant Barrister affirmed or reversed on Appeal against any Defendant or Plaintiff or surviving Defendant or Plaintiff, or the personal Representatives of such Parties respectively; provided that all such Renewals shall be subject to the same and the like Conditions and Regulations as are herein prescribed: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for any Assistant Barrister to grant a Renewal of any Civil Bill Decree or Dismiss, Affirmance or Reversal, when Two Years shall have elapsed after such Decree or Dismiss, Affirmance or Reversal, shall have been pronounced, nor at any Time to grant such Renewal to or against any Person not being an original Party to such Civil Bill, unless upon Proof made in open Court that the Party seeking such Renewal caused Notice in Writing, according to the Form (34.) in the Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, to be served upon the Person against whom it is sought to renew such Decree or Dismiss, Affirmance or Reversal, setting forth the Particulars of such Decree, and the Amount for which the Application to renew such Decree is proposed to be made, such Notice to be served in like Manner as Civil Bill Processes are hereby required to be served, and at the like Time previous to the First Day of holding the Civil Bill Court to which such Application is intended to be made, and to be entered with the Clerk of the Peace, and heard and determined in like Manner as any ordinary Civil Bill.

No Renewal after Two Years, except upon Notice.

Notice to be served of Renewal when to be granted to any but the original Parties.

Decrees, &c. previous to this Act may be renewed.

CXLIII. All Decrees and Dismisses which shall have been made or pronounced by any Assistant Barrister, Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace for the County of Dublin, or the Recorder of the City of Dublin, before the Commencement of this Act, may, subject to the Regulations aforesaid, be renewed before any of the Assistant Barristers for the Time being for the Counties respectively in which the said Decrees or Dismisses have been heretofore made, or before such Chairman or Recorder, as the Case may be.

Decree or Dismiss not to be renewed after Six Years made.

CXLIV. No Decree or Dismiss already made or pronounced, or hereafter to be made or pronounced, by any Assistant Barrister, shall be renewed at any Time after Six Years from the Time of the making or pronouncing the same, but the Debt and Costs therein shall, after Seven Years from the making of the original Decree or Dismiss, be absolutely extinguished, and shall not be capable of being enforced by any Proceeding whatsoever; and such Decree or Dismiss, or Renewal thereof, shall not be revived or kept in force by any parol Evidence or Promise to pay the same or any Part thereof, or by any Evidence of a Part Payment thereof: Provided nevertheless, that if the Defendant or Defendants shall execute any new Security in Writing for such Debt or Costs such new Security shall be of full Force and Effect in Law.

Execution of Decrees.

Sheriffs to execute Decrees.

Sheriffs of Counties of Cities and of Towns to make Warrants, &c.

CXLV. All Decrees and Orders of the said Civil Bill Courts which shall have been signed before the Commencement of this Act, and remaining unexecuted, and all Decrees and Orders of such Courts hereafter to be signed, shall be executed by the Sheriffs of the several Counties, Counties of Cities and Towns, or, at the Request of the Plaintiff, by any Person authorized by the said Sheriffs, by special Warrant, to act as Bailiff, at the Peril of the Party making such Request; and that the several Sheriffs of the several Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns shall make such Warrants and execute such Executions in and for their respective Bailiwicks, upon all Decrees and Dismisses or Orders to be executed within their respective Bailiwicks, and do all and every Matter relative thereto, and to Appeals therefrom, and with the like Fees, as is herein mentioned respecting the Sheriffs of the several Counties at large.

Bailiffs may sell Goods taken in Execution.

CXLVI. Any Person employed as a Bailiff in any Civil Bill Decree shall have full Power and Authority to sell Goods taken in Execution by him, by Public Auction, without the Assistance of a licensed Auctioneer.

Cattle, &c. not to be taken more than Five Miles; and then publicly sold between Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, giving Four Days Notice of the same.

CXLVII. No Cattle or Goods taken in Execution under any Decree or Dismiss shall be driven or carried to any Place more than Five Miles distant from the Place where they were taken; and that such Cattle or Goods shall be sold by public Cant to the highest and best Bidder, between the Hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon on such Day and at such Place as the Sheriff or his Bailiff shall appoint, first causing Notice in Writing entitled in the Cause of the Time and Place intended for such Sale to be posted up Four Days previous thereto in the next Market Town at the usual Place of posting up public Notices; and the Plaintiff in such Decree shall be entitled to receive and retain out of the Proceeds of such Sale a Sum of Money for the Expenses of Bailiffs in charge of the Property taken (if such Property shall remain in charge of Bailiffs), over and above the Amount of the Decree, at the Rate of One Shilling and Sixpence for each Bailiff for every Twenty-four Hours that he shall be so in charge: Provided always, that the Number of Bailiffs for whom the Plaintiff may so charge shall not exceed Two, and the Length of Time for which he shall charge shall not exceed Five Days: Provided also, that the Plaintiff in such Decree, or the Person or Persons so driving or carrying away such Cattle

Penalty on selling, &c. other-

or Goods, or selling them, otherwise than as herein directed, shall forfeit to the Person aggrieved by the same double the Value of the said Cattle, to be recovered by Civil Bill under this Act.

wise than as herein.

CXLVIII. If any Cattle or Goods shall be taken and carried away under any Decree or Dismiss, or under colour of any Decree or Dismiss obtained upon any Civil Bill, between the Hours of Sunset and Sunrise, the Person or Persons so taking and carrying away the same shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof shall suffer such Punishment by Fine or Imprisonment, or both, as to the Court who shall try the Case shall seem meet, and in any Indictment for this Offence it shall be sufficient to allege generally that the Party or Parties fraudulently, contrary to the Intent of this Act, carried away such Cattle or Goods between the Hours of Sunset and Sunrise, without describing more particularly the Circumstances of such Offence; and the Property in the Goods and Cattle so taken shall not be altered by any Sale thereof.

Persons driving or taking Cattle or Goods between Sunset and Sunrise, guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Property not altered by Sale.

CXLIX. In any Case where the Decree, Dismiss of any Civil Bill Court, or any Warrant thereon, may be set up as a Defence to any Action in any Superior Court, it shall not be incumbent on the Party to plead such Decree, Dismiss, or Warrant thereon specially, but it shall be lawful for him to plead the General Issue, and to give the Decree, Dismiss, or Warrant thereon respectively in Evidence as special Matter.

Decree may be given in Evidence under General Issue.

CL. 'And whereas Difficulties may arise in the Execution of any Decree or Order made under this 'Act against Goods, by reason of Claims being made to the Property of such Goods by Persons not 'being the Parties against whom such Decree or Order has issued, and it is reasonable to afford a 'cheap and expeditious Mode of adjudicating on such Claims:' Be it enacted, That when any Goods taken under any Decree, Order, or Process of any Civil Bill Court in Ireland shall be claimed by any Person who is not a Party to such Decree, Order, or Process, it shall and may be lawful for the said Person so claiming such Goods so taken as aforesaid, or his Agent, to make an Affidavit before any Justice of the Peace for the County wherein such Goods shall have been seized under such Decree, Order, or Process, (and which Affidavit such Justice is hereby empowered to take and receive,) to the Purport that the said Goods are the bonâ fide Property of the Person so claiming the same; and it shall and may be lawful for the Sheriff of the County where such Goods shall be so seized, upon the Lodgment with the said Sheriff of such Affidavit, and of the Amount of the Sum mentioned in such Decree, Order, or Process, where the Value of the Goods so seized shall exceed or be equal to the Amount of the Sum mentioned in such Decree, Order, or Process, or, in the event of the Value of the Goods so claimed being less than the Sum so mentioned, then such Sum as shall be equal to the Value of such Goods, (such Value to be ascertained by any Appraiser appointed by the said Sheriff for taking Replevins,) to issue an Order for the delivering up of such Goods to the said Person so claiming the same, or to cause the same to be delivered up accordingly; and the said Sheriff shall, within Eight Days from the Day of Lodgment of such Affidavit as aforesaid, transmit same to the Office of the Clerk of the Peace, to be there filed, and shall hold the said Money so deposited with him to abide the Order or Decree of the Assistant Barrister in respect of the same, as herein-after mentioned; and the Person so claiming the said Goods, and depositing the said Money with the Sheriff as aforesaid, shall cause a Civil Bill Process to be served on the Plaintiff or Party in such Decree, Order, or Process at whose Suit such Goods shall have been taken, stating that he claims the same as his Property, and the said Civil Bill shall be returnable to the Quarter Sessions for the Division of the County in which such Seizure was made next after such Deposit with the said Sheriff, provided that the same can be served on the Defendant in due Time for such next Quarter Session, and if not then to the Session for the Division next following, and not after; and the said Civil Bill as to the said Claim of Property shall be served, heard, and determined as any ordinary Civil Bill, and the said Assistant Barrister shall make a Decree or Dismiss thereon, as he shall think fit, with Costs; and if the said Claim of Property shall not be substantiated to the Satisfaction of the Assistant Barrister, then the said Sheriff shall and he is hereby required, upon the Production to him of a Dismiss in such Case, or, in case of the Non-production of a Decree for the Plaintiff therein, within Ten Days from the Termination of the Sessions at which such Civil Bill ought to have been brought, without further Order, pay over the Monies so deposited to the Defendant in such last-mentioned Civil Bill, and Credit shall be given by such Defendant for the same out of the Amount due on the original Decree, Order, or Process; and in like Manner, upon the Production to the Sheriff of a Decree in favour of the Claimant of the said Property, the said Sheriff shall pay back to the said Claimant the said Sum of Money so deposited with him as aforesaid: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the Assistant Barrister before whom such Claim of Property shall be tried, if he shall think fit, and Damages shall be claimed in the Process, to give Damages, not exceeding in any Case Five Pounds, for the original Taking of the said Goods, as well as to make an Order for the Payment of the said Deposit to the Claimant; provided also, that if any Person or Persons shall decline or refuse to deliver up the Goods so taken upon any Decree, Order, or Process under this Act, after Production to him or them of the Order of the Sheriff for that Purpose, or shall retake such Goods under the same Decree or Order under which the same were so originally taken, such Person or Persons so offending shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and liable to be punished accordingly; and in any Indictment for this Offence it shall be sufficient to allege generally that the Party knowingly and wilfully declined and refused to deliver up such Goods, or retook the same, (as the Case may be,) after Production to him of the said Order of the said Sheriff; and provided also, that nothing in this Provision contained shall debar the Party claiming the Goods as aforesaid from any Remedy to which he would have been entitled if this Act had not been passed, instead of proceeding under this Provision.

Where Goods of a Third Person are taken under a Decree, that Person on making Affidavit, and lodging the Amount of the Civil Bill, or the Value of the Goods, with Sheriff, to have Goods redelivered to him.

Claimant to bring a Civil Bill at the next Session against Plaintiff in Decree, and Barrister to make a Decree or Dismiss thereon.

Sheriff to pay the Money over to Party entitled.

Damages may be given for original Taking.

Party refusing to deliver up the Goods on Sheriff's Order, or retaking them, guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Miscellaneous Provisions.

Assistant Barristers may fine Clerks of Peace, &c. guilty of Breach of Duty; and fine or commit for disturbing Court, &c.

CLI. It shall and may be lawful for every Assistant Barrister, from Time to Time as there shall be Occasion, of his sole Authority, and at his Discretion, to fine the Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, of all Counties and Ridings respectively, and all Sheriffs of Counties and Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns respectively, where Courts for deciding Causes by Civil Bill shall be held, who shall respectively be guilty of any Breach of Duty in the Execution of this Act, in any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and, of his sole Authority, and at his Discretion, to fine in any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, or, at his Discretion, to commit to Prison for any Time not exceeding a Fortnight, any Person whomsoever who shall disturb the Court so to be held by him for the hearing and determining Causes by Civil Bill, or for any other Contempt of the said Court.

Fees specified in Schedule to be deemed lawful Fees.

Penalty for taking larger Fees.

CLII. In all Actions and Proceedings by Civil Bill the Fees specified in the Schedule (D.) to this Act annexed shall be established and be deemed and taken as the lawful Fees and Emoluments for the Discharge of the several Duties therein specified by the respective Officers therein mentioned, and no other Fees or Payments shall be recoverable for the Discharge of such Duties; and that every Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, Attorney, Sheriff, Bailiff, or Process Officer, who shall receive any greater Fee, Gratuity, or Emolument, or other Consideration, for any of the Services specified in the said Schedule, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Pounds Sterling for every such Offence, to be recovered by Civil Bill by any Person who may sue for the same.

Fees in Schedule chargeable against unsuccessful Party.

CLIII. The several Fees mentioned and set forth in the Schedule (D.) to this Act annexed in that Behalf shall be the Fees chargeable against any Party, Plaintiff or Defendant, as between Party and Party, upon any Civil Bill brought under the Provisions of this Act; and no other Fee or Charge shall be made in any Bill of Costs between Party and Party, or in any Decree or Dismiss, other than those set forth in said Schedule.

Fees payable to the Registrar of the City and County of Dublin.

CLIV. Such of the Fees specified and set forth in the said Schedule (D.) as are thereby made payable to Clerks of the Peace of the different Counties in Ireland for entering Civil Bills, and for signing Decrees or Dismisses, and signing and entering Renewals, shall be payable to the Registrar of the present Chairman of the County of Dublin, and the Clerk or Registrar of Civil Bills for the City of Dublin respectively, only in Ejectment, Replevin, and Legacy Cases, and in Cases over which an entirely new Jurisdiction is hereby created, and in all other Cases the Fees payable to the said respective Registrars at the Time of the Commencement of this Act shall remain unaltered, and continue payable to the Registrar of the Chairman of the County of Dublin, so long as the said Office of Registrar shall continue and no longer, and with respect to the Fees payable to the Registrar of the Recorder of the City of Dublin so long as the present Registrar shall continue in Office and no longer: Provided always, that upon the Death, Removal, or Resignation of the said Chairman of the County of Dublin, and upon the Death, Removal, or Resignation of the present Registrar of the Recorder of the City of Dublin, the Fees at present payable to them respectively shall cease to be so payable, and in lieu of same the respective Persons appointed to succeed said respective Registrars shall receive and be paid the several Fees by this Act appointed to be paid to the several Clerks of the Peace, and none other, and shall at the First Sessions at which they shall respectively attend after their respective Appointments, and at the Commencement of such Sessions, take and sign the Affidavit hereby appointed to be made and subscribed by Clerks of the Peace upon their respective Appointments; provided also, that from and after the Time at which the Office of Chairman of the County of Dublin shall cease by reason of the Death, Resignation, or Removal of the Person now holding said Office, and so soon as the Appointment of an Assistant Barrister for the said County shall be made in the Manner provided by this Act, the Office of Registrar of the County of Dublin shall cease and determine; and all Acts, Duties, and Functions which now by Law belong and appertain to the said Office of Registrar, or which are done or performed, or ought to be done or performed, by the said Registrar, shall belong and appertain to the Office of Clerk of the Peace for the County of Dublin, and shall be done and performed by the said Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy: Provided also, that the Practice of the said Courts of the Chairman of the County of Dublin and the Recorder of the City of Dublin in respect to the Registrars of their respective Courts shall continue during the Continuance of the Office of Chairman of the County of Dublin and of the present Registrar of the Recorder of the City of Dublin respectively, anything in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

On the Appointment of an Assistant Barrister for the County of Dublin the Office of Registrar shall cease, and the Duties be transferred to the Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy.

Table of Fees to be exposed in some conspicuous Parts of the Office of the Clerks of Peace and Court of Quarter Sessions.

CLV. Every such Registrar and every Clerk of the Peace shall and he is hereby required to cause to be constantly exposed, as well in his Office as also in some particular Place accessible to the Public in every Court of General or Quarter Sessions within his County, a fair and legible Table, painted or printed in Letters and Figures not less than One Half Inch in Length, of the Fees payable upon all Proceedings upon all Civil Bills, and likewise the Penalty to which any Person may become liable for receiving any greater Fee than is set forth in the said Schedule (D.) to this Act annexed for any of the Services therein specified; and that on Proof made on summary Application to the Court of any Neglect or Omission of such Exposure the Registrar or Clerk of the Peace so neglecting shall forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, to be paid to the Treasurer of the County within which such Penalty shall be incurred, and accounted for and applied by such Treasurer to the Aid of the Expenditure of such County; and it shall be lawful for the Grand Jury of every County, and they are hereby required, at any Assizes to be held in and for such County, to present the reasonable and actual Expense of preparing and exposing such Tables to be raised by Presentment upon such County, and to be paid to such Registrar or Clerk of the Peace.

CLVI. It

Miscellaneous Provisions.

General Orders to be made for regulating the Forms and Manner of proceeding in Civil Bill Courts.

CLVI. It shall and may be lawful for the Assistant Barristers, or for any Five of them, to be selected at a Meeting of the said Assistant Barristers to be convened for the Purpose, and they are hereby required, within Six Months after the Commencement of this Act, to make and issue such General Orders, Rules, and Regulations as they shall think fit for regulating the Forms and Manner of proceeding in the Civil Bill Courts, and for carrying the Provisions of this Act into execution, and for simplifying, establishing, and settling the Course of Practice in the said Courts, and afterwards from Time to Time to annul, alter, or vary any Order or Orders so as aforesaid made, and to make any new General Orders, Rules, and Regulations for the like Purpose; provided that any such Rules, Orders, or Regulations shall not be inconsistent with this Act, or with the Law of Ireland; such Orders, Rules, and Regulations to be submitted to the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench in Ireland, for his Approval; and Copies of all such Orders, Rules, and Regulations, when so approved, shall be transmitted to the Clerks of the Peace of the respective Counties in Ireland, to be by them kept and preserved in their Offices, and there to remain open at all Times to the public Inspection; and such Orders, Rules, and Regulations shall have the same Effect and be as binding as if they were contained in this Act.

Perjury.

CLVII. If any Person taking an Oath or making a Declaration or Affirmation in any Action, Examination, or other Proceeding under the Provisions of this Act shall wilfully and corruptly swear, declare, and affirm falsely, he shall be deemed guilty of Perjury, and shall be liable to be prosecuted and punished accordingly; and if in any such Action, Examination, or other Proceeding the Assistant Barrister shall deem any Witness or Party to have so far wilfully and corruptly sworn, declared, or affirmed falsely as that in his Opinion such Witness or Party ought to be prosecuted at the Expense of the County within which the Witness or Party shall have so sworn, or affirmed, or declared, and shall certify such Opinion in Writing, then and in every such Case, if any Prosecution be instituted, the Court in which such Prosecution shall take place shall make an Order for Payment of the Expenses of such Prosecution by the Treasurer of the County.

All Powers of Assistant Barristers, &c. under this Act conferred upon Chairman of Sessions and Recorders of Dublin and of Cork.

CLVIII. All Jurisdictions, Powers, and Authorities by this Act conferred upon the Assistant Barristers of Counties in relation to Proceedings by Civil Bill are hereby conferred upon the Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace for the County of Dublin and the Recorder of the City of Dublin, and the Recorder of the Borough of Cork: Provided always, that, so far as regards the Recorder of the City of Dublin, and the Recorder of the Borough of Cork, nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed or taken to abridge or in any Manner affect the Jurisdiction conferred on the said respective Recorders by the Acts of the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and eight, and of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-three, where such Jurisdiction shall exceed the Jurisdiction conferred by this Act; and that nothing herein contained shall be taken to alter the Mode of Appointment of a Deputy by said Recorders, or of Officers of the Court of the said Recorders, or the existing Power of such respective Recorders to appoint the proper Officers of such Courts for the Service or Execution of the Process of the same under this Act; and if any Doubt shall arise in the Application of this Act as to what Officers of such Courts shall correspond with those named in this Act under Proceedings by Civil Bill, it shall be lawful for such Courts respectively to determine the same.

Proceedings by Civil Bill under 3 & 4 Vict. c. 108., &c. to be had or taken before Recorders of Boroughs, shall be, as near as may be, in the Forms, &c. as by this Act is provided.

CLIX. 'And whereas by the Act of the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An 'Act for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in Ireland, Provision is made relating to Proceedings 'by Civil Bill before Recorders of Boroughs or Towns in Ireland; and it is thereby, amongst other things, 'enacted, that such Proceedings by Civil Bill shall be, as nearly as Circumstances will admit, in the Forms 'and according to the Course, and with such Right of Appeal to a Judge of Assize or at Nisi Prius, as is 'by Law provided in Cases of Civil Bills determinable before any Assistant Barrister, Chairman, or Re-'corder, as the Case may be: And whereas, by reason of the Repeal of former Statutes relating to Civil 'Bills, it is necessary to substitute another Provision in lieu thereof:' Be it enacted, therefore, That from and after the Commencement of this Act all Proceedings by way of Civil Bill under said recited Act, or under any other Act not hereby repealed, to be had or taken before any Recorder of a Borough or Town in Ireland other than the Recorders of the City of Dublin and Borough of Cork, shall be, as nearly as the Circumstances of the Case will admit, in the Forms, and subject to the like Provisions as to Stamps and Fees, and according to such Course, and with such Right of Appeal to a Judge of Assize or at Nisi Prius of the County or City in which for such Purpose such Borough or any Part thereof shall be situate, and subject to such other Rules and Regulations, as by this Act is provided in Cases of Civil Bills determinable before any Assistant Barrister or Chairman, and with the same Amount and Limits of Jurisdiction: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect the Manner or Times of holding the Courts of such Recorders for the Hearing of such Civil Bill Proceedings, or to abridge any existing Power of such respective Recorders to appoint the proper Officers of such Courts for the Service or Execution of the Process of the same; and if any Doubt shall arise, in the Application of this Act, as to what Officers of such Courts shall correspond to those named in this Act for the Service or Execution of Process, it shall be lawful for such Courts to determine the same.

As to Compensation to Recorders for Loss of Fees.

CLX. 'And whereas, by reason of the Repeal of former Acts relating to Civil Bills, the said Recorders, 'other than the Recorder of the City of Dublin and the Recorder of the Borough of Cork, will be deprived 'of certain Fees to which they were heretofore entitled upon Proceedings by Civil Bill before them:' Be it

Miscellaneous Provisions.

it enacted, That every such Recorder, save the Recorder of the City of Dublin, shall be entitled within Twelve Calendar Months after the passing of this Act to make a Claim before the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, for Compensation in respect of the Loss of Fees upon Civil Bill Proceedings to be sustained by him under this Act; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, in such Manner as they shall think fit, to inquire what was the average Amount of Fees upon Civil Bill Proceedings duly received by such Recorder respectively during the Seven Years next preceding the Date of such Claim, or such other Period as they may in the particular Case think fit, and what were the Fees in respect of which such Compensation should be allowed; and the said Commissioners shall award to the Persons making such Claims such Compensations as they shall think just; and all such Compensations shall be paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland: Provided always, that an Account of all such Compensations shall, within One Month after the same shall be so granted, be laid before the House of Commons, if Parliament be then sitting, and if Parliament be not then sitting, then within One Month after the then next Meeting of Parliament.

Nothing in this Act to affect Duty of Chairman of County Dublin in registering Voters by a Deputy.

CLXI. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to repeal or affect the Provision made by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend the Representation of the People of Ireland, enabling the Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace for the County of Dublin to discharge the Duties imposed upon him by that Act with regard to the Registry of Voters in and for the City of Dublin by Deputy, as therein mentioned: Provided always, that upon the Death or Resignation of the present Chairman as aforesaid it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being to nominate and appoint a practising Barrister-at-Law of Ten Years standing at the least, during good Behaviour, who shall have actually practised Ten Years in Her Majesty's Superior Courts in Dublin, and who shall not at the Time of his Appointment to such Office have retired from such Practice, to discharge the said Duties with regard to the Registry of Voters in and for the City of Dublin, as fully and effectually as if he had been appointed by a Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace of the County of Dublin under the said Act, and subject to like Provisions, and with the like Powers, and to be remunerated in like Manner, as if he had been so appointed.

Upon Death, &c. of present Chairman, Lord Lieutenant to appoint a Barrister to perform the Duties with respect to Registration of Voters.

Interpretation of Terms.

CLXII. In the Construction of this Act the several Proceedings and Duties hereby directed to be had and done in the Office of and by the Clerk of the Peace shall (as regards the County of Dublin) be had and done in the Office of and by the Registrar of the Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace of the County of Dublin, so long as such Registrar shall continue in Office, and afterwards in the Office of and by the Clerk of the Peace of the said County of Dublin, and (as regards the City of Dublin) in the Office of and by the Registrar of Civil Bills for the City of Dublin; and the Provisions of this Act in relation thereto shall extend to such Registrar of the Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace of the County of Dublin, and to such Registrar of Civil Bills; and the Expression "Assistant Barrister" or "Assistant Barristers" shall extend to and include the Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace of the County of Dublin, and the Recorder of the City of Dublin and the Borough of Cork, and the several Recorders herein mentioned, in Civil Bill Proceedings, save and except so far as relates to the Appointment, Salary, retiring Pension, and Continuance in Office of the said Recorders, or so far as it is by this Act in other respects otherwise specially provided; and wherever the Clerk of the Peace is named in this Act the Provision shall extend to the Acting or Deputy Clerk of the Peace, or other Officer discharging the Duties of a Clerk of the Peace; and whenever the Sheriff is named the Provision shall extend to the Sub-Sheriff; and that the Words "Party" and "Person," whenever used in this Act, shall extend to and include any Corporation or public Company; and that all Words importing the Singular Number or Masculine Gender shall be construed to extend to and include many Persons as well as One Person, and Females as well as Males; and the Word "County" or "Counties" shall extend to and include "Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns," and "Riding" or "Ridings" of Counties appointed for Civil Bill Purposes and for all or any Matters relating to General or Quarter Sessions; unless in any of such Cases there be something in the Context or Provision repugnant to or inconsistent with such Construction.

CAP. LIX.

An Act to continue certain of the Allowances of the Duty of Excise on Soap used in Manufactures. [1st August 1851.]

3&4 W.4.c.16. 12&13 Vict. c. 40.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, Chapter Sixteen, certain Allowances of the Duties of Excise paid on Soap were granted in respect of Soap used in certain Manufactures and Processes set forth in the said Act, and which Allowances were to cease at the End of the Session of Parliament next after the Thirty-first Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five: And whereas by subsequent Acts, and particularly by an Act passed in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter Forty, the said Allowances (except the Allowance for the whitening of new Linen in the Piece for Sale) were continued until the End of the Session of Parliament next after the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty: And whereas it is expedient that the said Allowances (except as aforesaid) should be further continued:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, Certain Allowances of the Duty on Soap continued.

I. That the said Allowances (except the Allowance of the Duty on Soap used, employed, or consumed in the whitening of new Linen in the Piece for Sale) shall continue and remain payable until the End of the Session of Parliament next after the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in like Manner as if the same had been made payable until that Time by the said first-recited Act.

An Act to prevent the Assumption of certain Ecclesiastical Titles in respect of Places in the United Kingdom. [1st August 1851.]

10G.4.c.7.s.24.

'WHEREAS divers of Her Majesty's Roman Catholic Subjects have assumed to themselves the Titles of Archbishop and Bishops of a pretended Province, and of pretended Sees or Dioceses, within the United Kingdom, under colour of an alleged Authority given to them for that Purpose by certain Briefs, Rescripts, or Letters Apostolical from the See of Rome, and particularly by a certain Brief, Rescript, or Letters Apostolical purporting to have been given at Rome on the Twenty-ninth of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty: And whereas by the Act of the Tenth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Seven, after reciting that the Protestant Episcopal Church of England and Ireland, and the Doctrine, Discipline, and Government thereof, and likewise the Protestant Presbyterian Church of Scotland, and the Doctrine, Discipline, and Government thereof, were by the respective Acts of Union of England and Scotland, and of Great Britain and Ireland, established permanently and inviolably, and that the Right and Title of Archbishops to their respective Provinces, of Bishops to their Sees, and of Deans to their Deaneries, as well in England as in Ireland, had been settled and established by Law, it was enacted, that if any Person after the Commencement of that Act, other than the Person thereunto authorized by Law, should assume or use the Name, Style, or Title of Archbishop of any Province, Bishop of any Bishopric, or Dean of any Deanery, in England or Ireland, he should for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds: And whereas it may be doubted whether the recited Enactment extends to the Assumption of the Title of Archbishop or Bishop of a pretended Province or Diocese, or Archbishop or Bishop of a City, Place, or Territory, or Dean of any pretended Deanery in England or Ireland, not being the See, Province, or Diocese of any Archbishop or Bishop or Deanery of any Dean recognized by Law; but the Attempt to establish, under colour of Authority from the See of Rome or otherwise, such pretended Sees, Provinces, Dioceses, or Deaneries, is illegal and void: And whereas it is expedient to prohibit the Assumption of such Titles in respect

of

'of any Places within the United Kingdom:' Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That—

Briefs, Rescripts, or Letters Apostolical declared unlawful and void.

I. All such Briefs, Rescripts, or Letters Apostolical, and all and every the Jurisdiction, Authority, Pre-eminence, or Title conferred or pretended to be conferred thereby, are and shall be and be deemed unlawful and void.

Persons procuring, publishing, or putting in use any such Brief, &c. for constituting Archbishops, Bishops, &c. of pretended Provinces, Sees, or Dioceses, liable to a Penalty of 100*l.* for every Offence.

II. And be it enacted, That if, after the passing of this Act, any Person shall obtain or cause to be procured from the Bishop or See of Rome, or shall publish or put in use within any Part of the United Kingdom, any such Bull, Brief, Rescript, or Letters Apostolical, or any other Instrument or Writing, for the Purpose of constituting such Archbishops or Bishops of such pretended Provinces, Sees, or Dioceses within the United Kingdom, or if any Person, other than a Person thereunto authorized by Law in respect of an Archbishopric, Bishopric, or Deanery of the United Church of England and Ireland, assume or use the Name, Style, or Title of Archbishop, Bishop, or Dean of any City, Town, or Place, or of any Territory or District, (under any Designation or Description whatsoever,) in the United Kingdom, whether such City, Town, or Place, or such Territory or District, be or be not the See or the Province, or co-extensive with the Province, of any Archbishop, or the See or the Diocese, or co-extensive with the Diocese, of any Bishop, or the Seat or Place of the Church of any Dean, or co-extensive with any Deanery, of the said United Church, the Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to be recovered as Penalties imposed by the recited Act may be recovered under the Provisions thereof, or by Action of Debt at the Suit of any Person in One of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Law, with the Consent of Her Majesty's Attorney General in England and Ireland, or Her Majesty's Advocate in Scotland, as the Case may be.

Recovery of Penalties.

Act not to extend to Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Scotland.

III. This Act shall not extend or apply to the Assumption or Use by any Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Scotland exercising Episcopal Functions within some District or Place in Scotland of any Name, Style, or Title in respect of such District or Place; but nothing herein contained shall be taken to give any Right to any such Bishop to assume or use any Name, Style, or Title which he is not now by Law entitled to assume or use.

Nothing to affect Provisions of 7&8 Vict. c. 97.

IV. Be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to annul, repeal, or in any Manner affect any Provision contained in an Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the more effectual Application of Charitable Donations and Bequests in Ireland.

CAP. LXI.

An Act for providing a Metropolitan Market and Conveniences connected therewith in lieu of the Cattle Market at Smithfield. [1st August 1851.]

'WHEREAS, for preventing the Evils attendant on the holding of the Market now holden in 'Smithfield, it is desirable that in lieu thereof a more spacious Cattle Market, with a Meat Market 'and Conveniences connected therewith, should be provided in a suitable Place more distant from the 'Centre of the Metropolis:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That,

Appointment of Commissioners.

I. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, after the Expiration of Six Calendar Months from the passing of this Act, in case the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London have not in the meantime signified, in Manner herein-after mentioned, their Desire to undertake the Execution of this Act, by Warrant under the Royal Sign Manual, to appoint Five Persons to be Commissioners under this Act, and at Pleasure to remove the Commissioners so appointed, and upon every Vacancy in the Office of any Commissioner appointed under this Act to appoint in like Manner some other Person to such Office; and the continuing Commissioners may act notwithstanding any such Vacancy; and all Powers and Duties vested in the said Commissioners by this Act may be exercised and executed by any Three of them.

Commissioners incorporated.

II. The Commissioners appointed under this Act shall for the Purposes of this Act be One Body Politic and Corporate by the Name of "The Metropolitan Cattle Market Commissioners," and by that Name shall have perpetual Succession and a Common Seal, and shall sue and be sued, and have Power and Authority (without any Licence in Mortmain) to take, purchase, and hold Lands, for the Purposes of this Act.

Commissioners may set out a Cattle and Meat Market, Slaughter-houses, and Lairs for Cattle.

III. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners to provide, build, and maintain, in such Situation as may appear to them convenient for the Purpose, and as may be approved of by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of Sate, Places for holding a Cattle Market, in lieu of the Market now holden in Smithfield, and a Meat Market, with Slaughter-houses and Lairs for Cattle brought to such Cattle Market, or intended to be slaughtered in such Slaughter-houses; and to provide, build, and maintain such Pens, Stalls, Shops, Buildings, and Conveniences for the Purposes of the said Markets, Slaughter-houses, and Lairs, as the Commissioners may think necessary; and to make and maintain all necessary and convenient Roads and Approaches to and from the Market Places, Slaughter-houses, and Lairs to be provided as aforesaid; and, with the Consent of the Owner of any existing Road, or of the Persons in whom the Management thereof may by Law be vested, to widen and improve such existing Road, for facilitating Ingress and Egress to and from such Market Places, Slaughter-houses, and Lairs; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to purchase by Agreement such Lands as they may deem necessary for the Purposes aforesaid: Provided always, that no Agreement for the Purchase of any Site for any of the Purposes aforesaid shall be made or or entered into by the Commissioners without the Consent in Writing of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Commissioners to provide for the Supply of Water and Drainage.

IV. The Commissioners shall provide for the said Market Places, Slaughter-houses, and Lairs a sufficient Supply of Water, and may procure the same from any Water Company or Persons willing to contract for the Purpose, or may execute the Works necessary to obtain such Supply from Streams, Springs, or Wells, and purchase by Agreement or take on Lease any Streams, Springs, Lands, Rights, or Easements for the Purposes of such Supply, and the Works connected therewith; and the Commissioners shall cause the said Market Places, Slaughter-houses, and Lairs to be sufficiently drained, and may (subject to any Rights and Jurisdiction vested in the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers) execute the Works necessary for the Drainage thereof, or may procure such Works to be executed by such last-mentioned Commissioners.

Power to appoint Officers.

V. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time to appoint a Secretary and a Treasurer, and such Clerks, Collectors, Inspectors, and other Officers as they may think fit, for the Purposes of this Act, and from Time to Time to remove the Officers so appointed or any of them, and, with the Approbation of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to allow to such Officers respectively such Salaries and Wages as the Commissioners may think proper.

Commissioners may make Byelaws.

VI. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time to make Byelaws, for fixing or altering the Days upon which the Markets to be holden under this Act shall or may be held, for fixing the Hours for commencing and closing the said Markets on each Market Day, the Times at which Cattle and Horses respectively shall be brought into or exposed for Sale in the Market and removed therefrom, and for the letting, occupying, holding, and using of the Pens, Lairs, Stalls, Shops, Buildings, and Conveniences, for keeping the said Market Places, Slaughter-houses, and Lairs in a cleanly and proper State, and preventing the Exercise of Cruelty therein, for preventing Nuisances or Obstructions in the said Market Places or the immediate Approaches thereto, and generally for regulating, ordering, and governing the said Markets, Slaughter-houses, and Lairs, and the Conduct of Business therein; and the Commissioners may from Time to Time alter or repeal any such Byelaws, and may by such Byelaws impose such reasonable Penalties as they think fit, not exceeding Five Pounds for each Breach of such Byelaws, but so that every such Byelaw be so framed as to allow the Justices before whom any Penalty imposed thereby may be sought to be recovered to order the whole or Part only of such Penalty to be paid; provided always, that no Byelaw of the Commissioners shall be of any Force or Effect until the same has been approved under the Hand of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and such Byelaws shall be sealed with the Seal of the Commissioners, and published as herein-after mentioned.

Power to let the Slaughter-houses and the Stalls and Conveniences in the Market.

VII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners from Time to Time to let, for such Rents or Payments and in such Manner as they may think fit, all or any of the Slaughter-houses to be provided under this Act, and such of the Stalls, Shops, Buildings, and Conveniences to be provided in or for the said Markets as the Commissioners may think may properly be exclusively occupied for a Term or Period: Provided always, that no such Letting be for any longer Term than One Year.

Table of Tolls and Payments to be fixed.

VIII. The Commissioners shall, with the Approbation of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, fix a Table of Tolls and Payments to be demanded and taken for or in respect of Cattle, Horses, and Meat brought into or exposed for Sale in the said Markets, and for or in respect of the Use of Pens, Lairs, and Conveniences provided under this Act, and may from Time to Time, with such Approbation as aforesaid, vary such Table of Tolls and Payments as they may see fit; provided always, that such Tolls and Payments do not exceed the several and respective Sums mentioned in the Schedule to this Act; and the Table of Tolls and Payments for the Time being payable under this Act shall be published as herein-after directed.

Byelaws and Table of Tolls and Payments to be set up in the Markets.

IX. Copies of all Byelaws for the Time being in force under this Act, affecting other Persons than the Officers of the Commissioners, and the Table of Tolls and Payments for the Time being payable under this Act in respect of the said Markets respectively, shall be painted in legible Characters on Boards to be set up and continued at each and every of the Entrances or in some conspicuous Position in the Place for holding the Market to which such Byelaws relate, or in respect of which such Tolls and Payments are payable; and such Boards shall from Time to Time be renewed, replaced, and restored when and so often as the same are destroyed, defaced, or removed: Provided always, that if any such Board be destroyed, defaced, or removed, such Byelaws, Tolls, and Payments shall continue in force and payable respectively during such Time as may be reasonably required for renewing, replacing, or restoring the same, in the same Manner as if the Destruction, Removal, or Defacement had not occurred.

Commissioners to report to Secretary of State when Markets provided, who is to publish Notice thereof, and of closing of Smithfield, in London Gazette.

X. When the Commissioners have provided the Market Places, Slaughter-houses, and Conveniences herein-before authorized to be provided, and fixed such Table of Tolls and Payments as aforesaid, and appointed the Market Days, and done all other Acts which may appear to them necessary previously to the opening of the said Market Places and Slaughter-houses, they shall report to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State what they have done concerning the Premises, and shall annex to such Report a Copy of the Table of Tolls and Payments fixed as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for such Secretary of State to fix a Time for the opening of the said Markets and Slaughter-houses, and by a Notice under his Hand, to be published in the London Gazette, to notify that such Market Places and Slaughter-houses have been provided, and the Time when the same will be opened, and that from the Time so mentioned Smithfield Market will cease to be a Market for the Sale of Cattle and Horses; and from and after the Time mentioned in such Notice Smithfield Market shall cease to be a Market for the Sale of Cattle or Horses, and Markets for the Sale of Cattle, Horses, and Meat shall be holden in the respective Places provided under this Act; and such Markets shall be deemed to be public Markets; and no new Market for the Sale of Cattle or Horses shall be opened in the City of London or Westminster, or the the Liberties thereof, or the Borough of Southwark, or at any Place distant less than Seven Miles in a straight Line from Saint Paul's Cathedral in the City of London.

Markets, and Care and Management of the Market Places, &c., vested in the Commissioners.

XI. The Markets to be holden under this Act, and the Tolls and Profits thereof, and, subject to the Provisions of this Act, the Care, Management, and Control of the Market Places, Slaughter-houses, Lairs, Conveniences, and Matters provided by the Commissioners under this Act, and of the said Markets, shall be vested in the Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act.

Cattle or Meat unfit for Food may be seized and destroyed.

XII. It shall be lawful for any Clerk or Inspector appointed under this Act, with or without Assistants, to inspect and examine any Cattle and Dead Meat exposed or offered for Sale in the Markets provided under this Act, or either of them, and for that Purpose to enter into any Building, Shop, Stall, Pen, or Place provided under this Act, and seize any such Cattle or Meat which may appear to him unfit for Human Food, and to report such Seizure to any Justice of the Peace having Jurisdiction in the Place; and such Justice may order such Cattle or Meat to be destroyed or otherwise disposed of in such Manner as may appear to him proper; and any Person exposing or offering for Sale as aforesaid Cattle or Meat unfit for Human Food shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Penalty.

Commissioners of Market may regulate Route and Times for driving of Cattle to and from Markets.

XIII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Market from Time to Time to make and publish Orders for regulating the Route within the Metropolitan Police District of Cattle to or from the Cattle Market to be holden under this Act, and the Times during which Cattle shall be allowed to be driven by such Routes, subject to the Approval of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and any Person driving any Cattle within the Metropolitan Police District who shall disobey any such Order shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Tolls and Payments, when and to whom to be paid.

XIV. The Tolls for the Time being fixed by such Table of Tolls and Payments as aforesaid shall become due and payable immediately on the Cattle, Horses, or Meat in respect of which such Tolls are to be taken entering or being brought into the said Market Places respectively, from any Person driving or bringing the same or causing the same to be driven or brought into or exposing or offering the same for Sale in the said Market Places respectively; and the Payments for the Time being fixed by such Table for the Use of Pens, Lairs, and Conveniences shall become due and payable from the Persons using the same at such Times as for the Time being may be fixed by such Table; and all such Tolls and Payments as aforesaid shall be collected, received, and taken, on behalf of the Commissioners, by such Collectors or Persons as they may direct.

Expenses under this Act to be defrayed out of Monies received thereunder.

XV. The Expenses to be incurred by the Commissioners in providing and maintaining the Market Places, Slaughter-houses, Lairs, Conveniences, and Matters to be provided and maintained by them under this Act, and the Salaries and Wages of the Officers appointed under this Act, and all other Expenses of the Commissioners under this Act, shall be charged upon and paid out of the Tolls, Rents, and Payments to be received by them under this Act.

Money received by Officers to be paid into the Bank.

XVI. All Tolls, Rents, and Payments which shall be received under this Act by the Officers of the Commissioners shall be by such Officers forthwith paid to the Treasurer of the Commissioners, and by such Treasurer forthwith paid into the Bank of England, to the Credit of an Account to be intituled "The Account of the Metropolitan Cattle Market Commissioners."

Treasurer, &c. intrusted with Money to give Security for duly accounting for the same.

XVII. Before the Treasurer or any Officer appointed under this Act enter upon any Office or Employment by reason whereof he will or may be intrusted with the Custody or Control of Money under this Act, the Commissioners shall require and take from him such Security for the faithful Execution of such Office or Employment, and for duly accounting for all Monies which may be intrusted to him by reason thereof, as they may think sufficient.

Payments out of the Bank.

XVIII. The Money to be paid into the Bank of England under this Act shall be paid out upon Drafts or Orders signed by the Treasurer, and countersigned by Two or more of the Commissioners.

Power to raise Money by Mortgage.

XIX. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners, for the Purposes of defraying any Expenses incurred or to be incurred by them in the Execution of this Act, and payable out of the Tolls, Rents, and Payments receivable by them under this Act, and with the Approbation of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to borrow and take up at Interest any Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds which may appear to the Commissioners necessary for defraying any such Expenses; and for the Purpose of securing the Repayment of any Sums so borrowed, together with such Interest as aforesaid, the Commissioners may mortgage and assign over to the Persons by or on behalf of whom such Sums are advanced all or any of the said Tolls, Rents, and Payments.

Commissioners of Public Works acting under 5 & 6 Vict. c. 9. may make Advances to the Board.

XX. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners acting in the Execution of the Act of the Session holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Nine, and in the Execution of any of the Acts recited in that Act, or of any Act or Acts for amending or continuing the same Acts or any of them, to make Advances to the Commissioners upon the Security of the Tolls, Rents, and Payments to be received by the Commissioners under this Act, and without requiring any further or other Security than a Mortgage of such Tolls, Rents, and Payments.

So much of 10 & 11 Vict. c. 16. as relates to Mortgages incorporated with this Act.

XXI. The Clauses of the "Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," "with respect to the Mortgages to be executed by the Commissioners," shall be incorporated with this Act; and the Word "Rates," where used in the said Clauses, shall, for the Purposes of this Act, mean the Tolls, Rents, and Payments to be received by the Commissioners under this Act; and the Sum to be appropriated and set apart by the Commissioners every Year as a sinking Fund shall be such Sum as shall be from Time to Time directed in this Behalf by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Accounts to be kept, and to be balanced.

XXII. The Commissioners shall cause Books to be provided and kept, and full and correct Accounts to be entered therein of all Tolls, Rents, and Payments, and other Monies received by them or their Officers,

Officers, and of the Application thereof, distinguishing the Times and Purposes when and for which Monies were received and paid; and the said Commissioners shall, in the Month of January in each Year, cause their Accounts to be balanced up to the Thirty-first Day of December of the preceding Year; and the Commissioners shall cause a full Statement and Account to be drawn out of all Contracts entered into, and of all Monies received and expended by virtue of this Act, during such preceding Year, under the several distinct Heads of Receipt and Expenditure, and also of all Monies then owing to the Commissioners, and of all Mortgages and other Debts then owing by the Commissioners; and the Commissioners shall give public Notice, by Advertisement to be inserted not less than twice in each of Two daily Morning Newspapers circulating in London and Westminster, that such Statement and Account is prepared and ready for the Inspection of the Mortgagees under this Act, and of the Day fixed for auditing the Accounts; and the Commissioners shall allow such Statement and Account to remain for Inspection at their principal Office; and every such Mortgagee may at all reasonable Times before the Day of Audit inspect such Statement and Account, and compare the same with the Books and Documents relating thereto in the Possession of the Commissioners, on Payment of a Fee of One Shilling for each Inspection.

An annual Statement to be prepared, and Notice to be given when ready for auditing.

Statement, &c. to remain at the Office for Inspection.

Audit of Accounts by Auditors of Public Accounts.

XXIII. The Accounts of the Commissioners shall be examined and audited by the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts of this Kingdom; and such Commissioners shall, in examining, trying, and auditing the first-mentioned Accounts, have all the Powers which are vested in them by Law for examining, trying, and auditing the said Public Accounts; and the Monies which may be received and become applicable for the Purposes of this Act shall be deemed Public Monies, and may be recovered in case of Default accordingly, but all Monies so recovered shall be paid into the said Account at the Bank of England for the Purposes of this Act.

Commissioners may contract.

XXIV. The Commissioners may enter into all such Contracts as they may think fit, for providing the Market Places, Slaughter-houses, Lairs, Conveniences, and Matters by this Act authorized to be provided, and for any other Matters in relation to the Purposes of this Act in respect of which it may appear to the Commissioners expedient to enter into Contracts.

No Purchase or Contract exceeding 1,000*l.* to be made without Approbation of Treasury.

XXV. Provided always, That no Purchase, Building, or Work, where the Purchase Money or the estimated Expense of such Building or Work exceeds One thousand Pounds, shall be made, erected, or done, or any Contract for the same entered into, by the Commissioners under this Act, without the Approbation of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Certain Provisions of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 18. incorporated with this Act.

XXVI. "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," except the Clauses of that Act "with respect to the Purchase and taking of Lands otherwise than by Agreement," "with respect to Lands acquired by the Promoters of the Undertaking, but which shall not be required for the Purposes thereof," "with respect to the Recovery of Forfeitures, Penalties, and Costs," and "with respect to the Provision to be made for affording Access to the Special Act by all Parties interested," shall be incorporated with this Act, and for the Purposes of this Act the Expression "the Promoters of the Undertaking," wherever used in the said Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, shall mean the Commissioners under this Act.

Power to dispose of Lands not wanted.

XXVII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners to sell and dispose of any Lands purchased by them under this Act which may appear to them not to be required for the Purposes thereof, and for completing and carrying any such Sale into effect the Commissioners may make and execute a Conveyance of the Lands sold and disposed of as aforesaid unto the Purchaser, or as he shall direct, and such Conveyance shall be under the Seal of the Commissioners; and the Word "grant" in such Conveyance shall have the same Operation as by the said Lands Clauses Consolidation Act is given to the same Word in a Conveyance of Lands made by the Promoters of the Undertaking; and a Receipt under the Seal of the Commissioners shall be a sufficient Discharge to the Purchaser of any such Lands for the Purchase Money in such Receipt expressed to be received; and the Money to arise from such Sale shall be applied in like Manner as other Monies received under this Act.

Annual Reports and Abstract of Accounts to be made, and sent to Secretary of State.

XXVIII. The Commissioners shall, in the Month of March in every Year, send to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State a Report of their Proceedings, and shall, where any Variation has been made in the Table of Tolls and Payments since the preceding Report of the Commissioners, show such Variation in their Report, and shall with such Report send an Account in abstract, showing the Receipt and Expenditure under this Act for such preceding Year, under the several distinct Heads of Receipt and Expenditure, with the Statement of the Allowance of the Auditors, if they have allowed such Accounts, or of the Parts, if any, which they have disapproved of such Accounts, and also a Statement of all Monies owing to and Debts owing by the Commissioners on the Thirty-first Day of December of such preceding Year; and the Commissioners shall also from Time to Time give to any One of such Secretaries of State as aforesaid such Information as he may require respecting their Proceedings.

Reports to be laid before Parliament.

XXIX. Every Report, Account in abstract, and Statement, to be sent to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State under this Act, shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within One Month after the Receipt thereof if Parliament be sitting, or if Parliament be not sitting, then within One Month after the next Meeting of Parliament.

Slaughter-houses to be licensed.

XXX. From and after the First Day of December in the Year next following that in which the Slaughter-houses provided under this Act are opened no other Place within the Metropolitan Police District, as originally constituted and defined by the Act of the Tenth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Forty-four, shall be used as a Slaughter-house without a Licence had for that Purpose from the last preceding Michaelmas Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County, Liberty, or Division in which such Place is situate (who are hereby authorized to grant such Licences where they, in their Discretion, think think proper), signified under the Hands and Seals of Four or more of the Justices there assembled, and no Fee or Reward shall be taken for any such Licence; and if any Person use as a Slaughter-house any Place within the District aforesaid, other than the Slaughter-houses provided under this Act, which is not for the Time being licensed under this Act, every Person so offending shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Penalty for obstructing Officers in Execution of this Act.

XXXI. Every Person who shall wilfully obstruct any Inspector, Collector, or other Officer or Person employed by the Commissioners, or any Person acting under his Authority, in the Execution of this Act, shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Penalty for defacing Boards.

XXXII. Every Person who shall destroy, pull down, injure, or deface any Board placed by Authority of the Commissioners in or about the Markets provided under this Act, upon which any Byelaw or Table of Tolls and Payments shall be painted or placed, shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Penalty on Officers, &c. being interested in Contracts or exacting Fees.

XXXIII. No Officer of the Commissioners shall be in anywise concerned or interested in any Contract or Work made with or executed for the Commissioners; and if any such Officer be so concerned or interested, or shall, under colour of his Office or Employment, exact, take, or accept any Fee or Reward whatsoever other than his proper Salary, Wages, and Allowances, he shall be incapable of afterwards holding or continuing in any Office or Employment under the Commissioners, and shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds, which may be recovered by any Person, with full Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt; provided that no Person, being a Shareholder of any Joint Stock Company established by Act of Parliament or by Charter, shall be prevented from being employed as an Officer of the Commissioners by reason of any Contract between such Company and the Commissioners, or of any Work executed by such Company.

Recovery of Tolls and Payments.

XXXIV. If any Person liable to the Payment of any Toll under this Act in respect of any Cattle, Horse, or Meat brought into the said Market Places respectively, or to any Payment for the Use of any Pens, Lairs, or Conveniences provided under this Act, neglect or refuse to pay such Toll or Payment when the same becomes payable under this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, or any Person in that Behalf authorized by them, to levy and recover such Toll or Payment by Distress and immediate Sale of any such Cattle, Horse, or Meat for which such Toll is payable, or of any Cattle, Horses, Meat, or other Articles brought into such Pens, Lairs, or Conveniences by the Person liable to such Payment for using the same, rendering the Overplus (if any) of the Money arising from the Sale thereof, on Demand, to the Owner of the Things sold, after deducting the reasonable Charge of the Distress and Sale; and in case any Dispute or Difference arise concerning or in consequence of any such Distress or Sale, such Dispute or Difference shall and may be settled and determined by Two Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, who are hereby empowered and required, on Application being made to them for that Purpose, to summon the Parties before them, and to hear and determine upon Oath the Matter of any Complaint which may be made concerning or in consequence of such Distress or Sale, and to make such Order therein and award such Costs to either Party as to such Justices in their Discretion shall seem meet, and by Warrant under their Hands and Seals to cause the Costs which shall be so awarded to be levied by Distress and Sale of any Cattle, Horses, Meat, Goods or Chattels, being the Property of the Party liable to pay the same, rendering the Overplus (if any) of the Money arising from the Sale thereof, on Demand, to the Owner of the Things sold, after deducting in every Case the reasonable Charges of such Distress and Sale: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent the Commissioners from suing for and recovering in any Court of Record any Sum of Money which shall become payable to them for or in respect of any such Toll or Payment as aforesaid, if default be made in Payment thereof.

Recovery of Penalties.

XXXV. Every Person who shall be liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture imposed by this Act, or by any Byelaw of the Commissioners, shall be proceeded against, and such Penalty or Forfeiture shall be recovered, enforced, and applied, in the same Manner as the Persons liable to the Penalties and Forfeitures imposed under the Act of the Session holden in the Second and Third Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Forty-seven, and such last-mentioned Penalties and Forfeitures may by Law be proceeded against, recovered, enforced, and applied respectively; and all Provisions, and Powers and Rights, which are by Law applicable to and consequent upon Proceedings against Persons liable to the Penalties and Forfeitures last mentioned, shall be applicable to the Proceedings against Persons liable to Penalties and Forfeitures under this Act, or any such Byelaw as aforesaid.

Proof of Publication of Byelaws, and Table of Tolls and Payments.

XXXVI. The Production of a written or printed Copy of the Byelaws, and of the Table of Tolls and Payments, authenticated by the Seal of the Commissioners, shall be Evidence of the Making, Approval, and Existence of such Byelaws, and of the fixing and Existence of such Table of Tolls and Payments respectively, in all Prosecutions, Actions, and Proceedings under or concerning the same; and for Proof of the Publication of such Byelaws, and Table of Tolls and Payments respectively it shall be sufficient to prove that painted Boards containing Copies thereof respectively were set up and continued in manner by this Act directed, and in case of any such Board having been destroyed, defaced, or removed, that it was renewed, replaced, or restored as soon as conveniently might be.

Power for Corporation of London to execute the Act.

XXXVII. Provided always, That if within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London shall, under their Common Seal, signify to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State that the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons desire to undertake the Execution of this Act, then, except in the Case of and after the Publication in the London Gazette of such Notice as herein-after mentioned, there shall not be made any Appointment of Commissioners sioners under this Act, but the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons shall exercise the Powers and perform the Duties which by the Enactments herein-before contained would otherwise be to be exercised and performed respectively by Commissioners under this Act.

In that Case Corporation to be subject to same Control and Liabilities as Commissioners.

XXXVIII. In case of such Signification as aforesaid, the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons shall, in respect of the Powers and Duties to be exercised and performed respectively under this Act, be subject to the same Liabilities and Control as the Commissioners appointed under this Act would otherwise have been subject to, except so far as respects the Appointment and Removal of such Commissioners, and the Incorporation, Title, and Common Seal of such Commissioners: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, if they think fit, in such Signification of their Desire to undertake the Execution of this Act, to declare their Intention to defray the Expenses to be incurred in such Execution out of their own Funds, and in such Case such Expenses shall be defrayed accordingly; and the Provisions herein-before contained appropriating and directing the Application of the Tolls, Rents, and Payments to be received under this Act, and directing the Payment thereof to the Treasurer, and directing and regulating the Payment thereof into and out of the Bank of England, shall not be obligatory on the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, but such Tolls, Rents, and Payments shall be received by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons for their own Use, and shall be paid and applied as they may direct; and the Approbation of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall not be required to the Allowance of Salaries and Wages, and to Purchases, Buildings, Works, or Contracts by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons; and the Provisions herein-before contained for the Appointment by the Commissioners of a Secretary and Treasurer for the Purposes of this Act, and for the Examination and Audit of the Accounts of the Commissioners by the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, shall not be applicable to the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons.

The Corporation of London may declare their Intention to defray the Expenses of carrying this Act into execution out of their own Funds, and in such Case the Tolls, &c. to belong to them, and certain Provisions not to be applicable.

If Corporation make default, Commissioners to execute the Act.

XXXIX. If, in case of such Signification as aforesaid, it shall, after the Expiration of Eighteen Calendar Months from such Signification, and within the Space of Three Years from such Signification, be made to appear to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and such Secretary of State shall, by Notice published in the London Gazette, declare that the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons have made default in duly executing this Act, then the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons shall, from and after the Publication of such Notice, not exercise the Powers nor be liable to the Duties to be exercised and performed respectively under this Act, but the Enactments herein-before contained shall take effect as if there had been no such Signification as aforesaid by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons.

Unless Market authorized be opened within a certain Time, Act to be void, &c.

XL. Provided always, That if the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons shall not within Six Months after the passing of this Act signify their Desire to undertake the Execution of this Act, then, unless the Cattle Market authorized to be provided under this Act be opened in pursuance of the Provisions thereof within Three Years after the Expiration of such Six Calendar Months, so much of this Act as provides that Smithfield Market shall cease to be a Market for the Sale of Cattle or Horses shall, from and after the Expiration of such Three Years, cease and be void.

Saving Rights of the City of London.

XLI. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend or shall be deemed or construed to extend to prejudice or derogate from the Estates, Rights, Interests, Privileges, Franchises, or Authority of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, or of the Lord Mayor for the Time being of the said City, save and except as by this Act is expressly provided and enacted.

Saving Rights of Her Majesty.

XLII. Saving always to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, all such Estates, Rights, Titles, Interests, Powers, Authorities, Claims, and Demands whatsoever as She or they or any of them had before the passing of this Act, or could or might have had, held, or enjoyed in case this Act had not passed.

Short Title of the Act.

XLIII. In citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament, and in legal Instruments, it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Metropolitan Market Act, 1851."

Interpretation of Terms.

XLIV. In the Construction of this Act the following Words and Expressions shall have the Meanings hereby assigned to them, unless such Meanings be repugnant to or inconsistent with the Context; (that is to say,) the Word "Commissioners" shall mean the Commissioners appointed under this Act; the Word "Cattle" shall include Sheep, Lambs, and Swine; and the Word "Horse" shall include Mare, Ass, and Mule; the Word "Slaughter-house" shall mean a Place used for slaughtering Cattle.

C A P. LXII.

An Act to alter certain Duties of Customs, and to enable the Treasury to regulate the Mode of keeping the Account between the Receiver General of Customs and the Bank of England.

[7th August 1851.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to alter the Duties of Customs now payable by Law upon the Importation of the Goods, Wares, and Merchandise enumerated and described in the Table to this Act annexed:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

After the 15th April 1851 the Duties set forth in Table shall be levied instead of those previously paid.

I. That in lieu and instead of the Duties of Customs now payable by Law upon the Goods, Wares, and Merchandise enumerated and described in the said Table, there shall, from and after the Fifteenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, upon the said Goods, Wares, and Merchandise respectively when imported into the United Kingdom, the several Duties of Customs only as inserted and set forth in Figures in the said Table to this Act annexed.

Goods in Warehouse on 16th April 1851 subject only to new Duties.

II. That such of the several Sorts of Goods as are by this Act charged with Duty as shall have been warehoused without Payment of Duty upon the Importation thereof, and which shall be in the Warehouse on the Sixteenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, shall be deemed and taken to be liable to such Duties only.

Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs.

III. That the Duties by this Act imposed shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, and shall be ascertained, raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered, and applied or appropriated under the Provisions of any Act or Acts now in force or hereafter to be passed relating to the Customs.

Treasury may regulate the Mode of Account between Receiver General of Customs and the Bank of England.

IV. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Fourth and Fifth Years of His late Majesty King William 'the Fourth, Chapter Fifteen, to regulate the Office of the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer at West- 'minster, it is enacted, "That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury from Time to Time '"to establish Rules and Regulations for keeping the Accounts of the several respective Departments of '"the Revenue with the Bank of England, and for the Payment of the Public Monies collected by such '"Departments to the Account of the Exchequer:" And whereas Doubts are entertained whether these 'Provisions, so far as they relate to the Receiver General of the Customs and to the Revenue of Customs, 'may not have been in part repealed by an Act passed in the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her present 'Majesty, Chapter Eighty-five, for the Management of the Customs:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from Time to Time to establish such Rules and Regulations for keeping the Accounts of the Receiver General of the Customs with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and also for Payment out of such Accounts of the Public Monies collected by that Department of the Revenue as they may think necessary for Her Majesty's Service, which Rules and Regulations shall be of full Force and Authority, anything in the said Act of the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her Majesty to the contrary notwithstanding.

CAP. LXIII.

An Act for the Settlement of the Boundaries between the Provinces of Canada and New Brunswick. [7th August 1851.]

'WHEREAS certain Disputes have existed respecting the Boundary Line between the Provinces of 'Canada and New Brunswick in North America; and pending such Disputes certain Funds have 'arisen from the disputed Territory, and have been received by the Governments of such Provinces respec- 'tively: And whereas, with a view to the Settlement of such Disputes, the Governor General of Canada 'and the Lieutenant Governor of New Brunswick, by the Advice of their respective Councils, agreed 'that the Matter in dispute should be referred to Arbitrators, who should be directed to report to 'Her Majesty's Government, and that such Governor General and Lieutenant Governor should each 'name an Arbitrator on behalf of the said respective Provinces, and that such Arbitrators should 'name a Third Arbitrator, the Award to be made by the Three Arbitrators or any Two of them;

'and

'and it was also agreed by such Governor General and Lieutenant Governor, with the Advice aforesaid, that the net Proceeds of the Funds in the Hands of the said Governments arising from the disputed Territory should be applied, first, to defray the Expenses of the Arbitration, second, to defray the necessary Expenses of running the (Boundary) Line as settled, (in case such Funds should prove insufficient, the Expenses to be borne equally by the respective Governments,) and, third, the Balance of such Funds to the Improvement of the Land and Water Communication between the Great Falls of the Saint John and the Saint Lawrence: And whereas, in pursuance of the Agreement in this Behalf, the Governor General of Canada named Thomas Falconer Esquire to be One of the said Arbitrators, and the Lieutenant Governor of New Brunswick named Travers Twiss Doctor of Laws to be another of the said Arbitrators, and the said Thomas Falconer and Travers Twiss named the Right Honourable Stephen Lushington, Judge of the Admiralty Court, to act as the Third Arbitrator: And whereas on the Seventeenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one the said Stephen Lushington and Travers Twiss made an Award concerning the said Boundary, and transmitted the same, together with a Plan therein referred to, to the Right Honourable Earl Grey, One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and such Award is in the following Terms:

Appointment of Arbitrators between Canada and New Brunswick.

Award of Dr. Lushington and Dr. Twiss, 17th April 1851.

'"That New Brunswick shall be bounded on the West by the Boundary of the United States, as traced "by the Commissioners of Boundary under the Treaty of Washington dated August 1842, from the Source "of the Saint Croix to a Point near the Outlet of Lake Pech-la-wee-haa-co-nies or Lake Beau, marked A. "in the accompanying Copy of a Part of Plan 17 of the Survey of the Boundary under the above Treaty; "thence by a straight Line connecting that Point with another Point to be determined at the Distance "of One Mile due South from the Southernmost Point of Long Lake; thence by a straight Line drawn "to the Southernmost Point of the Fiefs Madawaska and Temiscouata, and along the South-eastern "Boundary of those Fiefs to the South-east Angle of the same; thence by a meridional Line Northwards "till it meets a Line running East and West, and tangent to the Height of Land dividing the Waters "flowing into the River Rimouski from those tributary to the Saint John; thence along this tangent "Line Eastward until it meets another meridional Line tangent to the Height of Land dividing Waters "flowing into the River Rimouski from those flowing into the Restigouche River; thence along this "meridional Line to the 48th Parallel of Latitude; thence along that Parallel to the Mistouche River; "and thence down the Centre of the Stream of that River to the Restigouche; thence down the Centre "of the Stream of the Restigouche to its Mouth in the Bay of Chaleurs; and thence through the Middle "of that Bay to the Gulf of the Saint Lawrence; the Islands in the said Rivers Mistouche and Restigouche "to the Mouth of the latter River at Dalhousie being given to New Brunswick:" And whereas it is 'expedient that the said Boundary should be settled in conformity with the said Award:' Now, therefore, be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows;

The Line described in the Award to be the Boundary, and to be set out accordingly.

I. New Brunswick shall be bounded as in the said Award mentioned; and it shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to appoint such Person or Persons as he may think fit to ascertain, define, and mark the Boundary Line between the said Province of New Brunswick and the said Province of Canada, according to the Intent of the said Award.

The Funds accrued from disputed Territory to be applied according to the Agreement.

II. The net Proceeds of the Funds in the Hands of the local Governments of the said Provinces of Canada and New Brunswick respectively arising from the Territory heretofore in dispute between such Provinces shall be applied according to the Terms herein-before mentioned of the said Agreement concerning the same.

CAP. LXIV.

An Act to repeal the Act for constituting Commissioners of Railways. [7th August 1851.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session holden in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty (Chapter One hundred and five), for constituting Commissioners of Railways: And whereas it 'is expedient that the said Act should be repealed, and Provision be made for the Exercise and Performance of the Powers and Duties which since the passing of the said Act have been vested in or imposed 'on the said Commissioners:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

9 & 10 Vict. c. 105.

Recited Act repealed, and Powers, &c. of Commissioners of Railways under subsequent Acts transferred to Board of Trade.

I. From and after the Tenth of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one the said Act shall be repealed, and all Powers, Rights, Authorities, and Duties vested in or exercised or performed by the Commissioners of Railways under any Act passed since the passing of the said recited Act, or which may be passed during the present Session of Parliament, shall be transferred to and vested in and performed by the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council for Trade and Foreign Plantations as if they had been named in such Acts instead of the said Commissioners; and all Proceedings pending before the said Commissioners on the said Tenth of October, or carried on under their Authority, shall be continued and carried on by and before the Lords of the said Committee, who shall have, exercise, and perform the same Powers, Rights, Authorities, and Duties in respect of all such Proceedings as might have been exercised or performed by such Commissioners in case this Act had not been passed.

Power to continue Officers appointed by said Committee under this Act, all or any of the Officers and Servants appointed by the said Commissioners of Railways, and from Time to Time, with such Approval, to remove such Officers and Servants, or any of them.

Appointments, Orders, &c. of the Board of Trade how to be signified.

III. Where by any Act relating to Railways or to any Railway the Commissioners of Railways or the Lords of the said Committee are empowered or required to make or issue any Appointment, Authority, Determination, Order, Requisition, Regulation, Certificate, or Notice, or to do any other Act, the Lords of the said Committee may, after the said Tenth of October, signify such Appointment, Authority, Determination, Order, Requisition, Regulation, Certificate, Notice, or other Act by a written or printed Document, signed by One of the joint Secretaries of the Lords of the said Committee, or by some Assistant Secretary, or other Officer appointed by them to sign Documents relating to Railways; and every Appointment, Authority, Determination, Order, Requisition, Regulation, Certificate, Notice, or other Act signified by a written or printed Document purporting to be so signed as aforesaid, shall be deemed to have been duly made, issued, or done by the Lords of the said Committee; and every such Document shall be received in Evidence in all Courts and before all Justices and others, without Proof of the Authority or Signature of such Secretary or other Officer, or other Proof whatsoever, until it be shown that such Document was not signed by the Authority of the Lords of the said Committee.

CAP. LXV.

An Act to continue certain temporary Provisions relating to the Collection of Grand Jury Cess in Ireland; and also to provide for the due Annexation of an isolated District, formerly of the County of Dublin, to a Barony of the County of Wicklow, for the Purposes of Grand Jury Cess and other Purposes. [7th August 1851.]

11 & 12 Vict. c. 26.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session holden in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to remove Difficulties in the Appointment of Collectors of Grand Jury Cess in Ireland in certain Cases, and to remove Doubts as to the Jurisdiction of the Divisional Justices of the Police District of Dublin Metropolis relating to the Recovery of Poor Rates, and other Cases, it is amongst other things enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury at any Assizes in Ireland held after the passing of the said Act, and before the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, if they shall think fit, in Cases where Difficulties shall occur in the Collection of the Public Monies as therein mentioned, to present, without previous Application to Presentment Sessions, a Sum not exceeding One Shilling in the Pound on the Amount of the Collection of such Monies from such Barony or Baronies where such Difficulties shall occur, to be paid to any High Constable or Collector for his Trouble in collecting the same, and the said Provision was by an Act of 12 & 13 Vict. c. 32.

the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign further continued in force to the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one: And whereas it is expedient that the said Provision should be further continued:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

Provision of 11 & 12 Vict. c. 26. continued.

I. That the said Provision of the said first-recited Act shall be continued and be in force to the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

Recited Act 11 & 12 Vict. c. 32. continued to the End of the Year 1852.

II. 'And whereas by another Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to facilitate the Collection of County Cess in Ireland, Provision is made relating to the Collectors of Grand Jury Cess and the Payment of the same for a limited Time in Ireland: And whereas the said last-mentioned Act was by the before-mentioned Act of the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty further continued in force to the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one; and it is expedient further to continue the same for a limited Time:' Be it therefore enacted, That the last-recited Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty shall be extended and continued to the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and that the Provisions of the said Act, and the respective Powers and Authorities by the said Act given to Grand Juries at the Assizes, and to Magistrates at any Sessions, shall be respectively applied and extended to Grand Juries at any Assizes and to Magistrates at any Sessions respectively, as the Case may be, within the Period for which the said Act is hereby extended and continued.

Provisions of 12 & 13 Vict. c. 36. still in force further continued.

III. 'And whereas an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to make Provision during the present Year, and to the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, relating to the Collection of County Cess in Ireland, and to the Remuneration of the Collectors thereof; and it is expedient that the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act which are now in force should be further continued:' Be it therefore enacted, That all the Provisions and Powers of the said last-mentioned Act which are now continuing and in force shall be further continued and be in force until the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

IV. 'And whereas under the Provisions of an Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-four, and Section Fifty-one, the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland in Council was empowered, in the Cases therein mentioned, to make an Order directing that a detached or isolated Portion of a County or Barony should be annexed to or incorporated with the County or Barony wherein the same may be locally situate or by which it may be 'surrounded,

'surrounded, or if such detached or isolated Portion of a County or Barony shall lie between Two or 'more Counties or Baronies then and in such Case directing the same to be annexed to such of the 'said contiguous Counties or Baronies as he and they may think proper: And whereas, under the said 'Provisions, by an Order bearing Date on or about the Ninth Day of February One thousand eight 'hundred and forty-two, the Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council of Ireland did order that a certain 'detached Portion of the County of Dublin, which was isolated between the Counties of Wicklow and 'Kildare, should be annexed to the County of Wicklow and to the Barony of Upper Talbotstown in the 'said County: And whereas the Words "Upper Talbotstown" inserted in the said Order were inserted 'therein by a clerical Error, and instead thereof the Words "Lower Talbotstown" were intended to 'have been and ought to have been inserted therein: And whereas Inconvenience has arisen from the 'said District being so annexed to the Barony of Upper Talbotstown; and it is expedient for the 'Purposes of Grand Jury Cess and other Purposes that a new and amended Order should be issued for 'annexing the said District to the Barony of Lower Talbotstown:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland in Council, by an Order to be published in the Dublin Gazette, to cancel the said Order bearing Date on or about the Ninth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and forty-two, and to order and declare that the said District shall be annexed to the Barony of Lower Talbotstown in the County of Wicklow; and such Order when so made shall have like Force and Effect, and shall and may be carried into execution in like Manner, and with and subject to like Powers and Regulations, as any Order issued under the said recited Provision of the said last-mentioned Act; and it shall be lawful for the Grand Jury of the County of Wicklow at the Assizes, with the Approbation of the Judge or Judges of Assize, to adjust the Proportions of the Amount of Grand Jury Cess to be thenceforth paid by the respective Baronies of Upper Talbotstown and Lower Talbotstown, or other Baronies of the said County, by reason of such Change and Annexation as aforesaid, according to the respective Valuation under the Laws in force for the Time being for the Valuation of rateable Property; and the Grand Jury Cess of such respective Baronies shall be thenceforth levied and paid according to such Proportions so adjusted until otherwise altered by due Course of Law.

botstown" and "Lower Talbotstown," and authorizing Lord Lieutenant to issue a new Order in Council.

Proportions of Grand Jury Cess to be payable by such Baronies to be adjusted by the Grand Juries.

V. 'And whereas an Act was passed in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, 'intituled An Act to extend the Remedies for the Collection of Grand Jury Cess in Ireland: And 'whereas Doubts are entertained whether such Act extends to the Collection of County Cess in the 'County Dublin:' Be it enacted, That in the County of Dublin any Grand Jury Cess may be levied by like Remedies, in like Manner, and subject to like Provisions, as in the said recited Act contained and provided for the Collection of Grand Jury Cess in other Counties.

Provisions of 13 & 14 Vict. c. 82. extended to County of Dublin.

CAP. LXVI.

An Act for rebuilding the Bridge over the River Ness at the Town of Inverness, and improving the Approaches thereto; and for amending the Acts relating to Highland Roads and Bridges.

[7th August 1851.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Forty-third Year of King George the Third, Chapter Eighty, 'whereby the Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds was directed to be issued from His Majesty's 'Exchequer in Great Britain, to be paid and applied by the Commissioners thereby appointed in the 'making and erecting Roads and Bridges in the Highlands of Scotland: And whereas another Act was 'passed in the Fifty-ninth Year of His said Majesty, Chapter One hundred and thirty-five, which Act, upon 'a Recital that certain Roads and Bridges were made in the Highlands of Scotland, and that various Grants 'of Money had been made for that Purpose, provides for the Appropriation of the Monies granted in manner 'therein mentioned, and also provides for the Payment out of the Public Money of a Sum of Five thousand 'Pounds annually towards the Purposes of the said Act: And whereas another Act was passed in the 'Fourth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Fifty-six, whereby Provision was made for eventually 'increasing the Assessments leviable under the said recited Acts, or for erecting Toll Bars for the Collection of Rates and Duties or Tolls in aid or in lieu of such Assessments: And whereas another Act was 'passed in the Fifth Year of His said Majesty King George the Fourth, Chapter Thirty-eight, whereby 'specific Allotments out of the said annual Grant of Five thousand Pounds were made to the Counties 'therein mentioned in aid of the Expense of repairing the Roads and Bridges within the same; namely, 'the Sum of One thousand and sixty-six Pounds to the County of Inverness, the Sum of Four hundred 'and thirty-eight Pounds to the County of Ross, the Sum of Two hundred and twenty-two Pounds to the 'County of Sutherland, and the Sum of One hundred and fifteen Pounds to the County of Caithness; 'And whereas the said recited Acts were amended by an Act passed in the Third and Fourth Years 'of King William the Fourth, Chapter Thirty-three, and by another Act passed in the Eleventh and 'Twelfth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Forty: And whereas a very large Extent of Roads has 'been made, and a great Number of Bridges have been erected, under the said recited Acts, and great 'Benefit has been derived to the Northern Part of the Empire and to the Country at large from the 'improved Intercourse thereby effected: And whereas the Stone Bridge over the River Ness at the Royal 'Burgh of Inverness was by a Flood in the said River in the Month of January One thousand eight 'hundred and forty-nine swept away, whereby the Communication with the Northern Counties of Scotland 'has been greatly impeded, and it is essential for the restoring and maintaining of such Communication 'that the Bridge should be rebuilt; but there are no adequate available Means of defraying the Expenses 'of

'of rebuilding the same, and it is therefore expedient that Public Assistance should be afforded for this 'Purpose to the Extent and on the Conditions herein-after set forth:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

Recited Acts, except as hereby altered, to continue in force.

I. That the said recited Acts, excepting in so far as the same are hereby altered, shall continue in full Force, and shall be as effectual towards the carrying this Act and the Purposes and Provisions thereof into execution, as if the new Bridge and Approaches thereto by this Act authorized to be made and maintained were Roads and Bridges in the Care and Management of the Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges under and in virtue of the said recited Acts or any of them.

Sum of 7,700*l.* to be applied towards the Expense of the new Bridge.

II. 'And whereas, by a Resolution of the House of Commons of the Nineteenth Day of July One 'thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, the Sum of Seven thousand seven hundred Pounds was granted to 'Her Majesty towards the Erection of a new Bridge at Inverness:' Be it enacted, That the said Sum of Seven thousand seven hundred Pounds shall be applied by the said Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges towards the Expense of erecting and constructing the new Bridge by this Act authorized to be made and maintained, in such Manner as shall be approved of by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and to no other Purpose whatsoever.

Treasury authorized to advance 10,700*l.* by way of Loan.

III. That it shall be lawful for the said last-mentioned Commissioners to advance by way of Loan to the said Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges, for the Purposes of this Act, any further Sum not exceeding Ten thousand seven hundred Pounds, out of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to be repaid, with Interest, in manner herein-after provided.

Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges to deduct or repay certain Proportions from County Allotments, to be applied in Payment of Interest and Repayment of Capital of the Sum advanced in Loan.

IV. That to make Provision for Payment of the annual Interest and for Repayment of the Capital of the said Sum of Ten thousand seven hundred Pounds to be advanced in Loan as aforesaid there shall, upon the Advance by the said Commissioners of the Treasury of all or any Part of the said Loan of Ten thousand seven hundred Pounds, be appropriated to the Repayment of the Sum advanced, and Interest thereof, such Part of the Sums allotted as herein-before mentioned to the said Counties of Inverness, Ross, Sutherland, and Caithness, out of the said annual Grant of Five thousand Pounds, as will produce an annual Payment at the Rate of Six Pounds Ten Shillings for every One hundred Pounds of the Sum so advanced, and so in proportion for any lesser Amount, and such annual Payment shall be made for the Term of Twenty-two Years, to be computed from the Sixth Day of April or Tenth Day of October which shall first happen after such Advance, and such annual Payment shall be made by equal Half-yearly Payments on the Sixth Day of April and Tenth Day of October in every Year, the First of such Payments to be made on the Second of such Days which shall happen after the making of such Advance; and such annual Payment of Six Pounds Ten Shillings per Cent. upon the Sum or Sums to be advanced in Loan as aforesaid shall be chargeable rateably and proportionally upon the Sums allotted as aforesaid to the Counties of Inverness, Ross, Sutherland, and Caithness respectively, and shall either be deducted from the Sums so allotted before the Issue thereof to the said Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges, or, as the said Commissioners of the Treasury may direct, shall, if issued, be repaid by the said Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges to the said Commissioners of the Treasury, in satisfaction and extinction in either Case of the said Loan and Interest thereof as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the said last-mentioned Commissioners from Time to Time to give such Directions to the said Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges in regard to the Payment to the Treasury of the Sums to be deducted as aforesaid as to the said Commissioners of the Treasury shall seem proper, and the said Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges shall comply with such Directions in all respects until the said Loan shall be wholly repaid as aforesaid.

Sums deducted to be deemed Monies expended on Highland Roads, &c. under recited Acts.

V. Provided always, That the Sums so to be deducted and applied shall, as regards the Powers of Assessment on the said Counties contained in the said recited Acts or any of them, and for the Purpose of regulating the Amount of such Assessment, be deemed and taken to be Monies applied and expended in the Maintenance and Repair of the Parliamentary and Military Roads in the said several Counties respectively under and by virtue of the said recited Acts.

Commissioners of Supply authorized to levy increased Assessment under the recited Acts to supply Deficiencies.

VI. That for supplying the Deficiency to arise by the Deductions from the said several Sums allotted to the said several Counties as aforesaid, or by the Expense which it may be necessary to incur for maintaining and repairing the said Bridge when finished, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Supply in each of the said several Counties of Inverness, Ross, Sutherland, and Caithness respectively to increase the Amount of the Assessment to be made in each of the said Counties by the Amount of the Sum which shall have been or shall be in each Case deducted and applied by the said Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges as aforesaid, with such and the like Powers and Authorities for enforcing the Payment thereof, and subject to such and the like Conditions and Restrictions, as are in that Behalf contained or imposed in or by the said recited Acts or any of them.

Deposited Plan, Sections, and Book of Reference to be open for Inspection.

VII. 'And whereas a Plan of the new Bridge, Approaches, and other Works to be made and main-'tained under the Authority of this Act, and Sections showing the Line and Levels thereof, and also a 'Book of Reference containing the Names of the Owners, Lessees, and Occupiers of the Lands in, through, 'or into which the same are intended to be made, have been deposited with the Sheriff Clerk of the County 'of Inverness, and with the Town Clerk of the Burgh of Inverness, at their respective Offices in 'Inverness:' Be it enacted, That such Plans, Sections, and Books of Reference shall be kept by the said Clerks, who shall permit all Persons interested to inspect the same at all seasonable Times, and shall make make or allow to be made Copies thereof or Extracts therefrom for any Person requiring the same, on being paid the Sum of One Shilling for every such Inspection, and at the Rate of Sixpence for every One hundred Words copied.

Errors, &c. may be corrected by Sheriff of Inverness, who shall certify the same.

VIII. That if any Omission, Mis-statement, or erroneous Description shall have been made of any Lands, or of the Owners, Lessees, or Occupiers of any Lands, described on the said Plan or in the said Book of Reference, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges to apply to the Sheriff of the County of Inverness for the Correction thereof, after giving Ten Days Notice to the Owners of the Lands affected by such proposed Correction; and if it shall appear to the Sheriff that such Omission, Mis-statement, or erroneous Description arose from Mistake, he shall certify the same accordingly, and shall in his Certificate state the Particulars of any such Omission, and in what respect any such Matter shall have been mis-stated or erroneously described, and such Certificate shall be deposited in the Office of the Principal Sheriff Clerk of the County of Inverness, and in the Office of the Town Clerk of Inverness, and also with the Session Clerk of the United Parishes of Inverness and Bona at his usual Place of Residence, and such Certificates shall be kept by such Sheriff Clerk, Town Clerk, and Session Clerk respectively along with the other Documents to which the same relate, and thereupon such Plan or Book of Reference shall be deemed to be corrected according to such Certificate, and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to make the said Works in accordance with such Certificate.

Certificate to be deposited.

Copies of Plan, &c. to be Evidence.

IX. That true Copies of the said Plan, Sections, and Book of Reference, or of any Alteration or Correction thereof or Extracts therefrom, certified by such Sheriff Clerk or Town Clerk, which Certificate such Sheriff Clerk or Town Clerk shall give to all Parties interested when required, shall be received in all Courts of Justice or elsewhere as Evidence of the Contents thereof.

Provisions of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 19. incorporated with this Act.

X. That in so far as applicable and not inconsistent with or not otherwise provided for or not varied by this Act, "The Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845," shall be incorporated with and form Part of this Act.

As to Construction of new Bridge, Approaches, and other Works.

XI. That, subject to the Provisions of this Act and of the Acts herein-before recited and the Act incorporated herewith, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges to make, build, and maintain a new Bridge over the River Ness of such Form and Dimensions and of such Materials as they may think fit, with the Approaches thereto and other Works described upon the said Plan, in the Situation and upon the Lands delineated thereon and described in the said Book of Reference, and also to make, build, and maintain all necessary and proper Abutments, Ramparts, Piers, Walls, Banks, Weirs, Ways, and other Works for laying and securing the Foundation, and for the Use, Protection, and Support of the said new Bridge, and to enter upon, take, and use such of the said Lands, and such Parts of the Bed or Channel and of the Banks of the said River, as shall be necessary for these Purposes: Provided always, that before commencing the Construction of the said Bridge, Approaches, and other Works the Plans thereof shall be submitted to and be approved in Writing by the said Commissioners of the Treasury.

Power to deviate in Construction of Works.

XII. That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges in executing the said Works to deviate from the Line delineated on the said Plan to the Extent or Distance of the Limits of Deviation marked thereon, provided that the Works shall not by means of such Deviation be made to extend into the Lands of any Person whose Name is not mentioned in the said Book of Reference without his previous Consent in Writing, unless the Name of such Person shall have been omitted by Mistake, and the Fact that such Omission proceeded from Mistake shall have been certified in manner herein-before provided.

Plans and Working Drawings to be deposited at the Admiralty Office for Approval.

XIII. That previously to constructing the said Bridge, or any Part of the Works connected therewith, the said Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges shall deposit at the Admiralty Office, Whitehall, Plans and Working Drawings of the Bridge and Works connected therewith, for the Approval of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and, notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, the said Bridge and Works connected therewith shall be commenced and constructed only according to such Plan as shall be previously approved of by the said Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, such Approval to be signified in Writing under the Hand of the Secretary of the Admiralty; and if any Bridge or Work shall be commenced or completed contrary to the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Admiral, or the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, to abate and remove the same, and to restore the Site thereof to its former Condition, at the Cost and Charge of the said Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges, and the Amount thereof shall be a Debt due to the Crown, and be recoverable accordingly.

Works, &c. vested in Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges.

XIV. That the said Bridge, Approaches, and other Works, and all the Materials used in the Construction thereof, shall be vested in the said Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges, as well during the Construction thereof as after the same shall be completed, in such and the like Manner, and to the like Effect and Purpose, as if the said Bridge, Approaches, and other Works had been made and completed under the said recited Acts or any of them.

Period for compulsory Purchase of Lands limited.

XV. That the Powers granted by this Act and the Act incorporated herewith for the compulsory Purchase of Lands for the Purposes of this Act shall not be exercised after the Expiration of Five Years from the passing of this Act.

Power to acquire Spaces

XVI. That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges to acquire by Purchase, Feuing, Lease, or otherwise, and it shall be lawful for all Persons whatsoever, though under for storing Materials.

any legal Disability, to sell, feu, let, or convey to them, all such Lands, Buildings, or Heritages as the said Commissioners shall deem necessary for making convenient Places for breaking and storing Materials, and depositing Mud, Sand, or other Matter removed from any of the Roads under their Charge; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners and the Owners and Occupiers of such Lands, Buildings, or Heritages to contract and agree for the Value thereof, or for the Loss or Damage to be occasioned by the making of such Places accordingly.

Tolls to be leviable on Stage Coaches, &c. on every Time of passing or repassing.

XVII. That the Tolls made payable and levied by and under the said recited Acts or any of them shall be paid for and in respect of all Horses or Beasts of Draught drawing any Stage Coach, Diligence, Van, Caravan, or Stage Waggon, Stage Cart, or other Stage Carriage conveying Passengers or Goods for Pay or Reward, every Time of passing or repassing any Toll Bar erected or to be erected and maintained under the Authority of the said recited Acts or any of them; provided that no such Stage Coach or Stage Carriage shall be liable on account of any Change of Horses for any Toll Duty not otherwise exigible.

Tolls not to be levied on the Bridge or Approaches.

XVIII. Provided always, That it shall not be lawful to levy any Toll, Pontage, or Rate upon, for, or in respect of the said Bridge or the Approaches to be made thereto in virtue of this Act, but from and after the Completion of the said Bridge and Approaches the same shall be and remain open and free to the Use of the Public in all Time coming.

Saving Rights of the Crown.

XIX. That nothing contained in this Act or in the Act incorporated herewith shall extend to authorize the said Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges to purchase, take, or use any Land or Soil, or any Rights in respect thereof, belonging to Her Majesty in right of Her Crown, without the Consent in Writing of the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, or any Two of them, first had and obtained for that Purpose, and which such Commissioners, or any Two of them, are hereby authorized and empowered to give, or to prejudice, diminish, alter, or take away any of the Rights, Privileges, Powers, or Authorities vested in or enjoyed by Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors.

CAP. LXVII.

An Act to repeal so much of an Act of the Twelfth Year of King George the Third, relating to the making, keeping, and Carriage of Gunpowder, as exempts therefrom certain Gunpowder Magazines and Stores near Liverpool, and to make certain temporary Provisions with regard to the said Magazines and Stores. [7th August 1851.]

12 G. 3. c. 61.

'WHEREAS by the Act of the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, Chapter Sixty-one, certain Provisions were made for the safe-keeping of Gunpowder in Great Britain, and for providing Magazines for that Purpose, and for other Purposes relating thereto; but it was thereby (amongst other Exemptions) provided that that Act should not extend or be anyways construed to extend to the keeping of Gunpowder at the Magazines or Storehouses then erected near Liverpool in the County of Lancaster: And whereas the said Magazines or Storehouses referred to as aforesaid are situate in the Township of Liscard in the Parish of Wallasey in the County of Chester, on the Side of the River Mersey opposite to Liverpool, and are now used for the Storage of large Quantities of Gunpowder by Lessees under Leases granted by the Corporation of that Town: And whereas the keeping of Gunpowder in the said Magazines or Storehouses is extremely dangerous to the Inhabitants in the immediate Neighbourhood, and to the Town and Docks of Liverpool, and the Shipping in that Port; and it is expedient that the Exemption of the said Magazines or Storehouses in the said recited Act contained should be repealed, after a Time allowed for providing more suitable Magazines for the Purpose, and that in the meantime Precautions should be taken in relation to the said Magazines or Storehouses, and that Provision should be made for the Establishment and Regulation of such more suitable Magazines:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Exemption in recited Act as to certain Storehouses repealed after Ten Months from Notification of suitable Moorings for Vessels in the Mersey is provided.

I. So much of the said Act as exempts from the Operation thereof the keeping of Gunpowder at the Magazines or Storehouses aforesaid shall be repealed from and after the Expiration of Ten Months after such Notification in the Gazette of the Appointment of suitable Places for the Mooring of Vessels in the River Mersey as is herein-after provided, and the said Magazines or Storehouses shall thenceforth cease to be used for the Storage or keeping of Gunpowder; and any Person thereafter having or keeping, or permitting to be had or kept, in the said Magazines or Storehouses or any of them, at any One Time, more than Two hundred Pounds of Gunpowder, shall be subject to the Penalties imposed by the said Act upon any Person being a Dealer in Gunpowder having or keeping at any One Time more than Two hundred Pounds of Gunpowder in any Magazine or Storehouse within any City, Borough, or Market Town of Great Britain, and all the Provisions of the said Act in relation to the Penalties thereby imposed shall be applicable to the Penalties imposed by this Act.

Regulations as to the Use of the Magazines previously to their Discontinuance.

II. Provided, That after the passing of this Act, and until the Time by this Act appointed for the Discontinuance of the said Magazines or Storehouses for the Storage or keeping of Gunpowder, the said Magazines and Storehouses may be used for the Storage or keeping of Gunpowder under the following Conditions, and not otherwise; viz. the Lessees and Occupiers and all Persons having the Care and Control of the said Magazines or Storehouses shall observe and perform all such Regulations and Directions

Directions in relation to the Care and Management of the said Magazines and Storehouses, and the Quantity of Gunpowder to be at any One Time stored in the said Magazines and Storehouses and the Storage of the Gunpowder therein, and the bringing or Removal of Gunpowder into or from the same, as shall be from Time to Time prescribed by the Master General of Her Majesty's Ordnance; and all such Regulations and Directions shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall take effect at such Time as shall be therein mentioned in this Behalf, or, if no Time be mentioned, then at the Expiration of Seven Days after such Publication thereof; and if any Lessee or Occupier or Person having the Care and Control of the said Magazines or Storehouses or any of them make any wilful Neglect or Default in the Observance or Performance of the said Regulations and Directions, he shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Lord High Admiral, with Approval of the Master General of the Ordnance and the Conservators of the River Mersey, may appoint Places for mooring Vessels for storing Gunpowder in the said River.

III. The Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for the Time being for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, may, with the Approval of the Master General of Her Majesty's Ordnance, and of the Commissioners for the Conservancy of the River Mersey, appoint suitable Places in such River for the mooring of Vessels to be used for the Reception and Storage of Gunpowder by the Lessees of the said Magazines or Storehouses, their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, or any of them, Notice of which Appointment shall be inserted in the London Gazette; and the said Lord High Admiral or the first-mentioned Commissioners may from Time to Time, upon the Application of any other Persons desirous of mooring Vessels in the said River for the like Purposes, and with such Approval as aforesaid, appoint any other suitable Places in the said River for the mooring of such Vessels; and, subject to the Regulations and Directions to be made and given under this Act, Vessels suitable for the Reception and Storage of Gunpowder may be moored, provided, and kept in the Places for the Time being appointed as aforesaid, and may be used as Magazines for Gunpowder; and, subject to such Regulations and Directions, such Vessels shall be exempted from the Operation of the recited Act, in like Manner in all respects as the Magazines or Storehouses near Liverpool therein mentioned were thereby so exempted.

Ordnance to appoint Officer to superintend Stores, with Authority to enforce Regulations.

IV. That an Officer shall be appointed by the Master General of the Ordnance to superintend the said Stores; and that the said Officer so appointed shall have Authority to enforce such Regulations as shall be deemed necessary by the Board of Ordnance in the Management of such Stores, and shall be required to enforce the same; and that such Officer shall be required to report from Time to Time to the Board of Ordnance all Cases of Neglect of such Regulations on the Part of Persons engaged in the Gunpowder Trade in the River Mersey, or in the Management of such Stores.

Power to discontinue Places appointed, and to appoint others.

V. Provided always, That if it be represented to the said Lord High Admiral or first-mentioned Commissioners that any Place in the said River for the Time being appointed under this Act for the mooring of such Vessels as aforesaid is or has become unsafe or unsuitable for such Purpose, it shall be lawful for him or them to cause Inquiry to be made thereon, and, if he or they think fit, to order that such Place shall, after such Time as he or they may limit in this Behalf, cease to be a Place for mooring Vessels to be used as Magazines for Gunpowder under this Act; and Notice of such Order shall be given by delivering or leaving a Copy thereof, signed by the Secretary for the Time being of the Admiralty, on board every such Vessel moored in such Place as aforesaid, or shall be published in the London Gazette; and it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Admiral or first-mentioned Commissioners thereupon, with such Approval as aforesaid, from Time to Time to appoint any other Place in the said River for the mooring of Vessels to be used for the Reception and Storage of Gunpowder in lieu of any Place discontinued under this Provision.

Master General of the Ordnance may make Regulations concerning Vessels moored in the River Mersey.

VI. It shall be lawful for the Master General of Her Majesty's Ordnance from Time to Time to make and give all such Regulations and Directions in relation to the Construction of the Vessels to be moored at the Places appointed under this Act, and the Mode of storing Gunpowder therein, and for limiting the Quantities of Gunpowder to be kept therein, and in relation to the Care and Management of such Vessels, and for the safe keeping of such Gunpowder, and in relation to the receiving and delivering of Gunpowder into and from the said Vessels, as to such Master General may seem proper; and the Officers of the Board of Ordnance shall have Power at all Times to enter the said Vessels and every Part thereof, and to examine any Person found therein touching the Observance of the said Regulations and Directions; and such Regulations and Directions shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall take effect at such Time as shall be therein expressed in that Behalf, or if a Time be not so expressed, then at the Expiration of Seven Days after such Publication thereof; and if any Owner, Lessee, or Occupier of any such Vessel, or any Person having the Care or Control of any such Vessel, wilfully fail in the due Performance or Observance of such Regulations and Directions, or if any Person use for the Reception or Storage of Gunpowder any Vessel in the said River, not being a Vessel moored in a Place appointed (and for the Time being continuing to be a Place) for mooring Vessels for that Purpose, he shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Penalty on Persons failing to observe such Regulations.

Power to Corporation to pay 9,780*l.* to the Lessees of Storehouses, and thereupon the Interest of the Lessees to cease.

VII. 'And whereas the existing Leases of the said Magazines or Storehouses at Liscard are for long 'Terms of Years at nominal Rents, and were obtained for valuable Consideration paid or given to the 'Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Liverpool (in this Act called the Corporation) for 'the granting thereof, and with the Intention, on the Part of the Corporation and the Lessees respectively, that such Magazines or Storehouses should be used for the Storage or keeping of Gunpowder: 'And whereas the Corporation are willing to pay to the Lessees the Sum of Nine thousand seven hundred and eighty Pounds on condition that the Term and Interest whatsoever of the Lessees in the said 'Magazines or Storehouses, with the Appurtenances, shall thereupon cease; and the Lessees are willing 'to accept that Sum in full of all their Claims and Demands whatsoever with respect to the said Magazines or Storehouses upon the Corporation and the Inhabitants of Liverpool:' Be it therefore enacted, That the Corporation shall, on Demand, pay to the Lessees the clear Sum of Nine thousand seven hundred and eighty Pounds, and immediately on such Payment being made all the Term, Right, and Interest whatsoever both at Law and in Equity of the Lessees and every of them under or by virtue of the several now existing Leases of the said Magazines or Storehouses, or any of them, or any Part thereof respectively, shall absolutely cease and determine, and the Payment by the Corporation to the Lessees of that Sum shall be full Satisfaction of all the Claims and Demands whatsoever of the Lessees and every of them under or by virtue of those Leases respectively, and by reason of the Operation of this Act upon or against the Corporation and the Inhabitants of Liverpool respectively.

9,780*l.* to be paid out of Borough Fund of Liverpool.

VIII. The said Sum of Nine thousand seven hundred and eighty Pounds shall be paid by the Corporation out of the Borough Fund of the Borough of Liverpool, or by or out of any Money which the Corporation shall duly raise by Bond or Mortgage on the Credit of the Borough Fund.

Meaning of "Lessees."

IX. The Word "Lessees" in this Act shall mean the several Persons named as the respective Lessees in the several Leases of the said Magazines and Storehouses at Liscard or any Part thereof respectively which have been granted by the Corporation since the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and the Survivors and Survivor of them respectively, and the Executors and Administrators of such respective Survivors.

Power to Three or more Lessees to demand Payment.

X. The Demand on the Corporation for the Payment to the Lessees of the said Sum of Nine thousand seven hundred and eighty Pounds may be made by any Three or more of the Lessees on behalf of themselves and all the other Lessees, and shall be made by Writing delivered to or at the Office of the Town Clerk of the Borough of Liverpool.

Payment by Corporation to Three or more of the Lessees to be sufficient.

XI. The said Sum of Nine thousand seven hundred and eighty Pounds may be paid by the Corporation to such Three or more of the Lessees for and on behalf of themselves and all the other Lessees as the Corporation think fit, and such Three or more of the Lessees may receive the same, and their Receipts for the same shall be effectual Discharges for the same, and the said Sum of Nine thousand seven hundred and eighty Pounds, when so received, shall be apportioned by them among themselves and the other Lessees, according to their respective Interests, but the Corporation shall not be bound to see to the Apportionment or to the Application of the said Sum of Nine thousand seven hundred and eighty Pounds, or any Part thereof, or be liable for the Nonapplication or Misapplication thereof: Provided always, that in making such Apportionment each of the Sixteen Compartments into which the said Magazines or Storehouses are divided shall with the Appurtenances be deemed of the Value of Six hundred and eleven Pounds Five Shillings.

C A P. LXVIII.

An Act to provide for the better Distribution, Support, and Management of Medical Charities in Ireland; and to amend an Act of the Eleventh Year of Her Majesty, to provide for the Execution of the Laws for the Relief of the Poor in Ireland. [7th August 1851.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the better Distribution, Support, and Management of certain of the Medical Charities in Ireland, and to amend for this Purpose the Provisions of an Act passed in the Eleventh Year of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to provide for the Execution of the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

10 & 11 Vict. c. 90.

Appointment of Commissioners to act with Poor Law Commissioners.

I. That it shall and may be lawful for Her Majesty the Queen, by Warrant under Her Sign Manual, from Time to Time to appoint Two Persons (One of whom shall be a Physician or Surgeon of not less than Ten Years standing, and shall have the Title of Medical Commissioner,) who, together with the Commissioners appointed under the Provisions of the aforesaid Act of the Eleventh Year of Her Majesty, shall, from the Time of the Publication herein-after directed to be made in the Dublin Gazette, be "the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland," within the Meaning of the aforesaid Act, pursuant to, and with the Powers and Authorities given by, the said Act, and the several Acts for the more effectual Relief of the destitute Poor, and also for executing this Act, and such Two Persons so appointed under this Act shall hold Office during the Pleasure of Her said Majesty; and immediately on the Publication aforesaid the Office of Assistant Commissioner created by the said first-mentioned Act shall cease and determine; and in the Absence of the Chief Commissioner for the Time being in the said Act mentioned the Powers, Duties, and Functions of the said Chief Commissioner under the said Act shall be exercised by such One of the other Commissioners as shall be appointed so to act by a Majority of the Commissioners, with the Approval of the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

Appointment of Commissioners to be published in Gazette.

II. Notice of the Appointment of such Two Persons by Her Majesty shall be published in the Dublin Gazette, and on the Day after the Publication of the first Appointment of such Persons all the Powers and Authorities given by this Act to the said Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland shall take effect, and shall be exercised by them, in like Manner as the Powers and Authorities given to the Commissioners appointed under the said Act of the Eleventh Year of Her present Majesty: Provided always, that any Order for the Formation or Alteration of any Dispensary District or Districts under this Act, as herein-after mentioned, or for framing or establishing any General Rules or Regulations relating thereto, or altering or revoking the same, shall be signed by not less than Two of the said Commissioners.

Powers given by this Act how to be exercised.

Appointment of Inspectors.

III. The said Commissioners may from Time to Time appoint so many fit Persons as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall sanction, being practising Physicians or Surgeons of not less than Seven Years
